Hon. Dr. Tolmie Visiting Here Today MICHAEL CLARK ADVISES RETURN OF STRONG LIBERAL PARTY

Liberal Government Needed at Ottawa Says Michael Clark in Refusing Nomination

PRINCE RUPERT, Oct. 8.—The Liberals of Red Deer at their conference yesterday nominated Dr. Michael Clark, who declined the nomination, saying, however, that he was a Liberal and that a strong Liberal government was needed at Ottawa. The convention split on the second choice and dispersed without making any decision subject to call. Dr. Clark may yet be the candidate. He supported the Conservative cause at the last general election and until recently had been broken with that party. Previous to the formation of the present group he had always been a vigorous Liberal.

CHINA DOUBTS DESIRE JAPAN

Curt Note Sent Regarding Settlement of Shantung Controversy.

PEKIN, Oct. 8.—China has handed a note to the Japanese minister of foreign affairs declaring that the Japanese proposals for the settlement of the Shantung controversy are not acceptable to China. They are incompatible with China's declared policy and are opposed to the principles of treaties laid down between China and the foreign powers. China thinks that Japan's proposals fail to prove that nation's sincerity or desire to settle the question.

Federal Minister of Agriculture Is Here For Tour of Interior

Hon. Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Dominion Minister of Agriculture, and Colonel C. W. Peck, V.C., member for Skeena riding, reached the city this morning on the Venture from Victoria to visit the agricultural sections of Central British Columbia.

"I promised Colonel Peck to come here last summer," said Dr. Tolmie when interviewed this morning by The News, "but other business made it impossible at that time. I had intended coming here for the opening of the exhibition last month but again my plans were interfered with, but Colonel Peck stuck to me, so here I am at last."

This is not Dr. Tolmie's first visit to Prince Rupert for he was here a few years ago on some cattle business before he was made a minister. He also made a trip to Fort Wrangel four years ago on the old coast-er Princess Louise which was at that time in command of Captain Lewis. He has never be-

PREMIER MAY YET ATTEND CONFERENCE

LONDON, Oct. 8.—There is a hint that Premier Lloyd George may yet be able to attend the forthcoming conference on the limitation of armaments and for discussion of the far eastern questions.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—In a semi-official statement to the press last night it was intimated that while Premier Lloyd George had notified the United States Government of his inability to attend the big conference, that was not necessarily his last word.

DR. TOLMIE IS OPPOSED BY WILLIAM IVEL

VICTORIA, Oct. 8.—Hon. S. F.
Tolmie will be opposed in this city by William Ivel, president of the Liberal Association and prominent druggist. Mr. Ivel was nominated at the big Liberal convention last night and his supporters are confident he will be elected. They point to the fact that even an outsider was able to give the minister a close run at the by-election. Now they look for an overwhelming victory.

Mr. Ivel has been prominent in Liberal circles for a number of years and is looked on as a strong candidate. His opponent, Dr. Tolmie, has lived in Victoria all his life and is highly respected. He could be elected easily were it not for the party he represents.

CLEMENTS IS RENOMINATED

Will Oppose William Marchant In Comox-Alberni at Coming Election.

PARKSVILLE, Oct. 8.—H. S.
Clements was last night nominated candidate for the Comox-Alberni riding by a Conservative convention here last night. He will oppose William Marchant, who was recently nominated by the Liberals for the same constituency.

Mr. Clements was formerly member for Comox-Atlin, being elected in 1914, beating Duncan Ross by a small majority. After the redistribution he became a candidate for Comox-Alberni and sat for that seat until Parliament was dissolved.

DAILY EDITION

Saturday, October 8, 1921

Visitors Here Are Being Welcomed.

Two distinguished visitors are here today—Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture in the Dominion Government, and Colonel C. W. Peck, until recently member for Skeena. They announce that their trip is not of a political nature, and we are glad of it so that we can then all join in bidding them a hearty welcome.

The visit of Dr. Tolmie has been rather long delayed, but we can understand that we are not yet considered a very important part of the country and are therefore not entitled to that consideration which might be due to other sections. He is a busy man and just now must be busier than ever. However we are glad to have him here and to bid him welcome. As an agriculturist he is in the very first rank, and as a citizen he is above reproach. In the administration of his department there have been no complaints. He is the type of man we like to have drop in on us. There have been predecessors who have come here full of promises, who have been entertained and acclaimed and who have gone away and done us dirt. Dr. Tolmie is not that kind of a man. If he cannot do a thing he will say so. The Daily News extends to him a most hearty welcome on this his first visit to the city as a minister of the Crown.

With Colonel Peck it is somewhat different. Until yesterday he was our member of Parliament, and he is always the popular Colonel of the gallant Sixteenth. He needs no welcome, although coming officially as he does today we are glad to couple his name with that of Hon. Dr. Tolmie. The welcome will be extended officially this evening at a banquet which is sure to be well attended.

Railway Situation

Worthy of Attention.

Now that there is a minister of the Crown in the city it is perhaps well to draw to his attention some of our grievances. Before the amalgamation of the railways under the Canadian National System Prince Rupert was a terminal of a great transcontinental railway. Today it is simply the end of a branch line. On the completion of the amalgamation scheme every effort was made by the railway company to draw business away from this port and divert it to Vancouver. The main line of the system was advertised as running direct to Vancouver, and even within the last few months officials of the railway in the east have refused to book passengers through to Prince Rupert direct but insisted on sending them by way of Vancouver. For a long time our train met the train of the main line at Jasper, but eventually pressure was brought to bear and it was continued through to Edmonton, but no farther. And all this in spite of the fact that travel on this much despised branch is greater far, according to all the accounts received, than is that to Vancouver.

So it has been with the officials of the railway. The head officials have been removed to Vancouver and our local officials degraded to second place.

As everyone on the continent knows, it took many months of hard fighting to get the railway company to handle our fish out of this port. They refused to provide the cars, or else the Dominion Government refused to give them the money with which to purchase them.

No efforts are made to exploit the wonderful Skeena River gorges from a scenic standpoint or the equally wonderful scenery of the upper Skeena and Bulkley valleys. In spite of that tourist travel was greater last year than ever before.

There is no wish in making this complaint to appear unreasonable or to forget the things we have. There is a new dock just completed, but the contract for it was let before the present railway management took charge, and we are reliably informed that an effort was made to cancel the contract. The dock is still without superstructure and the long looked for railway station has not yet been started.

We are told that in order to make the old Canadian Northern line compare favorably with the G. T. P. all traffic emanating from the latter is booked to the credit of the former directly it passes Jasper, in spite of the fact that the G. T. P. is the better track and the one used.

There are other things we should like to mention while the minister is here, but the railway situation is perhaps the most vital to our welfare. The existence of the city depends absolutely on the railway and the prosperity of the city on the service we receive. We get every possible aid from local officials, but it is of the general policy we complain. We were better off as an important part of a bankrupt railway than as a neglected branch of a national system.

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such up-building treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.

Mrs. W. J. Pearce, Nunn St., Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get my work done. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found quite an improvement in my condition. I continued using them until I had taken about seven boxes, and they strengthened and built up my system splendidly, completely relieving the pain in my head."

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

October 8, 1911.

Archdeacon W. H. Collison, who has just completed a period of 38 years as missionary on the coast, speaks for the Anglican Church tonight.

The H.M.C.S. Rainbow rifleman were defeated by the Civilian Rifle Association at the McNicholl Creek range today by a score of 429 to 515. The marksmen for the Prince Rupert team were: Parlington, Stuart, Cameron, Morley, and McGowan, Smith, Greer and Brown.

Commander Rose and the officers of H.M.C.S. Rainbow were entertained at a reception and dance by the mayor and city of Prince Rupert last night. The affair was held in the Kaien Island Club.

PRINCE GEORGE

Prince George citizens were keenly surprised this week when the announcement was made that H. G. Perry had been nominated to contest Cariboo constituency at the forthcoming election in the interests of the Liberals.

Inspector Parsons, of the provincial police, and Game Warden Van Dyke have returned from a trip to Fort McLeod.

The first office of the Board of Trade here, a log cabin, has been sold to F. J. Claxton for $150.

The Prince George Citizen is launching a campaign to have a big covered in skating ring built here.

Messrs Golder and Welland have received a sturgeon from Vanderhoof which weighs 165 pounds without head or tail.

Recently at a railway station a boy who looked about 14 years of age who was smoking a cigarette went up to the booking office and said—"Half a return to Birmingham?" "What! A kid like you smoking?" ventured the booking-clerk, noticing the boy's cigarette. "Who're you calling a kid, aw'm sixteen," replied the lad, impudently. "Oh, you are; well, full fare, please!"

DRUG MENACE AT WINNIPEG

Dope From Pacific Coast Causes Lots of Trouble in Prairie Capital.

SHIPPED IN QUANTITIES

Proposal to Spend $100,000 in Trying to Cure Addicts on Prairies.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 8.—One of two innovations is desirable if the spread of the use of drugs is to be curbed and permanently stamped out in Winnipeg, said Dr. B. J. McConnell, coroner and administrator of the Narcotics Act.

The establishment of a ward for treatment of addicts in a local hospital, or

The purchase and operation of a colony farm, where they can be sent and detained away from the city and where they can have no opportunity to visit the haunts of the drug vendors or associate with fellow drug fiends.

Of these two, Dr. McConnell favors the farm proposition. He suggests the purchase of land not too far from Winnipeg, and estimates the total cost, including land and buildings, at between $100,000 and $150,000. He points out that there would have to be separate buildings for the male and female addicts.

Reduction in Addicts.

After three years, in which every effort has been made to cope with the situation in Winnipeg, Dr. McConnell announced a reduction of 20 per cent. in the amount of dope consumed. He placed the number of dopes in Winnipeg at more than 200 persons.

Drugs are being shipped to Winnipeg in enormous quantities, he said, and the task confronting the authorities is more than difficult, since all dope fiends, no matter how respectable before coming under the influence of drugs are prone to be liars. Even though an addict is caught, he cannot be relied upon to give information of the source from whence he obtained his drugs. Most of the shipments received locally come from the Pacific coast, he said.

Lurking Peddlers.

Dope peddlers, said the doctor, are lurking throughout the city at advantageous locations and are feeding the dopes in so general a manner and in such large quantities as to cause alarm.

"There is no use sending man who is not a dope fiend out to catch one of these vendors," said the doctor.

"The first question he would be asked would be, 'Do you take snow?' and if he answered 'Yes,' he would be asked, 'How much are you taking?' Even if he was well trained and passed these two questions safely, he would have to show, actually, that he took it or he would be by a dope whom the vendor knew."

Morphine and Cocaine Popular.

Morphine and cocaine are the chief drugs being peddled in Winnipeg, he said. Heroin is not generally used and is not carried in stock by peddlers. Morphine is available through peddlers at from 50 cents to $1 per grain and cocaine is the same price.

Dr. McConnell exploded the common theory that drug fiends can be cured only by cutting down the amount of dope they consume daily or ambulatory treatment. In common with other prominent medical men, he has reached the conclusion, after an extensive research into the drug habit, that the removal of the addict from his surroundings and the absolute cutting off of the drug at once are the two most important essentials in curing the habit. When pronounced cured, said the doctor, the patient should be established in the outside world at some location where old associations cannot reach him.

Best Cure.

These are the reasons behind the proposed establishment of a colony farm.

The best cure, he said, was effected by plenty of fresh air and sunshine and a sufficient amount of work to harden the muscles, as morphine and cocaine are nerve starvers. To put these men in condition to do an honest day's work would require anywhere from eight weeks to eight months or a year, said evening on the Prince Rupert. "It is not a political trip," said Dr. Tolmie, "but I am merely here to get an intelligent grasp on the agricultural conditions and prospects of the central interior and to fulfil my promise to Col. Peck. Our time will be limited but we intend to cover as much ground as possible and visit as many places as we can."

Experimental Farm. The people of the interior are agitating for an experimental farm and, speaking of this, Dr. Tolmie said that the government was fully alive to the necessity for one. Experts have already been visiting the country and it is the intention of the government to establish one. It would have been done before this had it not been for the tightness of finances. The minister stated that there would be one before long and it would be a complete experimental farm and not merely an illustration station. No location has yet been recommended, stated the minister, on being questioned. Every section is in the running to get it.

Fodder Shortage. Speaking of the agricultural situation generally in Canada, Dr. Tolmie stated that the Maritime Provinces this year had had little rain and the result was that there would be a shortage of grain and fodder during the winter and many cattle would likely suffer. Similar conditions existed in certain portions of Quebec where feed was scarce and high priced. The crop in Ontario had been patchy.

In the East it had been clearly demonstrated that the farmer who had a silo and raised sunflowers had a distinct advantage over the one who depended solely on other feeds. Sunflowers in some parts were being used now in preference to corn on account of the fact that they were better able to withstand the frost.

Crop Average. The crops on the prairies had been up to average. The wheat crop would amount to about 270,000,000 bushels and oats and barley crops had been fairly good.

Dairy conditions throughout Canada were good, declared Dr. Tolmie. Prices were fair although they had suffered with the general deflation. Hogs were being raised to advantage and the market was promising. There was a great demand for poultry and eggs and Dr. Tolmie expressed surprise that the business was not gone into more along the coast. Feed prices had come down now so that poultry raising was a profitable occupation.

Slump in Beef. Beef is suffering more than anything else, stated the minister. The price in both United States and Canada had gone down and the United States had placed a tariff of 30 percent on its importation. Last year 320,000 head had been shipped from Canada to the States and the year before, 500,000. Now the tariff either had to be paid or a new market would have to be found. The government was attempting to develop the market in Great Britain. The embargo was still operative on killed beef but there was nothing to prevent finished stock being shipped and killed on the other side within ten days of its arrival. On his recent trip to the Old Country, Dr. Tolmie stated that he appeared before the embargo commission. Progress had been made for the commission had brought in a report recommending the lifting of the embargo.

B. C. Apples. "B. C. apples are making a tremendous reputation on the Old Country market," declared Dr. Tolmie. On account of the good grading and packing of the B. C. apple it has been able to make good advances in competition with other countries. Boxed apples are being greatly favored in Great Britain. The freedom of the B. C. apple from disease is also a distinct point in its favor.

Dr. Tolmie is a busy man all the time, as was evidenced by the sheet of telegrams that was handed to him immediately on his arrival at the Hotel Prince Rupert. His trip here is necessarily a hurried one. He will have to rush back to Victoria on Thursday evening and then go straight to Ottawa. Col. Peck will accompany him up the line but will not go south on Thursday. He is to remain in the city for some time.

Nothing Political. Both Dr. Tolmie and Col. Peck refused to say anything about matters political, either local or general. On account of having been away from cities since their departure from Vancouver on Tuesday night they had gotten rather out of touch with recent developments. They lent an interesting ear to the latest news on the situation but as far as the newspapermen was concerned in this regard he was more in the position of telling than being told.

Tonight Dr. Tolmie and Col. Peck will be banqueted by the Agricultural Association and the Board of Trade and are also to attend a meeting of the former organization.

THE RULING PASSION.

A number of darkeys were unloading a boat with a cargo of anvils for which they received two cents for each anvil carried ashore.

Jose—Capt'n, 'if I carry two anvils at a time how much do I get?

Capt.—Two cents each, boy. Jose started down the plank when it broke and he fell into the river with the two heavy anvils. When he came to the surface he cried: "Captain! if you'll don't throw me a rope I've gwine to drop these here anvils an' lose mah four cents!" Judge.

HINDU PRINCE AND BALLYHOO MAN AT FIRE EATING SHOW

NEUILLY, Paris, Oct. 7.—"He eats it alive, a real fire-eater from India, a real Hindu," shouted the speller in front of his ballyhoo at the Neuilly fair some nights ago. "If you don't believe he is a real Hindu speak to him in the Hindu language and he will answer you."

A distinguished looking gentleman stepped up and commenced addressing the fire-eater in Hindi. The latter was silent and perplexed. The dark stranger spoke to the ballyhoo man in all the known dialects in India but still the latter remained silent.

"You're not a Hindu," shouted the speller to the stranger; "you're not talking Hindu but gibberish; if you're a Hindu why don't you eat a little of this fire?"

"I can't just now, I am on a diet," replied the Prince of Kapurthala—for it was the genial Hindu prince seeing the sights. The Prince has been quite a figure around Paris and Deauville this season. He reached the third round in the mixed doubles, teamed with the Princess in the world's hardest tennis championships at Saint Cloud.

"Now, children, you must all give up something during Lent," said mother brightly. "Daisy, what is your choice?" Daisy thought a moment. "Please," she said at last, "I think I'll give up going to church on Sundays."

WHAT CAUSES SO MUCH SICKNESS

Constipation Responsible for 90% of Disease

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Corrects It

It is generally recognized among the medical profession that Constipation or Insufficient Action of the Bowels, produces more disease than any other one cause. Constipation is responsible for at least 90% of the disease in the world today—because Constipation is responsible for the Indigestion and Dyspepsia—the nervousness, Insomnia and Rheumatism—the Eczema and other skin troubles—the Headaches and Backaches.

Why is this?

As you know, it is the duty of the bowels to carry off the waste matter in the system. If the bowel muscles are weak or the liver inactive, then this waste matter remains in the body and poisons the blood. As a result, every organ in the body is poisoned by this waste.

"Fruit-a-tives" has been wonderfully successful in relieving Stomach Troubles, Nervous Troubles, Liver Troubles, Kidney Troubles, Skin Troubles and Blood Troubles, because "Fruit-a-tives" positively and emphatically relieves Constipation.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always relieve Constipation, even though the trouble has been chronic for ten, fifteen and twenty years. Thousands of grateful users proclaim "Fruit-a-tives" the greatest remedy for Constipation that the world has ever known.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

Horrible Condition in Famine
Areas of Russia where People
Exist Amid Filth and Disease

A horrible picture of famine conditions in the Volga district of Russia is given by a special correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, a paper that is sympathetic with the Soviet and the extreme radical elements of Britain. It is dated September 4 at Samara:

When the refugees arrive at Samara they join one of the so-called camps either in and around the railway station or on the Volga bank. These camps are nothing but shelterless agglomerations of innumerable families who squat round their pile of house hold goods and wait until a train can take them to some part of Russia where there is no famine. Evacuation trains run irregularly, and are always overcrowded. Some families have to wait many days, or even many weeks before they can get a place. There is no organization equal to the task of dealing with the great multitudes of hungry people who arrive more quickly than they can be evacuated.

There is no cleanliness and no sanitary arrangements. The railway station and open spaces round it are pervaded by evil stenches. Track, platform and cobbles are littered with refuse and oozing sewerage. And on this bed of filth the verminous, malodorous and squalid mass of starving men, women, and children sit amid swarms of buzzing flies.

Most of the people are too filthy to show whether they are pale or not, but many of the children are dreadful to look at. This afternoon I noticed a bundle of rags stirring slightly amid a heap of rubbish and refuse. I approached and a boy of about fifteen looked up at me. The skin was drawn tightly over his pinched face. His eyes were like two slits. His face was ashen grey. His grey lips were shrivelled so as to bare his teeth in a horrible manner. He looked down again, his pointed nose almost touching the rubbish heap. His grey hands moved feebly among the refuse and garbage. He found a piece of green melon rind. He took it in the flat of one hand and scraped off the rind with his teeth.

Dead Bodies Lying About. The weather has been warm and dry, although the nights are cool. Nevertheless, there is much mortality amongst the refugees. The last frosty night will kill several numbers of them. The dead are often left lying a long time before they are removed. I saw the body of a little child lying almost naked in the station and with decay. A swarm of flies was buzzing round a fetid sore on its back.

A dead boy was lying stretched across the pavement of a frequented street. People walked round him quite indifferently as they passed by. Only an old woman peered inquisitively into his lifeless face, and then went her way. The sight was far too familiar for anyone to take much notice.

Many Germans. Many of the refugees on the Volga bank are German immigrants from the "Volga colonies." Those I spoke to all seemed to have some idea where they ought to go to. Some wanted to go to Omsk, some to Minsk, some to Moscow. Some even dreamt of returning to Germany. At the same time they all realized how dark their future was. Many children were in a dreadful condition. I saw one little girl two or three years old who had a minute, shrivelled face almost like an old woman's. Her limbs were like thin, fragile sticks. Her small belly was swollen abnormally. Her flesh looked horribly grotesque, like some impish monstrosity, something between a human abortion and a hairless monkey.

All Dirty and Ragged. There were many children like this, but I did not see any with the huge swollen heads I often saw in Germany before the effects of the blockade had begun to wear away. Children who are lost or deliberately abandoned by their parents in the streets of Samara are brought to the "distributing station," which now holds some four or five hundred. I saw none suffering from cholera, but a few have typhus. They were all dirty and clothed in rags. Most of them were terribly emaciated.

One little boy, with drawn, pinched face and big expressionless eyes, seemed too weak to smile or cry, but when he received a piece of chocolate the faintest shadow of a smile flitted almost imperceptibly across his face as he pushed it feebly into his mouth. The whimpering and waiting of children less weakened by hunger filled the whole building.

Die Every Day. There was only one doctor present. He has several female assistants, but they, too, are half-starved and overworked and can do little even with the best will. There is no soap, no fuel, no medicine, so that children can neither be washed nor receive medical treatment. Five or six die every day.

On the banks of the Volga a few miles from Samara, are several "sanatoria," "children's colonies," or "forest schools," where the admirable educational ideals of the present Russian Government were beginning to materialize. These institutes are fine country houses, formerly the private property of wealthy Samara merchants. They are built in little patches of forest and overlook the river. But lack of food and fuel is emptying these one after another. The children are packed into carts and taken to Samara, where they are absorbed by the amorphous mass of misery and destitution.

Money Only Need. It is not everyone who is hungry at Samara. No one with money need starve. There are several restaurants in the town where the cooking is far superior to that of even the best provincial towns. All day until late at night hungry people stand outside the windows, without complaint or violence, and stare with listless eyes at the guests who eat the plentiful food that is consumed within.

LASHES GIVEN IN ASSAULT CASE AT WINDSOR, ONTARIO

WINDSOR, Oct. 8.—Imposing the most severe penalty for assault in the history of the Essex County Court, Judge J. J. Coughlin, at Sandwich Saturday afternoon sentenced Louis Morin, 23 years old, and Walter Goodchild, 24, both of Amherstburg, to 10 years' imprisonment in Kingston Penitentiary. Each man is also to receive 40 lashes, all to be given at one time.

This is the first time, according to R. L. Brackin, K.C. special prosecutor, that lashes have been imposed for assault since an amendment to the Criminal Code was made last year, by which courts can order flogging in the event the assault is considered serious enough.

U. S. Army Uniform. Morin, who wore the uniform of the United States army, and Goodchild, broke into the home of John Clee, farmer, 69 years old, near Amherstburg, the night of August 7. At the point of pistols they compelled the aged man to show them where he had stored one case of liquor. They then handcuffed him and dragged him into a barn while using the butts of their weapons on his bare head.

In finding the men guilty, Judge Coughlin said he was convinced that only a severe sentence, including lashes to be administered all at one time, would act as a warning in the border county.

POSSIBILITY CEDAR EXPORT

J. R. Morgan Co. Working on Shingle Mill Proposition Says Williams.

ONLY 15 PER CENT CLEAR.

Logs Used for Making Dugout Coffins For Rich Japanese.

The possibility of this district doing business with the Orient in supplying cedar logs for pencil making and other purposes, was mentioned last night at the Board of Trade meeting. The matter was introduced by W. G. Nickerson who said that in connection with the possibility of working up an export business from this city, the Trade and Commerce Committee might consider the matter of cedar logs.

On a recent visit to Seattle Mr. Nickerson said he had met H. F. McElae, formerly of this city, who is now in the timber business in that city. He had said that nearly every vessel was carrying cedar to Japan for use in making lead pencils.

Local Firm Investigating.
W. E. Williams said his firm that of J. R. Morgan, Ltd., had been investigating and had found that clear cedar was used in Japan for making dugout coffins for burying rich Japanese and for use in house building as well as for making of lead pencils.

The cedar would stand where it came in contact with the soil better than other timber. Only ten or fifteen per cent of the cedar in this district was clear and there were at present no shingle mills operating that could use the bolts, and as a result there was no market for anything but the clears. His firm was at present working on this.

ASK BETTER TREATMENT FOR SOLDIERS

Courtenay-Comox Board of Trade Sends on Resolution Passed by Them.

A letter from the Courtenay-Comox Board of Trade was read at the regular meeting of the Prince Rupert Board last evening for endorsement of an enclosed resolution and stating that it had already been passed by the Farmers' Institute, United Farmers, and Comox Co-operative Creamery. The letter was referred to a committee of the Board for report, president Williams remarking that it was an important matter. The resolution follows:

The Resolution.
"Whereas by the existing arrangement under which Returned Soldiers acquired farm lands through the Dominion Soldier Settlement Board, the purchase price of such land is repayable by twenty-five equal yearly payments, the first of such payments becoming due two years after the date of purchase; and, in cases where the Returned Soldiers also purchased live and dead farming stock with money loaned him by the Board, he is required to repay this loan by four yearly payments, the first installment also falling due at the end of the second year; so that, as an illustration, a Returned Soldier who purchased a farm and improvements for $5,000.00, and then borrowed $2,000.00 for the purchase of stock will be called upon to make an annual payment for the four years after the two years grace, of about $900.00 an amount that not even the most successful and experienced farmer could repay under like conditions."

"And whereas, these Returned men in most cases had little or no experience in farming but were led to believe that, on their qualifying for the Dominion Government test, they would be capable of successfully operating their farms so that, indirectly it was on the Government's recommendation that they took up farming, and the Government therefore should assist them in every way to make good."

"And whereas, the conditions of farming in British Columbia and particularly on the Coast and Vancouver Island are entirely different from those of the other portions of Canada as there the farmer is faced with the serious problem of clearing his land of heavy timber before he can get any returns, while on the Prairies it is only necessary to break the land."

"And whereas in nearly all cases the prices paid for stock and equipment were far above the present market values; the value of all farming stock having depreciated the past year, in some cases, as much as one third which loss will fall on the Returned Soldier Settler."

"And whereas the statement has been made that these Returned men who do not pay the installments, as due, will be put off their land whereby the land may go out of cultivation and there will be a loss of production in these days when greater production is being so strongly urged and the individuals themselves will be added to the already large body of unemployed."

Definite Requests.
"Now be it resolved, that this Board of Trade urges on the Dominion Government that such amendments be made at the earliest opportunity in the Soldiers' Settlement Act whereby: 'First, the terms of the repayment of loans made for the purchase of stock be placed on the same footing as those for land, so that instead of these loans being repayable by four installments, the principal and interest be amortized and be repayable by twenty installments.'

"Secondly, that all Returned Soldier Settlers who shall have carried out improvements on their holdings during the first two years to an amount equal to the first installment then becoming due, and shall thereafter continue to carry out improvements to a similar amount during the following three years, shall have the privilege of having the installment for each year covered by such improvements postponed and the principal and interest amortized and made repayable at the expiration of 5 years from the date of purchase."

Advantages.
"In this way the tax payer will be protected and those Returned men who are genuinely trying to make good on the land will be placed in a position of security, and on the other hand, it will not prevent the removal of the few who are never likely to make a success at farming, or who are on the land for what they can get out of the Government."

"That a copy of this resolution be sent to all the British Columbia Boards of Trade for their endorsement and that they be requested to take the matter up with their representatives at Ottawa."

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

A certain Judge was trying a case where a dealer sued a steamship company for the loss of some pigs in a fire on board a cross-Channel boat. It came out in the evidence that the steamer had a large deck-load, and here the damage was greatest. The Judge thus began his charge to the jury: "Gentlemen, to put those pigs on deck was a rash act, but to fry them was a rasher."

PLAN TO PREVENT SELF-DESTRUCTION

Salvation Army of Vancouver inaugurates Anti-Suicide Bureau.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 8.—By way of averting an unprecedented number of suicides that are suggested by recent records, with the unusual number of unemployed in the big cities during the coming winter, the Salvation Army has inaugurated an anti-suicide bureau. The evangelists have tried out the plan in other cities with success, they state, the bureaus of London, Paris, New York and Chicago being particularly effective.

The Salvationists invite confidence from all who contemplate self destruction. They say their prayers, optimistic counsel and practical aid works wonders. One instance is cited where a youth embezzled money and meditated suicide. He was attracted to the Salvationists, who prayed over him and then took up the matter with the young man's employers. He was given another chance and abandoned his plan of ending his life in despair. Special attention will be devoted to world-weary young women.

Drugs, it is claimed, form the most potent factor in the suicide epidemic that is now sweeping the continent.

PRISONER TRIED TO BREAK HIS OWN NECK

Was in Jail at Juneau and Had to Be Put in Straight Jacket.

George Nelson, in the Federal Jail, charged with the murder of Nels Peterson, climbed up on the top of his cell door and flung himself backwards against the bars and floor of his cell in an attempt to commit suicide says the Juneau Empire. He sustained a large gash in the top of his head and a bruise on the front of his head.

After the attempt at suicide Deputy Marshal N. O. Hardy was called and after the wound was dressed Nelson was placed in a "straight jacket for a time." He remarked that he would not try that stunt again.

The attempt was said to have been a bona-fide one as the accused man climbed as far up on the cell door as possible which is to a height of about ten feet then letting go of all holds flung himself backward with a kicking motion of his feet that caused his head to strike against the sharp points of some bars and later to hit upon the floor. His intention was to break his neck.

MONEY SPENT IN MILLIONS

Will Never Get Economy Until Liberal Government Comes in Power.

MACKENZIE KING SPEAKS

Liberal Leader States Position of Party on Many Public Questions.

SYDNEY, N.S., Oct. 7.—Addressing an audience of nearly four thousand people in the Carriers' Rink here tonight, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party, declared that only by the return of the Liberal administration could there be in Canada any reduction in national expenditures and a consequent reduction of taxation. Mr. King charged the government with unnecessary extravagance and also with refusing to accord the people the courtesy of being consulted on policies affecting expenditure of the public monies.

Premier Murray's View.

Hon. Mr. Murray, introduced the leader of the Liberal party and said Mr. King had no more loyal supporters than the people of Cape Breton. Premier Murray said he himself had three times unsuccessfully contested the constituency in the federal house. This was not the first time he had heard the policy of protection or ruined interests.

"Had I been a prophet and showed the electors of Cape Breton what was coming under Liberalism, their verdict would have been different," said Premier Murray. "If any tariff policy different to that of the Liberals could add to the prosperity of this country, why did not the government introduce it? If Mr. Meighen could introduce a tariff to alter trade conditions he should have done so long ago while his party was in its strength."

Mr. Murray said there would be no "dreadful things" happen to Canada because of the return of the Liberal party in Canada. On the other hand, the development of both the home and foreign markets would mean greater prosperity in Canada. There was not today a Conservative government in any of the provinces of Canada. Mr. Meighen said the speaker, had been trying to "thimble-rig" for ten days and attract mediocre men to the cabinet. The Liberal party already had a supply of great men to draw from. The men in 1892 had brought about prosperity through a good tariff, could again frame a tariff which would bring Canada to happiness and prosperity. The verdict of ballots would show a clear verdict for the Liberal party in Nova Scotia, Mr. Murray declared.

Driven to Country.

"Mr. Meighen has been driven to the country by the force of public opinion," Mr. King declared in the course of his speech. "He goes to the people because he was afraid to face defeat in another session of the house. The Meighen government has not a friend in this country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The prime minister owes to the people to give them the date which he has chosen for the election so that contracts may be closed and steps taken to bring a revival of trade and business in Canada. Mr. Meighen wants to make the tariff the sole issue and this makes the people forget the other matters for which the government has to answer."

"The cost of living was a more important one," Mr. King claimed, "and this was bound up in the high cost of government. Men and women must realize the bearing of the cost of government on the cost of living. The women were especially interested in the cost of living and it was to women and the home that the Liberal party appealed, from the Atlantic to the Pacific in this campaign."

Full Quota Candidates.

"We are putting in candidates from the Atlantic to the Pacific today," said the Liberal chief, "because we believe that combined effort is necessary to bring down expenses of government and taxation. You will never get any economy through Premier Meighen and such colleagues as the minister of militia and the minister of marine and naval affairs. Money has been spent in millions and new departments opened with consequent additions of many new employees. You'll never get any economy until you get a new government at Ottawa and secure a careful audit of the books."

The Tariff.

Dealing with the tariff, Mr. King said if returned to power it would be his aim to follow the policy laid down by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which had brought prosperity. "We are not for free trade," declared Mr. King. "We are, however, for a revenue which is built up according to the revenue necessary; no legitimate industry need fear tariff revision by us," Mr. King declared, "but if there are any big combines or monopolies founded on a protective tariff, these will be the only ones crushed."

The tariff, said Mr. King, should be framed to develop the basic industries of the country. It would be our aim, he said, to develop these industries and bring them to a proper success.
