Chairman Johnson of Liquor Control Board Says No Clubs to be Permitted to Sell Beer

VICTORIA, June 25.—In a statement yesterday defining the attitude of the Liquor Control Board towards the sale of beer in clubs, A. M. Johnson, K. C., chairman of the board, declared that no arrangement or agreement had been entered into by the board through which any club, soldiers' or otherwise, would be permitted to sell beer.

A request from the combined soldiers' clubs of Vancouver to be allowed to purchase beer from the government vendors and then distribute it to the members had been promptly refused, Mr. Johnson said. The board had repeatedly stated that the law would be enforced without fear or favor and from that position the board did not intend to recede.

MINERS SEEM TO BE IN MORE TRACTABLE MOOD AT THIS TIME

LONDON, June 25.—Failing to secure financial aid from the other unions of Great Britain, the coal miners, it is understood, are seeking another conference with the mine owners to obtain the best possible terms for a settlement. The miners will also ask the government to renew its offer of £10,000,000 subsidy which was made before the recent vote was taken.

LONDON, June 25.—(Later)—Both the striking coal miners and the owners today accepted the invitation of Premier Lloyd George to confer with him on Monday with a view to regarding another basis for settlement of the coal strike which has now been going on three months.

ATHENS, June 25.—Greece today declined the offer of Great Britain, France and Italy to mediate with the Turkish Nationalists and put an end to hostilities between them and the Greeks in Asia Minor. LONDON'S NEW TRAVEL MODE.

The sidecar taxi, which appeared along the Strand a few days ago, appears to promise a more comfortable and safer mode of transport because of its compactness, its ability to go through, around and under the elbows, so to speak, of traffic, and finally, because its rate is only eight pence, or sixteen cents, a mile.

FEDERATION OF LABOR DECIDES ABOUT WOMEN

DENVER, June 25.—The American Federation of Labor convention here has voted down the proposal to place women on equality in the trades' unions with men but has urged that no discrimination should be made against women workers. The proposal to abolish the color line was also voted down.

PREMIER SPEAKS CAMPBELL DEAL

VICTORIA, June 25.—Replying to the charge that the Provincial Liquor Board had paid an exorbitant amount for the Campbell warehouse in Vancouver, Premier Oliver stated today that, after weighing all the information, he had reached the conclusion that the price paid had been a fair one on the basis of the rental asked under the five year lease.

Lieut. Wilfrid Macdonald Passed Away This Morning In the General Hospital

Lieut. Wilfrid G. Macdonald, pioneer resident of this city, passed away peacefully at the General Hospital at 6 o'clock this morning, death being due to pulmonary embolus, following an operation which took place on Thursday morning.

The deceased, who had sustained bad wounds overseas, enabling the amputation of his left leg above the knee, had suffered intensely from the effects of his wound and especially during the last few months. The operation was of a serious character and it was known by the doctors last night that the patient's case was precarious. It was believed, however, that the danger point had passed and that he was gradually gaining strength, when suddenly a turn for the worse occurred and death came.

Immensely Popular. A general glow has been cast over the city by the passing away of Lieutenant Macdonald, who was one of Prince Rupert's best known citizens. He was immensely popular and esteemed by all who knew him. The deceased, together with his mother and brothers and sisters, lived in Prince Rupert for a number of years, and he took an active part in the business and social life of the community.

Going overseas at the beginning of the war, with the first Prince Rupert contingent, under Col. C. W. Peck, V. C., Lieut. Macdonald together with the majority of the contingent joined the 16th Canadian Scottish that helped so gallantly to uphold the honor of Canada in the Great War.

Wounded on the Somme in '16, recovering and going into the trenches again on the Arras front the succeeding spring, he received the terrible wound that ultimately cost him his life.

Started Business. Since returning to Prince Rupert nearly two years ago, despite the heavy handicap he was suffering, Lieut. Macdonald immediately started in business. He was instrumental in forming a returned soldiers' fishing company under name of the Neville, Macdonald & Rorvick Fish Co. This undertaking is just getting on its feet and beginning to prosper.

Lieut. Macdonald was born in Georgetown, Prince Edward Island, thirty-seven years ago. He was the second son of the late J. B. Macdonald who was a prominent business man of Prince Edward Island. The family is well known in Eastern Canada. Coming west about ten years ago, the deceased with his brothers George and Ray settled in Prince Rupert. Later they were joined by their mother and two sisters, one of whom is the wife of Leo Waugh, local manager of the G. T. P. telegraph service, and the other recovering and going into the trenches again on the Arras front the succeeding spring, he received the terrible wound that ultimately cost him his life.

Just Back From East. It is only four days since Lieut. Macdonald returned from Edmonton where he had been on a visit to his brother. The greatest sympathy is expressed by the entire community to the bereaved family in the sudden and terrible loss they have sustained. Funeral arrangements are in charge of the B. C. Undertakers and the Great War Veterans' Association. A military burial will be held.

Further floral tributes at the funeral of the late E. A. Gerster yesterday included pieces from Mr. and Mrs. J. Gawthorne, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pederson and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Metz.

Pilot of Steamer Prince Rupert Was Given no Chance, says Judge Morrison.

Wilfrid Macdonald's
Death a Terrible Shock.

The news of the death of Lieut. Wilfrid Macdonald in the General Hospital last night comes as a terrible shock to the whole community, a shock that has not been experienced since the days of the war. Wilfrid Macdonald was so highly popular and such a good friend to so many people that his death puts a veritable pall of gloom over the whole city. Although the people of Prince Rupert were deeply affected when their men were killed in France it is doubtful if any previous death was felt like this one. To have this gallant officer come home from the front, after years of service, and enter again into his old associations here only to be cut off two years after his return makes the shock even more severe. The deepest sympathy of the whole community will go out to the bereaved mother and the brothers and sisters of Prince Rupert's latest boy to pay the supreme sacrifice.

Signs of Peace in Asia Minor.

There are signs of peace between the Turkish Nationalists and the Greeks who are at present waging war on each other in Asia Minor. The Greeks seem to be in favor of accepting the offer of mediation by Great Britain, France and Italy. Their withdrawal of a division from the Ismid front yesterday bears this out. Neither side has much to gain by this warfare, anyway, and with the settled powers, the greatest in Europe today, taking neutral attitudes there is little encouragement for hostilities to continue. If one side withdraws then the differences will have to be mediated by the outside nations and the powers now offering to arbitrate will, doubtless, see that fairness is dealt to the two contending factions.

Coal Miners Fail To Get Support.

Present indications are that there will be no general strike in Great Britain. While the coal miners still remain resolute in their stand, other branches of labor in the Old Country are returning to work. The conference of unions seems to be irresolute about supporting the miners by precipitating a general strike. It is hard to tell how long the miners will continue to stand out arbitrarily but if they fail to get the support of other labor unions it will weaken their case. But as long as the coal strike continues, the backbone of British industry is crippled. Each day it continues the more seriously is the very heart of industry in the Old Country being affected.

Interior Is Coming Into Its Own.

Every day sees new indications that at no very far distant date, the valleys of the central interior of the province are to come into their own and become second to none in the province in agricultural importance. Indeed, the interior country is fast becoming settled and land near the railway is becoming very valuable. Land seekers are now beginning to go further afield and it is likely that agricultural areas many miles from the railway will also commence to fill up. The next year or so will probably see more land taken up in the interior valleys tributary to Prince Rupert than all that which is at present settled and that is saying a good deal. To the prospective settler of small means this is practically the only part of the province that is still open.

Is Lloyd George
Going to Unload?

Some observers think that Lloyd George "is riding for a fall" that he intends, by getting defeated, to unload upon his opponents the job of doing a large number of unpopular things which the government will have to do before Britain is brought back to normal. That may or may not be his purpose, though the program may work out that way. Politically Britain appears to have more knots to untie than any other country on earth, and whoever does the unloading is bound to make many enemies. It would surely be a bitter kind of revenge if the little Welshman made his critics the heirs to such an inheritance. Lloyd George, however, has never seemed to be a man who thought that the best way to get even was to let the other fellow win an election. He may be a good quitter but he will have to prove it before it is believed.

BADE FAREWELL TO RETIRING PASTOR

Rev. W. H. Gibson, Leaving Bella Coola for Koksilah Recipient of Gifts.

BELLA COOLA, June 25.—Rev. W. H. Gibson, Koksilah, B. C., was tendered a farewell by the residents of Bella Coola. After fourteen years' work as Methodist minister to the white people and the Indians, great regret was expressed at his departure. Mr. Rounger, Indian agent, spoke eloquently of Mr. Gibson's interest in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the community and of his efforts to further justice in his office as stipendiary magistrate.

Mr. Gibson was then presented with a purse and an address signed practically by all the local residents. The Ladies' Aid presented Mrs. Gibson with a jewel case and the Sunshine club with an embroidered cushion.

IMPERIAL OIL WILL DRILL AT COALSPUR

Drill Which Has Been in Operation at Czar For Some Time To Be Moved.

EDMONTON, June 25.—It is reported that the Imperial Oil Company intends to conduct drilling operations in the prospective oil fields west of Edmonton and that the drill which for the past few months has been in operation at Czar has been transferred to a site in the Coal-spur region.

According to information, it is the intention of the Imperial Oil Company to carry on work with the same persistence as characterized the 'Czar' district.

A gang of men will be sent to the Coalspur district and operations will be commenced at an early date in order to determine the value of that region. Many claims have been recorded in this district and prospectors are looking forward to the development with a great deal of interest.

BABINE BONANZA
IS VERY GOOD MINE

James Cronin Has Returned to Smithers for Season.

SMITHERS, June 25.—James Cronin, of the Babine Bonanza property in the Babines, arrived in the city last Wednesday night right from his home in Spokane where he has spent the winter. Everything is in readiness to start work again on his property immediately.

The mine never looked better than it did at the shutting down last fall. The big tunnel which had been run in has tapped an immense body of ore though it is not the main body in the opinion of Mr. Cronin. When this main body is encountered, it will assure the property being ranked among the greatest mines in the North.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

June 25, 1911.

The first definite step to form an athletic club in the city was made last night, when a number of young men met in the old Presbyterian church and discussed the drawing up of a programme of games and practice. The officers of the new club are: Hon. President, F. H. Mobley; president, George Tite; secretary-treasurers, T. Arneil; executive committee, C. T. Heward, J. MacLeod, T. McMeekin, and Rev. F. W. Kerr.

City Engineer Davis, has declared the lifetime of the present section one grading will be more than fifty years.

The city council last evening declined to accept the resignations of Aldermen Hilditch and Newton, a motion being moved by Alderman Smith, and seconded by Alderman Kerr that the resignations be received and laid on the table and that a letter be sent to the aldermen stating that they could not accept them, thus taking the responsibility of incurring another election to test the wishes of the citizens.

Many people read newspapers as much for their advertising columns as they do for news.

HOW DEMPSEY BEAT WILLARD

Champion Fell Down So Many Times Referee Got Dizzy.

Jack Dempsey played the accompaniment to Jess Willard's swan song on July 1, 1919, at Toledo, Ohio. It was all over in the third round. Jess got $100,000 for the performance, many times the amount Garuso earns in a whole opera. Dempsey got $27,000.

The champion fell down and got up so many times in the first round that the referee became dizzy from counting, and failed to hear the bell. This was on the fifth lissan between Willard and the floor.

The gong sounded feebly on the seventh count, but Referee Percord continued chopping the air over Willard. When he had finished he informed Dempsey that there had been a knock-out and the champion left the ring, only to have his manager come running after him with the information that there had been a mistake.

That first round was awful. But it prepared everybody for the worst and no one was surprised when Willard lost in the third round.

DEMPSEY HAS GRIT AND KNOWS BOXING

Shown This in Fight With Billie Miske Last Labor Day.

Jack Dempsey defended his title for the first time last Labor Day against Billie Miske. He was the same terrific mauler that put Willard aside. His punches seemed to have almost superhuman force behind them and Miske lasted less than three rounds.

The challenger had grit aplenty and he knew how to box. He landed direct wallops against the champion frequently and his quick footwork eluded several punches. Although forced to be inactive for a year under the care of surgeons, Miske showed himself a much better scrapper than when he appeared on the eye of the Dempsey-Willard match and fought Battling Levinsky.

But he was no match for the Giant Killer. Dempsey disabled him in the second round with a vicious blow over the stomach and just below the heart. In the third round he knocked him down three times before Miske was forced to quit.

The first time he was felled he stayed down for the count of nine and he was smiling when he regained his feet. The attack that finished the fight consisted of a hammer blow to the stomach followed by a right to the chin.

RUSSIANS AND TURKS FRIENDS

Great Amicability Being Developed Between Two Former Enemies.

RIGA, Latvia, June 25.—Recent arrivals from Moscow declare that the world little realizes how closely Soviet Russia is pushing its friendship with the Near East.

In Moscow now the Turkish legation occupies one of the most sumptuous of the old palaces and the personnel, garbed in faultless European clothes present a strange contrast to the poorly clothed Muscovites. The Afghans and other Near Eastern delegations also occupy luxurious quarters, give elaborate banquets and otherwise carry on with all the pomp of the old Eastern courts.

Members of Lenin's government are frequently guests at these affairs and entertain the legation personnel equally lavishly in return.

Besides this, Lenin has so accommodated himself to the psychology of the East that he now exchanges presents with the rulers of Turkey and Persia, as did the rulers of ancient days.

Visit to Persia.

A Moscow dispatch today reads like a paragraph from what might have been an ancient tablet of hieroglyphics describing the visit of a Babylonian to King Cyrus of Persia. "It says: 'The representative of the Soviet government has made his first official visit to the Shah of Persia, presenting to the Shah on a golden salver an album with photographs of Soviet leaders, of the whole of Russia as a personal present to the Shah from Lenin.'

A man who recently arrived from Moscow said: 'Few persons realize what a close connection now exists between Russia and its old enemy, Turkey, and for that matter all of the Near East. Lenin is accomplishing here what the old Russian government could not do by playing up to Eastern psychology.'

The so-called Bolshevism in these Eastern countries is nothing at all like the Bolshevism of Moscow but in each case the Russian agitators have a distinct brand of propaganda designated to dovetail with ancient customs of the country in question. For instance, in regions where the trade in bazaars is a century old custom, no agitation against free trade has been made."

SMITHERS

At the meeting of the Smithers local of the Northern Interior Co-operative association held Tuesday, Mr. Robert May, of Moricetown, was appointed delegate to attend the general meeting to be held next Tuesday at Houston.

At the Hospital in Smithers, on Tuesday, June 16, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Pauls.

George Wall's quartette of ball tossers continued their winning streak at the polo grounds last Sunday, and in a well played contest humbled the Telkwa boys by a score of 14 to 6.

NEW LOCATIONS SCHOOL CLASSES

Resumption After Holidays Will See Students and Teachers in Different Places.

The reopening of the city schools after the summer holidays will see a good many changes in the location of the various staffs and classes. The completion of the new Hays Cove school, which will be opened in September, will bring these changes about.

The Borden Street School which has been used partially for the High School since its erection some years ago, will in the future be devoted entirely to public school classes. Various divisions, which have been established in temporary locations, which have been established in about the city, will be all gathered together in either the Borden Street School or the Hays Cove Circle School. There will be five schools in the city after these changes take place; the Hays Cove, King Edward, Borden Street, Seal Cove and Section Two schools.

Moving Equipment
There will be a good deal of work involved in making preparation for the resumption of the classes in their new locations. Principal Brady, of the High School, intends to remain in the city for at least a month the holidays to see that all the equipment in the High School is properly set up and ready for the next term in its new location at the King Edward school.

The High School will take up at least half of the King Edward school as there will be four teachers on the staff when it opens. The new commercial classes, for which a new teacher is to be added to the staff will start in September. The work of this course will take several years and when the students have finished the curriculum they will be prepared to enter into business life as trained stenographers, bookkeepers, etc. There will be an attendance of at least 100 pupils at the High School after the holidays, it is expected.

ROME GETTING COMMERCIAL

Romance and Antiquity of Ancient City Disappears.

ROME, June 25.—Slowly the god of commerce is grinding away a little at a time the romance and antiquity of this cradle of civilization.

The Corso, from the time of Roman emperors the busiest thoroughfare of the city, is losing its ancient character. The four huge triumphal arches which once spanned the street, were destroyed centuries ago. Palaces and churches were left but the palaces are falling before the irresistible demands of commerce.

Two huge old palaces occupying a site half-way up the Corso have already gone down before the commercial onslaught. In their places have been reared two big, gaudy structures to be occupied by banks, which stand out in bold contrast to the quiet coloring of the ancient gems of architecture.

Alterations Made.
When the palaces are not torn down, they are modified in such a way, that the interior decoration, some of which has stood the test of centuries, is effaced and sometimes plastered. Numerous alterations are made to suit the necessities of business.

In the quarter where the church of St. John Lateran is located, a new amusement company has taken possession of a large square of vacant ground and has erected carousels, roller-coasters, ferris-wheels and side shows. The romance and beauty of the spot has vanished.

WILLARD SALTS MONEY DOWN

Back in Circus Unworried About What Future Holds.

After Jess Willard won the heavyweight championship of the world he became a circus performer.

In an off-season for circuses in 1916, he fought ten rounds with Frank Moran at Madison Square Garden and won a popular decision. Moran, following his defeat by Johnson had triumphed over Jim Coffey, another aspirant for the championship, and was considered eligible for a crack at the title holder.

He was no match for the Kansan giant, who outweighed him almost 60 pounds. Willard allowed the challenger to do the leading but Moran could not inject sufficient punitive power in his blows to even leave a scratch upon his big opponent.

In a manner of speaking, Willard whipped Moran with one hand, and in a literal manner too, the forefinger of his right hand was broken in the third round in a collision with Moran's elbow and after that only the left fist was of much use to him. With that alone—he could not knock out his opponent, so the last round ended just as Pollyanna would have wished. No one had been hurt and both men were a great deal wealthier than before they met.

Willard salted away the $17,500 which came to him from the purse and went back to the circus unworried by what the future had in store.

SONS OF CANADA DEFEAT CALLIES

Now Enter Finals for Dominion Day Cup on Friday.

With the expectations of seeing another good game the record crowd of the season turned out last night to see the Gallies and Sons of Canada replay their Dominion Day Cup tie game off. They were a little disappointed perhaps as the play never touched a high standard, even the Sons forward line not displaying the skill of the previous game. Taken as a whole, however, the Sons certainly deserved their victory, by 3 goals to 2.

The teams lined up as follows:

S.O.C.—Thompson; V. Menzies and H. Menzies; Anderson, Shakespeare and Mitchell; Smith, Robinson, Swan Clarke and Lane. Gallies—Hutton, Stewart and Martin; Hay, Kinghorn and Abbott; J. M. Campbell, C. Campbell, Marks, Sellars and Black.

The Gallies won the toss and the Sons set the ball rolling towards the lower goal. After some mid-field play, Mark missed a great opportunity when H. Menzies completely missed his kick close to goal, luck more than good guidance saving the Son's goal. After this let off, the Sons brought pressure to bear on the Gallies' defense and rather unexpectedly, Robinson scored the first goal for them through slowness in the defense. At this period the Sons were having the bulk of the play, and it was not long before Swan, with a long oblique shot found the rigging for the second goal. The Gallies now had an innings, and after a well taken corner by J. M. Campbell had been cleared, J. Campbell struck the inside of the upright with Thompson looking on, but the ball travelled across the goal and was ultimately cleared. Shakespeare at this point was keeping his forwards going well and his height certainly foiled the Gallies attack time and again. Play was now more even, both sides having a spell of attacking, but the Sons always showed more method in their work. Swan fouled weakly with a nice cross from the left, misjudging his position and sending the ball wide. The Gallies then forced a couple of corners but to no effect, height favoring the Sons defense in both instances. Half time arrived with the Sons leading by 2 goals to 0.

Second Half.

The Gallies showed some alteration on resumption. Hay taking up the centre position, with J. M. Campbell going left half. The Sons were the first to attack, Swan forcing a corner off Martin, but Abbott cleared the kick and J. Campbell missed a glorious chance of making progress by letting the ball get out of play. At the Gallie end both Robinson and Swan made creditable efforts to score, but the Gallie defense was stiffening a little by this time, with Kinghorn playing at his best. A fine clearance by Abbott let the Gallie forwards away again; the Sons goalie clearing a shot that came from the left field, but shortly afterwards, Mark, getting one of few opportunities, drove in a hard shot which Thompson failed to stop, giving the Gallies their first point. Right from the centre kick the Sons attacked and Martin, completely missing his kick, gave Swan a great chance, but driving too hard ahead, he lost control of the ball and Hutton came out and cleared his lines. From the clearance, Hay gave the ball and working down nicely, he was unfortunate in putting the ball too far ahead so that it went past. Abbott got possession from the bye kick and drove the ball in hard to Hay who in turn gave it to Sellars, but although nicely placed, he drove high over the bar. Robinson had hard luck at the other end after a bad blunder by the backs. He made amends a little later when he drove a long high shot into goal which Hutton misjudged and Swan, ever watchful for such a chance, landed the ball in the net, and the game now seemed as well as won. The Gallies were still fighting, however, and forced a couple of corners and during the scrimmage that ensued scored the second one. Mitchell gave a saving opportunity; Kinghorn made no mistake with the kick, catching Thompson on the wrong guess. The Sons again made progress towards Hutton but Stewart cleared his lines; Abbott, through a foul lost a good opportunity for his side. With the Sons again attacking the game came to a finish with the Canadians winning by 3 goals to 2.

How They Played.

For the winners Thompson was not too secure in goal while the Menzies brothers, after a poor opening played a good steady game. Shakespeare was again a tower of strength and shows steady improvement in

ALL STARS WERE HERE

There was a bonnie gathering of hardy Scots at the wharf this morning to meet the Prince George and greet the famous Scottish professional footballers who passed through Prince Rupert en route to Edmonton, enflaming their tour of Canada and the United States. They are a draw lot of boys, brown and hard as nails with no superfluous flesh despite the banqueting and entertaining they are being subjected to in the course of their triumphal tour through the country.

President S. D. Macdonald of the St. Andrew's Society, and "Doc" Clapperton, together with a number of members of the society, were right at the gang plank to grasp the hand of the gallant Colonel J. B. Wilson, the manager of the team. The Colonel is one of the best known football promoters in the British Isles, having founded and played with the famous Scottish Turf Linnock team. The Scots were provided with automobiles by the St. Andrew's Society and taken for a hurried sight seeing tour round the town before getting on the train for the east. They had a very pleasant time on the voyage up the coast and expressed themselves as beyond delighted at everything they saw and at the good time they were having.

Sport Chat

Georges Carpentier, contender for the world's heavyweight title to the French people, is the "Man of Destiny." So sure do they doubt the ability of the man, decorated for bravery during the World War, to defeat Jack Dempsey on July 2, that they doubted the ability of the Allied armies finally to overcome Germany. They have followed the steady rise of the young pugilist from the days, when as a middleweight, he first gained national fame. They have studied accounts of his history before that time, and they think Dempsey will be unable to foil this national hero, just as German machine guns which are said to have riddled his plane repeatedly, were unable to bring him down.

Carpentier will be smaller in several respects than any boxer who has ever fought for the heavyweight title in recent years. He will be smaller than Dempsey in all save two important measurements. His advantage will be in his wonderfully developed lower limbs and his neck. The Frenchman's all measurement is 14 3/4 inches as compared with Dempsey's 15 1/2 inches. Carpentier's waist measures 16 3/4 inches while Dempsey's one-quarter inch smaller. Dempsey will out weigh Carpentier by about 20 pounds. He will outreach his rival by one-inch, 7 1/2 inches in 72. In wrist and angle development they are nearly equal, only a fraction of an inch giving Dempsey the advantage in each case. Dempsey's hips measure 15 1/4 inches as compared with Carpentier's 14 1/2. Carpentier's back muscles, however, are a magnificent part of his development and from these he will draw most of his hitting power.

With the defeat of the Sons of England and the Gallies the representative of the English and Scotch in the Dominion Day Cup football ties have been knocked out in the first round. That the two traditional exponents of the soccer game should be both eliminated so soon is a coincidence. Now the rivalry for the series centres between the Sons of Canada and the Great War Veterans who will next Friday play in the finals. The contest will be a keen one for the Dominion Day Cup is quite a coveted trophy. The Vets are already on the job and this afternoon are having a practice. They have made up their minds that as far as they are concerned, the Sons are not going to have a clean sweep of all the athletic honors in the city.

RETAINS HER TITLE AS GOLF CHAMPION.

Miss Cecil Leigh retained her title as champion golfer of Great Britain when she defeated Miss Joyce Wethered, runner up, in the British ladies' open golf tournament at Turnberry, Scotland. She had an easy match, leading her opponents by 7 up at the end of the first half of the contest.

playing. Anderson and Mitchell played well, but the latter would do well to control his lands as he is liable to bring disaster to his team with his recklessness. Swan, Robinson, Clark and Lane all played well forward but Smith was rather weak.

The Gallie defense lacked understanding and speed, although Stewart played well in the second half, but would have been of more value at half-back. Like the opposing centre-half Kinghorn was the shining light of the team and displayed enormous energy and it was certainly through no fault of his that the Scots lost. Hay and Abbott were both fair but the forwards, as in the last game, never combined.

R. Meerer again refereed a good game, with A. Clapperton and M. M. Lamb on the line.

DEMPSEY HAS INDIAN BLOOD

Champion Says He is Irish, Scotch and Indian, Which Makes Good Fighter.

NEW YORK, June 25.—William Harrison Dempsey the name by which the world's heavyweight champion was christened, was born 26 years ago in Manassa, Colo. The prefix "Jack" was assumed by the big fellow when he had grown to man's estate, and had chosen the fistie ring for a livelihood. As a fighter he had the idea and a good one, that by assuming the Christian name of "Jack" some of the glories of not the wonderful boxing science which the original Jack Dempsey, Brooklyn's famous "Nonpareil," possessed as the middle-weight title holder might revert to him.

The champion is the sixth child of a family of eight. Three of his brothers and three sisters are alive but the youngest of the eight, who was named Bruce, died about two years ago. When Dempsey was seven years old his parents, Biran and Celia Dempsey, with all their children moved from Manassa to Montrose, Colo., where they lived for nine years. Then the Dempsey household was shifted to Salt Lake City, Utah, and that is the place which they, including the champion, claim as their home.

Born of rugged parents Dempsey claims that he has Irish, Scotch and Indian blood in his veins and insists that the fighting qualities for which all three of these races are famous have been bred in the bone and blood and have come to him in generous portions from his antecedents.

Most of Dempsey's early life was spent in the open on a farm, but later he alternated by working in the mines except in harvest time when he found it more remunerative to devote his strength to reaping wheat and other crops in the grain belt. In his way Dempsey kept himself in fine physical condition, the hard labor developing the wonderful muscles which proved to be such a useful factor in his winning the world's heavyweight championship title.

Little Early Training. Unlike his challenger, Carpentier, Dempsey had very little early training for a career in the fighting arena, while the French champion was a close student of the glove game and an actual competitor when he entered his " teens."

According to Dempsey's own story his first fistie encounter was in an improvised ring at Montrose, Col., when he was about 19 years old. His opponent was a young blacksmith named Woods, whom he knocked out in the third round. This initial contest netted the new champion $25. His next fight also resulted in a third round knockout, Andy Malloy, who had previously walloped one of Dempsey's older brothers, being the victim.

Farmer and Miner. When he was 20 years old Dempsey began roving around, taking on a bout whenever the opportunity offered, while between times he returned to odd farming jobs or worked as a miner. His first Eastern experience in the fighting arena was in New York City where he met Andre Anderson, Wild Burt Kenney and Lester Johnson, a negro in ten round no decision bouts. This was in 1916. During the following year Dempsey knocked out Al Norton and Charley Miller, each in one round. Later he won from Willie Meehan, Carl Morris, Bob McAllister and Gumbont Smith in four round bouts in California and was knocked out in one round by Jim Flynn, the "Pueblo Fireman." In the following year Dempsey reversed this by knocking Flynn out in a single round and followed up with a series of knockouts, among his victims being Fred Fulton, Balthus Levinosky, Porky Flynn, Arthur Pelkey and Terry Kellar. Dempsey's banner year was 1919 when after scoring five knockouts of one round each in Pennsylvania and Connecticut, he won the title by stopping the big Kansas Jess Willard at Toledo, Ohio, on Independence Day two years ago.

AMERICAN WINS BIG GOLF TITLE

ST. ANDREW'S, Scotland, June 25.—Jack Hutchinson, of Chicago, today won the British open golf championship here by defeating Roger Wethered, the Oxford amateur, by nine strokes.

WHAT FIGHTERS ARE DOING NOW

ATLANTIC CITY, June 24.—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, today resumed training after a 24 hour lay-off to celebrate his twenty-sixth birthday. He will box today and tomorrow and on Monday will spend another day in idleness. His weight today is 192 pounds and he will probably scale under 190 when he enters the ring on July 2.

MANHASSETT, June 25.—There is a widespread belief here that Georges Carpentier, contender for the world's title, will attain his life long ambition for the belt when he meets Jack Dempsey a week from today. Supporters think he will make Dempsey dizzy with his speed and will then knock him over for the count in about the fifth or sixth round.
