GERMAN CITIES BOMBED BY BRITISH AIR FORCES DURING REMARKABLE RAID

SIXTY TONS OF EXPLOSIVES DROPPED IN GERMAN TERRITORY AND 120 TONS ON WESTERN BATTLEFRONT IN COURSE OF WEEK

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
London, Sept. 21.—The achievement of the British air forces in the last week have been among the most remarkable of the war. From information supplied by the air ministry, sixty tons of bombs have been dropped on German territory, in five days by British machines. This exceeds the record for any previous fortnight.

These drastic methods have been put into effect against poison gas and airplane factories at Manneheim, the Daimler works at Stuttgart, the railway station at Frankfurt and the docks and sidings at Karlsruhe. Their destructive effort is shown by photos.

Aerial assaults over the battle area also have been numerous. Acting in conjunction with the Franco-American offensive, 35 separate raids were made between September 13 and 16 against important enemy airdromes and railway junctions. Thirteen of them were against the Metz-Sablonville railroad.

Altogether British airmen have dropped 120 tons of bombs on the western battlefield in the course of the week, exclusive of explosives dropped in Germany. Nineteen tons were dropped on Bruges and other German coastal defences. In the air fighting, 17 enemy machines were destroyed and nine disabled, while five British planes were lost. The number of German machines destroyed altogether in the week was 101, while 37 were disabled. The British losses totalled 50.

LABOR ELECTS NEW OFFICERS FOR CONGRESS

J. C. Watters and James Simpson Both Defeated; Vancouver Man as Vice-President

Quebec, Sept. 21.—The Trades and Labor Congress selected new officers for the new year, at a session yesterday afternoon, and the result of the voting was a defeat for several of the men who governed the organization last year. J. C. Watters was beaten for the presidency by Thomas Moore of Niagara Falls, by 155 votes to 195.

James Simpson, of Toronto, disappears from the list of vice-presidents, but P. M. Draper, Secretary Treasurer of the Congress, though challenged for this office by J. Russell, of Winnipeg, easily retained it. The struggle for election to three vice-presidencies was keen and one delegate alleged what he described as "crooked work" in voting. A. M. Martel, of Montreal, and R. Baxter, of Blaine Bay, were soon elected by large majorities; David Rees, of Vancouver, and Alex McAndrew, of Moose Jaw, contended for third place. Five ballots were required before Rees was declared elected.

Those interested in the salmon fisheries are asked to meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the City Hall.

GERMANY IS HAVING INTERNAL TROUBLES

Paris, Sept. 21.—In case of aggravation of the internal situation in Germany, which continues to grow, the German Government has taken steps to assure "rapid and pitiless regression" in case of revolt, a Zurich dispatch says.

SCOTSMEN OUST GERMAN FORCES FROM MOEUVRES; FRENCH ADVANCE

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
London, September 21.—Scottish troops yesterday morning finally overcame the resistance of the Germans still in the village of Moeuvres, west of Cambrai where there has been such violent fighting recently, and completely recaptured the village.

Paris, Sept. 21.—French troops have made progress east of Essigny Le Grande and Moissy farm, on the Picardy front, south of St. Quentin, according to the last official statement issued. Artillery activity continues in the region of St. Quentin and along the Aisne sector.

The progress of General Mangin's army toward the western extremity of Chemin des Dames has driven the enemy to violent reactions. Five vigorous counter attacks were made during last night against the new French positions east of Moissy farm and north of Allemant. In every one of these unsuccessful attacks the Germans lost heavily.

The French troops have stoutly maintained all gains made in this region during the past few days, and in spite of intense artillery fire, have succeeded in organizing their new positions. They are now less than a mile from the height on which stand the ruins of fort Malmaison.

Aberdeen, Wash., Sept. 21.—Circulars urging a general strike until Oct. 1 in protest against "Acts of capitalist class in imprisoning Haywood, Debs and Mooney" were scattered broadcast last night among the mills in this district by persons whose identity has not been learned. BRITISH CAVALRY PURSUE ENEMY AND GET TO REAR OF MAIN ARMIES AND INTERCEPT RETREAT; RIGHT WING OPERATING WEST OF JORDAN

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

London, Sept. 21.—The British forces in Palestine under the command of General Allenby attacked the Turkish positions on a front of sixteen miles on September 19. The British broke through the Turkish lines between Rafat and the sea and pushed forward for a distance of 12 miles. Three thousand Turks were taken prisoner by General Allenby's forces. The main Turkish forces in Palestine are now being closely pursued by the British. Cavalry pushed through the Turkish front and was advancing in

ENTERTAINERS COMING HERE NEXT TUESDAY

Many Famous Men and Women At the Chautauqua Festival to Be Held Next Week.

Something new in the life of the people of Prince Rupert is the big Chautauqua Festival which commences on Tuesday next. There will be a series of lectures and entertainments by famous American speakers and singers, all of whom are men and women of note in their particular lines. Take as an example Capt. W. J. Hindley, formerly the mayor of Spokane. He has lectured in British Columbia a number of times and wherever he goes he draws a big audience. He has visited Victoria and Vancouver on several occasions and his lectures have been, not only, models of oratory, but they have sparkled with anecdotal wit and been permeated with good sound common sense. As a forceful and convincing speaker he has few rivals in the West.

Famous Artists.

The festival is strong on music. There is H. Ruthven Macdonald, a popular entertainer and baritone singer who is a wonder when it comes to providing enjoyment; the Ladies Festival Orchestra of six bright, clever girls give a varied programme that is worth the price of admission to the whole course; the Filior Concert Party provide a famous violinist, a soprano and a pianiste, all masters in their art, who provide real music of the appealing kind that everyone likes to hear, and then last, but perhaps greatest of all is the newspaper editor and public speaker, Dr. William Rader, who is generally known as one of the greatest speakers of America.

Touring the Continent.

This party of entertainers and instructors have been touring America and Canada and will come here from Alaska where they have been carrying the messages of music and oratory to the far off points in the north. They will come here fresh from the invigorating life of the camps and will bring the messages of the miner and fisherman to the miners and fishermen and lumbermen here. The occasion is a most important one and is being looked forward to with keen anticipation by many who know something of the treat that is in store.

By request of the merchants of Prince Rupert MALKIN'S BEST drawing will be postponed for one week. The drawing will take place at the Westholme Theatre, Saturday, Sept. 28, at 9 p.m.

the rear of the Turkish armies in the direction of Nablus. Another body of cavalry was advancing in a northeasterly direction toward Flafula and Beisan to intercept the Turks to the north. On Wednesday General Allenby's right wing attacked west of the River Jordan and occupied Elmugier.

Work of Churches Under Discussion.

A visitor to The News office a day or two ago was discussing the work of the churches in this city and expressed the opinion that most people quite understood the plan of salvation, but that there was little practical effort made here to provide recreation and mental stimulus for the young men, work which might well come within the scope of the churches. He went on to say that the churches were to a large extent neglected because they did not keep up to date and lead the young people instead of following and acting rather as a drag on them.

The conversation was interesting, especially in view of the fact that it came from a leader in church work who was realizing how little the church really counted in the life of the community. He had been looking around and sizing things up, and had come to the conclusion that everything was in the melting pot, and the church was in danger of being thrown aside as dross, unless she adjusted herself to the changing conditions. He was beginning to see that there was no real difference between religion and life and that when religion did not affect the life it was of little value.

Siberia Attracting Many Recruits.

An effort is being made throughout British Columbia to recruit for a battalion which is to be sent to Siberia to take part in the campaign there. That country being almost unknown to us and the nearest point on the coast of Asia is very attractive. It is the country with which Prince Rupert will do business after the war for there is no doubt that it will hereafter be thrown open to foreign trade. There will be great commercial opportunities there and the present is an opportune time to get acquainted with it.

There cannot be many men available for overseas service in this city, but apparently there are a few and already these are joining the new battalion.

Better Accommodation For Indian Visitors.

There have been a thousand or more Indians taking holiday in this city during the last few days. They have spent a lot of money here and have been welcomed by everyone. Unfortunately however there has been so little accommodation here that some of them have fared rather badly in that respect. No rooms or hotel accommodation could be secured in many cases and in the day time there has been no place where they could go when the weather was wet as it was on Wednesday last.

In view of the mutual benefits to be obtained from these visits of the native population of the northern districts it has been suggested that on any future occasion, when a large number are expected, some provision should be made by the city for housing them, not so much in the way of providing sleeping accommodation as in providing shelter during rainy weather. The visitors feel that they would like to have some place to which they could go without feeling that they were intruding.

Some of the cafes in town have kept open house for the Indians and but for this they would have had a rather poor time on Wednesday and other nights. The matter is worth thinking about with a view to action.

"The food crisis is grave and urgent, beyond possibility of exaggeration."—Sir Robert Borden

City and Town Labor Must Save The Food Situation

THE heart of the food production problem is labor, and the heart of the labor problem is the city dweller. City people must produce food if Canada is to do her full duty in support of our soldiers and Allies.

Men who are needed on farms must come from the cities and towns—there is no other source. The Provincial Departments of Agriculture co-operating with the Canada Food Board, can place thousands of men on good farms in this Province. They are needed at once.

Those who remain at home must also Grow Food and Vacant Lot cultivation will leave the farmers free to grow more food for export.

A War Garden will not excuse the man whose rightful place this year is on a farm. But War Garden service is needed from those who can do no more.

Every pound of home-grown vegetables, produced on city land by city labor, will be a positive addition to the food supply. Home Garden

The vegetable garden offers an opportunity for service to men whose circumstances make it impossible for them to work on a farm, to women, to boys and girls—to city people generally.

Be a Food Producer This Year

If there is a garden or vacant lot movement in your community, associate yourself with it. If no organization exists, do what you can to interest your neighbours in the War Garden campaign. Write to your Provincial Department of Agriculture for pamphlets on gardening and additional information.

SOUTH END OF GRAHAM ISLAND

Industries at Skidegate and Other Points Include Canneries and Oileries—Indians are Prosperous.

Leaving Prince Rupert in the early morning, a ten-hour journey ends at Sandspit, where a number of settlers have creditable farms, on which cattle, sheep and poultry are raised for home consumption and marketing. The principal settlers are Capt Gillett, Captain Hans, Capt. W. Oliver, John Mathers, W. Kitchem, and William Woods. A good school is provided by the Provincial Government, which is well attended. Why these progressive pioneers are not provided with a wharf, is one of the mysteries of Government short-sightedness. "We had a wharf once," said one of the settlers, "but it fell to pieces, and it is not showing that food is needed when we have to take small boats out at all hours of the night and day to ship our produce for your market. We have waited for years and might as well give up the fight. When they need our spruce maybe they will build a wharf."

At Skidegate.

Across the inlet after passing two sentinel islands the steamer calls at Skidegate Indian village. The Prince Rupert Oileries Company have a war industry there, which produced refined fish oil for export. Messrs. Reil and Tisdale are in charge of the work, turning out hundreds of gallons of kreyfish oil and preparing to place food fish in a cured condition on the market. The Skidegate Indians have a fine village at this point. Their houses are all modern with streets, water works, churches, a school house and, anchored in the bay, twenty useful gasoline launches, resplendent in paint, on which they are making a good living from the sea. They have a number of small gardens, producing vegetables and fruit. The Indians own a number of cattle and are considered the most prosperous in the province.

Oil Works.

The next stop was at the oil works where Ed. Stevens manages the hotel and where several old time residents live. We there learned of the Southeaster gold and silver mine, five miles distant on which twelve men are employed, with modern machinery installed, all under the direction of Mr. Holmes, a young mining engineer from Cobalt, who is producing ore in quantity, and expects to install an up-to-date plant. The company expended a large sum in proving the property.

Queen Charlotte City.

Queen Charlotte City was the last place of call on the inlet before proceeding to the ports further south. The late D. R. Young was the founder of this locality. He installed a newspaper, commenced boring for coal and built a codfish warehouse. A large sawmill was installed, while town lots went booming. Things began to turn, in the wrong direction, and the once flourishing town received a set-back from which it is now recovering. Several of the original settlers, with a few of the business men, retained faith in Queen Charlotte City, and it seems that their convictions will be realized. The sawmill will again commence operations; lumber camps are springing up in the neighborhood, the location for a town is ideal, while the fishing industry bids fair to become a permanent means of employment for a large number of people.

Aliford Bay.

Aliford Bay, across the inlet from Skidegate, is the location of one of the largest canneries on the coast. It is said that Sir Thomas Lipton is the principal owner of this cannery, which was constructed by the late Sir Charles Doughty. Whites, Indians and Japanese to the number of 250 find employment at Aliford Bay, under the management of Mr. Sanderson, who has made a success of the business during two successive years, putting up phenomenal packs of canned salmon. Several hundreds of barrels of herring have been prepared for shipment.

It is just as cheap to get your printing done well and done at home as it is to send it away. Try The News Print Shop.

B. C. MACKEREL

A. L. Hager, manager of the New England Fish Company, reports a very interesting discovery in a recent shipment of fish received from the west coast of Vancouver Island. Among the cargo of trap-caught salmon were four mackerel, just as good as the primest mackerel caught on the Atlantic side. It is believed that they are the first of the species to be taken in British Columbia waters and fishing men are speculating on where they came from. An attempt is being made to introduce mackerel into California waters and it is thought that these fish may have travelled north.

NORMAN SHORT TELLS OF TIMES HAD AT FRONT

Well Known Prince Rupert Boy Writes Interesting Description of Conditions "Over There."

Mrs. William Beveridge has received a letter from her son, Pte. Norman S. Short, who is well known in Prince Rupert and who left here to join with the 67th in Victoria. Later he transferred to the 102nd.

Speaking of conditions at the front recently, Pte. Short said: "We sure made some advance. Believe me, we put Fritz on the run. Some ran back, others ran toward us surrendering, but of course others fight to the last. Our tanks did fine work and much credit is coming to them. The cavalry also did good work. In some places the machine gun fire was fierce, but it takes a lot to stop our boys and Fritz knows it. This is the biggest we made."

"We collected all kinds of souvenirs but it is difficult to get them out and it is hard to say if they would reach Canada if we sent them. I have a cutlass, belonging, I believe, to a German marine, also bayonets belonging to that outfit, and a saw bayonet. I wish I could get them home. I have also ribbons of the iron cross, and other medals, knives, pocketbooks and photos, also some German coins and other things.

"We had some long, hard marches before we got to our jumping off place and on our way in we passed the "Froggies." They patted us on the backs and said: 'Bon Camarades.' That night we lay out in the open, waiting for the time set. Then all at once you ought to have heard those guns of ours speak. They sure roared! And then the Canucks advanced. No wonder Fritz had the wind up in places. I see by the papers we went thirteen miles. I know we went a long way."

German Prisoners.

"Some of my old pals in the 67th went out smiling with nice 'blighties' so there are not many of us here now. A lot of the Fritzies (prisoners) waved their hands towards their homes and smiled and said they were glad to get away from it. Some had only come up from the Russian front, and others were in the line for the first time and were captured, while one said that he had been on four fronts and had been fighting for four years."

The letter goes on to tell of the quantities of bayonets and other material lying around and mentions what a good place it would be for a junk dealer.

Pte. Short is well known to almost everyone in Prince Rupert. Before coming to this city he lived in Cumberland, where the editor of The News knew him well.

FOOTBALL GAME WAS PLAYED TO DRAW

Two home teams put up a good football game last evening after the baseball fans had left. The probabilities and possibilities were chosen some days ago but the rain interfered with the game. The score of one goal each gives a good indication of the relative strength of the sides. They were very evenly matched. Murray made the score for the Possibles while for the other team Hardie shot from a penalty. The teams were as follows:

Possibles—
Martin, Macdonald and A. L. Murray; Robertsen, W. Murray and Primrose; Williscroft, Dowther, Connachie, Mitchell and McMillan.

Possibles—
Wearmouth, Chatman and Currie; Arthur Kinghorn and Craggs; Townsley, Menzies, Hardie, Sherman and Shaw.

"Make me a Kite—"

Hardly Excusable Even in a Child

IF a child were to enter one of our aeroplane factories and interrupt a workman with a request to have a kite made—the workman would smile indulgently—and proceed with his aeroplane.

You yourself would condemn the man if he stopped his vital war work to build a toy.

Condemn yourself, then, if you employ labor and material to make such goods as cater only to your self indulgence.

Every time you buy a thing you do not need, you interfere with Canada's war work.

Every dollar you spend on goods not strictly necessary, is a dollar—not merely wasted—but used to employ labor on things that have nothing to do with our efforts to win the fight for freedom.

Too many of us, in Canada, are flying the "luxury kite." Too much of the time of Canadian workmen is being purchased by us to make the things that are for show and pleasure. Too great a quantity of material that our soldiers could effectively use against the foe, goes into the making of superfluous things for us, whom they are so valiantly defending.

Stop the reckless spending. Stop acting like children. This war we are fighting calls for men and the brains of men. If you cannot fight—at least do not interrupt the war-work by buying the things you merely want and do not need.

The money you have been spending wastefully—with no result but to divert labor from war-essentials—will make a worth-while sum.

Use that money to build up a fund, that you can lend your Country, when your Country calls.

Published under the authority of the Minister of Finance of Canada.

Two Questions

With so many low-priced so-called anti-skids obtainable, would that great host of motorists pay more for Dunlop "Traction" Tread if they could get its merits elsewhere?

Also, would that other large list of car owners buy "SPECIAL" if tires which somewhat resemble it in appearance resembled it in efficiency?
