GANDHI VICTORIOUS IN DEATH FAST

SAMUEL'S RESIGNATION IS BEING TAKEN FOR GRANTED

Indian Nationalist Leader Is Eating Again Following Terms Of Voting Pact Being Adopted

News of London's Agreement With Compromise Plan Received With Great Rejoicing—"Gandhi Week" to Be Observed—India Office Issues Statement

POONA, India, Sept. 26:—Inspired by the news that the British government had approved most of the compromise plan on the privileges of Indian untouchables in the legislative elections, Mahatma Gandhi, Hindu nationalist leader, broke his "death fast" of protest at 5 o'clock this afternoon after having taken no solid food for six days and five hours.

PASSING OF RAILWAYMAN

A. H. Eager, Superintendent of Motive Power For Canadian National, Dies in Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Sept. 26:—A. H. Eager, general superintendent of motive power and car equipment for the Canadian National Railways, died here Sunday night, being the victim of a sudden heart attack. He was 64 years of age.

Mr. Eager, who died at his residence here, was born at Waterloo, Que., and entered railway service in 1885. Up to 1893 he was machinist apprentice with the Southeastern Railway and the Canadian Pacific Railway at Farnham, Que. His first promotion came when he was appointed locomotive foreman at Farnham, in 1899. Two years later he was transferred to Megantic, Que., and from there he came to Western Canada in 1903, as general foreman for the Canadian Pacific at Cranbrook, B.C. In 1906 he went to Calgary, and later was transferred to Kenora, Ont., as district master mechanic. He returned later to Calgary as locomotive foreman.

Joined Canadian Northern
In May, 1910, he entered the service of the Canadian Northern Railway at Winnipeg, as superintendent of shops. In 1915 he became assistant superintendent of rolling stock which position he held until late in 1918 when he was promoted to mechanical superintendent for the western lines. In 1923 he was placed in full charge of the motive power and car equipment of the railways, western division, and has held that position since.

Mr. Eager took a special interest in the apprentices in the shops and did much to make the apprenticeship system successful. Besides being a prominent railway man, he was active in fraternal and service organizations, being a member of the Scottish rite Masons and the Rotary Club. Mr. Eager is survived by his widow, a step-daughter, Miss Betty Rose Parr Eager, and one sister, Mrs. R. F. Shaw, of Waterloo, Que. The body will be forwarded to Waterloo for burial.

Might Corrupt Canadian Morals

OTTAWA, Sept. 26:—Prohibited entry into Canada include "No Bed of Her Own" by Val Lewton, "Six A.M." by Maxwell Bodenheim and "Husbands and Lovers" by Leslie J. Swabacher. Periodicals recently disallowed are "La Parce Stories," "Paris Magazine," "Brevities" and a Slovakian publication the name of which translated into English is "Daily Equality of People."

The news from London met with great rejoicing. At Simla, the halls of the legislative assembly echoed with loud cheers and a similar scene took place in the council of states.

Raja Gopa Charier, acting president of the Indian nationalist congress, announced the observance of a "Gandhi Week" beginning tomorrow and ending on the Mahatma's birthday on October 2. The week should be devoted, he said, to the removal of caste discrimination against the untouchables.

Gandhi had a bad night last night and physicians said this morning that his vitality was lower than at any time since he began the fast.

It was about 4:15 p.m. when news was brought to Gandhi of London's acceptance of the compromise agreement. He was too weak and his wife had to lift him up on his cot and prop his back while he read the official document. When he had finished, he lifted his head, smiled and murmured to his doctor: "This will be acceptable" and then sank back with a low moan.

London Satisfied
LONDON, Sept. 26:—A statement was issued by India Office today announcing agreement with the compromise plan of Hindu leaders in India on electoral matters. The statement said that the government had learned of the compromise "with satisfaction."

"The government will recommend to Parliament in due course," said the statement, "the adoption of the clauses of the agreement dealing with representation in provincial legislatures in India. It added, however, that the cabinet noted the agreement reached in India covered certain questions outside the recent award.

Official announcement is made of a change in the time-table of the Canadian National Railways passenger train from here for the east, effective October 3. The westbound train will continue to arrive here Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights at 9 o'clock.

King George Cuts Short Holiday Trip to Scotland so as to Be in London Following Crucial Meeting of Administration This Week

LONDON, Sept. 26:—King George will cut short his holiday in Scotland and will return to London Friday, it was announced today. His arrival will follow Wednesday's crucial cabinet meeting when the tariff agreements made at the recent Imperial economic conference in Ottawa will come up for final discussion. It is now taken for granted in political circles that Sir Herbert Samuel and his Free Trade Liberal colleagues in the cabinet will resign because of their opposition to these agreements.

PLANE IS GIVEN UP

Practically No Hope Now Held Out For Safety of Japanese Goodwill Flyers

NOME, Sept. 26:—With many hours having now passed since their fuel supply would have become exhausted, chances for the safety of three Japanese flyers in the light Junkers airplane of the Hichi Shimbun newspaper of Tokyo, which became missing on Saturday during a hop from Samushiro Beach, Japan, to Nome in the course of a projected goodwill flight to San Francisco, are believed today to be very remote.

Heavy storms had come up over the Bering Sea and North Pacific at the week-end since the plane's take-off and it is now all but conceded that the ship came down on the windswept and foggy waters and that her crew have perished.

The plane had not been authentically reported since five hours after the take-off on Saturday when it was 750 miles northeast of Tokyo.

Steamer Catala Has Trouble; Is Late in Arriving

On account of having developed boiler trouble which delayed her departure from Vancouver until late Saturday, Union steamer Catala, Capt. A. E. Dickson, ordinarily due here Sunday evening from the south, is some thirty hours late and is expected to arrive at midnight tonight. The vessel will continue her regular voyage north from here, making all scheduled calls, but, on her return to Vancouver, will be withdrawn from service to undergo annual overhaul for which she was to have been taken off the run shortly in any case. The steamer Cardena will come north on the Catala's run next Sunday while the Venture will take the run of the Cardena, being due here Friday night from the south.

Matchmakers Are Wagging Tongues

Significance Seen in Visit of Prince of Wales to Swedish Royal Palace

LONDON, Sept. 26:—The impending visit of the Prince of Wales to the Royal Palace of Sweden has set tongues of European matchmakers to wagging again. They see here an opportunity for the "world's most eligible bachelor" to press his suit with the beautiful 22-year old Princess Ingrid of Sweden.

The Prince is making a tour of Scandinavian countries, having gone primarily to open the Copenhagen British Industries Fair.

ECONOMY ADAPTATIONS

At a time like this when many people are unable to purchase the luxuries of life which have become almost necessary to their existence we find the more adaptable members of the community looking around for substitutes. For instance, many people this year cannot afford to buy peaches, apricots, plums and other fruits for preserving. They may possibly afford the sugar but to buy both would mean a very serious curtailment of a very valuable part of their food supply.

Some people have discovered that in their own back yards or within a very short distance therefrom there are wonderful little low bush cranberries which make excellent preserves or puddings or pies. They are not so large as the commercial varieties but the quality is just as good. They also make a good sauce for turkey or chickens or other poultry or game.

Other berries which are used by a good many include the blueberry, the little red huckleberry and the salal, all of which are very good when properly prepared and they help to provide those vitamins and other food elements which are necessary to perfect health.

It has been suggested that anyone who has been successful in the serving of any of the wild berries might tell the Daily News how they did it so that others might benefit from the experience. Write the recipe in as few words as possible and send it to the editor.

EVEN CONSERVATIVES KNOW

The Omineca Herald, Conservative, says: "Premier Tolmie, it would seem, has not been well advised by some of those he consulted in regard to forming a union government. It seems that his advisors were more intent on getting rid of the leader of the opposition and his first lieutenant than they were in getting a better government."

St. Andrews-By-The-Sea

Sea bathing in the warm waters of Katy's Cove, St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, New Brunswick, and sun bathing on the shining sands, are two of the most healthful and entertaining occupations of those who visit this popular and smart resort, which centres on the Algonquin Hotel of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

The illustration shows a group of socially prominent people from Canadian and United States cities sun bathing after a most refreshing plunge, and include:—Mr. and the Hon. Mrs. R. M. Redmond; the Hon. Percy, Hazel and Anne Shaughnessy; Judge and Mrs. Bond; Miss Margot Redmond; Mrs. S. Watson; Mrs. R. D. Bell; Mrs. George Balfour; Mr. Donald Markey; Col. Allan Magee; Gordon Shirres; Gordon Reed; Miss Dora Magee; Mrs. Nora Wainwright; Mr. R. C. Stevens; Miss Canlie, of Montreal; Miss H. D'Arcy, St. Louis; Miss V. Schoemaker, New York; and D. A. Anderson, Ottawa.

Inset is little Miss Lucinda Marguerite Vaughan of Montreal, who is showing the world what the well-dressed infant wears when about to paddle in the warm water, or build a great, big castle on the sands.

MECHANICS WIN TITLE

C. N. R. A. Softball Championship Settled Yesterday Afternoon

In the Canadian National Recreation Softball League playoff for second half honors yesterday, the Round House trounced the Station team by a score of 10 to 4, thereby obtaining possession of the Haines Softball Trophy while the Station receives the C. N. R. A. Softball Cup for runners-up.

The game was well played until the seventh inning when the Round House scored eight runs. The Station went up in the air and, with a few long hits by Cameron and Johnson and a medley of errors of both omission and commission by Station, the Round House ran the bases at will. The outstanding batters were Johnson and Cameron for Round House while Stiles secured the best hit for the Station with B. Tobey also batting well.

Allen, in the field for Round House, played tip-top ball, while Horton and Johnson were safe at short and third.

The Station infield had an off day.

Round House—Johnson, Horton, Cameron, Smith, Raabe, Arney, Allen, A. Skattebol, Nelson.

Station—Geddes, Unger, Astoria, Stiles, W. Tobey, B. Skattebol, Antonelli, McIntosh, B. Tobey.

Umpires—Comadina and Howe.

Billy Rheil, bench warmer with the Detroit Tigers, is a pinch hitter who really hits in the pinches. In 11 times at bat as a pinch hitter he connected with a safe hit nine times.

Two Children and $4⁰⁰ a Week!

WHEN John T. — was alive and healthy, both he and his wife were proud of the fact that they owned $5,000 of Life Insurance.

Five thousand dollars looked like a lot of money—about as much as John could earn in two years' time. Then suddenly Mrs. T. — was left alone in the world—alone, except for their two children and the Life Insurance.

Earnings stopped but bills had to be paid. In a few months' time, the insurance money had shrunk to $4,000. At this time, Mrs. T. — did some figuring. Safely invested, $4,000 would yield $200 a year—less than $4.00 a week. Not enough to pay the rent, let alone buy food and clothes for three!

And so another widow sought menial work through the classified ads. of the newspapers—and two more children were deprived of a mother's care.

Not a very pleasant story—but a true one. That's why we suggest that you measure your Life Insurance by the income it will produce—the income that you will need for your own old age—the income that will help take your place, if necessary.

ARCTIC IS DESCRIBED

Trading Schooner Chinook Here on way From Herschel to Vancouver

Life in North

Is Fraught With Adventure and Hardship But Two Trappers Like It

The Arctic is full of life in the summer and would be a wonderful place in which to live were it not for the restrictions against white men which make it difficult, according to "Scotty" McLellan, well known Arctic trapper, who with his partner, Leonard, spent Saturday in Prince Rupert on their way south with a cargo of Arctic fox furs in their schooner Chinook, after being four years in the north.

"Scotty" says he already wants to be getting back north but he wishes the Canadian government would make conditions better there. It seems that most of the country is under a blanket reserve for the use of the Eskimos and Indians in those parts. The law in this respect is strictly enforced by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. He claims that Alaska natives and half breeds are allowed to come into Canadian territory and trap whereas, while Canadians are not allowed to do so. Among the Eskimo half-breeds there is Alex. Stefansson, a son of Vilhjalmur Stefansson, the well known explorer.

According to McLellan's story, the only place they could trap was on the big ice floes. They were not allowed to kill foxes on the islands. They spent most of their time in Coronation Gulf. In summer, the place was teeming with ducks and geese and other wild fowl but they were not allowed to shoot them as they are protected in their breeding places. The natives and half-breeds had no compunctions in this regard and slaughtered the birds wholesale with pump guns, killing thousands and often not using many that they killed.

He Smiled

Asked what they ate, if they could not use the wild fowl, Scotty smiled and said: "Of course we always obeyed the law. What else could we do? We ate seal meat mostly, especially in winter."

Describing the method of killing the seals, McLellan said they would sight the animals on the ice half a mile away. To get near it was necessary to crawl most of that distance and it was trying work. The natives were too lazy to do it except to get just enough blubber to do them the winter. The moment one shot the seal it was necessary to dash forward and get it before it rolled into the hole close by and was lost beneath the ice.

The Chinook, when coming in from Baillie Island to Herschel brought Napoleon Verville who had been exploring along the coast and discovered a number of new islands. He reported Eskimos on Melville Island and also he told of numerous adventures with wolves which are killing off the caribou in the far north. He found dozens of carcasses of caribou lying on the snow just killed and left there by the ravenous creatures.

Verville, whom he described as one of the finest men in the north and who is now in hospital at Edmonton recovering from badly frozen feet, cut off three of his own toes with a razor in order to save his life. It was a very trying experience but it is of such stuff that the men of the north are made. Verville had fought wolves at different times and had some narrow escapes.

Telling of one of his escapades with wolves Verville said he and

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY

Editor, Daily News:—

Following the presentation of four successful concerts during recent years, the Prince Rupert Singers have been permanently organized under the name of "The Philharmonic Society." This society has for its object the promotion of a better appreciation of music, both choral and instrumental, and the raising of money for charitable purposes. In order to do this, it is realized that concerts must be put on at a popular price.

There are many people in this city who, while not being performers themselves, are deeply appreciative of good music. It has, therefore, been decided to create an associate membership in the society. This will enable us to put on concerts at a very low cost and thus make available more money for charity. For the coming season, the Philharmonic Society has pledged the proceeds of all public concerts to the city for relief purposes.

It is planned to hold two public and two private concerts during the 1932-33 season. At these concerts, various types of vocal, choral and instrumental music will be presented. In the private concerts, music of a more unusual character will be attempted.

Associate membership entitles the holder to the following privileges:

(1) One reserved seat at all public concerts.

(2) Two reserved seats at all private concerts.

(3) A request for favorite numbers to be performed by vocalists or the choir, if music is obtainable.

These privileges are extended for the reasonable figure of $2.00 for the season. Associate membership, of necessity, will be strictly limited.

The society sincerely hopes that the citizens will join them in this undertaking.

NOVARRO IN NOVEL ROLE

Altogether Different Type of Part Given Famous Actor in Picture "Huddle"

A radically new type of role is given Ramon Novarro in the picture "Huddle," which is the Tuesday night feature offering on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here. His role as an Italian laborer who wins a scholarship to Yale University is one of the most virile of his career and involves him in plenty of fast-moving action.

From brawls in the steel mill to driving line plunges on the football field, Novarro comes through with another splendid performance. He is seen a good deal on the football field with a number of noted American players also in the action.

For atmosphere, the film has many of the actual Yale scenes. In the supporting cast, Midge Evans is vivacious and sparkling as the object of Novarro's affections. Una Merkel provides much merriment as a vamping southern girl while Ralph Graves gives an expert performance as a fighting coach.

Support Farmers of Central B. C.

The farmers and gardeners of Central British Columbia are making an effort to supply the Prince Rupert market with vegetables, fruit, potatoes, poultry and eggs and other products of the district.

Prince Rupert people are asked to encourage this movement by asking for Central British Columbia products whenever practicable. Co-operation in this matter encourages merchants who buy from farmers and if the farmers are prosperous it will be an encouragement for others to take up land and thus add to the buying power of the whole northern and central part of the province.

Householders can help by keeping this in mind and asking merchants for Central B. C. products whenever possible.
