AUSTRIA IS OUT OF WAR VERY DRASTIC TERMS ARE SUBMITTED TO GERMANY BY ALLIES

ARMISTICE WITH AUSTRIA HAS BEEN SIGNED BY GENERAL DIAZ; IT BECOMES EFFECTIVE TO-DAY

Terms to be Published To-Morrow Will Probably Give the Allies the Right to Attack Germany Through Austria; Demobilization to Commence at Once.

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
London, Nov. 4.—Austria is out of the war. An armistice signed yesterday afternoon with General Diaz, Italian Commander in Chief, according to an official announcement here last evening. The text of the statement reads:

"A telephone message has been received from the Prime Minister stating that news has just come to the effect that Austria-Hungary, the last of the German props, has gone out of the war. The armistice was signed by General Diaz yesterday afternoon and will come into operation today at 3 o'clock. The terms to be published Tuesday."

Rome, Nov. 4.—The conditions of the armistice have been inspired by the principles set out by President Wilson, namely, to render it impossible for the enemy to recommence war and to prevent him from profiting from the armistice to withdraw from difficult military position.

London, Nov. 4.—While the terms of the armistice with Austria have not been published it is generally assumed that it will not be less exacting than that recently signed by Turkey. It is thought that it must include the surrender of all war ships and submarines, the withdrawal from occupied territory, the demobilization of the army, and immediate withdrawal of all support to Germany.

Paris, Nov. 4.—The announcement of the signing of an armistice with Austria is looked upon here as the virtual ending of the war. While Germany may possibly hold out for a short time in the hope of getting better terms, it is not impossible that she may collapse any day.

London, Nov. 4.—It is understood that one of the provisions of the armistice with Austria will give the Allies the right to attack Germany through that country. Demobilization of the Austro-Hungarian forces will commence at once.

TRIESTE CAPTURED BY ITALIAN FORCES

Best Seaport in Austria Taken Before Armistice Was Signed; Trent Also Occupied.

Rome, Nov. 4.—Italian land and sea forces made a landing yesterday at Trieste, the principal seaport of Austria-Hungary on the Adriatic Sea, according to an official announcement made last evening by the War Office. The Italian tricolor is now floating from the tower of San Giuster. Italian cavalry have also entered Trieste.

OPIMUM SMOKERS ARE RUDELY INTERRUPTED

Wong Luck Has Party Broken Up and Pays $25 in Police Court.

Armed with a search warrant, Constables Bailey and McGlinchy paid a visit to 914 Third Avenue, West, on Saturday night and upon their entry found six Chinese having a talk-fest. The apparent host, named Wong Luck, countenously rose to greet the visitors, calmly putting his pipe in his pocket as he greeted the strangers. His pipe, however, was an opium pipe, and the full regalia of the "o'er all the ills of life victorious" were at hand. There was a supply of opium, an opium lamp, and all the various accessories of the lotus eater.

Wong Luck was fined $25 and costs this morning by Magistrate McMullin for being in possession. The others, named Kwong Yee Song, Lee Me On, Wong Yet, Mo Laif and Dont Sing were charged with being inmates of an opium resort and were remanded.

GERMANY MUST GIVE ALLIES HELIGOLAND AND THE FLEET AND RETIRE BEYOND RHINE

THOSE ARE SAID TO BE TERMS OF ARMISTICE TO BE SUBMITTED BY SUPREME WAR COUNCIL TO GERMANS FOR ACCEPTATION

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Washington, November 4.—Information reaching Washington on Saturday through diplomatic channels is that armistice terms are being perfected by the Supreme War Council for submission to Germany. These will require the Germans to withdraw thirty miles beyond the Rhine, leaving behind their munitions and rolling stock.

Another of the terms which it is said will be included in the armistice and which is of extreme importance is the complete surrender of Heligoland and the German fleet including all submarines.

It is pointed out that the proposal would mean putting the strong border cities including all forts in the hands of the Allies and return the military machine home without their guns.

It is further said that the terms imposed by General Foch will be so drastic that some military experts doubt whether the Germans will accept them without further fighting.

VICTORY LOAN COMMITTEES ARE APPOINTED

Sum of $53,000 Subscribed Up to Saturday Night—More Vigorous Work This Week.

At a meeting of the Victory Loan Committee held on Saturday night it was reported that the sum of $53,000 had been subscribed to that time. This was considered very good for a beginning as very little canvassing had been done. It was decided to make a thorough canvass of the town this week and to enlist the ladies in the work. It is expected that the amounts will roll up fast from this on.

Owing to the late start the campaign here will last only eleven days which means an average of $27,000 a day. This record has not yet been kept up so far, the committee being just one day behind, but they feel confident that the quota allotted to the district will not only be provided but even surpassed.

A number of canvassing committees were appointed, the first mentioned being in each case the convenor of the committee, and in each case there being the power to add to their numbers. The committees are:

- G. A. McNicholl and E. C. Gibbons — G. T. P. Employees.
- J. A. Thompson and J. F. Matheson — Canadian Fish and Cold Storage.
- Robert Walker and C. E. Bainter — Sawmill and residents adjoining at Seal Cove.
- C. C. Perry — Metlakatla.
- M. M. Wells and C. E. Bainter — Georgetown sawmill.
- G. A. Woodland and Howard White — Drydock and waterfront east of the Government dock.
- J. Roerig, G. W. Nickerson, G. H. Arnold and George Hill — From Fourth and Fulton Streets east to Cow Bay including the wholesale houses.

Mrs. Fred Dawson and the regents of the other chapters of the Daughters of the Empire and Mayor McClymont — Residential sections of the city.

Capt. Groves, W. Montgomery and the secretary of the Longshoremen's Union — The longshoremen.

The Great Ideal Of a Great Man.

Abraham Lincoln once said: "Though I now sink out of view and shall be forgotten, I believe I have made some marks which will tell for the cause of civil liberty long after I am gone."

It is a great ideal, to make some marks that will tell in any good cause. It is probably the most any person can do. No man carries out any great reform alone. We often talk of a man having brought about some great change. His was perhaps the final influence that accomplished it. Without the co-operation of others, however, the work of one man is not of much value. The man who can influence the people of his time to such an extent as to secure their co-operation in the accomplishment of a great reform is the great man.

There are in the world two kinds of men, those who do things and those who criticise the ones who do things. The former are the motive power and the latter are the breaks. Breaks are useful if applied at the right time, but to be the motive power is really to live. The greater the motive power the higher and better the life.

There is no such thing as goodness apart from action. To be merely negative is to be nobody, neither of use to God or man. The man who simply abstains from evil is empty and useless. Unless he has in him something of the life of the Creator he might as well not have lived. The whole of creation throbs with power, with action, with movement, with growth, with ceaseless urgings toward betterment. Eliminate these urgings and you have stagnation which breeds disease and death.

Even death itself is better than stagnation for death is the beginning of a new life.

Rule of One Man
 Common as Ever.

There never was a time when the rule of strong men was needed as it is today. Socialists object to the use of the word "government" and would use instead the word "administration." It matters little what word is used, it is always one man who governs if the government is progressive and effective. For many years Lloyd George governed Great Britain. His was the influence in the cabinet and in parliament which brought about great governmental changes. He was the best man of king of the country.

Wilson is governing the United States today, but there have often been presidents who did not govern. They were boosted into office by the force of circumstances but they had no great influence on the life of the people.

Sir Richard McBride ruled British Columbia for many years. It was his great influence and his likeableness that kept his party in power. Whatever we may think of some of the things he did, there is no doubt but that he was the man who held the reins. Some people thought it was the stern napoleonic countenance of his lieutenant that did it, but later events proved that the lieutenant was the disintegrating influence that gnawed into the governmental vitals and finally sapped its lifeblood. Sir Richard was the ruler, and when another ruler takes his place as leader of the party there will be hope that it will be regenerated and once more be fit to assume the reins of government. A ruler is needed in every organization, in Dominion government, provincial government or city government. Even in family government there is always one prevailing influence.

Diplomacy Takes Precedence Over Fighting.

Big battles are no longer big news. The things that interest the public now are diplomatic moves such as peace negotiations. On Saturday the big news of the day was the complete terms of the armistice with Turkey as published in this paper. Accounts of the victories of the Allies were not only given smaller headlines but read with much less interest than were the terms which Turkey was forced to accept.

Battles may again become of first importance to the public, especially if there should be fighting on German soil. There is every probability, however, that Germany will surrender rather than have her country invaded. With Austria out, her people will hardly stand for further fighting. Already there are mutterings and internal ebullitions which indicate that before long the fires of revolution are likely to burst forth, and that will be the end.

THE ABOLITION OF INHERITANCE

Argument That the Right of Possession Should End With Owner's Death.

From the New York "Sun."

The all-pervading idea that the world is to undergo a radical change as a consequence of the great war is leading to the renewal of many familiar projects for reforming the social condition of mankind. One of these schemes is advocated in a book entitled "The Abolition of Inheritance," by Harlan Eugene Read, an ardent enthusiast who attempts to demonstrate that the right of inheritance is not a right at all, but a wrong, and that "the bequeathing of an estate to other than the man and woman who created it constitutes a denial of the inalienable rights of all other men and women to the property they create."

Attribute of Property.

Some people hardly seem to appreciate the fact that the right of bequest, unlike inheritance, is one of the attributes of property itself, and, as John Stuart Mill long ago pointed out, the ownership of a thing cannot be looked upon as complete without the power of bestowing it upon someone else at pleasure, during the life or at the death of the owner.

So far, therefore, as theorists like Mr. Read attack the right of bequest, they attack the right of property, without condemning it in express terms.

This author's main argument, however, is directed against inheritances—that is to say, the devolution of lands and personal property by operation of law upon certain prescribed relatives when the owner dies without having himself disposed of such property by will.

Not a Right.

In the first place, it is declared that inheritance is not a right at all, but only a privilege, and the second proposition is that, even when considered only as a privilege, it is morally wrong. "Look at it from whatever angle you will," Mr. Read says, "hereditary succession to the power of money is more than an absurdity. It is a crime against all posterity." He concludes, therefore, that it is impossible to support our system of inheritance in the name of either reason or justice.

In the course of a sparkling debate in the United States Senate the other day on woman suffrage, Senator Brandegee of Connecticut was stirred up by the assertion of a colleague that there was a moral right on the part of every human being, who was of age, to have a voice in the Government by which his or her life and liberties were controlled. "This question of moral rights is beyond me," said Mr. Brandegee. "Anybody can evolve out of his inner consciousness what he says is a moral right and maintain it, and there is no way of disputing or arguing about it." An alleged moral wrong, save in the few cases as to which all men are agreed, like those denounced by the Ten Commandments, falls within the same category.

Crime Against Posterity.

As we have seen, Mr. Read declares our system of inheritance to be a crime against posterity. One would naturally suppose that a person entertaining this view—which is forcibly expressed in different forms again and again

PRINCE GEORGE

The tax sale for this district is to take place November 25 and it will be the largest ever held here if not the largest that has ever taken place in British Columbia. It is being advertised here now in the Citizen.

Influenza patients are being cared for at the temporary hospital in the Millar School, which is in charge of Nurse Sutherland. Alderman Adams has charge of the culinary department and there is an ample staff of willing workers looking after the patients.

Captain Martin who has returned recently from a tour through the United States with a war trophy exhibit, is visiting his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Wilson.

The death occurred here during the week of Thomas Williams, conductor on the G. T. P. railway. The body is being sent east for interment in charge of the trainmen's union.

Up to Monday 21 deaths had been reported here from influenza. A number of others are very ill, but the general condition is much improved.

The Fraser river boat B. X. has been hauled out and will be laid up until spring.

On the opening day here the Victory Loan Committee got busy in spite of the epidemic and secured $5,000 towards the quota of $75,000 required of this district.

Word has been received here of the death from pneumonia of John P. Murphy, of 141 Mile House, on the Cariboo Road.

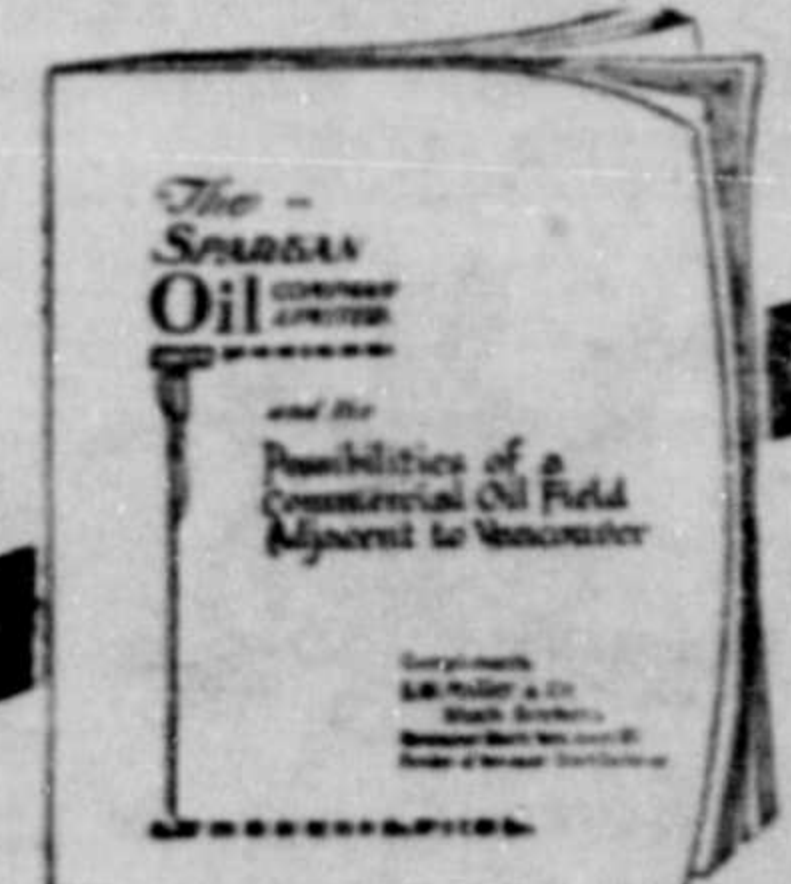

"Yours not to reason why,
"Yours but to go and buy—
"Victory Bonds."

throughout the book—would demand its immediate extirpation from the body of our substantive law. Not so, however. Although it is a moral wrong, if this author is right, he proposed to tolerate it to a limited extent. He would not change our present system of inheritance at all so far as wives and widows are concerned; and as for the rest:

"Inheritance should be granted to privileged heirs up to a reasonable sum for each son, daughter or direct heir."

NOTICE TO SOLDIERS ON HARVEST LEAVE.

Attention is directed to a recent announcement published in the Press by the Military Service Branch, Department of Justice, regarding extensions to be granted to men EXEMPTED AS FARMERS.

It is pointed out that this DOES NOT IN ANY WAY AFFECT MEN WHO HAVE BEEN ORDERED BY THE REGISTRAR TO REPORT to Depot Battalions and who have thereafter received leave of absence from the Military Authorities.

Once a man has been ordered to report for duty by the Registrar he leaves the jurisdiction of the Registrar and comes under that of the Department of Militia and Defence, and is to be considered as a soldier. This applies to men of the 20 to 22 Class who have been ordered to report by the Registrar in virtue of the cancellation of exemptions by Order-in-Council of the 20th April last, as well as to those ordered to report in the usual way on refusal of claim for exemption, or on expiration of exemption granted.

Y.M.C.A. WORK ON ISLANDS

Official Report on Work Tells of Activities of D. E. Hatt at Thurston and Masset.

The following is from an official Y. M. C. A. report sent out from headquarters at Vancouver: With music and "movies" the Y. M. C. A. is out to conquer the monotony and isolation of the lumber camps on Queen Charlotte Islands where aeroplane spruce is being manufactured for the Government.

A combined hotel and recreation hall has been erected at Thurston Harbor, reports D. E. Hatt, the "Y" secretary for the Moresby Island group of camps. The building is 32 x 32 feet, two storeys, with cottage 32 feet, quarters for the secretary and shower baths. Upstairs are four, small and one large room to be used by transients. Mr. Hatt has charge of the building, and he meets the boats which arrive at night and early in the morning.

During August the score or more camps and sawmills of the Masset Inlet district were visited three or four times by the Y. M. C. A. secretary, G. R. Welch. His addresses on patriotic, moral and religious lines were well received and the literature he distributed, including sex pamphlets, was eagerly welcomed. At headquarters at Buckley Bay a tent has been set up and equipped and this will fill the bill until permanent quarters can be secured.

PROVINCE PURCHASES OVER HALF A MILLION

The Provincial Government has decided to invest $564,000 in the fifth Victory Loan, the subscription to be designated in favor of Victoria as a condition of the competition which that city and Vancouver have entered.

This amount is made up of the aggregate amounts available for investment from the various sinking funds. Hon. Jno. Hart says it is considerably more than he originally promised Sir Thos. White, the first estimate of the Province's contribution to the Dominion's war chest being half a million.

The Provincial Government now holds war bonds to the extent of $1,474,500.

The other men have done the fighting. What about the paying? To buy five and a half per cent. Victory Bonds free from income tax is an easy way to pay a big debt.

It is just as cheap to get your printing done well and done at home as it is to send it away. Try The News Print Shop.

PRESIDENT IS POPULAR IN THE SHOPS OF PARIS

Suits, Shirts, Boots and Hats Bear The Name of "Wilson."

Paris, Nov. 1.—The name of President Wilson has supplanted those of King George V. of England and of the late Emperor Nicholas of Russia as a label for popular styles of men's wearing apparel in the Paris shops. "I went to my tailor's to order a new suit, a blue serge, the sort of thing I've been wearing the last twenty years," writes a humorous contributor to "L'Oeuvre," "and that worthy called out to the bookkeeper: 'One Woodrow Wilson suit,' adding in explanation to me, 'That's the name of the goods.'"

"Then I went to the shirtmaker's, where I selected some shirts that only differed from those I used to buy before the war in costing $4 instead of $1.60, and I heard the salesman announce, 'Six President Wilson shirts.'"

"My new boots, comfortable, but devoid of elegance, bear branded upon their soles the name of the President of the United States."

"My hatter showed me a hat of the very shape that before the war we called 'Tyrolean' (and paid three times less for). The Tyrol has lost caste and these hats today are 'Wilson's' although they were 'George Fifth's' during the first years of the war."

"My collars remind me of our glorious ally, for though the laundry chemicals have removed my name, that of the President remains indelible, and yet these same collars for years could boast of bearing the name of Nicholas II."

If you don't hurry we shall have victory before you buy that bond and then you will look like the ten cent man that you are. Hurry!

Military Service Act, 1917. EMPLOYMENT OF MEN IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

The following Regulations, recently approved by the Governor General in Council, impose strict obligations upon every employer TO ASSURE HIMSELF THAT EACH OF HIS EMPLOYEES OF MILITARY AGE AND DESCRIPTION IS IN POSSESSION OF DOCUMENTS PROVING THAT HE IS NOT IN ANY WAY IN DEFAULT UNDER THE MILITARY SERVICE ACT.

An employer who is charged with having a defaulter in his employ must be able to prove THAT THE MILITARY SERVICE PAPERS ISSUED BY THE REGISTRAR OR MILITARY AUTHORITIES TO THE EMPLOYEE IN QUESTION WERE PRODUCED FOR HIS INSPECTION at the time when the employee was taken into his employment, and that it was reasonably established to his satisfaction that the man was not in default under the Military Service Act. It should be clearly understood that the Canadian Registration Certificates given on June 22, 1918, at the time of general registration, in no way define the status of a man under the Military Service Act.

REGULATIONS.

WALT MASON'S IDEA OF SUFFERING

Are claims of sacrifice all fibs? We see around me men and dames who have much fat upon their ribs...

Canada CAN and WILL

ON July 31, 1918, Canadians had on deposit in banks more than a billion five hundred million dollars — that was $160,000,000 more than was on deposit on the same date in 1917.

And, in the meantime, Canadians had invested $425,000,000 in the Victory Loan 1917. Besides that they had bought $60,000,000 worth of provincial and municipal bonds.

So the people of Canada during the past year have accumulated $485,000,000 in bonds and over $160,000,000 in cash more than they had on July 31, 1917. That represents concrete accumulated wealth.

Canada is to-day the richest country in the world, per capita.

Her war debt per capita is lower than that of any other fighting nation.

So Canada undoubtedly has the ability to oversubscribe the Victory Loan 1918.

And Canada must manfully and loyally support the Victory Loan 1918, because the national safety, the national honor and the prosperity of the country are at stake.

Canada's business prosperity is necessary to the maintenance of Canada's war efficiency.

Get ready to oversubscribe the Victory Loan.

Ye Town Crier In the Year 2018

One hundred years ago This town was here, Much as it is now. It always had Prospects of becoming The best port on the coast, But the people Who lived here Didn't care a darn Whether it developed or not. They said Why should we do anything? Let George do it, Edge would say; If we improve the port Others will benefit as much as we. We should worry If the town grows or not. We can still live in our little circle. Like clams on the beach, We'll not losten To fool talk About improvements. Let the fishermen Go south Or to some other place Where the weather's hot. All this fool talk Is nothing but bunk. That is why The village is like this With wooden houses, Many needing paint, Others tumbling down And we still talk Of improving the town But never take action. Ketchikan is a city. And Sitka is a good town, While Poor old Rupert Is tumbling down. MANY LIVES SAVED Thousands of the best families have maintained a standard of health during the Flu Epidemic by using a diet composed of coarse food and a dose of KENNEDY'S TONIC PORT before meals. Rev. A. E. Price who was in town at the week end said that they had had thirty cases of influenza at Metlakatla and during the last ten days had had no doctor there. So far there had been no deaths and all were doing well. Advertise in the Daily News.

glass, bearing the label showing the contents of the bottle to have been Redmond's Dublin Irish whiskey.

The accused, who gave the name of Marcus Deering, was a train attendant, and was fined this morning $50 and costs, being charged with a breach of the Prohibition Act.

After gathering in his prisoner, Constable Adams resumed his interrupted patrol, and when the Chelohsin was discharging her passengers, his preternatural instinct again gave him warning. He approached another gentleman leaving the steamer and inquired as to the contents of his grip.

"Nothing," was the answer again.

"I don't need to look into that grip," remarked the constable, as he mentally figured up its weight. "Come along with me."

He conducted this second gentleman to the police office, where an examination of the valise disclosed it to contain several bottles of Sanderson's "Glenleith" Scotch. In the grip as well as a bunch of labels and capsules purporting to be for MacDonald & Muir's Old Vatted Scotch. This morning this man, Pat Kilmartin, was charged with a breach of the Prohibition Act and was fined $100 and costs.

Extra Labels.
 It was assumed that the extra labels were for the purpose of labelling many other bottles with the diluted contents of the bottles seized, thus libelling the good name of MacDonald & Muir.

The accused intimated that he did not own the whisky, but was bringing it for someone else.

In the absence of Magistrate Carss, Stipendiary Magistrate McMullin was on the bench.
