Run on Chinese Banks Causes Trouble in Peking; Troops Who Are Unpaid Likely to Mutiny

PEKING, Nov. 19.—What looks like a crisis in Chinese affairs is taking place here. There is a run on the banks and a general feeling of unrest in the city. English and American residents are watching the outcome with keen anxiety.

PEKING, Nov. 19.—A heavy run on all the banks in the city is going on today. Efforts by government officials and foreign consuls to induce Sir Francis Agley, inspector general of Imperial Customs, to release fourteen million taels from the trust fund to meet the situation failed today. A general mutiny of the unpaid troops around the metropolis is feared and in some quarters the fall of the government is expected.

He said that he was very glad to see the Stork family and that he was very glad to see the Stork family.

THIRTEEN CARLOADS OF HALIBUT SENT TO EASTERN MARKETS

Of the 25 carloads of halibut which was unloaded at this port from fishing trawlers and schooners yesterday, 13 have already been shipped to the Eastern market in express refrigerated cars. There was a special train of 10 cars dispatched last evening and three more cars were sent out on this morning's passenger train. The balance remains here for cold storage or shipment south.

The New England, which called in port yesterday afternoon with 125,000 pounds of halibut, unloaded 85,000 pounds here at the Alin Fisheries plant and the balance of 40,000 pounds was taken to Ketchikan for freezing.

FIRST RESTRICTIONS ON FISH DEALERS

Order in Council Passed at Ottawa Rescinding American Privilege.

In future all American fish shipped into Canada must go through in bond to the United States. None of it can be sold at this port for consumption in Canada. That is the result of the rescinding of selling privileges by order in council of the Dominion Government on November 9. The local fish buyers have just been notified of the change.

Until now the local fish buyers have been allowed to sell American fish in Canada subject to paying the duty. Now it must all be shipped through. The fish buyers object very strongly to the regulation as it makes shipping very difficult. It will also, it is thought, result in Canadian odd boats getting smaller prices.

GOOD PECK MEETING REPORTED AT TELKWA

Methodist Parson Takes Platform
There on Behalf of Independent.

A telegram received this morning by D. G. Stewart from Telkwa says: "Peck's meeting here was an immense success. There was a very large attendance. It was pronounced by far the best meeting held here. Frank Dockerill, chairman, made a strong appeal."

Peck's outstanding feature other than Peck's main speech was an eloquent address by Rev. Evans of Smithers who appeared for the first time on a political platform. He did so because he recognized in Peck's attitude a revolt against the old parties which failed at present to interpret the great heart of the Canadian people in their aspirations toward true democracy.

YALE-HARVARD FOOTBALL GAME

Yale is Favorite in Betting—Weather Conditions Very Dismal.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 19.—Not for 25 years has the weather been so dismal for the meeting of the Harvard and Yale football teams as it is today. Conditions of the field and the atmosphere have set at naught much work of experts and the probable result of the game is more uncertain than ever. Yale, undefeated, fast and powerful, remains the favorite in the betting for the first time in years. Harvard followers may, however, rely on the deceptive rushes and forward attacks of their lighter men.

Says Stork Have Larger Majority than Last Election

A careful canvass of the situation reported to Fred Stork's committee rooms last night showed that the probabilities were Mr. Stork would get a larger vote on December 6 than he did in this district at the last election, when he was nearly 600 ahead on the Skeena district poll. Anything from 600 to 1000 is looked upon as his probable majority this time.

There has been no house to house canvass, but comparisons of the situation at this election with what was done last, and noting the men and women who say they have changed their minds one way or the other, everything is in favor of an increased Liberal majority.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the independent camouflage had not had any general effect on the mass of the voters, who would not be turned from their purpose of ousting the Meighen Government by any catch cry, no matter how plausible.

It was found that several Liberal voters had been omitted from the list and steps have been taken to get them put on by applying to J. H. McMullin.

Granby Company Wins Big Lawsuit over Coal Mine Before the Privy Council

VANCOUVER, Nov. 19.—A fight between the two largest and most influential mining interests in British Columbia, the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Company, and the Dunsmuir Collieries, Limited, represented by the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, ended in the Privy Council when a judgment was announced on Thursday in London allowing the appeal of Charles Wilson vs. the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway.

The appeal concerned an action to set aside a crown grant of mineral lands. The Privy Council had already dismissed a similar appeal in the case of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway vs. Elizabeth Dunlop.

With this judgment the Granby Company has won three decisive victories which confirm the absolute title of the company in a large area of valuable coal lands at Cassidy's Sliding near Ladysmith. The company has already established here improvements amounting in value to $2,300,000, all of which would have been lost had the company been unsuccessful in this suit.

In addition to this the enormous coke products plant of the company at Anyox which cost over $2,000,000 would also have been put entirely out of business.

Legislature Discusses Budget and Premier Announces amount Will be Set Aside for Relief

VICTORIA, Nov. 19.—Premier Oliver informed the Legislature yesterday that a vote to provide for unemployment relief will be included in the supplementary estimates. The amount is not specified.

F. M. Anderson, member for Kamloops, continued the budget debate. "The Government should not take this so-called Municipal Union too seriously," he said. The eight men who refused to have any further dealings with the Government did not represent the majority of municipalities, many of which were in a position to meet their obligations.

Discussing the expenditures on the P. G. E., Mr. Anderson said he favored the elimination of the Squamish-Glinton section of the line, with a cutoff between Glinton and Ashcroft.

In continuing the budget debate, W. K. Esling of Roseland complained that the Government did not take the Legislature into its confidence regarding Government projects. He claimed that the accounting system precluded the House from knowing how much the P. G. E. really cost.

SNOHOMISH SEARCHING

U. S. Coastguard Cutter Out
Looking for Missing Halibut
Schooner Swiftsure.

KETCHIKAN, Nov. 19.—The United States coastguard cutter Snohomish, which has been here to load bunker coal, has gone westward to search for the missing halibut schooner Swiftsure, which has not been seen since October 17. Word has been received from Yakutat that there is no sign of the boat yet.

It is the opinion of halibut fishermen that the Swiftsure has been lost. She sails from Seattle, where she was built in 1915. She is 54 feet in length on the water line, 32 gross and 22 net tons register, and carries a crew of seven men. She is painted white.

All ships carrying wireless have been notified of the missing boat, and all have been requested to keep a lookout and to report any information to wireless stations.

The Swallow and the Cedar are also looking for the Swiftsure.

CREW LIVED ON SEAWEED AND BEANS

MADRID, Nov. 19.—Beans and boiled seaweed was the fare on which the crew of the Portuguese schooner Trouisac existed for weeks prior to the time when the ship arrived here sixty-two days out of Havana. The captain was arrested for incompetency.

The ship drifted out of her course and the crew starved.

DAILY EDITION Saturday, Nov. 19, 1921.

All Regret Loss of Mrs. Patmore.

The loss of Mrs. Patmore has cast a gloom over the city from which it is difficult to recover. Among the first of the settlers to come here, she believed in Prince Rupert and tried to help make it a good place in which to live.

Prince Rupert people will join with The Daily News, we are sure, in conveying to Mr. Patmore sympathy in the hour of trial and regret at the loss which he and the family and the whole community have suffered in the passing of an ideal wife and mother and an admirable citizen.

Looking Forward to a Hard Winter.

Canada has been looking forward to a hard winter and it is now upon us. While in Prince Rupert so far there has been nothing to indicate that relief work will be needed, careful watch should be kept to see that there is no distress consequent on failure to obtain work.

In many localities there has been little opportunity for people to prepare for winter. Not only have wages been low, but work has been irregular. As a result relief work is necessary. The cost of this is being shared equally by the municipality, the Province and the Dominion. The relief money is spent on public works and men are given the opportunity to secure a livelihood without losing their self-respect.

The opening of logging camps in the south has improved the condition somewhat. It is a pity that conditions should not have been such that camps could have been opened in the north. As a lumberman recently stated, the more we study the situation the more convinced we become of the fatal mistake of the railways in rushing up freight rates to a point where it was impossible to do business. The logging industry was killed very largely by the foolhardiness of the Government acting through the Railway Commission.

Promises to Make Railroad Effective.

One benefit to be derived from the return of Mackenzie King and his supporters at the forthcoming election is to secure the fulfillment of the promise that he will make the Canadian National Railways effective. It is his opinion that they have not yet been given an opportunity to properly function. While the people were not consulted in taking over the roads, so that they were really foisted on the people without their consent; now that they have them, the best must be made of the situation and the railways must be given a chance to develop into a real live factor in the building up of the Canadian nation.

"Give King a chance" is the election cry today. The Meighenites have failed to make good. They have made a botch of the affairs of state. Now there is a young man with abundant energy who has the confidence of the people generally. It is for Skeena constituency to get in line with the trend of affairs and have a man in the next Parliament who will do us some good locally and at the same time help to carry on a Government which is really for the benefit of Canada as a whole rather than of the chosen few.

Municipalities Try to Shift Burdens.

Some of the municipalities of British Columbia had a mania for spending a few years ago, not considering how the bills were to be paid. They handed out huge contracts and expected some great influx of new people would help to make the payments. The influx did not come and today the municipalities are howling because the Government will not pay their debts.

The Provincial Government has promised the municipalities half the profits on the operation of the liquor sales and also the personal property tax which is at present collected by the province. Much more than that is asked, however, and because the province refuses to endanger the provincial credit by handing over everything, the municipalities are trying to raise a political cry. Victoria is the chief agitator. That city has spent a lot of money. At one time a million dollar paving contract was let, and there was a lot of unsavory work came to light later in connection with it. Now they would like to have the rest of the province shoulder the burden.

WESTWARD TRIP IS GREAT ONE

Paul Aivazoff Returned Last Night on Princess Mary from Kodiak Island.

Paul Aivazoff returned last night by the Princess Mary from a month's trip to Alaska ports which took him as far north as Kodiak Island. He is highly enthusiastic about the northwest country from a tourist and scenic standpoint and said that this was the finest and most pleasant trip he had ever made in this country.

Interested in Rupert.

Mr. Aivazoff reports that the Alaskan cities are very quiet and people are leaving by the boat loads from all places clear from Juneau to Kodiak. Prince Rupert is looked upon as the best town of all and the city is talked of everywhere. Many of the people, especially fishermen, would come here to make their homes but living here is reported to be very high and that is why more do not come. High rents here, says Mr. Aivazoff, are keeping people from that country away.

Going north from here, Mr. Aivazoff left the Canadian steamer at Juneau, and taking an Admiral line boat, reached Seward after calling at Cordova and Valdez. From Seward he went by train to Anchorage and from that place took another steamer for Kodiak. The railroad from Seward to Fairbanks, he says, will be completed this winter. This road marks one of the great engineering feats of modern times. Mr. Aivazoff returned by the same route as he went north.

Boats Popular.

The Canadian boats, says Mr. Aivazoff, enjoy great popularity among the Alaskans. They will wait for two weeks to travel on one in preference to the American boats. He thinks that the Grand Trunk Pacific Co. could engage profitably in this service instead of lying their steamers up for the winter.

Mr. Aivazoff's trip north was for business rather than for pleasure. He went to recover his fishing boat "Flossie" which a fisherman had taken away from here and had failed to return. He was successful but left the boat at Kodiak until spring when he will either sell it there or bring it back to this port.

If Colonel Peck is correctly quoted in the "Evening Empire" of November 17, 1921, he is a victim of illusions when he states that "W. E. Williams in attacking me as a soldier in the field, played right into my hands."

It is really too bad to spoil the Colonel's tilt with his own bad imagination for judging from the violence of the counter attack, the Colonel must feel that he has earned another V.G. How disconcerting it will be for him to realize his desperate onslaught was in vain; his annihilating fury wasted, because there was no enemy.

Such tremendous imagination should have had better justification for at no time have I made any comment on Colonel Peck's war record other than a favorable comment; in fact, I have always booked his war record and have given him full credit on every occasion for both his war and Parliamentary services.

Poor Sport.

The Colonel, in justice to himself, should re-read the account of my Terrace address in the Daily News. If he reads with understanding he will be convinced that he is either muddle headed or a poor sport, because if he read the above address, he either did not understand it or has willfully conjured up alleged statements which I did not make, that he might enjoy the exploit of annihilating them and thereby divert attention from the real issue.

As for the balance of Colonel Peck's tirade against myself, I regret the sentiment and language are beneath the dignity of a gentleman. His vocabulary is certainly not parliamentary and may explain his difficulty in representing Skeena on the floor of the House of Commons. I also regret that I have no military war record, but why is my war time record in issue in this campaign?—simply because the Colonel wishes to hold himself up as a real Mars in all his military glory, in contrast with my non-military career, and get a decision on military standards favorable to Colonel Peck. In other words, he is trying to win this election on his military record, regardless of the political issues and his qualifications to represent Skeena.

Barbarous Privilege. In the Westholme theatre, Colonel Peck, referring to his military record, said: "drop—that slush." Surely he did not mean it. He also said he did not wish any hitting below the belt. The people may judge whether or not, he merely wished to be left in sole control of that barbarous privilege. I certainly shall not dispute his reign. But I would remind the Colonel that the position to which he aspires, is one of dignity and honor in a civilized country, and that bad temper, unfair tactics and scurrilous language are not qualifications, at least not in the estimation of people whose opinion a gentleman would value.

W. E. WILLIAMS. Joseph Heather arrived in the city last night from Hyder.

Tonight the Prince Rupert and Wanderers' clubs will meet in the first of the snooker tournaments which have been arranged as a part of the inter-club program for the winter months. There will be six games, three being played in each club. They will commence at 8 o'clock and at 10:15 there will be a big final at the Wanderers in which all twelve players in the tournament will take part. The teams are lined up to meet as follows: at the Wanderers—W. J. Nelson (Wanderers) vs. J. H. Pillsbury (Prince Rupert); R. H. Shockley vs. H. B. Scott; George Hill vs. J. J. Raleigh. At the Prince Rupert—J. Howe vs. G. A. Woodland; E. A. Donohoe vs. A. T. Broderick; J. A. Macdonald vs. J. W. Scott.

With the withdrawal of the Great War Veterans' team from the Senior Basketball League, there now appears a danger of the senior league breaking up altogether for there are but two teams left, the Elks and the Sons of Canada. However, even if the league does disband there will likely be a series of games arranged to take place between these two teams for they give promise of being keen rivals for senior honors and the fans have been looking forward to the games in which they will take part. It is regrettable that the Elks should have withdrawn at this early stage for quite a good deal had been expected of them. However, they should know what they are incapable of doing. It is hardly likely that they would have fallen out if it was thought at all possible that the team which they could field would be able to put up competition against the other two. One lesson will be learned from the events in the Senior League this season and that is that in future there will have to be a better distribution of players and that all the best should not be stamped into two teams.

A story of catching two fish with one hook recently emanated from Brentwood, the summer resort on Saanich Arm near Victoria. Right in this district comes another of a similar nature. A Gedarvale rancher last week went out grouse and rabbit hunting. Of course the shot gun is used for the purpose. The rabbit hunter saw a white rabbit cross his trail and make for the woods so he let fly and howled it over, but there was also a flutter of wings. To the hunter's surprise he found when he went to pick up his game that he had shot with the same shell a blue grouse which must have been squatted in the grass near where the rabbit had run.

TINY TIMS AND TELEPHONE GIRLS WON BASKETBALL

There were two games of basketball in the Exhibition Hall last night. The Tiny Tims and the Drydocks, of the Boys' Junior League, met and victory went to the former by a score of 15 to 7. In the Ladies' League the Telephone Girls had no difficulty defeating the Checkers by 9 to 2. The third fixture set down for last night, between the Great War Veterans and the Sons of Canada, did not take place owing to the former team having withdrawn from the Senior League. All four teams who played last night made their first appearance for the season.

The lineups and scoring was as follows:

Boys' Junior.
Tiny Tims—J. Martin, C. Clapp (1), W. Kergin, J. Kelly (4), M. Bodenich (10)—15.
Drydock—T. Fraser (1), G. Bjythe (4), G. Hill, B. Jacobsen (2), B. Lundquist—7.
Malcolm Lamb was referee.

Ladies' Game.

WEATHER IS GOOD FOR DEER HUNTING

Several Parties Planning to Take Advantage of Splendid Conditions This Week-End.

Hunting parties are being planned for this week-end to take advantage of the excellent weather which is now prevailing. The most of them will be out for deer and some are going quite a way down the coast. Duck and geese hunting is reported to be not very good right now. It is too cold and clear and the fowl are on the alert so are hard to approach.

Harry Meagher, Jack Penny, Chris Johnson and Jack Williams left on the Reliance this morning for Aristazable Island where they will hunt deer until Tuesday.

George Bryant and party plan to leave tonight or tomorrow on the Harla for Campania Island.

ECZEMA ON FACE AND HANDS for Five Years

Eczema or salt rheum, as it is so often called, manifests itself in little round pimples which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed and the intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to a strong heat, is almost unbearable and relief is gladly welcomed. There is only one way to get relief and no remedy like

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Take it internally and it gets at the seat of the disease in the blood and drives it out of the system.

Apply it externally and it takes out the itching, stinging and burning, and promotes healthy healing.

Me. J. Sage, 215 Princess Ave., Vancouver, B. C., writes:—"Having suffered with eczema on the face and head for the last five years, I consulted several doctors, and tried various kinds of salves and lotions, but I derived no benefit from any of them. I did not know what to do until a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after I had used two bottles I began to get better and now after taking eight bottles I have not even a blotch on me. I feel that I cannot praise B. B. B. too highly. I hope you will make full use of this recommendation for the benefit of those who are suffering from this terrible complaint, eczema."

GET THE RABBIT

Daily News: Letter published in the issue of your paper, Frank gives vent to feelings not shared-up by your friends. Arguments based on Col. Peck's record in the House. He naively claims Mr. Peck fought for his money in Parliament. Now Mr. Salter tell us what the contention was and how fighting was done, whether by proxy? Also kindly inform us why Rupert cannot afford to Peck as its representa-

For representative we need a man who will come to the front in all issues affecting us. That Colonel Peck is not such a man is evident.

Will Fred Fill Bill? But on the other hand will Fred Stork fill the bill. Let us see. Mr. Stork has large interests in Prince Rupert. He is an old timer in our midst and his devotion to this constituency is unquestioned. He is able to express his views fluently and logically and the Liberals of the House will back him to a man. Colonel Peck we know is a man with no party or policy. No one can tell what course he will pursue if elected and as an independent he will have no backing in the House. Having supported Meighen's party while in Parliament he no doubt expects to land the Tory votes. His name goes on the ballot as "Independent," so following his line of logic, he should pull strong with the latter and when he made his address at the Westholme he professed to liberal tendencies, Prince Rupert being rated a liberal city.

The Honorable Colonel reminds me of two men on the prairie who having shot a rabbit one day got into a dispute over the possession of same and as a stranger happened to come along they agreed to let him decide the matter for them. Agreeing to act as judge the stranger questioned one of the hunters about his political affiliation. "I am a Liberal," was the prompt response. Turning to the other man the stranger repeated the query. "Well," says this worthy "I'll be anything to get the rabbit."

LOUIS FORKRUDE.

TO MR. MEGHEN'S SUPPORTER

Say, "Mr. Meighen Supporter" Listen! This is not your issue only, as far as Prince Rupert and the G. T. P. Ry. is concerned it is mine. Also you as a blind-ed partizan cannot see from my view point. You accuse me of being as blindly partizan as your-self, well, perhaps I am, but with an eye single to the interests of Prince Rupert and district, I see a vision which can only become a reality by the return of the Liberals to power.

You came here knowing that the Liberal Party was responsible for the building of the G. T. P. Ry. (not altogether as it is built, but as it should have been built, and of placing Prince Rupert on the map. You no doubt came here in the hope of bettering your condition, and sharing in the prosperity which you believed would follow with the completion of the railroad; so did I, but now you say that it is a city with a curse, because you did not realize your expectations.

Neither did I realize my expectations. The election of 1911 was the curse of Prince Rupert. At that time the railway was not completed, and the city was barely started, but a very ambitious program was laid out for its future, and work towards that end was being carried on with vigor; aids to navigation were being placed, and included in the program at that time was the lighthouse for Triple Island. The marine station on Dighy Island was well under way, the wireless station, and the marine hospital had been built, and tenders were being called for the building of a large quarantine wharf, to be complete with all the necessary buildings, appliances and paraphanelia to take care of Oriental traffic, and had the Liberals remained in power, that program would have been carried out. It was not a dream, but a reality, in the actual process of consummation, and today Prince Rupert would have been a seaport of much greater importance than you find it, and the railroad would still be in the hands of the company, if the Liberals had remained in power.

Killed Railway.

The Conservatives came into power, and note the result. The member elect from the district anticipated the result and took up his residence in Vancouver. Everything was done to discredit a great national undertaking, which if carried out along the lines laid down by the Liberal Party would redound to the credit of that party, and a deliberate policy was pursued to prevent such a condition coming about.

Now we have arrived at a period in our history, where, if we cannot retrieve what we have lost, we can at least support the party that has come back to us, asking for our suffrage, and pledging their word, that if we send them a pledged supporter to Ottawa, they will take up the great work where they were forced to leave off ten years ago. We have waited ten long years for this opportunity, and Liberals, Conservatives, Farmer Party or Socialists, Labor or others should set all their differences aside, and work for the common good of their city. As the rain falls alike on the just and unjust, all will share alike in the prosperity that is sure to follow. Support the party that put us on the map, who will restore to us our heritage, and remove the curse which has been hanging over our heads for ten struggling years. Are we going to let the opportunity slip, and sacrifice our interests for sentiment and blind partizanship.

Credit to Peck.

All credit is due Col. Peck, he has fought for us, and would fight for the interests of the district again if sent to Ottawa, but why has it been necessary to fight for every little concession we have got? Are we not entitled to all we have got and more, should we not have got a whole loaf? Yet we have to beg for the paltry slice which the Meighen Government has grudgingly given us.

You may send a Lloyd George to Ottawa and he will not get results unless he has been elected a pledged supporter of the sympathetic party in power.

If any of the other parties than the Liberals should be in power, we would be no worse off, and no better than we were before. But is it not worth taking a chance where we have all to gain and nothing to lose by sending Mr. Stork as our accredited representative to Ottawa?

Party System.

The party system may be wrong, and the patronage system may be wrong, but we have no time to right these before election. We are up against a condition, and while wrangling over minor matters, and the merits and demerits of the respective candidates, we are liable to overlook the main and essential issue, which is—Take advantage of the present opportunity and endeavor to get for Prince Rupert that support which will make her a city of destiny and remove the curse which has too long been hanging over her. Wake up People! You are asleep at the switch. The train of Prosperity is bearing down upon us. "Will you wreck it?"

You Can Make the Skin Soft, Smooth and Velvety

by using

DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT

It is always interesting to make a discovery.

Women, as well as men, find joy in discovering something which they can tell others about.

Many thousands of women have quite accidentally discovered in Dr. Chase's Ointment, a skin beautifier of rare value.

Because Dr. Chase's Ointment is so universally used as a treatment for eczema and the skin troubles of babyhood, its effectiveness as a beautifier of the skin is sometimes lost sight of, until using it for these ailments of the skin its benefit to the skin itself is once more discovered.

With the modern use of powders and cosmetics the skin becomes dry and harsh, irritations are set up, pimples and blackheads are formed.

The use of Dr. Chase's Ointment makes the skin soft and pliable, and restores the healthful action of the pores of the skin which have been clogged by the use of powders.

The woman who is admired for the exquisitely fine texture and velvety softness of her skin is the one who regularly uses Dr. Chase's Ointment.

You can discover this for yourself by giving this delightfully soothing, healing ointment a few weeks' trial.

Eczema

Miss Beulah Stewart, Lanark, Ont., writes: "I first took eczema on my head, and had to have my hair cut. Then the eczema broke out on the fingers of my right hand. It was so itchy I couldn't keep from scratching it, and it began to spread. In reading an old Almanac that mother had, I noticed that Dr. Chase's Ointment was recommended for eczema, so I sent for a sample box. I used the ointment every night, and soon saw a difference. I got a full-sized box at the druggist's, and later another one, but I never needed the second, because after the use of the first box the eczema disappeared from both my head and fingers."

Baby's Skin

Mrs. Everett Roberts, 41 Edcott Ave., Halifax, N.S., writes: "I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for my baby, who had ringworm all over his face. I tried almost everything I knew of without success until I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. This completely freed him of this annoying skin trouble in a short time. I would not be without this ointment in the house, and trust this may induce others to give it a trial and be convinced of its merits."

Many Uses

There are scores of ways in which Dr. Chase's Ointment is useful in the home. It is the standard ointment, and is used with great satisfaction for

- Eczema and Salt Rheum
- Shingles, Tetter and Ringworm
- Scald Head and Baby Eczema
- Pimples and Blackheads
- Chafing and Skin Irritation
- Sore Feet and Toes
- Ingrowing Toe Nails
- Rough, Red Skin; Erysipelas
- Cribblains and Frost Bites
- Poisoned Skin; Poison Ivy
- Itch, Barber's Itch, Prairie Itch
- Elves and Insect Bites
- Scalds and Burns
- Sore and Cracked Nipples
- Chapped Hands and Face
- Sore and Inflamed Eyelids
- Old Sores and Bed Sores
- Hemorrhoids or Piles

Tender Skin

Many men suffer from skin irritations of an epidemic nature as a result of shaving. It is more aggravated from this is known as "Barber's Itch." If your skin is tender you will find it good to apply Dr. Chase's Ointment after shaving. Wash thoroughly with hot water, dry the skin carefully with a towel, and apply the ointment. This keeps the irritated skin, keeps it soft and pliable, and by its antiseptic influence prevents the spread of skin trouble.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet Which Is the Chief Source of Prince Rupert's Prosperity

The Admiral of the Mosquito fleet is once again in Port and reports that the morale of the crews is of a very high order, and that with better weather prevailing the fishing has been proceeding more on normal lines.

In course of conversation the Admiral explained that deer were very plentiful at this season but considers it is very dangerous for anyone to proceed ashore without taking with them some means of protection. At this season the bucks are apt to resent any intrusion on their domain and are liable to put up a surprise scrap.

Now that election time draws near members of the fleet are evincing keen interest in the final outcome and all news of a political nature, although opinion is somewhat divided. It is well for strangers visiting either the Admiral aboard the flagship or the officers of the Admiralty of the Mosquito Fleet to refrain from conversations of a political nature, as there is quite a bit of "leg pulling" taking place, and one needs to be well acquainted before airing views of a concrete nature.

With the advent of cold and frosty weather it is well that the owners of boats should see to it that their engines are well drained of all water before they are left for any length of time unattended. In the case of an engine freezing up the water jacket is liable to burst with the consequent cost of repair.

It is thought that the Admiral of the fleet will be in a good position for the Christmas festivities as regards "throat lubricant" for the fleet, in view of the recent donation to this port by the American Synch, which was captured during the week by the Thiepval.

N. M. McLean has just completed the building of a smart looking little launch for Doctor W. T. Kerzin. It measures 18 feet long by a 5 foot beam and is fitted with a 4 horsepower Easthope engine, and is capable of carrying twelve passengers.

The Selma, Capt. Ole Hensen, has been busy getting his engine overhauled, upon completion of which he will be leaving port for the fishing grounds.

The Pug, Captain Angus McMaster has recently returned to her anchorage from a prolonged voyage. The skipper has been out sizing up a trap line but as to whether it was a trap line for the catching of fur bearing animals or crabs it was impossible to ascertain.

The Dixie Rupert, Captain Newcombe, returned a few days ago from Portland Canal where he has been with a party of timber cruisers and surveyors from Victoria, who were looking for timber limits.

Captain Tom Wilson of the Westerner has just completed extensive repairs and is in good shape to proceed to the deep sea fishing grounds just when he feels inclined.

The Starston, Captain Harry Waldson, arrived in port Thursday morning with a snow load of rock for the city streets.

Captain Ketchum is over at Port Simpson with the Wigwag for the purpose of towing to Prince Rupert the old river steamer "Port Simpson." On arrival here she will have her machinery extracted and the entire boat will be dismantled. It is understood the machinery will be shipped to the oil fields at Fort Norman. It has not yet been decided what disposition will be made of the hull but in all probability it will be put up for sale.

The dance held at the Fishermen's Mug Up, Cow Bay, on Monday night was a brilliant success. There was a very distinguished gathering of local fishermen, their wives and sweethearts. The prize for the best dressed lady (a purse of $10) was won by Miss DeLese Frost, who was dressed in a cheese cloth effect gown trimmed with ostrich fins and wore a long flounce. Unfortunately Jack Toner had the mishap to tread on the flounce during the dance which made slight alterations in the dressmaker's original design. The new cook, John Killum, was duly elected and initiated and is now busy working on some new soup inventions. It is said that he has a patent fish broth of which the recipe is worth thousands, if he could get it. There was a great display of jewellery at the function especially pearls, the largest and most valuable pearl on view was that owned and worn by Jack Stewart found recently in the clam chowder. In order to get the pearl away from the dance in safety Jack had to swallow it. The clog dance championship of the Mosquito Fleet went to Mac Burns, who danced for a solid hour to Jack Toner's manipulation of the "wind jammer," as a consequence all the skin on Jack's fingers is conspicuous by its absence. Among the guests present were Jack Smith, Dave Thomps, Harry Frew, Miss Anabelle Slow, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald East, Miss DeLese Frost and Tom Sutherland. Jack Toner acted as master of ceremonies, and did well up to the task he tried on the flounce and nearly queered the evening. Jack Spender and Freddy Lost were on the door.

The Wake, Captain Geo. Place proceeded to Bella Bella and Ocean Falls with Jack Beatty aboard on business. They will probably be absent for a month.

Bill Shrubshell is once again on the job and is putting some pep into his fish curing business. While he is very optimistic about the future trade prospects he is very upset about the way his staff have been acting during his recent forced withdrawal from active business. He says there has been quite a bit of crap shooting going on around his plant and that the stack of nickels he had cached has been discovered and sadly depleted, hence the clue to the crap shooting. However, Bill is taking all the nickels he can get in his change these days and it is hoped he will soon have the required quota to start something with.

Bill the diver and English Tommy got into a heated argument on Wednesday night about swimming, each one claiming that he could outswim the other. The controversy waxed strong and long with the result that a bet was made that they would test their skill as aquatic artists by swimming across the bay and back. Big money was staked and both gentlemen proceeded to the dock side, followed by an interested crowd of sports, to divest themselves of their clothing and take the plunge. Bill had got down to the stage of removing his pants and Tommy was in his birthday suit when some of the spectators prevailed upon the contestants to postpone the exhibition until daylight. Very reluctantly both challengers agreed to this, and the match will be pulled off in daylight in the near future that is if the water gets warmer.

The following boats are at present in port: Vineto, Glaran, Selma, Chatham, Starston, Westerner, Pug, Birdie B. Flora S., Fisher of Seattle, Laura L., Losvera, Billy Boy, Annie May, Ethel June, Gray, White, Violet, Dixie Rupert, Natchezong, Lancelot, Kobe, Lincoln of Seattle, Helen D., Murineax, Lillian M., Daisy, Joe Baker, Viking and the J. & N.

Bill the diver, has a racing yacht, the Kelpie, in port which is at present tied just above Hays Cove. The dimensions are 38 ft x 13 ft beam, and is fitted with a small gasoline engine just for anchorage purposes. The Kelpie was originally used as a racing yacht in South America and was claimed to be one of the best heavy weather boats between Victoria, Seattle and San Francisco. Bill says he never did like frost and snow and is getting his boat put in shape for a trip to the south where the sun shines warm all day long and where blankets on the bed are unknown. On his way south he will call at Swanson Bay just to look things over, and will in all probability go as far south as the South Sea Islands for his Xmas dinner. E. H. Maynard of the city is shipping on the Kelpie as first mate and Harry Green has signed on as cook.

Bill the Diver, otherwise known as Captain Bill Shelton, has been on the Pacific Coast for the last twenty-six years, and originally came to this country from Liverpool. He worked as a diver on this coast for the B. C. Salvage Company and for the Vancouver Dredge and Salvage Co. ten years ago. For the past few months he has been working at the Dry Dock under William Donald as a shipwright. He ran away to sea when he was nine years old and in his own words "has been going ever since," mostly on the deep sea. In his young days he was a swimming pupil of the late Captain Webb, of Channel swimming fame, and swam the sixteen miles from Liverpool Landing Stage to Runcorn without a drink other than sea water.

Launch "Oh Baby," Captain Myhill-Jones, left port Thursday morning with a party aboard for destinations unknown. Captain Jones was up at the Admiralty Offices to borrow a few smoke bombs to hide his withdrawal from port but as there were none on hand, the admiral having used the last one, he had to leave openly.

The P. R. Fish Market, under the management of Billy Kinloch and R. J. Bacon, is the latest victim of Waterfront Whiffs. Both members of this industrious hive are old timers in the City and know the fish and meat business from A to Z. It was the intention to get something on the P. R. Fish outfit but it is very difficult to get a hearing by either of the partners for the crowd of customers on hand. Bill and Bert are both progressive and great believers in the slogan "Advertising Pays." If anyone has any doubt about their slogan being true it would do them good to try, and get served during the rush hours.

MANY PEOPLE ARE NERVOUS "Fruit-a-lives" the Greatest of all Nerve Remedies

Fruit Medicine Restores Health Increase in the number of suffering from Nervousness is wide, due, in a measure, to the following: Mental Depression, Headaches, Meatal Depression, Nervous Exhaustion, Nervous Irritation, Nervous Depression, Nervous Action, are the results of the tired condition of the Nervous System and the blood are so closely, so vitally, connected that when one is bound to affect the other, if the blood is laden with impurities, it is unable to have strong, steady circulation.

Edmonton Speech of W. L. Mackenzie King on Great Issues of the Campaign

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, was given a memorable and magnificent reception at two great meetings in Edmonton. Three thousand people crowded the Metropolitan Theatre and the West Edmonton Liberal rooms to suffocation to hear him, and hundreds found it impossible to get inside the halls and were forced to turn away in disappointment.

A Well Defined Policy. In his magnificent address Hon. Mr. King showed decisively that he is a leader with a well-defined and progressive national policy, based on one great and unyielding principle of Liberalism that the people and not vested interests shall rule over the nation. In this connection he showed with measured but merciless eloquence that in no particular had he forgotten the transgressions of the Conservative government now under the guidance of Hon. Mr. Meighen, on these well established democratic principles wherein parliament was denied the right to inquire into the expenditure of huge sums of public money, and special interests, not daring to raise their heads publicly, were able to control government for their own financial advancement.

Never Consulted. The people of Canada were never consulted regarding the purchase of the Canadian National railway systems, which added over 20,000 miles of railway to the publicly owned system, or the largest enterprise of its kind in the world. The people never had a voice in the transaction and in spite of every protest the Liberals were refused the right to see the agreement of the Grand Trunk Pacific deal, though solicitors of the government took up the matters with the bondholders in London and information of the negotiations came from England to the representatives of the people at Ottawa.

Moreover the railway board was given full power to carry on the entire system of railway management, but the elected members were, refused any details as to the vast public expenditure involved. Even the most innocent questions were fully rejected by the government and eventually the King-Fielding motion to have railway expenditures in the same category as all other public debts was turned down by the government majority.

Insurance Placing. Needless to say Mr. King sprang a sensation when he charged that insurance to the extent of $140,000,000 had been placed on the Canadian National system, of which $107,000,000 was placed in one company of which two directors were also directors of the Canadian National. Contracts for equipment on the railway were also let through the same system of interlocking directorates.

Economy and Retrenchment. "We must get back to open dealing and economy in our national affairs," went on Mr. King. "Economy and retrenchment are most vitally necessary in our government today. The government at Ottawa has got the habit of thinking in millions and billions, and the need is for an administration that can also take account of the thousands. Almost everyone is puzzled over the problems of national finance these days, but we can reduce it to the problem of the home, for the national debt strikes directly at the cost of living. Canada's income has remained approximately the same, but the national debt has grown alarmingly. The public debt today is $2,350,000,000, where two years ago it was only $350,000,000. The interest alone today is $140,000,000, while the largest budget under Liberal administration was only $123,000,000."

See Justice Done. Mr. King freely admitted the obligations necessary as a result of the war and the most sacred obligations devolving upon the nation for the needs of the returned men and soldiers' dependents. To see justice done, these men and women must be the first consideration of Canada. At the same time, the vote of $560,000,000 for carrying on public affairs this year in Canada should be scrutinized. It meant $350 for every family of five in Canada, or almost $1 per day for federal taxes alone, to say nothing of provincial and municipal. Moreover, it must be remembered that the taxation of wealth came ultimately out of the pockets of the consumers.

The Home Standpoint. These great financial problems were the reason why the Liberal party pledged itself first of all to deal with the question primarily from the standpoint of the home and the needs of the home. All other expenditures must be made to conform to the home burdens of the people.

The merchant marine policy of the government was slated severely by Mr. King, who pointed out that 62 ships were built without tenders for their construction being called, as required by law. Also there was the expenditure of demobilization $350,000,000 the first year, $30,000,000 in 1920, and several millions this year, seemingly to have continued as long as the war itself had not the government been forced to go to the country. He criticized, too, the acceptance of warships from Britain, when their maintenance and equipment cost millions of dollars. At least, the expense might have been spared until after the world's nations settled the question of armament.

Tariff. The question of the tariff was dealt with squarely and definitely by the Liberal chief, in almost the same words used during his speeches in 1920 on the occasion of his visit to Alberta. He declared that any party must work for the development of the natural wealth of (Continued on Page 8.)

TERRACE is a thrifty, growing town. The chances are good that oil will be struck in the immediate vicinity, as seepages have been found, much ground has been staked and a drilling outfit is on its way there. We offer for sale eighty acres of land, 1 1/2 miles from the town on a good road at $12.50 per acre. This is your opportunity to participate in the enhanced real estate values that will surely follow the growth of Terrace.

COLTS' DANCE

Interesting Event Last Night Was Enjoyed by Goody Crowd of Young People.

There was a fine little dance given last night by the Colts Athletic Association at St. Andrews' Hall which proved most enjoyable. Close to two hundred young people gathered there and danced until two o'clock. Those in charge of the event were E. J. Smith, H. Frizzell, M. Mackintosh, W. Mitchell and George Hill. In charge of the floor was Colonel McMorris, assisted by James Mitchell. Music was of the usual fine order provided by the Westholme Orchestra assisted by Miss Blanche Martin, Art Fasson, Kenny Rood and G. Dickenson.

The supper was provided by the boys with the assistance of their lady friends. It was very dainty and well up to the standard.

An interesting event was the drawing for a box of chocolates which was won by Charles Gurnea and Miss Edith Godwin, Mrs.

the nation, in order to meet the burden of taxation. Commerce must be encouraged, and even Premier Meighen in his first declaration to parliament announced in favor of a lower revision of the tariff, yet found his impossible to deal with in parliament because of the power of the special interests and of the nature of his support in the house.

Able Counsellors Needed.

Mr. King declared he stood squarely for the Liberal platform adopted at the great national convention at Ottawa, regarding this platform as a chart upon which to steer the Liberal ship of state. No one man could hope to guide through these rough seas entirely alone by the weight of his own wisdom. There must be able counsellors sought to aid any prime minister and the dictates of the people must be followed. The tariff was simply a wall, which is built high enough would keep out goods and protect those behind. However, it could be made low enough to permit goods coming in and yet give sufficient protection. Tariff for revenue only should be the object. The Liberal party was pledged first to reduce the duty on implements of production to the lowest possible degree and second to lower the scale of tariff on necessities of life as far as possible. Liberals stood against tariff for the interest of trust, combines and monopolies; theirs was a policy for the people of Canada as a whole.

In his closing words the Liberal chief appealed eloquently for unity amongst the forces fighting a common battle against the ranks of autocracy. It was a misfortune that Liberals, Farmers and Labor disagreed, but the things they had in common were vastly more important than the things over which they differed.

"Because war made for waste let us seek for economy."

"Because war made for autocracy let us try to get back to a real democracy."

"Let us work for good will among men, faces, creeds, between provinces, between the east and the west, between the nations of the world and ourselves and between the other parts of the Empire and this Canada of ours."
 "By doing these things we will be furthering the great needs of humanity, and the empire in whose interests we are all so vitally concerned."

WEAK HEART

NERVES BADLY SHATTERED

Many a woman who should be strong and healthy, full of life and energy, is bound by the shackles of ill-health. Some disease or constitutional disturbance has left its mark in the form of a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted condition of the whole system.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

they will find a remedy that will supply food for the exhausted nerves, one that will strengthen and regulate the weak heart and invigorate the whole system.
 Mrs. W. W. Pearce, 14 Weston St., Toronto, Ont., writes:—"I was left with a weak heart and in a run down condition from the flu. My nerves were badly shattered, and I had such pains around my heart I could not sleep much at night. I took several doctors' medicines without getting any better. My husband got me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I took one box I got relief, and after taking six boxes I have been well and not bothered since."
 Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FIRST SKATING OF WINTER LAST NIGHT

The recent cold weather has put a good surface of ice on the ponds around town and last evening a number of skaters were out for the first time this season using the small expanses on the townsite. They report that there is already two inches of ice on them.

This afternoon, the Prince Rupert Boat House is sending over a boat to the Salt Lakes to examine the ice there. If it is safe and suitable boats will be run across tomorrow for the convenience of any who wish to go skating.
