CABINET RECONSTRUCTION IS TO BE ANNOUNCED NEXT WEEK

Meighen Gives Out Plan of Government Pending Early General Election

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—Premier Arthur Meighen announced today that the cabinet reconstruction panel announced at the beginning of next week in all probability will take place very soon. There will be a by-election in West York, and the resignation of Hon. J. G. Macdonald, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, has not been definitely announced. The Premier's announcements have put at rest many conflicting reports that have been circulating here. It enables the parties to get down to even-tempered election campaigning.

Speaker Manson Writes of Central Interior; Agricultural Prospects

Canada as "The Lady of the Snows" and British Columbia as a "Sea of Mountains" are known abroad. Coined phrases are more frequently poetic than accurate, but Canada's snows have melted before the sweep of the golden grain in its northward march, and though British Columbia's mountains remain, her valleys have been lifted upward in recent years by the woodman's axe and the pioneer's plough. British Columbia, famous for its mineral, its timber and its fish, today is rapidly taking its place as an agricultural province.

The fruits of the Okanagan, and the dairy produce of the Fraser Valley and the Delta, are rapidly closing the import door to the fruits of the south, the dairy produce of our sister Dominions of the Antipodes and of the provinces to the east. One cannot with any minuteness in the space of this short article speak of the agricultural resources and development of the vast central portion of the province, which lies tributary to the Grand Trunk Pacific. One can only indicate in a passing way the possibilities of the soil, give a glimpse of the progress that has been made and peer into the promises of tomorrow.

Towering Mountains. Leaving Prince Rupert for the east one is struck more with the grandeur of the towering mountains and their timbered slopes and with the mosquito fishing fleet of the Skeena than with the possibility of the tilling of the soil, but it is probably not a dream to expect that with the removal of the timber to be ground into pulp and paper the valleys and mountain slopes of the coast may, under the mellow breezes of the Japanese Current that skirts our coast be turned into fertile and productive farms. However for the present the attention of the newly arrived agricultural settler is better directed to land eastward of Prince Rupert.

Rapidly Growing Community. At Terrace one finds that one has left the rainy climate of the coast to the west. Muskeg has disappeared, the timber is sturdier and one sees developing a rapidly growing agricultural community. That the Terrace and Kitsumkalum district and the Lakelse Valley across the river from it is capable of successful mixed farming, there can be no doubt, but for the present, it is a berry and small fruit country. The quality of the Terrace Berry is quite the equal of the best and it is finding, coming as it does somewhat later upon the market than the southern berry, a ready market from Winnipeg to the Coast. The tonnage of the crop has developed to a point that makes necessary a refrigerator express service to market it. It is only a matter of time and that a short time, until canning and jam factories will be under way at Terrace and perhaps at Hazelton for not only at Terrace but eastward as far as Morricetown the soil is splendidly adapted for the production of berries and small fruits. Stepping into the gardens at Hazelton in August one wonders how the vines and bushes can possibly carry the load that they do at that time.

PAINFUL DIARRHOEA
Cramps in Stomach

Mr. Fred Funston, Craik, Sask., writes:—"A year ago last harvest I was taken with a sudden attack of diarrhoea which completely laid me out, and in a few hours I had to quit work. The cramps in my stomach were dreadful, the beads of perspiration would stand out on my face at times I was in such great distress. At last I got a chance to send to town for a couple of bottles of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. I used it according to the way I felt and soon obtained a great chance for the better, for which I was very thankful. I don't know what the cause of my sickness was except the extremely hot weather and the active work of stocking the wheat.

Several of my neighbors were taken the same as myself and had the doctor attend them, but they didn't get any great relief until I advised them to use "Dr. Fowler's," when they soon experienced a great change."

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been on the market for the past 76 years and many cheap imitations are being offered to the public.

Be sure and get the genuine put up only by The T. Muburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 50c. a bottle.

Roi Barnes Collapsed at Three-Quarter Mile and Winner Finished in 17 Minutes.

GENERAL BLACKLOCK
GOING EAST AGAIN

Is Pessimistic of Lumbering Outlook in West at Present Time.

Major General C. A. Blacklock, of the Kitsumkalum Lumber Co., Remo, will return south tonight on the Prince Rupert on his way to Eastern Canada and possibly England again. He will not return to the north this winter.

General Blacklock speaks in a rather pessimistic mood in regard to the lumber business in British Columbia at the present time. European production, with lower costs of natural materials and labor, is impossible to compete with and this is the case not only in lumber products but in all lines of manufacture. Some of the European countries are not playing the game, either, and international honesty has almost disappeared, even between Britain and some of her allies in the war, he says.

erous. At Kitwanzar is found another community of agricultural homes where considerable development has been done and there is every promise of a large settlement in the locality and in the valley of the Kitwanzar. Northerly from Hazelton run the Kispiox and the Skeena. Particularly in the valley of the former there are thousands of acres of most fertile lands well watered and free from frosts. A few years ago there were in the valley of the Kispiox from sixty to seventy-five settlers but unfortunately the number has dwindled to comparatively few. There is perhaps no single reason for this. It is probably due to the slowness of the Government in supplying a decent transportation system and to the fact that the settlement took place immediately prior to or about the time of the laying of the steel when development was slower and conditions more discouraging than today. Perhaps too, the fact that the Kispiox settlers saw the newcomers, somewhat repelled by the rather heavily populated land, turn to the more accessible land of the Bulkley valley, discouraged them. But the Kispiox will come into its own as a splendid agricultural valley. The richness of its soil will ultimately win. Perhaps some scheme may be found, if not for the removal of the Indians who occupy the very choicest of lands in the gate-way to the Kispiox, then for the division into Indian farms with title to the individual Indian who will be permitted to buy and sell. The Indian is not without hope, for every one in a while one sees an Indian taking up a pre-emption and becoming a really successful farmer. If more would do that and get away from the village life, it would be better for the Indian and better for the white man.

Continuous Farming District

Eastward from Hazelton some thirty-five miles the banks of the Bulkley River are high. Not a great deal has been done in the way of farming here although there has been some and one sees a new rural school being opened this Fall twelve miles east of Hazelton. Along the northerly bank of the Bulkley in this thirty-five miles there are undoubtedly a good many thousand acres of tillable land but for the present, without transportation system and timbered. Arriving at Merricetown one finds the Bulkley Valley becoming to broaden and from there until one gets to the Bulkley Summit there is a continuous farming district. Where, a few years ago there was only an isolated settler, today one finds practically all of the land taken contiguous to the road from Merricetown east and from one to three miles back from the main highway. The population of the Bulkley Valley in the last five years has increased by at least three hundred percent and is increasing each day.

Three Chief Centres.

In the Valley are the villages of Smithers, Telkwa and Houston.
 The two former are thriving most vigorously and vying with each other in a neck and neck race as to which shall be the hub of the valley. In the Bulkley one finds many settlers from the prairies, many from the northwestern states and a goodly number of returned soldiers.

 With very few exceptions they are making a distinct success and if you ask them why they came they will tell you that they did not like the droughts and hail and the bleak winds of winter in the place from which they came and although they found that the poplar and spruce of the valley makes pioneering a little slower than on the prairies, yet they were willing to undertake it in view of the richness of the soil and the equable character of the climate.

Frost No Menace.

Although the thermometer drops sometimes to twenty or thirty below zero in winter time it only stays there for a day or two and the cold is not accompanied with wind. The snow of winter runs from eighteen inches to three feet. The timber aforementioned is spruce and poplar for the most part with open patches here and there and costing, according to the method of clearing in this particular locality, from twenty to seventy-five dollars per acre to clear.
 The day was when the Bulkley Valley was considered frosty but in the last few years one has heard less and less of frost and it is a practical certainty that with the increase of cultivation it will be no menace at all.
 Thorough cultivation, early grains and early sowing will solve that difficulty beyond a doubt. There are no crop failures in the Bulkley.

No Crop Failures.

There are crops below average and above average but in the worst year the average farmer will get by. It is a mixed farming country. Dairying will be its future and where there were a few dairy cattle a year ago today there are several hundred head.
 For the present farmers are shipping their cream to Vanderhoof to a creamery started by the Government a year ago which this season will produce 40,000 pounds of butter of excellent quality, a not sufficient quantity to supply the demand. In the eastward reaches of the Bulkley one is amazed to see how rapidly the settlement goes on.
 At Topley, Forestdale and Rose Lake homes are springing up on every hand. Settlers are coming in by the score.

Along Decker Lake.

Leaving the Bulkley one finds the agricultural land continuing.
 Nothing could be more luxuriant than the vegetation north of Decker Lake—peavine and vetch to one's saddle pommel. Timber is heavy in spots but the soil is well worth the clearing and as west of the summit so east of the summit the pioneers axe is rapidly building a log cabin first, then clearing a garden, barn-yard and a field.
 Nothing but the old Foley-Welch tote road served this district three years ago; today a splendid highway skirts the shore of Decker Lake, requiring only a little gravel to make it a permanent road upon which the cost of maintenance shall be low.

Gateway to Francois-Ootsa.

Eastward from Decker Lake one comes to Burns Lake and to Burns Lake Village. This is the gate-way to the Francois-Ootsa country or what is known as the Lakes country. That it must be an important country is evidenced by the fact that Burns has grown from a few shacks and one single store four years ago to a village with a two-room school, which could use a three roomer, a dozen stores and shops and a splendid two storey bank building. Francois Lake some sixty or seventy-five miles long and running east and west is fourteen miles south of the track. Ootsa Lake paralleling Francois is about sixty miles long and forty-two miles from the track. The country in between is studded with little lakes.

 The mountains have for the most part become hills. The country is flatter, the timber on the whole lighter than in the Bulkley, the soil is fertile and the whole area is one of the greatest attractiveness. Without any special advertising the Francois-Ootsa country has increased its population from about seventy-five five years ago to about five hundred now. One wonders at a farmer going so far from rail transportation but the call of the fertile soil and ideal climatic conditions is strong and the transportation problem will doubtless be solved by boats on Francois and Ootsa Lakes and hard surfaced roads which will carry the farmers' motor trucks.
 For the present the Francois-Ootsa settlers are somewhat far from the track to ship their cream to Vanderhoof but this is beyond a doubt a dairy country and the Government will be delict in its duty if it does not speedily provide the necessary means of transportation to enable the settlers to centralize their cream and have a creamery of their own.

Vanderhoof District.

Eastward again along the railway from Burns Lake one finds a settler here and there doing his very best—praying for neighbors and a road. At En-dako the Valley broadens again and one is heading for the plateau of central British Columbia and it must not be forgotten that the centre post of British Columbia is just a few miles south of Vanderhoof. Standing at Vanderhoof our sea of mountains has disappeared and only on a clear day can one see mountains at all. The soil has changed from the black loam and clay sub-soil of the Bulkley and Lakes country to a clayey silt.
 Appearances would suggest that it was rather dry but such has not proved to be the case. One sees as beautiful oats in the vicinity of Vanderhoof as one ever saw in the province of Ontario and as well matured. Hundreds of settlers have found homes in the last few years north and south of Vanderhoof and of the hundreds who have taken up land apart from the Menonites they nearly all remain, evidencing the fact that they have reason to be content.
 Eastward still south and north of Prince George there are thousands of acres of fertile lands equal in character to those to the west and settling up with almost the same rapidity, and eastward still to McBride one finds the settlers along the

ANYOX WON AT BASEBALL

Dashed Prince Rupert's Championship Ambitions in Yesterday Afternoon's Game.

Hopes for Prince Rupert in the Northern B. C. championship baseball series were dashed in the opening game yesterday afternoon when the locals were defeated by Anyox by a score of 4 to 1 in one of the best matches seen on the Acropolis Grounds for many a day. The visitors played splendid ball and, although they had the advantage of most of the breaks, they were fully entitled to their victory. Prince Rupert seemed unable to settle down and Anyox took full advantage of every opportunity that offered. Especially was the fielding and pitching of the visitors excellent and Jimmie Ferguson who was in the box, showed a good deal of class that would do credit to a much larger town. Several hard grounders were picked up with ease by the smelter town boys and they were sure with flies. Loose playing was shown by the locals on several occasions and they were not up to usual form.

It was an Anyox game from the very first inning when the two first batters, Downs and Mealey, made the first two runs. The locals came through with their one and only in the sixth and to make matters secure the visitors scored two more in the seventh after the bases had been filled. Shakespeare, Prince Rupert's pitcher, allowed two bases on balls as did Ferguson for Anyox. Art Easson, local short-stop made two errors but redeemed himself by making two hits and the only run for his side.

Box Score.

Parrington umpired balls and strikes and Jack Hatchford bases. Both acted with fairness and satisfaction.

Sport Chat

Tonight those confident and ambitious Prince George baseball players will be in our midst to try conclusions with Anyox about that Northern B. C. championship which the smelter town players and fans are prone to claim. They will be welcome in all their strength here and already the baseball enthusiasts are looking forward to the games. On account of the statement made recently by the Prince George management, it is expected that they will put up real good opposition and a keen series is anticipated. However the Anyox team is not a bit pessimistic about the outcome and the team is confident of its ability to handle the visitors from the Upper Fraser. Present plans are to hold the second game of the series tomorrow afternoon and the third and fourth on Saturday afternoon.

All football enthusiasts will be out in force at 5 o'clock this afternoon to see that great final match of the season for the Exhibition swaters between the Gallies and the Sons of Canada. The game promises to eclipse anything so far this season in interest and will be a fitting climax to a splendid season. There will be a lot of money change hands as a result of the game for the Sons of Canada have been "betting their heads off" and the Gallies have been putting "a few pennies" to cover. It is doubtful, however, if all the Sons of Canada coin has been called. R. Mercer will referee the game.

Alice Arm and Anyox settled their Northern B. C. championship contention when the smelter town defeated the silver camp by a score of 14 to 7 last week. At the end of the seventh inning, which was to have concluded the contest, the score was 7 to 7 but in the eighth Anyox added five more counters to their string and finished the game with a final score of 12 to 7 in favor. This game eliminated Alice Arm from any championship aspirations this season.

Shoes for play and Shoes for "best"

It would be foolish to let your child wear HURLBUTS today and another shoe tomorrow—the good that one shoe did would be undone by the other. You must fit HURLBUTS all the time. The tender bones will not stand pressure for a moment without injury—they must be protected every minute of the day—they are always gradually growing. Fit HURLBUTS for play and keep an extra pair of HURLBUTS for best wear. Your dealer will show you correct styles of HURLBUTS for all occasions.

Write for booklet about Hurlbut "Re-built Service" and we will tell you the name of the Hurlbut dealer nearest to you.

AVIATOR IN POLAR BEAR GIVES THRILLS

Airplane Flights Proving the Big Attraction of This Year's Fair.

Aviator C. O. Prest of the airplane Polar Bear made another highly successful flight at the exhibition grounds yesterday afternoon. In some respects it was even better than Tuesday's ascent if that were possible. He had no engine trouble as he had on Tuesday, when his motor missed on account of dirt in the gasoline as he was commencing to come down. Hundreds on the grounds and all over the city generally watched the looping the loop and the nose dives. The airplane flights are proving, as the directors of the Fair Board had expected, the great attraction of the Fair, and Aviator Prest is giving complete satisfaction and proving himself among the best in the aviation game.

The third and last flight is scheduled for 4:30 this afternoon if it does not rain. In case it does it will be held tomorrow.

shores of the Fraser and one cannot help but believe that this land, though somewhat more heavily timbered will prove of very great agricultural value.

Difficulties.

The situation in the central portion of the Province has not been without its serious difficulties. In the boom days of 1906-7 the lands of the Crown in the central province were alienated to speculative holders. These lands were not developed by the purchasers and the government has been compelled to re-acquire them through its Land Settlement Board in order to make them available for settlers. The pity is that the lands were ever alienated. It has been a slow and costly process to get them back and settlement during the last three years has been retarded to the extent of some fifty to seventy-five percent, by the inability of the Government to take care of the new settlers. What settlement did take place was badly scattered. Schools and churches were impossible and the mileage of roads to tie up the scattered settlement was tremendous. The roads under pressure were built, one believes, rather with the idea of keeping quiet each little community than with the idea of building highways. Certainly no engineer would like to accept responsibility for the grades. The grades were impossible.

Steady Improvement.

Today the Government is slowly but surely under its engineers, re-locating and building a tremendous mileage of new roads. That success is attending its efforts one must admit when one realizes that one can drive in a motor car from Hazelton to Houston via Burns Lake and Ootsa Lake, a distance of some two hundred and fifty miles. The road is not all good. Some of it is "rotten," to quote the word most frequently used, but some of it is excellent and there is more of it that is excellent every year. From Endako one can drive by car to Ashcroft and Kamloops and from Vanderhoof north to Fort St.

James and the Stuart Lake country. The sparse settlement is rapidly giving way to thicker settlement and the difficulty of educating children is being met. This fall alone, four new schools within a radius of forty miles are being opened south of Francois Lake.

Prospects.

When one glances at the report of the board of arbitrators as to the value of the Grand Trunk Pacific stocks one cannot help but wonder if those easterners, Sir Walter Cassels and Sir Thomas White, give any weight at all to the possibility of development of tonnage in British Columbia. Nations only produce men of vision once in a while. One doubts if either of these distinguished gentlemen have the vision of a Hays or a Laurier. They were once over the Grand Trunk Pacific and in a private car and rumor has it that Sir Thomas busied himself as he rode along in making notes of some of the very bad mileage on which he was riding and remarking afterwards about the frightful condition of the road-bed at a certain place in the mountains, a by-stander called his attention to the fact that the mileage he referred to was Canadian Northern track which the Grand Trunk Pacific had been compelled to run over by his Government when under the guise of patriotism they took away our rails.

Ample Justification.

But this article has not to do with the Cassels-White report. Suffice it to say that to a man of real vision there is ample and more than ample room to justify the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway. One is safe in saying that there is at least fertile agricultural land that will take care of one hundred thousand people between Terrace and McBride. Perhaps the guess is wide of the mark, but it is to be borne in mind that nothing has been said of the thousands of acres as yet unopened in the Stuart Lake, in the Fort St. James and in the Babine country. That the soil and the climate make the settlement of these thousands of acres possible is beyond a doubt and if only men of vision can sit in the Halls of Parliament at Ottawa and in the administrative offices of the Grand Trunk Pacific there is no question but what there can be developed tributary to the Grand Trunk Pacific a tremendous agricultural tonnage.

Value of Settlers to Railway.

If only those responsible for the Railway Commission and of the Grand Trunk Pacific could realize that what Jim Hill said was true, that a settler once established along a pioneer line was worth at least seven hundred dollars a year in freight, etc.—progress would be made. High freight rates for a pioneer railroad are a huge mistake. The early losses must be borne in order to gain the profits of the future and the Railway may fairly look for tonnage, not to the farmers alone but to the mills and to the mines as well, for if one is to take stock at all in the reports of Mining Engineers and in the development that has been done, the mines of Central and Northern British Columbia are quite as rich and one believes far richer than the mines of the southern part of the Province. The development of the mines and of the mills will mean a rural market for the farmers.

No Need of Failure.

So taking the situation all in all one has no reason to go back on the hopes of Laurier and Hays, in so far as the line they built in British Columbia is concerned. From the standpoint of transcontinental traffic, local fish and timber and mineral traffic, it will succeed; and let us not forget for a moment that British Columbia is an agricultural province and that if the central portion alone is but developed as it can be and should be, the import door which today admits over $20,000,000 worth of agricultural products a year to this Province will be closed and the export door will be swung ajar.
