LAUSANNE TREATY IS IN LIMELIGHT

POLICE AND STRIKERS IN WINNIPEG STAGE TWO CLASHES

France and Great Britain At Disagreement As To Whether U. S. Debts Come Under Pact

Hopeful

Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin who expects great things from the forthcoming Imperial economic conference.

Herriot Sees Pact as Resurrection of Entente Cordiale—Italy Announces It Will Also Adhere to New Consultative Agreement

PARIS, July 14:—The first immediate consequence of the new co-operative agreement between France and Great Britain announced yesterday is that Britain in future cannot undertake to make war debt payments to the United States without first consulting France, Premier Edouard Herriot told the finance committee of the Chamber of Deputies last evening.

The new accord, Premier Herriot said, complement to a "gentlemen's agreement," is that debtors of the United States would not ratify the Lausanne treaty until each had obtained beforehand an acceptable settlement of its own debts.

M. Herriot said that he conceived the Franco-British agreement as a resurrection of the Entente Cordiale and the opening of a new era in Franco-British relations.

The French foreign office this afternoon published the text of the "gentlemen's agreement" by which the principal powers concerned in the Treaty of Lausanne agreed not to ratify that treaty until each had obtained a satisfactory settlement of its own debt.

Britain Differs

LONDON, July 14:—It was officially announced last night that the new Franco-British accord has nothing whatever to do, implicitly or explicitly, with the debts owed to the United States.

There is no truth in any statement that the accord is applicable to the matter of British debts to the United States.

It was revealed that Great Britain and United States representatives had held a secret session before the Franco-British accord was reached at which virtual agreement had been reached on the subject of war debts and reparations.

Italy Adheres

ROME, July 14:—The charge d'affaires at the Italian embassy in London was instructed to inform the British government that Italy is glad to adhere to the Franco-British consultative pact which was announced yesterday.

No boats being in with catches, there was no sale of halibut on the local fish exchange this morning.

Outline of Treaty in Regard To St. Lawrence Waterway Is Reached, Premier Bennett Says

OTTAWA, July 14:—An official statement in regard to the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway was issued yesterday as follows:

"Announcement was made from the Prime Minister's office today that, after a long period of intensive negotiation, an outline of a treaty was concluded at the middle of June, the final terms of which were settled yesterday.

"A formal treaty is now being prepared and will be ready for signature at an early date at which time a full statement by the governments concerned will be issued."

BALTIMORE, Maryland, July 14:—A Baltimore Sun dispatch states that the first rough draft of a treaty between Canada and United States for development of the St. Lawrence River waterway from Duluth to the sea has been completed and approved by President Herbert Hoover.

BURGLARY CHARGED

William Fishuk Taken By Police in Connection With Breaking and Entering

William Nick Fishuk was arrested on the other side of the harbor today by Constables R. C. Gilker and G. A. Wyman of the city detachment of the provincial police and is to be charged tomorrow morning with burglary in connection with the recent breaking and entering of the Swift Canadian Co. warehouse on the local waterfront and a cabin on Mount Morse belonging to W. H. Montgomery of this city. Recovery of goods taken from both places led to the arrest of Fishuk.

The Montgomery cabin was entered on Monday of this week at 11 blankets, a 30-30 rifle, ammunition, alarm clock, etc. removed.

The Swift warehouse was broken into on Tuesday night and eight dozen eggs, $8 in stamps and other articles taken.

It is expected Fishuk will be remanded for eight days on coming up tomorrow.

FRANCE AND BRITAIN

Until comparatively a few years ago France and Great Britain were open enemies. They never lost an opportunity of showing their animosity. On many occasions there was open warfare and so fearful were the British of their neighbor that they would not allow a tunnel to be constructed beneath the Straits of Dover.

The war brought a change, but still there were suspicions and the animosity between France and Germany was shown whenever Britain seemed to favor the latter. Now there is a new administration and the Herriot government is showing a new spirit. Premier Ramsay MacDonald, the socialist premier of Britain, has been negotiating with the socialist premier of France to good effect and a new understanding has been reached which promises great things for the future peace of the world.

Nations are now learning to deal with each other in a similar manner to individuals. United States has led the way in the matter of open diplomacy and the new understanding with France is a very decided forward step which should have a great effect on the diplomacy of other nations. Secret treaties are going into the discard and a genuine effort is being made which will tend to do away with war as a means of settling international disputes.

WARS SETTLE NOTHING

The result of the great war confirms what Norman Angell tried to teach at the beginning of this century when he published a book designed to show the futility of armed conflict. He reasoned that the winner lost as well as the loser and he has been shown to be correct. It is clear now that wars settle nothing and that there is no kind of dispute that could not be settled amicably if the parties there-to were amenable to reason. The glory is passed from warfare and, now that it is shown that the profit is also gone, it is probable that wars will become fewer until they disappear as a relic of barbarism.

A Vacation for You

Lake Louise, Alberta, Canada

ARE you looking forward to the time when you will be able to lay down the tools of labour and enjoy a well-earned rest—a permanent vacation amid pleasant surroundings, free from worry or dependence on others?

This need not be an idle dream. It can be a reality for you as it will be for thousands who are "pensioning themselves" by means of Life Insurance Pension Policies, which provide for monthly payments to them at definite ages in addition to the insurance protection in case of early death.

We shall be pleased to send particulars of a pension policy for yourself entirely without obligation.

At age 25, for instance, it is necessary to save less than $6 per week to provide a pension of $25 per week for life at age 60. (This includes $10,000 life insurance protection.)

VETERANS MEETING

Canadian Legion in Session Last Night—Schubert Named Delegate

The regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League was held in the club rooms last evening with W. Wilson, president, in the chair and a good turn-out of members present.

It was decided to hold the picnic at Grassy Bay instead of at Digby Island as previously planned. This will be held next Sunday.

To represent the branch at the provincial convention to be held at Revelstoke from August 17 to 19, D. C. Schubert, first vice-president, was appointed delegate.

Pictures of the Canadians at Vimy Ridge were received from Ald. Theo Collart to whom the thanks of the Legion was tendered.

W. M. Brown spoke on the matter of the welfare organization which is being formed in the city. His report proved of much interest and the branch is in hearty agreement with the steps taken to cooperate the organization of relief by the different bodies in town.

Resolutions for the annual provincial convention were discussed and will be forwarded to the delegate.

Arrangements for the forthcoming picnic on Sunday next were completed at a meeting of the executive immediately after the general meeting.

COMEDY IS DRAMATIC

Marion Davies and Clark Gable Are Good in "Polly of the Circus" at Capitol Theatre

The dramatic story of an attractive but hard-boiled circus performer who falls in love with a modern young minister brings Marion Davies and Clark Gable, two popular screen favorites, to the Capitol Theatre here the middle of this week in an entertaining comedy feature.

The plot gets off to a lively start when the trapeze artist is injured in a sensational fall and is brought to the minister's house for aid. The injury necessitates her remaining there for several weeks during which interval a romance between the ill-assorted pair has plenty of time to ripen. Their subsequent marriage meets with the disapproval of the church and the courageous young minister soon finds himself out of a job. It is in the heroic attempt of the girl to win back her husband's prestige and happiness that the dramatic element of the story is centred, bringing the picture to a happy conclusion.

Prominent supporting roles are taken by C. Aubrey Smith, Raymond Latton and David Laidau.

A notable "short" on the program presents the inimitable Scottish comedian, Sir Harry Lauder, in one of his song hits, "She's My Daisy."

The actual number of languages has been put at 2,796.
