TEAMSHIP ALASKAN GOES ON ROCKS NEAR SWANSON BAY; RESCUED BY CHELOHSIN

STEERING GEAR OF VESSEL BROKE, CAUSING HER TO SWERVE — PASSENGERS LANDED, BUT LATER TAKEN ON AGAIN AND PROCEEDED SOUTH

The steamer Alaskan of the Alaskan Steamship Company was on the rocks yesterday when southbound from Alaskan Bay. She struck in the intricate passage south of Swanson Bay and ran into Findlayson Channel. The passengers were all safely landed on the rocks and wire-rope ladders were sent out for help. These found a ready response in Captain Edwards of the steamer Chelohsin of the Union Steamship Co. The vessel took the passengers off the rocks and returned them at Swanson Bay and then returning pulled the Alaskan off at high tide and saw her safely at Swanson Bay where the passengers were again taken on board and the vessel proceeded on her own steam south bound for Seattle. The Chelohsin arrived here at four o'clock this morning and proceeded north after landing passengers and freight. She will leave here tomorrow southbound and will pick up the passengers who are waiting to go to Vancouver and Victoria. Officers on the Chelohsin say that the steering gear of the Alaskan broke and caused her to run on the rocks.

Team Work Needed for Few Days.

While the people of Prince Rupert, in common with the people in almost every part of the world, are being sorely tried just now it must not be forgotten that the men at the front have been in much more difficult situations than confront us and they have come through with colors flying.

With courage we must all face the issue and keep cheerful. By helping our neighbors we can best help ourselves. Team work and community work is the order of the day.

It must not be forgotten that in spite of our difficulties here it will be necessary for us to continue our preparations for providing money for the men at the front. Victory bonds will be on sale commencing October 28 and we shall all have to do our best when the sale opens, even though we have needs of our own to supply.

T. D. PATTULLO DISCUSSES THE LAND QUESTION

Answers Criticism of Leader of Opposition in Regard to Soldier Settlement.

W. J. Bowser, K. C., Leader of the Provincial Opposition, is reported in the press as stating that provincial lands which have been set apart for returned soldiers in the area served by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, are not fit for them, and according to the same reports warns the returned soldier, against the discouraging outlook.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, makes the following comment in reviewing the situation briefly:

"In the first place, all of the best lands close to present transportation have already been alienated. We are setting aside the very best of remaining lands for returned soldiers.

"If former administrations had not alienated all the good lands close to transportation to people who have not been making use of them, there would have been available plenty of good acreage adjacent to transportation free of cost to the returned soldier. The Leader of the Opposition passed through scores of thousands of acres of such lands upon his recent trip through the Northern Interior.

"We are, however, I think I may say, a practical administration, and are doing the best we can under the circumstances. Accordingly all of this vast acreage which former administrations alienated to people who are not using them, we are taking steps to have made available for settlement.

Areas Set Aside.

Two areas have already been set aside along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific. Within these returned soldiers are given special privileges. The average appraised value of the lands in these areas is approximately $8 per acre. A quarter section, therefore, is worth $1,280. We allow a returned soldier a rebate of $500 which reduces the price to $780. The ordinary settler coming in must pay the full price of which amount he is called upon to pay twenty per cent. down and the balance over a term of years. All that the returned soldier has to pay down is ten per cent., that is to say in the foregoing illustration he would pay down $78, and balance over long terms. We are, therefore, rendering available to returned soldiers on very advantageous terms, lands close to transportation which were alienated by former administrations.

Stuart Lake Lands.

"With respect to the Stuart Lake lands, while they are situated some distance from the railway, they are nevertheless good lands for mixed farming, and are the best vacant Crown lands in block in the province and they are available free of charge to the returned soldier. Under proper organization the development of this district will not, I think, be as discouraging as the Leader of the Opposition would lead us to believe, especially if that part of the country continues to settle up as rapidly as seems certain it will.

"With regard to the Sechelt and Agamemnon lands, they are an entirely different proposition. They have not been represented as farming propositions but rather as rural homesites where returned men who wish to live out in the open, away from the city yet close to it, can cultivate such portions of the lands as will lend itself to this purpose, and during part of the year engage in other occupations along the coast. These tracts have been represented as anything other than they are, the taking up of them

BORDEN STREET SCHOOL IS NOW FINE HOSPITAL

Educational Institution is Now Equipped With Beds and Patients are Already There.

The Borden Street School presented an unwonted appearance this morning, the school rooms being filled with cots instead of scholars, and an atmosphere of stillness and disinfectant rather than the madness of learning.

On Saturday and Sunday morning, busy workers had been erecting beds, many of which were voluntarily loaned for the occasion. A kitchen had to be improvised in one room and volunteer nurses were in charge. In the afternoon patients were brought in, and the school had all the appearance of a regular hospital now. More volunteer nurses, however, are still required, and anyone who possesses a spare bed and bedding in this emergency would do well to let the city clerk know where it can be obtained. Several more cases of influenza have been reported over the week end, and the epidemic is by no means over.

Many unfortunate cases are known where the patients have no one at home to do anything for the sick ones, and it is essential that these cases be properly looked after.

FISH ARRIVALS

A large number of fishing boats arrived in port since Saturday with fairly good catches. They were the Atlas with 33,000; Tahoma, 13,000; Agnes B., 4,000; Margalice, 2,500; Liberty, 27,000; Tatoosh, 21,000; North Cape, 1,000; N. & S., 5,000; Lillian S., 5,000; and Nidaros, 7,000 pounds.

is an entirely voluntary proceeding, and returned men should know their own circumstances sufficiently to be able to judge as to whether this class of homesite situated upon the water and with boat service, is or is not suited to their particular circumstances. If any returned soldier has made a mistake in his selection through any misapprehension, he is at perfect liberty to withdraw.

Homes in Cities.

"What we are trying to do is to meet every phase of the land situation, for we realize that not all will want the same kind of proposition. With this end in view we are trying to help out those who want to make homes for themselves in the cities and recently purchased some fifty lots in South Vancouver which had reverted to the municipality for taxes and which we purpose giving to returned men. These lots will make excellent homesites for men living in the municipality engaged in occupation there, and have the advantage of streets, water, light, schools, etc., all ready.

"The foregoing is an indication of what we are doing. We believe that we are handling the situation on broad-gauge lines. Beyond doubt the difficulties are many, but we are taking the situation as we find it, and while unravelling the tangle of errors of the past, are endeavoring to weave a durable garment for the future."

MY CITADEL MAKES AN IDEAL HOSPITAL

Patients Are Being Brought in By Agent C. C. Perry; Mrs. Swanson Dies.

The Salvation Army Citadel as the Borden Street School has been turned into an auxiliary hospital, mostly Indian cases being dealt with. Indian Agent Perry has had a busy time getting patients to come to the hospital. Mrs. Swanson died on Saturday. The large hall of the Citadel is being used as an ideal hospital, it being well-lighted and airy, affording patients every chance of recovery. The Salvation Army ladies are proving their capacity as nurses. There are many other patients among the Indians in town who will be brought to the hospital as soon as it is possible to get them moved so that they can get the best attention possible.

DELTA COPPER MINE PLANT INSTALLED

Large Body of Ore Has Been Blocked Out and Prospects For Rich Mine Bright.

It will be learned with general interest that the Delta Copper Co., Ltd., is now completing the installation of its plant, the necessary tramways, etc., to the mine this winter, says the Omineca Herald.

On the east end of the property and at an elevation of 6,250 feet a body of ore is already blocked out on the upper vein. On the west end of the property is six feet of ore and lying between these two workings is 22 inches of chalcopryite which runs 16.5 per cent. copper. Thus it is a reasonable expectation that, with adequate development, a mine will be made that will justify the faith in the potential wealth of the property.

Financing an undertaking the size of the Delta Copper Co. under abnormal war conditions is a big affair, but by persistent efforts very satisfactory progress has been made and the outlook for the company, and for a big mine working steadily in this district are bright.

GOOD HUNTING FOR DEER ON RAILWAY

Express Brought in Game Last Night on Cowcatcher, Which Was Run Down in the Skeena Valley.

Many a hunter tramps all day without getting a shot at a deer. The animals seem to know that he is coming and they lie low or scamper away long before he is within shot. As if to tantalize the sportsmen who have not been lucky this year, the train did a little hunting on its own account last night.

As the Number 1 Express was coming along the Skeena Valley a deer was waiting on the track. The animal tried to escape, but the train ran it down and picked up the carcass on the cowcatcher and brought it to town.

Jack McAuley of the G. T. P. mechanical department, was given the members of the Inlander Mess to fresh venison steak.

Deer are said to be numerous this year and local hunters have been successful in securing a good many.

Pat Daly arrived in town yesterday from Stewart.

FISHING BOAT SANK AT COW BAY FLOAT

"Iris" Went to Bottom Through Lack of Protection From Storm Last Night.

There was a big blow last night and there was much danger to the fishing boats tied up along the harbor. One boat, the Iris, sank at the float, causing much damage. This is what was prophesied by those who realized that the protection for fishing boats was totally inadequate.

Every day there is danger to the small boats and it is the general opinion that something must be done soon to protect them from the storms.

FOUR DEATHS AT GENERAL HOSPITAL

Angus B. Ripley of Orme's Drug Store One of Victims of Pneumonia.

As a result of the epidemic of influenza four deaths are reported from the General Hospital within the last two days. In each case, pneumonia followed the attack of influenza, from which the patients were unable to recover.

George Balch, a teamster, 28 years old, was admitted October 11 and he died Saturday. He was an Austrian. John A. McCuaig, engineer of the Munitions Board launch Walronda, was admitted October 11 and he died yesterday. He was a native of Quebec aged 33 years.

Angus B. Ripley, druggist, went into the hospital Friday and died yesterday afternoon. He was suffering from pneumonia when he got to the hospital, and did not have much chance of recovery. Mr. Ripley, who hailed from Nova Scotia, had only been in the city for a few weeks, and was engaged with Ormes Limited. He leaves a widow who resides at 1249 Lakewood Drive, Vancouver.

The fourth case is that of Emanuel Sinclair, 30 years old, of the Cold Storage Company's fishing boat Chief Zibassa. He belonged to Newfoundland, and died yesterday.

PRINCE RUPERT GOES NORTH TO SKAGWAY

Has Capacity Booking From That City; May Not Call Here Unless Passengers For East.

In order to help relieve the bad situation at Skagway the S.S. Prince Rupert has gone north to that port to bring down some four hundred passengers who have been waiting to get out. The accommodation of the vessel is booked up and she will not be able to take any from here unless some of the passengers wish to go east over the G. T. P.

R. Beaumont, superintendent of steamships at this port, has gone north on the Rupert and if she does not call when southbound, will continue to Vancouver.

DR. LARGE OF PORT SIMPSON COMING HERE

Nurse From Hospital At Indian Village to Remain and Look After Local Indians.

Dr. Large, the medical missionary of Port Simpson, is on his way to Prince Rupert and will arrive this afternoon. There are no serious cases of influenza at the village and the doctor feels that he is needed here worse than there.

Nurse Cramer, of the Port Simpson hospital, who arrived in the city a few days ago from the east and who has already been helping at the Salvation Army Citadel, has decided to remain in town to look after the Indians at this point. That will help out the situation very considerably.

MRS. DYER PASSES

Well Known and Highly Respected Church Worker Answers Last Call.

Among the victims of the epidemic of influenza is numbered Mrs. J. E. Dyer, who died this morning. Mrs. Dyer has been ill for the past several days, and the influenza as usual had developed into pneumonia. The patient's condition had been serious for the last few days, and the end came this morning. The utmost sympathy will be felt for Mr. Dyer and his family in their bereavement. Mrs. Dyer was a willing worker in the Methodist Church, and her loss will be felt among a wide circle of acquaintances.

Maurice Shockley has just passed his senior matriculation examination at the University of B. C., permitting him to take the applied science course.

Monday Sermon in Place of Sunday's.
 Yesterday the churches were all closed and the clergy of the city lost their usual opportunity to exhort their congregations. In order that this might not be wholly lost some of the clergy have accepted an offer to say a few words to the people of the city through the columns of this paper. These will be found on another page.

An article in the American Magazine for November on "The Four Sins the Soldiers Say They Hate" is most suggestive and possibly is one of the best sermons that have been published for many a day. At any rate it gives the viewpoint of the American soldiers which is probably the viewpoint of all soldiers, and as soldiers are today such a large part of the community and will soon be much larger, the article is most appropriate.

Courage Comes First in Soldier's Religion.
 Fred B. Smith, a businessman and Y. M. C. A. worker who has been doing Y. M. C. A. work at the front, was curious to find out the viewpoint of the men in the trenches. He missed no occasion of getting replies to questions, both oral and written, and the result of his investigations is that the great majority of the soldiers look upon courage as the one essential to the making of a man, the highest human attribute. The next most important quality is unselfishness, then comes generosity, and fourth, modesty or humility. The opposites of these are the things the soldiers hate. They are cowardice, selfishness, stinginess, and boastfulness.

Down to Bedrock of All Right Living.
 To quote Mr. Smith in his comment on this attitude of the soldiers: "The more I thought about it the more it seemed that these soldiers had gone down to bedrock. They had passed the superficial layer of what is merely legal or illegal and had reached the things which are fundamental. And these qualities, these traces, which they have made the basis of their code, are fundamental, not merely in their life as soldiers; they are just as truly the basis for all right living anywhere and everywhere."

"For as I see it immorality, drunkenness and gambling cannot live side by side with courage, unselfishness, generosity and humility. The more you study this set of standards your boys have placed before them, the more you will be amazed by the unerring way in which they have picked out the great essentials of character."
 "War strips the veneer from life. And just because they are soldiers these young men have instinctively let the surface things go and have found the influences underneath which mold that surface."

Sharing a Blanket Good Enough for Him.
 Here is an example which one of the soldiers gives of unselfishness: "When we were going in the other night on our way to the trenches I forgot my blanket. It was darned cold, too. You fellows know that. And it looked to me like I was going to freeze out there. But when my pal found the fix I was in, instead of guying me for being such a fool as to forget my stuff he took out his knife and cut his own blanket in two and gave me half of it. I don't know whether that's what the preachers would call being good—but it's good enough for me."

Drunkenness and Immorality.
 Once more to quote Mr. Smith: "And now about the other things, like drunkenness and immorality. Usually these were put fifth, sixth or seventh in the list. And it is a significant thing that drunkenness was placed before immorality in their condemnation. I think this can be explained by the fact that they are soldiers and that drunkenness is an open menace to the security of an army."
 "The splendid truth is that our army in France is a sober army. It is the only one in which there is no such thing as a ration of alcoholic liquor. We have the cleanest, healthiest fighting force there is."

Discussing the question of immorality Mr. Smith quotes one of the officers who in talking to his men uses these words: "Don't you know, you damned fool, that we can't guarantee you immunity? Don't you know that you run the risk of being a diseased man the rest of your life? Cut it out. There's no sense in it. And there's no excuse for it." This is the official attitude of the army.

Fundamentally A Sound Code.
 Continuing Mr. Smith says: "I have come to believe that it is a fundamentally sound code. I for one am perfectly willing to go out and preach it. And I believe that our churches will have to take it into consideration in the future. We have laid too much stress on the old surface things, the old 'taboo acts'—dancing, card playing, swearing and so on. We have got to follow those boys down to the deeper things which are fundamental: Courage and selflessness and generosity and humility."

Music Lovers Amazed by Edison's Daring Test

All told, 2,000,000 music lovers in Canada and the United States, on more than 1500 different occasions, have gone to one of their local theatres filled with curiosity regarding a startlingly novel musical recital to which they had been invited.

In each case they have come away amazed at the almost unbelievable demonstration which had taken place before their very eyes, and ears—the most daring test of a phonograph or talking machine ever made. They saw a noted Edison artist stand beside

The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

They heard the instrument sing in the artist's voice—in other words, re-creates her voice. Presently the artist herself began to sing note for note with the instrument. Musically trained ears were in vain to distinguish the faintest shade of difference between the actual voice and the Re-Creation. Then, suddenly and without warning, the artist ceased singing, leaving the instrument to continue the air alone. Only by watching the artist's lips did the audience know that she had ceased singing and that they heard the instrument alone. This is the famous Edison Tonic Test.

Only Edison makes this test. Only Edison can make this test, because only the New Edison actually re-creates the human voice and the music of human-played instruments with every tone quality and every shade of expression. Ordinary phonographs, and talking machines, merely reproduce.

If you have not been fortunate enough, to witness an Edison Tonic Test, you may at least hear Edison's wonderful new phonograph at our store. Make the time to suit your convenience.

UNPREACHED SERMONS BY LOCAL CLERGY

Brief Messages to the People of Prince Rupert Suited to the Present Occasion.

In response to an invitation several of the clergy of the city have written short messages to the people. They were unable to deliver them yesterday because there were no church services held, but they have condensed their messages, which are given as follows.

REV. FATHER McGRATH.

Rev. Father McGrath said it was not customary for Catholics to use the press for talking religion but had he been addressing his congregation yesterday he would have appealed to them to get out and help the many who were in dire need just now. He told of many cases where such help was badly required. Anyone anxious to help could doubtless be put in direct touch with those needing it by applying to Father McGrath.

REV. CANON G. A. RIX.

"I am among you as He that serveth."—Luke 22:27.

From the beginning of the human race the basic principle upon which it was founded was and is service, one individual making himself useful to another, one community being helpful to another, one nation supplying something for another.

The greatest of all examples of service was the life and death of Christ. We properly think of Christ as the only begotten son of God who came to redeem mankind, and we properly believe that through faith in him we may find salvation; but we must not forget that next in importance to this is the fact that He also came as our example, and the chief characteristic of that example is service.

There always have been opportunities for service, but there never was a time when those opportunities were so plainly and in so big a way before us. Our field today is certainly world wide, both from the standpoint of getting the knowledge of the gospel of Christ to the utmost parts, and by our conservation of food and clothing enabling those in dire need in distant parts of the world to have their wants supplied.

Our field is national, in which sphere of endeavor we should get behind everything that will be of service to our nation's objectives doing all in our power to help those efforts which help our fighting men; putting into service for our nation our time and our brain, our enthusiasm and our means.

Our field is local. Some are apt to allow the big and the far away to overshadow the near; and perhaps commonplace service that may be rendered. The first commission of God is that we should be of real use at home; of use in helping to build up a civic spirit of high business integrity; of use in creating a public opinion against everything that lowers the moral standing of the community; of use in making life happier and purer for all; of use in making the way a little easier for those who may be finding the road hard, as at the immediate time so many are doing.

The person who at this time is serving outside the four walls of his or her own home fails to realize a primary duty placed upon every man by the great Father of all.

REV. H. R. GRANT.

In addition to the war, and its worries we are in the midst of a dire epidemic. Our greatest fortitude and our strongest courage are required. There is nothing that will unman us so much as to dwell on the dark side of it all. What we need is to turn from the dark side to the light and to understand God's place in our lives. This will give us the needed help and strength.

We will find God's kindly care for us set forth in the pages of the Old Book. Let us open it and read how St. Paul met similar conditions to our own. We will read Corinthian II. from the fifth verse on. If you are sleepless and worried read the Fourth Psalm and especially the last verse. And do not forget the Shepherd's Psalm. If you are out of touch with God read the Fifty-first Psalm. You will find comfort in the Fifty-first Psalm, verse 22—God's goodness to us in Isaiah 55, and if you have lost a dear one read John 14 and John 11.

The times are out of joint, but peace, perfect peace, will be ours if we remember God's messages of love intended for just such experiences as we are passing through.

REV. W. S. A. CRUX.

In my college days I was much impressed by an incident in our church history class to the effect that religious faith and trust in God was a great preventative in times of disease. A disease had come to one of the towns in Switzerland and as an aid the authorities printed Psalm 91 in large bill size and had it posted in the public squares. The record is that it was one of the great preventatives of the spread of the plague.

Let any man or woman feel conscious of the Divine presence and then use the means God has placed at his disposal and in many cases both physical and spiritual health is the outcome. "I will say of the Lord He is my refuge, my God in Him will I trust" This does not mean sitting down and waiting for something to happen, but it means intensely that he whose trust is in the Eternal God can so work in the assurance that things can be made to happen by working together with God. Let us read the Psalm and help each other.

You Never Know What A Man Will Do

Mrs. Williams has been using Pacific Milk for cooking a long, long time. Her husband got to using it in his morning coffee so they never buy fresh milk any more.

The other evening Mrs. W. bought some fresh cream to give him a treat (as she thought) with his porridge and to use with his coffee.

However, Mr. Williams didn't see it that way and when he discovered it was a different cream in the pitcher, he asked for the same as he'd been getting every morning—couldn't drink his coffee with the other "stuff."

Just Camouflage

From the man who wants to raise a victory loan for himself, may the Lord deliver us.

The epigram "In the midst of life we are in debt" will be more true than ever after the Spanish epidemic has passed.

After the Mayor's circular was delivered, a worthy citizen got down a bottle of eighteen-dollar Dobell's solution and tried to gargle but he swallowed the whole bottleful in the attempt. The next circular must give instructions how to gargle without swallowing.

The reason almost all the chaffeurs in town are down with the flu is ascribed to the extra strain on their nerves through having to drive on repaired streets. They have not been used to it.

The Germans seem to have been training for the next Olympic races.

The Huns are in a somewhat similar position to the man who caught the wild cat up a tree. They find it hard to let go.

Someone asks why is a man who is trying to negotiate a short loan like a trained orator. Doubtless because he makes a touching speech.

No one worries about the high cost of living now. The difficulty is to keep alive at any price.

Princes and princesses are having a hard time of it these days. Princess Adelaide is on the rocks, Princess Charlotte is laid up, Prince John is having some patches on his ribs, Prince Rupert has been sent north and Princess May is in retirement with all engagements cancelled. The rise of democracy is already being felt.

CIVILIANS DRIVEN FROM THEIR HOMES

Washington, Oct. 19.—Before evacuating Roulers, the German military authorities assembled as many as possible townspeople and marched them under guard to the Roulers-Menin road. For two days, according to official dispatches received last night by the Belgian legation, the civilians, many of them women and children, were provided with neither food nor shelter. Some were able to escape and made their way back to Roulers, where they accorded an enthusiastic welcome to the French and Belgian troops.

Blair, for seven years secretary of the Vancouver Board of Trade, to the position of secretary to the agent general for British Columbia in London. Mr. Blair has submitted his resignation to the council of the Board of Trade and will leave for London next week, joining F. C. Wade, K. C., the new agent general, in eastern Canada.

Kiddie's Clothes

How to Make Them Wear Longer There is stringent need of it, as every mother can testify, in these days of mounting prices. Well—did it ever occur to you that harsh, common soaps, and the ordinary rub and scrub of the wash board, break down more clothes than are ever actually worn out in use? Its so. We've studied the question. That's why purest and best of soaps, was first evolved, years ago—to wash clothes gently but thoroughly, without rubbing—the special "Sunlight" way. Doubly—trebly useful—now, in war time, when the clothes must last longer.

It's easy to do the washing yourself with Sunlight. LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED TORONTO

SPANISH INFLUENZA RAGES IN CANADA

Thousands of Cases Reported With Many Deaths.

THOSE WHO ARE MOST SUSCEPTIBLE TO IT

"FRUIT-A-TIVES"—The Wonderful Fruit Medicine—Gives the Power To Resist This Disease.

The epidemic of Spanish Influenza which played such havoc in Europe, has reached this continent. Thousands of cases of the strange malady have appeared and many deaths are already reported; Surgeon-General Blue of the United States Public Health Service having stated that "Spanish Influenza will probably spread all over the country in a few weeks".

Practically every ship which touches our shores from abroad, brings those infected with the disease.

Surgeon-General Blue urges that the individual take all the precautions he can against contracting the disease by care and personal hygiene. Plenty of exercise should be taken, the diet should be regulated, etc.

Spanish Influenza affects most severely elderly persons and those whose powers of resistance are weakened by illness, work or worry, especially those who are "run-down" or "not feeling up to the mark."

The really great danger from the disease is not so much in the disease itself, as that it often develops into pneumonia.

What everyone needs now is a general tonic like "Fruit-a-tives". This wonderful fruit medicine is not a germ-killer. It is a body-builder; a strength-maker; a blood-purifier; a power in protecting against the ravages of disease.

"Fruit-a-tives" regulates the kidneys and bowels, causing these organs to eliminate waste regularly and naturally as nature intended. "Fruit-a-tives" keeps the skin active, and purifies and tones up the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" tones up and strengthens the organs of digestion, insuring food being properly digested and assimilated.

Everyone can take ordinary precautions, avoid crowded places, and use "Fruit-a-tives" regularly to insure sound digestion, to keep the bowels and kidneys regular and the whole system in the best possible condition. Then we are safe from disease.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by dealers everywhere at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50, retail 25c or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

WAR VETERANS TO HOLD CONVENTION

The B. C. Provincial executive of the G. W. V. A. of Canada has decided that the time has now arrived for a thorough reorganization of the G. W. V. A. throughout the whole of the province and with that end in view they are calling a special one-day convention for November 9, 1918, to be held in the clubrooms of the Vancouver local branch.

Primarily this convention is being called for the election of officers, and the organizing of four Sub-Commands in the Province constituted as follows:

1, Lower Mainland Sub-Command; 2, Vancouver; Island Sub-Command, and 4, Upper Mainland Sub-Command.

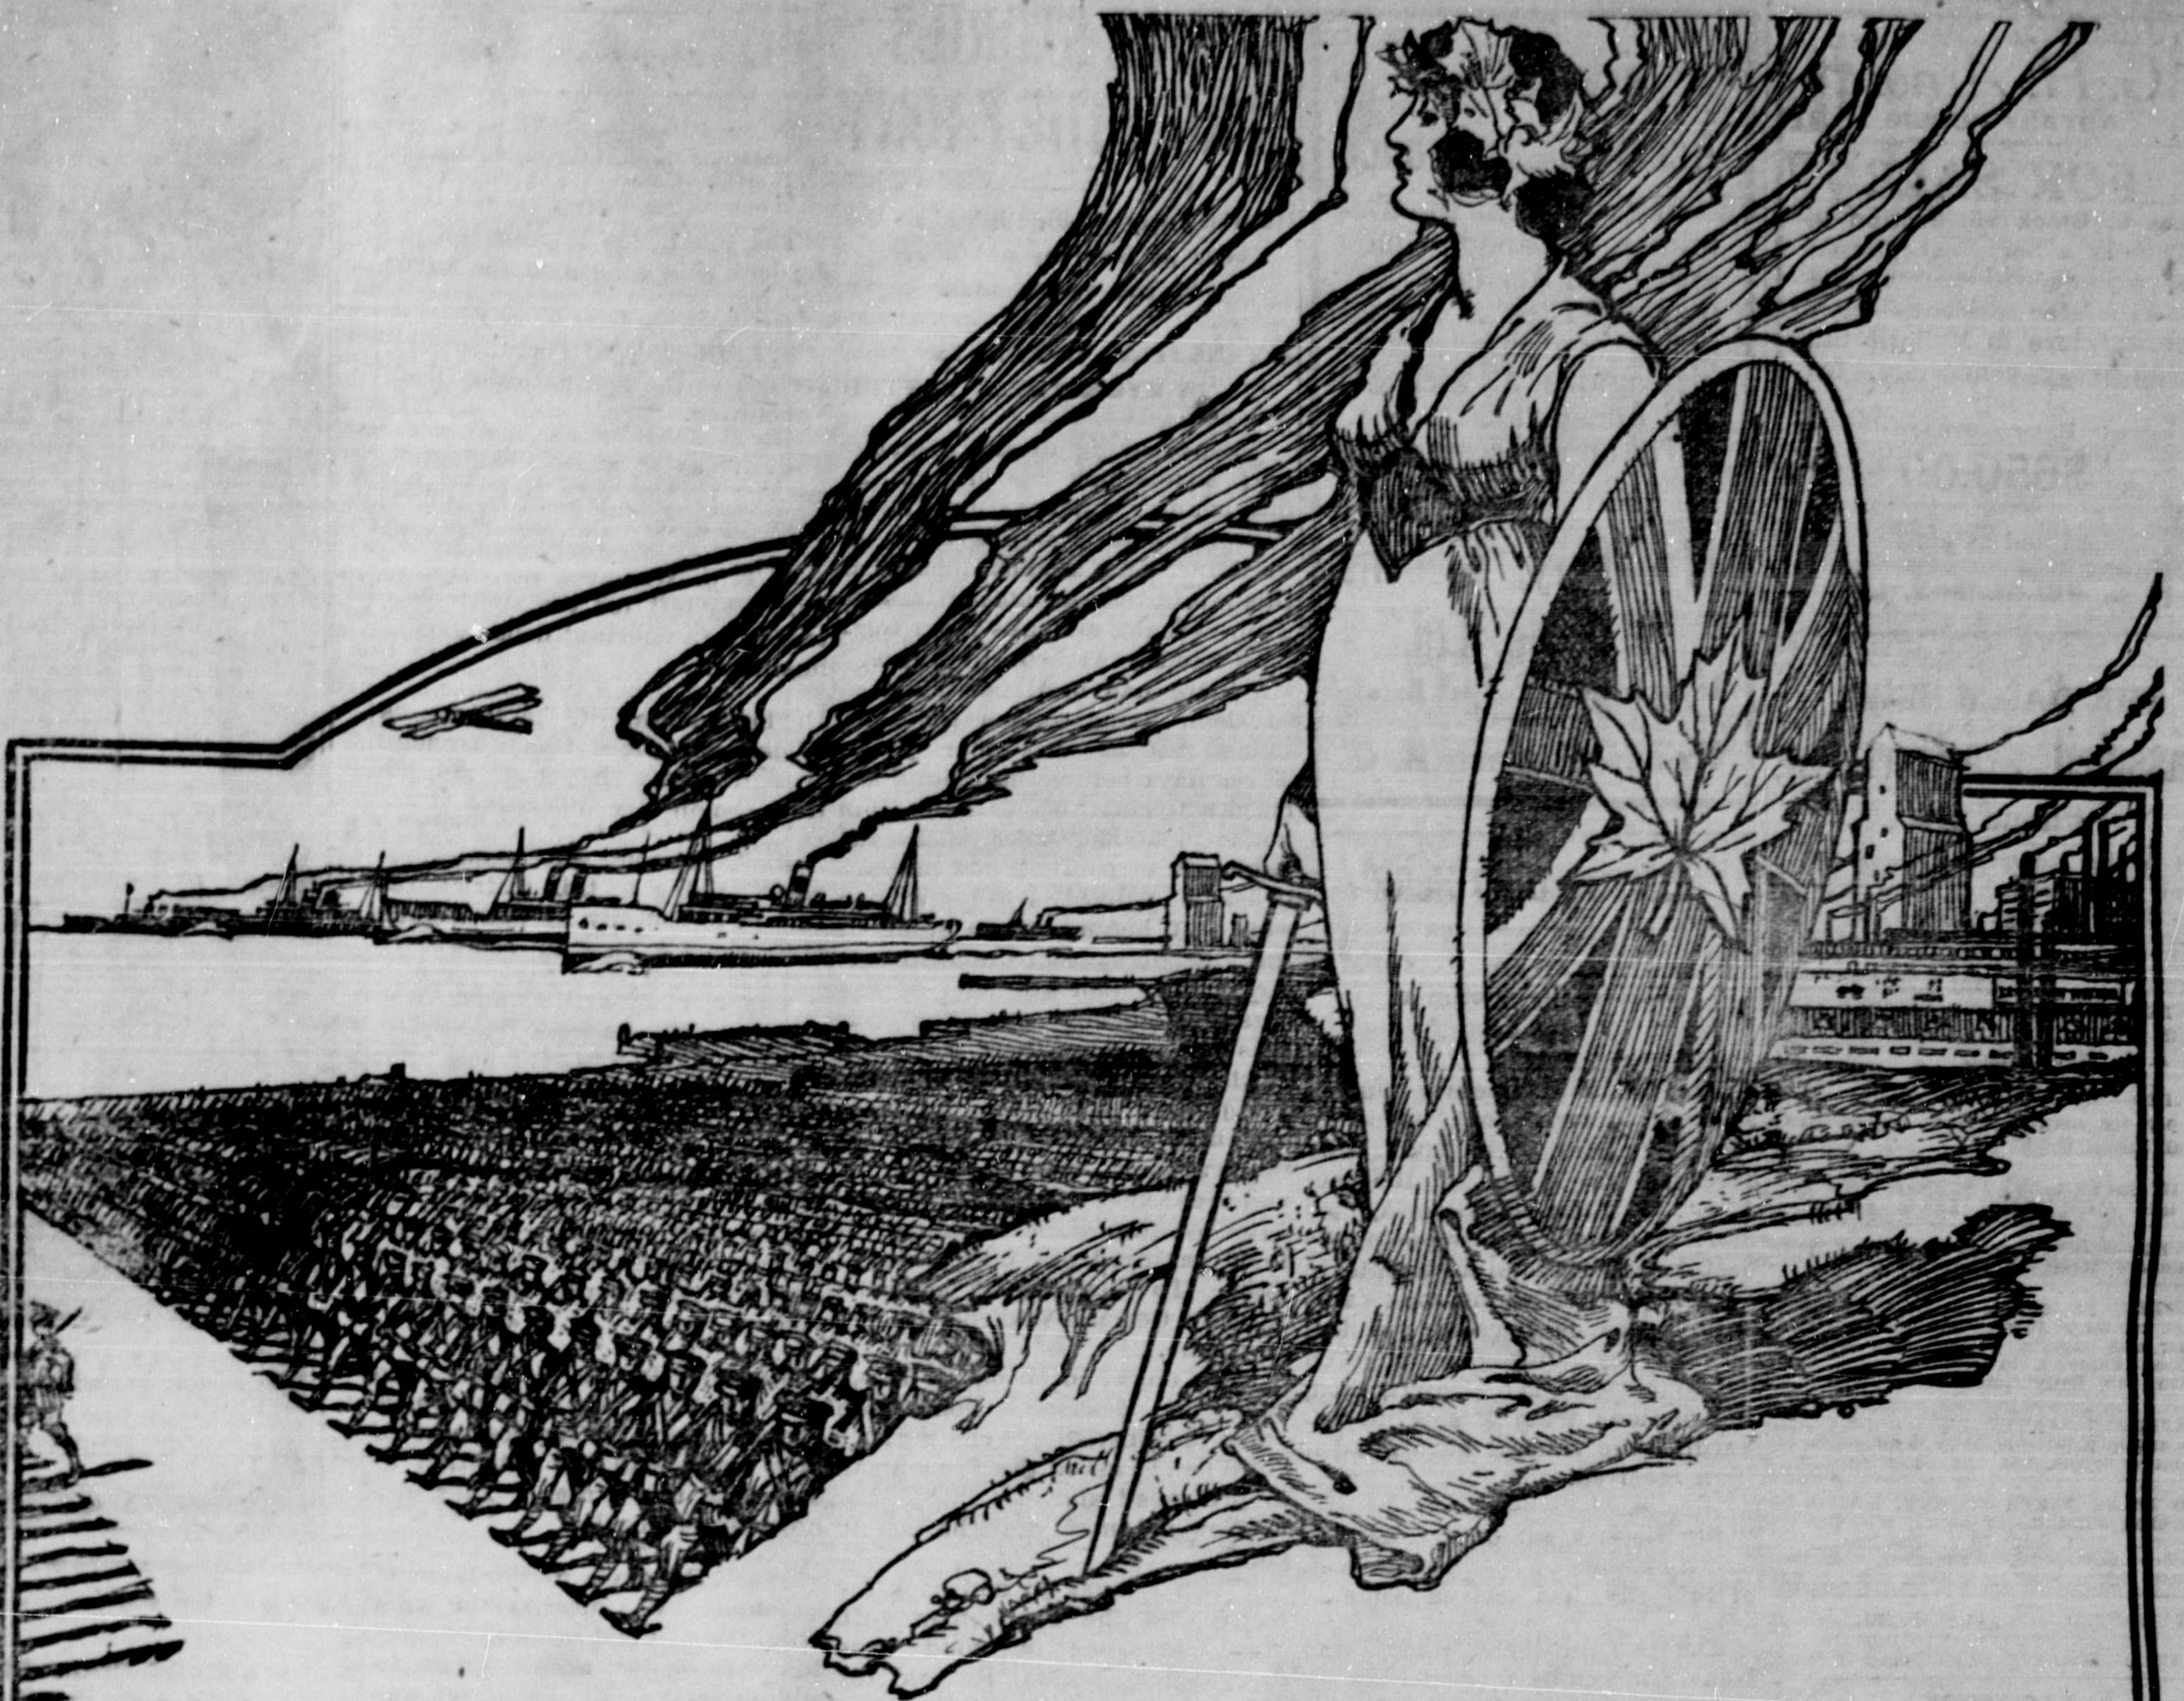

A Supreme Provincial Command is to be appointed with authority and jurisdiction over all the sub-commands and branches in the Province, constituted from the officers and two delegates from each of the Sub-Commands.

BLOOD TRANSFUSION SAVED VICTORIA MAN

As the result of the bravery of a British soldier who agreed to a transfusion of blood to a Canadian comrade, Sapper Walter J. James, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard James, of Victoria, recently reported ill, is now on his way to recovery.

The parents of Sapper James first received information that he was dangerously ill in France and he was afterwards removed to Cambridge Hospital, Aldershot, England. In England his condition became worse, and a transfusion of blood was decided upon as necessary by the doctors. A British soldier offered to go through the ordeal, and information has been received that the operation was a success and that the sick man is now improving.

Why Canada must borrow money to carry on

Because Canada has put her hand to the plow and will not turn back:—

—our country is in the war on the side of liberty and justice and will stay in it till complete victory is won and the unspeakable Hun is smashed and beaten to the ground;

—a nation at war must make tremendous expenditures in cash to keep up her armies and supply them with munitions, food and clothing;

—Canada must finance many millions of dollars of export trade in food, munitions and supplies which Britain and our allies must have on credit;

—for these purposes Canada must borrow hundreds of millions of dollars—

And, this money must be borrowed from the people of Canada:—

Therefore, Canada will presently come to her people for a new Victory Loan to carry on.

Canadians will loan the money by again buying Victory Bonds.

The national safety, the national honor and the national well-being require that each and every Canadian shall do his duty by lending to the nation every cent he can spare for this purpose.

Be ready when the call comes to see your country through in its great war work.

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

ONE OUT OF EVERY TEN DIE OF TUBERCULOSIS

If the subject of consumption—or tuberculosis—were half as entertaining as it is vital to the people of British Columbia, there would be a continuous demand for literature dealing with it. However, even with the gradual educative campaign being waged by the provincial authorities under the guidance of the Hon. J. D. MacLean, the horrible fact that one out of every ten persons who die each year in British Columbia die of tuberculosis is gradually dawning upon the most robust.

To help to eradicate, or at least to diminish, the disease the provincial board of health has just issued a small booklet which will reach every home in the province. Seventy-five thousand have been printed and the schools will be used as a partial means of distribution.

Under the direction of the minister the pamphlet has been compiled in simple language and gives a complete description of the disease.

Don't merely smother your cough CURE IT

Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil not only promptly arrests coughing, but thanks to its tonic and strengthening properties it helps the system to throw off the cold and thus effects a permanent cure. It is this quality which has won for it the largest sale of any cough and cold remedy in Canada.

BATTLE STORIES FROM THE FRONT

Human Interest Sidelights on the War as Seen by an Officer At the Firing Line.

INTERESTING INCIDENTS IN EYEWITNESS' LETTER

The breaking of the Hindenburg switch line has brought us into country which we have never occupied before, writes Lieut A. A. Milne. As a consequence of this we have been able to rescue a few French civilians from German hands. At Ecourt St. Quentin there had been two hundred of them living among the Germans for the last four years. Three days before the British arrived a German officer went from house to house, ordering the inhabitants to pack up and prepare to leave. A few infirm old women were left behind, while some of the men managed to hide in cellars. They had got hold of gas masks somehow and they put these on and lay there while the battle went on above them. They could hear the tramp of men marching out and the rumble of the transport moving eastward, and then there was a long silence. After waiting some time, one of them ventured out into the daylight. To his dismay he came across a German soldier—the last of them.

"You ought to be out of this," said the German. "Don't you know the English are coming?"
"When?" asked the Frenchman in pretended alarm.
"Now at once. I'm the last to go."

"Then I must go and pack my bag," said the Frenchman with great presence of mind, and dived below again. He told the others, and a little while later they walked out into the arms of the British, the first they had seen since 1914.

"Booby-Traps."

But whenever he retreats the Hun leaves his own special "booby-traps" behind him, so that entering into an evacuated village is a thing which must be done carefully. The most innocent-looking "souvenir" may blow a man to bits and it is necessary for specialized parties of men to disconnect any of these little contrivances before the troops can settle down comfortably. The latest devilment reported tells of a kitten nailed by its paws to the door, and of an impetuous Briton who rushed up and took out the nails—and was blown up; all of which would seem to a German to be according to the best traditions of twentieth century warfare.

There have been some strange situations as the result of our rapid advance. On one occasion our troops were actually holding the old Hindenburg line, while the German troops were in our old trenches to the west of it and facing eastwards. As one officer prisoner said, he expected frontal attacks or even flank attacks, but he objected to being attacked from behind. It didn't seem to him to be good form; at least, not when it was done by the British.

The German Dude.

Perhaps it was some sudden reversal of positions which accounted for the capture of another prisoner, who is generally regarded as the most important-looking visitor whom we have entertained as yet. He was a young cavalry officer in a sky blue coat with a red collar and the most beautiful leather boots, just back from a leave which must have caused something of a flutter among the German women. Accompanied by a mounted servant who carried his kit, he made a superb entry into what he thought were the German lines and from there a less superb exit into what he discovered was the prisoners' cage. For hours afterwards he might have been seen, pacing up and down, too proud to speak even to his fellow German officers, and evidently waiting for Foch or Haig to apologize to him for the rude treatment he had suffered.

Town Major Arrives.

Another welcome but unusual guest was a town major, who was peacefully pursuing his avocations many miles behind what was supposed to be his front line. In the British army a town major is generally regarded as the lucky possessor of a "crushy job." Good infantrymen are town majors in their dreams, and wake up to find themselves still in the trenches. For a town major to go to sleep in his comfortable bed and wake up and find himself in a prisoner's cage must indeed be a shock.
