Paris, December 14.—President Wilson arrived in Paris, the present capital of the world, at 10:11 o'clock this morning. His arrival was heralded by the booming of guns throughout the city. Vast throngs in the Champs Elysee set up a tremendous cheer. Tremendous crowds lined the entire way from the railway station to Prince Murat's palace which will be the first foreign home of an American president.
President and Madame Poincare greeted the American executive and his wife on the station platform. The two presidents rode in one carriage and their wives in another. Both carriages were decorated with flowers. The ovation was tremendous.
By a unanimous vote the Municipal Council of Paris decided to confer upon President Wilson the title of a Citizen of Paris.

The Elihu Thompson herself was forced into shelter and battled out the storm with two anchors out and engines going full speed ahead.

ELEVENTH HOUR ATTACK ON LLOYD GEORGE IN ENGLAND BY LIBERAL LABORITES

CONSCRIPTION IS BONE OF CONTENTION—PREMIER SAYS QUESTION DEPENDS ON WHAT PEACE TERMS ARE MADE—EXTREMISTS LOSING GROUND

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)
London, Dec. 14.—The British elections are on today. The campaign closed with a strong eleventh hour attack on the coalition regarding conscription. Liberals and Laborites complaining that the Premier's promises are too vague. He said he was looking forward to conditions of things wherein a league of nations would make conscription unnecessary.
"Whether you require conscription or not depends entirely on what peace terms are made. If you want permanent peace you must put an end to conscription armies on the continent of Europe," the Premier said. At the same time he states definitely there is no intention of renewing the Military Service Act, which was only passed to meet a great emergency. He describes these attacks as the usual attempts to frighten the electorate.
Labor extremists are losing ground through not calculating the violence of their treatment of the army question.

Ships Returning To the Pacific.

It is satisfactory news which came yesterday to the effect that arrangements are being made with the Imperial Ministry of Shipping for ships to return to the Pacific routes at an early date. It will take some time to have the ships reconverted into passenger carriers, following their use for war purposes. It will also take a little time to replace those vessels which have been lost.

Prince Rupert cannot expect to get a line running out of this port until such time as the Canadian vessels return to their regular runs and displace some of the Japanese ships which are now engaged in that business. There has been all the business that could be handled offering at the older ports during the war period, so that it was useless to expect them to come here. Just as soon as they find themselves crowded out of the business at Vancouver, Seattle, Portland and San Francisco, they will be open to put some of their ships on a new route.

During war time the Japanese have had not only their own regular business but also that usually handled by the C. P. R. vessels and the lines of freighters which usually ply on the Pacific, such as the Blue Funnel and the ships handled by Frank Waterhouse. With those running regularly and taking a good deal of the business it should be easy to secure some of the smaller vessels of the Japanese or other lines. The ideal method would be to run Canadian vessels, but any line that is willing to put ships on the run will be welcomed here.

Housing Problem Must Be Tackled.

There is practically no accommodation here for those who wish to keep house in the city, and even rooms are difficult to secure. There are people looking for accommodation constantly and none can be found. When the industrial movement commences here, after the new year, the very first thing to be done will be to provide for the workmen who will be coming. Probably the new company will undertake to house some of their men, but there will be others besides company workers. The moment it is announced that work on the shipbuilding plant has actually begun there will be an influx of all sorts of people. To take care of these will be a problem. It is something to be considered very soon. This is not a good building season, but there are men idle just now and with the assurance that the work is to proceed, a start might be made on the erection of cottages or portable houses as a temporary expedient.

Consider Insurance When Planning to Build.

Those who are preparing to erect business buildings should consider well the possibilities of making them permanent structures that will conform to the building restrictions and thus reduce the fire risks. A very few concrete or brick buildings among the wooden structures would materially reduce the insurance rates on the whole town and be a great asset. The erection of the Royal Bank building reduced the rate on all other structures in the block one per cent. A similar building on or near the other corner would make a further reduction. Insurance rates should certainly enter into any calculations for building. A considerable cut in the rates would make it worth while to spend a good deal more to have the structures of a permanent character.

Women Voting In Great Britain.

Today is a great day for women. The mother of parliaments has at last recognized them and they now have equal rights with men. At the next session there is a possibility of women rising in their seats and addressing Mr. Speaker.

Keir Hardie was the first member to sit in the house wearing anything but a silk hat. Now it is very possible that ribbon and flower bedecked head-gear will relieve the monotony of the scene and plumes may wave among the stove pipes. Possibly though women, with the added dignity of office, will take a notion to reform their wearing apparel and put plumes and feathers into the discard, where they should have gone many years ago.

ONE OF CHIEF INDUSTRIES OF PRINCE RUPERT IS THE SEAL COVE LUMBER MILL

HAS MOST UP-TO-DATE MACHINERY AND LABOR-SAVING DEVICES OF ANY MILL IN THE WEST;
UNIQUE FEATURES

Prince Rupert will flourish just to the extent to which her industries prosper. With industry tied up, everything suffers. With everything running full blast everyone has plenty of money and everyone feels happy.

Naturally everyone is looking to the shipbuilding to be the industry which will carry the city forward on the next step toward greatness. Then there will come the transpacific shipping trade and industries of various kinds will spring up. It must not be forgotten, however, that there are two basic industries here which will prove very valuable. One of these is the fishing industry, about which so much has been said, and the other is the manufacture of lumber and lumber products.

The Prince Rupert Lumber Co. has its mill right here in Prince Rupert on a site admirably suited for the purpose and it promises to develop a permanent industry where there is a constant demand not only for lumber but for its manufactured products such as shingles and box shooks.

The Plant.

The mill was designed with a view to efficiency and low cost of production, in aid of which modern machinery and modern methods have been employed. The plant when completed will consist of a saw mill, shingle mill, planing mill, dry kilns and storage sheds, with the possible addition of a box plant later, and will have a daily capacity of 125,000 feet of lumber and 150,000 shingles.

Equipment.

The saw mill is of extra strong construction, 46 feet by 250 feet, two stories high and is equipped with machinery of the heavy Pacific coast type. A log lift is employed for taking the logs into the mill instead of the old type Jack Ladder, and this particular lift is an innovation in that it is a double lift having two sets of cables, the one delivering the logs to the saw mill and the other throwing the logs to the shingle mill deck. A reversible engine of the twin feed type supplies power for the lift and is entirely independent of the other machinery in the mill.

On the log deck there is a heavy four arm steam shop and loader down against which the logs are rolled from the lift and which in turn passes them on the Simondson turner. The Simondson turner is of the standard type in use on the coast with the addition of an independent skid lift, making it much more flexible than the old type. In addition a heavy canting gear was installed to be used in emergencies.

Saw Works.

The 40-foot carriage is equipped with four steel head blocks opening 66 inches and is mounted on heavy three wheeled cast steel trucks running on 90-pound rails, two flat and one V'd. Here on the carriage we find another of the distinguishing features of this plant—that is an electrically driven set works, one of the latest developments in saw mill machinery. In this piece of equipment an electric motor of the ordinary type, by means of an assembly of gears and clutches, transmits its power directly to the set shaft on the head blocks. The whole arrangement forms a self contained and compact unit which is quick, powerful and positive in its action. This machine is so constructed as to eliminate any possibility of an over-throw in setting out and contains many other distinguishing features that can be appreciated only by seeing it in actual operation. This is the first set works of its kind to be installed in British Columbia.

A ten foot band mill carrying sixteen-inch saws was installed to break down the timber for the gang, the edger and roller band resaw. Provision has been made for a large gang saw but this machine will not be put in place until the balance of the plant is in operation.

The edger is ten by sixty inches with steam lift on the press rolls and carries five thirty-two inch movable saws. Here we find another departure from the usual installation in the employment of a mechanical spotter eliminates the heavy lifting or "arm strong" work usually required to get the lumber through an edger.

Dry Kilns.

The dry kilns will be of crib construction, double tracked and will be three in number at the start with ample room for increasing the number. Two of the kilns will handle lumber while the third will be used for drying shingles. The lumber will be edge stacked and run into the kilns lengthwise which system makes for rapid drying with a minimum deterioration of stock. Edge stacked lumber comes from the kiln uniformly dry and practically free from checks, warps, and twists, and shows a comparatively small loss in dressing. Ample trackage is provided at both ends of the kilns for storage of lumber on kiln cars, a system of transfers being used to distribute the cars to the different kilns.

Storage.

The storage shed consists of what is known as a four track monorail shed and is 90 feet wide by 400 feet long and 40 feet high, being entirely under roof and sided in so that the lumber is protected from the elements at all times, and is so constructed as to increase the natural draft, thus constituting a rapid air drier. Here the lumber is stored in the original packages or units until it is wanted for shipment, when it is again picked up by the hoist and taken to the shipping platform. This system affords an expeditious and economical method of handling and makes possible the storage of a very large quantity of lumber on a small ground space.

Monorail System.

The monorail is employed throughout the plant for handling and transporting the lumber, a system having been evolved to meet the particular conditions presented. After a thorough investigation and study of the systems in use in the various mills on the coast, a combination of the monorail and the transfer crane was adopted as the best suited to the requirements of this plant. Along the outside of each sorting

Principle Problems Ahead of Canada Dealt With at Annual Meeting of Bank of Montreal

Sir Vincent Meredith, President, discussed the difficult problems of increased taxation. Bank will open branch in Paris, France.

Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, General Manager, pointed out that there never was a time when country was in more need of a sane financial policy.

Montreal, Dec. 14.—(Special) The annual meeting of the Bank of Montreal was featured by most important reference to the problems that Canada had to work out during the post-bellum period.

The announcement came at a most opportune moment as every manufacturer and business man of Canada is trying to figure out how the Dominion is going to pass through the inevitable period of readjustment.

Sir Vincent Meredith, the President, dealt particularly with the problems immediately ahead of the country. The most important Sir Vincent pointed out, was how the country was to meet the interest on the vast debt of possibly $1,800,000,000 which would exist after the war. Increased production would relieve the country of a portion of its burden and this, with strict economy and growing population, would in time adjust the difficulties of the country.

Taxation cannot easily be lessened and may be increased, added Sir Vincent. A levy on capital, advocated in some quarters, must only result in the stifling of individual incentive and enterprise and the penalizing of industry, self-denial and thrift. Taxing capital to the point of unemployment in industrial enterprise would involve unemployment of labor and produce serious consequences. If placed principally on consumption, the burden of taxation is distributed.

The New Conditions.

With the cessation of hostilities, the cancellation of munitions contracts has begun and the adaptation of war industries to peace conditions will doubtless bring about a check with possible dislocation of business but these adverse factors should prove transitory.

If Canada is to share in the business opportunities during the period of reconstruction, the banks must stand by ready to arrange liberal and probably long term lines of credit providing the necessary funds from their own resources or availing themselves of rediscount with the Dominion Government.

As the war ends, all signs point to a great demand for capital for reconstruction, refunding and replacement purposes and interest rates in consequence will in all probability rule high for some time to come.

With particular reference to the affairs of the Bank, Sir Vincent announced that the distribution to the shareholders would now take the form of a straight dividend of 12 p.c. per annum, instead of a dividend of 10 per cent and a bonus of 2 p.c. With a view of enabling Canada to be closely in touch with the affairs in France during the period of reconstruction the Bank was also making arrangements for the opening of a branch in Paris.

Sane Financial Policy.

Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, the General Manager, dealt more especially with the growth and development of the business of the Bank and financial conditions in the principal centres of the world. Sir Frederick pointed out that there never was a time when Canada was more in need of sound economic thinking and a sane financial policy as at present.

With the acquisition of the Bank of British North America the resources of the Bank now totalled $558,413,546, of which $34,468,283, belonged to the shareholders and $523,945,262 was entrusted to the care of the Bank by the public. It was worthy of note that the Bank's total assets are now as great as were the combined total assets of all the Canadian Chartered Banks seven years ago.

The Bank ever kept before it its duty to its depositors and shareholders. At the same time the Bank had a further duty, national in nature, in financing established business and in fostering the young industries of the Dominion. For these various purposes the power of the Bank was greater than ever before while its position had never been stronger or more elastic. It was of interest to point out that while the cost of everything else had risen the public had paid no higher rate of interest for banking accommodation than before the war.

As regards the outlook in the country, Sir Frederick said:—"It will bear repeating that Canada possesses all the attributes of a great nation, excepting population. The crying necessity of the hour is for increased production. This cannot be fully achieved without immigration. We have room and opportunity for many millions of farmers and for a good class of labor to develop our mineral wealth and our fisheries and to convert our great forests into lumber and into pulp and paper. One sure way of attracting much immigration is to make living in Canada cheap. To attain this object there must be an end to the public and private extravagance of the past."

Business is Good.

Sir Vincent Meredith said in part:—

"The business of the Bank has been well maintained during the year. In view of possible Government financing and the somewhat uncertain outlook at home and abroad, we have consistently set our faces against over-expansion which is to be deprecated under existing conditions. While giving our customers all reasonable accommodation required and taking up many new desirable accounts, we have maintained a strong liquid position, continuing a well considered policy of the Bank; a policy which in the past as now, has added materially to the Bank at home and abroad and of Canadian finance generally.

"Turning to the British finance, two outstanding features during the year were: First, the success of the system of continuous borrowing by means of the 5 p.c. Nations War Bonds, which were made available to investors at all times on application. This plan yielded the huge sum of £1,200,000,000 from daily subscriptions and avoided the unsettling of the money market which invariably attended the placing of great war loans. Notwithstanding this remarkable response of the investing public, deposits held by the Bank of England are actually larger than a year ago.

"The second feature is the amalgamation of some of the more important banks in Great Britain, resulting in a closer cooperation between the Imperial Treasury and the banks in meeting and solving the financial problems with which the country was faced.

Change Policy Slightly.

"The question of opening branches in foreign countries to participate in the business that may arise in connection with reconstruction requirements abroad is one that has received considerable attention from your directors. Following the policy of many English banks, we have deemed it prudent to refrain from establishing branches at points far afield where Canadian capital would be required in local and possible competitive industries, preferring rather to strengthen and extend our relations with foreign banking houses and to retain their good-will, thereby conserving our resources for the assistance and encouragement of home trade. In this connection it may be well to mention that we propose presently to establish an agency of the bank in Paris, not for the purpose of loaning Canadian funds, but to supply necessary banking facilities to Canadians travelling abroad and to further the interests of Canada generally in France.

"Sooner or later we in this country will without doubt have to meet foreign trade competition of cheap and skilled labor together with advantageous transportation facilities, to a more pronounced extent than Canada has yet experienced. If this competition is to be effectively coped with, the increased efficiency, cooperation and co-ordination to which I have referred are essential. Our best energies must be directed to greatly increased production of our basic, agricultural and other great natural resources. In this way, and by strict economy in government, municipal and personal expenditures, a solution can be found of our difficulties of exchanges, the maintenance of our favorable trade balance and the payment of our war debt. Otherwise, we must look for a shrinkage in business, to be followed by a readjustment of the scale of wages for labor and of the prices of all commodities.

"We shall undoubtedly for some years have to pay in relatively high taxation the price of our devotion and patriotism, but I am confident this will be done uncomplainingly, in the belief that all present and prospective difficulties can and will be overcome."

Stood Strain Well.

Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor said in part:—

"The east with which financial Canada has met the stress of war condition has been favorably commented upon abroad. At home one hears no expression of surprise at the stable financial conditions in the Dominion.

"The real basis of that stability is a banking system that has proved most efficient in peace times and, with the facilities accorded by the Minister of Finance, has withstood the severe test of war times. The system as it stands is without doubt adequate to meet any possible demands arising during the reconstruction period and for many years thereafter.

"The anticipated disturbance in bank deposits resulting from domestic Government war loans has subsided, and was to be expected. Seeing that the proceeds of such loans remain in the country, the money, of necessity, finds its ultimate way back to the banks through one channel or another; and therefore the loanable capital of the banks is, in the long run, undiminished. On the other hand the strength of the banker's position has largely in his command of numerous small deposits. The volume of deposits has increased by many millions, but the number has not grown proportionately. Our own deposits are now $569,727,811.96, as compared with $330,795,790.72 a year ago. This sum includes $48,950,000 Bank of British North America money. As usual, we have certain large deposits of special character. The increase in our savings deposits is reasonably satisfactory.

Rates Not Increased.

"As regards profits, an impression exists that these war years have been unusually fruitful for the banks. The reply is that when adequate provision has been made for unknown future rates for taxation in Canada and elsewhere, for the increased cost of administration, for heavy depreciation in even the most gilt edged securities, it may be stated without reservation that the net results are none too ample for safety. I would emphasize another point, viz., that while the cost of everything else has risen, the public have paid no higher rate of interest for banking accommodation than before the war.

"After passing through the inevitable period of economic confusion which all countries must endure, that country of boundless wealth and virility, the United States, the only great power, by the way, to emerge from the war better off financially, may probably enter upon an area of unprecedented expansion and development. Canada must share in such prosperity independently of the part we hope to take in supplying Europe's reconstruction and regular demands. Meanwhile, there never was a time when our country was more in need of sound economic thinking and sane financial policy.

"Our New York and London offices have been invaluable channels for international transactions during the war.

"In London, the important banking events of the year have been a series of bank amalgamations regarded by those competent to judge as wise preparation for foreign trade competition after the war.

"The Dominion has been penalized during the past year by a heavy premium on New York funds. This new condition is a matter of wide-spread interest.

"In theory, there are four ways in which this onerous penalty can be removed; by increased exports; by reduced imports; by paying in gold; or, by borrowing in outside markets. None of these remedies is at hand, but with the return of peace, Canada should at least be able to float public loans in New York. Then also we can hope for better things so far as imports and exports are concerned. Also there is on balance a large amount owing our Government by the Imperial Government and $200,000,000 is owing the Banks of Canada by the Imperial Government, representing wheat and munition purposes. In due course, these combined amounts will aid the exchange situation. The premium in question should, therefore, diminish sooner or later to a point that will be immaterial. Meantime it discourages the importation of non-essentials from the United States, and the investment of Canadian funds in American and foreign securities."

Many of the Best Families of British Columbia and Vancouver

Barred influenza from their homes altogether. Others banished it quickly as it did appear, by following the example of the Argentine Republic, South America, where thousands of cases developed, but not a single death occurred.

These people use a simple but very effective remedy grown in South America, Cinchona or Peruvian Tree Bark steeped in pure wine by which process the powerful tonic properties of the Bark are extracted and held in suspension in the wine.

Cinchona Tree Bark imported from Peru, South America, steeped or macerated in pure wine for sixty days, then carefully filtered and bottled is sold under the Proprietary or Patent Medicine Act of Canada No. 3095 as KENNEDY'S TONIC PORT at Drug Stores only.

Testimonials from the very best people of Vancouver, Victoria and throughout British Columbia and Western Canada are voluntarily coming in. Many of them state that it saved their lives. Others that it restored them to vigorous health quickly after the Flu.

It is a reliable restorative in all cases of general and nervous debility and is enjoyed when other medicines disagree.

You who are nervous, rundown or anaemic will find it of special value.

THE MYSTIC BEAUTY OF MUSIC WAS NEVER MORE NEEDED IN THE HOME THAN IT IS THIS CHRISTMAS

When cloud-banks blot the sky dull grey, or whistling winds make outdoors disagreeable, how cheery and exhilarating are bright lights and sparkling fires;

And in these soul-trying days, how welcome is the cheery brightness—the soothing caress—the soul-satisfying message—of the music you love.

So this Christmas you need music more than ever—good music, that brings the spirit of Christmas to everyone, young and old. Such is the music of

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

"And You Really Bake Bread Before You 'OK' the Wheat?"

The expression of a lady visitor in our laboratory the other day, when she saw our chemist taking several loaves of bread from his test-oven, and telling her that only the wheat producing the biggest "sprung" loaf would be accepted for milling into—

ROYAL STANDARD FLOUR

Not only size, but color and texture also enter into his analysis of the results produced from different wheat. He grinds, "gluten tests" and bakes samples of all wheat before acceptance at our mill. In this way the uniformity and superiority of ROYAL STANDARD FLOUR is maintained. Of course, it is different—our laboratory makes it so.

We extend a personal invitation to you to call at our laboratory, or write us regarding your baking troubles.

FRIENDS THOUGHT HE WOULD DIE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Conquered Dyspepsia and Restored His Health.

MR. ROBERT NEWTON.

Little Bras d'Or, C. B. "I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches, and did not sleep well at night. I lost so much weight—going from 185 pounds to 146 pounds—that I became alarmed and saw several doctors who, however, did me no good. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'.

In a week, there was improvement. The constipation was corrected; and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

ELECTRICITY FOR INDIANS

People at Village of Lak Kaltzap on Naas River Get Modern Lighting System Installed.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS FOR STREETS AND HOUSES

In order that the Indian population of the village of Lak-Kaltzap, which lies some forty miles below Aiyansh on the Naas river, may have a sufficiency of illumination in their homes and on the village streets, D. R. Kennedy of the Prince Rupert Engineering and Supply Company, left town yesterday on his way to the village. He is going there to install one of the famous "Delco" lighting plants, for which his firm are agents.

The plant is similar to that used at the exhibition here in September. The Indian visitors when here then saw it at work, and decided that it was what they wanted. The system installed will carry some 200 lights, and will serve both the houses in the village and also the streets. The Indians in northern B. C. are nothing if not up to date, and this venture at Lak Kaltzap is expected to be followed by many of the other Indian villages in the district.

The Indians of this same village are contemplating erecting a sawmill for themselves, which may be a hydro-electric proposition also.

The first cost of this new system of village lighting to be installed at Lak Kaltzap will be over $2,000, and the system itself is capable of expansion, if need be, to meet the growing necessities of the people there. Most of the work of installation is already completed, and all that remains to be done now is the final touches from Mr. Kennedy to enable the Indians there to see one another after dark.

table is a monorail track which extends the entire length of the sorters and terminates in a transfer bridge running across the entire plant and yard at right angles to the monorail tracks. Mounted on the bridge is 30 foot transfer crane with a monorail suspended beneath which comes into exact alignment with the stubends of the various monorails throughout the plant and enables the hoist to pass from one track to another via this transfer crane without releasing its load. This system gives access to any and all parts of the plant and storage with one hoist and without the employment of switches or curves.

Consistent efficiency was the chief aim of the designers of this plant and successful performance should be their reward. The unlimited supply of virgin spruce, the ample log storage and the excellent facilities for manufacturing, handling and shipping make it eminently possible for this mill to produce lumber at a minimum cost.

MAKE PROVISION FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS. Victoria, Dec. 14.—With the possibility of a considerable amount of unemployment resulting as an aftermath of the war, and in view of the fact that some sixty to eighty returned men are being discharged within this Military District each day, Premier Oliver was asked as to what provision the Provincial Government had made in relation to employment on public works. "Instructions have been given by the Provincial Government that in all provincial public works the preference in the matter of employment is to be given to returned soldiers and sailors, and in the second place to British Columbia citizens," was the Premier's prompt reply. "And so that there shall be no doubt upon the matter every department affected has been duly and officially notified in this regard," said Mr. Oliver with emphasis.
