Would Send Many Settlers to Canada FORMER EMPEROR FINDS HIMSELF IN FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES

C. Agent General in London Urges a Redistribution of the Population Throughout Empire

PRINCE RUPERT, Oct. 15.—F. C. Wade, Agent-general for British Columbia, has written to the press emphasizing the urgent need for a redistribution of the population of the Empire. He points out that Canada at the present time support fewer than 10 persons to the square mile as against 618 to the square mile in Great Britain and Wales.

Wade declares that Western Canada is rapidly becoming a desert and asks how long Canada can escape effective immigration from the United States continues to drain off the population from the United Kingdom and if Americans continue to drain off our principal natural resources and monopolize our markets.

He is, he says, to pump in the white people whose numbers are in accord with British traditions. Arrangements to be made along the lines of the various soldier settlement schemes.

GRAVESTONES FOR WAR HEROES

More Than Thousand Being Made in Vancouver Under Government Direction.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 15.—More than 1600 headstones are now being prepared for shipment throughout British Columbia and Alberta. They will be made of stone from the Granite Island Quarries, 70 miles north of Vancouver, and prepared in the yards of Patterson, Chandler & Stephens, Limited, Vancouver. Contracts have just been let by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia and defense, and by Col. M. C. Osborne, secretary, Imperial War Graves Commission. Delegates appointed by the government have completed inspection of Canadian quarries and their choice has fallen upon the Granite Island stone. R. V. Knowland, general manager of the quarries and the monument of mason firm, says the work will be rushed with all possible speed, but it will take months before all the headstones are completed. Names of dead veterans will be selected by the Government. The headstones will be of simple beauty and patriotic design, with the maple leaf and a brief record of the dead veteran's service. Below a cross will appear. Where the dead veteran belonged to another religious creed, there will be appropriate design.

For Jewish veterans there will be the sign of David and a Talitah text. At the base will appear the words "For His Country."

Prince Rupert will have her quota of these stones.

The headstones will mark the graves of veterans who actually died of war injuries, and a supply will be kept on hand for shipment as other veterans die from time to time.

Vancouver will shortly witness the unusual sight of hundreds of headstones leaving for all parts of the two provinces.

Home Merchant
and Local Buyers.

The article written recently in this column in regard to buying in Prince Rupert has been discussed considerably, both favorably and adversely. That was to be expected. Anyone who discusses public questions every day must expect criticism. Often articles are written for the express purpose of setting people thinking on the subjects discussed. The Ketchikan Chronicle just to hand gives an editorial article, which has been going the rounds, and which is changed only in the name of the city. It follows:

The home merchant. Who is he?

He is the chap who gives you credit when you are financially broke, and carries your account until you are able to pay.

He is the chap who gives you back your money or makes exchanges when you are not satisfied with what you have bought.

He is the chap who stands behind his guarantee, and makes restoration of all losses that you may sustain on the goods you buy.

He is the chap who meets you at the door with a handshake and lets you out with a message to the "kids" and a real come-again goodbye.

He is the chap who meets you and greets you on the street every day in the year, and takes a neighborly interest in your family and your affairs.

He is the chap whose clerks and bookkeepers and other employees live in Prince Rupert and spend their money with you and other Prince Rupert people.

He is the chap who pays heavy taxes to help support Prince Rupert's schools and build Prince Rupert's streets and maintain Prince Rupert's fire and police departments and lighting and water service.

He is the chap who helps support Prince Rupert's churches and hospital and charity movements, and Prince Rupert's lodges and Board of Trade, talks for Prince Rupert and boosts for Prince Rupert every day in the year.

He is the chap who visits you when you are sick, sends flowers to your family when you die, and follows your body out to the cemetery as far as human feet may travel with the dead.

He is the home merchant—your neighbor—your friend—your helper in times of need.

Don't you think you ought to trade with him and be his friend and his helper in the time of his need?

Don't you know that every dollar that you send out of Prince Rupert for merchandise is sent to strangers—to men who never spend a dollar in the town, to men who would not trust you for a box of matches, to men who would turn you over to the police if you should enter their offices?

You don't save much—frequently nothing—when you send your money out of Prince Rupert, and you take all the risk yourself of short weight or measure and of getting damaged or inferior goods. Possibly if you and everybody else in Prince Rupert should trade at home the merchant might afford to sell as cheaply as do the big stores in the big cities. And don't you know that the growth and prosperity of Prince Rupert depend very largely upon the success and prosperity of the home merchants? Out-of-town people judge our city by the appearance of our stores and the degree of enterprise shown by our merchants. And our home merchants cannot succeed unless home folks give them loyal support.

Group System of Government.

The group system of government has been under discussion a good deal lately. The latest to take a fling at it is Sir Robert Borden, former Conservative Premier of Canada, who is now out of political life and who speaks from no partisan spirit. The report of his address in Toronto as sent out by the Canadian Press is as follows:

Stating that he was speaking in an entirely detached manner and not as a member of any political party, Sir Robert Borden last night emphatically opposed the group system of government which seemed, he said, to be gaining vogue in various parts of the world. Group government, he declared, would not make for true representation of the people. So far as party government is concerned, Sir Robert declared that it was at best a clumsy arrangement of managing a nation's business. One glowing illustration of the absolute failure of the group government is to be found in Poland, he said, where there are now thirteen groups in the government, all of which are open to party intrigues, ready to traffic their votes for little triumph gained by their own interests, and therefore working in the interests of certain sections of the community rather than for the good of the whole country. The same results, Sir Robert inferred, might apply should Canada get group government, for should the agrarian party come into power it might mean that they would be prepared to legislate in the interests of their supporters rather than for the good of Canada as a whole.

At present only sixteen boys of the naval brigade have uniforms and C. V. Evitt, who is in charge, would like to have them all properly set up. In order to provide these and also to help purchase drums and fifes an entertainment is to be held next Wednesday in the Empress Theatre to raise funds.

Included in the program, which it is said will be an excellent one, is a sailors' horn-pipe dance under direction of Mrs. Grewe. Doubtless everyone in the city will purchase a ticket for this laudable purpose whether they happen to be attending the concert or not.

The brigade numbers 60 in all and on Saturday there were 16 on parade. Corporal Bryce is Mr. Evitt's able assistant in the work.

and what it has done for

THESE are the testing days, the days that put the acid test on every business. Sound businesses will survive and the unsound will pass off the map entirely, or start afresh with the bitter lessons of experience as a guide and a warning. When there was business for everyone in the happy post-war period, sound businesses swept along with big turnovers and satisfactory profits, and there was enough left to keep unsound businesses trailing happily along behind. Everybody was happy.

And then!—The fresh breeze of prosperity died down and the calm of stagnant business fell like a pall.

It was a dead calm for unsound businesses, and they drifted hopelessly and helplessly about.

The sound businesses were equipped, as it were, with an auxiliary motor, the motor of quality, and a reputation built up by years of faithful service to the buying public.

That motor has kept them moving steadily along, and some business skippers wonder where they get their momentum from.

It's no secret. Twenty-one years ago we decided to build this business on quality. In those twenty-one years there have been four periods when the little bird of expediency whispered, "drop quality and depend on wind alone."

We were tempted, but we did not fall. The stronger the temptation, the stronger our determination to hold fast to quality and keep that equipment up to full strength and efficiency.

How fortunate for us that we did not waver! When thousands are crying "cheap, cheap," and "price, price," we find that our reputation for quality is carrying us right along, and that in this year of grace 1921 our volume of business in cold dollars and cents will be as great as in any year previous to the abnormal post-war period.

That's what quality has done for 20th Century Brand Fine Tailored Clothes for Men.

And we're so grateful that we have decided to put more quality into our garments. We're doing so right now. Not less quality to meet the cry for cheap goods, but more quality to meet the demand for value and service.

Quality has been the one big factor in the success of our business. Watch and see what more quality will do for us.

Waterfront Whiffs

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet Which is the Chief Source of Prince Rupert's Prosperity

Mike Anderson has purchased a 23 ft. x 9 ft. beam salmon trawler and is busy fixing her up for the forthcoming fishing season. In the meantime, and as soon as the boat is ready, he is proceeding on a trapping expedition around the Princess Royal Island, devoting his attention entirely to mink. Mike is using all his spare brain power in thinking up a name for his new boat.

The "Gaygeon," Capt. J. Morrison, is refitting at Cow Bay, and will be ready for the deep sea fishing grounds early next week.

The "Lillian M," Capt. B. Thompson, is tied up for the winter.

Captain C. Edwards is busy overhauling and refitting the "Azores II." This work is nearly completed and it is expected the "Azores II" will be clearing for the deep sea fishing grounds on Monday. E. Edwards, who is the brother of the Captain, who recently came to this port from Newfoundland, where he was engaged in Cod fishing, will go as mate on this trip. The "Azores II" is 50 ft. x 14 ft. beam and is fitted with a 30 h.p. Standard engine, she is one of the largest boats engaged in the fishing industry on this coast.

The "Muirneag," which is owned by "Jed" Thurber, is one of the pioneer boats engaged in the Port of Prince Rupert fishing industry. She was built at Westminster in 1909 and was brought up here by Skipper McDonald in 1910. The "Muirneag" is 45 ft. long by 10 ft. 6 in. beam and is fitted with a 20 h.p. Atlas engine which was an addition this spring. Her present skipper is M. Soliows, who has been fishing with her all the season, and expects to go out again on his usual haunts next Monday.

In the month of July twenty-five whales were sighted by a local fisherman, in one school off Naden Harbor. This would point to some easy business for the whaling station at that point when the whaling business reopens.

The Fram, Vesia, Spencer and Reliance, are at present in port having come in with light catches of halibut. Bad weather is reported on the fishing grounds consequently present catches are light.

The Sinclair Fisheries Limited have been appointed agents for the National Independent Fisheries of Seattle, and will handle all fish brought in by their boats. All boats owned by the National Independent Fisheries, now fishing on the Pacific Coast, will make Prince Rupert their port of call this season.

The Pachena, Captain A. Swanson, will commence running to Stewart next Thursday, from the Prince Rupert Boat House, and from that date every other Thursday. The Pachena will call at Port Simpson, Maple Bay and Swamp Point. This boat is practically a new one having been purchased by Capt. Swanson last spring, and has sleeping accommodation for twelve passengers, with a freight carrying capacity of over twenty tons.

R. J. Johnston, of the Inverness Cannery, who left for the south with his family intends to spend the winter at Victoria. The Inverness Cannery is reported to have put up more fish this season than any of the Skeena canneries. It is the intention of Mr. Johnston to return to Prince Rupert next April.

The Della C, Capt. H. Weber, tow boat, is at present in port, and is lying at the Rupert Marine dock.

The Jap boat "Mill Bay" has left for Alice Arm with the W. 12, mouse pile driver.

The Kathleen is in port from Kikatala and will be clearing for home in the near future.

The Northern Exchange is building a wharf, as a winter harbor, at Shawiwan Passageway.

Captain "Jed" Thurber together with F. Collins were the first two men to take ice from the Cold Storage, and landed the first fish there. Billy Christensen was manager for Butterfield and Mackie at this period.

The power boat Millbank towed the Muse piledriver to Alice Arm during the week and has not yet arrived back. The outfit will be used in the construction of the wharf at Alice Arm at the end of the new road recently built by the Provincial Government.

COD SMOKING PLANT GOING

W. Shrubbsall Has Plant That Can Put Out 3,000 Pounds a Day.

There is a nice healthy smoke curing and fresh fish business located in a new building on the Government Wharf. The owner is W. Shrubbsall, an old timer in the fish business at this port, who has recently returned from California where he has been engaged in experimental work with the Neptune Sea Food Company of San Diego, having struck several new ideas and products in the fish curing business.

Mr. Shrubbsall claims to be one of the pioneer fishermen of Prince Rupert and was first engaged in the local fish business in 1908. At that time he was located on the old Rupert Road and used to take his fish to market on a wheelbarrow. In the early days the fishing industry was in the hands of the Indians and very few white men were engaged in it.

Mr. Shrubbsall has seen the fishing business increase from 1000 pounds in three months to 350,000 pounds in one day. At the present time his plant is able to turn out about 3000 pounds of smoked fish a day, and a distribution of samples has been made throughout the trade as far East as Winnipeg from which efforts doubtless a good out of town business will be forthcoming. The smoke house is now running in excellent shape and business is picking up very well indeed. Mr.

Dr. Hall classed the Sunday band concert as doing much more quiet good and stated that he would rather pay fifty cents to sit in a band concert on Sunday than put fifty cents in the collection plate; that the concerts would in many cases be more worth listening to, and do more good than a great many sermons he had heard. It was stated that in Vancouver Sunday band concerts are under way, with programs and subscriptions for the year being taken to finance the project.

DOES SHOULD BE PROTECTED

"National Geographic Magazine" Makes Convincing Appeal for Female of Species.

"The National Geographic Magazine," in a recent issue makes an appeal for the perpetuation of deer by the close observance of laws regarding the illegality of shooting does. In view of the fact that it is said that local hunters, in spite of game regulations, shoot does indiscriminately and that a great number of the female of the deer species are slaughtered annually, the information and advice contained in the magazine will not come amiss. It says:

The deer is the one big game animal. The first and foremost necessity is the protection of the females and fawns wherever the antlered animal is found. Just let it be understood that when a buck is shot the number for the following year is lessened by only one, whereas he who kills a young doe destroys, by a single shot, 151 bucks and 151 does. For it has been shown upon a strictly scientific basis and by accurate mathematical calculation that a doe and her descendants in a period of ten years, not counting out the natural casualties, will produce a total of 302 deer, and by the death of this ancestral mother the link is broken with the irrevocable loss stated.

Convincing Figures.

The same proportion holds true with a larger number, for ten does and their descendants will produce—1510 bucks and 1510 does, showing that when the female is protected more deer can be killed each year, beside having an increased number in the woods.

Such a result is not, after all so mysterious, if we keep in mind the methods of reproduction applicable to domestic animals; for if a farmer has as many bulls as cows, as many roosters as hens, and killed them indiscriminately of sex, he would of course be classed as demented.

Just because our wild animals bear their young in remote thickets, we seem to think their maintenance is based upon a different method, and go on killing the females year in and year out under the blind assumption that it can make no particular difference between extinction and perpetuation.

Sport Chat

Now that the World Series is over what are the fans going to talk about during the next few months? That is an old question which was always asked about at this time of the year. October and November are generally an off season for sport and there is little doing anywhere. Baseball and football are practically over but hockey will soon be taking the stage. At the present time it looks as if there is to be more organized hockey in Canada this winter than ever before. The Pacific Coast Hockey Association will be active in the West as will the National Hockey Association in the East. On the prairies more ambitious plans than ever before are being formulated. Hockey will take the attention of the fans as far as outdoor sport is concerned while basketball will prove the home diversion. So let's start the hockey and basketball talk.

Billiard and snooker tournaments are now under way at the Wanderers' Club. As was the case last spring they are being conducted on the elimination basis and the first round is now on. Handsome prizes are being offered. The present billiard champion of the club is Percy Tinker who won the handicap last spring. The following players are taking part in the present tournaments: Joe Howe, Ben Wearmouth, C. H. Maddison, A. Macdonald, Jack Hildite, Billy Fulton, Dr. Cade, Morricondon, Sam Harper, Norri Pringle, Dick Lambie, G. S. Fitzmaurice, Dick Shockley, George Hill, Percy Tinker, D. H. McKay, Paul Alvaroff, Art Easson, Billy Vickers, E. A. Donohoe, Jimmie Farquhar, T. B. Hoopes, Fred Stephens, G. P. Armstrong, Bill Nelson, Harry Thrup, Steve King, Bob Stewart, Froberger, Douglas, Stork, Wilson and A. Greenwood. The first round is to be over by next Thursday night.

The Smithers Athletic Club was established last week to carry on all lines of sport in the railway town and took after the establishment of a skating rink. All equipment of separate organizations in the town is to be handed into the association. Arrangements have already been made to have a skating rink established on the vacant lots adjoining the town hall. Electric lights and fresh water will be provided for it and very little work will be necessary to make the rink. The ground is to be prepared to take advantage of the first freezing weather. Finances are being raised by means of membership tickets and a drive for their sale is now on. The temporary officers of the newly formed club are: president, L. B. Warner; vice president, N. P. Moran; secretary, O. K. Lord; treasurer, Jas. Reid, Committee, W. H. Woodson, J. E. Kirby, W. S. Henry, George Raymond and L. McGill. Besides these each member of sport is entitled to one member on the executive.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS DECIDE TO ENTER IN BASKETBALL LEAGUE

At a meeting of the members of the Knights of Columbus interested in sport, it was decided to enter a team in the intermediate league which is being formed. The meeting was called by J. C. Gavigan, Jack Venables and U. LaCasse.

One of the members who has taken an interest in the team stated to the Daily News this morning that they expected to make a strong team and if they did not win the championship they expected to make a good standing at the close of the season. It is expected that the Fair

FAIR BUILDING FOR BASKETBALL

Delegation Waited on Association Last Night—Provision for School Children.

Negotiations are under way between the Fair Association and the Basketball League for the use of the Agricultural Hall this winter for the playing of games. Last night W. E. Willicroft, president of the Basketball League, and George Russell, secretary, waited upon the Fair Board to take up the matter. The Association expressed itself as favorable to the building being used providing proper safeguards are taken against damage that might be incurred to the premises. In this connection a letter was received from Harold Campbell, principal of the schools, asking for the use of the building for the school children. There will be a conference between the executive of the Fair Association and the Basketball League at an early date to go more fully into the matter and perfect arrangements. Provision will also be made for the school children. It is expected that the Fair Association will take over the business and property of the defunct Prince Rupert Amateur Athletic Association which, last year, put in considerable improvements at the Agricultural Hall for athletics purposes. The quarters will be put under proper and business-like control for the protection of the property.

ROYAL MILLS HAVE STARTED CUTTING

Is Only Mill in District Which is Working Outside of Ocean Falls.

The Royal Mills at Pitman Spur, of which Olof Hansen and R. E. Allen are the owners and operators, resumed cutting operations a few days ago and it is proposed to keep the mill running as long as possible throughout the winter. Logging in the woods is also going on. With the closing down of the Buckley mill on Graham Island, Royal Mills is the only plant in the district which is cutting outside of the Pacific Mills at Ocean Falls.

stitutions where big games draw well, notably Harvard, Princeton and Georgia Tech, are planning big sections to hold the crowds, so that crowds of 40,000 will not be a surprise if the interest keeps growing. Other colleges have engaged baseball fields in which to stage their games.

Intercollegiate games, once a novelty, are a growing feature of college intercourse, and double headers are being slated for early engagements. Harvard and also West Point Military Academy will entertain home fans with two games during one afternoon. The big three engagements will occur this year as follows: November 5, Princeton vs. Harvard, at Princeton; November 12, Yale vs. Princeton, at New Haven, and November 19, Harvard vs. Yale, at Cambridge.

Mr. Speaker and Others Discussed the Political Situation Canada Today

At the Liberal organization meeting Thursday night, W. E. Williams presiding, an able address was delivered by Hon. A. M. Manson, Speaker of the Legislature. He said it was difficult to get into fighting trim, for not even the smoke of the enemy was visible. They did not know whether they were to have a fight or not. There was no lack of inspiration in the gathering he saw before him. He hardly expected such a turnout. After what had happened in recent years, however, he was not surprised that people were interested in the election.

It was an evidence of good judgment that they were there. It was found that people were sticking less and less to party lines than formerly and that was the reason he saw some faces before him. After all there was little to be gained by bitter partisanship.

Mr. Manson spoke of the vision of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the building of the G.T.P. Railway. He and Sir John A. Macdonald were the outstanding figures in Canadian life. Sir Wilfrid carried the vision of the future through all his work. He wished the editor of the Toronto Globe and Arthur Meighen would both come here and get a little of the same vision. The present premier was an energetic man and clever. He had to his credit the War Times Election Act and the Closure, measures which took us back to the time of the Sturges in England. Sir Wilfrid had fought these measures through every step as he always fought autocracy.

Government of Interests.
The present Government, Mr. Manson declared was a government of the interests. They were very strongly prejudiced against the G.T.P. It was the Borden Government that rescued the Canadian Northern Railway from bankruptcy, and paid out ten million dollars for it; yet for a line that had never been subsidized by the people of Canada, except in one small instance, they refused to give a cent.

The G.P.R. got $800,000,000 of the people's money, Mr. Manson said, which was much more than the National Transcontinental got. The financial interests which were so closely allied to the Conservative administration were opposed to the Grand Trunk Pacific because they were interested in another line. Accordingly the rails were torn up and sent to Quebec and some of them were rusting there today.

Get Behind Railway.
Mackenzie King on the other hand was keenly interested in carrying out the policies of his illustrious predecessor and he had given it in black and white that if ever it was within his power to get behind this railway he would do so. There was no reason to think the railway would not be a success. Omicron was capable of sustaining an immense population and between here and McBride there was room for several million people. The resources were there and intelligent application

STOMACH ULCER AND GALL STONES

After Suffering 25 Years, Completely Relieved by "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. EDWARDS

MAPLEHURST PARK, HILLSBURY, P.Q.
"I am in my 78th year. About 25 years ago, I began to have trouble with my stomach. One doctor said I had Cancer; another said, Ulcer of the Stomach; another, Gall Stones; others, Ulcers of the Liver and Inflammation of the Gall Bladder."

Three years ago, I consulted one of the best specialists in Montreal. He said I must go to the hospital, have an Ulcer cut out of my stomach and gall stones removed. I was then 74 years old. I said "NO."

Then, I began to take "Fruit-a-tives". I found they helped me a lot, and I still take them occasionally, and I am so much better that my old friends often ask me what I have done to myself to look so well. I am gaining in weight and enjoying life very much."

of energy was all that was needed. It was a misfortune that they had not the sympathy of the Government. What was needed was a co-ordinated policy of development in which the Dominion and Provincial Governments would work hand in hand.

The Liberal party is the middle of the road party, said the speaker. Public life was always a matter of compromise. The Meighen policy was a tariff as high as Haman's gallows while the Liberal tariff was that for revenue only. The farmers want legislation for the farmers only. It was impossible to have government of the whole people for the benefits of one class, whether it was the farmer class or the interests at Ottawa.

No Independent.

Mr. Manson thought it possible the people here would be asked to support a man coming before them as an independent. The influence of a man sitting on the cross benches was almost nil. Before legislation came before the house it had already been thrashed out in the party caucus. He advised to look with suspicion on any independent candidate. Party Government had its weaknesses, but it was the best system yet evolved. He asked them to support Mackenzie King, not because he was a Liberal but because he was democratic. He hoped the people here would return one man by acclamation. Should an independent offer, however, it would be wise to look over his records and see what company he had been keeping.

H. F. Kergin, M.P.P.

Bert Kergin said it gave him great pleasure to say that they had a good meeting in Atlin in the interests of Mr. Stork and there were as many present as at that meeting. He believed they would give Fred Stork an almost unanimous vote.

This was the time to do something, Mr. Kergin declared. Until 1916 they were under a curse at Victoria. The Dominion and Provincial Governments had never been able to get together and unite on a policy. This was a good opportunity. Speaking of the ability of Premier Meighen, Mr. Kergin said he thought he would make a good wildcat.

Hon. T. D. Pattullo.
Hon. T. D. Pattullo said in the east on the street cars and on the streets you could hear politics discussed. The general situation in Canada indicated that Mr. King was likely to get a working majority in the next house. He could find no opinion expressed anywhere that Premier Meighen would be re-elected.

In this district it was to the interest of the people to support Mackenzie King. There was no doubt the largest group in the next House would be the Liberals and next to it the Farmers, the Conservatives with the long name coming third. He confidently expected Mr. King would have a majority in the House, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces would go solidly Liberal. There would be some Liberals elected in Ontario, a few in the prairie provinces and at least a majority in British Columbia. He had good reason for saying he believed there would be a Liberal majority in the next House.

Mr. Pattullo then spoke of conditions in Europe and concluded by urging the people here to use every influence to get a transpacific line of steamers operating out of this port. It would take a lot of fighting but he believed it could be done.

The minister said he told the people in the East there was no doubt about this seat going Liberal. He had spoken before the Reform Club in Montreal and told them British Columbia was fundamentally Liberal. It gave a solid Liberal representation in Laurier's time and there was no reason they could not do it again.

W. E. Williams.

President Williams spoke of the work of Hon. Arthur Meighen in fathering the closure and the Elections Act of 1917 as being that of a political juggler. What policy had he? No policy. He said he was in favor of higher tariff and forgot the fifteen per cent customs tariff which at the present time was added to the other tariff. Men of the west had been very uneasy over the tariff and would like to see the rate reduced, especially on implements and machinery in order to encourage development of resources. However Meighen says, "no, if you do so Canada will walk over bodily to the United States." It was the same old story that was given the people in 1911. "No truck or trade with the Yankee."

Free Nation.

The policy of Laurier, which Mackenzie King is to carry on summed up in the words of the great statesman, "Our course shall be to swing on as one free nation in the British Empire." No man ever did as much for the Empire as Laurier. Events have proved that the Laurier policy was the correct one in the matter of the Canadian navy. If this country had built her own ships under the Laurier program Canada would have had her own yards in operation when war broke out.

"What we want at Ottawa is a statesman," said the speaker, "not a man of the Meighen type. We are not satisfied today but want something better. Take the railway situation as an instance of their work. It shows no common sense or statesmanship. Meighen has not ever been to Prince Rupert and is not working about railways. His policy is 'Let her go'."

"This is the time to put in our best digs. It is up to every man to jump right in and do the best to right the present condition. If we cannot put this over we might as well get out of the country." Dr. W. T. Kergin expressed the opinion that the enemy was on the run but he urged Liberals not to assume the fight was won until the last vote was counted.

Ben Self told of some of the conditions he had discovered under the Meighen administration and urged those who believed in the country to make it worth while.

The gathering broke up with the singing of the National Anthem.

TEN YEARS FOR MANSLAUGHTER

Four Foreigners Found Guilty of Killing Alex. Boychuk Near Vegreville.

EDMONTON, Oct. 15.—The supreme criminal court jury after a deliberation of fifty minutes on the evidence submitted during the past four days in the cases of Wasyk Kusk, Wasyk Lihun, Mitro Lihun and John Serepnok, who were charged with the murder of Alex. Boychuk at Soda Lake, near Vegreville, on August 24, 1921, brought in a verdict that the men were guilty of manslaughter, thus reducing the charge of murder. Chief Justice Harvey afterwards sentenced each of the four men to serve a term of ten years imprisonment in the Prince Albert penitentiary.

The prisoners when they were made aware of the decision of the jury through the interpreter, received the news of their fate without any visible signs of emotion and when the sentence was imposed they maintained the same attitude. They were informed that the term might be lessened if they showed good conduct, and they might get out on parole according to the regulations governing such cases.

Lawyer Makes Appeal.

When asked prior to the imposing of sentence if they had anything to say, they replied that they had nothing to say themselves, but that they would trust their lawyer to make an appeal in their behalf. Then C. G. McGill, K.C., made an urgent appeal for clemency, stating that he lent view that the jury had taken of the case in bringing in a verdict of manslaughter, and not murder was an indication they recognized that the men had acted under great fear and provocation on the night Boychuk lost his life.

Must Abide by Laws.

In passing sentence Chief Justice Harvey said that he could not see his way clear to be lenient, because he felt that the men came from a community where assaults and attacks were very common, and they must be taught to respect Canadian law and order, and British institutions. He said that he felt constrained to pass fairly severe sentence and gave the men the sentence as stated above.

The prisoners then were led away by the provincial police, and John Schlam interpreted the finding of the jury and the sentence imposed to the court, which was crowded with foreigners from the district from which the prisoners came.

Beaten to Death.

Boychuk, who was wanted by the police for robbery, was a bully who it is alleged tried to make the accused give false evidence to clear him. They quarrelled and all four set on him and beat him until he declared he had had enough and by that time he was past recovery. The four then gave themselves up to the police.

EASY STAGES.

"How did you happen to become a burglar?" asked the well fare worker.

"By easy stages," replied No. 9875. "I first bought a soft drink at a county fair then I drove a taxicab awhile. After that I promoted wrestling bouts and at last before I knew it I was breaking into people's houses."

—Birmingham Age-Herald.

GIRLS' HOME TO BE BUILT PORT SIMPSON

Will Be Completed by May 1
 Next and Will Cost About $15,000.

ACCOMMODATE 35 PUPILS

The Crosby Girls Home at Port Simpson is to be rebuilt by the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. That is the decision made recently in Toronto and the local Methodists have been notified that work on the new building will commence early in the new year with the expectation of having it ready for occupation by May 1.

The new building is planned to accommodate 35 girl boarders and will cost about $15,000. It will be modern in every respect with proper plumbing and electric lighting systems and furnace heat. This will obviate much of the danger of fire, and will be a very great improvement on the former building.

Local Supervisors.

While the erection of the building will be under the direct control of the committee in Toronto, Dr. Snodgrass and Miss Myles of Port Simpson will look after the local end and Dr. W. T. Kerrin and C. C. Perry will likely be named to co-operate with them here.

There is a possibility that the Indian Department of the Dominion Government may erect a boarding school at Port Simpson for the use of the women of the Methodist Church just as they have done for the Catholic Church at Fort Fraser and in that case the new building about to be erected will be used as a community building for the use of the people of Port Simpson.

PUBLIC MEETING MINTYRE HALL

A public meeting will be held in the McIntyre Hall on Sunday, October 14 at 9 p.m. for the purpose of discussing the financial condition of the Russian and the best methods of raising funds. Members of church organizations, friendly societies are particularly invited.

Addresses will be given by Rev. Dr. Grant, Rev. Geo. G. Hooper, Alderman Perry, J. Stevenson, J. H. Burroughs, etc. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Federated Family Relief Committee for the Drought Stricken in Soviet Russia (Prince Rupert Branch), of which J. H. Burroughs is secretary pro tem.

GANG WILL MOVE FROM PRINCE GEORGE FOR STATION WORK

W. S. Featherstonhaugh, divisional engineer for the Canadian National Railways, stated this morning that the basement of the station at Prince George was now completed and the local building was expected to be started within two weeks. The same gang that put in the work at Prince George would be brought here to do the similar work. That was the reason the Prince George station had been commenced ahead of the one here.

No report has yet been received in regard to the contract for the dock superstructure.

GRAHAM TO BUILD NEW STATION HERE

Prince George Citizen Says He Intends to Start Work at Once and Push It Vigorously.

Contractor P. G. Graham of Moosejaw announces that he intends to start work at once on the Prince Rupert depot and push the work vigorously, says the Prince George Citizen.
