Boat Rammed At Mill Bay

Arrest Made Following Unpleasant Incident at Mouth of Naas

ARRANDALE, Naas River, Aug. 24.—An extraordinary incident, which is thought by many to be an aftermath of the fishermen's strike, occurred in the vicinity of Mill Bay, Naas River, on Monday when Y. Tanayama, running a power launch at full speed, rammed a sailing skiff which was anchored and in which Arthur McNeill of Greenville was quietly fishing at the time. The skiff was almost cut in two, the gunwale being ripped in the centre and McNeill plunged into the water. Undoubtedly he would have been drowned had not two other fishermen, Christopher Trimble and Charles Robinson who were using power launches observed his plight and immediately gone to his rescue.

Tanayama, without stopping to ascertain the extent of the damage or attempting a rescue, went off at full speed towards Wales Island. Dominion Constable E. G. Newham of the Indian Department arrived on the scene soon after and after getting particulars, went in pursuit of Tanayama who is now lodged in the jail at Arrandale and will appear before Stipendiary Magistrate W. F. Eve at Anyox in the course of a few days.

CRASHED ON FIRST DAY

One of New York to Oslo Parties Failed to Reach Harbor Grace Last Night

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Aug. 24.—Thor Solberg and Carl Petersen, flying from New York to Oslo via Harbor Grace, crashed at Darby Harbor, Placentia Bay, 50 miles from Harbor Grace at about 9:30 last night, according to a message received here today.

The flyers were not hurt but the plane was wrecked. They encountered rain and fog and it is believed they were forced down after failing to find Harbor Grace.

PLANE WAS INJURED AS IT LANDED

Vermont Flyers on Way to Oslo Rescued Own Machine and Continued Flight

HARBOR GRACE, Aug. 24.—Long overdue Clyde Lee and John Bockhon, flying from Barre, Vermont, to Oslo, landed here at 7:30 a.m. today.

The flyers had fair weather until they flew into rain and fog over Newfoundland last night. They reached Burgeo on the southern tip of the island without mishap and then decided to bring the plane, "Green Mountain Boy" down on a strip of beach at dusk. The beach was soft and the machine tilted slightly, damaging one of the wings.

The flyers stayed by the plane all night and, aided by the inhabitants, got the machine in position for the take-off this morning which was successfully accomplished.

FLARE-UP IN STOCK DEALS

Both New York and Montreal Exchanges Showed Great Activity Yesterday

MONTREAL, Aug. 24.—Listings closed slightly off the best levels yesterday after the heaviest day of trading for months. Prices advanced materially for the opening. Some of the leading issues were subjected to profit taking in the last hour. The list as a whole however closed fractionally to several points higher. Metal shares showed especial strength.

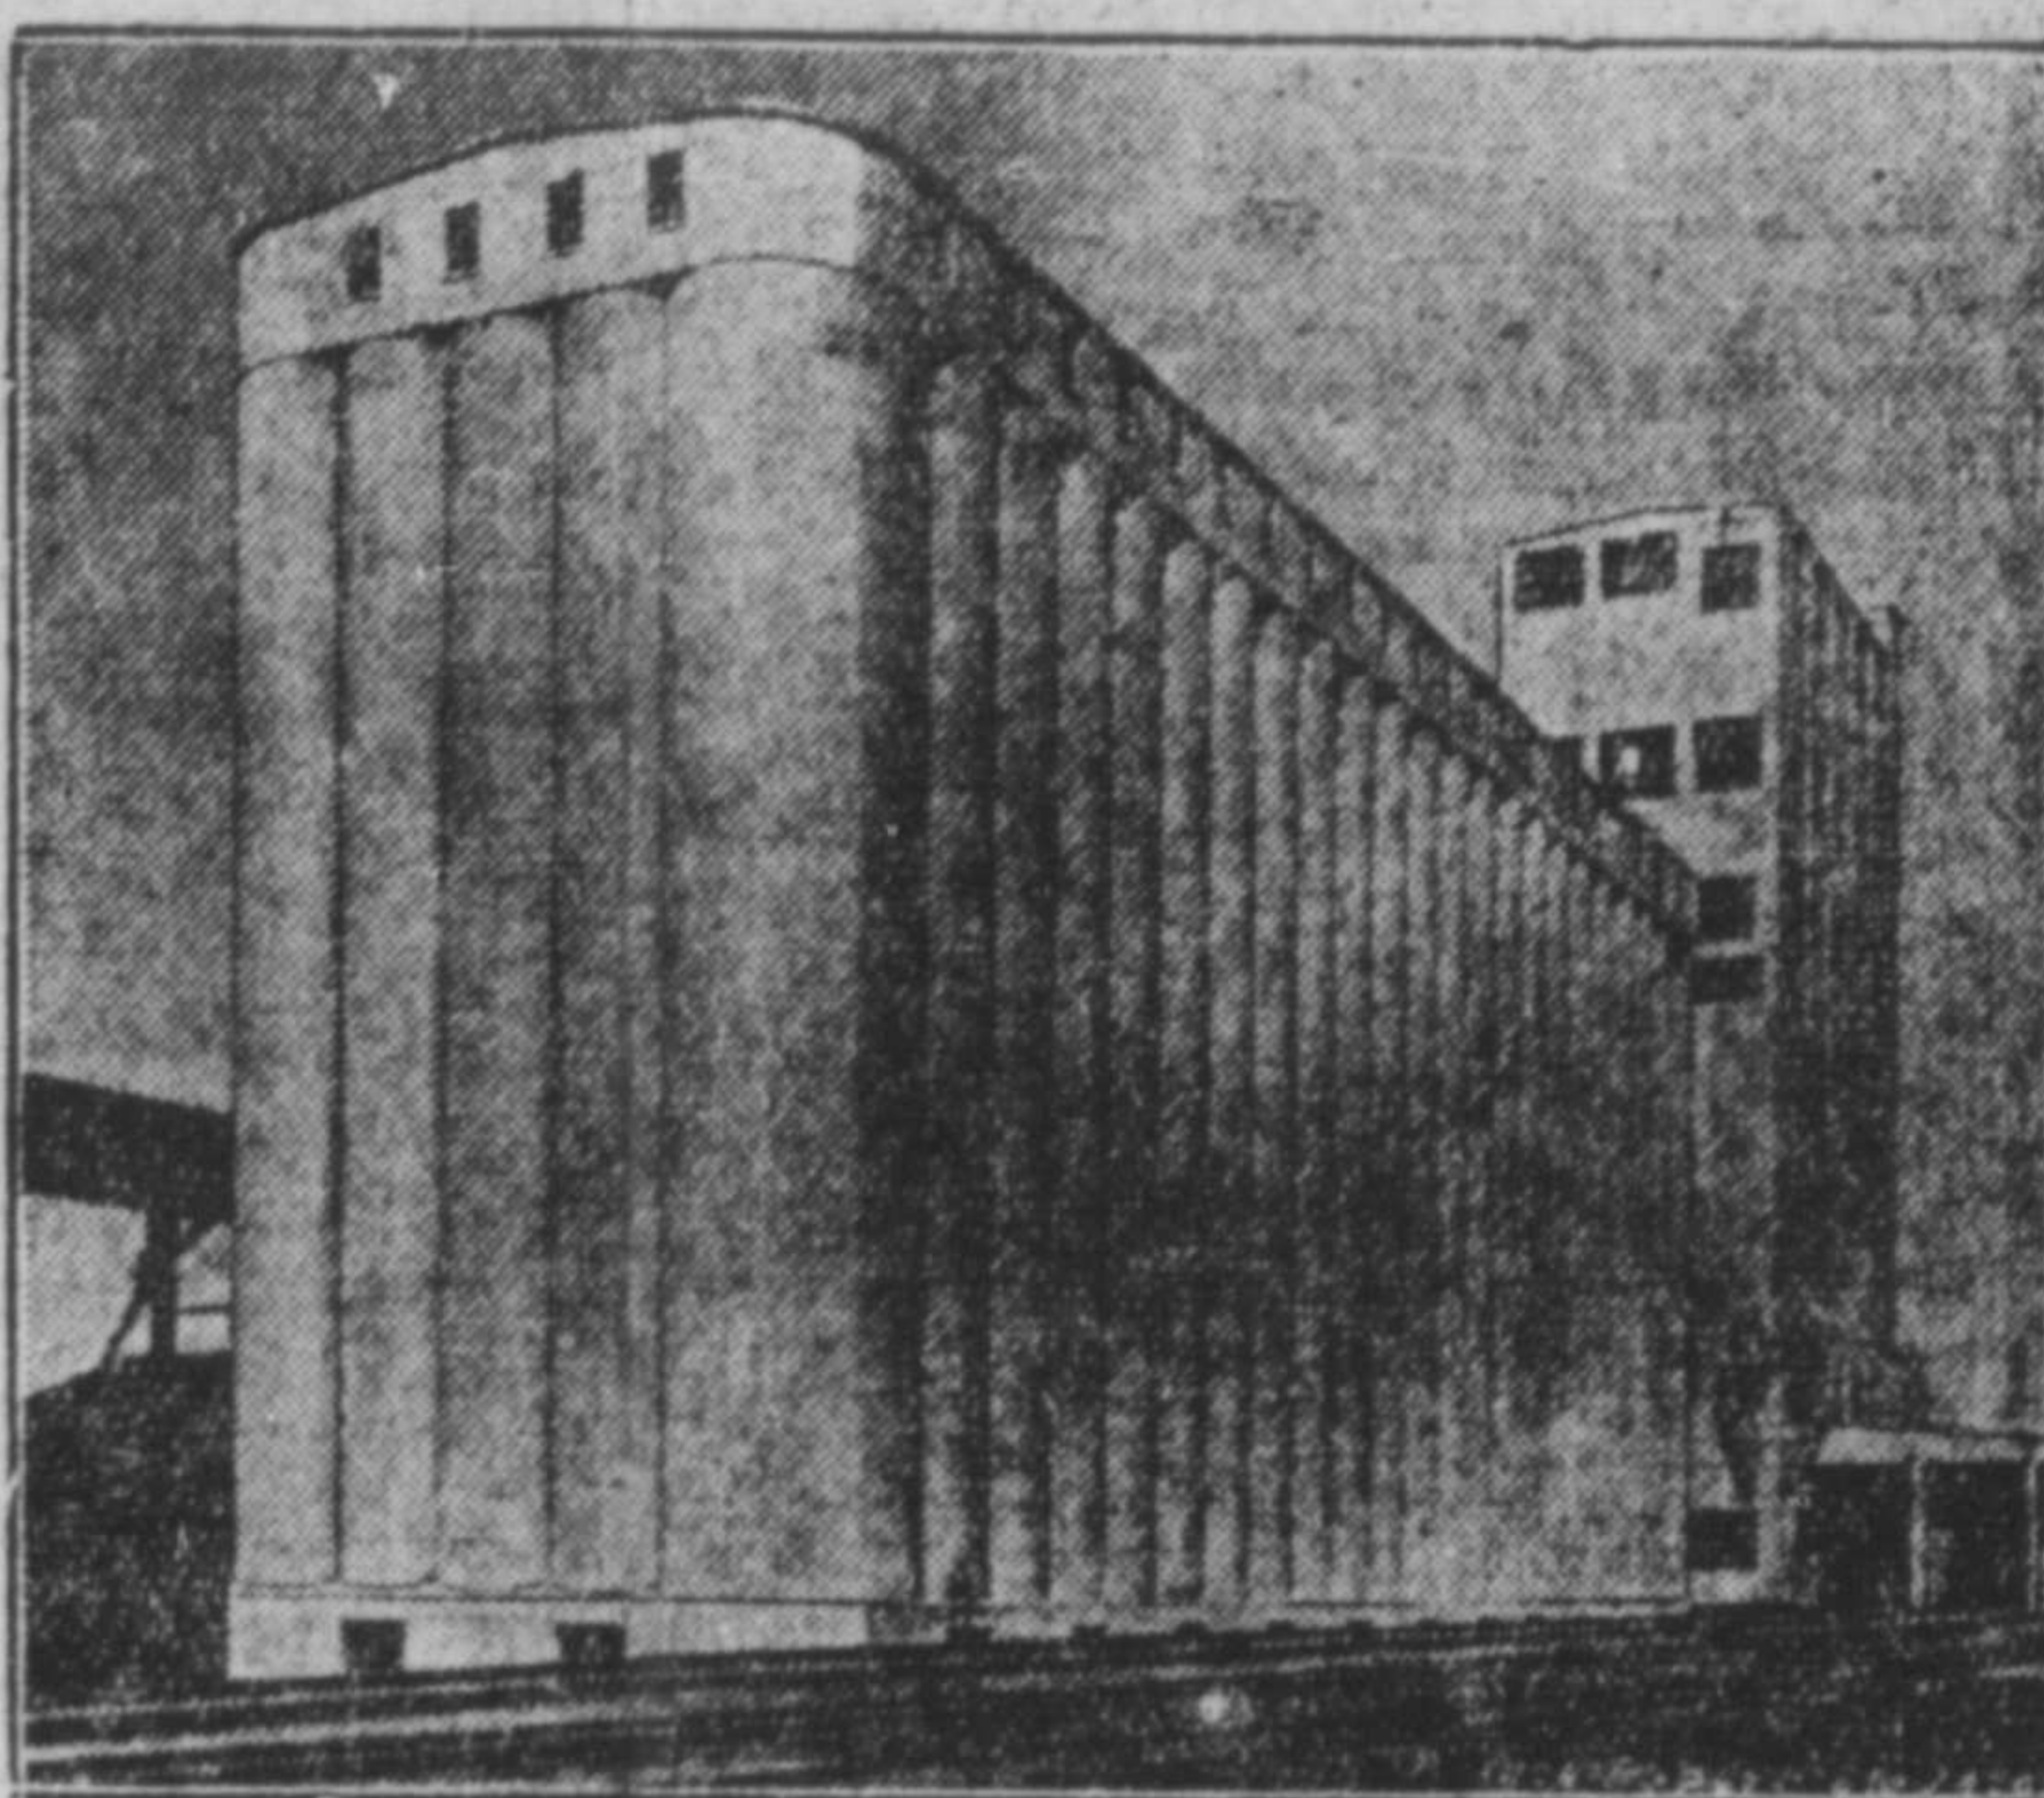

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—After absorbing an afternoon selling flurry, which carried few issues a point or so under the previous close, the market recovered in the last hour yesterday, several prominent issues showing net advances of one to three points. The list failed to get to within a point or two of the highs reached in the morning flare-up however, and the late tone was irregular. The turnover approximated four and a-half million shares.

Amy Johnson Had Planned Flying Atlantic Again But Deferred to Wishes of Husband, Capt. Mollison

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Amy Johnson said today she had reconsidered her plan to fly the Atlantic in deference to the wishes of her husband. The London Express had said she was practising blind flying and piloting heavy machines at an aerodrome near Southampton with the aspiration of being the first woman to complete a solo flight westward across the Atlantic. She had told the newspaper she had discussed the subject with Mollison but "not very seriously."

"Jim will be against it," she said, but added "but I hope to be able to persuade him to let me go."

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Capt. Mollison will probably not start on his return flight until Friday owing to weather prospects not being good. Asked concerning the interview Amy Johnson gave a London newspaper stating she planned to duplicate his solo return Atlantic project, Captain J. A. Mollison said, "I do not expect her to give up flying but I do hope she will not make such a trip."

Masset, Lifest Spot on Queen Charlotte Islands, Wants Road to Port Clements and Inlet Dredged

(By H. F. Pullen)

Masset is situated at the entrance to Massett Inlet, a large inland tidal salt lake on which some of the finest spruce timber is located. The country is level and sandy but the soil is very productive. A few miles to the north and east is a fine hard sandy beach on which the surf breaks and which is an ideal place for children to holiday.

One of the summer residences on the fringe of this wonderful beach is that of Dr. Dunn, formerly of London, England, whose family has been educated at the Prince Rupert schools. Almost all the sands on the beach carry gold in very fine flakes, so fine that it so far has been found impossible to recover it profitably. Numbers of people have tried and much money has been sunk in the efforts but so far without success. On more than one occasion the whole country has been staked into mining claims.

Masset is the nearest telephone point to the trolling grounds at North Island and a great many boats make it a calling point, a selling point for their fish or a place of residence. To make the harbor more suitable for fishing boats the residents have asked the federal government to dredge out a moor-

Disturbances In Germany Are Still Going on

Political Situation Complicated as Result of Murder and Court Sentence

BERLIN, Aug. 24.—Disturbances, as a result of a brutal attack by five Nazis upon an opponent in which the latter was killed, continued yesterday. The men were arrested and sentenced to be shot. Strong protests have been made by Hitler and his followers and demonstrations staged but Von Papen has so far refused to allow any amelioration of the sentence.

The political situation is much complicated by the incident as it is threatened that should the five Nazis be executed, the present government will receive no support from the Hitler group which is the strongest in the Reichstag.

The well known explorer was only 25 years of age and was one of the most distinguished of the younger British explorers. He was drowned when the kayak, a one-man Eskimo canoe, upset in the sea.

FLYING THE ATLANTIC

Flying the Atlantic is becoming as common as was the feat of driving twenty miles with the old fashioned horse fifty years ago. Yesterday three parties set out to make the crossing.

Nobody minds a grown person risking his life on a flight of that kind, but it does seem a pity to take children away on an escapade in which they would be helpless if anything happened to go wrong. The flying family that set out yesterday may be a picturesque outfit and doubtless its progress will be followed with keen interest yet the fact that the youngsters aboard are only six and eight years of age, make it look more like a criminal offense than an act of bravery.

UNEMPLOYED COMPLIMENTED

The local unemployed men who yesterday visited the government agent to ask for clothes, shoes, shelter and dental and medical treatment are to be complimented on the orderly and courteous manner in which they carried out their visit. There is nothing to be gained by unseemly conduct and doubtless the men realize that. By behaving well they enlist public sympathy and are more likely to get what they are asking.

UNFORTUNATE POLICY

It was an unfortunate policy which allowed the unemployed to get to their present condition. There is between Cloyah Bay and the present end of the highway a short stretch of ungraded clearing which could easily have been completed without much greater expenditure if the authorities had exercised ordinary sense a year ago. The men would have felt better if they had done some work while at the camp and everyone would have been better satisfied. As it is now the graded section of the highway at the bay cannot be used, the men are sore, the people generally are sore and nobody is satisfied.

PROTEST OF UNEMPLOYED

The protest of the local unemployed against the treatment of the men at Prince George does not add to their prestige. Doubtless they are ready to believe that their comrades are always right but how are they to know? Reports are mostly biased and the reports carried by unemployed are no exception to the rule. They hear their own side but not the other. While they may be right they also may be wrong and being so far away they are not in a position to be sure of their information. Experience has shown that human nature in labor circles is much like any other kind of human nature. It is just as biased and prejudiced and weak and likely to make mistakes as is any other.

Everyone sympathizes with the men who are honestly anxious to work but cannot get anything to do and therefore cannot earn enough to keep them. Very few sympathize with men who capitalize their handicaps for the purpose of forwarding a cause which is hopeless and to which most of the people object. As long as the local unemployed try to get work or failing that try to get help which will enable them to carry on until better times arrive, the whole community will be with them, but when they go beyond that they alienate sympathy.

BIG GAME SOFTBALL

Only One Game Now Between Station and Round House in Standing

In a brilliant game the Station defeated the strong Round House team by the close score of 3 to 1. The game was well played all the way through, with very few errors by either side. The Station made all its runs in the fifth inning when Geddes singled, Unger was safe on a bad error by Cameron on first and Astoria came through with a two-bagger to left scoring both Geddes and Unger, himself scoring on a passed ball and an infield hit by Wicks. The Round House scored their lone run in the sixth, when Faby's short hit to centre fell safe between Unger, Astoria and B. Skattebol, with Cameron on first who scored when Skattebol threw the ball away at third base.

Round House—Johnson, Arney, Horton, Cameron, G. Boulter, Raby, Nelson, A. Skattebol, F. Boulter.

Station—Geddes, Unger, Astoria, Stiles, B. Skattebol, Wicks, McIntosh, Antonelli, O'Brien.

Umpires—Comadina, Windle and Woodside.

REGIMENT IS WINNER

Secured Right to Play in Final By Trouncing Home Oil

The Regiment Football team defeated the Home Oil in last night's soccer game by a score of 4 to 1 which qualifies them to play in the Merchants in the final for the July Cup football trophy. The game will be played next Tuesday evening, the opening night of the Prince Rupert Exhibition.

The Regiment scored almost from the kick-off when Vance went through to score. Fourteen minutes later Vance scored a second goal for the Regiment as Christison had centred the ball and Pierce fumbled. Tony came close with a header for Home Oil after a good play on left. Del Rio also put in a lovely one which Norrington saved well tipping over the bar for an unproductive corner. Score at half-time was 2 to 0 in favor of Regiment.

Immediately on resuming Home Oil tried hard to score but were unable to get through the Regiment defence. Nine minutes after the re-start Vance scored third goal for the Regiment as Pierce allowed the ball to go from his hands after catching centre. After fifteen minutes Currie of the Home Oil had misfortune to deflect the ball on his own goal-keeper after Wilson had centered and Colussi for goal. Shortly afterwards Home Oil had a glorious opportunity score when they were awarded penalty kick, but Vieira took the kick and put the ball high in the bar.

Outstanding for the Home Oil were: Mowat, Skinner, Van Del Rio, while for the Regiment Norrington acquitted himself at goal, all three half-backs did well while Vance showed himself to be an opportunist, scoring three of his team's goals.

Regiment—Norrington, La Blake, Edgecombe, DeJong, W. Ham, Wilson, Colussi, Vance, Cameron and Christison.

Home Oil—Pierce, Mowat, Skinner, Gomez, Currie, Stalker, Kinson, Tony, Vieira, Davies Del Rio.

James Mitchell referred to linesmen were Haddon and Del Rio. The Home Oil are to be commended for their sportsmanship always fielding a team regardless of the many defects inflicted on them throughout the season.

SPORT NOTES

All is in readiness for the opening of the baseball series tonight on Acropolis Hill Grounds between the city champion Sons of Canada and the All-Star team which has been picked from the other two teams in the league. Although the Canucks feel confident that it will be just another ball game for them in which there is little doubt as to the ultimate outcome, they are liable to get a big surprise.

Benny Windle, manager of the All-Stars, has picked out an imposing array for his line-up tonight. Jido Gurvich, Empress catcher, will be the receiving. Nick Chenoski, tar pitcher for the Elks, will be on the mound. Art Barry, Elks, will play first base. Fred Kenny, Empress, will cavort around the key-stone sack while Windle will play his usual position at short. Vic Mendies, Elks, will cover the busy corner with George Arsenau, Elks. Doug Stalker and George Howe, Empress players, playing the outfield. Windle has a host of reserve players and says: "We will give them a good game anyway," which means a lot, coming from the mo-

President Hungerford Announces Further Reductions in Personnel and Lower Salaries

MONTREAL, Aug. 24.—Further reductions in the official personnel of the Canadian National Railways will be made effective on September 1, according to an announcement made here today by S. J. Hungerford, acting president of the system. Positions will be abolished or consolidated and there will be a lowering in the general average of compensation to officers.

It is understood that the positions which will disappear number about 55, and that the new revised salary ratings of Canadian National officers will be below those for corresponding positions on United States railways, although the C. N. R. is the largest railway in point of mileage and has gross receipts exceeded by only two systems on the continent. The reductions in salary ratings, it is believed, range from forty percent in the case of some of the executive officers to smaller percentages elsewhere, where the salaries are considerably lower.

Vancouver Man Suffered For Twelve Years

Charles J. Payne, a well-known citizen of Vancouver, B. C., recently said: "Stomach trouble and constipation had been pulling me down for 12 years. I'd be so nervous at night I couldn't get to sleep for hours. My circulation was poor and I had severe rheumatic pains in my knee. The relief I got from Sargon and Pills was amazing. I now eat anything I want. I sleep soundly and the pains and numbness have gone. But the greatest blessing of all is my relief from constipation. I want all my friends to know what this truly wonderful medicine has done for me."

MASSETT, LIVEST SPOT ON THE QUEEN CHARLOTTE ISLANDS, WANTS ROAD TO PORT CLEMENTS AND INLET DREGGED.

ing channel in Delcatla Inlet adjoining the townsite. The bridge crossing the inlet will have to be renewed next year or in the very near future and the people are asking that the entrance to the channel be dyked with the sand and gravel taken from the inlet. This would make a base for a permanent roadway in place of the present wooden bridge which has to be renewed every few years. Also it would reclaim a good deal of tide flats which are at present of little value.

Masset shows more sign of recent improvement than any other village on the Queen Charlotte Islands. It has a greater suburban population and its prospects for advancement are excellent. That is the impression I gained on a recent two-day visit there. In fact, when I arrived there from Port Clements at 10 o'clock at night I hardly knew the place after an absence of nine years.

Masset owes its existence to its suitability as a townsite, to the fact that it is a stopping off place for fishermen, that it has a cannery in the village and that there is another at New Massett, two miles distant. There is also an interesting development in agriculture and horticulture going on in the neighborhood, a clam cannery at Tow Hill, not very far distant, and possibilities in gold mining in the black sands of the peninsula. A small sawmill supplies the surrounding country with lumber and shingles. As a holiday resort too, it has great possibilities.

Masset was formerly an Indian village, the home of the Massett Tribe of Haidas. Later the white village was started two miles distant but for many years it was a place with a store and a hotel and a few small houses. Now it is on the move and it has all the signs of progress. The houses are painted, gardens are cultivated, lots are being cleared and while I was there last week work was proceeding on the clearing of the wide main street under a local co-operative plan without the aid of any government. This local co-operative spirit will be a great aid to the place if it is kept up.

Only one of the canneries is operating this year, the other, owned by Prince Rupert people, is closed owing to the poor prices paid for canned fish.

While Massett is not yet connected with the main island highway, it is possible to drive thirty to forty miles as far as Tow Hill or beyond and also there is a very pretty piece of good road connecting the village with Old Massett. All that is needed now is to build the twenty miles of highway from Massett to Port Clements to enable the people of Graham Island to keep in close touch with each other.

These are the two things badly needed at the north end of the island—the dyking of Delcatla Inlet and the building of the road to Port Clements. The dyking would save the province money and the other could be done a little at a time, first connecting the cannery at Woden River and then cutting across to the other highway. It would be much easier road building than any near Prince Rupert and little upkeep would be required on much of it owing to the gravelly character of the soil along the beach.

The lumber and shingle mill operated by A. Robertson not only does a local trade but it supplies Prince Rupert and other places on the coast with shingles and lumber. The shingles are air dried and are said to be of excellent quality.

If Massett continues to grow, as it promises to do it will be a close rival with Skidegate and Queen Charlotte City although they serve

BIG GAMBLE AT CAPITOL

Thrilling Modern Story Pictured In Play There Tonight and Tomorrow

"The Big Gamble" at the Capitol tonight and tomorrow tells a thrilling modern story with fast, absorbing action and strong, meaty dialogue. The play has a striking plot, and a perfect cast. It is directed by Fred Niblo.

A young fellow who has had things easy all his life finds himself at the end of his rope, broke and beaten. To square his debts and exit from the world with everything even, he barter his life to the man into whose power he has fallen. To make sure of collecting the forfeit money, the sinister one marries his victim to a girl who has put herself into his hands to save her brother. The plan is for the wife to collect the husband's insurance when he is gone and hand it over.

Then, the chap who thinks he is tired of the world finds he has a lot to live for but the trap is closed and can only be opened by more money than he is able to raise. There is one desperate chance to square the count. He takes it and just when success is in sight, he has to abandon the effort to save another. Then comes the blood-tling climax.

Soviet Factor U. S. Elections

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24:—The Russian situation is being introduced into U. S. politics. In view of the determined stand of Hoover against recognition of the Soviet government, friends of Russia are turning to Roosevelt as their only hope. He has not committed himself and probably will not do so but the question of Soviet relations is being used in the campaign.

different territories. Skidegate has its mine and Massett other basic industries.

All Graham Island points should make a big bid for tourist business. The proprietors of "The Dunes" at Tiell have started and are making a success of catering to the holiday trade. Massett people promise to follow suit and very soon it seems as if many Prince Rupert people and people from the south will be summering on the sandy beaches of the Queen Charlottes.

DOUKHOBORS DISCUSSED

People of Brilliant Refuse to Take Seriously Resignation of Peter Veregin

WINNIPEG, Aug. 24:—The future of 15,000 Doukhobors in Western Canada is uncertain as the result of the proffered resignations of Peter Veregin as president along with other executive officers. The resignations have not yet been accepted but the preferred resignations along with rumors of financial difficulties besetting the Christian Community of Universal Brotherhood, have revived speculation as to the possible dissolution of the organization which controls property and other wealth running into millions of dollars.

BRILLIANT, B.C., Aug. 24:—The Doukhobors here refuse to take seriously the resignation of Peter Veregin and foresee reorganization under his leadership.

Billie Morris of Moricetown was fined $10 in the district police court yesterday by H. F. McLeod for intoxication.
