Combines Keep Up Prices of Coal

PROSPECT OF SETTLEMENT IN MARINE STRIKE ON BASIS OF LOWER WAGE

Coal Commission Finds the Cost Excessively High Caused by Illegal Dealers' Combines

VICTORIA, May 7.—Prices paid for coal by the consumers British Columbia are "excessively high" and combines which keep up these prices should be dissolved and the offenders prosecuted. These are findings of the coal commission which has been investigating the coal trade under the provincial government and the minister of mines.

"The evidence shows very clearly there is a combine among many dealers in Vancouver to fix the price of coal," says Alexander K. C., chief commissioner, in his report to Mr. Sloan. It states the evidence conclusively shows that the dealers frequently deliver short weight to the consumer.

PATTULLO AND MANSION SPEAK TO THE BOARD

Discuss a Number of Subjects at Meeting Last Night in Council Chamber.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Trade held last night at the City Hall, President Pattullo was in the chair. Hon. T. D. Shill, who was present, was asked to speak. He expressed appreciation of the work the board was doing and mentioned the useful influence of such an institution on the social as well as the business life of the community.

Mr. Pattullo said the Board of Trade was the first non-political institution to be formed in the city and had carried out much of the work in the public interest, discussing the present situation. Mr. Pattullo said there was no reason to feel discouraged so far as affairs were concerned, compared with other parts of the country things were most favorable. Along the line between the George and here great improvements were going on.

Viruses of North.

"Why should people come to Prince Rupert? Because the people here are infected with the viruses of the north. They are worth meeting. I am more certain today of the future of the city than ever I was in the past. I have always been an optimist," said the minister. "Not only are the lands of the interior being built up, with this city as the natural outlet, but manufactures will grow up. This is the tunnel through which people will come and go. It is the natural outlet."

Mr. Pattullo spoke of the setbacks the city had received, partly from causes which could not be controlled and partly from the negligence of officers. The city did not have the co-operation it should. If there was cause to be blue it was not on account of local conditions, but on account of world conditions, which at present were rather alarming.

Road to Interior.

Discussing the possibility of a road to the interior, Mr. Pattullo said he saw no reason why the work should not be commenced this year. A delegation of the board had called on him and discussed the possibilities. He had asked that the city pass a resolution pledging themselves to put the road by-law before the people in the event of the province building this year, so that the provincial road would connect up with the city. If the work was done it would be with a grant from the sum set aside for trunk roads under the Highway Act. This would be part of a trunk road to the interior. Bonds would have to be sold to provide the funds for this work. If the city passed the resolution it would help him to get the appropriation.

The minister spoke of the power and pulp proposals now before them and urged that they be sympathetic toward new industries. They wanted capital to develop industries here and to get it they must give hearty cooperation. He believed the city needed plenty of power as a first requisite. He had urged the pulp concern to go into the power producing business with a view to selling part of their product to the city.

Mr. Speaker Speaks.

Hon. Speaker Manson gave a short but interesting address in which he mentioned the necessity of fighting for what they wanted. The province was in the raw and the north was too far away to always get its due. He urged that they cultivate the same spirit that made Seattle. That city was built on the spirit of optimism which prevailed among the people. He thought they might copy the method.

Mr. Manson then spoke of the development of the interior, especially at Francois Lake and other points where settlers had been going in very fast. If the district filled up, it would provide tonnage for the railway and the resources of the country would be developed. He strongly urged a trip to the interior and advised the board to drive through the country, getting away from the railway. Central B. C. was a most desirable country and they should concentrate on settling it.

Mr. Manson said he was optimistic in regard to this part of the country because some day the powers would be sympathetic both to the district, the railway and the provincial government.

Manitoba Gets Through First Session Without Defeat by Varied Groups

WINNIPEG, May 7.—The parliamentary group system and government by a minority is on trial in Manitoba. Contrary to principles of British constitutional government which are generally accepted, the Norris administration for nine months has conducted the affairs of the province without a majority in the legislature, and has just emerged undefeated from a session which lasted almost three months. In a house of 55 members the government controlled 21 votes definitely, but in the scores of divisions which took place a scattered support was received from members or opposition groups which prevented the crisis which was so often predicted. Only one government measure was defeated and as that was in committee it was not held to show such want of confidence as to involve the government's resignation.

Time after time the opposition groups marshalled their forces in an attempt to defeat the government, but only on one occasion did they succeed in having a government measure rejected. After strenuously opposing a bill for establishment of preferential voting in single member constituencies where more than two candidates were in the field, the opposition secured a division on second reading which resulted in a tie vote. The Speaker cast his vote with the government and the bill went to committee. Opposition members succeeded in "killing" it there.

May be Election

Political leaders are discussing the prospects of a provincial election before the legislature meets again. Opposition members feel certain that a general election will take place during the summer. Throughout the session Premier T. C. Norris was non-committal. His answer to queries always was, "An election during the recess depends entirely upon the legis-

DAILY EDITION. Saturday, May 7, 1921.

The Fellowship Of Religion.

The chief function of the Christian religion is to bind men not only to God but also to one another in Christian fellowship. Theology is not religion. Religion is the life of God in the souls of men.

St. Paul exhorts the leaders of the Church to hold the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience. Nothing can be religiously right which is morally wrong. Men have in the past wrangled and fought like demons over some doctrine of theology.

Denominational Cleavage.

In most every town and village is to be found a social cleavage caused by denominational differences. The Christian religion because of these denominational differences is failing to fulfill its chief function. It is not binding together in brotherly love all members, all classes, and all races in the community.

Some people are accustomed to a liturgical service, others are not. Some like what is simple, others what is ornate. Some use one kind of religious symbol, others prefer another kind. Some choose immersion, others sprinkling. To exalt the type of service, the kind of symbol, the amount of water above the spirit of Christian fellowship is to deny the teaching of Christ.

Unifying Spirit In Social Contact.

Social contact is the great solvent for religious prejudice. When men get together for common worship and common work in a great cause the unity underlying the variety is soon recognized, and this unity is nothing less than the life of God in the souls of men. This is religion. The pride of denominationalism divides. The Spirit of Christ unites.

F. H. DU VERNET, Archbishop of Caledonia.

General Publicity For the City.

The question of publicity for Prince Rupert and district is discussed from time to time and last night it was decided by the Board of Trade to have local views hung in B. C. House in London, the absence of these having been noted by local callers there. In connection with this, local residents can do more than any public organization. The general distribution of picture post cards of the city is one good method of securing publicity and this should be encouraged.

TORTURED BY TERRIBLE ECZEMA

Suffered Three Years Until She Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

DAME PETER LAMARRE

Pointe St. Pierre, P. Q. "I think it my duty to tell you how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good.

Then, I used one box of 'Sootha-Salva' and two boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return. I think it is a marvellous cure because no other medicine did me any good and I tried all the remedies I ever heard of, without benefit until I used 'Sootha-Salva' and 'Fruit-a-tives'.

'Fruit-a-tives' cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Sootha-Salva' completed the cure."

At the meeting at which the regulations were drawn up, Manager Glazen of the Criterion cabaret appeared before the commission, and the regulations accepted are along the lines of his recommendations.

The Man in the Moon SAYS--

AMONG the things that don't seem to get you anywhere is paying income tax. Refusing to pay is likely to get you to jail.

ANOTHER thing that does not get you very far is reading the Man in the Moon column.

IT rather takes the cream off the generosity of the Dominion Government when the court of appeal says they have to pay the creditors for material and plant and pay rent for the plant, the whole amounting to about enough to give the creditors one hundred per cent on their accounts.

IT would have looked better if the aforesaid D. G. had given the poor Rupert creditors the benefit of the doubt at first and not spent a lot of money fighting them and trying to put them in a place where they would be forced to accept generosity.

COLONEL Winsby thinks "bone dry" is a fallacy. Possibly he meant "relative quantity."

I do not know much about bones, but I must admit if they are anywhere near being dry they are not like the conditions that have been obtaining in Prince Rupert.

OCCASIONALLY a man is dry, but that is usually the morning after.

THE only dry thing around here is the humor.

Inspector Reviews Fishing Industry and Tells of Its Gradual Growth in District

The run of spring salmon to the Skeena River during April was most satisfactory and compared very favorably with that of last season, Inspector Williams of the Fisheries Department states. The gill net fishermen made good money; some secured as high as one ton for the 24 hours but the average was half a ton for the same time.

The salmon trollers also did exceedingly well during April, the average catch being about ten red springs per day. The fishing has now fallen off and averages about seven red springs and two whites, the trollers receive about fifteen cents dressed for reds and two cents for whites.

"This season will be the shortest that I have seen during my twenty-seven years' continuous service with the Department owing to the fact that the Packers will only can sockeye, it being impossible at the price obtainable for the fall varieties to pack pink and hump with a margin of profit to the canners," said Mr. Williams. There is unquestionably at the present time a wave of depression, passing over the salmon catching business, but during my twenty-seven years' experience I can remember three or four, but they passed away just as this depression will probably pass away in 1922 and normal conditions will again obtain. This depression affects the market for fall salmon and makes it impossible to pack them on a paying basis, but up to the present time it has not materially affected the sockeye.

Should be Good Run

"I look this season for a fair run of this variety, as the spawning grounds in 1917 were better seeded than in 1916, and last season the canners packed on the Skeena River 87,000 cases of sockeye. I am proud to be able to state that all varieties of salmon in District No. 2 are just as prolific and abundant as they were when I first entered the service twenty-seven years ago. This is not my opinion only, for it can be substantiated by statistics. It is a record that our Department may well be proud of and is attributable to the wise administration of the fisheries by the department and the rigid enforcement of the fisheries regulations, together with the assistance of the hatcheries. I think our fishery officers deserve some of the credit for this gratifying condition of our salmon fisheries and it is pleasing to know that they are nearly all local men living in the district. In fact this season we have not one ghardian, patrolman or gasolin' engine that does not reside in District No. 2 and in nearly every case they are re-

J. T. C. WILLIAMS
Who has been Inspector of Fisheries since 1887 and in charge of this district since 1906.

Growth of Industry.

"In early days when I first entered the service there were only six or seven canneries in the district, today there are approximately fifty and in spite of this strain on the salmon they are holding their own in point of numbers," said Mr. Williams, becoming reminiscent. "I remember well several years before Prince Rupert was even dreamt of, patrolling Tucks Inlet in connection with my work as inspector of fisheries. I always used to remark what a beautiful harbor Tucks Inlet would make, being entirely landlocked and deep water right up to the shoreline. Little did I think that I should live to see a fine city like Prince Rupert spring up out of the woods along the shores of Tucks Inlet. I was, however, a firm believer in the future of Prince Rupert. I was confident of its ultimate prosperity, consequently some of my friends and myself decided to buy some lots at the original auction some twelve years ago, (I speak from memory). It was a matter of speculation at that time where the centre of the city would be located but we were fortunate in our selections and today we own some of the finest property in Prince Rupert.

Urge to Buy Here.

"It has always been my earnest desire to assist in the advancement of Prince Rupert whenever it was possible to do so and with this end in view I urged the department to purchase all our supplies and requirements for our launches and offices locally whenever possible and our department cheerfully acceded to my request and today we purchase nearly all our supplies locally. Mr. Hutchinson is our local purchasing agent.

"I consider the fisheries in this district are in the most satisfactory and encouraging condition and I look forward with confidence, when this temporary wave of depression has passed, to another successful period for the salmon fisheries of British Columbia."

HEADACHES

Make Life Miserable

Headaches are one of the most aggravating troubles one can have, and it is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time.

Headaches seem to be habitual with many people; some are seldom, if ever, free from them, suffering continually from the dull throbbings, the intense pains; sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then again over the whole head.

There is only one way to get relief from these persistent headaches, and that is by going direct to the seat of the trouble, for unless the cause is removed, the headaches will still continue to exist.

The fact that Burdock Blood Bitters keep the stomach, liver and bowels toned up is proof enough to show that it will eliminate the cause of the headaches.

Mrs. Harold Lorian, Owen Sound, Ont., writes: "My system was run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head, which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health, so I took another and am glad to say that it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to my friends, who were in a similar condition, and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."

MOTOR BOAT WILL SOON BE NEEDED

Those who have motor boats for sale should advertise them soon as the season is coming when they will be in demand. A few dollars spent in advertising a boat usually brings results, if the price is right.

Advertising is often expensive, but it is nothing like as expensive as an empty store and idle clerks.

FAT AND ITS VALUE

Care used in saving and caring for all fat obtained from cooking meat in the home will save many a dollar which otherwise would have to be spent for butter, lard or other cooking fats. Fats derived from the cooking of broom hen, chicken, beef and other meats should be kept, each in its own receptacle, to be used for different purposes.

Household specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture say an old-fashioned method of clarifying fat from the soup kettle or from cooked meats, so that it may be used in the kitchen, is to add the cold fat to a liberal quantity of cold water then heat slowly and let cook for an hour or more. When cold, the cake of fat is removed and the lower portion, which will contain the small particles of meat, should be scraped away and the white, clean fat saved. If the flavor or color, or both are not satisfactory the process may be repeated several times. Another method often recommended is to cook a number of slices of raw potato in the boiling fat.

CARE OF THE EAR.

In the first place, get as if hearing were of more importance than any other thing on earth.

As soon as a child is born one must think about the ear. In placing the baby in bed, care should be taken that its ear is laid close to its head and not bent downward toward the face as it might cause deformity of the auricle. The object of the auricle (outer ear) is to collect the waves of sound.

Avoid all such injuries to the ears as result from slapping, pulling and very loud and sudden noises. Keep out of the external ear all things smaller than the little finger or stiffer than a towel or handkerchief.

In health the deeper parts of the ear can be left to take care of themselves. The orifice of the canal should be cleaned in precisely the same manner as any other portion of the body--that is, with a wet sponge or cloth.

HOUSEWIFE'S ENERGY.

Conserving time and energy is one of the problems of the housekeeper. Time and strength may be saved in two ways; first, by planning one's work carefully, and secondly, by making use of labor-saving equipment. Failure of these may make the difference between a tired, overworked housekeeper and one who has some time and energy left for reading and recreation after the day's work is done.

CULINARY KINKS.

Fried oysters on crisp lettuce make delicious sandwich filling. Let potatoes lie in cold water for a little while before paring if you wish them to be white.

To a recipe for graham biscuits add a half cupful of chopped nuts. Good and a nice change. Wash black stockings in fresh suds and rinse in very blue water.

HELPFUL HINTS.

Small clothespins are better than large and stay on more securely so that the wind does not blow the clothes away. Twice turned doughnuts are not so greasy as those turned once. Paint on a window glass may be removed by solution of soda. Whisk and oats, and grasses, too, make attractive trimming for hats. Cleaning Enamel. Take some warm water and a little kerosene oil, rub over the enamel and wipe dry. It will not harm the enamel.

A. CURRIE ADDRESS TO CANADIAN CLUB

Imperial Unity and Dismissal of Separatist Propaganda

Along with the idea for Imperial Unity and Dismissal of Separatist Propaganda was the keynote of an address delivered by General Sir Arthur Currie at a Canadian Club luncheon at the Windsor Hotel, on the occasion of the annual meeting and final session of the club.

SIR ARTHUR CURRIE

Some which has created the Empire were manifested. Currie said that she would be of a good deal of her view with alarm separatist propaganda which is an evidence today. Currie said that she would be of a good deal of her view with alarm separatist propaganda which is an evidence today.

Education was an important factor, and the universities should not be the privilege of a few, but of all. Traditions must be taught in the schools and the Canadian Club could play an important part in this educational work.

Helicopter Is Centre of Interest Among Aviators

Expected that it will Take Two Years to Work Out and Perfect New Type of Flying Machine

PARIS, May 7.—The French aviation world, governmental and private, is deeply absorbed at the present time in the rapid development of the recently invented helicopter, the airplane which is designed to rise straight up from the ground. The French government, after a careful investigation by a commission of experts, has officially accepted the machine and has set aside a substantial sum of money for the immediate improvement of the invention.

The Marquis R. Pateas Pescara, of Argentina, is credited by some airplane experts with having actually proved its practicability, but several Frenchmen, among whom is M. L. Filippi, have since constructed helicopters with as much success as Pescara. Experimental work now is going on near Paris at an army aviation field, through which the government hopes to perfect the new airplane. As yet the helicopter is in the same stage of development as were the first flying machines constructed by the Wright brothers.

At the Aero Club of France where the helicopter is the chief topic of conversation, experts predict that in two years the new airplane will be a practical reality. Considerable surprise was expressed by these same experts that the United States Government had apparently not taken up the new machine inasmuch as it may materially affect sea warfare.

The helicopter, described simply without any attempt at technicalities, is a machine constructed of a series of horizontal planes revolving in opposite directions. On the Pescara machine, a base similar to that of a low stage automobile is used. On this is built two series of horizontal planes, each series composed of ten planes. The usual airplane motor starts the planes and the effect is to make the machine rise straight up from the ground.

In the experimental work, a small gas bag has been used for safety purposes but the work is so far along that these bags are being abandoned.

It is hoped that the perfected machine, which is expected within two years, will be able to rise from the deck of a battleship in midocean.

Pescara is conducting experiments at Barcelona, Spain, where the French army commission has spent several weeks in observation. His career has been romantic. Employed in experimental laboratories of the Italian government before the war, Pescara came to Paris soon after the beginning of the war and continued his work under army supervision. He was credited with hundreds of inventions, among them a dirigible which flew over the enemy lines and dropped bombs at stated intervals.

Suddenly at the height of his success, the French police arrested him as a spy and he was kept in prison several months. The French ministry of war tested his innocence and obtained his release on condition that he be deported. He left for Spain and soon after the armistice began his helicopter experiments.

Friends From Many Villages in Attendance When Respected Man was Laid to Rest.

The funeral of the late W. J. Lincoln, of Kincolith, who died recently as the result of a fainting spell when he fell from a boat into the water, was a most impressive affair. Mrs. Lincoln and nearly all the village attended the last rites and accompanied the cortege to the final resting place. There was also a large crowd of outsiders from villages far and near including Greenville, Killakamiks, Port Simpson and Red Bluff. Archdeacon W. H. Collison, the veteran missionary of the Naas River, was the officiating clergyman.

Mr. Lincoln was a man of middle age and his death was as shocking as it was unexpected. He belonged to the Church Army and was president of the Kincolith Land Committee. He left an estate of $6,000 and $5,000 was left to the Indian friends.

READ THE ADVERTISEMENTS

The publishers of this paper draw your attention to the advertising columns, and particularly to the advertisements of the local merchants.

These merchants have invested their money in goods to satisfy the needs and desires of us all.

Their enterprise is a distinct service to our community. For this reason we should buy from them to the best of our ability and in so far as our needs and judgment of value dictates.

Then, too, the general commodities advertised in our columns are worthy of consideration. It is desirable that readers should ask merchants to supply advertised goods wherever possible. By doing so the cycle of trade is kept alive and inter-community commerce stimulated. We repeat—read the advertisements.

PIGEON SHOOT TO BE ILLEGAL

Clay Targets May Be Substituted Even at Monte Carlo

LONDON, May 7.—English public opinion is being stirred by a concerted attack by the press against pigeon shooting and as a result a bill has been introduced in Parliament which would make this form of sport illegal.

The storm arose over a contest at Chatham where live birds were released from traps for a shooting competition. Support for the proposed anti-shooting measure is promised by the government and is being warmly given by the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

Agitation against this form of sport has extended to Monte Carlo, where many upper-class English spend part of the winter, and where the practice is said to be an institution. The Prince of Monaco is reported to be sympathetic to the attempt to eliminate the live pigeon shooting and to substitute clay pigeons.

Sport Chat

Three fast bouts have already been arranged for the benefit smoker which is to take place on Monday night in the Empress Theatre. Something new will be the heavyweight contest which is to be staged between Bill Hale and Jack Ryan. The former weighs in at 180 and the latter at 190. Although neither have yet been seen in public here, both are said to be clever and surprisingly fast boxers, and those who should know say there is something good in sight for boxing fans in this contest which will be to four rounds. Hale is the challenger for the amateur heavyweight championship of B.C., now held by Constable Sherpe of Swanson Bay.

Besides this feature there will be two lightweight bouts of two rounds each. Alex Ross, of the dry dock, will meet Joe Farrell, a well known lightweight, and Tommy Sherman, the local idol, will box with Rod Davidson. All these bouts are well known and show a good deal of capability at the game. While the two former are the more experienced the two latter have achieved quite a reputation for clever work locally.

Fritz, the handy man, has established quite a training camp at his shop on Third Avenue and almost any morning or evening somebody is busy working out there. It is becoming quite a popular place for local adepts of the artistic art, as well as those who like to see the training Jack Ryan and Bill Hale work out here quite regularly and besides these there are a number of young fellows who take a few friendly rounds now and then.

There is to be a celebration at New Hazelton on May 24 and among the events will be a football game between Smithers and New Hazelton. There will likely be a large delegation of Smithersites to go down the line to enjoy the fun. They will go on the regular Tuesday morning train and the railway is making special arrangements for a train to take them back to Smithers. They will spend from 11 o'clock in the morning till 8 in the evening at New Hazelton.

EDGREN LIKELY REFEREE FIGHT

Carpentier and Dempsey Seem to Agree on Arbitrator—Rickard Says Likely

NEW YORK, May 7.—Bob Edgren will probably be the third man in the ring when Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier meet in Jersey City on July 2. When Georges and Jack affixed their signatures to the articles of agreement the Frenchman announced at the time that Edgren would just about suit him as the referee. Dempsey, who "shook" these by, shook his head in approval of Carpentier's suggestion and it is almost certain that "Bob" will be selected.

Rickard said that he would not be surprised to see the two boxers settle on Edgren.

Work on the arena in Jersey City is being pushed and Rickard expects that it will be completed about June 20. It is being constructed to hold 50,500 persons.

Rickard is now waiting for a reply to his invitation to Lord Longdale to attend the bout. As a matter of fact, "Tex" also expects that the Prince of Wales will be among those in attendance.

SWIMMING CLUB GETS DONATIONS

At the meeting of the Board of Trade last night a collection was taken on behalf of the Swimming Club in response to a letter from the secretary asking for a donation of ten dollars.

On the letter being read it was decided to vote the ten dollars, but there was a little hesitancy about taking it from the general fund.

T. D. Patullo suggested that as he was very keenly interested in the swimming club he would give ten dollars if the rest of the members would raise ten among them. The hat was at once passed and as a result the Swimming Club gets $22.90 to be used in the good work they propose at the Salt Lakes this year.

Donations to the Swimming Club have been received from two other local organizations, Valhalla Lodge giving $20 and the Sons of England $10.

WOULD PLAY GAME FOR ITS OWN SAKE

Dr. Macdonald Urges Young People to Get into Game Instead of Watching from the Touch Line.

OTTAWA, May 3.—The value of physical culture as an aid to the development not only of the individual but of the nation, was emphasized by Rev. Bruce Macdonald, rector of St. Andrew's College, Toronto, and president of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, in a recent address here to the Kiwanis Club.

Dr. Macdonald urged his hearers to get the physical culture habit and to make it a part of their daily routine. He especially urged greater interest in community recreation projects, not only for children, but for grown-ups as well, and called attention to the fact that the play instinct was present in every human being.

"I do not consider that professional sport is in the best interests of either the individual or the nation," he declared. "Where the player is paid to play a winning game there is always the essence of temptation. The true amateur is the one who plays the game for its own sake."

"I find all over the country there is a readiness on the part of boys and girls to play the game fair, but the trouble is they have not the proper backing. Then, too, we have too many touch-line sports in Canada. We want them to get into the game instead of standing on the outside."

CLEMENTSON IS HERE FOR SUMMER SEASON, ARRIVED THIS MORNING

Local sportsmen will hear with pleasure that C. G. Clementson is in the city once more and will stay the summer. He arrived this morning from Stewart on the Provincial and will be joined soon by Mrs. Clementson who is in the south.

Clem will doubtless be playing ball and his advent will cause some surprises among the local teams. As he is an Elk he will likely line up with the lodge team in the City League.

HAIL THE SPORTS OF SPRINGTIME!

Infinite is the Variety in Out-of-Door Apparel—At Fashion's Caprice, Personality Finds Expression in Color and in Line.

Delightfully girlish is this picturesque affair—the skirt with a plaid panel at the side, the jacket plaited and long as to drape.

When one wishes to wear "quite the right thing" with a skirt of washable satin one dons a belted blazer.

FICKLENESS is not precisely a trait to cultivate, and yet there are circumstances in which it may be termed a virtue. How tremendously practical would we find the modes if their author insisted upon introducing certain things at the beginning and "sticking to them" throughout the season. How interesting are they when individuality and variety are the keynote of the theme. Then, indeed, are we glad when Fashion appears not a steady going dame of mature indiscretion but a damsel influenced by little save caprice.

As the spring advances interest in sports apparel waxes strong and stronger still, for spring, if ever, is the time of year to take one's fun out of doors.

No longer do the knitting needle and the crochet hook find themselves engaged only in fashioning the sweater and the coat. However pleasing this duty they discover that their scope of service has been enlarged, and that they now are expected to do their best to make attractive a frock, a slip-over blouse, or perhaps a coat entire. An unusually good looking effect simulating brocade is achieved by the use of two slightly different shades of the same color—a sort of changeable effect rather than any marked design. A dress of this type trimmed with a narrow knitted silk band and a wide fringed sash, loosely tied, is a thing of picturesque charm.

Speaking of sweaters, 'tis the slip-over that holds the centre of the stage just now, and besides being very good to look upon this one garment that is a source of never failing delight to its fair owner—it not only possesses that woolly warmth that one needs on the chilly early morn and eyes of spring, but it substitutes well and ably for the blouse—a service not to be taken lightly in these days of the high cost of laundry.

We must come to the conclusion from what we see and hear that the white flannel skirt is going to be not last nor least favor in fashion eyes. Plain white in color, adorned, boasting a sash and embroidered all over it is making appearance all about the town.

If not actually first in the affections of Miss Springtime it may yield the palm to night but may do chime. For it must count on the proved through the ages that in lions as in love there are those faint souls who will remain true to the first fancy through weal and woe. And this type of individual is to be weaned away from her thing—a dainty plaited skirt of silken hue by any creation of heavier stuff, or by any creation of flannel notwithstanding.

NEW YORK, May 7.—The world's heavyweight championship bout at Jersey City on July 2 between Georges Carpentier, champion of Europe, and Jack Dempsey, holder of the world's title, will be the occasion for a convention of all classes of ring champions past and present. Invitations to attend have been mailed by Tex Rickard, promoter and manager of the contest, to James Jeffries, J. Corbett, Tommy Burns and Jess Willard, all ex-heavyweight champions of the world.

OPTIMISTIC OVER RUPERT

Kenneth Ferguson of Victoria Tells About This Place in South

"I was never more optimistic about Prince Rupert's future than I am today," declared Kenneth Ferguson, the well-known Victoria manager of the Imperial Life Assurance Company, according to the Victoria Colonist.

The people of Prince Rupert display a highly creditable and highly encouraging spirit of optimism, stated Mr. Ferguson. While they were not making any large capital outlays at the present time, they were quite evidently prepared to move ahead with the Northern development which was due in the not far distant future.

The shipyard is employing in the neighborhood of six hundred men at the present time, said Mr. Ferguson, who pointed out that in a few months the work on the Government ships would be concluded and added that it would be a great pity if the line plant could not be kept busy.

Plans are going ahead for a sulphite mill at Prince Rupert. The fishing industry was hampered at the present time by lack of proper cars.

There is an acute shortage of housing accommodation at the present time in the Northern city, and there is an extensive travel between the South and Prince Rupert. The high price of material has held back building activities, but this work will go ahead just as soon as costs come down, he declared.

Mr. Ferguson claimed that the spirit prevailing in Prince Rupert was the same as existed elsewhere throughout the Province. He believed the worst of conditions to be past, and that British Columbia is upon the threshold of a new forward movement.

WINNIPEG TRYING TO POPULARIZE BONSPIEL BY SHORTENING TIME

WINNIPEG, Man., May 7.—The Manitoba Curling Association has under consideration a plan to curtail the annual bonspiel to one week in an effort to revive the popularity of the big event and ensure a greater yearly attendance from outside points. At the recent annual meeting of the association here it was pointed out that whereas the association was steadily increasing in size, no commensurate increase was being recorded in the attendance at the bonspiel.

Various speakers, particularly from country points, indicated that the paucity of entries from outside was immediately traceable to the fact that the bonspiel was too long. Under the plan now being considered play would commence on a Monday, with city plinks only involved in the first two draws in order to permit outsiders to reach the city. With four draws a day, it is believed the "spiel" could easily be finished by the following Saturday.

ALICE ARM

Walter McDonald has opened up his cigar store and bar in the large building he erected last summer near the Government telegraph office.

A. J. Bowen and J. Hodson, formerly of Anyox and both prominent mining men, are here getting operations started on the Star mine, which they are to develop this season.

James McAlennan has moved into the Austin Henderson residence. His own house was destroyed in the fire of three weeks ago.

Work on the completion of the road from the wharf to the town will commence at the first of the week by O. M. Watson and his company of sixteen local men who were last week awarded the contract.

Preparations are being made for a field day here on May 21. There will be a number of excursions up from Anyox.

Without advertisements, this paper would not be as interesting to you, because information about goods for sale in the stores is news—just that.

DELAY EXCURSION TO LATER IN SEASON

Board of Trade Propose Visiting Bulkley Valley in August; Pictures for B. C. House.

A report from H. F. Pullen, chairman of the publicity committee of the Board of Trade, at the meeting of the board last night recommended that the matter of an excursion to the Bulkley Valley be taken up in July with a view to running the excursion in August. It was pointed out that if a rate of a fare and a third could be obtained, the cost of the trip, including sleepers, would be about $25 for each person, provided fifty made the trip. The report was adopted.

A further report from the same committee recommended that four photographic enlargements of local views be obtained and forwarded to the agent-general in England for display in the showrooms of British Columbia House, the cost not to exceed $50. This recommendation was adopted and the committee given power to act.

T. H. Johnson offered to provide an enlarged photo of the cold storage plant and E. F. Doby made a similar offer in regard to the sawmill, each being subject to the wish of the committee. The offers were accepted with thanks.

Think of all the prominent firms whose products you see in the stores and ten chances to one every firm will be a daily newspaper advertiser. They know it pays.

PROSPECTORS' POWDER REBATE

A rebate is to be allowed of 25 per cent on the retail cost of such powder on amounts up to ten cases of powder in one year, and on the written recommendation of a resident engineer of the department the amount on which a rebate is allowed may be increased, under exceptional circumstances.

Applications for rebate must be signed before a mining recorder, justice of the peace, deputy mining recorder, or resident engineer of the department of mines.

SONS OF CANADA AT ANNUAL RAI

Interesting Event at St. Andrew's Hall Enjoyed by Many Last Night

The annual hall of the Sons of Canada in the St. Andrew's Hall last night was a great success. The hall was decorated for the occasion in purple and gold, with immense flags, the Westholme Orchestra provided the music, and Mrs. Carroll looked after the excellent refreshments that were served.

Owing to the other events in town, the attendance was not so great as to make dancing difficult, an average of about one hundred couples being on the floor at one time. The affair was under the capable management of Harry Love, William Blythe and H. Breen, with J. R. Beatty as master of ceremonies, George Johnston and David Robinson were at the door. A large bowl of punch stood in the corner at which the dancers regaled themselves. It was late when the affair broke up.

KING'S RETURN INJURED GREECE

Withdrawal of Support of Great Powers was Fatal to Neutral Country.

ATHENS, May 3.—The Greek campaign now in progress in Turkey was undertaken as the only way to avoid the possible loss to Greece of Thrace and Smyrna and at the same time to give King Constantine the credit of a great military movement. The decision of the Supreme Council at the conference in London in February to send a commission to Thrace and Smyrna to inquire into the composition of the populations there filled the Greeks with disappointment and despondency.

Under the proposed revision of the Treaty of Sevres, Greece saw itself about to be reduced to its 1912 proportions, its progress as a Mediterranean power nullified and its friendship with the Allies alienated. It considered the territorial losses with which the country was threatened a staggering price to pay for Constantine's return to the throne.

Awakened to Situation. All classes awakened to the realities of the situation. They recognized that without financial support from the great powers, the country must become an impotent peninsular state. The absence of recognition by Greece's great neutral friend, the United States, was a particularly painful realization to the people. Many Greeks, even some of the most ardent Royalists, were willing to sacrifice their king if it would win back the goodwill and support of the big nations, particularly the United States and England.

The Venelist press has taken a sombre view of the situation ever since the London conference

INCREASE Most Likely

It is interesting to note the contents of a recent letter from our London Diamond cutter. He writes: "The scarcity, together with the cost of production and marketing of the diamonds, mean only one thing: that prices will tend to increase rather than decrease."

Anyone considering diamonds will really do well not to delay.

One Great Essential To a Woman's Health Is Her Nerves

Nature intended women to be strong, healthy and happy as the day is long, instead of being sick and wretched. But how can any woman be healthy and happy when the whole nervous system is unstrung. The trouble is they pay more attention to their social and household duties than they do to their health. Is it any wonder then that they become irritable and nervous, have hot flushes, faint and dizzy spells, smothering and shaking spells, become weak and nervous, and everything in life becomes dark and gloomy.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are the very remedy that nervous, tired-out, weary women need to restore them to the blessings of good health.

Mrs. P. H. Ryan, Sand Point, N. S., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from nerve troubles. I was so weak and nervous I could not sleep at night and my appetite was very poor. I could not walk across the floor without trembling. I had hot flushes and fainting spells. When I was on my second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I began to feel better and kept on until I had used six boxes when I felt like a different person. I am never without them in the house and recommend them to all who suffer with their nerves."

and accused the government organs of having intentionally misled public opinion.

The Royalist newspapers naturally endeavored to minimize the effect of the decisions of the Supreme Council and attributed the change in the attitude of the powers toward Greece to every reason except the real one. They inferred that Great Britain's leniency toward Turkey was the result of pressure brought to bear upon England by her Mussulman subjects.

Fought Alone.

Closing their eyes to the Allied edicts regarding Smyrna and Thrace, the same journals declared that the war against Turkey must go on. Greece, they said, must take matters into her own hands and fight the Kemalists alone and not only advance to Angora but also to Sivas.

The question of money has been barely mentioned. Hints are thrown out that there will be no difficulty in finding the necessary funds in America and England.

If the meantime the cost of living is mounting and commercial Greece faces a serious prospect. Imports exceed exports fourfold; the treasury is depleted and the Greek drachma has been selling at 14 to the dollar. The poor man, and even the people who were comfortably off before the present chaos find it burdensome to pay for the common necessities of life.

Fourth Rate Power.

The Greek people did not grudge the sacrifices made during the last five years so long as they felt it would result in a greater Greece. But today they are becoming convinced that they have been led into a situation which has reduced the country to a fourth-rate power, prostrated its economic life and forfeited to Greece the friendship of the nations of the world.

PRINCE GEORGE

Police Magistrate C. B. Daniell has replied to the statements of the police commission regarding the large number of dismissals in the police court recently. Mr. Daniell expresses the opinion that the chief of police is inexperienced and does not prepare his evidence in such shape as to make convictions possible in many instances.

John Melnis has secured for contract for a $20,000 addition to the Prince George hospital. Work has already commenced.

Summons have been issued against J. Kelly, Fred Howard, S. Skendras, C. Murphy, M. L. Jones, and S. Ford, Jeanne Beurnstine and Jeanne Selgesser charging them with selling liquor. Evidence is based mainly on the testimony of Oscar Johnson, who was fined by the police, and who is alleged to have bought the liquor in some cases expectorating his purchases into a bottle and taking it away as evidence.

Mrs. F. B. Burden was the hostess at a tea last Saturday in honor of her house guest, Mrs. E. W. Bowness, of Edmonton.
