Wilhelm May Be Extradited BUY VICTORY BONDS TO HELP ALLIES CARRY ON GOOD WORK

WILLIAM HOHENZOLLERN IS NOT SAFE EVEN THOUGH HE HAS ARRIVED IN HOLLAND

WAS INDICTED FOR THE MURDER OF PASSENGERS ON LUSITANIA AND MAY BE EXTRADITED AND HANGED FOR HIS CRIMES

New York, Nov. 12.—It is suggested that William Hohenzollern is not safe from the consequences of his deeds even though he has fled to Holland. He may be extradited and come to trial before a British Court of Justice and possibly be hanged by the common hangman.

After the sinking of the Lusitania and during the early days of the aerial raid on London, he was three times indicted for murder in England, and the punishment for murder in that country is usually hanging.

Under international law it is said a requisition for his extradition may be made by England under the indictments standing against him.

It is not likely that any action will be taken immediately, even if it is decided to do so later. The work in hand just now is to bring order out of chaos in Germany and contiguous countries.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF CANADA UNITE TO HELP VICTORY LOAN BY WAR MEMORIAL

ONE MILLION SCHOLARS ONE MILLION DOLLARS!

A million Sunday School scholars and members of Young People's Associations of the Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Congregational Churches are co-operating on a plan which has the three-fold purpose of helping to boost the Victory Loan Over the Top; assisting the Churches to extend their mission work, and commemorating the heroism of church members who have fallen at the front.

"Every School at least one bond" is the cry that will help to carry the 1918 Victory Loan to the Sunday Schools' million dollar objective. Above is a reproduction of the shield to be presented to each Sunday School subscribing a bond.

FOCH'S ORDER TO TROOPS OF ALLIES

London, Nov. 12.—Directly after the signing of the armistice treaty General Foch issued the following order to the Allied army commanders: "Hostilities will cease November 11 at 11 a.m. along the French front. The Allied troops will not, until further orders, go beyond the line reached at that hour."

The difference in time between France and British Columbia accounts for the apparent discrepancy.

INSPECTION BYLAW FOR ELECTRIC WIRING

Measure Passed Through All Its Stages Provides a Scale of Fees to Be Paid.

A new telephone inspection bylaw was put through all its stages and finally passed at the meeting of the City Council last night. This provides for an inspection of all new wiring or repair work and that there be certain charges for the inspection.

Alderman Casey was very dubious about the rushing through of the measure and he made a number of inquiries, apparently fearing that the charges would be an imposition on somebody. He wanted to know what was the reason for the introduction of the bylaw.

Alderman McMeekin, who had the bill in charge, said he guessed it had something to do with insurance.

The Mayor explained that all cities had wiring inspectors and they all charged for their services. Prince Rupert was just falling in line with other places in adopting the inspection system. The rates were largely copied from those in force in other cities.

PULP MILL TO BE BUILT AT MASSET INLET BY F. L. BUCKLEY AND ASSOCIATES

SAWMILLS WILL CONTINUE TO OPERATE RIGHT ALONG;
LARGEST SPRUCE LOGGING OUTFIT ON CONTINENT OF AMERICA AT QUEEN CHARLOTTES

Masset Inlet is to have a pulp mill in the near future, according to an announcement made by F. L. Buckley of the Masset Timber Co. before he left for the south Sunday night. It will be built to use up the low-grade timber that must be taken out in order to log economically on the Queen Charlottes.

The logging company, which Mr. Buckley manages, is the largest spruce logging outfit on the continent of America. There are thirty steam logging outfits getting out from eight to ten million feet a month on the 170 square miles of limits controlled by the company around the inlet. These logs, which are got out under order for the Imperial Munitions Board, are supplied to the five mills on Masset Inlet, to the Khyex Mill on the Skeena, the Georgetown mill, the Prince Rupert mill and some are sent south to Swanson Bay.

Mills to Continue.
In addition to the logging operations Mr. Buckley has two mills, one at Buckley Bay on Masset Inlet, which cuts 75,000 feet of lumber a day in one shift and the Khyex mill on the Skeena river which cuts about 50,000 feet a day. The total payroll of the concern is about $125,000 a month and of this 90 per cent of the

BOULTON MILL WILL CONTINUE TO BE OPERATED

Masset Inlet Lumber Co. of Port
Clements Making Arrangements
To Change From Munitions
Work to Commercial Business.

"Yes, we expect to work right through and devote our energies to commercial business after the Munitions Board shuts down," said G. H. Boulton of the Masset Inlet Lumber Co. of Port Clements who is in the city. Mr. Boulton, who is the proprietor of what is generally known as Boulton's Mill, was very optimistic over the future. He said there was no idea of closing just because the war was over and the demand for aeroplane spruce likely to lessen. He expects that the demand for commercial purpose will at once commence and very soon the adjustment will be made.

Mr. Boulton said that already their mill was working but one shift a day, whereas formerly they had worked two. There might, he thought, be a few weeks when orders would be light, but he did not anticipate any considerable disarrangement. They would have to change all their plans and get down to a commercial basis. He thought the labor situation would soon ease up considerably and that would make things better.

AUSTRIAN SHIPS ARE ALREADY HANDED OVER

Rome, Nov. 12.—It is officially announced that the naval clauses of the armistice treaty with Austro-Hungary have been complied with. This seems to mean that all the Austrian warships are already in the hands of the Allies.

PAUSE IN THE STEADY FLOW OF COLD CASH

Much Done Yesterday in the Victory Bond Campaign But Expected That Renewed Energy Will Follow.

Up to last night the Victory bond subscriptions amounted to $243,650 and of that amount the city of Prince Rupert alone had raised $243,650. This is not a very large increase over the amount announced on Saturday night and had it not been for the city contribution would have shown the work almost at a standstill.

At the City Council meeting last night the sum of $12,000 of the sinking funds was ordered to be invested in the bonds on the recommendation of City Treasurer Johnson.

It was announced last evening that today the canvass of the residential district by the Daughters of the Empire, headed by Mrs. G. Dawson, would commence. The canvass it is expected will bring in a good deal of cash.

It is confidently expected by the committee that Prince Rupert will go well ahead of the $100,000 asked from the district. Most of the other districts in the province have exceeded their objectives or are expecting to do so. Prince Rupert will show herself equally energetic.

Those having loose cash in the bank can easily convert it from three to five and a half per cent interest by buying the bonds.

EMERGENCY HOSPITAL HAS BEEN CLOSED

Patients Moved From Borden St.
School to General Hospital;
Epidemic Over.

To-day, the Borden Emergency Hospital ceased to be, when the last of the patients was removed. The big school building, which has proved to be of such benefit to the community during the epidemic is today deserted and quiet. The wards are all empty, and the nurses gone. The hospital impetuosity is being got rid of, and after that this hall of learning will reassume its academic appearance.

One of the patients was sent home yesterday, and this morning the remaining five were transferred to the General Hospital on Fifth Avenue, which now has some room available. Although two new cases of influenza were reported on Saturday, these came from outside, and no fresh cases have arisen in the city itself for several days. The epidemic has apparently ceased, although its results are still with us.

FOOD IN FRANCE IS VERY SCARCE

France, so far as food is concerned, is in a bad way; worse than in 1917-18.

The total nutrition value for the 1918 crop of cereals, beans and potatoes is below that of last year.

The French Food Controller is authority to this statement and that the wheat crop is large and of better quality, but the maize, barley, oats, beans and potato crops are much larger.

The potato situation is particularly grave for this year; the crop is not more than 7,500,000 long tons, as compared with an average for the last ten years of 12,000,000 long tons. According to private estimates, the total wheat crop in France for 1918 will be about 180,000,000 bushels, an increase of about 25 per cent over last year's production. For the three years preceding the war the average production was 324,187,000 bushels. In 1914 it was 282,689,000 bushels, while it dwindled to 144,149,000 bushels. It is seen that France is "up against it" as regards the food question.

If you can't fight, dammit, you can lend your money to strafe the Kaiser. Buy Victory bonds.

BIG CELEBRATION IS BEING ARRANGED TO COMMEMORATE ENDING OF FOUR YEARS' WAR

JOINT COMMITTEE DECIDES ON WEDNESDAY OF NEXT WEEK FOR DATE — NAVAL PROCESSION,
PROMENADE CONCERT, STREET
PROCESSION AND BONFIRE

Next Wednesday, the 20th of November, will be the day appointed for the city of Prince Rupert to celebrate the cessation of hostilities in Europe. This was decided this morning at a representative meeting held in the Mayor's office, when the Sons of Canada, the Sons of England, the St. Andrew's Society, the Trades and Labor Council, the G. W. V. A., the clergy, and the ex-mayors conferred regarding the matter.

While it is possible that the Government may appoint some particular date for a national day of rejoicing, it was considered as well to go ahead with the arrangements, which will not be altered on this account.

The 20th of November will be a full holiday, and the first feature of the celebration proposed is a review of the Prince Rupert fleet. Every craft in the harbor that will float is expected to join in the naval procession. An admiral will be appointed for the day who will have full charge. All the vessels are expected to be decorated to the utmost, and meantime Fred Stork, T. H. Johnson, of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co., and J. H. Meagher, of the Fishermen's Union, compose the committee in charge.

No Use For Fishermen To Send Petition.

The Mayor announced last night that so far as he was concerned, even if the fishermen did petition for the withdrawal of opposition to the Cow Bay exchange of property he would stick to his guns and hold out for the rights of the city in that property. It was also suggested that the Provincial Government should go ahead and build the floats on the Grand Trunk property without any assurance that they would get the property eventually.

If anyone asked the city to do anything like that Mayor McGlymont would be among the first to reject it. He is Scotchman enough for that and if Mr. Pattullo were to sanction a scheme of the kind both he and Alderman McMeekin and Alderman McRae would certainly have something to say.

The News is holding no brief for the Government in this matter nor for the Grand Trunk Pacific. Its viewpoint in this matter is entirely selfish. If the city goes ahead the News along with other business institutions should benefit, and nothing will help the city to go ahead so much as catering to the needs of the fishermen. They have been sadly neglected in the past and it is matter for congratulation that the Provincial Government has decided to do what it can, even though the action of the Council, no matter for what reason, makes it impossible for the whole work to be completed.

Peace Time Activity Is Already Commencing.

The announcement yesterday that arrangements had been made to go ahead with a general woodworking business at the wooden shipyard building at the drydock, is the first intimation of peace activity. Mr. Buckley had been considering the proposal for some time but it was only on Saturday that he was able to say that he had secured the ship shed and plant and could make an announcement regarding what he intended to do.

Today we are able to make a further announcement regarding a proposal to erect a pulp mill on Massett Inlet, the two capitalists Stuart Cameron and J. L. Davidson being behind it. This, it is generally admitted, is a splendid scheme and one that should prove permanent and beneficial. How far advanced the plans are we do not know, but if it matures it will be greatly to the advantage of this city.

Two Firms Were After Ship Shed.

It is interesting to note in connection with the taking of the ship shed by Mr. Buckley for woodworking purposes, that had he not taken it there was another firm ready to step in and use it for building wooden ships. A representative of the firm was in the city for several days last week and only went south on Sunday night. Of the relative value of the two concerns The News has nothing to say. The drydock belongs to the railway company and they can lease it to whom they wish. The interesting thing to Prince Rupert people is the fact that the outfit is in demand and that outsiders recognize the value of Prince Rupert as an industrial centre.

Slowing Down on Victory Loan.

There was a little slowing down on the Victory Loan canvass yesterday, owing to a combination of circumstances. It is very much to be hoped that there will be no slackening because peace has been declared. Money is needed just as much as ever to bring the boys home and to keep them until they are again absorbed into civil life.

As long ago as Friday last Anyox with her 2,000 to 2,500 inhabitants had touched the $200,000 mark and by now doubtless is far ahead of that. Prince Rupert cannot afford to be beaten by a little mining town.

City Employee Did His Work Well.

No greater thing can be said of a man than that "he did his work well." That is what is said on every hand of the late Jack Morrison. He worked for the city for a number of years and throughout that time he was keenly interested in his work. He did it in the best way he knew.

The man who does not take pleasure in his work is to be pitied. He does not get much pleasure out of life. Jack Morrison took pleasure in his work. It was his chief enjoyment and he did it so well that his late employers are keen to show their appreciation.

UPHOLDS COUNCIL

Editor, The News:

In answer to your editorial of November 11 regarding the Council's attitude toward Cow Bay, all questions have two sides, and in order to bring the matter intelligently before the public I hope you will be able to give me a little space in your valuable paper for that purpose.

In the first place, Cow Bay is the only piece of water front the city possesses where a citizen can reach the water without trespassing on private property. I certainly uphold the Council in the manner they have dealt with this question for the following reasons:

The Deputy Minister of Lands interviewed the City Council during 1917 and offered to the city 450 feet of waterfront which the G.T.P. was willing to give for the right to fill up Cow Bay. The City Council asked for this statement to be put down on paper, which he said he would do when he reached Victoria. However, the Minister of Lands repudiated the bargain and refused point blank to give any waterfront to the city, and almost demanded that the Council withdraw the protest to the Railway Board.

Under these conditions you cannot blame the City Council for their action on this question. They would have betrayed the city if they had consented to forfeit the city's rights to Cow Bay for nothing.

The Council and the citizens of Prince Rupert do not wish to work any unnecessary hardship on the railway company for they have a great many interests in common, and if this property is of vital use for the company I for one would be prepared to exchange with the company for property of similar value to the city. I would be prepared to accept the property which the company has stated they would trade for the right to fill up Cow Bay.

If the Government is prepared to do this, the city would not only erect a few piles and floats for boats to tie up to, but would build a municipal fish wharf and ice plant for the accommodation of the fishermen. Until the city gets waterfrontage it is powerless to assist this industry, which is and will remain our greatest source of income, and we must never forget that we all have lived on it.

As for the statement that the Government is short of waterfrontage to accommodate the fishermen, allow me to state that it has possessed over 1,000 feet for years and never did anything for the fishermen, and the city has sent delegation after delegation to Victoria for waterfront locations. Our present Minister of Lands was one of the most consistent in his demands at one time for the city, but, oh what a change now.

We sent a delegation in 1917 to Victoria which met the officials of the railway company before they went in front of the cabinet. The result was that they did not ask for the property which the Council instructed them to ask for.

The great drawback to this city in the fishing industry is want of waterfrontage. It is the Government's fault that we have none and when you attempt to blame the city or the City Council for the present state you are either misinformed as to the facts or you are attempting to stampee the City Council into doing an action which is not in the interest of the general public.

Partnership pre-emption abolished, but parties of not more than four may arrange for adjacent pre-emptions, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $10 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he requires land in conjunction with his farm, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

For grazing any industrial purposes, areas exceeding 240 acres may be leased by one person or company.

PRE-EMPTORS' FREE GRANTS ACT.

The scope of this Act is enlarged to include all persons joining and serving with Hired Forces. The time within which the heirs or devisees of a deceased pre-emptor may apply for title under this Act is extended from one year from the death of such person, as formerly, until one year after the conclusion of the present war. This privilege is also made retroactive.

TOWNSITE PROPERTY ALLOTMENT ACT.

Provision is made for the grant to persons holding uncompleted Agreements to Purchase from the Crown of such proportion of the land, if divisible, as the payments already made will cover in proportion to the sale price of the whole parcel. Two or more persons holding such Agreements may group their interests and apply for a proportionate allotment jointly. If it is not considered advisable to divide the land covered by an application for a proportionate allotment, an allotment of land of equal value selected from available Crown lands in the locality may be made. These allotments are conditional upon payment of all taxes due the Crown or to any municipality. The rights of persons to whom the purchaser from the Crown has agreed to sell are also protected. The decision of the Minister of Lands in respect to the adjustment of a proportionate allotment is final. The time for making application for these allotments is limited to the 1st day of May, 1919. Any application made after this date will not be considered. These allotments apply to town lots and lands of the Crown sold at public auction.

Dream Pictures

Suddenly, in the glow of the evening lamp, a presence appears—a great artist, with violin in hand; who at our bidding, draws from the strings a thrill of joy, a sob of grief, a sigh of love.

And under the enchanting witchery of music, we are transported back to the old-time rest and comfort of happier days.

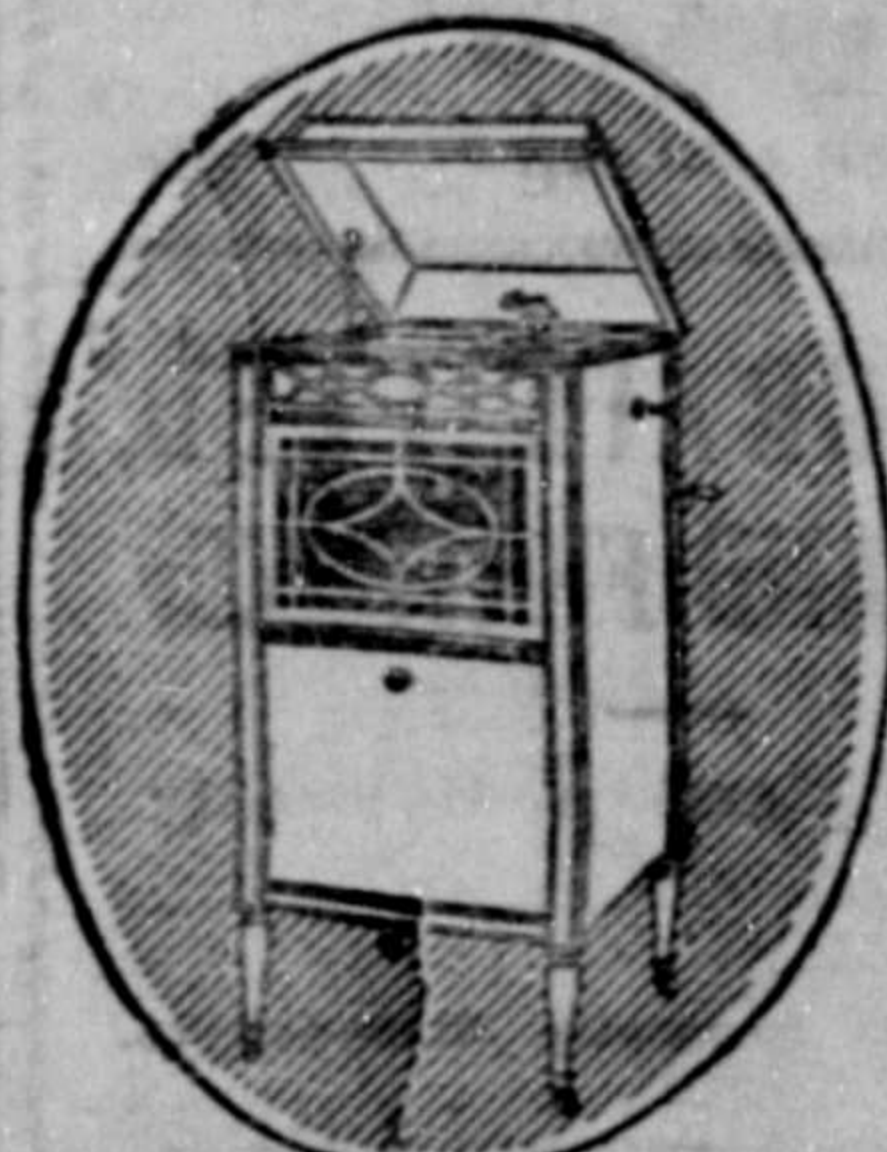

Gradually the dream picture dissolves, the presence fades, and we behold the most marvelous of all musical instruments—

NEW TRAINING CENTRE

Manitoba College Taken Over by Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment.

The Manitoba College in Winnipeg has been leased and taken over by the Department of Soldiers' Re-Establishment, to be utilized as the industrial re-training centre in the province of Manitoba.

For two reasons the developments at the Manitoba Military Hospital at Tuxedo Park have made it desirable to remove the industrial re-training work from that centre. The growth of the hospital centre has been such as to crowd the occupational therapy and the industrial re-training work so closely together that the more serious and purposeful phase was being hampered by the short hours and changing population of the occupational therapy classes.

In the second place the number of Industrial Re-training students was becoming so great that the establishment of a training school closer to the heart of the city became a matter of considerable importance.

As soon as the Manitoba College Building has been adequately equipped for the department's purposes, only the occupational therapy classes will be maintained at the Military Hospital. As can readily be realized, the atmosphere of a hospital is not conducive to the rapid development of that spirit of independent civilian status, which the vocational instructors seek to impart to the men who are fitting themselves for active participation in industry.

The new building will be installed with complete equipment necessary to give the preliminary training in a variety of trades and in draughtsmanship, mathematics and such general educational subjects as it is necessary to teach, in order to give the men a thorough grasp of the work for which they are being trained. The alterations and installation of the equipment are already under way.

PRINCE GEORGE

Up to today, Thursday, forty-six deaths have occurred in this district. There are about sixty cases in the hospital and an equal number in the homes. The police are looking after those in the outlying districts.

Lieut. John Cook formerly of this city, has been killed in action.

George Bontez, aged 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bontez, died on Wednesday and was buried on Saturday.

Mrs. Ed Hall arrived from the coast a few days ago to visit her husband who is ill with influenza in the hospital.

BONDS ALL AT SAME RATE

By purchasing in huge quantities, large institutions are often able to buy their supplies at reduced rates. But they cannot buy Victory Bonds at reduced rates. A big insurance company which announces the purchase of $10,000,000 worth of bonds is paying exactly the same price as the man who buys a single bond of the lowest denomination; and gets the same rate of interest—no more; no less. The smallest buyer of Victory Bonds "gets in" on the same terms as the "big fellow."

Help bring the boys home by buying Victory Bonds.

Oh say! The News Print Shop does its work about as cheap as most shops and quite as well, gives you the work on time whenever possible and hands it out with a pleasant "Thank you." What do you say to giving them a trial on your next job?

the journey of a ten dollar bill

I am a Ten Dollar Bill.

I may also add that I am a Canadian Ten Dollar Bill and naturally doing all I can to help our fighting boys win this war.

About a year ago when I was only a few days old, I was handed out by one of our chartered banks to a storekeeper named John Doe. I was crisp and clean then, with a bright yellow back.

I have spent a mighty busy year, and faded out a lot, but, believe me, my usefulness is as great as ever.

When I first started out in life the Victory Loan Campaign of 1917 was on. In fact, my very first job in life was to help pay for a Victory Bond John Doe had bought. Together with millions of other bills, large and small, that answered the 1917 call, I was sent to Ottawa. But I didn't stay at the Capital long.

The very next day I went to pay a lumber dealer in British Columbia for some spruce he had sold the British Government for aeroplanes. The lumber dealer immediately put me in the bank.

But just as I was getting used to my surroundings I was taken from the bank and soon found myself slipped in a small yellow envelope with some other bills and handed out one Saturday to one of the lumber company's employees, who carried me home with him, where I remained all night.

The next day in he goes to a storekeeper: "Here's the ten dollars I owe you," he said to the storekeeper, who immediately "rang me up" in his till.

But my stay there was brief. Next day the storekeeper totalled us up, and I heard him say to his assistant: "Collections are splendid again. I can pay all my accounts this month."

Shortly after this I came into the possession of a commercial traveller, and I next saw the light of day in a small restaurant in a grain town away out on the broad prairies. No sooner had I got comfortably settled in the safe when it comes a farmer with an elevator receipt which he had received for a load of wheat. "Cash this for me," he asked, and I passed into the farmer's wallet, but only for a few minutes—for on his way home he spent me at the hardware store in town for gasoline to operate his threshing outfit.

I am not going to take your valuable time going into details of the different hands I passed through in my trip east—through Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario, until I found myself in the services of a firm in Montreal engaged in making munitions. Here I took another trip to the bank.

It was very peaceful and quiet in the bank vaults. But I was glad they did not keep me there long. I don't want to be idle when there is so much war work to do. And I wasn't, for on Friday I once more found myself in a pay envelope. The man who got me said to his wife that evening—"Here is the money for the household expenses." The following Monday I was traded for shoes for the man's children.

The shoe dealer almost immediately sent me to a leather firm. They turned me over to a tannery. The tannery passed me on to a farmer to pay for some hides. The farmer bought a tractor and sent me to the city. Here I was once more enclosed in an envelope and handed to a workman on pay day. He used me to help buy a suit of clothes. The tailor sent me away down east to square his account with a cloth maker. He turned me over to a coal dealer. He spent me for fish, and I took a short trip on a fishing boat and heard the men talking about U-boats and I looked anxiously around the horizon. But we got safely home with a fine catch. The fisherman needed some new tackle, so once more I started inland.

He spent me for fish.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

He used me to help buy a suit of clothes.

I am a Ten Dollar Bill—that's my face value. You can see I am plainly marked "Ten Dollars."—But the strange thing is that during this year I have bought hundreds of dollars worth of goods, paid hundreds of dollars worth of debts on my journey from place to place in Canada. And what I am doing, forty-two million other ten dollar bills who volunteered to serve their country at the last Victory Loan, are also doing.

Older bills I have met—bills that were in circulation before the war—tell me that Canadian people don't use us for the frivolous purposes they once did. This, of course, is as it should be, because we must defeat the Germans. We must maintain our boys at the front, which we could not do if my efforts and the efforts of my fellows are ill-spent. Now, Canadian ladies and gentlemen, I am going to bring my talk to an end by telling you the queerest thing of all about my travels.

My present home is in the bank, the officials of which gave me permission to come here and address you in the interests of the Victory Loan 1918. I am at this very moment lying at the credit of the same John Doe, storekeeper, where I was last year. I heard him say when he handed me to the bank—"Put that ten dollars to my credit, please. I am going to buy some Victory Bonds next week."

So, I presume, I am destined for another trip to Ottawa, and another busy year going up and down the country—keeping factories, farms, lumber camps and stores paid for their goods and their labor. And I am proud to be of such service to my country.

Just one thing more and I am through: I hope each Canadian will do everything he can to defeat the Germans, because, if he does not, I, as a Canadian Ten Dollar Bill, will not be worth much—and German money, which I understand, is called "marks," will travel up and down Canada in our places, and my race will disappear from the face of the earth. Thanking you greatly for your attention, ladies and gentlemen.

COW BAY PROPOSAL AIRED BY CITY COUNCIL

Suggestion That Fishermen Meet Council and Discuss Project; Mayor Will Oppose Even If Petition Presented.

Even if a petition is signed asking for the city to give up its opposition to the Cow Bay exchange project the Mayor will continue to oppose it. That is what he stated last night to the City Council. He also suggested that if the fishermen wanted something they should come up there and ask for it and discuss it with the Council.

When the regular business of the Council was completed last night the mayor said he wanted to make a statement. He referred in complimentary terms to the improvement in the Daily News of late and then went on to refer to an article which appeared yesterday in regard to Cow Bay and the suggestion that a petition might be presented to the Council asking them to withdraw opposition to the exchange of property with the railway company in order that the fishermen might have the floats which the Provincial Government proposed to build.

The mayor outlined some of the history of the famous controversy and claimed for the Council credit for first proposing the building of floats. He admitted that the fishermen were the bread and butter of the city and suggested that some could find accommodation for their boats at the drydock.

Not Cussedness.

There was no opposition to the closing of Cow Bay, the Mayor said, and they were not trying to get something for nothing. It was claimed that the city had certain rights. There was a lane around the bay which was city property and it was debatable whether they had foreshore right or not. If the Government felt that the city had no claim, why did they not go ahead and build the floats. If the fishermen wanted something from the Council they should come and discuss it with them. He for one was opposed to making any concessions. Possession was nine points of the law. He saw no reason to change his views even if the petition was presented. If the Government thought the city had no claim, why did they not go ahead?

Other Opinions.

Alderman Casey claimed that the Council had not objected. Alderman McRae thought the time to discuss it would be when the petition was presented. Alderman McMeekin thought no one was keeping the people back. Why did they not go ahead? He thought the fishermen should come up there and discuss the scheme.

TEMPORARY MORGUE

Arrangements Made for Reception of Bodies Being Taken South On Princess Alice

Victoria, Nov. 11.—Space has been reserved at the Belleville Street wharves for the disposal of the remains of the Victoria victims of the Princess Sophia disaster following the arrival of the steamship Princess Alice now supposed to be on her way south. It is officially announced that the bodies will be transferred from the Princess Alice at the Belleville Street wharf, placed in alphabetical order, and elevated from floor of wharf shed. The entrance to the C.P.R. shed will be policed in order to avoid confusion. Admission to the shed for the identification of bodies will be by permit only. Permits will only be issued to relations or friends in the absence of relatives. After identification, bodies will only be delivered to relatives, or those who have written authority from relatives, to take charge of or direct interment of bodies. The unidentified bodies will be kept as long as practicable, so that relatives and friends may have a reasonable opportunity to claim any bodies whose identity may in any way be disclosed after arrival in Victoria.

MRS. OUELETTE WAS BURIED THIS MORNING

The funeral took place this morning from the Catholic Church at 9 o'clock of Mrs. Joseph Ouelette who died on Sunday at the General Hospital. Bishop Bunoz and Father McGrath officiated. The pall bearers were Joe Carron, Leon Blain, Frank Brouchu and T. Trotier. A beautiful floral anchor was sent by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Morrissey and family and a wreath by Mr. and Mrs. O. Besner. The funeral arrangements were in the hands of Haynor Brothers.

The many local friends of Mrs. Alvin Ripley, formerly of Oak Bay, will hear with deepest regret that she yassed away at Lethbridge on Saturday last, a victim of Spanish influenza, says the Victoria Times. The late Mrs. Ripley was the widow of Major Ripley who was killed in action in France some time ago. She leaves three small children to mourn her loss. A sad feature of her death is that the family but recently suffered a bereavement in the loss of her late husband's brother, who passed away at Prince Rupert following an attack of influenza and was interred at Lethbridge.
