Railway Company Takes Over Shipyard and Drydock Here And Will Operate Them Both

There is no chance of the local shipyard closing. Word has received locally that the Canadian National Railways are to take over the yard and drydock as soon as the present contract with the Wallace Shipbuilding and Drydock Company expires. It is understood, take over the plant put in by the Prince Rupert Drydock and Engineering Company, and will also take all uncompleted work.

It is announced that in order to carry on the work a company staff will be engaged of men familiar with all classes of yard and drydock operation.

The yard will enter into competition for the work of the coastwise trade generally expected that the company will do all the work for the coastwise trade and also undertake the building and docking of the Canadian Merchant Marine vessels. This will give a large amount of employment and will be not only a considerable permanent staff but also will be a good deal of casual especially at times when vessels are here for repair.

Very probable that the yard will be used for new contracts just as business takes a turn for the better.

The shipbuilding company the yard employed approximately 50 to 250 men, according to the amount of repair work done. Just what will be needed in the new conditions cannot be said.

Offer made by the Wallace company evidently was not sufficient to induce the company to enter into a lease.

EAGLE TRIES CARRY OFF LITTLE GIRL

Invades Verandah of House at Vanderhoof, but Is Beaten to Death.

VANDERHOOF, Oct. 25.—A baldheaded eagle measuring seven feet from wing tip to wing tip attempted to carry away a nine-year-old girl named Gibbs from the verandah of her home here recently. The struggles of the child and mother prevented the bird from getting away, and it was finally beaten to death by Matthew Semple.

The little girl suffered a number of flesh wounds, but is rapidly recovering.

CRISIS OVER IN SINK FEIN

Suggestion Made That King George Might Use Personal Influence.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The view is expressed at Sinn Fein headquarters this morning that the crisis in the Irish conference is over for the present.

It is rumored here that King George might, if necessary, use any influence he possesses within the limits of the constitution to harmonize the conflicting viewpoints in the Irish Conference.

REBEKAHS WHIST PARTY LAST NIGHT

The Rebekahs held another whist drive in the Rand Block rooms last night. There were fifteen tables and the first prize winners were Mrs. Sam Woods, who won on a cut from Mrs. Phillips, and Mr. Swanson. Consolidation awards went to Miss A. Nichols and Mr. Richards. Delightful refreshments were served before the gathering broke up. The committee comprised Mrs. J. Morrison, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. J. Simpson, Miss E. G. Davies and Miss E. M. Earl.

PERRY CRITIC OF GOVERNMENT

Objects to Method of Dealing With Beaver Pelts and Urges Completion P. G. E.

VICTORIA, Oct. 25.—H. G. Perry of Prince George yesterday criticized the Government policy in regard to Poupe Coupe oil lands and suggested that the Government stop expenditure on them and let the public do it. He urged the completion of the P. G. E. to Prince George no matter what it costs and the projected railway into the Peace River country. He said the people of the north country wondered why the Government could not spend money on roads there while it spent $150,000 on a liquor warehouse at Vancouver.

Mr. Perry said the people expected a reduction in taxation and the people with small incomes were entitled to the first reduction. He alleged that the people in the upper country believed there had been graft in the dealings over beaver pelts and demanded that Dr. A. R. Baker, chairman of the game conservation board, resign and the game board be abolished, giving place to a committee of the Legislature.

John Catherwood, Conservative member for Dewdney, introduced an amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne asking the Legislature to express disapproval of the Government's attitude to the petition from settlers of Nicomen Island for assistance in rebuilding the dykes to protect them from the floods, which Catherwood says in two successive seasons have reduced the settlers to poverty.

Hungarian Rebellion Broken and Ex-Emperor and Empress With Supporters Are in Prison

BUDAPEST, Oct. 25.—Ex-Emperor Charles and the Empress Zita have been captured and imprisoned and the military leaders of the monarchist uprising in Hungary have been arrested. Troops scattered the political allies who have been imprisoned following the second abortive attempt to place Charles on the throne of Hungary. A provisional government under Regent Horthy retains the reins of government and the uprising is believed to have been definitely broken.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Three armed bandits yesterday halted a mail truck on lower Broadway, unlocked the registered mail sacks, and selecting four which contained valuables, got away with a total of about a million dollars.

PROHIBITION OF NO EFFECT

United States Government Allows Unrestricted Medicinal Wine and Beer.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The Government authorizes doctors' prescriptions practically without restriction for medicinal beer and wine in the United States.

The Prohibitionists are up in arms, having prevented effect being given in the courts to the ruling last March that medicinal beer and wine were legal, pending anti-beer legislation which has not yet been passed by Congress.

The Government states that they cannot longer withhold such rights from the public.

MILLION AND HALF UNEMPLOYED ARE IN GREAT BRITAIN NOW

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Nearly a million and a half people will be without employment in Britain throughout the coming winter, according to W. J. McNamara, minister of labor. The Government has decided to extend the scope of the Unemployment Bill to Ireland.

Colonel Peck Lays His Case Before People of Rupert

The opening meeting of the federal campaign was that held last night in the Westholme Theatre when Lieut.-Col. G. W. Peck, V.C., representative for Skeena riding in the late Parliament, addressed the electors of the city, telling of his work as a member of Parliament, explaining his present position and announcing his future policies. The theatre was filled and Colonel Peck was given a quiet and attentive hearing with no disturbances or untoward incidents. A reel of motion pictures was shown before the curtain was raised on the platform where the soldier member was seated by himself at a flag-decked table. Before he started his speech two pipers marched up and down the two aisles playing a martial air.

"I am in a unique position," said Col. Peck in opening, "and this is the first campaign meeting that I have ever addressed in this way." He explained his participation in the election of 1917. He had been in active service at the front at the time and, although he had desired to get to his constituency for that campaign, activities at the front had prevented him from doing so.

All the campaigning he had done was the issuing of a little card and the placing of an advertisement in a publication issued at the front, the Canadian Record.

For a few days Denny Allen had assisted him in London while he was on leave. His expenses had cost about $200 or $300 but the people at home had probably not got off so cheaply.

After his election he had again wanted to get to Canada to attend to his duties as representative for Skeena but the big final drive under Marshal Foch was on in that year, 1918, and it was not until after he had led the spearhead of the Canadian Army of occupation into Germany after the Armistice that he had been able to return home. He left Europe on January 4, 1919.

Work in House.

Proceeding to deal with his work in the House of Commons, Col. Peck mentioned that the Daily News had said that he was not a great statesman.

He never said he was not but he would guarantee that he could keep up his end with him (Mr. Pullen). He did not claim that he had done everything but, with the hearty support of the local Board of Trade and the City Council, he thought he had accomplished something.

When he had come back in 1919 he had found that the local marines office was an adjunct of the Victoria office. On account of the city's location and geographical position this seemed preposterous. He had got busy on this and by the end of 1919 Prince Rupert was on the same footing as Victoria, and dit

Capt. Saunders was in charge of the separate district.

He had obtained appropriation for the Triple Island light which was a great aid to navigation and was part of a great lighting scheme to guide trans-Pacific steamers, which should now be coming to this port.

He had obtained appro-

EFFORTS MADE TO RESCUE MINERS

Two Imprisoned 2300 Feet Below Surface at Britannia By Cave-In.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 25.—Efforts are being made to rescue two laborers, L. P. Craig and Francis Patenaude, who are imprisoned in the shaft of the Britannia mines 2300 feet below the surface. The upper works of the shaft caved in Thursday night but both men are believed to be alive.

WALLACE HAS MADE OFFER

Second Effort to Secure Lease of Drydock by Local Concern.

H. J. F. Turney, manager of the Wallace Shipbuilding and Drydock Company Limited, stated this morning that his firm had made another offer in connection with the lease of the local shipyard and drydock. He said he did not know what attitude the railway company would take toward it.

The opinion was freely expressed around the city this morning that it was hoped the Wallace company would be able to make arrangements with the railway company to continue to operate here because a private company usually got more work and was more successful in a commercial business than a government-operated concern.

tions for two houses costing $35,000 which had been built at Digby Island.

Dealing with the fisheries, Colonel Peck told of the fight he had had to obtain changes in District No. 2. In 1919 there was much monopoly and tremendous abuse. The district was closed to canneries and to obtain licenses one had to use political influence. He had had something to do with the changes that had been brought about. He had gone to Ottawa at his own expense and was there with Mayor McClymont. He had spent many days consulting with the department of fisheries and finally the monopoly had been broken. Anybody could start in the cannery business and the limitation of licenses had been taken off. Provision had been made for the gradual reduction of licenses issued to Orientals who, at that time were practically crowding out the whites. Regulations had been made to re-establish the white fishermen. Not one organization that he knew of had ever recognized the work in this connection that had been done by Mr. Ballantyne, the minister, Mr. Found, the deputy minister, or himself.

Result Not Disastrous.

The result of the open fishing had not been disastrous as had been frantically predicted by the cannery interests in the south. Despite the forecasts that the business would be flooded, in the last two years there had been but one new small cannery established, less fish had been caught and the numbers of Orientals employed had been reduced.

He had brought in a motion establishing returned men in the fishing business. This had been seconded by Mr. Turgeon, member for Gloucester, N. B., and had been supported by Mr. Duff, of Lunenburg, and Dr. Ghisholm, of Inverness, all good Liberals. He wanted to see a permanent class of native white fishermen in the Canadian fisheries.

Public Works.

In the public works department Colonel Peck said he had country as any man and I be-obtained wharves for Alice Arm, Sandspit and Stewart and $20,000 had been spent in improving navigation conditions on the Nass and Stikine Rivers. Telegraph and telephone lines had been extended and improved. Here he had been given invaluable assistance by Mr. Dowling, the local superintendent, who was one of the best officers the government had in Canada. A loop system connecting Burns Lake, Francois Lake and Houston had been provided for. The work would be carried to Smithers and Telkwa. Good telegraph and telephone systems were a great factor in aiding and promoting settlement.

The railway question was a delicate one, indeed. Fish cars had been badly needed and Hon. Dr. Reid, minister of railways, and D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National system, had come here over a year ago. Dr. Reid had made statements that later had been found to be not right. These statements had not been solicited by him (Col. Peck). The minister had told the Board of Trade that the fish cars would be delivered in November, then in January and then in March.

Was Deceived.

"I had been completely deceived," said Col. Peck, "and finally I found out that the cars were not ready and had, in fact, not been even ordered. I immediately got very busy and despite the fact that the News gave the credit for getting the cars to Billy Duff he had as much to do with it as this table. I was Johnny-on-the-Spot and all reasonable men must know that."

Dr. Reid had promised ocean dock, station, round house and machine shops and had drawn great pictures arousing the hopes of the people. The dock and the station were coming, all right, but as far as the round house and machine shops were concerned there was nothing doing yet. "I do not assume responsibility for these promises," said the colonel, "although all will undoubtedly come in time."

I'm So Tired

Fatigue is the result of poisons in the blood. So when the kidneys fail to purify the blood one of the first indications is unusual and persistent tired feelings and pains in the back.

Neglected kidney troubles lead to years of suffering from rheumatism or develop into such fatal ailments as Bright's disease.

The kidney action is promptly corrected by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills — the best known regulator of kidneys, liver and bowels.

Mrs. John Ireland, R.R. No. 2, King, Ont., writes:

"I was a great sufferer from severe headaches and bilious spells. I tried a number of remedies without obtaining any benefit until I was advised to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These completely relieved me and made me feel like a new person. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's medicines for what they have done for me, and you may use my letter for the benefit of others."

How PEPS Banish BRONCHITIS

The MEDICINE You BREATHE Into Your LUNGS!

THE safe, modern method of treating winter coughs, chest colds, bronchitis, asthma, and other bronchial troubles is to take Peps, the medicine which is immediately effective because you breathe it in, straight to the weak spot.

When you strip off its silver-jacket and dissolve a Peps tablet in the mouth, it gives off soothing and healing vapours which mingle with the breath and are instantly carried through the throat, air passages and bronchial tubes right into the chest and lungs. These Peps medicines are speedily effective. They soothe and strengthen the tender lining membrane, they stop soreness or inflammation, clear the air-tubes, make breathing easy, and at the same time get rid of dangerous germ-trouble.

How different this direct Peps breathable treatment—
TRY SWALLOW DRUGS INTO THE STOMACH?

Strong-lunged, clear-voiced and hearty are the children whose mothers give them Peps. There's nothing so comforting and strengthening to old folks, suffering from that distressing night cough or chronic bronchial troubles.

Peps are free from all harmful drugs, and workers in a hundred industries find them indispensable for countering atmospheric conditions. Peps protect your throat, chest and lungs, and keep disease away.

Take one as the first sign of a cold or chill. TRY PEPS FREE! Send 10c in stamps and address, or wire from Peps Co., Toronto. TRY A SAMPLE on request if 10c stamp is enclosed.

BRINGING UP FATHER

BERT KERGIN PRAISES HIS CONSTITUENCY

Tells Legislature of Wonderful Atlin Country and Mentions

P. G. E.

According to the report in the Victoria Colonist, Bert Kergin, member for Atlin was not quite correctly reported in the dispatch which came over the wire and which was much condensed.

According to the Colonist, a good word for the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, the Government owned and operated project which has been in the past received scant praise, was voiced in the debate on the address. He expressed his pleasure at having participated in the recent legislative trip over the railway.

"A wonderful piece of work, something the people of the province agreed to and gave the then government a mandate to proceed with its construction," was the way Mr. Kergin described the railway. "Now the people have changed their minds about the road, but the Government is bound to see the project through," he stated.

Peculiar Situation.

Pointing to the peculiar situation of the Atlin riding, surrounded on the north and west by a foreign territory, Mr. Kergin stated that at present access to the riding through Canadian territory could be had only in the south, and last year he had had to pay twenty per cent discount on good Canadian money in seeing his own riding, having to enter through United States territory and being forced to pay exchange on his money.

The crying need of his district is roads, he said, and he pointed to the fact that much is being said at present about a possible war between the United States and Japan. In such an event his district would practically be cut off, he said. What was imperatively required, he held, was a highway connecting the Atlin district with the rest of Canada, one from Hazelton to Whitehorse to connect with the trans-provincial highway in the south. While Atlin is essentially a mining country there are large areas of agricultural land. In the Nass River Valley there was the largest area of fine land to be found anywhere else in the Province, and there is not today even a colonization road to that section, something imperatively required if the area is to be settled.

Wage Insurance.

Mr. Kergin dealt with a number of the problems confronting the people of Atlin, advocating a system of wage insurance to protect workers in industries, declaring that there had been cases where companies had defaulted in wage payments. The Government, he considered, should arrange to take a lien on a company's payroll and in case of defalcation by the company, collect for the men.

Eulogizing the scenic attractions of Atlin, Mr. Kergin declared: "You talk about Vancouver Island, and you sometimes get as far north as Prince Rupert, but you never hear of your tourist associations down here mentioning Atlin, the district, par excellence, for scenery, game and natural resources, the most consistent gold producer in Canada."

Wealth of Riding.

The member for Atlin referred to the Premier mine as an example of the mineral wealth of the riding and declared that at Anoxo is located one of the three biggest copper producing concerns in the world. Atlin, he averred, is one of the greatest assets the Province possesses and it would be to the interest of the people of the other portions of the Province to get acquainted with that district, which must bring in all its supplies from outside and, therefore, is a matter of importance to the business interests of the Province.

Duck and goose hunters are hoping for northerly winds for such winds with the present wet weather will produce the best bird hunting of the season. The Far North is still enjoying open weather and the geese and ducks are in no hurry to get to their winter homes in the south. So far this fall the nimrods have had to be satisfied with local ducks as the birds from the north have not yet commenced to come in full numbers although a few have already passed. A little wind from the north should bring them in large numbers. For a while last week it switched back again to the southeast in a short time and is still there. If the wind continues to come in the wrong direction none but the best hunters will get very much out if on the other hand, a good wind does its share there will be enough birds of both varieties for any number of ambitious nimrods.

Popular and Reliable10c CIGAR*Union Made in Vancouver Since 1906*$10 PRIZE FOR NEW NAME FOR NEW PRODUCT

We have decided to appeal to the people of Prince Rupert and district to decide what shall be the name given to our product now known as "Eureka Cleaner" made and canned in Prince Rupert. We shall give one prize of $10.00 for the best name suggested, and accepted by us. Suggestions must be in by October 28, mid-night. Names already trade-marked and used on other articles cannot be considered.

The following copy of the label will give the contestant an idea of what uses "Eureka Cleaner" can be put to:

EUREKA CLEANER

Unexcelled for cleaning painted woodwork, windows, glassware, enamelware, bath tubs, sinks or mirrors.

First rub well with Eureka Cleaner until dirt is removed, then polish with a clean dry cloth.

For Cleaning Grease, Pitch or Paint from Clothing, Rugs, or Carpets. Rub spots with cleaner until removed, then with suds and stiff brush go over garment thoroughly and press while damp. Will also remove ink spots that have not been boiled; also an excellent hand cleaner for machinists, miners and blacksmiths, painters, and all classes of work. Simply rub with cleaner until dirt is removed, then rinse in clean water or wipe off with paper or waste. It will clean anything except steel or leather.

Keep cover on when not in use.

Eureka Manufacturing Co., 229 Second Avenue West, Prince Rupert, B.C.

"Eureka Cleaner" is pure white and is especially adapted for the use of machinists or others engaged in work where ordinary soap is of little value in cleaning the hands.

NEW ELECTRIC BAKERY HERE

Shop to Be Opened in Prince Rupert Some Time This Week.

The new Electric Window Bakery, a branch of the popular Veterans' Electric Bakeries already established and doing big business in the cities of Edmonton, Vancouver and Nanaimo, is to be opened in the Mackintosh Block, Third Avenue, here this week. The establishment of this bakery in Prince Rupert will be an innovation in that all the mixing and baking is done in the window in full view of the public. Even the loaves of bread will be seen baking through the glass doors of the new style electric rotary oven which will be set in the window and operated there. The specialty of this oven is bread-making, although cakes and French pastry will also be made. Only the very highest quality of ingredients will be used and arrangements have been made with an especial view to cleanliness. As all will know, who have passed by lately, extensive alterations and improvements have been made to the premises which are to be occupied.

The company operating this bakery is comprised wholly of returned soldiers who operate and own the shops here as well as in the other cities. J. R. Lindsay is to be the manager of the Prince Rupert shop.
