CANADA MAY MODIFY HER OFFER

BRITISH AVIATRIX OUT FOR NEW ENDURANCE RECORD

British Delegation At Empire Conference Is Awaiting Expert Report

Expectation is That Both Canadian and Australian Proposals Will Be Revised—Compensation For Removal of Foods From Free List is Required

OTTAWA, Aug. 5.—Modification of Canada's offer of preference for preference will probably be requested by British delegates at the Empire economic conference. The British delegation is awaiting the report of its own experts who are now studying the Canadian offer before deciding on a line of policy. In British circles, however, it is doubted whether either Canadian or Australian trade offers as they stand at present will be regarded as sufficient compensation for the imposition of preferential tariffs on wheat, meats and raw materials now on the British free list. It is, however, fully realized that actual bargaining has scarcely begun and that, in the coming negotiations, modifications on both sides will be quite within the usual order of things.

INDICTED BY JURY

Libby Holman Held Responsible For Death of Her Husband, Young Smith Reynolds

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C., Aug. 5.—Libby Holman was indicted by a Winston-Salem grand jury yesterday on a charge of murdering her husband, Smith Reynolds, heir of the Reynolds tobacco millions, who died at his home here a few weeks ago following an alleged wild party. Miss Holman is at present at her home in Cincinnati but her father has assured authorities here that she will be surrendered.

VISITOR PLEASSED

San Francisco Newspaper Woman Impressed on Visit to Queen Charlotte Islands

SKIDEGATE, Aug. 5.—Miss Grace M. Lincoln, who has been making a tour of Alaska in the interests of the San Francisco Chronicle, arrived on the Queen Charlotte Islands recently from Juneau. After spending a day at Madame Rajaut's beautiful summer resort, "The Dunes," at Tlell, Miss Lincoln motored down to Queen Charlotte City where she caught the steamer Prince John for the south. While in the Inlet, Miss Lincoln paid a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Stevens. She said that she had always thought of the Queen Charlottes as a group of small islands away out in the Pacific with a few fishermen living on them. Instead, it had been a pleasant surprise for her to make the wonderful motor trip with James Denholme from Port Clements to Queen Charlotte City. Miss Lincoln was so much impressed with the Islands that she said she intended to spend all next summer on the Queen Charlottes, bringing with her a party of wealthy friends from San Francisco.

TRADE IS DISCUSSED

District Forester A. E. Parlow Interesting Speaker at Rotary Club Luncheon Yesterday

In view of the interest that is being taken in the Imperial economic conference now in session at Ottawa, a discussion of possibilities of trade expansion between Canada and Great Britain proved a timely topic for a talk by District Forester A. E. Parlow at yesterday's Rotary Club luncheon. Mr. Parlow dealt to a large extent with the possibilities of expansion of Canadian lumber to the United Kingdom and gave his listeners some idea of the benefit it would be to Canada if business now going to Soviet Russia could be diverted to this Dominion. In the absence of President G. A. Woodland, Past President T. H. Johnson occupied the chair. There was a fair attendance of members.

While the band strikes up the National Anthem, and press photographers' cameras click busily, Governor-General, Lord Bessborough, stands with hat in hand—and then the big show is started.

Mrs. Victor Bruce and Two Companions Embark With "Aerial Bungalow"

Flight Sergeant McCleery and Flying Officer Pugh Are Participating—Husband Will Assist in Refuelling of Amphibian Machine

HAMBLETON, Eng., Aug. 5.—Mrs. Victor Bruce took off this afternoon on an endurance record flight attempt. She is accompanied by co-pilot and radio operator and they are using an amphibian plane equipped with kitchen, dining room and shower bath. Mrs. Bruce calls it her "flying bungalow." It had been originally intended that Mr. Bruce would participate in the flight but, just before the take-off, it was decided that the aviatrix' husband would not go along. Flight Lieutenant W. R. McCleery, who has probably done more flying than any other man in England, took his place. Flying Officer J. B. W. Pugh went along as co-pilot. Mr. Bruce will fly in the refuelling machines.

The Catholic Women's League held a very successful tea and sale of home cooking yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Moore, Fourth Avenue West. Many ladies called during the afternoon to lend their patronage to the affair and the financial results were satisfactory.

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Harold McEwen, president of the Catholic Women's League, received the guests. Mrs. J. Fred Ritchie and Mrs. J. Lorne MacLaren poured. Serviteurs were Mrs. Frank St. Amour, Mrs. G. W. Nickerson and Mrs. C. P. Balagno. Acting as cashier was Mrs. Hubert Ward.

The home cooking table was in charge of Mrs. Wilfrid Gratton and Mrs. J. Arthur Smith. Mrs. Harold McEwen was the winner of a raffle.

Chicago Industrial Section Swept By Serious Fire Last Night; Six Million Damage

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—A devastating fire swept three full blocks of the southwest industrial section of Chicago last night and caused damage estimated at $6,000,000. It was one of the largest and most serious conflagrations this metropolis has experienced in years.

Fire Chief Carmody and several of his men were injured. Fire fighting forces from all parts of the city responded to emergency call.

The fire is believed to have been caused by an explosion in a grain elevator.

South African Delegates

N. C. Havenga (left), leader of the South African delegation, is an outstanding lawyer and statesman, having served as minister of finance since 1924. If A. P. J. Fourie, minister of mines and industries, is unusually optimistic, it may be because he was administrator of the Good Hope Cape.

ARE WEDDED IN CHURCH

Miss Asta Olive Dybhavn Became Bride of Dr. Harold O. Johnsen Last Evening

A marriage of much local interest took place at 7:30 last night at St. Paul's Lutheran Church when Miss Asta Olive Dybhavn, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Dybhavn of this city, became the bride of Dr. Harold O. Johnsen, well known local dentist and son of Dr. and Mrs. Johnsen of Alesund, Norway.

The wedding ceremony was performed beneath a bridal arch, adorned with flowers and ribbons, by Rev. P. M. Fosse, pastor of St. Paul's Church. The church throughout was prettily decorated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a bridal costume of egg shell satin with veil. She carried a beautiful bouquet of mixed roses. The maid of honor was Miss Kitty Dybhavn, sister of the bride, who was tastefully attired in peach silk and lace with hat to match and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations. The bridesmaid was Miss Viola Dybhavn, cousin of the bride, who wore pretty pink silk with lace and bonnet to match, carrying a bouquet of roses. Little Mary Dybhavn and Margaret Gjosund were dainty flower girls.

Harold Gjosund was groomsman. The Wedding March was played by Peter Lien and there was a vocal solo by Rev. P. M. Fosse.

James Mastin and Tom Dybhavn acted as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in the Clapp Block. The rooms were beautifully decorated and there was a large gathering of guests to tender congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple. Tom Dybhavn was toastmaster. There were numerous toasts both to bride and groom with suitable responses.

Dr. and Mrs. Johnsen will sail tonight on the Prince John for a two weeks' honeymoon visit at "The Dunes," Tlell. Queen Charlotte Islands. On their return to the city, they will reside on Atlin Avenue, Westview.

The couple are both well known and popular among many friends in the city. The bride has resided here for five years with her parents, having come from Norway. The groom, who practices dentistry, has been a resident of Prince Rupert for about two years.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—Capt. KRISHNAMURTI

Annie Besant, years ago, thought that she had discovered in a little Brahman boy in India the reincarnated Christ for which thousands of mystics had been looking. This boy, Jeddu Krishnamurti, was educated and trained for the part he was to play. As he grew up he disclaimed being a Messiah but does claim that, in the language of the east, he "has attained" or "has arrived." He has reached a point in spiritual development where the body is subservient to the spirit and where he has become "liberated" from everything earthly. He is to lecture in Victoria tomorrow evening at the City Temple.

THE MOLLISONS

It is not for us to tell Mr. and Mrs. Mollison—Mrs. Mollison was Amy Johnson before her marriage—two noted British flyers, what they should do about their future in the air, says the Victoria Times. The dispatch announcing their marriage said the husband plans to fly to the United States next month and that there is a possibility of his wife accompanying him.

The newspapers some time ago carried a picture of them arm in arm, both wearing a very happy smile, and the thought may have occurred to many people that it would be a pity, if one or both were to end their romance in the grey and angry waters of the Atlantic.

Mr. and Mrs. Mollison have done fine work in the air. They have shown they are made of the right kind of stuff. The wife flew solo to Australia. On a second attempt she flew from England to Tokyo across Siberia and back again. The husband took less than nine days to fly from England to Australia last year and in March of this year he set a new speed record for a flight from London to Capetown.

Flying solo or together from Britain to New York would add nothing particularly valuable to the records of aviation. But this pair of Mollisons seems to be of the adventurous kind; and it would surprise nobody if they treated themselves to a honeymoon by way of a non-stop flight from Britain to the United States.

FOOTBALL WAS DRAW

Canadian Legion and Home Oil Played to Two-All Score in Drizzle Last Night

Although the best they could do was to eke out a two-all draw with the fast moving Home Oil eleven, Canadian Legion was able last evening to move into exclusive possession of first place in the Stuart Benefit Shield football series. The match was played in a drizzle of rain and the crowd of fans, as might have been expected, was limited. Nevertheless, a good brand of soccer was turned in and all who saw the game were well satisfied.

James Andrews was referee and J. N. Kelly and Charles Barker were linesmen. The teams took the field as follows:

Canadian Legion—S. Gurvich; F. Gomez and A. Stiles; Haddon, Currie and Greer; D. Gurvich, Horne, Hunt, Smith and Morrison. Home Oil—White; Skinner and Mowatt; J. Currie, Davies and Stalker; D. Gomez, Vieira, Del Rio, Bye and Murray.

The first goal came in the first five minutes of play when Morrison scored for Legion. In about twenty minutes Vieira equalized for Home Oil. Shortly before half time, Horne put the Legion ahead. The teams crossed over with the score standing two to one.

Seventeen minutes on in the second half Vieira equalized for Home Oil as a result of good combination play on the left wing. Both goals then had narrow escapes but there was no further scoring.

The Home Oil was good, particularly on the forward line where Vieira and Del Rio were shining lights. White kept a good goal and Brick Skinner was a tower of strength at full back.

For the Canadian Legion the three halves were outstanding while Horne and Smith were the pick of the forwards.

The Stuart Benefit Shield standing to date is as follows:

AGAIN ARE TEAMED UP

Bill Boyd and Ginger Rogers Stars of "Carnival Boat" at the Capitol

Bill Boyd as a young lumberman and Ginger Rogers as the star of a carnival show-boat troupe form the romantic duo in "Carnival Boat," romance of the big trees, which comes to the Capitol Theatre this week-end.

Bill made love to the fiery-haired Ginger in "Suicide Fleet," but in "Carnival Boat," his love for the little entertainer plays a much bigger part in the story. His father's opposition to his affection for Ginger brings about some of the biggest dramatic scenes in the picture.

The romance between Boyd and Ginger is set against a fast moving background of action in a big logging camp and a show boat. Thrills are injected with the breaking up of a log-jam, the wrecking of a heavily loaded, runaway logging train and Bill's trip across the mountain peaks on a "high-line" with only a log between him and a 250-foot drop to oblivion. "Carnival Boat" is from an ori-

AUNT FLO TO THE RESCUE . . . by ALBERT DORNE

IT'S A SHAME A PRETTY GIRL LIKE MY NIECE HASN'T MORE PARTNERS. BUT I THINK I KNOW THE REASON

NEXT EVENING

WHY DON'T YOU ASK SOME OF THE GIRLS OVER

OH, I DON'T KNOW. THEY DON'T SEEM TO CARE ABOUT COMING

SOMETIMES I'M SO LONELY AUNT FLO. I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO

DEAR, I'M GOING TO TALK TO YOU FRANKLY AND YOU MUST NOT FEEL HURT

NEXT MORNING

WELL, HOW DO YOU LIKE MY FAVORITE TOILET SOAP — LIFEBOUY

IT'S MARVELOUS! SO MUCH LATHER AND I FEEL SO WONDERFULLY FRESH AND CLEAN

TWO MONTHS LATER

HOW GLAD I AM I TOLD HER HOW TO STOP "B.O." NOW SHE'S ONE OF THE MOST POPULAR GIRLS IN TOWN

Make sure about "B.O."

PORES are constantly giving off odour-causing waste—a quart daily. In crowded places—overheated rooms—others are quick to notice even a trace of "B.O." about us.

Use Lifebuoy. Its creamy lather cleanses so deeply, purifies so thoroughly, that every trace of "B.O." vanishes. Its pleasant, extra-clean scent disappears as you rinse.

A complexion secret
Every night, massage Lifebuoy's bland lather well into the skin; then rinse. Pores are freed of impurities—dull complexions freshened. Adopt Lifebuoy today.

The Passing of the Washboard — by C.A. Voight

RUN ALONG NOW, CHILDREN — MOTHER'S BUSY

OH, MUM, I HATE WASHDAY! YOU NEVER HAVE TIME FOR ANYTHING

THE KIDDIES WANTED ME TO READ THEM A STORY, BUT I'M ONLY HALF THROUGH WITH THE WASH

WHY, IRMA, YOU COULD HAVE BEEN FINISHED BY NOW IF YOU USED RINSO. IT SAVES ALL SCRUBBING AND BOILING

NEXT WASHDAY

IT LOOKS AS THOUGH MRS. KING WAS RIGHT. I NEVER SAW SUCH THICK, LONG-LASTING SUDS IN THIS HARD WATER

LATER

RINSO IS SUCH A WORK-SAVER! IT SOAKS CLOTHES CLEAN AND SNOWY, AND IT'S SO SAFE, COLOURED THINGS DON'T GET THAT WASHED-OUT LOOK

HELLO, IRMA, MY YOU LOOK FRESH FOR A MONDAY! DID YOU USE RINSO TODAY?

I CERTAINLY DID—AND MY WASH HAS BEEN ON THE LINE FOR HOURS. I'M TAKING THE CHILDREN TO THE PARK

Who else wants a whiter wash . . . with no hard work?

RINSO washes clothes the whitest you ever saw . . . safely and easily . . . without scrubbing or boiling.

Cup for cup, Rinsol gives twice as much suds as lightweight puffed-up soaps.

The makers of 40 famous washers recommend Rinsol. Coloured things come bright and new-looking—safely. And try Rinsol for dishwashing. It's great! Get the BIG household package.

Retain the cedar oil in the wood, affording extra and better preservation than kiln-dried shingles from which the essential oil has been evaporated. Our shingles are made on Queen Charlotte Islands and, as a home product, deserve your preference. Shingle makers wages on the Islands are spent eventually in Prince Rupert, while Vancouver wages never come north. Support a home industry and your own welfare by specifying Air Dried Shingles.
