Three Arrested

Original Charges of Grievous Bodily Harm May Now Be Amended Following Death

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 15.—Three attendants at Essondale Mental Hospital near here are under arrest following the death of a patient whom they subdued when he is reported to have run amok. The attendants, Malcolm McDonald, Henry Maisonneuve and Archibald Lennox, appeared before Justice of the Peace E. G. Walker of Maillardville Tuesday on charges of causing grievous bodily harm and were remanded for a week on bail of $500 each. That night, however, the patient took a sudden turn for the worse and died. It is possible the charges will be amended. The trouble occurred on August 26 and the attendants were suspended. They were later discharged from their positions.

Methods of Closer Co-operation in Order to Avoid Duplication of Services Will Be Advised—Joint Supervision of Both Lines May Be Advocated

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—The report of the federal royal commission on transportation will not be presented to the government until next week. In the meantime, conjecture as to the findings of the commission is persistent. The general feeling is that the report will contain no recommendation looking to amalgamation but that it will advise methods of closer co-operation between the two great systems with a view to preventing duplication of lines and service.

In Prison Cell

From a cabinet post to a prison cell, with several ups and downs in between, has been the colorful career of this wealthy Mexican labor leader, Luis N. Morones, now behind the bars in jail at Los Mochis.

The importance of economy will be stressed in the report. Presumably the operation of trains by both roads at practically identical times when traffic is sufficient for only one will be condemned.

Methods whereby the railways may meet more successfully the traffic of busses and trucks utilizing publicly-owned highways may be suggested.

That the report may recommend the supervision of the two systems by a commission, especially selected and upon which both the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific systems would have representation, has also been suggested.

It is intimated that writing down of capital of the Canadian National may be recommended.

Pacific Great Eastern Deal Has "Every Prospect of Success" Tolmie Says

CHILLIWACK, Sept. 15.—Speaking at the opening of the Chilliwack Fair yesterday, Premier S. F. Tolmie said that negotiations now under way for the sale of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway had "every prospect of success."

The Premier said that the deal would be of great advantage to British Columbia.

Prairie Farmers Are Holding Their Wheat Off Market Just Now Owing to Very Low Price

CLAGARY, Sept. 15.—Dissatisfied with the present price of wheat, Alberta farmers are holding their product off the market, selling only when money is required to pay their debts, it was announced by the Alberta Wheat Pool yesterday.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 15.—Grainmen here expressed no surprise at the action of Alberta farmers in holding their wheat off the market in view of the present low prices and voiced the opinion that the farmers of Manitoba and Saskatchewan were virtually following suit. This view was supported by lightened hedging pressure on the Grain Exchange during the last two days.

TOWN WAS DESTROYED

Spragge, Ont., Will Rise From Its Ashes, It Is Announced

SPRAGGE, Ont., Sept. 15.—This lumber town, which was almost completely destroyed Wednesday by fire which made three hundred persons homeless and caused damage of $500,000, will be rebuilt, J. J. McFadden, president of the McFadden Lumber Co., in whose premises the fire started, announces. McFadden took personal charge of work to relieve distress.

FLEET CAFE BURNED OUT

Waterfront Building Virtually Destroyed in Midnight Fire

The building and contents of the Fleet Cafe on the local waterfront just east of the government wharf were destroyed by a midnight fire last night. The proprietor, Elnor Solem, awakened by the crackling flames, had a narrow escape in such clothes as he could gather from a room adjoining the restaurant. The loss has not yet been estimated. There was no insurance.

The fire department was given first notification by Douglas Frizell who saw the glare while driving uptown. Soon after the box alarm was turned in, the blaze had taken a good foothold by the time the department arrived but was speedily extinguished. The conflagration was quite spectacular for a time.

The fire is believed to have originated from a gas stove. The building stands on railway property and was formerly occupied by Akerberg & Thomson machine shop and the Nelson Trading Co.

HER BODY IS FOUND

Remains of Dorothy Millette, "Mystery Woman" in Bern Case, Discovered

Identity Made

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 15.—The body of a woman believed to have been Dorothy Millette, "mystery woman" in the past life of Paul Bern, moving picture executive and husband of Jean Harlow, screen star, who committed suicide by shooting himself in his home at Hollywood ten days ago, was found in the Sacramento River late Wednesday. The body was discovered by a Japanese fisherman in Georgiana Slough, two miles from the Walnut Grove and 38 miles down the river from Sacramento. It was near this point where Miss Millette is believed to have jumped overboard from a river steamer bound from San Francisco to Sacramento early Wednesday morning of last week, about forty-eight hours after Bern shot himself.

After a detailed check-up, police declared that the body corresponded in detail to descriptions of Miss Millette. The body had been in the water for several days, it was stated.

The Early Romance
Mrs. F. Marcus, Bern's sister, said that her brother and Miss Millette met in Toronto when both were on the stage. They became sweethearts and later lived together in New York. Miss Millette became mentally deranged and was confined for a time to a sanitarium. Bern continued to provide for her.

Last spring Miss Millette moved from New York to San Francisco and lived quietly at a hotel there.

Will Is Found
Wednesday afternoon, the missing will of Bern was found in the studio at Hollywood where he worked. He bequeathed his entire estate to Miss Harlow. The will was found by Miss Irene Harrison, for six years Bern's secretary.

Rome to New York Ship Last Reported by Liner Near Coast of Ireland

Italian Authorities Institute Search as Fuel Would Now Be Exhausted—All Was in Readiness For Landing of Machine at Goal Last Night

ROME, Sept. 15.—Every searching agency under the control of the Italian government was set to work today to find the missing monoplane "American Nurse," last reported by the French liner Paris 400 miles off the southern coast of Ireland yesterday on her proposed non-stop flight from New York to Rome. The plane was due here at midnight last night. The fuel supply would now be exhausted.

After word had been received shortly after midnight last night that the American trans-Atlantic plane "American Nurse" was within two hours of Florence in the course of its flight from New York to Rome, Italian air authorities ordered the flood light turned on at the Rome airport in preparation for the airplane's landing at the conclusion of the epoch-making non-stop flight. It was later believed that this information was erroneous.

Last evening the liner Paris reported that a plane believed to be the "American Nurse" had passed her speeding eastward. The plane had then been 37 hours out of New York.

The "American Nurse" is the only plane to be flown non-stop across the Pacific Ocean, this feat having been accomplished last year with her by Hugh Herndon Jr and Clyde Pangborn on their historic flight from Tokyo to Wenatchee, Wash., after having girdled the globe.

Dr. Leon Pisculli of Yonkers, N.Y., leader of the New York-Rome flight, was born near Naples, Italy, but has been 32 years in the United States. He is a keen aviation enthusiast. William Ulbrich, German pilot of the American plane, took on the job for a meal ticket. Miss Edna Newcomer, the third member of the party, is a trained nurse and parachute jumper.

Democratic Presidential Candidate Appeals to Middle West Farmers For Support

TOPEKA, Kansas, Sept. 15.—Speaking under a blazing Kansas sun from the steps of the Topeka State House, the same place where Vice-President Charles Curtis was recently officially informed of his renomination as running mate for President Herbert Hoover, Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, Democratic candidate for president of the United States, yesterday delivered the first speech of his western campaign tour.

Making a special appeal to the farmers of the Middle West for their support, Governor Roosevelt outlined the plans of the Democratic party for aid to the agricultural industry. He declared that the present Republican administration had failed completely in the matter of farm relief.

STORM IN ALBERTA

Terrific Gale Sweeps the Country North of Edmonton, Centering in Athabasca District

EDMONTON, Sept. 15.—Crippling communication over a wide area, a windstorm of almost cyclonic proportions struck Northern Alberta early yesterday, sending telephone and telegraph lines north of Edmonton crashing to the ground. At noon the storm seemed to be increasing steadily in intensity.

Only slight damage is reported in Edmonton but meagre reports indicate extensive damage in the Athabasca district, 100 miles north of here. With communication lines still broken, reports of the extent of the damage of the storm were still incomplete today. It was indicated that the wind had swept down large numbers of trees and poles but that other property damage was slight.

THE REAL UNION GOVERNMENT

There is a difference between a real union government and a camouflage such as that suggested by Premier Tolmie in order to save himself the premiership. In his statement published in this paper yesterday Mr. Pattullo outlines briefly his position and emphasizes what kind of a union government he would form to deal with the present serious financial situation. He says: "The power of all the people must be mobilized to meet the present conditions. If called upon to form a government, I propose that men of the highest character and capacity and representatives of all interests shall be called into council." There is the true coalition, a coalition of all interests, industry, labor, the professions and agriculture with a strong man at the head whose aim and ambition is to prove himself a statesman. He realizes the desire of all for a "clean and courageous and forward administration" from which political partizanship has been banished.

If any person has not already read the reply of T. D. Pattullo to Premier Tolmie following receipt of a written invitation to him to join a coalition administration, we suggest that they do so now and a second reading might not be out of place.

Need For Local Track Facilities Is Stressed By Spartan Club Head

Interesting Sidelights on Recent Junior Olympics Given By Bill Plommer—Alex Walters and Ronald Allen Put Up Great Performances

The necessity of suitable track facilities being provided in Prince Rupert if field and track activities so effectively instituted by the Spartan Athletic Club are to be successfully continued here is stressed by J. W. Plommer, former president of the Spartan Athletic Club here and now residing in Vancouver, in a letter to Philip Edgcombe of this city. Mr. Plommer, in his letter, gives some interesting sidelights on the recent Junior Olympic meet in Vancouver in which five local athletes participated. He has high hopes of the local boys distinguishing themselves in future activities. Following are some extracts from Mr. Plommer's letter:

"Yesterday I experienced one of the most thrilling days of my life. First of all I saw Alex Walters (Prince Rupert) run Vincent Forbes ragged in the preliminary heat; then I saw him win the second round in 10:5 (only one other runner equalled this time!); then I saw him place a very close second to Howard McPhee in the semi-final. McPhee had run two very slow heats previous to this, whereas Alex's heats were two of the fastest. He (Alex) was, therefore, more tired than McPhee. Even at that, McPhee only did 10.6. In the first heat Alex was up against Forbes who was my pick for 'the man to beat.' Alex, therefore planned to go right out to beat him. Unfortunately his start was slower and Forbes had about two or three yards lead. But Al put on the steam and at the 50-yard mark passed Forbes who tried to run faster and once more pulled a tendon. I imagine it was weak anyway, because only a week had elapsed since he first pulled it while training. He was able to finish second and qualify for the second round, but later scratched. In the second round, Alex got a perfect start and won by yards. In fact, had he experienced more competition and known his pace better, he could have eased up in this race, but he galloped home in 10.5—with no opposition.

"An hour later in the semi-final he was drawn with McPhee who is considered as fast as Forbes. McPhee's preliminary and second round heats had been very slow—10.7 and 10.6—and as a result he was fresher than Al. However, Al forced him to run all out in 10.6 which is not so hot. Al was about a foot behind him. Collier, the only other man to do 10.5 (in his preliminary heat), ran second in the second round to Poole of Kelowna who won the second round in 10.8, a mere crawl. In the semi-final he (Collier) ran with Poole again, placing third! Poole's time here was 10.6.

"So Alex, in my estimation, was the best man in the sprints, yet in Sunday's Province he isn't mentioned while Barrett of Vancouver, who ran second to Poole in the semi-final, is conceded a chance to win both 100 and 220! You've got to show me, though, I'm willing to put my shirt on Alex to win the hundred tomorrow. And won't I enjoy pointing out this oversight of Alex's achievements of yesterday to Tyerman.

"The track is very slow here. It is just a cinder track with no clay foundation. It breaks up very easily; gives a runner no 'bound,' and the starting holes look like craters after about four heats. Ah, well, tomorrow it will be perfect as the only track event before the final of the 'century' is the hurdles.

Ronnie Allen
 Next comes Ronnie Allen who ran a great race. No foolin'! From he gun he led a pack of 11 starters! The track was crowded and they came along four deep like a regiment of hussars. I was acting as track inspector and, what a job it was trying to see who was being fouled. Someone stepped on Ronnie's foot in the first few yards but he sprited for the 'pole' on the agree to jump at whatever height the bar might be when his race was over. Immediately after the semi-final which was his third race—and all three were tough—the last vaulter had tried 9 ft. 6 in. and Alex had to jump at once or start at the new height, 10 ft. 6 in. So he jumped and cleared. But being tired with a day's heavy running, he found the sudden rise of one foot too much and was eliminated. He also admitted having neglected his training for this event, so he has no alibi.

In the Finals
 "So for Monday's finals we had two men placed and a third, Carl, should have been there too. There was Ronnie up against a fast field in the 80 and Alex against an even faster group, comparatively, in the 100 yards. Alex ran first. He finished fifth but was well up to the tape and had much to be proud of. The first three were bunched closely and the fourth and Alex were close behind. Their first start was 'false' and Al told me that, on returning to his holes for the second start, he found the back hole had collapsed. As a result he got a slow start. And I am convinced that, in the 100 yard event, the start is fifty percent of the race.

"I am very proud of Alex, and I shall continue to train him during the coming year. With more close competition down here he should develop a great deal. Remember, when I first started him running last year he only did 11 seconds and an occasional 10 8-10 seconds in practice, whereas, when I left on July 1, although the time was officially 10 4-10, two watches had 10 2-10. I hope during the next year to see him get down to a steady 10 seconds on these better tracks. There are still many crudities in his running that need correcting, especially in his start, which is very inconsistent, and in his stride which must be lengthened. His arm action is also too high and this tends to lift him up rather than shoot him forward. I also intend to handle Leslie Wilson, if he wishes and Ronnie if he comes down here this year.

"In the final of the 80, Ronnie ran well until they turned the last curve into the final 220 yards. He was in third place to Wallach and Mackenzie, two wonderful runners who are strong and experienced. As you know, the runners do not have to stay in their respective lanes in distances over 440 yards. As a result there is a tendency for 'jockeying' for position on the inside track, for elbowing, for cutting in front of a runner too closely. Well, Ronnie experienced his first piece of jockeying when a runner tried to cut in front of him, and in so doing, jabbed Ronnie with his elbow, knocked him out of third place, broke his stride—and his heart too. He had no chance. It was track inspector at this point on the oval, and had the other runner disqualified, but as he was beaten out by another runner for third place he failed to place anyway—so it made no difference. However, it was an excellent lesson, an one that can only be taught by experience. A man

Thurber and Morrison
 Bishop Thurber and Roy Morrison did their best in the pole vault but when you consider that the bar was set at 9 ft. 6 in. to start jumping, and that they had only just qualified in clearing that height in Rupert, you will not be surprised to learn that Roy could not make the height and was immediately eliminated; but it was no disgrace—there were many others in the same fix. Bishop cleared the height on his first jump; but in the second round they raised the bar to 10 ft. 6 in.—and he hadn't a chance in the world. This was done to eliminate as many as possible, because there were 43 jumpers to be eliminated, and when you consider that each one was entitled to three attempts each time the bar was raised to a new position you can readily believe that, had the bar been raised one inch or two at a time, they would still be jumping to decide the best six for the final.

"The broad jump was put on at the same time as the 'hundred' so Alex decided to scratch. I was quite positive he had no chance anyway, because I knew several boys could clear 20 ft. 6 in. and ever over 21 ft. whereas Alex had only done 19 ft. 7 in. at his best. He also confessed that he had not trained for it. In the afternoon, while he was running his second round heats and the semi-final heat, the pole vault was taking place; so Alex had to must learn to protect himself at all times. Ronnie did very well on the whole. In his race on Saturday, he led all the way but the time was much slower than the heats that Mackenzie and Wallach won in 2:06 and 2:08 respectively and approximately Ronnie's heat was in 2:12. Mackenzie is also the High School champion for both the mile and half-mile, a wonderful runner with a terrific sprint for the tape. And he seems able to judge his race perfectly, knowing instinctively just when to let a runner pass him and when not to. This, of course, is something which can only be learned in competition among good runners. And that is something these boys can never learn in Prince Rupert until a decent 440 yard track is made for them to work on.

Local Facilities

"The facilities for track work in Rupert are nil. The very fact that those boys trained and qualified on that terrible football field is amazing. Runners down here wouldn't even walk on it for fear of straining every muscle and tendon in their bodies. It is disgraceful. And while Prince Rupert's citizens may be proud of the boys who represented the town so well down here, they should be filled with remorse that better conditions were not provided so that they might attain championship calibre. To think that a town of 7000 inhabitants could only contribute three athletes of ability is nothing to be proud of. And it is the future job of the Spartan Athletic Club to educate the citizens along those lines. Until these boys attracted notice early in July, practically no one in Rupert did anything to help them or to provide the club with equipment. From reports that have come to me I am amazed at the wonderful enthusiasm that developed—at the last minute—among people whose attitude was apathetic during the two years that we strove to advance track work in Rupert.

But I better say no more. Though I am leaving Rupert, my thoughts will always be with the Spartan Club which will be your charge during the ensuing year. If at any time I can help or advise you in any way let me know."

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Secure Cash During Hard Times

The Classified Ads.

Many people have something in the house they would like to sell which could be turned into money if they knew of a customer. Try a classified advertisement. Most people read the classifieds. For about fifty cents you can let them know about it and it may prove a profitable transaction.

Renting the House

There are a number of houses in the city not rented yet and many people make little effort to secure a tenant. Others who are wise to their opportunities try a classified advertisement in the "For Rent" column and often get results. As one satisfied customer said recently: "Those little ads certainly do bring results."

Some Like Reader Ads.

Some people after trying other kinds of advertising decide to try a reader among the locals and personals. Then they have got results. The cost is a little higher but they have been well satisfied. When conditions are like they are today the newspapers can often help. The price is not very high. Do not lie down and bemoan your hard fate. Try a different kind of advertisement and if that is not successful try again.

TEMPLE IS DEDICATED

Impressive Ceremony Before Large Assemblage Last Night at New Oddfellows' Hall

Impressive ceremony marked the formal dedication last night of the fine new Oddfellows' temple at the corner of Fourth Avenue and Bowser Street. The dedication was conducted before a large gathering of Oddfellows, Rebekahs and visitors with E. L. Webber of Vancouver, Grand Secretary of the Lodge for British Columbia, presiding in the capacity of Grand Master.

The feature of the dedication was the ceremony of building the altar with the various stones emblematic of the cardinal virtues for which Oddfellowship stands. The ceremony was fully ritualistic.

Assisting the presiding officer were J. W. McKinley, as grand warden; J. L. McIntosh, as grand chaplain; H. M. Daggett, as grand marshal; J. E. Boddie, A. R. Phillips, T. G. Minns and W. A. McLean, as grand heralds; S. V. Cox, as grand 'heavaler, patriarchs militant; Mrs. Bert Morgan, district deputy grand president of the Rebekahs, and S. V. Boyle, noble grand of the local Oddfellows' Lodge.

The Oddfellows' and Rebekahs' choir participated and lent further impressiveness to the ceremonies.

Banquet Followed

Following the dedication ceremony, a banquet was enjoyed with S. N. Boyle, noble grand of the Oddfellows, in the chair. The toast to the Grand Lodge was proposed by Mr. Boyle and was responded to by the Grand Secretary, Mr. Webber. R. J. Keron proposed the toast to the Rebekahs to which Mrs. Bert Morgan responded.

Mr. Webber's address was the feature of the evening's proceedings. He warmly congratulated the local lodge on its achievement in having completed the fine temple building and expressed the hope that harmony and success would attend the work and activities of the lodge therein.

Following the banquet, dancing was enjoyed.

Many present took the opportunity of inspecting the new building for the first time. It is commodious, well appointed and attractively finished and is expected to provide adequate housing for the Oddfellows and Rebekahs for many years to come.

The heating system in the new building was installed only yesterday.

REPORTS ON CONVENTION

Meeting of Canadian Legion Last Night—Various Matters Taken-Up

The regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert branch of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, took place last evening in the clubrooms, W. Wilson, president, in the chair.

Correspondence from Olof Hanson, M.P., telling of his action in protesting to the Dominion government against the reduction of relief to pensioners was read.

A letter of thanks from James Black for the assistance given by the Legion on the occasion of the funeral of the late Thomas Black was also read.

The report of the first Vice-President, D. C. Schubert, on the provincial convention of the Canadian Legion recently held at Revelstoke was the feature of the meeting. The delegate referred to the resolutions forwarded by this branch which had been endorsed by the convention. He had been greatly impressed with the varied activities of the Legion throughout the province, the many problems that confronted the organization and the able way in which the executive dealt with them. He thanked the branch for the honor they had conferred on him. A vote of thanks was accorded him for his successful representation of the branch.

It was decided to enter a team in the local Cribbage League and Henry Smith was appointed delegate. Increased activity in billiards was reported and M. M. Lamb gave a brief report on the season's record of the football team.

ASSIZE IS CONCLUDED

One of Lightest Dockets in Years Here Cleaned Up Within an Hour This Morning

Without preliminary formalities of any kind, the fall session of the Supreme Court Assizes here got down to business this morning, with Mr. Justice I. A. Fisher presiding, on one of the lightest dockets of cases in several years. This list of cases included one chambers application and two divorce petitions all of which were disposed of before the noon hour, cleaning up the docket for the session.

In the chambers application, His Lordship ordered struck off the list a damage case of J. H. Macey vs. Stephen King and the Family Shoe Store in which $2000 was originally claimed by the plaintiff. The motion to strike out the case was made by L. W. Patmore, counsel for the defendants, and was not opposed by T. W. Brown, counsel for the plaintiff. The action was thereupon dismissed by the judge with costs payable by the plaintiff.

The divorce petitions were: Edwin Skogmo vs. Sigurd Skogmo, Peter Kvande, co-respondent, T. W. Brown for the petitioner.

Segurlay Stemberg vs. Thomas Stemberg, W. E. Fisher for the petitioner.

Decrees absolute were granted in both cases.

Corp. J. H. McClinton, provincial police, acted as court stenographer.

Johnson Russ, well known native leader of Greenville village on the Naas River, is paying a business visit to town.
