Irish Situation Looks Worse Again

CHOONER SINKS WHEN ICE FLOWS DOWN FROM HEAD OF INLET

Queer Queries
A Political Agnostic

How well the local political stage was set to rob you of your vote which you wished against the present Government?
Do you want a repeat of the farce of popular government of the past few years?
Do you wonder that the country is full of bolsheviks? There has been so much socialism in high place?
Can you vote for kingmen, can you vote for men who have been taking toll from the product of sweat of your brow?
Is it not honest indignation and not class government that you want?
Do you think it best to away personal prejudices for Stork, the people's sake?

IF MILLION FROM LIQUOR
Government Makes Good Profit Which Municipalities Will Benefit.

1000 FROM PERMITS
Municipalities Also to Get Motor Taxes and Race Betting Tax.

VICTORIA, Nov. 23. Announcement was made here yesterday that the Government had a net profit of $541,696 on sales for the three and half months under the Liquor Sales Board from June 15 to September 30, according to balance sheet filed yesterday in the Legislature by Attorney General Harris. This does not include $121,000 of the Government as a result of the sale of permits. Premier Oliver announced in the House during the afternoon in addition to their share of liquor profits, which for the year will be a substantial sum, the municipalities would receive an increased motor tax and in places where there were races would get the pari-mutuel winnings.

OLIVER FALLS IS IN LINE
Debated With Spirit of Liberalism and Will Support Fred Stork.

Received yesterday from the Falls is to the effect that Stork, the Liberal candidate, had a substantial majority at point. He made a good impression when he was in the city and as time passes he is making gain, not so much of his personal popularity as because the people are anxious of a change of government and the only way they feel they can aid in bringing that change is by voting for Liberal candidate.
The exact wording of the message received is: "You don't need worry about Ocean Falls, nothing south of Prince Rupert for Stork. If you can take of the northern part of the constituency, the south will do it and more than its share."

Sinn Fein Attitude May Cause Collapse Irish Negotiations

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Negotiations for a settlement of the Irish question are feared to be nearing an unfavorable point according to high authority. There is apprehension that next week may witness their collapse unless more favorable circumstances speedily develop.
It is stated that Ulster is no longer presenting the sole obstacle, but that the Sinn Fein have refused to swear allegiance to the King, although they are willing to take the oath to support the Irish constitution. They will not agree to giving the crown power to veto Irish legislation.
The Government regards the difficulty as fundamental, and it is declared that if the Sinn Fein should remain firm in their attitude the negotiations must come to an end.

ACCLAMATION IN WEST HASTINGS HAS BEEN DISALLOWED
OTTAWA, Nov. 24.—There will not be a single election by acclamation in the forthcoming federal election. In West Hastings Gus Porter, Government candidate, was declared elected by acclamation on the ground that the Progressive candidate's papers were not in order. A protest has followed and the acclamation was disallowed.

DICK BURDE OBSTRUCTING

Says Must Vote on Eight Hour Day Before Estimates Proceed.

COST OF EDUCATION.

VICTORIA, Nov. 23.—Announcing his intention to obstruct every vote in the estimates until the Legislature permitted a vote on the Eight Hour Day bill, Major R. J. Burde of Alberni spoke for ninety minutes, in the Legislature yesterday. The House rose without having passed a single estimate after two hours in committee.
W. J. Bowser objected to the proposal to empower Colonel Davis, head of the Land Settlement Board, to advance loans through district commissioners to the extent approved by the Land Settlement Development Act, which the Legislature in committee considered yesterday. Mr. Bowser contended that the Government itself should make the loans through Legislature votes.

Premier Oliver retorted that the Government was responsible for the loans and he thought the Colonel possessed as much experience as did the head of the Agricultural Credits Commission under the Bowser regime.

Education Report.
J. D. McLean, minister of education, tabled a return showing a marked increase in school attendance with 85,933 pupils in the year ending June 30. The province spent $2,931,572 on education out of a total cost for general administration of British Columbia for the same period amounting to $7,170,929.
Olier Besner sailed on the Prince Albert last night for Stewart.

MAJORITY FOR KING

So Says Dr. Michael Clark of Red Deer in Analyzing Situation.

INVERMAY, Sask., Nov. 24.—Dr. Michael Clark of Red Deer, who is running as a Liberal candidate, predicts that the Liberals will carry 96 seats in the Eastern provinces with enough west of the Great Lakes to put Mackenzie King in power after the election.

CONDEMNS ATTITUDE OF FRANCE ON THE ARMAMENT QUESTION

Curzon Says She Will Not Hurt Germany and Will Fail to Protect Herself.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The Marquis of Curzon, secretary of Foreign Affairs, in speaking today declared that if France pursued an isolated and individual policy of her own in regard to armaments she would not in the long run injure Germany and she would fail to protect herself.

GRAND TRUNK WAGE AWARD

Report of Arbitration Board is Given Out and Minority Report Signed.

OTTAWA, Nov. 24.—The majority report of the Board of Arbitration signed by J. M. Godfrey, chairman, and H. H. Vaughan, representative of the Grand Trunk, upholds the general decreases amounting to 12.8 per cent of the wages of employees effective in July last. The report recommends a redistribution to prevent lower paid employees getting greater decreases than the higher paid men.

Peter Berecovich, representative of the employees on the board has signed a minority report which is not yet published.

There was born to Major and Mrs. J. F. Brandt, of Vancouver, on November 16, a daughter.
There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crawford, of Stewart, in Vancouver, recently, a son.

LATEST SAFETY DEVICE FOR RAILROADS.

The Meteor track signal, a threefold power torpedo, is one of the latest safety devices to be put into practical use. It has been adopted by the Canadian Pacific Railway. The new signal is superior to all others in that it gives warning through three senses, sight, hearing and smell; instead of through sight alone, as do other signals. This new torpedo is impervious to heat, cold and moisture and is clamped to the rail by flexible steel bands that hold it firmly in place. This new safety device, when exploded by a passing train, gives warning by a brilliant flare, a loud detonation and a pungent odor.

Flowing Ice Pitt Island Cuts Into Hull Halibut Boat D.C.F. Causing Her To Go To Bottom

Her hull pierced by sheets of thin ice that came down from the river, the fishing boat D. C. F., owned by Captain Charlie Wallace, sank on Tuesday night in Newcombe Harbor, about half way down Pitt Island. There were four men on board at the time, Captain Wallace, Dan McPhee, Henry Jorgensen and Dan Morrison. They took to a dory and spent a bad time half frozen in the cold night, rowing 22 miles north to Alfa Bay, where they were picked up by Pete Colligan of the Sadie and brought to port, arriving here this morning.

Telling of the loss of the boat, the survivors say the ice was very thin, but it was about a quarter of a mile in extent. It cut like a knife and though the launch was anchored, the water came in and they had to leave her or go down with her. It was ten o'clock at night and very dark.

Halibut Fishing.
The D. C. F. left Cow Bay at 9:30 on Tuesday morning for Aristazable Island to fish for halibut. At 7:40 that evening the boat anchored in Newcombe Harbor, Pitt Island. About ten o'clock ice commenced to come down the inlet with the heavy tide that was running. There was also a strong wind.

The danger to the boat was soon realized but not until it was too late even to let go of the anchor cable. In four or five minutes a hole had been cut by the sharp ice in the hull and it was impossible to beach her. All the fishermen could do was to take to a dory and watch their craft sink for the water could not be pumped out fast enough. She went down in fifteen fathoms of water.

The crew rowed for 22 miles in the dory and were picked up in the morning by the Sadie, Captain Peter Colligan.

The D. C. F. is a Canadian fishing boat and was fully rigged with halibut gear. She is of 44 tons gross tonnage and is 46 feet long by 12 feet beam. She is owned by Captain Wallace and

Refutes Suggestion that There Was Irregularity In Stork's Nomination

The following letter bearing on the regularity of Fred Stork's nomination will prove of interest to the people of Skeena constituency:

Editor Daily News—A few days ago Colonel Peck's campaign committee caused to have printed in circular form and well distributed a few thousand copies of an article copied from an Interior paper which tried to impress the public that Fred Stork's nominating convention was not regularly or properly called and was not a representative one. Being a Liberal, but not a member of "Commonwealth," as the Empire is pleased to call the Liberal party, I made it my business to thoroughly investigate the procedure leading up to and the consummation of this nominating convention. The books of the association were thrown open to me and I found everything in order and as plain as A.B.C. I find that as far as back in April 13, 1921 a meeting of representative Liberals was called for the purpose of discussing the advisability of holding a nominating convention. Among a great many present at that meeting were the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert, Hon. A. M. Manson, member for Omineca and H. F. Kerzner, member for Athol. These three members represent the three provincial constituencies which comprise the federal constituency of Skeena. At this meeting a resolution was passed appointing a committee of five to canvass the situation throughout the riding as to the advisability of calling a convention not later than the second week in July for the purpose of reorganizing the Skeena District Liberal Association, and after organizing, to hold a nominating convention at the same time if the delegates present deemed it advisable to do so.

The queries sent out to the various parts of the riding met with so much approval that the committee decided to hold a convention on July 12, and notices were sent out on June 21 to every polling division in the riding.
At the convention there were thirty-four delegates and twenty proxies making a total of fifty-four out of a possible seventy-two. If every polling division had been represented, I notice that delegates or proxies were present from as far south as Margaret Bay, Wadhams, and Rivers Inlet and from as far north as Anyox, Alice Arm and Stewart and from as far east as Hazelton and Smithers and from as far west as Port Clements, and a telegram from the town of Atlin stating that owing to inadequate boat service it was not possible for them to be represented by either delegate or proxy, but they were willing to abide by the decision of the convention.

Quite Democratic.
Could there be anything more democratic, more regular, more proper or more representative even, when you consider the size of this constituency and the inaccessibility of many parts of it. Then again when I look over the names of those representing the Liberal party at that convention I find among others, L. L. Devoin and D. A. McKee of Smithers; Peter Carrigan of Hazelton, H. F. Kergin, M.J.A., Alice Arm; R. Boyd Young of Port Simpson; Frank Inrig, of Wadhams; A. R. Mallory, J.P., of Port Clements, and from Prince Rupert such representative citizens as Hon. A. M. Manson, Dr. W. T. Kergin, L. W. Patmore, vid. John Dybbavn, Ald. S. E.

Furthermore I think it is high time that more of our business men and citizens took the trouble to look into the facts concerning a lot of insinuations made concerning our public and semi-public men, instead of taking for granted that there is more or less truth in the most of it. If we do not do so, sooner or later we will all become sour, suspicious and disgruntled as are the publications continually making these insinuations.
What About Peck?
Now in conclusion just let me ask Col. Peck's campaign committee, that circulated the impression that Fred Stork's nomination was not in order, what procedure was adopted in selecting Col. Peck as the Independent candidate? Was there ever a nominating convention called by the Independent Association to nominate him? There is an Independent Association in Prince Rupert. The executive is comprised I believe, in part of S. M. Newton, C. O. Rowe, D. McD. Hunter, T. Ross McKay and F. S. Wright, and all seem to be supporting the Colonel, but perhaps "they" held a nominating convention, who knows?

Thanking you, Mr. Editor for your valuable space.
THEO. COLLART.

DAILY EDITION

People Triumphant
All Along the Line.

"The people triumphant" is being heard all along the line. All the information coming in from north, south, east and west is to the effect that the people of Canada are awakening to a realization of the fact that they have been governed by the money bags of the nation and that they want no more of it. They are preparing to throw off the domination of the big interests, and Skeena electoral district will take its part in the great movement. Mackenzie King says he expects one-half of the constituencies of British Columbia to return Liberals. If present indications can be taken as a forecast of what will happen on December 6, Mr. King will get good measure, pressed down and running over, from this province.

There is taking place throughout the country one of the great revolutionary movements of the age, the revolution of the people against the controlling interests that have milked them dry.

Labor Tells Sordid Tale.

Ask James... Murdock, the labor leader, who was at one time a member of the Board of Commerce, placed in the position for the purpose of controlling prices in the Dominion. Ask him what he thinks of the Meighen Government that has had the support and confidence of Colonel Peck. He can unfold a tale and has unfolded it. He tells that he was given fatherly advice from the members of the Government—the Government that Peck supported—not to do anything that might inconvenience the big interests. They were expected to make a show of controlling prices but to allow the profiteers to make even larger and yet larger profits at the expense of the people who were ground down by high wartime prices. These are the people to whom Fred Stork is opposed. Has Colonel Peck said he is opposed to them? Did he not support them as long as he was able, right up to the last vote, and then when he returned here he made a tour through the constituency with one of their chief supporters, a member of that same Government. That is why the people are going to vote for Fred Stork at this election.

Casting Slurs on Liberal Leader.

An attempt is being made in some quarters to cast a slur on the wartime record of the leader of the Liberal party. He did not accept a commission as an officer in the Canadian army and join the throng of officers overseas. There was no scarcity of officers. There were often more than were needed. Mr. King had other gifts and these he gave to his country, with far greater effect than anything he could have done as a junior officer. True he had a blind father and an invalid mother, both of whom have died since, and also a dependent sister and a tubercular brother, but these were not the reasons for his remaining on this continent rather than following the crowd to Europe. He was given work in connection with increased production on this continent, both in Canada and the United States. He spent much of his time straightening out labor tangles and keeping the supplies of ammunition and food rolling forward to back up the men who were fighting at the front. There was no more reason why Mackenzie King should have gone to the front from this country than that Lloyd George should have left his post in Britain and led the armies in France. He had to combat the German conspiracy, and it required a keen intellect and courage and diplomacy of the right kind to get results. That he was successful is a great recommendation. It was the best possible training he could have had to fit him for leading the nation through the present tumultuous and difficult times.

Now Turn to Another Picture.

Let the Vancouver World tell the story of the bargain in soldier votes:

"After all, murder will out. The Tilsonburg speech of Mr. Charles Murphy, former secretary of state, exposing the Unionist Government plot to steal the votes of 80,000 soldiers overseas in the 1917 election only gives in detail form what many people had seen in process of being carried out.

"Doubt about the matter, of course, was removed when Colonel Frank Reid of the Canadian headquarters staff, having delivered 128,000 votes instead of the 80,000 he had contracted for, failed to get the brigadier-generalship and the honor of being made a Companion of the Bath, which had been promised him as his reward. Colonel Reid, in retaliation, disclosed the correspondence and telegrams passing between himself and his eminent fellow conspirators.

"Colonel Reid's annoyance was primarily directed against Sir Robert Borden. He had received a written request from Sir Robert's election agent asking for 100 votes for the Premier's constituency. He had enquired which other constituencies 'required attention' had had been thanked for having changed the results in five Halifax constituencies.

"The episode of the gallant chancery office soldier hungering for a generalship and a C. B., agreeing to win them by delivering 80,000 Unionist votes and then disappointed of his reward, might be forgotten today were it not that Premier Arthur Meighen was among the beneficiaries. A telegram signed by Mr. Meighen is one of the interesting exhibits in the Reid controversy. It asked for one thousand votes for Manitoba, specifying how they were to be divided—300 for Selkirk and the balance equally divided between Provencher, Macdonald and Springfield.

"No more sordid and shameful spectacle could be well imagined than gentlemen in uniform bargaining with political agents for promotion and honors at a price to be paid in soldier's votes. The soldiers whose votes were, as Mr. Murphy picturesquely put it, 'done up in sacks like so many bushels of grain and diverted as seemed best in the uncertain ridings,' must especially resent the shameful trafficking in their overseas vote."

MURDOCK CAUSES
CONSTERNATION IN CONSERVATIVE CAMP

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—That James Murdock's speeches have caused considerable alarm in Conservative circles has more than once been manifest. His work on the Board of Commerce was a real and valuable service to the consumers in this country in so far as he showed why and where they were paying too much for the necessities of life, and how many of those who are now so solicitous for the return of the Meighen party were the chief beneficiaries under that Government's benevolent regime. Had the Board of Commerce been allowed to do the work for which it was created there would have been vigorous prosecution and a rigorous reduction of prices on necessities of life instead of the benevolence which left the consumers incensed but helpless.

JENNEY GOES EAST

Will Take Position at General Agent for Canadian National at New York.

Charles E. Jenney, district passenger agent, Canadian National Railways, Vancouver, has been appointed general agent for the Canadian National Railways at New York and will take up his new duties at the American metropolis next month.

Mr. Jenney is one of the most popular officials in British Columbia transportation circles, and his many friends, while wishing him every success in his new sphere, will regret his departure from the coast. Prior to the absorption of the Grand Trunk Pacific by the Canadian National Railways, Mr. Jenney was general agent in charge at the Vancouver office, being succeeded by Osborne Scott, following the amalgamation of the railway lines. Since that time he has been district passenger agent in charge of steamship traffic.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

November 24, 1911.

C. W. White, secretary of the Vancouver branch of the B. C. Library Association, has written to the council to ascertain if the city can arrange for a Carnegie Library here. The matter may come before the ratepayers at the next municipal election.

Active steps are being taken to form a Ratepayers' Association in Prince Rupert. A number of the ratepayers met last night and discussed preliminary arrangements.

Ald. Morrissey says he will apply for an injunction if the trunk sewer bylaw providing for an outlet into Hays Creek passes. "It will make a niche hatchery of the creek," he says.

TWO LAWYERS
FROM ONE FIRM

Lougheed and Bennett Are Both Ministers in Meighen Government.

Government orators are overwhelmed with panic when they see, or think they see, the bogey of class government in the distance. But just look over the men whom Mr. Meighen has appointed to his cabinet to represent the prairies, the Manitoba Free Press suggests. Here they are: Arthur Meighen, lawyer, of Portage la Prairie; Sir James Lougheed, lawyer, of the firm of Lougheed & Bennett, Calgary, and R. B. Bennett, lawyer, of the firm of Lougheed & Bennett, Calgary. Three lawyers from three provinces predominantly agricultural in character—two of these lawyers from the same office!

And two of the three—Messrs. Bennett and Lougheed—are identified with corporation interests, says the Free Press. It is this sort of thing which has bred class feeling among a section of the farmers. They think that, since class representation in the government is an established institution, they are entitled to some representation themselves. But Mr. Meighen frowns upon their presumption. He has twenty-one colleagues, and not a farmer among them.

WOULD TRAIN BOYS TO PLAY IN BAND

An effort is to be made to train young boys to take their places in the G.W.V.A. band. With that object in view it has been decided to start a school of instruction for lads at the G. W. V. A. rooms with a view to teaching them instruments which may be used later in the band. Boys must be fourteen years of age. With a view to getting a class started, a meeting will be held at 8 p.m. in the G.W.V.A. rooms to which all interested are invited.

The Man in the Moon
SAYS—

IT must be said that Mr. Justice Pattinson conducts a rather unusual court.

HE last night gave a good example of courting.

POOR Frank, and he did feel bad when the lady said she loved him.

The eggs from cold storage I view with alarm. But if I don't eat them They'll do me no harm.

Ah, how I abhor it. That last week made pie. But if I don't eat it I may never die.

And politics a touch of it As old as the hills. If you take too much off it You'll also need pills.

GOOD intentions are all right, but the bank does not lend much money on them.

BY the time the Prince of Wales becomes king he should be worthy of a place on the Government front benches rather than being stacked away as a social centre. This dodging clubs is hardly in line with the pink tea business.

THERE are plenty of candidates in the field and the pity is they can't have the election tomorrow and get it over.

COMIC OPERA WAS SPLENDID

"Trial By Jury" Put on by Musical Society Struck Responsive Note From Audience.

ATTENDANCE LARGE

Musical Comedy Was Delightful Combination of Art and Mirth.

In the presenting of Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera "Trial By Jury" last night at the Westholme Theatre, the Prince Rupert Musical Society achieved one of the best concert successes in the history of the city. With this musical comedy, which combines art and mirth in a delightful manner, the society undoubtedly struck a popular note and one that was possibly more generally appreciated than any of its previous efforts along oratorical or cantata-like. The opera was splendidly rendered and it was practically impossible to detect a weak point in it. Solo roles and choruses were sung in a splendid manner and reflected the natural ability of the amateur artists as well as long painstaking practice which must have been necessary to attain such a successful result. The theatre was crowded and every person present was highly pleased with the performance.

The Court Scene.

The scene of the opera is an old English court room. The action is the hearing of a breach of promise case between the defendant, a girl, who is all prepared for her wedding, and the defendant, the villain, who has changed his mind about marrying the girl. These two roles were respectively taken by Mrs. H. L. Campbell and Frank Moore. The judge was H. Pattinson; counsel for the plaintiff, Frank Dobb; usher, W. H. Meliar and foreman of jury, S. Darton. The jury comprised one of the most motley throngs of rascally appearing gentlemen that one could possibly imagine. With the public benches lined with a tattered and early morning shoppers, the whole personnel of the opera presented a sight which kept the audience fairly convulsed with their antics. Especially was the court policeman, Captain C. B. Foremy, funny.

Leading Roles.

The leading roles were, of course, those taken by Mrs. H. L. Campbell and Frank Moore, both difficult, but carried out without flaw. Mrs. Campbell showed unusual talent along these lines and the manner in which she acted, melting in tears most of the time, made it quite natural that she should obtain the sympathies of the entire court, judge, jurymen and spectators. She was assisted by a chorus of bridesmaids, Mrs. B. McDaniel, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. W. S. Ackroyd, Mrs. Stanley Bennett, Miss E. G. Davies and Miss I. Lindland. Their singing was dainty and tuneful and their costumes were very attractive. The leading lady's bridal costume was indeed a pretty one, her solo singing was one of the features of the play. Frank Moore, the defendant, against whom the court was plainly antagonistic, was no less effective in his singing and acting, especially. It would have been difficult to have selected a more suitable person to take the role. H. Pattinson, the judge; Frank Dobb, counsel for the plaintiff; W. H. Meliar, usher, and S. Darton, foreman of the jury, all played their parts well and were no less effective than the principals in the solo roles.

The opera was, of course, the main feature of the concert and for its excellent presentation great credit is due E. V. Ling, the conductor, and all the members of the society who worked so faithfully. They must have been pleased themselves with the excellent reception accorded and the complimentary remarks that have been passed by the public generally. Charles Balgownie was the accompanist. The officers of the society are as follows: President, W. E. Fisher, secretary-treasurer, F. W. Grimbler; executive, Mrs. W. S. Ackroyd, Mrs. S. Darton, George Wilson and S. King.

Mr. and Mrs. Brady.

Second only to the opera in importance and effectiveness, was the scene from Shakespeare's "King John" put on by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brady assisted by Howard Frizzell and Willie Kergin. The scene was that famous prison one where Hubert, King John's henchman and warder, is persuaded by the little Prince Arthur from his purpose of carrying out the king's order to burn out the latter's eyes. Mr. Brady took the role of Hubert, Mrs. Brady, Prince Arthur, and Howard Frizzell and Willie Kergin acted as executioners. The acting of Mr. and Mrs. Brady was as usual of a high order and the whole scene was rendered without a single hitch.

H. Pattinson's song in costume, "A Policeman's Lot is Not a Happy One," was excellent and delighted the audience.

Mrs. Stanley Bennett rendered the solo "Try Again, Johnny" in her usual pleasing style. Charles Balgownie played the pianoforte solo, Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor," with effect and responded to an encore.

There was a quartette "A Regular Royal Queen," from "The Gondoliers" rendered by Mrs. E. L. Munro, Mrs. Stanley Bennett, James Mitchell and S. Darton.

The Overture.

The overture "Zampa" by Herold and a march by the Westholme Theatre completed the wholly excellent program.

DINNER GIVEN TO MEMBERS

VICTORIA, Nov. 24.—Hon. T. D. Pattullo and Mrs. Pattullo, Hon. Speaker Manson, H. F. Kergin, member for Atlin and H. G. Perry of Prince George, were among the members who dined with the Premier at the Dominion Hotel here on the occasion of the annual dinner to the members. There was a jolly time during which the Premier proposed the toast to the opposition which was replied to by W. J. Bowser. Major Burde was much to the fore and the news-papersmen also took part. Mrs. J. W. deB. Farris replied to the toast to the ladies.

DO YOU SMOKE

There are many men on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart, irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, causes shortness of breath and loss of sleep.

To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy so equal.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco.

Mr. Frank Lutes, 71 Terrace Hill St., Brantford, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled with palpitation of the heart for a number of years, and by spells it would bother me a lot. The doctor told me it would stop on the same time if I did not quit tobacco. When I would get a spell my heart would pound, and I would break out in a perspiration, and get so weak I would have to sit right down and quit my work; also in the night I would wake up and my heart would be going. I should say, about 120 beats a minute. About three years ago I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, took them, and found that they did the job. I am feeling fine and have gained over 20 pounds in weight."

Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

COL. PECK GETS GOOD
RECEPTION AT TERRACE

The following telegram has been received from Col. Peck's committee: "One of the big events of Colonel Peck's trip was his meeting and reception at Terrace last evening presided over by Captain (Big Dan) McGregor who served under Colonel Peck in the 16th. Big Dan made an eloquent appeal for the support of the people of this district for the Colonel. The Colonel in his address dealt with all the vital issues of the campaign to an enthusiastic audience receiving round after round of applause. He recalled the fact that Big Dan McGregor and himself spent the first night in France in the same trench under heavy fire."

Was Troubled With Her Stomach For Five Years

Mrs. Samuel Ward, Milledale, Sask., writes:—I feel that I must write to you before another day passes I am so happy and so grateful for your splendid medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, for after an illness of five years I am better.

I had stomach trouble so bad, I could not bear the smell or taste of food of any kind and just so thin and weak I could not work. I had four doctors attend me, but they did me no good. I was in no pain, but felt so ill, at times, I thought I would die, in fact, all my friends were sure I could not live much longer.

This time last year I saw where a man was relieved of stomach trouble by Burdock Blood Bitters, so my husband got me two bottles, but I had no faith in it after all the different medicines I had taken, however he insisted, and after the first two days I must say I began to feel better, and after the first bottle I felt so much better I went out a little every day, but could not go alone I was so weak, but I soon got so I could walk and eat, and have got quite stout.

I am nearly seventy years of age and I feel better than I have for years, and I can do all my household work.

You may make use of this letter if you wish, as it may be the means of making others as well and as happy as I am.

port drydock, which he explained was only put into operation for shipbuilding after an American, Hon. William C. Redfield, secretary of commerce, had remarked that it was a disgrace that such a splendidly equipped plant should be lying idle.

All pleas that it should be used during the war to help furnish the Allies with much-needed tonnage were ignored by the Ottawa authorities, said the speaker.

"The Meighen Government will not be tried on the merits of the tariff, but on its record during the past few years," declared Mr. Manson.

Mismanagement.

The speaker said that it was impossible to expect the National Railways to pay when the administration continued its policy of using them to hand out favors to friends and allowed the Canadian Pacific Railway to get away with all the business, doing nothing to see that the National lines were assured freight that rightfully belonged to it.

"The appointment of irresponsible public officials had brought Canada to the verge of ruin," said Mr. Manson.

"What Canada needs today is men with vision and ability to govern honestly and well," said Mr. Manson.

William Marchant.

"This is a time when every true patriot should do his or her best to return every Liberal," said William Marchant.

"The question of tariff is not of moderate tariff but of immediate tariff. The Liberals have never advocated free trade, despite the Meighen misrepresentations to this effect. The farmers who once upheld the principle of high tariff now favor a reduction of the tariff to the lowest reasonable point."

"Following the scheme of interchanging industrial trains between Canada and France to promote trade, Mr. Meighen proposes to annul the effect by applying a prohibitive tariff," Mr. Marchant proceeded.

"The Liberals are no flag-wavers. This is a Conservative resort to get support, yet they have done absolutely nothing to protect the interests of the citizens of Canada."

"If it costs just as much to manufacture in the United States as it does in Canada, why should we fear competition with a reduced tariff?" asked the speaker.

Competition in Coal.

"We sell coal in the hottest competition with the United States."

"The Canadian manufacturers should be taught a lesson. When we listened for the news of war in the darkest days, the manufacturers combined with the profiteers and filled their pockets with gold."

"When men are prostituting their patriotism, is it not time for the people to say: 'Get you out!'"

"There is no reason why Canadian industry and Canadian energy and enterprise cannot compete with the world," he proceeded.

"If Meighen and his followers ever reach the shining shore they will no doubt propose a tariff there."

Liver Pains

Pain under the shoulder blades tell of liver derangements. Other indications are salivary indigestion, constipation, bloating and bilious head-aches.

The quickest way to arouse the liver to healthy action is by use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Continued use will insure lasting relief, correct the whole digestive system and purify the blood.

Mrs. Wm. Barten, Hanover, N. S., writes:

"For some time I suffered from liver trouble. There was a hard, bearing feeling in my back which I could not get rid of. Some one advised me to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and found them excellent. I began feeling in my back better and I felt much benefited generally. I have great confidence in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and can keep them on hand for general use."

GREAT SAVING MADE BY USING THE CANAL

Already the Panama Ditch Has Justified Its Existence in Saving of Costs.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The saving effected by ships using the Panama Canal has more than justified the hopes of the government in undertaking its construction. The following facts speak for themselves: In pre-war days the cost of maintaining a freighter in commission was approximately 40 cents per net registered ton per day. Thus a 10,000-ton steamship cost for maintenance about $4000 a day. Its average speed was 250 knots a day. On the trip from New York to San Francisco there is a saving of 32 days. With such a ship this extra distance would cost, on the basis of pre-war prices, $33,000. On the basis of present prices it would cost about $50,000. The vessel, by using the canal in pre-war days, paying $1.20 per net registered ton, or $12,000, saved its owners, or charterers, $21,000. On the basis of present day prices, the savings amount to nearly $38,000. If, as is now planned, the coastwise shipping using the canal is exempted from the payment of tolls, a 10,000-ton steamer will save $12,000 every time it passes through the canal, in tolls, and at least $38,000 in distance eliminated.

Sport Chat

With the weather lightening up again and the cold snap showing signs of continuing, skaters are beginning to work up a good deal of enthusiasm. Yesterday afternoon being the weekly half holiday there was a large number who visited the Salt Lakes, many of them for the first time this season. They found the ice in splendid condition and enjoyed the afternoon. Since the nights are so dark, few are going over in the evenings but, if the cold weather keeps up till the end of the week, there will be big crowds there on Saturday afternoon and Sunday. The city officials hope to have the Morse Creek pond ready for the next cold snap after this one.

Tonight the Prince Rupert and Wanderers Club will meet in the first solo match of the winter series for the Peak Shield, now held by the Prince Rupert Club. Hazardous a guess before the series, one would imagine that the Prince Rupert might have the advantage at solo for that game has practically been unknown in the Wanderers' Club for some months while it has been played a good deal in the Prince Rupert. However, some of the Wanderers' men have been having some outside practice at the game and they may be able to put up better competition against the Prince Rupert than is generally expected. The Wanderers' players will be as follows: W. H. Vickers, J. H. Hilditch, W. O. Fulton, T. Trotter, H. F. Wearmouth, E. A. Donohoe, J. D. Allen, George Shaw; reserves, R. H. Shockley, J. F. Hutchinson and Dr. J. P. Gade.

There is still hope for the continuation of the Senior League basketball games this winter despite the turn affairs took last week with the withdrawal of the Great War Veterans from the running. The Sons of Canada and the Elks will play their regular fixture tomorrow night and as soon as the game is over there will be a meeting of the Basketball Association and all Senior League players in the Sons of Canada rooms in the Days Block. The purpose of the meeting will be to arrange, if possible for the putting of a third team in the running to take the place of the Great War Veterans. What action may be taken is uncertain as yet, but the officials of the league seem quite hopeful that matters will be fixed up suitably at the meeting. There is no question of the fact that the dropping of the Senior League from the schedule would affect the sport seriously, and especially the finances of the Association.

SHOT HIMSELF

Gun Went off Accidentally and Both Barrels of Shot Entered Leg.

VICTORIA, Nov. 21.—While out hunting at Lost Lake, Arthur Allison, aged 19 years, residing on Brett Street, Saanich, was badly wounded when the shotgun he was carrying went off, blowing off one of his thumbs and the shot lodging in his right thigh.

He had tied up the boat from which he was shooting ducks beneath the railway trestle which runs across a part of the lake, and it was while he was climbing to the top of the trestle dragging his gun behind him that the trigger must have caught on a projecting obstacle, both barrels discharging.

Young Allison's cries attracted the attention of Monty Simmonds, a rancher, living near by. Thinking someone was drowning Simmonds ran to the trestle and discovered Allison whom he conveyed to his home, staunching the blood pouring from a ghastly wound, and then hurried him to his motor car to the Royal Jubilee Hospital where immediate attention was given to him.

A peculiar coincidence in the case is the fact that at the beginning of the hunting season Allison and a friend named Greenwood were at the 12-Mile Post, on the Malahat Drive, when Greenwood shot a hunter named Burton. Both Allison and Burton are now in adjoining beds at the hospital.

The games played last night were as follows:

S. P. McMorris (Wanderers), 111; R. Robertson (St. Andrew's), 200.

J. Howe, 200; Joe Brown, 198.

Fred Stephens, 200; A. Kinghorn, 162.

W. J. Nelson, 200; W. D. Smith, 170.

The sixth game, between R. H. Shockley and J. A. Allen, has not been played on account of the indisposition of the former.

The sixth game in the Elks vs. Great War Veterans match, between E. A. Wakefield and J. May, is to be played this afternoon.

SWIMMING FOR THE SCHOOLS

Scheme Discussed by Rotary Club Today and Committee Appointed.

At the meeting of the Rotary Club today a committee was appointed to interview the school board and city council to see if they would pay half the cost of building a swimming tank in the Booth Memorial School provided the Rotary Club raised the other half. Colonel McMorris gave a rough estimate of the cost, which would be approximately $5000. It was pointed out that this would be of great advantage to the children of the city, and might also be used evenings by adults. It was, however, from the point of view of the children chiefly that the club was acting.

There was a long discussion, during which a larger down town swimming club was mentioned, and it, too, will be further discussed at a subsequent meeting of the Rotary Club.

ALICE ARM

At a public meeting of citizens held last week it was decided to petition the provincial government for an extension of the wing dam on the Kootenai River and a bridge over the mouth of that river. It is requested that the work be done this winter. The government is also to be asked for information regarding the Dolly Varden railway and the prospects for its operation. The petition has already been forwarded to Victoria, signed by sixty citizens.

The operators of the Esperanza Mine are still busy doing development work which will be continued all winter. It is expected that considerable ore will be developed before spring.

Rev. J. B. Gibson, of Anyox, held Anglican services here last week.

J. M. Morrison has received a big consignment of vegetables from the Naas Valley. It includes beets, potatoes, turnips, cabbage and parsnips, all of high quality.

PUSHED HER SONS OVER STEEP CLIFF INTENT TO MURDER

One Was Drowned and Other Happily Escaped From Fiendish Mother.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—A woman who is accused of having thrown her sons over the cliff into the sea appeared before the court of assize of Finistere, Brittany, yesterday. Beside her first crime, she is accused of having attempted to destroy her eldest son in the same way in the same place. Her name is Louise Niquet. She is the widow of a shipping clerk. The dead child was 8 years old, the boy who escaped 13.

After the war the mother received an offer of marriage from a ship's captain. Mme. Niquet told him, first, the lie that her youngest son was not hers, but belonged to her late husband by another woman.

Danced and Sang.

In April, 1918, she took her son from school and brought him, says the accusation, to a deserted and beetling cliff at Fox Point, near Finistere. There she is alleged to have pushed over the cliff, who fell sheer into the tumbling waves below. One month later the body was washed up on the shore. Mme. Niquet, having told no one of the occurrence, returned home to Brest. She passed the same evening with her betrothed and friends, daily singing, dancing and drinking.

Second Crime.

A week later she took her remaining son for a trip towards the same spot. Before they arrived she stopped at a wayside inn and attracted attention by the quantity of white wine which she pressed the boy to drink. On the top of the cliff they both looked out on the sea, where a storm had driven up. Suddenly she called to him, "in a strange voice," says he, and as he turned she gave him a violent push. As he fell he grasped a tuft of reeds. Without waiting to see any more, the woman returned home. The poor boy, after a frightful struggle, succeeded in drawing himself to the top, where he lay for half an hour in a swoon. From there he went to a house nearby, where he was tended. Only a year later, the body of the first child having been washed up, did the cautious country people lodge a complaint against Mme. Niquet.

ASKED NEW ELECTION.

Editor News:
In answer to "Fred" you will probably recall that in the spring of 1919 I openly in a letter called on the Governor General of Canada to "discharge this R. L. Borden and his ministers and parliament and call for a new election, that we might choose a parliament more in keeping with British ideals of justice." I am supporting Col. Peck because I believe he comes nearer representing those ideals than does Major Stork.
