TRIPLE STEWART DROWNING SUNDAY GREAT COTTON WORKERS' STRIKE STARTS IN LANCASHIRE

Two Hundred Thousand Weavers Are Involved In Industrial Crisis

Gives Promises of Being Most Serious Struggle Between Employees and Employers Since 1926—Seven Hundred Mills Picketed

MANCHESTER, Eng., Aug. 29:—A great cotton strike, involving some 200,000 weavers, started in Lancashire today without disturbance. Strike pickets went on duty at some seven hundred mills. It gives evidence of being the biggest industrial struggle in the history of the industry and the most serious industrial strike since 1926. Weavers at several important centres are still working. At Rochdale, where the old wage rate is being maintained, two thousand workers resumed work also at Leigh where operators at important mills of Gamble & Smith and Courtaulds continued work at full strength.

GOVERNOR AT JASPER

Lord Bessborough and Party Spend Pleasant Day at Mountain Resort

JASPER PARK LODGE, Alta., Aug. 29:—After pausing in their first Canadian tour to spend days amid the beauties of Jasper National Park, their Excellencies the Earl and Countess of Bessborough, accompanied by their son, Viscount Duncannon and party, left here this morning for the Pacific Coast. It was the Governor-General's first visit to the Canadian Rockies after an absence of 30 years. Excellent weather favored the stay and the party used horse, airplane and motor to sightsee. Lord Bessborough was delighted with the numerous scenic attractions and followed every road open in the park. He was rewarded with some fine close-ups of much of the game that abounds within the park borders. Viscount Duncannon flew into Maligne Lake to fish the famous waters that have attracted scores of anglers since fishing opened last June. During his afternoon he landed three or four good sized trout although not a few fighting specklers got away from him in his anxiety to land them. Lady Bessborough was attracted to the Athabaska Valley trails and enjoyed a number of walks. During her stay she visited Jasper Hospital operated by the Sisters of Charity.

Among the party are Lieutenant D. Fuller R.N., Captain R. Stuart French and A. F. Lascelles.

Three Premier People Victims Of Early Morning Tragedy On Road To Hyder Following Dance

Mr. and Mrs. George Naysmith and W. Mowatt Lost Lives When Car Plunged Into Canal After Collision With Truck

STEWART, Aug. 29:—Less than two weeks after this district had been visited by a double drowning fatality Portland Canal residents were again shocked in the early hours of yesterday morning when an automobile returning to the dock after a dance held in connection with the reception to H. M. S. Delhi collided with a truck on the Stewart-Hyder road and crashed over the steep rocks into the canal, three of the seven passengers in the car being drowned.

The drowned are Mr. and Mrs. George Naysmith of Premier who were married only last month and W. Mowatt, storekeeper of the Premier mine.

Petty Officer Weyman of H. M. S. Delhi, who was on the road at the time, heard cries for help and heroically dived to the submerged car and rescued Mrs. Mowatt and A. Scott, the driver of the car.

A diver of the Delhi is now engaged in making a search for the bodies.

Details of Tragedy

STEWART, Aug. 29:—Mr. and Mrs. George Naysmith and William Mowatt of Premier were drowned here at about 12:15 a.m. Sunday when the car in which they were returning to Premier after a dance given in Stewart for the sailors of H. M. S. Delhi went over the side of the Stewart-Hyder road about two hundred yards north of the Crawford dock, turning completely over and landing on the steep sloping rocks about twenty-five feet below the roadway, partly in and partly out of the water, then sliding on out into deep water where the car was completely wrecked.

Andrew Scott also of Premier, owner and driver of the car, and Mrs. Mowatt, who were also in the car, were saved after they came to the surface by Petty Officer Wyman of H. M. S. Delhi who, though suffering with a badly cut face as the result of partly falling as he climbed down the steep rock face, swam out to the half-conscious bodies and pulled them ashore, being assisted by Able Seaman Johnson and McCarthy also from the Delhi who arrived shortly after Wyman.

Truck loads of other sailors were soon on the scene and one petty officer, securing an ordinary pocket electric torch, signalled by Morse code to the ship which lay about half a mile off shore what had happened and asked for a boat rope and a searchlight to be thrown over the spot. Within five minutes after the accident the scene was brilliantly lighted with powerful naval searchlights and, shortly afterwards, boats from H. M. S. Delhi, fully equipped, were doing all they could to find the missing.

Later a ship's diver and crew were sent down who, finding the wrecked car half buried in the ooze (Continued on Page Two)

Port Clements in Doldrums at Present But Opportunities For Revival in Near Future Great

Tiell is Splendid Holiday Resort—Soil is Sandy, Beach is Large and Children Enjoy Summering There

(By H. F. Pullen)

Port Clements has had a varied career since the development of the Queen Charlotte Islands commenced. At one time it is very prosperous and the houses are all occupied while at another business wanes and the people move out. Just now the village is at one of the lowest points in the cycle owing to the failure of the lumber, logging and pole industry. The mills there are rusting, the pole camps closed and there is no logging going on. The result is disastrous for the time being, but even so, the people are hopeful and there is no doubt that if they have patience it will be rewarded.

Port Clements is the present terminus of the island highway at Massett Inlet and it is used a great deal by fishing boats wishing to make a quick trip to Skidegate or Queen Charlotte City. It is also the port which serves the Tiell summer resort. On a recent trip of the Prince John practically a shipload of people took passage from there to Prince Rupert.

"The Port," as this place is usually called, is connected with Tiell by a plank road over which cars run very smoothly. Half an hour brings the motor to Tiell, the delightful resort on the Tiell River and adjacent to the sea, conducted by Madam Rajaut at "The Dunes." It is a very beautiful country, sandy and dry and clean, where children can enjoy all the delights of farm life combined with sea bathing, fishing and boating. A golf course is in course of construction and a tennis court is planned.

Ranchers at Tiell and down the coast seem happy and contented. Fattest look sleek and milk and cream are used as one of the regular articles of diet. The Richardson ranch provides a good deal of the beef for the camps and villages and most of the places have something to sell most of the time. As developments take place more farm produce will be required and it will be up to the islanders to provide it. There is all kinds of opportunity for development. There seems no good reason why Prince Rupert should not draw largely from these islands for its farm and garden supplies.

While visiting there recently I was shown an excellent orchard by Bob Blytuch on the banks of the Tiell River. The trees were loaded with fruit, apples and pears, and if the fruit was not as large as seen in some orchards it was because the trees were carrying too much fruit. Seldom have I seen a better crop.

Everywhere on Queen Charlotte Islands potatoes thrive well. One feature of their culture is that they come out of the ground clean and without blight of any kind. In cooking they are dry like the Ashcroft variety and can be beaten in no other part of the world.

Game is plentiful in this section of the country. Deer abound in large numbers. Visitors to Tiell seldom pass a day without seeing at least one deer. There are also said to be black bears on the streams and ducks and geese visit the flats in large numbers. English pheasants multiply to such an extent that sometimes they become a nuisance to the settlers.

One feature of life on the islands is the absence of worry. Most people take life easily, enjoy each day as it comes and let the rest of the world go by.

Adolf Hitler, leader of the Nazis, is showing a disposition to boss Germany but Von Papen is matching him.

MORE BEEF FOR RUPERT

Farmers of Interior Planning to Ship More High Class Beef to Market Than Ever Before

Following the example of W. H. R. Love of Telkwa, who last year raised a carload of baby beef for the Prince Rupert market, several other farmers of the interior are planning to do the same. Mr. Love was well satisfied with results and it is hoped that the raising of high class beef for the market will become one of the staple industries of the Bulkley and Nechaco Valleys. Hitherto the class of beef sent from the interior has been sold at a discount but this particular shipment earned a premium.

Harry Bowman, in charge of the department of agricultural development of the Canadian National Railways, was in the city Saturday and he was quite pleased with the response of the farmers to this experiment. Its success had been carefully watched and it seemed as if others would benefit from it.

Mr. Bowman said that several carloads of beef were being shipped to Prince Rupert soon from the interior for the Burns Company to be killed at the local abattoir. While the market was yet a long way ahead of the production a greater effort was being made by the farmers of the interior to supply the Prince Rupert market with meat and farm produce.

Tells About North Country

L. B. Jones, general agent for the Canadian National at Skagway, who is going south today following the closing of the Alaska tourist season, says that, while the season has not been a good one, it was better than was expected. He visited the whole district while in the north. Dawson has had a fairly good season, everyone working but no extra men needed. The five big gold dredges have been operating steadily.

At Atlin things have not been very busy but there has been no government relief needed.

The season is late in the north this year. Flowers are several weeks behind the usual time, in fact were just getting good as Mr. Jones left.

Mr. Jones has with him a great many photographs of scenic places in the north and he enthuasies over the side trips in Skagway. The flowers at the foot of the glacier in the Denver Valley were wonderful this year and they were easily reached on foot. Not far from the glacier this year a tent caterpillar

THE WORKLESS AND "THE RED FLAG"

Editor, Daily News:—
With reference to your visitor of last week, I trust I may be permitted to present a few facts before he heads the local vigilantes in a raid on the "reds." Another glass of the scandalous political monopoly with the beer label on it, and this gentleman would distinguish himself. One can see that he has not missed any meals or lined up for his direct relief, and that to him, this is the best of all possible worlds. There are many hundreds like him in Prince Rupert, and I sympathize with their point of view, having held the same opinions not so very long ago.

The unemployed are not asking him or any private citizen for anything, they do not want anybody's property or to hit anybody over the head. On the contrary it is his type that will be asked to hit them over the head. When the facts are considered, he is really kicking men who are down. We are fighting for our existence with the cards stacked against us. The capitalist has no use for us; the government is cutting down our relief to the minimum in an effort to break our spirit and lower wages. To quote a local official who wrote to the press, "he had nothing but contempt for men who complained about food when they were getting it free." For us to be asked to be content and have our standard of living reduced several times in the last two years is asking the impossible, and men who will not fight for their rights and privileges as human beings, deserve contempt.

The police are against us, judging by the venomous glances directed at us. The average man on the street, like your visitor, is given to ignorant criticism of our aims and objects. The minister of the gospel is strangely silent when his path of duty lies clear. The clergyman, individually or collectively, would have great power and influence in bringing about reform. Has he lost his public spiritedness? They cannot take cover on the grounds that they are forbidden to interfere in matters secular. Some 15 or 16 years ago they were immensely active in stimulating public opinion against the foes who threatened to overpower us. It is only a few months since their voice was lifted at mass meetings held in the churches of this city on behalf of the present police regime. Can it be that Christianity has been tried and found wanting? Has the shadow of the breadline affected their sense of duty, or are their thoughts so fixed on spiritual matters that mere mundane affairs seem unimportant? It is not too late yet for the church to enter the conflict, then when the history of the great depression comes to be written, their names will be found inscribed on the roll of honor when the memorial to "Our Glorious Unemployed" is unveiled.

It is a fight worthy of all. Our political and social system being founded on greed and productive of graft and corruption. Those not with us are against us. If it be a crime to hate humbug and hypocrisy and political iniquity, it is everybody's duty to be guilty. Is it any wonder that, with everybody's hand against them, the workless organize as the only self-protection? Is it any wonder that the spirit of revolt is growing in the land. Consider for one moment the fact that property and profits are rated above human life. The Liberal government in 1924 sent troops into Nova Scotia to quell a strike, a miner being shot. The Conservative government with the same object sent troops to Estevan, Sask., in 1930, and three miners were shot. Today, in the land of liberty, machine guns are pointed at miners in Illinois. Fishermen and miners are risking their lives for a pittance. Yet your visitor will prate of patriotism! What kind of patriot would uphold a system like this? It is compounding felony. Will the members of the B. C. police, if disbanded on the recommendation of the Kidd Commission, be as patriotic as they are today after two or three years of this hell of unemployment? Nothing is worthwhile if not worth fighting for.

Radical alterations in our system can be accomplished without recourse to violence only by organization, and men elected to represent the people who are out for a square deal for all. Your visitor states that this is the only country they would be allowed to sing "The Red Flag" in. This is absolutely false. This has been the workers' song for many

Actor Shows How A Maitre d'Hotel Earns Big Money

Movie fans have an opportunity to see how a big hotel is run in Paramount's "Reserved For Ladies," in which Leslie Howard plays the leading role, and which is the Capitol Theatre's feature picture tonight and tomorrow night.

In this picture will be seen faithful replicas of the kitchens and service stations to be found in the most efficient hotels. The picture also demonstrates many of the closely guarded secrets of an efficient head waiter, and the art of "dressing" a fashionable restaurant, an art that ensures that the right people are placed where they will be seen, the wrong people where they will not be annoyingly near each other, and that everyone is happy while dining.

In this picture Leslie Howard enacts the part of the highly efficient head waiter of one of the world's most aristocratic eating places for the wealthy and socially prominent. He demonstrates the suavity and efficiency of popular maitres d'hotel and shows why it is they command such fabulous salaries.

years, and is now sung all over the world. It has come to stay whether we like it or not, and persecution will only strengthen its popularity. I used to think it must be a terrible song when I read of the workers' stily singing it at meeting in European countries and here, and it is only a few days ago that I actually read the words. I quote it below for your readers' information that they may judge for themselves.

THE RED FLAG

The workers' flag is deepest red,
It shrouded off our glorious dead,
And ere our limbs grew stiff and cold
Their life blood dyed its every fold.

Chorus:
Then raise the scarlet standard high
Beneath its folds we live and die,
Though towards flinch and traitors sneer,
We'll keep the red flag flying here.

It well recalls the triumphs past,
It brings the hopes of peace at last,
The banner bright, the symbol plain
Of human right and human gain.

With heads uncovered stand we all,
To bear it onward till we fall,
Come dungeons dark or gallows grim,
This song shall be our parting hymn.

Chorus:
Then raise the scarlet standard high, etc.

Vitamines Are Vital

While working on the vacuum process for Pacific Milk we had reasons to believe that vitamins have something to do with food flavors. As the experiments progressed it was found that there was an increase in valuable vitamin content and the flavor improved almost in exact ratio. The new process is therefore doubly successful.

Opening of Fair Takes Place Tomorrow Night at 8 and All Entries Must Be in Tonight

Entries for the fair are coming in well, according to Walter Vance, the manager, who is busy today putting the finishing touches on the arrangements. The opening takes place tomorrow at 8 and entries must be in tonight before midnight.

While the rain did some damage to the flowers, a good showing is expected. The program for tomorrow night follows:

Joe Arseneau and Sam Joy, two exceptionally talented boys in songs and dances.

The Melody Trio, the kings of rhythm in tuneful tunes.

Novelty Tap Dancing, by pupils of Miss E. Tite, three little girls with educated feet.

One Man Band, a clever and entertaining act, which comes well recommended.

Acrobatic Dancing, by two dainty little misses, Joyce Gawthorn, Mary Davey.

Wrestling, hilariously humorous. Barrel Boxing, a barrel of fun. Balloon Blowing, a windy night.

Depression and gloom will go into the discard when you see this amusing, unusual and interesting entertainment. This is one of the most ambitious programs ever attempted.

Daily News Want Ads.

The Classified Ads.

Many people have something in the house they would like to sell which could be turned into money if they knew of a customer. Try a classified advertisement. Most people read the classifieds. For about fifty cents you can let them know about it and it may prove a profitable transaction.

Renting the House

There are a number of houses in the city not rented yet and many people make little effort to secure a tenant. Others who are wise to their opportunities try a classified advertisement in the "For Rent" column and often get results. As one satisfied customer said recently: "Those little ads certainly do bring results."

Some Like Reader Ads.

Some people after trying other kinds of advertising decide to try a reader among the locals and personals. Then they have got results. The cost is a little higher but they have been well satisfied. When conditions are like they are today the newspapers can often help. The price is not very high. Do not lie down and bemoan your hard fate. Try a different kind of advertisement and if that is not successful try again.
