Law Resignation May Cause Crisis FINANCE MINISTER ANNOUNCES PROVINCIAL BUDGET FOR ENSUING YEAR

EDITORIAL

DAYS AND POLITICS.

Hon. Arthur Meighen is to impress the country with the need of building up the industries. He paints pictures of the country by a protective tariff. He is trying to starve out Rupert by ruining her industry and not even providing stock to handle the offering.

Is it? Is Right Hon. Meighen doing it deliberately with a view to giving the people to one of his friends? It has shown it does not seem so careless of the people that he re-conduct the business on his basis. It must surely be the other.

CAR SHORTAGE IS BAD AGAIN; BIG LIST OF FISH ARRIVALS HERE

Twelve carloads of halibut offering for sale at the fish exchange and but four cars available for eastern shipments sums up the situation at the waterfront today. There are eighteen boats in and some of these with catches running well over 50,000 pounds. The sale is still going on although three carloads have been bought up. The Pacific Fisheries paid 14.8c and 6c for one car; Booth Fisheries Canadian Co., 14.9c and 6c for another and the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. paid 15.1c and 6c for the third. The most of the remaining 200,000 pounds or so is selling at sacrifice prices or is leaving the port.

Following is the list of boats in for the sale: Ethel June, 4,000 pounds; Bayview, 4,000 pounds; Eagle "O" pounds; Johanna, 15,000; Norland, 22,000 pounds; Emblem, 5,000 pounds; Alliance, 10,000 pounds; Rennell, 5,500 pounds; Liberty, 70,000 pounds; Seymour, 65,000 pounds; Trio, 6,000 pounds; Nidaros, 16,000 pounds; Alpha, 13,000 pounds; Wilson, 12,000 pounds, and Bethune, 3,000 pounds.

The Canadian Express Company reports eight or nine cars for arrival on Sunday with one in the yards undergoing repairs.

Times Says Britain Threatened with A Political Crisis

LONDON, March 18.—A political crisis of the first magnitude has been created by the resignation of Andrew Bonar Law from the British cabinet, says the London Times. Other London papers agree that the resignation is certain to have considerable political effect and will probably weaken the coalition government. The Graphic suggests that Premier Lloyd George may find the strain of office intolerable and retire.

Austen Chamberlain, Sir Robert Horne and Sir Edward Carson are prominently mentioned as successors to Bonar Law. Each are strong men and have tremendous followings.

FRIZZELL WINS WINDOW PRIZE

Simple Little Side Display Was Considered Best of All.

Yesterday afternoon the three judges appointed to decide on the respective merits of the windows in the contest for the prize of $2 offered by the St. Patrick's Day Concert Committee made the rounds along with Father McGrath and found the task a difficult one. There were a number of good windows but many had too much in them. Others were more or less crudely arranged. On the whole, however, the displays were good and in some cases original. The report of the committee was submitted to the committee in a short letter as follows:

Dear sirs:—We have examined the window displays carefully and award first prize to Frizzell's for their little side window with meat display. This window is notable for its simplicity, effectiveness from an advertising viewpoint and artistic results.

Other windows worthy of special mention are Rupert Table Supply Co., Tite's, Arthur's fish window, Bulger's, Gil's Cigar Store, and Prince Rupert Cigar Store.

A number of windows were decorated with Robin Hood, Nabob and Malkin's Best goods and these are all meritorious but not sufficiently distinctive to win the first prize.

(Signed) H. B. ROCHESTER, H. F. PULLEN, S. E. PARKER, Judges.

The prize was presented to Douglas Frizzell at the concert hall last night by E. A. Donohue.

Jack Shiel, formerly of the city police force, has written to friends in Prince Rupert. He is now at Santos, Brazil, with the Brazilian Shipping Co. Mrs. Shiel and daughter are in London, England.

Budget Brought Down Shows That Provincial Finances in Very Healthy Condition Now

VICTORIA, March 18.—For the year ended March 31, 1920, provincial revenue collected was $2,293,600 greater than the estimated current revenue for the year. It was $351,330 greater than the combined expenditure both on current and capital accounts according to Hon. John Hart in his budget speech to the legislature last night.

The revenue for the ensuing year is estimated at $17,010,535, an increase over the current fiscal year of $3,032,350. The increased revenue will be mainly caused by the government sale of liquor.

The net funded debt as on March 31, 1920, was $28,234,335. The total expenditure for the year is estimated at $19,818,974 on current and capital accounts, an increase over the current year of $2,135,110.

Mr. Hart announced that the government was intending to make an investigation into the provincial banking systems of Alberta and Manitoba. No new taxation of any consequence is announced.

Mining companies are to get an allowance for depletion of ore and concession is also to be given to timber holders in equalization of the assessed values of crown granted timber limits.

The estimated revenue for 1919-20 was exceeded by $3,876,212.62. The chief sources which showed larger revenues than expected were land sales, $243,000; timber revenues, by $118,000; prohibition act, $623,000; income tax, $412,000; personal property tax, $200,000; taxes on wild, coal and timber lands, $382,000.

Of $5,500,000 which was borrowed $5,350,000 was advanced to the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to continue construction.

Mr. Hart sounded a warning that increased taxation might be necessary if the demands upon the treasury increase. The P. G. E. Railway was blamed for the heavy borrowing of the past and the anticipated heavy borrowing of the future.

The minister said that British Columbia securities were always in demand and the credit of the province stands second to none in the Dominion.

FOUR SHIPS CAPITAL CLASS IN NAVY PLANS

LLOYD GEORGE MUCH AFFECTED

Could Scarcely Announce Retirement of Bonar Law Without Breaking Down.

LONDON, March 18.—Announcing the retirement of Andrew Bonar Law, Lord of the Privy Seal, from the Government, Premier Lloyd George was so deeply affected that he could scarcely finish the statement.

He said that he had a letter from Mr. Law stating that he had been warned by his physicians that if he continued in his arduous duties he would be in danger of a complete breakdown. He regretted that he would be unable to continue in public life.

Bond Sale is Good Omen

The selling of sufficient bonds to warrant proceeding with construction of the Prince Rupert Pulp mill is a good omen. It is the first step necessary in bringing the industry here. It cannot come here without water, however. That is an essential. We like the businesslike way in which the concern is going to work and it looks as if they really meant to establish the industry if they get the encouragement.

Prince Rupert people, we take it, are just as keen as anybody to see the pulp industry established here. There may come a time when we have no shipbuilding going on. If we have a pulp mill operating then, we shall not feel the loss of the other big payroll so much. We all want the pulp business. It will be for us to back up the local management and give them every possible encouragement.

Bonar Law Resignation Is Very Important.

Only a few days ago an article was published showing that as long as Lloyd George had the backing of Bonar Law, there was no danger of the British Government being upset. While he has not lost that support, the resignation removes it as an active factor. It may not weaken the Government but there is danger that it will.

World as Crazy As Before War.

The world is just as bad as it was before the war, according to Sir Philip Gibbs, the noted war correspondent, story writer and lecturer. There has not been that change for the better which was expected.

Sir Philip might go one step further and say the world is worse than it was before the war. The fighting spirit is in the air. People go to war on less provocation than they did formerly. It has become a habit. The spirit of tolerance is less in evidence.

The war was necessary. It could not be avoided, apparently, but we have to pay the penalty for the long period of training in killing each other and for the spirit of hate and hostility engendered at home. There were compensations, of course. Lessons have been learned, many of them valuable, but we doubt if the compensations would have been sufficient to justify the awful sacrifice had we not been forced into the conflict.

Work Shut Down on Hudson Bay Railway.

Work has shut down on the Hudson Bay Railway because of the shortage of funds of the Dominion Government. At one time money was poured out like water and there could be but one result from such lavish expenditures. Now we have to pay the piper. The Government has been absolutely forced to economize or get out of office.

We believe they may be right in shutting down new construction work on railways. Certainly it is useless to build new railways until those now in operation are equipped. The G. T. P. will never pay running expenses without cars. We can understand shutting down construction, but we cannot understand neglecting a railway which already has the business offering and allowing that business to go to foreign railways. There is no economy in running the business of the country that way. It is the method of the wrecker rather than of the builder of business.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

TIRPITZ FOR BATTLESHIPS

Believes British Won with Vessels of Line, Says German Admiral.

U BOATS ARE MUCH OVERRATED HE SAYS

Thinks there May Be War Some Day Between Britain and United States

Admiral von Tirpitz publishes two articles under the heading of "America and the World-war" in the "Deutsche Allegemine Zeitung" for February 17 and 18. In reality the Admiral discusses the possibilities of a future war between England and the United States, and gives his views on the surface vessel versus submarine controversy. He admits that there is a friendship between England and America, but thinks that material interests will prove stronger. He believes in the necessities of national rivalries. "If mankind look upon the brotherhood of nations as a distant and desirable aim, well and good; but up to the present day Divine Providence has used competition amongst the nations as the means by which the impulse towards civilization is kept alive." He also believes in the balance of power, and thinks the Americans were wrong to help to destroy England's rival at sea.

Decided on Sea

War between England and America, continues Von Tirpitz, will be decided on the sea, and asks what type of vessel will decide the naval battle.

In reality he writes, the Great War, in so far as it was a war at sea, was won by the English vessels of the line, and the potency of vessels of the line could only have been destroyed or reduced by vessels of the same type. There was no decisive battle between the two fleets, but that was only because we misapprehended the political situation and because we miscalculated the strength of the German fleet, which was therefore not put into action during the first year of the war, which could have been the decisive year. When it was too late England was made to feel only the German weapon of U-Boat war. England was not prepared for this, and could not be prepared because the technical development of the U-boat for long-distance service was so far advanced as to be of use in warfare only just before the war broke out.

Overrated.

Von Tirpitz says that the U-boat has been greatly overrated, and that it developed very little during the war, so that the U-boat campaign was fought with very much the same type as had been built for long-distance work in 1913. As for the surface craft versus submarine controversy in England the Admiral is of opinion that it has only become so excited because so many who are not experts are taking part in it; because material interests are involved in it; because "the English Cabinet is interested in leaving the maritime world in the dark as to what its own opinion is on the subject."

Nearly Crazy With Eczema

No rest day or night for those who are afflicted with that terrible skin disease, eczema, or as it is often called, salt rheum. With its unbearable burning, itching and torturing relief is gladly welcomed.

There is no remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters for giving relief to such sufferers; no remedy that has done, or can do more for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture.

Apply it externally and it takes out the stinging, itching and burning, and promotes a healthy healing.

Take it internally and it gets at the source of the disease in the blood,—for eczema is a blood disease—and drives it out of the system.

Miss L. M. Bouthier, 89 Victoria Road, Halifax, N. S., writes:—"I have suffered for years from eczema I could not rest day or night. I suffered great agony, and was nearly crazy with the itching and burning. I used all kinds of salves, but nothing seemed to help me. I saw Burdock Blood Bitters advertised, and was advised to try a bottle. I found great relief, and I really cannot recommend it highly enough for what it has done for me."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over forty years, and during that time has been manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SPORT

The contest for the championship of the billiard league and the possession of the Trail Club Cup has now narrowed down until it rests with the Trail Club and the Wanderers, the former being several points ahead in the standing. Despite the lead of the Trail, the Wanderers are not a bit discouraged and when the final between the clubs comes off next Monday night they are going to put up a big effort. The Trail Club is just as determined as the other that the shield is going to remain at home for its first year. Provided that Shockley defeats L. pine in the last of the Elks vs. Wanderers games it will be necessary for the Wanderers to pile up a lead of 72 over the opponents on Monday night if they are to win the championship. This is going to take all the playing the Wanderers have in them and they will have to extend themselves to a greater degree than they have shown so far in the entire competition. Monday's match gives promise of being as keenly contested as any one of the series.

This billiard series that has been going on for some months has proven very interesting and has brought out a lot of talent among local cueists. With the best of spirit existing between all the clubs in the competition the rivalry has been, nevertheless, very keen and both to the spectators and the players the games have been most enjoyable. With this winter's series proving so successful it is likely and desirable that there should be a similar contest each winter. The Trail Club shield has spaces on it for the engraving of the winners for sixteen seasons and it is to be hoped that each following year will prove as interesting and well conducted as the first one has been.

G.W.V.A. WAR MEMORIAL

To the people of Prince Rupert—The returned men are going to build a Memorial of the greatest war in history and to those who fought and lost their lives for the great ideals of Freedom. The G.W.V.A. will shortly start a campaign to raise as much money as our citizens can spare and feel inclined to devote to this noble purpose. So be ready! Reserve a donation that will help to raise a Memorial that will honor the memory of those that fell, and be a lasting honor to Prince Rupert and her citizens. 70

THIS MAN WAS A LEAGUE OF NATIONS

"Are you a British-born subject?" demanded the official at the passport office.

"My mother was British—" began the applicant.

"Yes, yes."

"But she married a Frenchman"

"Yes."

"In Italy."

"I was born on a ship flying Spanish colors while she was lying at anchor in Honolulu Harbor, but my parents died in Brazil when I was only four years of age, and I was adopted by a Chinaman, who brought me up in Russia—"

"Well, he's—" began an official.

"He's a bloomin' League of Nations!" exploded the official who had first spoken.

Knights of Columbus Concert in Westholme Theatre Last Night Was Great Success.

BEST LOCAL TALENT WAS ASSISTED BY VISITORS

The St. Patrick's Day concert presented under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus in the Westholme Theatre last night was indeed a fine performance. Every person in the big audience, Irish, Scotch, English or Canadian, listened to an entertainment that was enjoyable to the fullest degree and all came away entirely satisfied.

The programme was artistically decorated with the insignia of the Knights of Columbus order and many of the stage settings were at the same time novel and tastefully arranged.

The first number on the programme was a selection "Erin Go Bragh" by the Westholme Orchestra consisting of Sam Brail, director, F. W. Browne and H. A. Pryce.

Particular favorites with the audience were the two dainty dances by a group of little girls. The first, an Irish "Three Hand Reel" by Misses Lorna McLaren, Beatrice Cash and Dorothy Force was simple yet graceful and the precision with which it was executed reflected much credit upon Peter Byrne, the trainer.

Other undoubted hits were made by Harry Shannon, the Vancouver Irish balladist, Miss Olga Kask, who made her first public appearance here, and Harry Le Couleur, of Vancouver, and Miss Patricia McGeather in duet numbers. The first mentioned is indeed a fine vocalist and his strong clear voice was most pleasing both in the baritone and yodling numbers.

YESTERDAY'S snow did the rapid disappearing act.

HOPE springs eternal in the breast of every northerner. When there is nothing else to eat they serve it for meals.

TIMES are bad, You can't deny it. We're blue by god, Do we believe it? And yet we see A silver lining To the dark cloud. All bright and shining.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "When the Clouds Roll By"
Starring tonight at the Westholme Theatre.

Knights of Columbus banquet last summer, was again well received and Miss McGeather, though suffering from a slight cold, was well enjoyed. Their songs were of a typical Irish emigrant farewell nature.

Harry Flether, the local tenor, was in good voice and his bidding farewell of the Old Land and his loved ones in song was touching and true. He was assisted by Miss Nora Kenny, who took the role of sweetheart, and Miss Jean Kenny, as the Irish mother.

The "Fairies' Glen," a playlet specially written for the concert in which the leading roles were taken by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brady, was original and well carried out. Its profusion of local color made it doubly interesting and amusing.

Mrs. H. Alston gave pleasing vocal solos which were well received. Another interesting number was the exhibition of lantern slides of views in Ireland which were described by E. A. Donohue, Irish dancer, were rendered in good style by Bert McKay and E. L. McKay and Sam Brail gave a splendid violin solo of Irish air. A duet by little Master Milton Gillis and Miss Agnes Gratton was most enjoyable. The final number was a chorus "The Hark that Once Thro' Tara's Hall" rendered by the entire company.

Committee List.

The committee in charge is deserving of much credit for the success attained in the concert and the entertainment dispensed. It consisted of J. C. Gavizan, Chairman, J. J. Muldoon, J. F. Venables, F. W. Moersch, F. W. Henning, P. J. McDermott, H. Astoria and U. U. La Casse.

The Man in the Moon

IN one of the cities to the south, it would be cruel to mention which, things are so quiet you can almost hear the interest fall due.

ABSENT-MINDEDNESS may be all right for a poet, but it won't prevent a note falling due. The absent-minded man should be given absent treatment in business.

THE way some of the members of the British Columbia Legislature act you would hardly imagine the proceedings opened every day with prayer.

"When the Clouds Roll By" Shown at Westholme Tonight

No real man ever intentionally sets to work to make a girl cry, for if there's anything he dislikes in life it is that tyranny of tears. Yet that's exactly what Victor Fleming, the director for Douglas Fairbanks, did in Doug's "Big Four" picture, "When the Clouds Roll By," which is to be seen at the Westholme tonight.

Doug wrote the story and in one scene he insisted in his script that the young lady with whom he was in love and who turned him down, was to shed real tears. Kathleen Clifford, said young lady, in the part, couldn't make her tear ducts work the day the picture was to be made, so Director Fleming, when he had her rehearsing on the set, deliberately berated her. Finally the temperamental little girl became so worked up and nervous that she broke forth in great heartrending sobs, and then the fiendish director yelled, "Shoot, Camera," and laughed finally at her because he had secured just what he desired.

Despite his success it was days before he had Miss Clifford believing that he was only setting her to play a crying part. He proved his argument eventually when they screened the scene and they realized that the harsh methods had obtained excellent results.

MARION DAVIES IN "THE CINEMA MURDER"

Marion Davies' latest picture is a screen adaptation of E. Phillips Oppenheim's novel and provides the talented player with a striking vehicle in which mystery and romance play prominent parts. She is cast as an actress of great promise who nearly comes under the dominance of an unscrupulous financier, but is saved by her love for a young playwright who is himself under suspicion for the supposed murder of his cousin. Nigel Barrie is the leading man and heads a good supporting company.

LADY RHONDDA AND SIX-POINT

Movement Initiated by Lady Who Visited Rupert Last Year

The gathering of representative women called together in London by Lady Rhondda to decide whether a new movement should be initiated to press for six overdue reforms has begun well. It has named itself briefly "The Six-Point Group"—a grateful change from the long explanatory names women's organizations usually assume.

The movement has grown out of the demand expressed by many women in "Tide and Tide" for immediate practical action to push the six reforms which women generally regard as most urgent, for their sex. Private members have already introduced unsuccessfully into Parliament bills dealing with the equal guardianship of infants and with the children of unmarried parents. Now the Six-Point Group means to concentrate on getting Government bills dealing with these matters and also with assaults on children, provision for widows with dependent children, equality of conditions for men and women in the civil service, and equality of pay for men and women teachers under the board of education.

Focus Opinion

They are not so much concerned with propaganda as to make effective politically the strong body of public opinion already existing. Individual members of the Conference supported the decision and representatives of various organizations are going to consult their executives about taking action. Meantime the Six-Point Group has elected a provisional committee. Most of

HEART SO BAD

Was not safe to Leave her alone

Miss Eva P. Vatemann, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes:—"I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better, although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls, wherever I was, that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines and took several different kinds, but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them, and before I had taken more than two boxes I could see they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes, and am almost relieved of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me and I advise any one troubled with their heart to try them, as I am confident they will find relief."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c, a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

whose members are young women. It includes Lady Rhondda, Mrs. Chalmers Watson, Miss Clemence Dane and Miss Edith Thompson.
