Capt. Martin Hansen Believed Drowned As Launch Norah Wrecks

The launch Norah is a complete wreck and her captain, Martin Hansen, is believed to have been drowned as the result of the heavy seas on Sunday morning. Ernest Valpey, the engineer and the other member of the crew, after a narrow escape, arrived in port this morning. The Norah is the property of Captain E. McCoskie of Prince Rupert.

The launch was returning from Massett on Saturday night, and about midnight ran into heavy seas off Triple Island. The windows in the pilot house were broken in and the engine stopped, the vessel being then adrift. About 3 o'clock on the Sunday morning she washed on the rocks on Connell Island inside of Dundas Island.

The boat heeled over and the captain was thrown into the skiff. He fell overboard from this and was not seen again. Valpey, the engineer, jumped off the Norah on the opposite side and was washed ashore. He got into the skiff, which was also washed ashore, and was picked up by the fishing boat N. & S. This boat repaired to the scene of the wreck to find the Norah all broken up, with no trace of the captain. The N. & S. reached this port this morning.

Captain Hansen was a well known figure along the local waterfront and had been here for many years. He was mate on the tug McCulloch last year when that boat was engaged in towing sand from McNicholl Creek for the bed of the new ocean dock.

PLANNING FOR AID TO RUSSIA

Famine Relief Committee Had Meeting in McIntyre Hall Last Night.—Prominent Men Speak.

A public meeting for the purpose of organizing aid for the relief of the famine-stricken in Russia was held in the McIntyre Hall last night. The meeting was fairly well attended and Aid. C. G. Perry and the chairman, J. Stevenson, J. H. Burrough, Rev. H. R. Grant and G. G. Hacker were among the speakers.

The proposals for the organization of a relief committee and the raising of funds locally was unanimously endorsed. It was decided to communicate with the various social and church societies in the city with a view to obtaining their co-operation. There will be a house to house canvass and the city council will be asked for permission to hold a Tag Day.

An account for the committee is to be opened in the Royal Bank. J. H. Burrough was made permanent secretary and all changes will be signed by Mr. and Aid. Perry. These will be sent to Winnipeg in $100 units as the money is raised.

Committee Appointed

The committee comprises the following members: J. H. Burrough, chairman and secretary; C. M. Smith, J. Runk, F. Bain, J. McAnich, A. Blundall, W. E. Steeles, W. Grant, E. W. Ellis, Mrs. S. V. Cox, Rev. G. G. Hacker, Rev. H. R. Grant, A. J. Mal-lett, Aid. C. G. Perry and George Rutherfordham.

J. Stevenson in his address, pointed out that the present condition in Russia, for which aid was needed, had been brought about six years of practically continuous warfare which had disorganized economic life. A blockade had prevented the bringing in of machinery and seeds for agricultural purposes. A drought now extended over an area of 800 by 300 miles and the protection of the whole civilized world was required. The economic prosperity of the whole civilized world was required. The coming prosperity of the whole of Europe was dependent upon that of Russia.

J. H. Burrough declared that although Russia was one of the greatest grain producing countries in the world primitive methods and implements for cultivation had allowed no moisture to be conserved. The Volga River level had also been lowered on account of unscientific deforestation. The droughts had come and all these causes had combined in bringing about distress on a large scale. Although the Soviet Government was straining every nerve towards relief outside assistance was necessary if hundreds of thousands of lives were not to be lost. The appeal was being made from a purely humanitarian standpoint and conflicting political opinions on the merits of the present regime in Russia should be sidetracked for the time being and a common effort should be made towards mitigating the distress.

Promised Support

Fred Stork and Col. McMorde who were present, promised their support.

Aid. Perry outlined the objects of the committee and dealt with the absolute necessity of relieving Russia.

Rev. G. G. Hacker endorsed

... the movement and promised the assistance of himself and congregation. Dr. Grant emphasized the humanitarian standpoint and also promised the support of himself and his church.

Russia No Longer Smiling Land For People Suffering

MOSCOW, Oct. 17.—(By a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press.)—Russia is a smileless land. In more than 2000 miles of travel on Central Russian railways and rivers the Associated Press correspondent hasn't heard a single hearty laugh. The exuberance and oratory of the first year of Bolshevism have disappeared.

Speakers no longer tell of the glories of proletarian rule from the corner curbstones. Red army soldiers no longer jeer at the bourgeoisie, for all have settled down together to the difficult task of getting enough to eat; and persons who have not tried existence in the present day Russia have no conception of how difficult it is to satisfy the most primitive human needs there.

Nearly every man and woman on Moscow and Petrograd streets today is carrying some sort of food parcel or bartering with food dealers on the street corners. There is practically no wood and coal is not dreamed of. Oil is the only fuel. Every family has a primus on which the hot water for tea and the simple meals are prepared.

Under the housing system most persons have only one room in which to cook, eat, sleep and do washing. All the talk one hears on the streets is of food. There are laments everywhere that the bread allowance isn't regular and the frequent expression of fears that the famine in the Volga districts will make the bread supply of Central Russia even worse.

Potatoes Cheapest

Potatoes at 1,000 rubles a pound are the cheapest food on the market, but 1,000 rubles is a small fortune to most of the population and it takes a lot of oil to cook potatoes.

The days of political strife are apparently over. Russians have tired of theoretical politics. The anti-Bolsheviks no longer discuss the government. Paper decrees are showered unnoticed upon Bolshevists and non-Bolshevists alike. They are too busy in their strife for food and clothing to worry about what is going on in the Kremlin.

Streets without food shops are practically deserted in all the cities. The search for food is at once the work and the recreation of the public. Boulevards are lined with food wagons offering fruit, vegetables, bread and eggs, and the people seem far more interested in these than in the listless pedestrians and the little bands which give occasional evening concerts.

Spirit of Play Gone

There seems to be no spirit of play left in Russia. Even the children are sad and quiet. Recently many toy shops have re-opened. The Soviet government never requisitioned Noah's Ark and Teddy bears, so dealers in that class of goods are unboxing their old stocks and dressing Santa Claus windows.

Few moving picture theatres are open, and those are given over chiefly to government propaganda pictures. The opera season has not yet opened.

... the movement and promised the assistance of himself and congregation. Dr. Grant emphasized the humanitarian standpoint and also promised the support of himself and his church.

TWO WORKMEN WERE INJURED

When Gang Plank From Canadian Britisher at Drydock Broke in Two.

Two men were injured at 12 o'clock today at the Wallace Shipyards when the gangplank from the Canadian Britisher to the wharf broke in two and the workmen were precipitated a distance of about 20 feet on to a floating log in the water between the vessel and the dock. The accident occurred just at the noon hour as the men were leaving work on the ship. There were perhaps a dozen men actually on the plank at the time but, as far as is known, only the two fell.

Both men were stunned, but one of them, William Watson, who sustained the lesser injury in breaking his leg, quickly regained consciousness. The other man, Kobzey, at 2 o'clock was still in the hands of the doctors at the General Hospital and at that time had not regained consciousness. His injuries are serious, as he landed on the log on his chest and face.

Following the accident the two men were quickly rescued by other workers who were on the scene. Ropes were used in pulling them up to the wharf. They were rushed to the first aid station and from there to the hospital.

REDUCE FREIGHTS BEEORE MORE WAGES

Public Group of Railway Board Makes Request of Roads.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The public group of the Railway Board suggests that the railways withdraw the request for further wage reductions until the wage reductions of last July have been translated in reduced freights, as one way of settling the wage controversy.

WILL LAY WREATH FOR SOUTH AFRICA

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Sir Auckland Geddes, British Ambassador to the United States, will lay a wreath of South African flowers on the tomb of America's "unknown warrior," according to an arrangement made by the Government of the Union of South Africa.

BREAD DROPS TO TEN CENTS

Staff of Life Goes Down From Two Loaves for 25 Cents.

The bakeries of the city today dropped the price of their bread. The loaves now sell at 10 cents straight, whereas last week the price was 15 cents or two loaves for 25 cents.

The drop is made possible through the falling in the price of flour and is in line with other cities where the price is down.

VICTORIA, Oct. 17.—J. B. Clearihue, M.L.A. for Victoria will move the reply to the speech from the throne in the Legislature, it was decided at a cabinet meeting Saturday. Either Bert Kergin of Albin or James Ramsay of Vancouver will second the motion.

INVESTIGATE PRISON CAMPS

DUBLIN, Oct. 17.—The British and Irish representatives in London have agreed to appoint a joint committee to visit the internment camps and prisons and investigate conditions, says the official announcement appointing Commandant Staines to represent the Irish republican army.

W. P. LYNCH IS AGAIN GOING INTO BUSINESS

W. P. Lynch of Prince Rupert was up the line over the week-end on business, says the Omicea Herald. He has sold his old store corner in Prince Rupert for a good figure. Mr. Lynch had made all preparations to move to the Argentine Republic, and had even purchased his ticket, when he considered a new business proposition and has decided to remain in Northern B. C. The majority of people in the North will be glad to learn that this old pioneer of the North is not going to desert his old stamping ground, which includes practically every new field from Vancouver to the Klondyke. In the early days of railway construction he conducted stores in New Hazelton and Smithers, as well as in Prince Rupert, and he was successful. The nature of the new business Mr. Lynch did not care to announce at present.

OFFENSIVE AGAINST REVOLUTIONARIES EXPECTED ANY TIME

BOMBAY, Oct. 17.—A despatch from Malabar says a big offensive against the Indian revolutionaries is expected momentarily. The Simla Government has declared martial law for the trial of the revolutionaries.

Why We Should Have a Library.

Everyone is agreed that we should have a library. There is no difference of opinion. The only difficulty is that it has to be paid for and there are so many other things that have to be paid for in the city. The demands for contributions toward things we need are so large that people hesitate to advocate anything new.

And yet in spite of that we should have a library. Kelchikan, a little town in Alaska scarcely half the size of Prince Rupert, has had a library for years. They started in a small way, forming a library association and purchasing books with money secured from the proceeds of entertainments and other sources. Today they have a valuable collection of books and are constantly adding to it. They look on the library as a civic asset.

We are rapidly blossoming into an important city, aiming to become the centre of business and culture in the North, and yet we are without a public library. It does not speak very well for our progressiveness.

The long winter evenings are coming on and there are several months ahead when reading will be our chief source of amusement and education. There is an excellent little commercial library in the city, but it does not fill the gap. Reference books are needed, educational books, and all sorts of literature, as well as current novels.

The present is a good opportunity for some local organization to take the matter in hand and push it through. It is one of the crying needs of the community and ought to be backed by some live organization. We know of no worthier outlet for the energies of one of the chapters of the Daughters of the Empire or one of the hundred and one other organizations. What is the good of an organization if it does not accomplish something worth while?

Immigration to This Country.

We cannot hope to succeed with the exclusion of Orientals unless we are willing to populate the country with white people. We cannot sit tight with a dog-in-the-manger policy of keeping out everybody. This is a big country with plenty of room for millions of people to make a living in developing the natural resources. This cannot be done without getting in more people. In Europe the people are finding it difficult to live owing to the crowding. The cheap labor of Europe is taking the business away from the British, and the trade that was formerly British is going to Germany and other countries where they work for lower wages. There is room in this country for the excess population of Britain. They can come here and make good livings and develop. They can get out of the rut in which they have been for centuries and get a broader outlook on life. It will be good for them and will not injure this country. It will give us prestige and power in dealing with our neighbors. We shall be doing great things for these people by admitting them.

If we do not populate this country with whites, we must expect that some day we shall be forced to populate it with people of other races, to which we strongly object. Unless we use the country we have no moral right to it.

Business Conditions Good in Japan.

Business conditions are good in Japan, Germany and practically all the low wage countries except Russia, and even there business is improving in some sections. Japan is doing a lot of building and will soon need lumber. The opportunity for British Columbia to supply that lumber will be offering. It must be remembered, however, that Canada is in competition with the rest of the world and must compete in the matter of price. There is no end of business to be done if we can offer the goods at the right price.

Colonel Dackerill has just returned from Japan after securing some large orders, but the orders go to Vancouver, New Westminster and Vancouver Island firms because they can produce these cheaper than in the North. It is difficult to say why, but it is done.

SMITHERS HAS DISCUSSION ON INCORPORATION

SMITHERS, Oct. 17.—Smithers had a field night on Thursday last when a largely attended meeting was held in the Hall to again consider the question of incorporation.

L. S. McGill, president of the Citizens' Association, outlined the provisions of the Village Act under which it was proposed to incorporate and strongly pressed for an affirmative vote to be immediately taken in order that incorporation could take effect at the beginning of the year 1922, in which event Smithers would acquire the taxes and other revenues for that year.

It was soon made apparent that whilst all were keenly alive to the importance of the matter under consideration, there were two distinct factions present, the one determined on immediate incorporation and the other equally determined that fuller and more definite information be furnished before the question was settled.

Urged Delay.

Speaking on behalf of the latter group, Rev. J. Evans urged that it was essential that a voter's list be prepared, since on a previous occasion commercial travellers and other non-residents had cast in votes on this question. He also emphasized the importance of obtaining definite assurance from the Government as to their contributions to the upkeep of roads etc., and stated that it was not a question of "for or against incorporation" but, whether the time for action had fully come. Mr. Evans then moved that a Committee of four consisting of two against, and two for, be appointed to further investigate the matter, procure fuller information and then report back to the Citizens' Association.

This was vigorously protested by Mr. McGill who claimed that many months had already been spent in investigation and the passing of the motion would mean the shelving of a settlement for another year.

Investigate Work.

A brisk game of battledore and shuttlecock was then indulged in by the local legal luminary and the fighting parson, during which the various pros and cons were passed back and forth to the keen delight of an audience all agog with interest and expectancy.

Eventually the motion to defer for further information was carried by a decided majority and the curtain fell.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

October 17, 1911.

The city council last night investigated the matter of the city purchasing agent. It transpired that although the city has a purchasing agent he is instructed to make no purchases until Ald. Hilditch has seen the requisition.

Last night the city council set the lowest wage on the Woodworth Lake waterworks construction at 37 1/2c per hour.

Olof Hansen has written to the city regarding some big trees near his residence which he fears may blow down.

Aunt Jemima's Helpful Hints

Aunt Jemima will answer any questions sent in by readers of The Daily News.

Mildred—Before you dream of marrying the fascinating, middle aged traveling man, get him to produce testimonials of docility and domestic virtues from his four divorced wives.

Dear Aunt Jemima—Grandpa came to live with us, promising to leave us his money if we would take care of him. But now he has subscribed to a matrimonial paper in Chicago, and writes to a young woman who wants him to send $250 for her fare here. What shall we do? Your loving friends, MR. and MRS. BLINK.

Answer—Write to the young woman, asking her if she can spare the loan of $300 for you to pay Grandpa's fare to Chicago, as he is broke. Perhaps she will change her mind.

Mr. and Mrs. Tinkle write as follows:—"May we call at The Daily News office after the paper is printed tomorrow, to get advice on what to do with some relatives who are on their way from Montreal to spend the winter with us? They are awful nuisances and fault-finders. There are several children. They are funny people, too. What shall we do?"

Aunt Jemima's advice is for you to close up the house when they come. Put up a big sign "Smallpox and diphtheria" on the door. Perhaps they will depart when they see it.

DANCES BANNED BY BOARD OF WELFARE AS BEING IMMORAL

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 15.—From this time on or until the superintendent of recreation changes his ruling, there will be no more one-steps in the dance halls of this city, and with it goes the toddle and shuffle. There remains for the light-footed section of the population, however, the barn dance, fox trot, two-step, schottische and waltz. R. B. Cook, the superintendent under the board of welfare, bans the three dances mentioned as being immoral.

REMARKABLE AND HUMILIATING WAS OTTAWA SPECTACLE

It is a remarkable and humiliating spectacle that has been witnessed at Ottawa, says the Toronto Globe. First the Government clung to office, abusing the mandate given in 1917 for war purposes, refused to appeal to the people and grew weaker and weaker as the result of overwhelming defeats in the by-elections. At last, on September 1, Mr. Meighen plucked up courage to announce that Parliament would be dissolved. Weeks passed without dissolution and without any indication of the probable date of the election. Then came a series of rumors that Parliament was just about to be dissolved; then the announcement that Parliament had actually been dissolved, but that the date had not been fixed.

Lacking Dignity. No reason can be assigned for these delays except the anxieties and perplexities connected with the distribution of patronage. As soon as it was known that there would be an election Ottawa swarmed with office-seekers, who, no doubt, realized that Mr. Meighen's power to distribute offices would be short, and who wanted to make their positions secure before their chances would be destroyed by defeat at the polls. It is probable that this scramble for office and shelter has given the Government far more trouble and anxiety than the problem of unemployment of thousands of workers. Personal ambitions, not public interests, have been paramount for the past month and more. The spectacle is sadly lacking in the dignity which might be some consolation for the expectation of defeat.

JINX PURSUES MOTORIST.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Oct. 14.—Joel Wasley, Fraser Valley farmer, believes in the jinx. Here is his record of hard luck for less than one week: Had his car stolen, returned with two spare tires gone; collided with truck next day; crashed into tree same night; gives stranger a ride and is held up on the road, robbed of documents and $220. Now he is in hospital with two broken ribs as the result of another mishap.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Backache
Backache is the outstanding symptom of kidney disease. Women often make the mistake of attributing other causes and overlook the derangement of the kidneys until serious developments have made it difficult to obtain permanent relief.
This letter points to a treatment which has been so thoroughly tried and proven to be effective in the great majority of cases that you cannot afford to overlook it when cause arises for its use.
Mrs. Albert Brunet, R.R. No. 1, Ottawa, Ont., writes:
"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the past two months, having been afflicted with kidney trouble. I used two doctors' medicine previous to this, without any good results. A friend told me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the second box made me feel a good deal better. I have now used about six or eight boxes, and am completely relieved."

The famous comedy Twin Beds is here tonight at the Westholme Theatre and is likely to prove as popular as did the original play.
In the story Signor Monti has been wasting his unusual tenor voice singing in a cheap cabaret. His discovery by a musical comedy producer raises him to stardom, and his wife to happiness.
In the same apartment building with the Monti family live Harry Hawkins and his innocent young wife, Blanche. At a party given by Hawkins, Signor Monti displays symptoms of violent infatuation for Mrs. Hawkins, arousing the jealousy of her husband and Signor Monti.
To escape contact with the Monti family Mr. Hawkins changes apartments, and accidentally, for a like purpose, the Signor and his wife move into the same building, in an apartment above.
Signor Monti, closely watched by the Signora, finds his only possible exit down the fire escape, and flees for an evening at the club.
Complications start when returning home in an extremely unsteady and befuddled condition he leaves the elevator on floor too low, and enters the Hawkins bedroom, with its twin beds in exact duplicate of his own.
Mrs. Hawkins has gone out. Mr. Hawkins is asleep in one bed and Signor Monti, with difficulty, attires himself for the night and goes to sleep in the other.
Complications Multiply.
Complications multiply upon the return of Signor Monti in the morning. Signor Monti, discovered by the horrified although innocent Mrs. Hawkins, is hidden in the laundry basket, when he makes several unsuccessful attempts to escape.
Maddened by jealousy Signora Monti has traced her husband's movements and is convinced that he is with a woman in the building, while Mr. Hawkins' suspicions are aroused by the discovery of a strange pair of men's shoes in the bedroom.
With the net closing in on Signor Monti and Mrs. Hawkins she makes a last desperate effort to remove him from her boudoir. They seem on the point of successfully eluding detection, when the Signora appears and identifies the strange shoes as belonging to her husband.

left the will in his coat pocket and went to town to attend to the funeral. He bought a new suit at the store. The merchant sells all discarded clothing to second hand dealers. MANSON MAKES ARRANGEMENTS

Fall Session of Legislature Opens Tomorrow Afternoon.
VICTORIA, Oct. 11.—Speaker Manson arrived from Prince Rupert and is putting the finishing touches to the arrangements for the opening. Several hundred invitations have been sent out to prominent men and women of the province to take seats on the floor of the legislative chamber, a social function which is looked forward to with great interest. The customary salute will be fired on the approach of the Lieutenant Governor to the buildings and the speech from the throne will be read in the ordinary manner.
One of the important matters to be dealt with at this session will be the financing of municipalities and concessions by the Provincial Government with a view to helping them out of their financial difficulties.
M. A. Macdonald's Position
Some interest centres around M. A. Macdonald, who must soon resign his position in order to accept the nomination for Burrard, which he has promised to do. It is expected he will sit throughout most of the session to look after the interests of his constituents.
The question of the Pacific Great Eastern is likely to come up on the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne, although it may possibly be relegated to a later date and be given a more prominent place. If not before, it is sure to be up for criticism when the expenditures are considered.
It is not expected this will be a long session.

FLAVELE AND THE RAILWAYS

Says Effort Was Made by Laurier to Avoid Duplication of Roads.

HAYS THOUGHT C.N.R. WAS NOT GOOD ENOUGH

TORONTO, Oct. 17.—In addressing the Board of Trade here on the railway situation, Sir Joseph Flavelle said that during the negotiations Sir Wilfrid Laurier brought William Mackenzie and Charles M. Hays together, the purpose of the meeting being the fusion of interests either by purchase or agreement between the G.T.P. and William Mackenzie's line, whereby the Western extension of the Grand Trunk road would absorb the Canadian Northern, or the then Mackenzie & Mann system, and continue through to the west as a single operating line.

Not Good Temper.
"I suppose," said Sir Joseph, "it may never occur again in Canada that two men will be in conference together in a matter so fateful in its results. Neither man was in a good temper to secure successful negotiation. Mr. Mackenzie was deeply angered at the proposal to build a road somewhat paralleling his own road through the west. Moreover I presume at the bottom he was troubled because of a plan (or a dream perhaps) which he had had that possibly some day he would acquire the Grand Trunk, which would be the eastern end of the Canadian Northern."

Mr. Hays had conceived the idea of a line which he wanted equal to the Pennsylvania in standard, and knowing the Mackenzie road had been cheaply built—which Sir Joseph thought was wise for what were after all colonization roads—he was not interested in the property, and felt that it did not adequately meet the standard which he desired.

Seriousness of Situation.
"They separated," said Sir Joseph, "because neither one would accept the terms of the other; and in that separation was involved the loss to the shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway. It involved the disappearance of this old line which for 60 years had been closely associated and identified with the development of this country; and it disappeared in a somewhat ignominious manner. It meant the loss to Mr. Mackenzie of control of a property which was to grow to him almost as dear as life itself; and it meant to this country the present railway problem, which makes this group of business men gather here today, and which will make many other groups of men to gather everywhere before we are through with it, because of the gravity and seriousness of the situation."

PRINCE GEORGE WENT IN DRYDOCK TODAY
The steamer Prince George was taken up on the pontoons at the Wallace Shipyards this morning to undergo annual repair. Painting and minor repairs to the hull will now be done.

Power Prediction.
He predicted the time when the province would have 3,000,000 of horsepower from Niagara, the St. Lawrence and other sources. This amount of horsepower, he pointed out, would be equivalent to fifty or sixty million tons of coal, which represented, at the present price of coal, a sum of $250,000,000 per annum, which would otherwise be spent in foreign countries for coal.

"That will be retained for the people. No exchange on that," said Sir Adam.

Sport Chat

In the world's series, Burns, the Giants' centre fielder led all the players in the world series for the number of hits made, his record being eleven. He played in all eight games. Rawlings, second baseman, came second with ten. Frisk and E. Meusel made nine each and Snyder made eight. Young and Kelly each made seven. These were all Giants and celtipse the Yankee players, the records of some of whom were: R. Meusel, Ward and Schanz; Miller, Peckinpaugh and Roth, 5 each. Baneroff led the run getters with five to his credit. Snyder and E. Meusel each made four while Frisch, Young, Kelly and Barnes each had three to their credit. For the Yankees, Miller, Ruth, R. Meusel, McNally and Fawcett each made three. Barnes, of the Giants made an especially good showing. He played in only three games but made four hits and three runs.

The Giants used thirteen players in the course of the series. They were as follows: Burns, 11; 8 games; Baneroff, ss, 8 games; Frisch, 3b, 8; Rawlings, 2b, 8; Snyder, c, 7; Douglas, p, 3; Smith, c, 3; Barnes, p, 3; Nehf, p, 3; Toney, p, 3.

The Yankees used nineteen men in the course of the struggle. They were: Miller, cf, 8; Peckinpaugh, 3b, 11, 6; R. Meusel, cf, 8; Pipp, 1b, 8; Ward, 2b, 8; McNally, 3b, 6; Schanz, c, 8; Mays, p, 3; Hoyt, p, 3; Shawkey, p, 2; Quinn, p, 1; Collins, p, 1; Rogers, p, 1; Baker, 3b, 4; Harper, p, 1; and Piercey, p, 1.

Frisch, third baseman, made two of the errors chalked up against the Giants' Baneroff shortstop, Nehf, pitcher, and Smith, catcher, made the other three, one each. The six errors made by the Yankees in the series were equally divided between Peckinpaugh, short stop; Ward, second baseman and McNally, third baseman, each having made two. Despite the fact that they did not come up to the Giants' in batting, it was due to errors in critical moments that lost the series.

FICKLENESS OF POLITICS

Quebec Was at One Time Conservative and Ontario Has Voted Liberal.

OTTAWA, Oct. 15.—(By Canadian Press).—In past years the present Liberal stronghold of Quebec gave Conservative majorities, and four times in its political history has discarded Liberalism for the beliefs of the opposite party. Commencing in 1867 Quebec returned 45 Conservatives as against 20 Liberals, but from then on, and with only one lapse, continued to elect more and more Liberals until at the present time any hope of a Conservative majority in the ancient province is regarded as entirely mythical. In the general elections of 1872, the second held in Canada, Quebec returned 38 Conservatives and 27 Liberals, but in 1878, the fourth general election, dropped back to figures of 1867. The fourth and last Conservative majority in Quebec was in 1882, when the government of the day succeeded in electing 48 candidates as against 17 Liberals. From then on the Liberals continued to produce majorities in Quebec until the climax of 1917, when the Unionist Government returned three members while the Liberals rolled up 62.

Ontario Lapses.
While Quebec was wayward to the extent of four terms of duty under the Conservative banner, Ontario joined the Liberal ranks on only two occasions. First in 1872 Ontario rolled up a Liberal group of 50 compared with 38 Conservative representatives, and for the second and last time in 1974 when the returns showed 41 Liberals and 21 Conservatives.

Both parties have come within one vote of splitting both provinces, but on only one occasion in each. In 1874 the Conservatives took 32 seats out of Quebec with the Liberals running one better with 33 seats. When the Liberals secured power in 1896 the Conservatives held Ontario with 44

British Columbia's Own Milk

Mrs. S. P. Crandall says that for a few cents spent on a tin of Pacific Milk one buys not only a delicious fresh cream flavor but a cake-making material which in all her experience has never once caused failure.

She says she is one who "encourages home industry" and that is something we all should do.

Mrs. C. adds that Pacific Milk is one B. C. product that she finds superior to anything put up in the East.

GRAFTING TO SPINE OF HOSPITAL PATIENT

DETROIT, Oct. 15.—Cutting a piece of bone seven inches long from the shin of their patient with an electric rotary saw, surgeons at a receiving hospital grafted it on the man's spinal column, which had been chiseled out to receive the spine, and in 16 minutes from the time he was brought into the operating room the patient was being carried to his cot by orderlies.

By this remarkable bone grafting, performed for tuberculosis of the spine, surgeons have given the patient, a man 32 years old, complete recovery to look forward to in the course of six months.

FACTION FIGHT GREEK CHURCH MURDER CHARGE

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Nicholas Varzakakos, wealthy fig importer and manufacturer, was carried dead from the St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church with skull fractured. Father Kirillo Vafradakis, pastor of the church, and Xanofori Reikkas, Superintendent, are being held in the Old Slip Police Station on a technical charge of homicide.

A dozen witnesses, detained by the police for questioning by Assistant District Attorney Denine, have sworn that Father Vafradakis struck Varzakakos with a heavy gold candlestick, while the victim's arms were held by Reikkas.

Result of Faction Fight.

The tragedy was enacted in the shadows of the skyscrapers of the financial district, and, according to the stories of excited worshippers, was the outcome of a factional fight which has been going on in the church since last week. Masses of the Greek Catholic Church was being celebrated. The collection had just been made under the direction of Varzakakos, whose generous donations had helped to keep the church prosperous.

The men swung to the altar with their baskets, laying them softly on the carpet of the sanctuary. Father Vafradakis in his long white vestments over his red cassock and point lace surplice laid down his book of the gospels and, surveying the congregation waited for the collectors to return to their seats.

Red Blood Flows.

Father Vafradakis said: "We will pray for the dead," and his deep, resonant voice rang through the church.

Varzakakos, leader of a faction, which for months has sought to oust Father Vafradakis from his pastorate, rose from his seat. "Not so fast. You are going too fast," he exclaimed.

"Mind your own business. Sit down," the priest ordered.

The heads of the congregation were lifted to view the scene. The bad blood of months boiled and men struck, and women screamed. Police whistles shrieked, and Patrolmen Willis rushed into the church. There he encountered a seething mob of fighting men and screaming women. He telephoned for the police and quieted them, and went to the front of the church.

Head Crushed In.

There, his wife bending over him, Varzakakos was lying sprawled in his seat, his head crushed. To the police the excited mob pointed out Father Vafradakis and Reikkas. A dozen witnesses were taken to the station with the prisoners, while the rest of the congregation were held in the church under heavy police guard for an hour until the Assistant Attorney and detectives of the homicide squad satisfied themselves of the story of the tragedy.

AGED 94, CHINAMAN GOING HOME TO DIE

VANCOUVER, Oct. 17.—Lee Jung, known as "the Father of Chinatown," is 94 years of age, nearly blind, and wishful to spend his last hours in his old village in China, so he is preparing to go home to die. He will be accompanied by his fourth wife and their two young sons. He is quite wealthy and was a conspicuous character in Vancouver's early days, when he went bail for scores of Chinese when they got into trouble.

NO LONGER MASTER

The airman was boasting about his calling. "At last," he said, "man has conquered his work. After conquering the land, mastering the sea, and harnessing the tides, he has conquered the air. We airmen represent the final achievement of mankind. "Who conquered the air?" retorted one of his hearers. "We have," repeated the airman, blandly. "Oh, have you?" rejoined the other. "Well, jump out of a window six stories high, and see who's boss!"—The Edinburgh Scotsman.
