MUD SLIDE HITS LINE

Power and Light Service Interrupted For Only Short Time Last Evening

Interruption of power and light service of the Northern British Columbia Power Co. was caused about 8 o'clock last evening by a mudslide which took out about 600 feet of the transmission line from Falls River. Ten minutes later the Shawatians Lake power plant was carrying the system and service was restored. Workmen were busy all night making repairs and the main transmission line is expected to be in operation again before evening.

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL

Coroner's Jury Recommends, However, That Death of Patient Be Further Investigated

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 17.—A verdict of accidental death was returned yesterday by the coroner's jury at the inquest into the death of an inmate of Essondale mental hospital who died this week allegedly as a result of treatment at the hands of three attendants of the institution who were discharged following the incident on August 26. The jury recommended, however, that an inquiry be held into the circumstances of death.

The dead person was Otto Englestad of Vancouver who had been a patient in the institution since 1925. He was subdued by three attendants during trouble with a work gang on the asylum grounds.

The inquest was held at Mallardville.

An autopsy showed that Englestad, who died last Tuesday night, had suffered five broken ribs, numerous bruises about the body and internal injuries.

The three attendants were Harry Maisonneuve, Malcolm McDonald and Archibald Lennox, all of whom are charged with causing grievous bodily harm.

SEES IMPROVEMENT

Major P. Ashley Cooper of London, England, governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, in an interview at Edmonton, said he found a definite improvement in Canada over a year ago. This was gratifying to him. He also said there had been improvement in Great Britain during the year. Sometimes we wonder if we really are in a better condition industrially and financially than a year ago. Business people who find the stringency greater this year than last are not easily persuaded that times are better, and yet when a man comes from England and sees an improvement, especially an Englishman, who is proverbially careful, there must be something to it.

AT SIXES AND SEVENS

Possibly by the time this appears in print there will be some definite word from Premier Tolmie as to his future plans. He has declared for Union government and has been repudiated by at least three Conservative associations in Vancouver. Both T. D. Pattullo and W. J. Bowser have refused to join a union with him as premier but it has been intimated that he will continue with the formation of a union with such Liberals as may be induced to take positions and possibly with one or two businessmen not previously very openly in politics. It has been flippantly suggested that Cory Ryder, the finance minister in the late Hon. Joe Martin's cabinet, is still open to consider a proposal.

Mr. Bowser is evidently the hero of Vancouver's Tory organizations and it has been suggested that he may lead a Simon pure Conservative ticket. A new weekly political sheet published in Vancouver proclaims Mr. Bowser as leader of another union party. It announces Dr. Tolmie's political funeral in screaming headlines.

Meanwhile Mr. Pattullo is busily carrying on and showing himself to be the one strong man in the political embroglio. He declares for a government of all interests in the interest of all, death to political partizanship and progress for British Columbia.

SERVICES ALTERED

New Time-Tables Announced By Canadian National Railways

MONTREAL, Sept. 17.—The following official statement was issued at the headquarters of the Canadian National Railways here yesterday: "With the inauguration of fall and winter schedules effective at the end of this month, the Continental Limited will operate as a through train in both directions between Montreal, Winnipeg and the Pacific Coast, the stop-over of several hours at Winnipeg being cancelled."

"The Continental Limited will leave Montreal at 7:05 p.m. daily and cover the distance between Montreal and Winnipeg in 38 hours, 40 minutes, and Montreal and Vancouver in 89 hours, 25 minutes. Eastbound the Continental Limited will leave Vancouver at 3 o'clock each afternoon, arrive at Winnipeg 49 hours later and reach Montreal in 89 hours, 40 minutes, and Toronto in 65 hours and 20 minutes."

"The foregoing changes have been decided upon by the management in accordance with the announcement made in July last that the whole subject of transcontinental service would be reviewed later in the year in the light of conditions and requirements prevailing."

Another important improvement in train service especially affecting Western Canada will be made effective October 2 between Winnipeg, Saskatoon and Edmonton. Existing local services are being rearranged to provide a westbound train leaving Winnipeg at 6:30 p.m., arriving at Saskatoon, 8:50 a.m. the following morning and Edmonton at 8:40 p.m. The eastbound train will leave Edmonton in the morning, Saskatoon in the early evening and arrive in Winnipeg the following morning.

UNEMPLOYED IN SESSION

Various Matters Taken Up at Gathering Last Night in C. L. D. L. Hall

Various matters of concern to the unemployed were taken up at a largely attended meeting last night of the National Unemployed Workers' Association in the Canadian Labor Defence League Hall on Second Avenue. There were about two hundred persons present at the meeting which was presided over by W. H. Montgomery.

Correspondence was read from Stewart stating that unemployed men there had held out for direct relief which they were granted on September 11. The communication congratulated the Prince Rupert unemployed on their stand against accepting the degrading conditions which would be involved by the acceptance of 35c an hour for four days' work per month.

Much discussion took place in regard to relief work about the city and the committee was instructed to take the matter up again with the city council. Room and house rents were also discussed and the meeting was addressed by an apartment house keeper who stated that he was willing to help the unemployed for a small remuneration.

Complaints were also received that children under school age had received no clothing and that many who had left school were as badly off in this respect.

The meeting also went on record as being opposed to unemployed being imprisoned in various parts of Canada.

The gathering was addressed by G. Kane who outlined the banking system as carried on in Canada today. He went back to the days of Confederation and advised the unemployed to return to the land and raise enough to eat as no government could carry on much longer with such a vast army of unemployed.

No members of the city council were present although especially invited.

Man in the Moon

The crop of wheat on the prairies this year is exceeded only by the crop of political rumors in British Columbia.

Jake says that if they don't soon settle things in the south he's going to start another movement for a new northern province.

A fool there was And his name was Joe Which party to follow He did not know; He tied himself To the Tolmie tail But it would not wag So he set up a wail. He then hung on To Bowser's group But very soon found Himself in the soup. Then he turned at last To the man among men And now he is strong And sane again.

Masset Inlet Pink Run is Failure — Salmon Pack Higher — Halibut Landings

The run of pink salmon in Massett Inlet this year has proved an unexpected and complete failure. The cannery of the Nootka Packing Company at New Massett, only plant operating there this season, is closing down with a total pack of 6000 cases most of which are cohoes.

The cannery was held open a good while after the regular fishing time had passed in the hope that a late run would relieve the situation but heavy rains aided what few fish there were to move up the streams and no new run appeared. Seine fishermen will suffer heavily. At the very low price offered them this year only large catches would have enabled them to clear anything at all and they are now left in debt to the company and without a penny to face the winter.

The non-arrival of the pink salmon has proved mystifying to fishery officials. According to E. S. Richardson, fisheries inspector for the district, all rivers in the vicinity were heavily seeded with spawn two years ago. The investigations and tagging work carried on at McClinton Bay, Massett Inlet, under the supervision of Dr. A. L. Pritchard and assistants so far seem to demonstrate that the humpback is a two-year fish. Almost forty of the marked fish have been taken this season in spite of the low catches. It is interesting that most of these marked fish have been retaken not at Massett Inlet, but at Naden Harbor and other outside streams and on the West Coast at Port Louis.

This seems to indicate that the pink salmon does not always return to the stream in which it was spawned. Definite results have not yet been announced.

Various theories concerning the disappearance of the fish are being brought forward—some hold the idea that the spawning beds were poisoned by the excessive numbers of salmon that died in the rivers in 1930—another theory is that a heavy freshet in October of that year may have washed out the spawn—some believe that the heavy run of salmon in Southeastern Alaska is partly made up of Massett pinks, lured off their course by the wily Americans—while the natives are persuaded that it is the government's tagging operations that have frightened the fish away.

Fair coho fishing outside the Massett Bar is providing some alleviation. Hand trollers are doing comparatively well, one of them caught 64 fish in one day recently and others catch from twenty to forty at an average price of 40 cents. The fishermen are selling to packers from Butedale and hope to keep fishing until the end of September.

All the Skidegate trollers have returned home from the Langara Island trolling grounds. Trolling has now commenced at Cumshewa and Skidegate Bar. Packers are the Bruce L., Capt. Brandy Newell, and Johanna, Capt. John Wick. The run of chums is fair although the pink run has been very poor.

Saltery Licences Cut

After the season is half over, the British Columbia government has reduced the saltery licence to the original fee of $100. If the reduction had been made earlier in the season, it is declared there would have been much more activity on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Herring are reported to have been seen in Skidegate Inlet recently. This is very unusual for this time of year.

The salmon pack on the British Columbia coast for the 1932 season up to September 3 is officially placed at 857,077 cases as compared with 587,306 cases at a corresponding date last year. Areas showing increased packs over last year are the Naas River with a production of 79,648 cases as compared with 14,674 cases, the Skeena River with 215,497 cases as against 172,161 cases, Smith's Inlet with 26,362 cases in comparison with 13,915 cases, Central area with 229,877 cases compared with 123,491 cases and the Fraser River with 127,982 cases against 79,493 cases.

Areas showing reduced packs are Rivers Inlet with 69,354 cases as compared with last year's 75,052 cases at a similar date, Queen Charlotte Islands with 5,987 cases as against 6,000 cases and District No. 3 with 102,370 cases in comparison with 111,530 cases.

The pack of sockeye, springs, coho and pink varieties for the coast shows an increase from last year while the production of steelheads and blue backs is down. The sockeye pack for 1932 up to September 3 was 265,909 cases as compared with 263,597 cases at the corresponding date last year, the spring pack was 62,498 cases as against 24,435 cases, the steelhead pack 855 cases in comparison with 951 cases, the blue back pack 24,029 cases compared with 24,227 cases, the coho pack 92,168 cases as against 49,253 cases, the pink pack 210,739 cases in comparison with 183,881 cases and the chum pack 200,879 cases as compared with 40,962 cases.

Halibut Landings

Halibut landings at the port of Prince Rupert for the present season up to and including yesterday had reached a total of 11,352,450 pounds as compared with 12,986,400 pounds at a corresponding date last year. Canadian landings for the 1932 season amounted to 3,479,750 pounds as against last year's 5,112,500 pounds while American vessels had brought in 7,872,700 pounds in comparison with 7,873,940 pounds last year.

During the week of September 10-16 inclusive landings totalled 482,100 pounds consisting of 71,000 pounds from Canadian and 411,100 pounds from Canadian vessels. The high price of the week for Canadian fish was 6.2c and 3c paid the Tramp for 11,000 pounds and the low 4.5c and 2c received by the Relief for 19,000 pounds. For American fish the high price was 5.1c and 2c and the low 3c and 2c.

Provincial Constable Gordon Daniels, who has been stationed for the past two months and a-half in Victoria and Vancouver in his capacity as wireless operator, returned to the city from the south on the Princess Adalgide yesterday afternoon.

Support Farmers of Central B. C.

The farmers and gardeners of Central British Columbia are making an effort to supply the Prince Rupert market with vegetables, fruit, potatoes, poultry and eggs and other products of the district.

Prince Rupert people are asked to encourage this movement by asking for Central British Columbia products whenever practicable. Co-operation in this matter encourages merchants who buy from farmers and if the farmers are prosperous it will be an encouragement for others to take up land and thus add to the buying power of the whole northern and central part of the province.

Householders can help by keeping this in mind and asking merchants for Central B. C. products whenever possible.
