PECK CREATES SENSATION IN HOUSE OF COMMONS BY DEFENSE OF CANADIANS

CHARGES SIR CHAS. FERGUSON WITH BEING INFLUENCED BY GERMAN WIFE—CURRIE'S ACTION UPHELD BY GREATEST MILITARY GENIUS OF THE AGE

(Special to The News via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Ottawa, March 15.—Speeches made in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon by Lieut.-Col. C. W. Peck, V. C., and W. S. Currie, caused interest to flare up.

Colonel Peck confined himself practically to a vigorous reply to recent criticisms by Sir Sam Hughes of the overseas command. Due to Woman.

The member for Skeena caused somewhat of a sensation by his attack on Sir Charles Ferguson. According to Col. Peck this officer, in an insulting message, had put Canadians out of bounds. He remarked that the solicitude for Cologne might have been due to the fact that Sir Charles' wife was a woman of Cologne.

Colonel Peck produced two maps of the war zone around Cambrai to illustrate its importance from a military point of view in its relation to the whole battlefield. It was a great transportation centre. While the Germans held the town and the country around it, were in control of the canal and could flood certain areas in such a way as to strengthen their position. If, however, they could be beaten back from the town, their right flank would be imperilled.

The importance of controlling Cambrai was agreed upon by the British Generals, said Col. Peck, and was also considered of great strategic value by the German general staff. The action at Cambrai was not a local Canadian act. It was part of a vast military enterprise, which extended over a great stretch of country, and lasted for days and weeks. It was part of General Foch's scheme of striking at different parts of the line until he broke the heart of the German people, and forced the German Government to sign the most humiliating armistice in the history of nations.

No Canadian Wrong.
If the battle of Cambrai was wrong it was not due to General Currie and to the Canadian high command. If anything was wrong it was due to the British general staff, and their action had the concurrence of the greatest military genius of the age.

ENEMY ALIENS WILL REMAIN DISFRANCHISED

Draft of New Election Act Pre- pared and Printed—Women To Sit in Parliament.

(Special by G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Ottawa, March 15.—While a draft of the new Federal Franchise has been prepared and printed, final consideration has not yet been given it by the cabinet. It is certain that the principle of the War Time Election Act, with its effect of disfranchising all alien enemies, will be continued, but in a somewhat modified way, but it may be limited to five or ten years, and it is probable also that the disfranchisement may apply only to such as have been naturalized in the last ten years.

Evaders and defaulters are to be disfranchised for a period yet undecided. The right of women, not only to vote but to sit in parliament, is likely to be attained.

PROVINCE MUST NOT PAY ANY COMPENSATION

Claims of Dependents of Princess Sophia Victims Outlined by Mr. Justice Clement.

C. P. R. GETS INJUNCTION TO PREVENT PAYMENT

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Vancouver, March 15.—Mr. Justice Clement gave judgment in the case of the Canadian Pacific Railway vs. the Workmen's Compensation Board of British Columbia in favor of the plaintiff company, and restraining the Board from paying out further compensation to dependents of the company's employees, who lost their lives in the sinking of the Princess Sophia.

Judgment was given on the contention that the jurisdiction of the act does not extend to the scene of the wreck, which occurred in American waters.

The judgment is being appealed.

MEMBER WANTS PRINCESS SENT OUT OF COUNTRY

S. W. Jacobs Accuses Princess Radziwill of Being Convicted Felon Who Victimized Rhodes.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Ottawa, March 15.—S. W. Jacobs has a question in the House of Commons' order paper relating to Princess Radziwill who is touring western Canada, in which, according to Mr. Jacobs, she charges Jews generally as being in alliance with Bolsheviki.

He asks if it is in the knowledge of the Government that the "woman in question is a convicted felon and has served a term of imprisonment for forgery and attempted blackmail and that one victim was the late Right Hon. Cecil Rhodes." He also asks if it is the intention of the Government to take steps for the expulsion of the so-called princess from the country.

GENERAL SAM STEELE DIED OF BROKEN HEART

Death Caused by Unfair Treat- ment, Says Brig.-Gen. Smart in Quebec Legislature.

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Quebec, March 15.—Brigadier-General C. A. Smart, C. M. G., Conservative member for Westmount in the Quebec Legislature, delivered an outspoken attack on the Canadian medical services in England, France and Canada. They had been careless and callous, he said. He alleged favoritism and "pull" had been practiced by General Jones, Colonel I. Chisholm, Surgeon General Bapiste, General Foster and others. He affirmed that General Sir Sam Steele died of a broken heart, due to unfair treatment received from headquarters, and added that he had the approval of Lady Steeles and family to make this statement.

PROHIBITION FOR A YEAR FOLLOWING PEACE DECLARATION

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Ottawa, March 15.—To validate legislation the war measure prohibition, to make it effective one year after the official declaration of peace is the policy of the Dominion Government, announced Sir Thomas White, acting premier.

The Government is also considering a plebescite.

VANCOUVERS WIN THE HOCKEY LEAGUE BUT WILL NOT GO EAST

(Special via G. T. P. Telegraphs.)

Vancouver, March 15.—The Vancouver team finished at the top of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, but will not defend the Stanley Cup. In the final of the post-schedule series Vancouver won a splendid victory over Seattle last night by a score of 4 to 1, but did not win hard enough to land the home and home series of games played for the right to contest the victorious easterners, the Canadiens of Montreal, when that team arrives to play the world's series.

New York, March 14.—Eight cases of sleeping sickness came under the observation of health officials here. The first death due to the strange malady occurred Wednesday.

STEAM REPLACED BY MOTOR VESSELS IN THE OLD COUNTRY

Considering that eleven years ago there was not a motor vessel in the Scottish fishing fleet, the position today is rather remarkable. Their number now exceeds that of the steamers engaged in the work, and there is no visible reason why the improvement in that direction should not be a continuing one. The annual report of the Fisheries Board states that 1,262 vessels fitted with internal combustion engines are now in commission, as compared with 932 steamers; 274 were added last year, 175 of which are of over 40 ft.

Paraffin motors of well known British makes are still in favor with owners, although for the large boats hot-bulb engines are beginning to be favored, on account of their lower running costs due to the cheaper fuel which is utilisable in them. But for the difficulty while the war lasted of obtaining suitable oil engines—oil engines of any kind, in fact—the increase in the number of motor craft would, of course, have been greater. While, however, the war hindered the visible progress of the movement in that way, it may be said to have helped it in another.

Steam fishing vessels were largely used by the naval author-

FARMERS DETERMINED FOR LOWER TARIFF

Lethbridge, March 15.—H. W. Wood, president, speaking here while on a tour of Southern Alberta in connection with the entry of the United Farmers of Alberta into the political field, stated that the organized farmers are merely taking advantage of present unrest sweeping the world to round out their activities and hope to be able to take united action in the fields of education, commerce and politics. Asked regarding the flooding of Ottawa with telegrams urging tariff reductions, he stated that on Thursday the U. F. A. central office sent out 150 messages to locals urging that such telegrams might be sent to members and ministers at Ottawa to show there were no weak knees on the tariff issue so far as the West is concerned.

Vancouver, March 15.—Chief Justice Hunter ruled in favor of the executors over the succession duties payable from the estate of the late Sir William Van Horne, who owned 2,000 shares of stock in the B. C. Sugar Refinery valued at $300,000.

The Provincial authorities claimed $14,242 as a portion of the tax payable in British Columbia but the executors were upheld in their contention that $8,523 should be payable.

Railway Situation Discussed in East.

In discussing the railway situation in which Prince Rupert is very much interested the Montreal Gazette has the following: The propaganda for the acquisition by the Government not merely of the Grand Trunk, but also of the Canadian Pacific Railway, continues in the Toronto press. The Globe believes that "nationalization of all the railways in the Dominion would be preferable to competition between State-owned and privately-owned systems of lines, but if there must be competition, the men put in charge of the National Railways should not be handicapped at the outset by the purchase at high prices of railway stock that has only a remote speculative value, and is not represented by any existing assets."

The qualification relates to the price the Government may pay for Grand Trunk common stock.

It is scarcely necessary to point out that before purchasing a property two things must be determined; first, can it be acquired and, second, will the purchase be advantageous? The Grand Trunk is the subject of discussion. Advocates of nationalization desire to link up this splendid system with the Government railway, that has fallen a burdensome legacy upon the country, in the hope that its traffic production will lighten the weight of that burden. The Grand Trunk, as every other utility, can, assuredly, be bought at a price, but we are not greatly concerned with this phase of the subject. It cannot and ought not to be bought at less than fair value, in the appraisal of which both past service and future prospects must be reckoned; and, most of all, should it not be bought, even were the road in the market, until public interest in the purchase has first been absolutely demonstrated. No one has attempted to do this. No one has brought down the question from the vapory clouds of a senseless cry for nationalization to the concrete basis of argument of public advantage. The Grand Trunk needed because of its traffic productivity in Central Canada? That traffic will still rise under private ownership, will still serve distributing points throughout Canada and beyond Canada; and, so far as the Government railway system is concerned, every pound of that traffic can be secured to the Government railways by arrangement of running rights and interchange of freight.

Government is Really the People.

The Government is nothing but a name for the people, and in discussion of this question the interest of the latter alone needs consideration. The people of Canada are carrying a heavy debt, how heavy the levy of income tax is now causing them to realize. It is a moot question whether the Government can borrow for the experiment of public ownership, the scores of millions that would be involved in the purchase of the Grand Trunk, at a time when money is being poured out like water in highway soldier land settlement, housing and like projects, to say nothing of the millions needed to put the existing Government lines in efficient shape. But, assuming for the argument, that money can be readily procured, assuming that the Grand Trunk is purchasable, wherein does the benefit consist? Improved service? To suggest such a thing in relation to Government ownership and operation only excites ridicule. Lower rates of transportation? That, indeed was primarily the hope, and may still be the appetite of advocates of nationalization; but experience has already destroyed the hope, and understanding has dulled the appetite.

Fair Trial in United States.

Government operation has had a fair trial in the United States with, as a result, higher transportation rates, impaired service, and a condition of financial impotency that promises to restore the railways of that country to private management as the only escape from disaster. In England the virulent craze for Government ownership is rampant. Why? To reduce rates of carriage? Not at all, but to increase wages of employees, and wages cannot be raised without augmenting the cost of the product of labor which is the tariff rate of transportation.

There is the case of the Grand Trunk Pacific. That enterprise has not proved as profitable as its promoters anticipated, for reasons not now necessary to recapitulate; but the enterprise has been of great value to Canada. Many portions of the Northwest have by it been brought under settlement; it has in one crop year carried the large quantity of 40,000,000 bushels of grain; it has promoted settlement, development and traffic in what was formerly a fertile waste. But it has not produced net earnings commensurate with fixed charges, and it may be has not of late, since the advance in wages, been able to overcome operating expenses out of gross receipts. If this be so, the Grand Trunk Pacific will require to be nursed over the lean years, may, indeed, become a charge upon the country as did the Canadian Northern, unless the wiser course of aiding the enterprise until it is firmly on its feet is adopted. In any event the road cannot now be abandoned, and the important communities it serves left stranded. We are convinced, convinced by remote and near experience, that if any way out of the nationalization of the Grand Trunk Pacific can be found, it should be taken. The railway is capably managed, performs good service, and a dollar loaned it by the Government will not add one tittle of debt to the burden that would be imposed upon the people if the property were nationalized. Canada has reached a point where sane thinking, cautious action and prudent policy must be employed to avert serious financial difficulty.

It is from an actual photograph of Anna Case of the Metropolitan Opera singing in direct comparison with her own voice on the New Edison.

"But what's remarkable about this?" you ask. The amazing fact is that no human ear can distinguish the artist from the instrument; so perfect is the Re-Creation. This is what we call the "tone test". And it proves the truth of the Edison Company's claims about

The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

It proves that the instrument does re-create, not merely imitate. Hundreds of these tone tests have been conducted. More than 2,000,000 people have attended them. And not one could say when it was the artist he heard and when the instrument. With the lights lowered to hide the singer's lips the audience was completely baffled.

Visit our store for a demonstration of the marvelous New Edison or have one sent to your home. No obligation, of course.

EDUCATION MINISTER ON KEEPING ALIVE

Points to Be Observed in Planning Holiday — Golfer Should Not Be Consulted.

H. A. L. Fisher, Minister of Education, lecturing before the members of the Educational Congress at University College, London, on "The Art of Keeping Alive," said—If there was to be a public system of education in this country the teacher must be of as much public interest as the taught, and this not only at one point of his life but throughout his career. The art of keeping alive was one thing and the art of longevity another. It was always creditable to be alive, but it was not always creditable to be old. We all know the familiar figure of the scholar with drooping shoulders and bespectacled face. A good test of proving a scholar was to ask him how long he wished to live. If his answer was 80, he would not be a first-class scholar. He should at least desire to live to a hundred, but of course all men were not of this calibre.

Libraries.

Mr. Fisher referred to the importance of reading in "the art of keeping alive." A school without a library, he said, is like a man without eyes. It is by your libraries man shall judge you. To neglect to provide a school with books was a form of parsimony.

Holidays.

The right use of a holiday was another important point in the art, and he suggested that the following fourteen points should be observed before taking holidays:

1. Plan your holiday carefully, but be ready to abandon it on the slightest provocation.
2. Never go north when you can go south.
3. A change of work is in itself a holiday.
4. Never drive when you can walk and never walk when you can ride.
5. Take short cuts if you will, but there is seldom time for them.
6. A good holiday is like eternity—there is no reckoning of time.
7. One of the best fruits of a holiday is a new friendship.
8. Stay where you are happy.
9. Soak yourself in the atmosphere of a new place before you study the details.
10. The best holiday is that which contains the largest number of experiences.
11. Holidays come up for judgment in the next term's work.
12. In a choice of holiday books act on the principle that one of the main uses of leisure is to feed the imagination.
13. The principal experts in the art of taking holidays are painters, naturalists, travellers, and historians. The worst person to consult is the golfer.
14. On occasion of a very good holiday can be taken at home if you will change the hour of breakfast.

STONE CREEK MINES LOOK TO BE RICH

An unusually promising report comes this week from the mining properties on Stone Creek, about 20 miles south of here, where the Nechaco River Mines, Inc., a New York syndicate, have been carrying on development work for the past couple of years on the Yellowjacket group, says the Prince George Citizen. William West, a well known miner, is in charge of the development work, which consists of a tunnel designed to open up an immense ledge of rich ore.

From the quartz formation near the main lead an assay was obtained this week showing values of $27 per ton in gold, silver and lead. There are thousands of tons of this same formation on either side of the main and richer body of ore which, it is said could be loaded on cars by the steam shovel method.

The property lies about four miles east of the Pacific Great Eastern grade, and adjoins Stone Creek Canyon, a rushing torrent nearly a mile long, with unlimited power waiting to be harnessed.

Mr. West has received instructions from the New York office of the company to continue development work until the arrival of an engineer next month.

Why They Are Buying WAR-SAVINGS STAMPS

The housewife is economizing in comfortable ways and investing in War-Savings Stamps at $4.02 each this month. In 1924, when these stamps are redeemed at $5.00 each, every dollar will have greater purchasing power.

The business man is cutting off small and unnecessary expenditures and buying War-Savings Stamps. He knows his money is available any time he really needs it, with added interest. $5 for $4 in five years is an excellent return on money otherwise idle.

School children are buying Thrift Stamps at 25 cents each and are filling their Thrift Cards in order to acquire a War-Savings Stamp. They are helping their country and acquiring the habit of Thrift.

Men on the farms are buying W.S.S. because the Government uses the money to finance export orders for the food raised on Canadian farms. This makes their market sure.

Men, women and children of all ages and conditions of life, are investing in W.S.S. because it is a convenient way to "build a bond". The security is absolute and the interest is unusually high. Some day they will look back with great satisfaction to the day when they bought their first War-Savings Stamps.

JACK PICKFORD'S NEW GREATEST SUCCESS

"Mile a Minute Kendall" and Charlie Chaplin at Westholme Theatre Tonight.

The great success recently scored by Jack Pickford in "Tom Sawyer" here some weeks ago, seems certain to be duplicated by his new vehicle, "Mile a Minute Kendall," which is said to be a picture of unusual strength and beauty.

Young Pickford portrays the role of the idle son of a rich man, reckless and dissipated, who, after being repudiated by his father, invents a motor engine, sells it with profit and incidentally finds happiness in the love of a pure-minded girl who befriended him in the days of adversity.

There is also "A Dog's Life," Charlie Chaplin's million dollar picture, the best he ever made.

CHAPLIN AGAIN AT EMPRESS THEATRE

Film Here Ready for Monday's Show is "My Unmarried Wife" Starring Carmyl Myers.

The Empress Theatre was packed to the doors last night again to see Charlie Chaplin and "The Flaming Omen," starring Mary Anderson and Alfred Whitman. They are both first-rate pictures and should draw a capacity house again tonight.

The Chaplin film is "The Count" one of the best of his delightful burlesque comedies.

The Empress Management wish to announce that the show for Monday which features Carmyl Myers in "My Unmarried Wife" is already here so there will be no delay on account of boat service. It is said to be a very fine picture and should prove popular.

PROFESSOR SWANSON ADVOCATES STAMPS

Chief of Department of Political Economy in University of Saskatchewan Gives Reason for Promoting Savings.

Professor W. W. Swanson, professor of Political Economy in the University of Saskatchewan, recommends the War Savings Plan as an insurance against unemployment and an assurance of work, wages and profitable markets.

"It is impracticable to launch big campaigns for raising the capital essential to carry on the work of war — and peace. The tasks of rehabilitation are colossal. Our net national debt approaches $1,500,000,000. Nevertheless debts cannot be considered absolutely, but only in relation to ability to meet and pay them. Make Canadian business, and especially Canadian agriculture, prosperous and the national debt need not cause undue concern.

"For this capital is demanded. Cut off from the money markets of the world we have been taught to rely upon ourselves. To unduly increase the country's external obligations is dangerous. If the people of the United States, heavily taxed and having borne the brunt of the burden, can save $125,000,000 per week Canadians can surely achieve a relatively equal success.

"We do not have to make large sums to get ahead. "We do not have to save large sums to get ahead.

"Something saved each week from even a humble income will guarantee independence and destroy the menace of penury in old age.

"I do not know of any investment which for safety and income equals the Savings Stamps now being offered at every Post Office in Canada.

"I do not know of any better way of assuring the future prosperity of the country than through financing the national requirements through the purchase of these Stamps. Take out a policy of insurance against want by buying Savings Stamps now."

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY NEWS.

FISHERMEN GET BIG PAY FOR TWENTY DAYS

Owner of Helgeland Received $2,144 for 20 Days and Men $461 Each.

TOTAL CATCH OF VESSEL SOLD FOR $11,192.28

Catch Was Unusual for This Time of Year, But Price Received Was Not High.

Many people have tried to figure out just what the shares are in the big catch of halibut brought in by the American fishing schooner Helgeland. When weighed the total catch amounted to 103,190 lbs. of which there was 83,924 first class fish and 19,266 second class. The total proceeds from the sale at 11.5 and 9c., would be $11,192.28.

The Division.

The proceeds under what is known as the independent lay would be as follows: Owner, one fifth, $2,238.51; men $8,954.03. The men however had to pay for the operating expenses of the boat before dividing their money and the owner had to give ten per cent of his share to the Captain.

The operating expenses for the trip including food and fuel were $2037.00 leaving $6917.03 to be divided among fifteen men, each $416.13. The captain also got ten per cent of the owner's share which brought his salary for the twenty days the boat was out to $684.98. The owner's net share then was $2,014.66.

Twenty Day Trip.

The figures given above are unusual especially for this time of year. The fish was not sold at a high figure however so that there is nothing abnormal in that line. The fish were caught off the coast of Alaska and the twenty-day trip was about the average for a big catch.

It also must be remembered that there is usually a day or two spent in port after a long trip and that the next catch may not be more than half as big as the one just sold. Sometimes gear is lost and for that the men are responsible.

SPARTACANS CHAINED TOGETHER AND SHOT IN GERMAN PRISON

How Often Should Glasses Be Changed

How long will I have to wear my glasses before they require changing? This is a question often asked and difficult to answer, as it depends on the condition of the eyes. But you may take one thing for granted—if you have your glasses absolutely correct in the first place, and use only high-grade lenses, they will last you longer than if they are only the "near-right" kind.

In this connection, we may say that we always aim at fitting glasses that keep the eyes in a permanently normal condition, and our patrons seldom require their correction changed.

If the glasses you are wearing are not giving you perfect eye-comfort, come in and let us make a thorough scientific examination of your eyes and your glasses.

We make no charge for this service.

STEAM REPLACED BY MOTOR VESSELS IN OLD COUNTRY

ities to perform work involving a high rate of ship mortality, and the additions to their number during the hostilities were small. That is an effect which one would naturally expect to pass with the surrender of Fritz, for the steam fishing vessel is, on the pre-war figures, a highly profitable investment, although its rough shod way with immature fish may not tend to the future prosperity of the industry.

But its withdrawal for Admiralty service did the oil engine this good turn; that it stimulated sailing-boat men in large numbers to buy motors and gave the makers of oil engines the opportunity they desired to prove that the products of their industry were, in the rough and tumble of sea work, all that they claimed them to be. The steamer will never, probably, recover the ground it has lost.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances there will be no meeting of the Retail Clerks' Union on Monday night. 1t

ASSAULT CHARGE WAS ADJOURNED TO TUESDAY NEXT WEEK

George Sihow Complained That Mike Ross Had Thrown Him Out of Pool Room.

In the Police Court this morning before Magistrate McMullin, George Sihow laid a charge against Mike Ross, a pool marker in the Skeena Club pool room for assault yesterday afternoon. It appears that a party of players were having a game of pool among whom was the said G. Sihow, when they had a dispute as to who won the game causing the accused to throw Sihow outside.

According to Sihow's statement the accused hit him with a ball rack and after falling down, jumped on him and bit him on the face.

The accused gave evidence that he pushed the complainant out of the door, when Sihow tripped over some obstruction causing him to fall and cut his face against the door post. When asked by Magistrate McMullin how it was that he also received a blow on the head, the accused was uncertain whether he hit him or not.

The case was adjourned until Tuesday when more witnesses will be heard.
