Intense Optimism of Liberals Shown

FINAL BRITISH COLUMBIA SENATORSHIP GOES TO VANCOUVER

Enthusiastic Liberal Rally Is Forecast of Victory for Party and for Fred Stork

Great enthusiasm was displayed last night at Fred Stork's ly in the Liberal rooms, the place being packed to the door, ndly with workingmen, and all keen workers for the Liberal se. Fred Stork delivered a good address, and speeches were so made by W. H. Montgomery, D. Seguin, W. E. Williams and W. T. Kergin. E. H. Mortimer presided and at the close cheers re given for the King and for Mackenzie King and Fred Stork.

Mr. Stork in opening said Liberal principles were so broad at they took in everyone. There were just two classes in the community, the reactionaries and the progressives.

In the campaign the Liberals had been trying to conduct a clean campaign and as believed had succeeded. That could not, however, be said of the other side. The matter they read in some of the newspapers was nauseating even to old Tories and they had eventually to get out a sheet for themselves, because they could not stand for the other.

Mud Not Needed.

"The campaign is about drawing to a close," said the speaker, "and there is no necessity for us to sling any mud in order to roll up a majority of a thousand." (Cheers.)

"Conditions in 1895 were somewhat similar to those today. The Government was soon to be passing away. The men in the Government were deserting for the Senate and taking cover in every possible way. Just before the election was called the Government had a majority of 20 only. While the individual candidate whom they were opposing was trying to fool the people that he was running as an independent, the people were not deceived. He had been supporting one of the worst Governments that had ever disgraced the commonwealth of Canada.

Following the election of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and the Liberals of his time there had been fifteen years of unprecedented prosperity. A similar condition would follow the election of December 6 of this year.

A Great City.

Speaking of the work of Sir Wilfrid and especially in connection with this port, Mr. Stork said that great statesman had great ideals and one of his pet schemes was the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the building up of this port. All the eyes of the world were turned to the west as a result of that policy. When Sir Wilfrid made the announcement regarding the building of the railway, every man who was footloose came to the northern country, which was looked upon as the last great west. They came, not in hundreds but in thousands. All who came to Prince Rupert, came with the idea of a great city being built here. Sir Wilfrid started the work and continued it until 1911 when he went down in an effort to lower the tariffs. The big interests of the East financed a campaign against him and they put in the cabinet, which was formed, men of their own choosing and of their own calibre.

Horrible Example.

Mr. Stork recounted the building of the C. N. R. as a rival line and the failure of that concern which the Government purchased for ten million dollars. He told of the tremendous losses to the Government of the railways since they were purchased without consulting the people. He told how the Government tried to wreck the G.T.P. so that they might be able to point to a horrible example, and so that these men from the east might eventually take it off the hands of the Government.

What was the remedy for all this? Mr. Stork inquired.

The speaker suggested that practical railroad men and employees of the railroads should be put in charge instead of bankers, doctors and lawyers. The day had gone by when McKenzie & Mann could crowd everyone who knew anything about running the business. He believed in reducing the rates on the line to encourage business and in this way the line would make a profit instead of a loss as at present.

Mr. Stork recounted the tearing up of the track of the G. T. P. and of the rails being left at Lexis in Quebec. He told how the drydock had lain idle when it should have been in operation. He told of the joy riding

TTER BOAT GIVES UP SEARCH FOR SWIFTSURE

The worst sea storm of the was raging on northern ers yesterday afternoon and evening the night. A sixty wind, heavy seas and pour- rain made conditions for navigation on the outside waters one hundred or so miles north and south of this port nigh impossible. Fishing schooners and smaller craft are all in shelter and even large steamers are tied up until the storm moderates. No serious damage has been reported up to noon. The storm is a local one and does not extend as far south as Vancouver Island.

The Princess Mary, Captain Johnston, due here from southern Alaska ports yesterday afternoon, ran into heavy weather outside of Ketchikan and made port to that port. Up till early today she was still there. She is expected here at 3:30 this afternoon.

The United States revenue cutter, Snohomish, Captain Roscoe, which for two months has been searching the northern fishing banks for the missing schooner Swiftsure, came into this port last night to take shelter from the fury of the storm. She attempted to continue to Seattle this morning but came back into port after having gone a short distance out of the harbor. The search for the Swiftsure has been given up.

RIOTING IN VIENNA WAS WORST YET

VIENNA, Dec. 3.—The inner city of Vienna looked as though it had been struck by a tornado as a result of yesterday's widespread rioting, the worst since the downfall of the monarchy. All the leading hotels and restaurants and many shops dealing in luxuries were wrecked, shopkeepers and hotel guests attacked and robbed of their jewels and other valuables. No one was killed.

Neither Prince Eitel Friedrich nor Gen. Ludendorf belie es that swords and militarism are out of fashion. Here they are, in order named, at a monarchist demonstration in Berlin.

Independent Stunt Nailed Where it Belongs by Dr. W. T. Kergin at Liberal Rally

"Colonel Peck is an old friend of mine, but I cannot support him either as a Conservative or an independent," said Dr. W. T. Kergin in an impromptu address at the Liberal rally last night. "I have not taken as active a part in the campaign as I would have liked. The difficulty is that the stork is always busy, and that makes me busy. I have no doubt whatever as to what way I should vote, however. It is my opinion that the Colonel is nothing but a Meighen candidate."

Dr. Kergin went on to say there were two ways of looking at the question. What had to be considered was what was best for the town and best for Canada. Meighen had not been the best for Canada. Putting it in the nicest way possible he had not given value for money.

The Doctor referred to the action of the Government in regard to the drydock, as an instance of the Government's treatment of the city. The contract for the vessels, had eventually been let to an American manipulator. From the standpoint of the city no one would have courage to say the Meighen Government had given the city a square deal.

Meighen's Hours Numbered.

The favorite proposal of Sir Wilfrid Laurier had been the development of an all red route to the Orient. He planned to make Prince Rupert a great ocean port, and the speaker said he believed it yet would be a great ocean port. It was bound to because of its great natural advantages.

Prince Rupert had never had a fair "look in" from any Government since the election of 1911. Happily Meighen would not be at the head of the Government after the election. Any person who is well informed must admit that. Even if all the Colonel's claims to independence were valid. Dr. Kergin said he would not vote for an independent. Stork was the Liberal candidate and was entitled to their vote. "An independent gets you nowhere." It was all very well to say that people are tired of the old parties. That sounds all right but it means nothing.

Has No Weight.

If an independent joins other independents then they form a party and are no longer independent. The independent in Parliament has no weight. Some party will always rule and the independent will have no voice in the Government. He will be a "lone voice or, as has been said, "a voice crying in the wilderness."

Second Senatorship for This Province Goes To S. J. Crowe Formerly Member for Burrard

OTTAWA, Dec. 3.—The second British Columbia Senate appointment has gone to Sanford J. Crowe, ex-M.P. for Burrard in the late Meighen Government. The appointment for the other vacancy was made some weeks ago when Robert F. Green, ex-M.P. for West Kootenay, was named for the Red Chamber. The vacancy to which Mr. Crowe has been appointed is the one which it had been expected for some time Colonel Peck, ex-M.P. for Skeena, would get.

Sanford Johnston Crowe has been member of parliament for Burrard since the 1917 election, when he went in as a Liberal-Unionist. He is a retired contractor of the firm of Crowe & Wilson and has been one of the prominent citizens of the city of Vancouver.

He was born in Truro, N. S., on February 14, 1868, was educated in that city and came to Vancouver at the age of 20 as a journeyman and foreman. In 1890, in partnership with C. H. Wilson, he established the contracting firm of Crowe & Wilson.

Public Office.

He has been vice-president of the Vancouver Exhibition since 1912, and was also president of the Terminal City Lawn Bowling Club. In 1913 he became chairman of the management committee of the Vancouver Returned Soldiers' Club and was also appointed a member of the Vancouver and District Joint Sewerage and Drainage Board. He was alderman of Vancouver for seven years and was acting mayor for short periods in 1912 and 1913.

He was married twice and had two sons and one daughter. One son was killed in action in France in September 1916 and other was in service until the end of the war. The daughter is deceased.

Mr. Crowe belongs to the Terminal City Club and is interested in baseball and bowling. He is a Presbyterian.

Electors Must Now Make Up Their Minds.

Electors have only a short time to make up their minds in regard to which way they will vote at the election on Tuesday. Most people have already decided, but if there are still some who are in doubt, it is to be hoped that they will consider the matter carefully and without prejudice. The best advice we could give would be to have those in doubt read the short report of Dr. Kergin's address to the Liberals at their meeting last night. It was to the point in that it showed that the Doctor did not believe in the independent candidate's independence and even if he were independent he would not vote for him as such, because an independent candidate had no influence in Parliament.

If an elector wishes to retain the Meighen Government in power, his duty is to vote for Colonel Peck. The Colonel will vote that way, if he gets a chance. If, on the other hand, an elector wishes to oppose the Meighen Government, the duty is to vote for Stork, for there is no other way he can oppose them. Colonel Peck is reported to have told the Great War Veterans he did not like those fellows in the opposition. If he does not like those fellows in opposition he cannot be expected to like those fellows enough to support them when they are in power. The political method of supporting those we like and opposing those we don't like makes for very poor government.

Little Doubt Now As to Outcome.

There is little doubt now as to the outcome of the election. At the same time, it is not wise to take any chances. Elections are at all times very uncertain. What we want to do in Prince Rupert is to roll up such a majority in Skeena riding that Ottawa will realize we are on the map and that we are not to be deterred from our set purpose by any personal influences or by the popularity of any candidate.

At the beginning of the campaign it looked as if the attempt was being made by the Tories to railroad through a candidate on his military record, and this attempt had to be frustrated. It is safe to say that already it has been frustrated and that the people of Skeena constituency now see things in their true light. Many supporters of Stork say there will be a majority of a thousand. That may or may not be slightly optimistic. What seems certain to us is that the majority will be large, but just how large no one can yet say. The record on Tuesday will tell.

Vote for Prince Rupert.

A vote for Stork is a vote for Prince Rupert. This city has suffered more than any other place in the Dominion from the bad government of the past few years. If the citizens wish to continue this condition of affairs they should oppose Stork. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberals, has promised to see that justice is done Prince Rupert. Premier Meighen has never made such a promise and has never even been near the city. He does not know that we exist, except that our live little Board of Trade sometimes worries his secretary with telegrams and letters. Possibly these never get to the minister.

King took the trouble to come to the city and investigate conditions personally. He visited our cold storage and shipbuilding plants and sawmill. He talked over conditions with the leading men of the city, Liberal and Conservative. He saw our fishing fleet and heard of its need. He spent two or three days in the city and got the atmosphere of the place and sympathized with our difficulties. He is the man who is able to help us, and a vote for Fred Stork is a vote for Mackenzie King, which is a vote for Prince Rupert.

Common Purpose Of Whole District.

What is true of Prince Rupert is true of the whole district. The whole constituency is bound together in one bond of common purpose. We all want prosperity, and if one part is prosperous it reflects on the other. The railway affects every section and steamboat service affects every section. The freight rates and passenger rates and the general service are of interest to us all. We want in power a government that will aid us to help ourselves. We do not want any coddling, but we want a square deal, something which in the past has not been given us. A vote for Stork is a vote for a square deal.

THE TORTURE OF INDIGESTION

Thousands Made Miserable By This Trouble

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Relieves It

What is Indigestion and what causes it? As you know, solid food must be changed into a liquid by the stomach before it can be taken up as nourishment by the blood.

The stomach acts as a churn. It is covered by a strong, muscular coat and lined with a soft, delicate membrane which secretes the Gastric Juice which digests or dissolves solid food.

When food enters the stomach, the muscular coat squeezes and presses the food from end to end, or churns it, with the gastric juice to dissolve or digest it.

But—if the stomach muscles are weak—or if the dissolving fluid is poor or insufficient—then food cannot be digested properly and you have Indigestion.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the most wonderful medicine in the world for strengthening the stomach muscles and providing an abundance of pure, full-strength dissolving fluid to completely digest every meal. "FRUIT-A-TIVES" does this because it keeps the kidneys active, the bowels regular and the blood pure, which insures pure Gastric Juice.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" will correct your Indigestion or Dyspepsia and enable you to enjoy every meal. Try it.

STOLE FROM BENEFACTORS

Two Men Robbed Owners of Shack Where They Had Taken Refuge.

EDMONTON, Dec. 3.—The good Samaritan act of James Keith and Archie Windland, who entertained three men in their shack Saturday night was rewarded by the basest ingratitude when the men they befriended returned the following night and at the point of a revolver held them up and took from them all the money they had to the extent of $60. This is the story revealed in the city police court, when Paul Tracey, John Billings and Patrick Rhodes were brought before Magistrate Primrose on the charge of robbery with violence.

It appears that three men complaining of being cold and hungry and having no money to pay for shelter went to the shack of Keith and Windland, 98th Street, near the Twin City mines, and these two men taking pity on them let them stay all night and gave them a good breakfast in the morning and sent them on their way apparently rejoicing.

The next time the benefactors saw the three men was the following night between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock and then they were rudely awakened out of their sleep by one of the quartette holding a revolver over his face and demanding that he deliver up all the money there was in the house. The other two men found the money and all three backed away with it.

Took Pants.

What was worst of all according to Mr. Windland was that they took the only pair of trousers he had in the house.

When the men were brought to the station and faced with their benefactors of the night before they admitted the holdup and the theft of the money. The trousers and money taken from the shack were found in the possession of the accused.

Eleven votes were cast last evening at the advance poll for the federal election. The poll was held by H. F. Wearmouth, deputy returning officer, in the Red Cross Hut.

PRINCE WILL BE AWAY TILL JUNE

Expects to Complete Indian Tour By March 17 and Then Make Trip to Japan.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—(By Canadian Press).—So much of the world has the Prince of Wales seen already and is seeing on his present tour of India and Japan that it is possible, despite the set-back to his travels owing to the four and a half years of war, that he may reach the great record of his father, who is easily the most travelled of Sovereigns in this or any other age. A year after the armistice the Prince of Wales came to Canada and also visited the United States. Last year he toured Australia, New Zealand and Tasmania, and on the way out to the Antipodes and home again he went through the Panama Canal, and made short stays at Hawaii, Fiji and in the West Indies. His journeys last year were to have included India, but the strain of travelling was too great, and so the visit to the East had to be postponed until this year.

Four Months' Visit.

After four months in India, embracing a splendid series of entertainments at the hands of most of the Maharajahs, the Prince will sail on March 17th, next from Karachi for Japan, where preparations on a lavish scale have been planned for his reception. He will return to London next June.

King George V. was only fourteen years of age when he set out upon his travels and went around the world with his elder brother in His Majesty's Ship Bacchante. The two cruises of that vessel took the two Princes to the Mediterranean, the West Indies, South America, South Africa, Australia, Fiji, Yokohama, Hong Kong and Singapore. By the time he came to the Throne, His Majesy had been six times to Canada, three times to India and Ceylon, and twice to South Africa and Australia, while the only considerable parts of the British Empire that he had not seen were Uganda, British East Africa and Nigeria. Since his accession the King has been again to India and held the Coronation Durbar. His Majesty's last journey abroad was in the year before the war, when he attended the wedding of the Kaiser's only daughter at Berlin.

Edward's Tours.

King Edward VII, in addition to his frequent visits to the Continent, made two notable journeys of wider radius—the first in 1860, when he visited the principal cities of Canada and the United States, and the second in 1875-1876, when he made his memorable progress through India.

Queen Victoria, in the course of her long life, never went beyond the boundaries of Europe.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

ENTHUSIASTIC LIBERAL RALLY IS FORECAST OF VICTORY FOR PARTY AND FOR FRED STORK.

parties of the Government officials who came over the line in special trains, and he said this condition would have to be changed.

In 1917 the voice of Skeena riding had been smothered by illegal methods, continued the speaker. This had reflected itself in the House where there was no one to speak for the constituency and while others were getting shipbuilding contracts none came here until very late. At the time the new vessels were being put into service it would have been easy to have developed business out of Prince Rupert. Now it would take a great deal of energy and time to overcome the loss which had already been sustained.

Toronto Needs Meighen.

Referring to the posters "Canada Needs Meighen" which were displayed around the constituency as part of the election campaign, Mr. Stork said they should read, "Toronto needs Meighen, but Canada needs a change." He mentioned the independent camouflage. He urged to that the people of this city remember that when they cast a vote for him it was not really a vote for Stork but a ballot for the voter himself. If they believed that the return of Meighen was best for the country, then the thing to do was to support the Meighen candidate; but if on the other hand they believed the Liberal plan was a good one they should vote for Stork. He wanted them to roll up a thousand majority to show Meighen that when he flouted the people here, his action was resented by the people here. They should show Mackenzie King that they are behind him and that the people of the north believe in themselves and in him.

W. H. Montgomery.

The opening address was by W. H. Montgomery who gave two reasons for supporting Fred Stork. In the first place he supported the man who stood for Prince Rupert. The city would never amount to anything under the present Government. The place was brought into existence by the Liberals and the idea was to make the city second to none. The Conservatives had succeeded in keeping it back. He urged that they vote for Fred Stork, not because of his popularity but because of what he represented. The second reason was that of the railway. It would be foolish to try to get the same dose they had been getting during the past few years. It was the duty of every man who had the interest of Prince Rupert at heart to roll up such a majority as would let the Government know the people here were absolutely opposed to such methods as had been in force in the past.

D. Segouin.

Damase Segouin spoke of the campaign of mud slinging on the part of the Government candidate's supporters. Even the Colonel was disgusted with the Empire. He was told at the G.W.V.A. that he should support Colonel Peck because of his stand on the Oriental question but he told the G.W.V.A. men that when the Colonel was running the Georgetown sawmill he had all sorts of Chinese and Japs working for him.

The speaker extolled the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier and told how, after the Tories had built the Intercolonial Railway and left it with its terminus in a potato patch, it was Laurier who came along and brought it into the town of Levis and placed it on a paying basis.

Mr. Segouin was very witty at the expense of the men who were campaigning for Peck. He showed how he had refuted the arguments in favor of Colonel Peck and of the "carrying the banner of Liberalism" by that candidate. He had been told it was a shame to vote against a soldier. Well, he had fought nearly as long as the Colonel overseas. A committee of the Veterans had once asked the Colonel to oppose the Government on its policy but the reply had been that he "had no use for those fellows in opposition." Now he comes around and tells you he is a liberal. "If he was a Liberal why did he not let his name go before the Liberal convention?" He had the opportunity."

Voted Behind Lines.

Mr. Segouin said he voted behind the lines in France and he cast his ballot for Stork. He was forced to vote as the Colonels were the whole thing over there. The Colonels were not the whole shooting match today, however. Prince Rupert had been represented by outsiders from the beginning and now he was told that Colonel Peck had sold out his interests here and was prepared to move away to some big town where there were plenty of colonels with whom he could associate. Colonel Peck went to Victoria and worked for Tolmie against a returned soldier because that soldier was a private. His decoration had been won bravely but why use them to elect a colonel? The widows and orphans were scrubbing floors to make a living because of the paltry pensions given them, while the officers were drawing big pensions. He would continue to fight for the widows and orphans and the only hope in doing so was to do it through the Liberal party.

W. E. Williams.

W. E. Williams spoke of the posters of Meighen on the billboards and the immense advertising campaign of the Conservatives and said he had come to the conclusion that the people of Canada including himself, were paying for it. He mentioned the $25,000,000 loan to Roumania without sanction of Parliament and another $25,000,000 to Greece. This money was really paid to the manufacturers of Canada to relieve them of their surplus stocks accumulated at high rates during the war and which was left on their hands. Was it any wonder these same manufacturers were able to finance an immense advertising campaign for the Government. This money he was of opinion would never be paid back.

Contracts to Directors.

Mr. Williams went on to discuss the railway situation. The Liberals had opposed the extending of the C.N.R. to the coast. He discussed railway management and mentioned that the contracts for rolling stock went to firms, the directors of which were also directors of the railway. He gave specific instances of this. It was difficult to make a railway pay when it was being milked in that way. The advertising of tenders was also mentioned. Mr. Williams saying that for small jobs, tenders were advertised but for big work only selected firms were asked to tender.

It was no idle promise of Sir Wilfrid that he would make this a great port. He was doing it when he was defeated in 1911. The only way to insure a continuation of that policy was to vote for the Liberal candidate and make sure that he was returned.

Dr. Kergin also made an excellent speech.

GOLD FISH GIVEN AWAY

Hundreds Being Distributed to Customers Today at Ormes.

Like sending coals to Newcastle was the arrival of a shipment of fish in the city this week from Ohio. Prince Rupert sends fish by the car load to the United States and it is seldom that our big neighbor to the south has any to export here. These, however, were no ordinary fish They were fish with a pedigree, raised by one of the largest breeders in the world. And breeding fish for the market is no ordinary occupation.

Two big tanks were sent here by express. The water had to be changed daily and the fish fed by the expressmen enroute which also was no ordinary job for an expressman. It was not halibut however, but goldfish, and they are to be seen at Orme's Sixth Street Drug Store today. They are lively little things and seem to be none the worse as a result of their long trip. The youngsters are specially interested in watching them dart around, reflecting every ray of sunshine. As a pair of gold fish in a glass bowl are being given away free, every child in the city is already wanting to have some. Parents should see to it that they secure a bowl at once before they are all gone.

The Pacific Coast Hockey Association schedule will open on Monday night in Vancouver when Seattle will play Vancouver. The schedule calls for twelve home games for each of the three clubs, Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle, the final game being scheduled for February 24, following which the playoff will take place. This season only 20 minutes overtime for draw games will be allowed and if the tie is not broken at the end of that time the game will be officially declared a draw and each team will be credited with half a win in the standing. The National League has a similar rule so it is now effective in all hockey leagues.

The National Hockey Association race will commence on December 17 and will continue until March 15. There will be a schedule of 48 games and a play-off between the two teams which finish first and second. This play-off is to be decided by home-and-home series in which the majority of goals will count. Newsy Lalonde will captain the Canadians; Reg Noble will lead Toronto, and Eddie Gerard will command Ottawas.

The Western Canada League has drawn up its schedule with the season opening on December 12 and two Edmonton, one Calgary and one Saskatoon team comprising the circuit. The play-off rule which is in effect in the Pacific Coast and National Leagues will prevail and the last game of the play-off is scheduled for March 3.

Arrangements are being made to have the champions of the Pacific Coast, Western Canada and National Hockey Associations take part in the world's series finals in the spring. The first game between the Pacific Coast and the Western Canada league is suggested for March 7 on the coast, the second on March 10 on the prairies. The total goals of the two games will determine the victory and the winners of the little world series will then travel East to play the champions of the National League with the first game set for March 15.

The Prince Rupert and Wanderers' Club billiard players will meet tonight in the second tournament of the series for the McMordie Cup. They will line up as follows: R. H. Shockley (Wanderers), vs. G. A. Woodland (Prince Rupert); G. P. Tinker vs. Col. S. P. McMordie; Fred Stephens vs. J. W. Scott; W. J. Nelson vs. J. H. McMullin; George Hill vs. A. T. Broderick; T. B. Hooper vs. E. A. Wakefield. The score for the first tournament was: Prince Rupert, 1174; Wanderers', 900.

E. A. Wakefield, United States Consul here, is on the stormbound Princess Mary returning from Juneau, Alaska, where he went on departmental business. D. C. Scott, of Vancouver who have been relieving him here will go south on the same steamer on which Mr. Wakefield returns.

In the Letter Box

FRED STORK'S RECORD.

Editor Daily News:

In the matter of the petty propaganda in circulation against Mr. Stork, the Liberal candidate in the Federal election on Tuesday next; such as absenting his appearance on the school board and not running a second time for mayor, taking a trip to Germany, battle of Kelly's Cut, etc., and such other clap trap philosophy, I wish to reply.

Being a resident of the city for eleven years and taking an active part in the industrial and municipal life of the city during that time, I think I am about as close in touch with the history of Prince Rupert as any and more so that many who are engaged in the circulation of this "penny ante" political philosophy.

1. What encouragement was given Mr. Stork to run the second term by those whoare now charging him with the crime of declining to be a candidate in the second election? All who were here at that time will remember the daily damnation that was hurled at the Stork administration from Sept. 1, 1910, to election day, 1911. With or without justification, Stork had to receive his daily damnation, though he was giving from 12 to 16 hours of his time per day, setting up and getting in operation, the municipal machinery that is still running and carrying on the daily work of our city. Those who were not here at that time and would like to see for themselves the tirade of abuse, just examine the files of the evening Empire during the above mentioned period.

Gave Good Service.

I consider Mr. Stork gave the city good service and was entitled to credit. But there was too much surplus power in the McBride and Bowser machine at that time to tolerate any public administration outside their own machine. To get elected to a position of dog catcher in those days it was necessary to join the Tory party.

This Holy Order of writers also connects Mr. Stork's name with the battle of Kelly's Cut, but if you will notice only in an insinuating way. There is no specific charge made. If Mr. Stork is to be crimed for his action during the battle, it must be for not participating in the battle, for Fred Stork was not present and did not take part in the battle. From the very moment the battle was on, Fred Stork was in verbal battle with Charles Hunter and a few other members of the union down on Second Avenue.

Not the Truth.

Prominently set up in type is a question what has Stork done for Prince Rupert and answered by two large O O indicating nothing, but I submit that is not the truth, and will set out here a few things many know Mr. Stork has done, also a few things he has not done:

Stork has lived here since Rupert's inception.

He has raised a family here, a credit to Rupert.

He has built a home here, a credit to Rupert.

He pays his bills, a credit to Rupert.

He has taken a man's position and place in deciding the public questions of Rupert.

He has built up a good business, a credit to Rupert.

And more, he has attended to his own business, a credit to Rupert.

Equal to the above, there are a few things Mr. Stork has not done.

He has never tried to commercialize his friendship with his friends in public office, a credit to Prince Rupert.

He never was stampeded into the big committee of five hundred to fight the workers, a credit to Prince Rupert.

And when he goes to Ottawa to represent Skeena, he will be a credit to Prince Rupert.

Thanking you for space Mr. Editor. GEO. B. CASEY.

ECZEMA
ON FACE AND HANDS for Five Years

Eczema or salt rheum, as it is so often called, manifests itself in little round pimples which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed and the intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to a strong heat, is almost unbearable and relief is gladly welcomed.

There is only one way to get relief and no remedy like

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Take it internally and it gets at the seat of the disease in the blood and drives it out of the system.

Apply it externally and it takes out the itching, stinging and burning, and promotes healthy healing.

Mr. J. Sage, 915 Princess Ave., Vancouver, B. C., writes:—"Having suffered with eczema on the face and head for the last five years, I consulted several doctors, and tried various kinds of salves and lotions, but I derived no benefit from any of them. I did not know what to do until a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after I had used two bottles I began to get better and now after taking eight bottles I have not even a blotch on me. I feel that I cannot praise B. B. B. too highly. I hope you will make full use of this recommendation for the benefit of those who are suffering from this terrible complaint, eczema."

Many Beautiful Gifts to be sold —Program of Musical Events and Readings.

Last night a shower was held at the Methodist Church parlors in aid of the bazaar which is to take place on Wednesday next. Mrs. Mallett presided. On account of the extremely inclement weather, the attendance was not as large as would otherwise have been the case, but the gifts were sent and they proved to be many and very beautiful.

There was a short program of songs and readings: Miss Marjorie Lancaster, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Ling being the soloists. Readings were given by Miss Winnifrid Dibb and Miss Way. Perhaps the feature of the evening was the Shadowgraph Sketch by P. Linzey and Miss Meuse and assistant.

Another interesting part of the entertainment was the series of impromptu speeches by several of those present. P. Linzey won the prize which was a vanity set. His address was on the subject "How to Train Small Children." The story of the evening was given by Mrs. Ling.

Refreshments were served and proved most appetizing.

FAILS TO FIND TAKERS FOR THOUSAND DOLLARS

W. Gratton of Third Avenue has for some days been trying his best to place amounts up to $1,000 on Fred Stork's chances of winning the election but is not able to find takers. He is feeling rather sore over it. He thinks that when the supporters of the Colonel make such loud talk about winning they might have the courage of their convictions. He has been offering any amounts from $100 up.

TRAIL RANGERS HAVE ENJOYABLE TIME AT THE PARSONAGE

The Trail rangers to the number of 25 spent a most enjoyable time last evening at the Methodist parsonage. They were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hacker and spent the time in playing games. Table football was the feature. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches and doughnuts were served.

Each guest brought some gift for the church which is to be sold at the bazaar next week.

The Provincial, Captain A. Swanson, left for Stewart on Thursday morning with a small passenger list and a load of freight. The freight consisted of the usual Christmas luxuries, for distant northern points, which will doubtless help to brighten the Christmas hearth of those of our fellow man who are not so fortunately situated as ourselves. In other words, Capt. Swanson has undertaken a new role, this time as Father Christmas of the deep.

Strength

Strength of muscle does not indicate strength of nerves. On this account many people who look healthy enough suffer from nervous troubles and cannot understand what is ailing them. Sleeplessness and irritability are among the early symptoms. Indigestion and tired feelings soon follow.

Read this letter from an Ontario man:

Mr. W. L. Gregory, Charles St. E., Ingersoll, Ont., writes:

"I had been troubled for quite a while with indigestion. At times there would be a twitching of the nerves of my stomach; and I also found it difficult to get a good night's sleep. I am a builder, and owing to the nature of my work my system became run-down. I took a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and found great benefit from this medicine. They did me a great deal of good. I have not been bothered at all with indigestion since, and can sleep much better. I have recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to many of my friends, as I think it splendid for anyone run-down and needing a tonic."

Waterfront Whiffs

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet Which Is the Chief Source of Prince Rupert's Prosperity

There is the usual "before Xmas" lull in activities around the Mosquito Fleet these days. The majority of the skippers in port are starting to overhaul their boats and several are already undergoing extensive repairs. Fishing for the past week has been exceptionally fine and several large catches have been reported during the week. There is an air of optimism prevailing around the waterfront these days, and it is the general consensus of opinion that with the election over and the advent of a new year business will pick up all around.

That a change of government will take place, no one committing themselves as to exactly what the change will be, is the general idea. One or two of the larger fishing boats are pulling out in the very near future for the deep sea fisheries to make one final haul before Xmas. The morale of the fleet has much improved, since last writing, the cold snap having passed, the crews are on deck in good time in the morning, get off to a good start, also visits up town are less frequent.

The Admiral and Commodore of the Mosquito Fleet are both absent from port on duty and the affairs of marine importance are left in the hands of the Chief Stenog. to the Admiral, Flossie Flirt, who very graciously volunteered the following information. It is understood that all employees of the Admiralty in official positions are to be put through a course of nautical instruction, including boxing the compass, and in order to be properly prepared for the course in this art, the lady stenogs. are going to spring a surprise for Xmas, and have started in to make themselves athletic clothing having written Jack Dempsey for patterns of his fighting garb, also asking him for tips on how to box. It is not know how well the compass can box but it is thought some good exhibitions of boxing will be put on. The rendezvous of the bouts will be the Mug-Up Stadium, which has a seating capacity of at least six persons, that is three sitting and three standing.

To test the alertness of the brains of the Mosquito Fleet crews, it is reported that the Admiral, with his usual careful thought, has set some questionaires to be answered. The following are a few of them taken from the question paper at random:

If you had your choice of a Xmas present between a bottle of Scotch and a dead cat which would you take?

Which did you do first in life, go to bed or get up?

(Note—When answering this question remember that you had to get up to go to bed and that you had to go to bed to get up).

If fish rose to $1.00 per lb. when would you wake up?

If Stork and Peck were both elected, who would you say you voted for?

What is the difference between ar...nion and the eclipse of the moon?

A cow giving three gallons of milk a day went twenty miles for a drink of water, on this assumption how far would you travel for a real drink if the Admiralty put up the price? (Note—Do not make the distance read too near Cow Bay.)

It will be seen from the foregoing questions that the Admiral must have implicit faith in the shrewdness of his men. It would be interesting to read the answers after the examination has been held.

The only powder now in use in the Admiralty offices, so Flossie Flirt says, is gunpowder. You can believe it if you like.

The Spencer, Captain Louis, left early Thursday morning for the deep sea fisheries, on his final run before Xmas.

Captain Kohrt did the diving in connection with the salvaging of the D.G.F., the fishing boat which was wrecked in the ice last week in Newcomb Harbor. The boat was successfully raised and all the gear on board was found to be intact. The salvaging was superintended by Captain Babington who supplied all the necessary diving equipment and gear. Some $800.00 had been spent on the D.G.F. just prior to her leaving port on her ill-fated voyage. It is understood that no very serious damage was done. The boat will be overhauled and will soon be in shape again to ply her trade.

The Ethel June and the Annie May are to be used in the near future for shrimp fishing around the Shawatlans Passage.

The Fanny F. Captain Jim Bull, is tied up in Cow Bay undergoing an extensive overhaul. Both the engine and hull are to have attention and it is expected the work will take about a month to complete. As soon as the work is finished the Fanny F. will hit for the fishing grounds.

The Gilford, Captain Bob Hobbs, arrived in port on Tuesday with 15,000 pounds of halibut and reports good fishing and better weather. It is the intention of the skipper to do repair work now including the re-painting of the vessel.

The road work around Cow Bay is going along merrily, and a gang of some fifteen men are hard at work fixing up the grade. The pile driving is well under way.

The Celtic is expected to arrive from Vancouver at any moment, being a week overdue, with a cargo of tile for Albert & McCaffery. The tile on arrival will be used on the new court house.

The barge Louise is expected to arrive at the Albert & McCaffery dock any day with a cargo of lumber and coal for local requirements.

The Pair of Jacks, Captain J. Ivarsen, has returned to port after a fishing and hunting trip. The hunters were successful in getting two deer, and had them carefully stowed away, as they thought. However, sometimes the most carefully laid plans fail. The vigil on board was somewhat lax with the consequence that some person or persons unknown purloined the deer soon after arrival in port. Any information which will lead to the recovery of the spoils of the chase will be gratefully received by Captain Ivarsen.

Capt. W. Shelim, alias Bill the Diver, met with bad luck on his racing yacht Kelpie in an attempt to make the South Sea Islands, and Swanson Bay. Bill started out about two weeks ago with everything merry and bright, and excellent discipline prevailing on board among his crew of two. When well out to sea a storm of intense fearfulness hit the barque and from accounts to hand the skipper and crew had a hard fight to make the return trip. Engine trouble was also experienced and no amount of careful doctoring and nursing could bring its cheery voice back to life. The wind simply would not stop molesting the sails and in very short order tore the mainsail apart, which gave the graceful craft the appearance of a dry goods store after a fire. It was only by the skilful handling of the boat by the skipper and the staunch support of the crew, including the cook, that Davey Jones' locker was not contributed to. Although Bill has a sneaking regard for a more southern clime, Prince Rupert looks pretty good to him at the moment, even if it is necessary to have blankets on a bed.

The Joe Baker, Captain Blondin, is undergoing a general overhaul and is being repainted. There is quite a lot of work to be done yet, however, and it will be early in the New Year before the captain will be able to go fishing again.

The Mayflower, Captain Jud Thurber, is being lengthened by 6 feet and the engine is being thoroughly cleaned and necessary repairs executed.

N. M. McLean is busy making an extension to his dock on Cow Bay for the purpose of accommodating boats for the winter.

To have a grave dug to receive one's mortal remains and all hope of life to be despaired of by eight American doctors was the unhappy experience of Jack Toner while working on the construction of the Panama Canal in the early days. There is a fight sequel to this story and this is how it happened. Jack and four of a crew, sailed a new American barge from Newport News, Virginia up to the Panama Canal site on the Atlantic side. On arrival at the Canal he was transferred to a sandsucker, the Culebra, which was then working on the Pacific entrance to the Canal. After putting in about three months work typhoid fever struck the outfit and Jack, together with four others, fell sick in the same hour.

All five patients were speedily shipped to the hospital at Panama, and Jack lay for three months paralyzed with the fever. Things looked pretty black against his chances to remain much longer on this earth, so much so that the well intentioned attendants had the usual foreboding screens placed around Jack's bed and the doctor sent for a minister. The first minister to arrive on the scene was the Rev. Johnson, who tried to comfort our hero and lighten his passing out. However Jack, being of Irish descent, did not favor the minister but signified that he wanted a priest of his own faith. The authorities, being indulgent in what they thought to be a last request, sent for the desired priest, who upon arriving on the scene was found to be a Spaniard who could not speak a word of English.

This put Jack right up against a proposition, and seeing there was some difficulty in getting the necessary religious touch to the proceedings, he decided to get better, and as a consequence was discharged to convalescence in three weeks. Naturally a lot of Jack's chums had been given to believe that he had passed out. A Dane by the name of Sylvy afterwards met him in San Francisco just prior to leaving for New York, and on arrival in New York chanced to meet some of Jack's old friends in a much frequented house where liquor was dispensed. In course of conversation the Dane happened to mention that he had met Jack Toner just before leaving San Francisco, to which remark one of the company took exception, saying: "Why that guy cashed in weeks ago in Panama and I put flowers on his grave." The Dane got all het up in a minute and called his doubting friend a "d—— liar." Of course that started something, and in the heat of the moment they got tightly embraced, with the ultimate consequence that Sylvy got his nose broken. As the Dane said to Jack some years afterwards when recounting his experience in New York: "You're the stiff that caused me to get a broken nose. If you'd gone and died according the schedule I'd be a better looking guy now," and of course Jack felt ashamed of himself.

PRINCE RUPERT TIDES

Saturday, December 3.
High— 3:58 a.m., 19.6 feet.
15:37 p.m., 20.1 feet.
Low— 9:37 a.m., 8.0 feet.
22:12 p.m., 5.1 feet.
Sunday, December 4.
High— 4:39 a.m., 19.1 feet.
16:20 p.m., 19.1 feet.
Low—10:21 a.m., 9.6 feet.
22:50 p.m., 6.1 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard. for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

TERRACE is a thrifty, growing town. The chances are good that oil will be struck in the immediate vicinity, as seepages have been found, much ground has been staked and a drilling outfit is on its way there. We offer for sale eighty acres of land, 1¼ miles from the town on a good road at $12.50 per acre. This is your opportunity to participate in the enhanced real estate values that will surely follow the growth of Terrace.

ELKS' DANCE HELD IN NEW HOME MOST SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

The Elks' Lodge had their first social evening in the new home in the Clapp Block last evening. There were seventy couples in attendance, and all had a good time. Those present comprised Elks and their lady friends, Ladies of the Royal Purple, and a limited number of invited guests. It is proposed to hold these functions every fortnight and the invitation list will be changed each time to allow for those who were not present one occasion to be there next time. On account of the size of the hall it is impossible to accommodate all at one time, and the crowd last night just nicely filled the place. For those who did not dance the card tables and billiard tables were provided. The affair broke up about 1:30 this morning.

The Elks' Orchestra played music which was highly enjoyed. The players were: Charles Balagno, piano; Will Balagno, violin; Will Browne, drums and traps; R. Greenfield, cornet, and Art Easson, saxophone.

Refreshments, part of which were supplied by the Ladies of the Royal Purple, were served at midnight. Ralph Lepine was master of ceremonies and Murdoch McLeod was on the door. The house committee, comprising W. J. Cash, B. F. Self and W. E. Thompson, was in general charge.

PECK SUPPORTERS HOLD GOOD RALLY

Four Speakers Deal With Issues and Colonel Takes Issue with Daily News.

The rally held last night by Colonel C. W. Peck's federal election supporters, in the new Frizzell Block committee rooms, was well attended and enthusiastic in tone, several ladies being present. The meeting was a little late in commencing owing to some misunderstanding about the scheduled time. D. G. Stewart presided. T. Ross MacKay gave a lengthy talk followed by W. G. Dennis, the latter speaking in a humorous and forceful manner was well applauded.

Rev. W. W. Wright spoke at some length mostly on the railway issue at stake in the forthcoming election. In the course of his address he stated that Fred Stork had advocated seven new railway lines for the province of British Columbia while at previous meetings of the opposition candidate he, (Stork), had said that if sent to Ottawa it would be one of his first efforts to have the Canadian National Railways take the P. G. E. over and thus lighten the burden of taxation for the taxpayers of this province.

The Colonel Speaks.

Colonel Peck did not speak at great length in view of the time taken up by previous speakers. In the course of his address he called the Daily News as misrepresenting the facts of his campaigning and assured his hearers that the opposition would not get away with some things they had contemplated to his detriment. The Colonel impressed upon his supporters the importance of individual effort between now and election day and hoped that each and everyone would get out and boost for him.

Three cheers, and a tiger, were given for the Independent candidate, and the singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR DECEASED ELKS

Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will hold a memorial service in the Home on Third Avenue to commemorate all deceased members of the order. Rev. H. R. Grant, chaplain, will deliver the memorial address and there will be special music in which Mrs. Jarvis McLeod and George Waddell will take part as vocalists. The Elks' Quartette, with Charles Balagno conducting, has arranged a special musical program. There will be a large attendance of Elks and Ladies of the Royal Purple.

WEAK HEART NERVES BADLY SHATTERED

Many a woman who should be strong and healthy, full of life and energy, is bound by the shackles of ill-health.

Some disease or constitutional disturbance has left its mark in the form of a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted condition of the whole system.

In

MILBURN'S

they will find a remedy that will supply food for the exhausted nerves, one that will strengthen and regulate the weak heart and invigorate the whole system.

Mrs. W. W. Pearse, 14 Seaton St., Toronto, Ont., writes:—"I was left with a weak heart and in a run down condition from the 'flu.'. My nerves were badly shattered, and I had such pains around my heart I could not sleep much at night. I took several doctors' medicines without getting any better. My husband got me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I took one box I got relief, and after taking six boxes I have been well and not bothered since."
