Ulster Is Stumbling Block to Settlement in Ireland

DUBLIN, August 3.—Every effort is being made behind the scenes to induce Ulster to accept a share in the legislative body which it is planned to make an all-Ireland parliament, while at the same time retaining her own autonomy. So far efforts, though benevolently regarded by the Ulster Government, have been unsuccessful.

The verdict was that the deceased had come to his death wholly through an accident resulting from play and that no blame was attached to anyone. The jury also recommended that the civic authorities ought to make inspection of all dangerous places and provide further safeguards where necessary.

J. H. McMullin, coroner, presided over the inquest and the jury members were: D. McD. Hunter (foreman), E. C. Gibbons, S. King, C. C. Evert, D. S. Stuart and Fred Henning. BENEATH THE FLAG.

Thank God, we know what heritage is ours—
A fairer land God never gave to man!
From western slopes to Quebec's lofty towers,
Each foot of earth was blessed since time began.

O Canada! your sons have wrought thee glory,
And grateful nations speak thy name with pride;
Thy deeds are chronicled in our Empire's story,
For freedom's cause your youth and manhood died.
From mountain peak and lordly forest river,
They heard the voice of Freedom calling shrill
To gird the sword and go forth to deliver The weak and helpless—they went forth with a will.
They loved their land, their lives they gave for Freedom;
Their Empire called them, with joy they sallied forth;
They died to save the world from thralldom—
Thank God, we've learned to know what they were worth!

Beneath the Flag, for which they died so proudly,
We march today with courage mounting high;
Then let our voices ring out bold and clearly,
That naught can daunt us with such men's memories.
JAMES G. BRADY.

OUR FLAG.

O glorious bit of color, flung on high
To make the heart beat and the swift drops fly
To eyes unused to tears:
Flame scarlet, glimmer blue, and dazzle white!
Ye bore men's hearts within your folds so bright,
On to victorious years.

Out there, upon the bitter fields of France—
Hell-flame and thunder of the great advance—
For you they fought and fell!
For you—the emblem of all pure and high—
Grimly to struggle, do and dare—and die;
Deemed they but right and well.

Love we our Flag? Aye, each gay, gallant thread!
Did it not shelter some beloved head,
Or float above his rest?
Stream on, then, bit of color, through the years;
In you we honor—though 'mid falling tears—
Our bravest and our best!

—WINIFRED O. MARTIN.

Baseball Players Acquitted of Charges Against Them Not Be Reinstated to Game

CHICAGO, August 3.—None of the baseball players who have been acquitted of the alleged criminal conspiracy to throw the 1919 world series are likely to be restored to positions in organized baseball, Commissioner Judge Landis declares. Regardless of the verdict of the jury, he said, no player that throws a game, promises to do so, or sits in conference with crooked players and gamblers where throwing is discussed and does not tell the club about it, will ever again play professional baseball.

Of the players acquitted only Buck Weaver and Swede Risberg indicate their intention of applying for reinstatement. Failure to secure convictions is disappointing to President Ban Johnson of the American League, but he said a good lesson had been taught. The jury verdict did not minimize the magnitude of the offense, he said.

Comisky, owner of the White Sox, declared that he would have nothing to do with the acquitted men until they could satisfactorily explain their confessions to him.

FLAG DAY OFF TO GOOD START

Throngs of Children and Grown-ups Indicate Great Success of Affair.

The exercises in connection with the Elks' Flag Day started this afternoon soon after 1 o'clock. Fortunately, the rain of the morning passed over and although it was still threatening the event was enthusiastically started off. The G.W.V.A. band, pipers, Naval Brigade and Boy Scouts took part in the parade and the saluting of the flag was an impressive ceremony. Speeches were delivered by several prominent citizens.

This afternoon the big test of sport events is well under way amid the throngs of children which must run well on to the four figure mark. Truly it is Children's Day and they are availing themselves of the opportunity to celebrate with much zest. From the appearance of the crowds, one would judge that the grown-ups are enjoying the affair as much as the kiddies.

Armed with warrants the police continued the search and eventually Jordan was located and placed under arrest and brought to the station by Constable McMeekin at 5:30 this morning. Portan had been previously arrested by Constable Pontle.

London Times on Newspaper Criticism.

It is always to be expected that newspapers will be subject to criticism. It is part of their life blood. Usually one column of a newspaper is devoted to opinions, and those opinions are always open to criticism. The news columns are also often not free from personal bias. It cannot be otherwise. The reporter tells what he sees, and he sees largely those things he wants to see. Whether it is a labor paper, a financial paper, a political paper, or even a family newspaper, you are bound to find to some extent the personality of the writer shown in the news columns. However much an editor may prune down and eliminate the personal element, it is there. In fact a newspaper without some personal element is not very readable.

The English newspapers were recently criticized by the visiting premiers, and the London Times opened its reply in this way:

"More than one representative of the Dominions referred disparagingly to the press of this country in speeches delivered at a meeting last week. We view these rebukes with chastened patience, submitting only to these wrathful men from overseas that newspapers, even in London, are printed to be read; that human beings are erring creatures; and that—as sad as it may be—many men and some women show an ineradicable preference, in their newspaper reading, for the trivial or the sensational over the portentous or the solemn. It is sad, but it is true; and we must add that—human nature being much the same everywhere—it is as true in the Dominions as in London."

Famous Tenor

Who Died Yesterday.

Enrico Caruso, for more than twenty-five years a celebrity in the world of song, the tenor with "the golden voice" idolized by millions in America and abroad, had an artistic career as well known as that of any famous statesman or military leader. He was born in Naples, Italy, February 25, 1873, the son of Marcellino Caruso, a mechanic, who detested music but was persuaded to permit his son, when 11 years old, to sing in the churches of his native city. An unpromising pupil, for three years he studied under Guglielmo Vergine, pledging his teacher that when ready for a professional career he should pay him one-quarter of his earnings for the following five years.

It is interesting to observe that when Caruso made his Naples debut he sang the title role four times, for which he received 100 francs, a pair of stage shoes, a suit of fashions and a neckerchief. Some years later Maurice Grau, the impresario, negotiated with him to sing in America for $700 a month, but thought the salary excessive and the deal fell through. Grau was quick to perceive the opportunity he had lost, and finally engaged Caruso for fifty performances at $1,000 a night. But Mr. Grau became ill and Caruso, when singing in Lisbon, received word that again he must abandon his hope of singing in America. Heinrich Conried, who followed Mr. Grau at the Metropolitan, however, cabled Caruso an offer to cross the Atlantic, and his ambition at last was realized.

Although no official statement of his earnings was ever made public, it is known that Caruso, at the height of his Metropolitan career, was receiving an average of $3,000 for each performance. On special occasions, such as his 1920 season in Havana, he was paid $10,000 a night.

Caruso, after his strenuous opera seasons, sometimes had trouble with his throat, which he usually overcame with a little rest and care, and at certain intervals rumors that "Caruso will never sing again" were frequently printed. In the winter of 1920, however, he suffered a serious affliction when a small blood vessel in his throat burst while he was singing in "Elixir d'Amore" in the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Recovered from this mishap, Caruso was stricken with pleurisy.

During his indisposition Caruso was the object of devoted attention by his wife, formerly Miss Dorothy Benjamin, of New York, whom he married in 1918. One child was born to them. Caruso has a son by a former wife, a singer named Ada Giachetti, with whom he had been associated in opera at Treviso and Bologna.

The famous singer was the guest of honor at a silver jubilee celebration on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his operatic debut, in November, 1919, at the Metropolitan, at which prominent New Yorkers, including the mayor and other officials, spoke of his great artistic achievements. He received an illuminated parchment from thirty-five families holding boxes in the $7,000,000 "Golden Horseshoe," a flag from the city of New York, several medals and numerous gifts from his fellow artists.

Mr. and Mrs. Caruso resided in New York City during the opera season. They had a summer home on Long Island and another residence, Villa alle Panche, at Florence, Italy. Happily his voice is preserved to us in gramophone records which are very popular everywhere.

LOCAL MAN IN LONDON PAPER

John Dybhavn Author of Article in Graphic on Fisheries and Car Shortage.

"The World's Largest Halibut Market," is the title of an article on the fisheries of this port which appears in the London Graphic of July 16, written by Alderman John Dybhavn, chairman of the Fisheries Committee of the Board of Trade. The article is accompanied by a photograph of the fishing fleet taken in the spring and describes the extent of the great business here dealing also with the car shortage which was on a couple of months ago.

It says in part:

"Prince Rupert, British Columbia, is the largest halibut market in the world. On the North Pacific Coast, where the most productive halibut banks are situated, half of the total catch is marketed and if there were a plentiful supply of cars all the year around, at least three-quarters of the total catch would be marketed there.

"Last year 19,675,700 pounds of halibut, or approximately 980 carloads, were landed at Prince Rupert. On the Pacific Coast, at points other than Prince Rupert, there were landed about 22,000,000 pounds or 1000 carloads. Of this it is conservatively estimated at least 60 per cent would have come to Prince Rupert, providing express refrigerator cars were available to take care of the trade. This would amount to 650 carloads.

Salmon Fisheries.

"Last year over 31,000,000 pounds of salmon were landed at Prince Rupert and vicinity. Most of this was canned. Owing to the prevailing shortage of express refrigerator cars none were available for shipping fresh salmon, although it is estimated that about 100 carloads of fresh salmon would have been shipped from here to the East had there been an adequate supply of cars."

ANYONE STILL RUNNING STEADILY AND ABOUT 1200 ARE EMPLOYED

H. S. Munro, general manager of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Co., was in the city yesterday on the Camosun on his way south to Vancouver. Mr. Munro reports that operations still continue steadily at the smelter town. There are about 1200 men employed all told there. Living costs have taken a drop of some 35 per cent since last year, wages being reduced $1 per day all around, the reductions have been made last winter. The copper market is still far from being satisfactory.

Repairs are being made as a result of the recent fire in the tops of the ore bunkers. This work will likely take a month or so. The company lost only four hours production time as a result of the fire, this being on the day it took place.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

August 3, 1911.

The Board of Trade has decided to place the question of exorbitant freight rates between here and Vancouver before the Railway Commission which visits the city on August 12.

Today the first twin screw gasoline launch built in Prince Rupert lies at the Davis boat stage. The new launch is named "Nimrod" and belongs to its builders, A. G. McLaren and H. Davidson. It is double ended, lighted with electric lights and is beautifully modelled.

Damage to the extent of $500 was done by fire at the Clinton Rooms, Fraser and Eighth Streets, yesterday afternoon. Nothing but the quick response of the fire department saved a more serious conflagration. Assistant Chief McDonald had his eye slightly injured when he was hit with a nozzle.

W. H. MacInnes, civil service commissioner, returned last night from Smithers and continued on to Victoria by the Camosun.

WATER TOO COLD ON SUNDAY NEXT AT THE SALT LAKE COURSE
Gala Postponed until Probably August 21 Under More Favorable Conditions.

The water gala has been postponed from Sunday next until a later date, probably August 21. It is found that the extreme high tides are on Sunday next and two tides will run into the lake thus making the water very cold for the swimmers. As it happens only once a month it has been decided to postpone the gala. It is hoped that more settled weather will prevail about that time.

SOUSA DECLARES JAZZ MUSIC NEARING DEATH

OTTAWA, Aug. 3.—"Jazz is nearing its death and people will soon become quite bored with this class of music," said Sousa, the great conductor who is visiting here. He added that the modern dancing did not meet with his approval as it lacked grace and he was of the opinion that before long other and more graceful dancing would be all the rage.

Questioned about songs, Sousa said that those that were inspired by higher things lived. He said that such songs as "Over There," famous in the war in Canada as well as England, would live because they were seemingly touched by God.

BRINGING UP FATHER

SOCKEYE PACK POOREST YET

River Fishing Season Most Unsatisfactory in History of Salmon Fishing Industry.

That the present sockeye salmon fishing season is the most unsatisfactory in the history of the northern fisheries was a statement made this morning by one of the cannery owners here.
The pack will be less than fifty per cent. of normal. The catch of sockeye is steadily falling off, and Monday the returns showed that an average of only fourteen to a boat were taken.

Cohoos were taken by the gill nets Monday for the first time outside the Skeena River, from twelve to fifteen fish to the boat being brought in along with the sockeyes and pinks.

Little fish is coming from Alaska just now as it is between the seasons, the springs having fallen off and the cohoos not coming in any quantity.

Canning Pinks.

Some of the canneries on the Skeena are canning pinks in order to fill their cans. This is something they did not intend to do this year, but the poor catch of sockeye made it necessary to use the pinks.

Lolling at outside points of the coast is about normal. Quantities of cohoos are coming in and are to some extent making up for the lack of sockeye.

Monday a trainload of halibut left here for Chicago, and four fish cars were taken by the passenger train in the morning, thirteen cars in all leaving, with 285,000 pounds of halibut. Besides this, a quantity of halibut was put into cold storage.

ANYOX PEOPLE VOTE FAVOR LIQUOR STORE

Had Plebiscite Last Week and Want One Established 3 to 1.

Last week the people of Anyox had a plebiscite for the establishment of a Government liquor store and voted in favor of one being started by a 3 to 1 poll. The company was open on the matter but it will have no store to offer for occupancy if the store is opened. The provincial government will have to erect its own building.

BRINGS COKE HERE AND TAKES CARGOES OF COAL TO ANYOX

The Granby power tug Azur-ite arrived last night from Anyox with a scowload of coke for the Wallace Shipyards. Returning the tug and scow will take North a cargo of coal for use in the coke plant, the only part of the Granby plant where coal is now required. These trips are being made pretty regularly between there and Anyox about twice a month.

NAIL TENDERS.

Tenders for one and one half inch wire nails, one-half ton of four inch, 3 kegs of 3 inch and 3 kegs of two and one-half inch were opened Monday night by the city council and referred to the Board of Works. The tenders for the lot were as follows: Thompson Hardware Co., $369.25; Stork's Hardware,
$329.80; Howe & McNulty, $321.
70; Kaizen Hardware, $316. The latter company offered to supply the lot for $300 if some rusty 6-inch nails were taken.

THERE IS STILL A CHANCE TO WIN PRIZE

Last Week of Competition Should Bring Many Entries.

There is time yet to land the prize for the best ten line verse in the competition and if the five dollars is not annexed, the three and the two are available.
The following have been received:

Digby Island.

The finest trip I ever had
Was out to Digby Isle
Fishing crabs and digging clams
Sure made the trip worth while
Some people think the run too short.

But just go there and see—
If I could have my boat again
It's just the place for me.

The Football Match.

The referee's whistle blew:
After the ball they flew.
The outside right had no inside left
And the left back wasn't right.
The right half back was left outside
And the corner flag was blue
When the referee
Gave a penalty
And the goalie let it through.

Competition Rules

Competitors are reminded that a verse should not exceed ten lines in length, and it should deal with outdoor life of some kind. First prize $5, second $3, third $2.

FORMER CLERGYMAN OF THIS CITY IS SUBJECT OF SKETCH

Prof. F. W. Kerr, of the University of Manitoba theological department and formerly minister of the Presbyterian Church in Prince Rupert, is the character written about by "The Wanderer" in the Winnipeg Evening Tribune of July 23. An excellent character sketch of the clergyman who is so well known to many persons in this city is given, one which comes remarkably close to the idea which many of them hold of him. Professor Kerr is now well established in Winnipeg where he and Mrs. Kerr and a family of three reside. A picture of Mr. Kerr also accompanies the character sketch.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

THE most important meal in the day is the next.

THE old fashioned girl who used to take great pride in powdering her nose now takes just as much pride in powdering her knees.

LOVE can hardly be blind in these days of scant attire and swimming suits.

IF there is no hell, exclaimed the local merchant, where is business shot to.

A little junketing
Now and then
Is relished by girls
As well as men.

SONG birds are all right, but some of the birds that try to sing around here ought to have been chloroformed before they were born.

THE story is told of a little boy who lost his mother and on being asked why he did not hang out to her skirt wept and said:
"I couldn't reach it."

Drydock Junior Football Team Wins Championship Beating Athletics 4 to 1

The Drydock football team won the championship in the Junior League as a result of a victory over the Athletics last evening, beating their opponents by a score of 4 to 1. Early in the game, with the down grade in their favor, the Drydock team made it clear that they had cinched the lead, leaving the field at half time with the score 4 to 0 in their favor. In the second half the Athletics were easily held down to a lone goal, which was scored by Mackintosh on a penalty granted against Garner. Thus the final count was 4 to 1, with Malcolm Lamb's "Wasps" on the short end. The teams were as follows:

Drydocks—Hughes, Garner, Eldred, Roy, Cole and Currie; Thompson, Warrior, Erskine, Kirby and Butters.

Athletics—Frizzell, Barry and Curtis; Hamilton, George Mitchell, and Davidson; Hill, W. Mitchell, Mackintosh and Lamb.

With the whistle the Drydocks carried the ball into enemy territory but the fine head and foot work of Curtis and George Mitchell soon had the ball back over the line. More than once did the Shipyard forward line carry the leather down the field, before Erskine scored on a cross, which might have been cleared by Red Davidson.

Signs of Weakening.

Again the ball was returned to the lower end of the field when Frizzell had to do some sharp goal saving. Finally after a series of fumbles Davidson touched the ball over Frizzell's head as the latter was about to clear it and the Drydocks registered another goal to their credit. The Athletics' back division was now showing signs of weakening especially on the right half and Barry had difficulties in clearing and when forced to a corner Butters took the kick. It was well placed, but Warren sent it over the bar. On a throw-in Butters was called off-side and for the kick Hill of the Athletics got away to a fine effort but was forced to a corner by the close effective checking of Currie. The ball was well placed but the Athletics forwards failed to rally and the left wing allowed the ball to get down the field.

Following some natural ground play Kirby received the ball from his left and made no mistake in making the net sag with one of the best shots made during the season. To this player also was the next counter at-

RICKARD WANTS WILLARD FIGHT

Asks Former Heavyweight His Price and How Long Training Will Take.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Tex Rickard has wired to Jess Willard asking him how long it would take him to get into condition to meet Jack Dempsey and how much he would demand for his services. The giant heavyweight has expressed a desire to regain the championship and it is understood that he has been making efforts to get in fighting form. Rickard announces that the bout between Georges Carpentier and Tommy Gibbons will take place at Madison Square Garden late in October or early in November.

TRIAL OF BASEBALL PLAYERS PROCEEDING

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The closing arguments in the defence of the baseball players indicted for fraud in connection with the 1919 World's Series were finished today and the State has begun the final plea. The case will soon go to the jury.

Sport Chat

A movement is on foot in local baseball circles to have Prince Rupert's star baseball team go south at the end of the month to play games at Vancouver and New Westminster for the championship of British Columbia. W. D. Vance, president of the association, and Harry Breen, secretary, have communicated with the president of the Commercial League in Vancouver to this end and a reply to the wire sent is expected soon. The possibility of going to New Westminster is also to be taken up. If the association is successful in making the arrangements a call will also be made at Ocean Falls to play there in response to the long standing invitation from the paper town. It is proposed to make the trip about the end of August.

It is generally felt that if Prince Rupert ever had a baseball team capable of competing with the strong teams in the larger cities of the province she has it this year. Two years ago the locals played very creditably with Wallace's, the champions of Vancouver, and although they lost on that occasion both games played were well contested. This year the city has as good if not a better aggregation between the various teams of the City League. The general support of the sporting public in this latest proposal of the Baseball Association should be forthcoming. It might also be possible for many of the fans to make the trip if negotiations could be suitably arranged between the Vancouver Commercial League and the steamship companies.

JOCK HUTCHINSON DENIES HE SAID NO GOOD GOLFERS

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—An emphatic denial has been made by Jock Hutchinson, golf champion, to the statement that he had criticized the treatment he had received at St. Andrew's with Wethered last month. He declared that he was misquoted in the Liverpool paper interview which credited him with saying there were no good golfers in England. The printed interview caused a furore in British sport circles.

"THE NOTORIOUS MRS. SANDS" AT EMPRESS

Should a woman sacrifice her honor to save the man she loves? That is the question with which Bessie Barriscale as Mary Ware, beautiful society girl, is confronted with in "The Notorious Mrs. Sands" which opens at the Empress tonight. Mary's answer, given in one of the most realistic court room scenes ever shown on the silver sheet, gives Miss Barriscale the opportunity of showing to decided advantage some fine emotional acting.

Incidentally Mary's answer involves her in all sorts of difficulties. She leaves the regal splendors of her husband's palatial home to teach in a country school and then returns to society only to win the sobriquet of "The Notorious Mrs. Sands."

"YOUTHFUL FOLLY" AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

World of Society and Pleasure
Pictured in Story at Local Theatre.

In "Youthful Folly" Olive Thomas appears as a sweet, unsophisticated country girl, who believes that everything in life is good and honorable. Her home is in the South, an old plantation, where she lives with three aunts whose views differ greatly from those of their young niece, who keeps everything through the rosy glasses of youth.

The first real glimpse of the outside world of society and pleasure comes to the lonely girl when she is visited by her second cousin, who married a rich New Yorker. This relative Mrs. Ainsley, is unhappy because she married for money and found out too late that she loved another man. Poor little Nancy however, sees Mrs. Ainsley only as the type of that other world for which she has always yearned.

Fate finally brings to Nancy's home David Montgomery, the "other man" in the life of Mrs. Ainsley. Nancy falls in love with him immediately. Mrs. Ainsley then conceives a scheme whereby she may be near David without risking scandal. She persuades Nancy to marry him. After the wedding Nancy and her husband go to New York where Nancy finds out that her husband married her only that he could be near Mrs. Ainsley.

How this unusual triangle is straightened out and Nancy wins the love of the man she has married make for some of the most intensely dramatic and interesting events imaginable.

In the Letter Box

Sunday Water Sports.

Editor Daily News:—On reading the paper tonight, I noticed my name had been put down as a stewardess for the Swimming Gala to be held at the Sall Lakes on Sunday next. No doubt I shall be considered very narrow minded and old-fashioned, but I should like it to be clearly understood that I never want my name in any way associated with sports either on land or water, which take place on a Sunday. It is damaging the work of the clergy in the whole of Rupert, and they have hard work and disheartening work enough. I love sports of all kinds, but there is a time and place for everything.

Too Tired for Worship.

If we look facts in the face honestly, those sports, if entered into with real energy and enthusiasm are most exhausting and even if we do get home in time to go to Church after they are over, the body is too tired to worship God, and I (had I entered for a race!) with many of the other losers would still be thinking of why it was "so and so" beat us.

This does not help in the worship of God which we go to church to do! But the chief reason of writing this is on behalf our little children. It is fair to tempt them where they are too young to understand things for themselves to break the Sabbath? What little child could resist trying for a prize with no adult to help it say "no"? Children follow example quicker even than an adult and though we like to boast of our freedom, we are not free to do all we like! If adults will hold sports on Sunday, I do not think the children should be allowed to enter until they are of an age to choose for themselves.

Cannot Be Stewardess.

We have more organizations working to make good citizens in Prince Rupert than any city of its size in the world I should think, and, if the various clergy of the town can only gather in their own people to worship God on Sunday, with no organized program to draw them away, we should indeed be a city to be proud of.

I cannot be a stewardess on Sunday, and I cannot compete for that gold medal on Sunday, and now I am feeling quite peeved because today I swam 180 yards without any effort and felt I might be—well Prince Rupert is the only place I ever did win any prizes in.
