CHINESE DRUG IMPORTERS ARRESTED; BIG HAUL FROM LINER

Opium and Cocaine Seized on Board S.S. Monteagle at Vancouver at Midnight

VANCOUVER, Sept. 24.—A cache of 450 ounces of cocaine valued at $21,000 was seized on the C. P. R. steamship by customs officers, and two members of the Chinese crew arrested last night at midnight.

Customs officers had been tipped off to the effect that the drugs aboard the vessel and they immediately instigated a search with success. The drugs were intended for un-

Wealthy Chinese with Lavishly Gowned Women Attend Theatres; Second One Opened in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Sept. 24.—Some idea of the growth of the Chinese colony in this province may be gained by the opening of another large Chinese theatre in Vancouver. The Celestials have just acquired a long lease on the Imperial Theatre, one of the largest houses in the city, but which was closed for a long time. It is on Main Street, and indicates the expansion of Vancouver's Chinatown from the Pender Street arteries of Orientalism. There is another Chinese theatre—a large place in the heart of Chinatown. Both places are crowded nightly.

The entertainment runs to two houses nightly and lasts long after the white men's theatres close. Scores of handsome automobiles are lined outside as wealthy Chinese dash up. Lavishly gowned belles, and beaux of Chinatown attend, all attired with gems. The womenfolk dress in modern raiment and Chinese costumes.

The performances are everything from tragic drama to the Chinese Charlie Chaplin. Wild day night when a freight wagon mingle with the crashing of cymbals, tooting of horns, rattling of castanets and falsetto yodels of minstrels. The theaters are radiant with dragons, and the newly acquired theatre is tinted with riotous colors and ablaze with multi-colored electric lights.

It is estimated that Vancouver's Chinatown has increased vastly in recent years. Some of the Chinese are very rich. They have no indigents as public charges. Building has been extensive in Chinatown within the past nine months. A new bank has been opened there, with department stores and a business block of new erection.

The Japanese have no theatre of their own at present, but it is said one is contemplated. The growth of the Japanese is also great.

Why Not Pay Men Their Wages?

Under the laws of British Columbia the claims of the Crown come ahead of everything when a firm is unable to pay its debts. Which means that workmen cannot collect their wages until the claims of the Government are satisfied. Which means that a large number of workmen are unable to collect back wages for a good deal of work done in this district. Which means that the law in this case as in many others is a "hass."

Of course we must all obey the law. And of course if the law is wrong we must do wrong. But why not make the law right? There is certainly no justifiable reason for keeping it wrong. The Provincial Government has a great deal to do and a good many wrong things to set right, but this is one that should be remedied at once. It is unthinkable that workmen who have worked hard for their wages should be left stranded because the claims of the Government come ahead of theirs. In Prince Rupert there are a lot of men who worked for the Charlotte Islands Spruce Products Limited and other firms. These firms owed the Government a lot of stumpage dues and other monies. They also owed large sums in wages. Owing to the Government claims coming first, the men have had to do without their wages and in some cases they probably will get nothing unless the Government overrides the law and pays them what is owing to them.

Workingmen Have Reason to Be Sore.

Just put yourself in the place of the workingmen and see how you would feel! You have no resources except the wages you earn. You live from day to day, and when you have finished a piece of work you expect to be paid. Because you are living far from civilization you do not go out and cash your pay checks, preferring to have all the money at once when the work is completed. The time comes when you are laid off and you go out with your slip of colored paper in your hand feeling that you have your wages. On arrival at the bank the teller turns it back to you, stating that there are no funds, which means that your check is not worth the paper it is written on. This check would be good eventually were it not that the claims of the Government, perfectly legal claims, come ahead of yours. This should be changed.

Labor to Back Up Efforts of Statesmen.

An effort is to be made by representatives of the larger nations to have a cessation of competition in armaments. President Harding invited the powers to meet in Washington, and now it is being arranged that the efforts of the President shall be backed up by the labor organizations of the countries interested. We know of no effort the labor leaders could make which is more worthy than the one they have undertaken. It is to be hoped that in each of the countries chiefly interested there will be such a demonstration as will make it clear to the party in power that the people as a whole want disarmament.

Keeping Only Just Within the Law.

Premier Meighen is keeping only just within the law in appealing to the people of the country without first passing a redistribution measure. The British North America Act, which is the written part of the constitution of Canada, states that a census shall be taken every ten years and that after the taking of the census a redistribution measure shall be passed giving the different provinces representation according to their population in comparison with Quebec.

The census has been taken and enough results have been seen to make it clear to Premier Meighen that if he waited for redistribution his well beloved Ontario would lose some of her prestige and he would lose some of his power. With unseemly haste he rushes in and announces that, although he has waited for years, he can wait no longer without appealing to the people on the revision of the tariff with the object of increasing it very considerably. He dismisses half of his cabinet and replaces them with new men, some previously unknown to most people in Canada. He announces that Parliament will be dissolved at once and an election will take place before the new year. Had he waited two months he could have had a redistribution, but that would have given an advantage to the enemy, and heaven knows the enemy is strong enough already. He must turn this shady back in order to gain political advantage, and the people think he is smart for doing it. His followers gloat over it. Unhappily political morality is something almost unknown in Canada or Mr. Meighen could not do anything like that. The people would not stand for it.

RUPERT DOGS WON AT WESTMINSTER SHOW LAST WEEK

A. Greenwood Enters Three and Gets Several First Prizes—Scottish Terrier and Airedales.

A. Greenwood, the local dog fancier, sent three dogs to the New Westminster Exhibition last week and won five first prizes, one second, one third and three specials.

"Ruminantly Refrain," the female Scottish terrier, won first in open competition and was awarded a special for the best Scottish terrier in the show.

"Bradford Oorang," an Airedale puppy dog, was entered in both junior classes, puppy and novice, and won first prize in each. "Bradford Surprise," his sister, which was nearly killed by an automobile in the spring, won first in the puppy class, first in the novice, second in limit and third in open. This female captured both special prizes for best male or female in puppy and novice classes.

The Airedale puppies were born in Prince Rupert in February and went up against much older dogs at New Westminster. Mr. Greenwood received a big offer for "Ruminantly Refrain" but refused to part with her at the present time.

Aunt Jemima's Helpful Hints

Some of you probably do not know Aunt Jemima. If you read this column regularly you will soon get to know her. She is a woman that knows a whole lot and that is what a whole lot of women know or think they know. But Aunt Jemima is different. If you have any questions to ask her send them in. She takes an interest in everybody and everything. In a quiet way she has been giving advice around town and now she is going to answer questions through this paper. Here are answers to one or two questions she has recently received:

Maud—Your sweetheart's writing shows modesty in his using the small "i" for a personal pronoun. He is also probably absent-minded in trying to dot his "i's" and to cross his "t's." You should tell him to use a pen or something when writing, as it is easier to read.

Dear Aunt Jemima: Which I am 52 years old and in love with a nice widow lady but she won't marry me unless I raise whiskers. So I have raised a big beard and mustache, but it is black, while my hair on my head is nearly white. Why is this?
 Yours truly,
BILLIAM B. GORRY.

Answer—The reason, Mr. B. Gorry, is probably your whiskers are a half a century younger than the hair of your head.

Funny how coincidences will happen, isn't it? Here is another letter to Aunt Jemima, also about whiskers. Jake Binks, of this city, writes: "I am keeping company with a widow lady which wrote telling me I must give up my whiskers. When I appeared close shaved, she chased me away with a kettle of hot water. Then I found out she meant 'whiskey' instead of 'whiskers.' What shall I do to win her love back? She is good looking and makes fine brew."

Aunt Jemima's advice is that you call again with false whiskers. Tell her she might have failed to recognize you the other time.

Without advertisements, this paper would not be as interesting to you, because information about goods for sale in the stores is news—just that.

NEW YORK TO HAVE PLENTY OF NEW PLAYS

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Last spring the New York producers were viewing the theatrical situation through dark blue spectacles. We were given the impression that everybody connected with the theatrical business was headed for the bread line. The prospects for the coming season were declared to be as poor as a country parson who is struggling to maintain a flivver and nine children on his regular stipend. The Actors' Equity became fussy and George M. Cohan threw up his hands. "I quit," he announced. "I will produce no more shows." And everybody immediately called him Foxy George. Cohan sees the hard times ahead and merely intends to stay out of the game until things brighten up," it was declared. Other producers were said to be planning to follow George's lead and it was seriously predicted that half of the Broadway houses would be dark this season.

And now with the season of 1921 barely commenced there is not the slightest indication of the predicted dearth of shows. On the contrary. At the time of writing there are running thirteen comedies—well, more or less comedies—twelve serious plays, nine musical shows, three revivals, and six survivals. In addition, half a dozen are budding. Therefore it is apparent that this season is not likely to differ essentially from any other New York season. A few good plays will be given to the public, also a few bad plays, and a great number of merely so-so plays. A few producers will make money and a good many will lose money while the public will walk up and pay it's money just about as usual.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

"POOR old Ireland. Now that the elections are on she finds it terribly difficult to get into the headlines."

"THIS opening of campaigns is getting a bit monotonous. Suppose we rise now and declare the campaign open and forbid any one else opening it again."

"OLD John Oliver has lumbago. Better that than be like some politicians who have not backbone enough to have lumbago in."

"IT is easy enough for Meighen to appoint ministers from Quebec province, but the next thing will be to elect them. Ah, there's the rub!"

"IF only there was a little light ahead!" sighed Premier Meighen.

"IF only the farmers and I could see alike!" sighed Mackenzie King.

"IF only those labor men were not so boisterous!" sighed Cressar.

"IF only there were no politicians!" sighed the voters.

"IF only they would just get on with that street surfacing," sighed Mayor Rochester.

WOMAN'S EVILS OF MODERN TREND

Woman of Today and Her Return to Harom Life.

Sept. 24.—The sex of the harem is best known to the woman's nature and for the social life she should be there. The wife Freid Bey, expert in finance, to the court in an interview. "The sex of the harem is the superior product to the Russian woman, the Italian woman, the English woman and the self-centered American woman," she continued. "I want to see the independence of the American woman, but now I see the distress of the harem woman, the Russian woman, the Italian woman, the English woman and the self-centered American woman."

These women mean the right to spend their money freely, to marry and be childless. They are responsible for a good factory labor expended in directions. They work with their hands to their clothes, their minds to their fashions, novels, and have become their slaves.

Little Polygamy. Nationalists are in favor of the theory of polygamy. In fact it has been raised as an institution that we are sure woman's home, and the best thing for her there is the which gives her much but not license. We wear less a uniform grown in the streets, which are being victims to and at home, if we do not see our husband's not obliged to do so, that is liberty enough.

PALESTINE IS VERY COSTLY

British People Taxed to Keep Up Military Occupation of Country.

CONDITIONS IMPROVING

Police Force Being Trained to Help Preserve Law and Order.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Sir Herbert Samuel, High Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief in an interim report just published as a White Paper gives an account of the civil administration of Palestine during the period July 1, 1920, and June 30, 1921.

The report shows that, while the civil administration forms no burden on the British taxpayer, the case is different with regard to military expenditure. Sir Herbert Samuel writes:

The defence of Palestine is assured by a garrison maintained by the Mandatory Power. The numbers of the garrison have now been reduced to 5,000 combatant troops. The charge thereby imposed upon the British Exchequer is £2,500,000 a year. It therefore appears that the cost of a British garrison, with its complement of ancillary troops, officers, artillery horses and mules is now at the rate of £1,000,000 for every 2,000 men.

Police Force.

The Palestine Administration maintains a police force, with a strength of 1,300 drawn from all sections of the local population. The force is not yet at a satisfactory standard of efficiency, but a training school has been established, and is already achieving good results, and every effort is being made to raise the standard of the force. In addition, a new gendarmerie of 500 men, 300 mounted, of whom 50 on camels, and 200 unmounted is being organized. This force, while it will form a part of the Palestine Police, will not be employed on ordinary police duties.

A great number of blood feuds among the Bedouins of Palestine have been settled by the intervention of the district officials. In the Beersheba district alone 134 have been dealt with. The peace and order of the country have thereby been improved.

Jewish Population.

At its outset the report gives an account of after-war conditions of Palestine, a country which "within the limits of a province offers the varieties of soil and climate of a continent." It now, after centuries of misrule supports a population of barely 700,000, "much less than that of Galilee alone in the time of Christ." Of the inhabitants Jews number about 260,000, many of whom are members of the agricultural colonies established during the last 40 years. Of the rest of the people 77,000 are Christians; the others are Moslems, and many of the Christians are Arabic speaking.

Sir Herbert Samuel traces the progress of the Zionist movement, leading to the Balfour Declaration, and states that the British Government "contemplates the satisfaction of the legitimate aspirations of the Jewish race throughout the world in relation to Palestine, combined with a full protection of the rights of the existing population."

Advisory Council.

The establishment of an Advisory Council last October, "the first step in the development of self-governing institutions," is then described, and Sir H. Samuel offers a warning against too violent changes—"there is a point where efficiency may become harassing." At present, and of necessity, the heads of the departments are British, but "as Palestine possessing the necessary qualities can be chosen and trained to administrative work, it is intended to reduce the number of British and to increase the number of Palestinian officials. This process has, indeed, already begun."

Need For Money.

One great difficulty confronting the administration has been due to the long delay in the formal settlement of the international status of Palestine, which among other things has prevented the issue of a Government loan, while the Zionists have not yet provided any large sums for development or colonization. About 10,000 Jewish immigrants,

THE TORTURE OF INDIGESTION

Thousands Made Miserable By This Trouble

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Relieves It

What is indigestion and what causes it? As you know, solid food must be changed into a liquid by the stomach before it can be taken up as nourishment by the blood.

The stomach acts as a churn. It is covered by a strong, muscular coat and lined with a soft, delicate membrane which secretes the Gastric Juice which digests or dissolves solid food.

When food enters the stomach, the muscular coat squeezes and presses the food from end to end, or churns it, with the gastric juice to dissolve or digest it.

But—if the stomach muscles are weak—or if the dissolving fluid is poor—or insufficient—then food cannot be digested properly and you have indigestion.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the most wonderful medicine in the world for strengthening the stomach muscles and providing an abundance of pure, full-strength dissolving fluid to completely digest every meal. "FRUIT-A-TIVES" does this because it keeps the kidneys active, the bowels regular and the blood pure, which insures pure Gastric Juice.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" will correct your indigestion or Dyspepsia and enable you to enjoy every meal. Try it.

however, arrived between September, 1920, and May, 1921.

But a good deal has been done and the cost of the civil administration has been kept within the amount of local revenue. No grant-in-aid has been received from the British Exchequer, though taxation has been reduced and the tobacco monopoly abolished. An appendix shows that the total revenue of the year was £2,214,000 and the expenditure £2,286,000.

Order and Security.

Sir Herbert Samuel refers to the temporary arrangement by which the Emir Abdulla, under the general direction of the High Commissioner, administers the mandated area east of the Jordan. Conditions there are not yet satisfactory; "order and security are still lacking"—a matter of concern to Syria as well as Palestine—its own inhabitants and those of neighboring territories all look to the Mandatory Power to prevent the region becoming a prey to anarchy.

TWINS THREE TIMES IS FINANCIAL BURDEN

Soldier Seeks Bounty After Having Six Children Under Five Years Old.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—Pte. C. T. N. Smith, of the 13th Battery C.E.F., Toronto has written to the Dominion command G.W.V.A. with a rather unique complaint. He went overseas in 1916 and shortly after he left his wife presented him with a fine set of twins. He returned to Canada and in December, 1919, another set of twins arrived. Again in July this year a third set of twins arrived at his humble but happy home.

Pte. Smith does not complain. Nevertheless, it is apparent from his letter that there can be too much of a good thing. He finds six children in the house all under the age of five somewhat trying, and also somewhat expensive. Pte. Smith heard in Toronto that under such circumstances His Majesty sometimes gives bounties and he asked the G. W. V. A. to enquire into the matter.

Mr. C. Grant MacNeil, the Dominion secretary, is taking up the matter with the secretary of state, and Pte. Smith will be informed if any bounty is coming to him.

MUSIC CAUSE JAZZ DANCE

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—It is almost impossible to find out who is to blame for jazz dancing.

Really, this is a question which many consider by no means inconsequential. At first thought one might pin the responsibility on the dancing teachers, but if you ask them, they will shrug their tuxedoed shoulders in a rhythmic manner and plead not guilty. It is the fault of the composers, they will tell you, passing the buck in double-quick time.

The denial of the composers is sharp, their contradiction flat and the explanation of the why of jazz music natural—they give the public what it wants.

Public Divides.

Seemingly the public is divided in its opinion on this big question. Some say the younger generation is to blame. Jazz dancing and jazz music are, to repeat their own words, just exactly what one might expect when the youth of land gads about in sporty automobiles, simulates contempt for Mrs. Grundy's ideas and shows a determination to do everything in a fast and snappy way.

Others maintain that jazz is a natural reaction to Victorian customs. A few of their neighbors, almost abandoning hope, resign themselves to the thought that something called the spirit of the age is really the reason for fitful dancing styles, expressing wonder the while, as to just what this little old world is coming to.

Matter of Music.

The manner in which the dancing instructors put the blame on the chaps who create tunes is exemplified by R. W. Vizay, president of the American Society of Dancing Teachers.

"Dancing is wholly a matter of music," he said. "The reason a waltz is out of date is because there is no Strauss today to compose a real one and make the people glide to it. When good music is composed, good dancing will result. As long as you have jazz music you will have jazz dancing."

A very small proportion of couples dance properly these days, Mr. Vizay, remarked. Take the ordinary ballroom, he said, and you will see 20 couples tottering, five shimmying, three doing the "Chicago" and ten dancing properly. The teachers show their pupils how to dance properly, he continued, but when they leave and begin reacting to the jazz tunes of the cabaret and the roof garden—well, now, how are you going to keep 'em from shaking a mean ankle?

CHECK YOUR Bowel Troubles

BY USING DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY

When you are troubled with diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps and pains in the stomach, cholera, cholera morbus, summer complaint, bloody flux, or any looseness of the bowels be sure and obtain a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's" and see how quickly it gives you relief. This wonderful remedy has been on the market for the past 76 years and we wish to warn you against accepting a substitute which may be dangerous to your health.

Mr. Samuel Bowker, Tatumville, N. S., writes—"While visiting in Western Canada I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. After trying many proprietary medicines I got no relief, but kept getting worse. I was advised to take Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and I lost no time in doing so. I cannot hesitate in recommending it most highly, for when I had not yet taken half the bottle I was relieved. I must say that "Dr. Fowler's" is given a fair trial it will show its good qualities." The price of the genuine is low, a bottle put up only by The T. Nabor Co. Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Sport Chat

During the past season some of the baseball clubs of towns in the Kootenay country have had interesting experiments with imported players. Trail, Rossland, Nelson, Fernie and Cranbrook are not very far from Calgary and on several occasions players have been imported for special games from the prairie city. On Labor Day two Fernie teams, the Hill Crests and the White Spruce, were to play a game. The former was to have six Calgary professionals for the game and was to pay $750 for them. The manager of the White Spruce Club, learning of this, boarded the train on which they arrived and offered the players an additional fee to desert the Hill Crests which they did.

"This little instance is related merely to show how crooked professional baseball is," says the Cranbrook Courier, in launching a campaign for amateur ball in the Kootenay country. The Trail News, which is also behind the proposition says: "As a usual thing a man who plays ball for money is not very reliable. He is out for the money and he is not very particular whose money it is. He is just as liable to throw a game as he is to work for the club which hired him. The system has a corrupting influence on young players and will ruin any local organization that permits it." It is also told how the Nelson Club paid $1000 for some imported players for a game with Rossland and lost.

John Lawrence Sullivan, heavy weight champion pugilist of America from 1882 to 1892, was by no means a prohibitionist. Yet his life furnished one of the strongest and most convincing arguments in favor of temperance. During his career in the roped square Sullivan was a bibulous, boisterous man living strenuously today and consigning the morrow to take care of itself. As a result of his riotous existence, he lost championship, money and friends, he suddenly, to the astonishment of all who knew him, made a radical change in his mode of life. He deserted his majesty, King Alcohol, and restricted his beverages to cold water and became a sedate and dignified citizen and a useful, respected member of the community. Having once decided to cut out John Barleycorn, Sullivan embarked on a career as a lecturer and he seldom failed to dwell on the subject of strong drink. In fact his verbal attacks were even more savage than his assaults on ring opponents. In time the lecturer acquired a competence, established a comfortable home near Boston, the city of his birth, and lived there happily till the time of his death, February 3, 1918.

FRENCH CUE MARVEL COMING TO STATES

Roger Conti Will Represent France in World's Billiard Championship Tournament.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The meteoric rise in the billiard world of Roger Conti, French cue marvel, has attracted as much attention in Europe as Willie Hoppe's spectacular performances in America some 12 years ago. Conti is coming to the United States this month to represent France in the world's billiard championship tournament, to be held in Chicago in November.

Born in Toulouse in 1901, young Conti began to wield a cue in his father's billiard parlors when the top of his head was hardly visible above the tables. He used a stool to make some of the more difficult shots. In his early teens, he defeated many of the ablest players in Europe at bakline. Recently he gave Doruet, one of the 10 best French players, 150 points, and beat him in a 500-point game, running out in five innings. He is weakest on masse shots, but this fault is overcome by marvelous position play and nursing.

Should you be around when the Prince of Wales is engaged in sport of any kind you will see his mouth moving just as do the thousands of mouths at a basemall match. He is chewing gum. He had been out shooting at the Qu'Appelle lakes and as he was waiting for the train he strolled into a store and bought a packet of Wrigley's. It was like the first glass that makes a toper. The Prince became inoculated with the virus, now he chews brazenly and openly even in and around dear old London.

For the first time in international tennis history Japan stands as the challenging nation for the Davis Cup. The Nipponese players have come through as the result of defaults in the first two rounds and two very impressive victories in the semi-final and final over India and Australasia respectively. They have earned their advance and in reaching the challenge round have lived up to predictions.

AMERICAN SAILORS TOO FOND OF GIRLS

Annoy People of Norway by Their Amorous Attitude When on Recent Visit.

The officers of the American battleship squadron which recently paid a two weeks' visit to this port were very popular and were entertained privately in Norwegian homes, but the leading newspapers of the city criticized severely the conduct of some of the sailors while on shore leave.

The squadron was composed of the Kansas, Michigan, Connecticut, South Carolina and Minnesota, under command of Rear Admiral Hughes. The Christiania newspapers published several articles protesting because the American sailors made too violent love to the Norwegian girls while riding about the city in taxicabs, asserting that the sailors "squeezed and hugged them" in public. One of Norway's prominent clerks wrote a protest to the Afterposten, charging that the conduct of some of the American sailors was "an insult to the city" and a disgrace to the American nation. He urged Admiral Hughes to put a stop to it. Some parents sent letters to the newspapers urging the Norwegian authorities to protect the Christiania girls from association with the American sailors.

C. K. Howard, general tourist agent of the C.N.R., Toronto, J. Leblanc, district passenger agent, Quebec, and M. F. Tompkins, general freight agent, Moncton, were passengers from Vancouver through the city from the Prince George this morning en route East.

Methodists. The Methodist Church is to reopen the Men's Own Gymnasium which has not been used for some years on account of the public school manual training work having been conducted there.

In the afternoons after school hours the Men's Own gymnasium is to be opened to the children for physical training and play.

The younger boys of the Methodist Church are divided into two groups: Trail Rangers, boys from 10 to 14, and Tuxis Boys, 14 to 18.

Next Wednesday night there is to be a meeting in the Presbyterian Church to start the Young People's Society going again.

The activities of the Ladies' Aids in all the churches will also actively commence soon.

COURT TO TRY HEAL TROUBLES

Ottawa Will Have Domestic Relations Tribunal Screened From Public.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—In order to obviate unnecessary publicity in cases before the police court, dealing with domestic troubles, which he states does much to hinder an amicable settlement of them being arrived at, Magistrate J. E. Askwith intends to institute a Court of Domestic Relations.

This court, which will function in much the same way as does the court of a similar nature in Toronto, will be held in the afternoon, and the general public will not be admitted. It will deal with all cases which have to do with family troubles, such as charges of non-support, wife desertion and family squabbles, and while the members of the Press will be permitted to attend, Magistrate Askwith suggests that they will agree not to publish anything in connection with the cases, which might prove harmful to the family or families concerned, and which is not of general interest to the readers of the daily newspapers.

Publicity Inadvisable. "During the many years I have occupied the bench as a police magistrate," said his worship, "I have always held that it is my duty, where possible to try and bring about harmony between husbands and wives and members of families, who feel that they are forced to take their insolubles into police court for adjustment. I do not think it helps matters, for the many, at times, trivial disagreements to be aired in open court, where they receive publicity which is anything but conducive towards bringing about an amicable settlement, but rather fosters a spirit of antagonism. It is for this reason that I intend to institute the Court of Domestic Relations, where cases which appertain to family troubles can be disposed of without the general public being present. The members of the Press will be welcome at all times, but I am hopeful they will endeavor to co-operate with me, in avoiding any unnecessary publicity being given to the cases which may come up for a hearing where the public interest is not involved."

COW BAY CROSSING PLEASURES MINISTER

A special despatch from Victoria to the Vancouver World says: Hon. J. H. King, minister of public works, states that the level crossing now authorized at Cow Bay, Prince Rupert, is of considerable importance to the development of the government waterfront at Prince Rupert. It will also add to the accommodation of steamers, and fishing boats which go into the port, and eliminate an inconvenient and unsightly overhead crossing.

STRANGE RELIGIOUS SECT WOULD SETTLE ON RICH DELTA LAND

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 24.—For the second time in three months, representatives of The Tongues of Living Fire have visited the Fraser Valley and Delta, looking over the site of a proposed colony for their co-religionists.

The sect practices vegetarianism, believe in the Holy Ghost as the main deity, and, it has been claimed by press reports, practice flagellation as vicarious punishment for the sins of the world. Enoch says the sect is willing to suffer for erring mankind. The colony has 33 families with many children and have apparently plenty of funds.

FAVORS FINAL APPEAL COURT

Sir Donald McMaster Thinks Time Not Ripe for Eliminating Privy Council.

LONDON, Sept. 23.—The intention expressed by Sir Donald McMaster, aged 75, and in frail health of returning to Canada and living there "permanently" after his residence in England for nearly twenty years has renewed Canadian interest in the career of this distinguished lawyer and member of Parliament. It is understood that Sir Donald will not be a candidate at the next general election here. He has represented Chertsey as a Unionist for the past eleven years. His first success as a political candidate was in Glenary, Ont. forty years ago, when he was elected to the Ontario Legislature. Practically the same riding for the Dominion House elected him M.P. three years later. He moved to England in 1905 because of his extensive law practice as a Privy Council "specialist." In connection with this practice Sir Donald has crossed the Atlantic ninety times.

Sir Donald McMaster, speaking from his experience as a politician and a practitioner in constitutional law both in England and in Canada, gave an interesting opinion on the subject of Inter-Imperial conferences of statesmen.

No Imperial Cabinet.

"They may call it what they like," said Sir Donald, "but there was really no such thing as an Imperial War Cabinet. A cabinet is merely a committee of parliament, and it must obviously command the support of the Legislature of which it is a part, while the legislature in its turn is responsible to a definite body of constituents. The so-called War Cabinet had no such authority, but it was the best body which could be devised under the special circumstances."

Sir Donald is persuaded that the idea of an Imperial Parliament "in the large sense" will never be seriously entertained in the Empire at large, although he fully admits the necessity of frequent consultations between statesmen of the United Kingdom and the Dominions. "And further," he added, "these consultations must be private. Measures which may be considered necessary in the interests of the whole body of the British people can then be discussed, and if considered advisable may later be submitted for discussion by the respective legislatures. In Canada there is a certain amount of distrust of Imperial Conferences, because of a fear that there is an intention to shoulder a whole lot of responsibility upon the Dominions. Nothing of the kind has ever been breathed here."

Judicial Committee.

Upon the question of bringing appeals from the Dominions to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council—a subject which has lately received a good deal of attention in Canada—Sir Donald's opinion was of value. Forty years ago, when he held his earliest briefs in "the dowdy court in Downing Street," Herschell, Davey, Webster and Benjamin, the famous advocate from the Southern States of America, were the leaders of the Privy Council Bar.

"On the whole I cannot say the present system works badly," declared Sir Donald. "It is necessary that Canada should have a strong final court of appeal, and at present I should not think it in the interests of the Dominion that the rights of appeal to the Judicial Committee should be abolished. The time may come when, with the strengthening of the bench throughout the whole of Canada, a supreme court may there be established which will earn the confidence and approval of the whole of that country. But in my opinion that day has not yet arrived, and it should not be unduly hastened."

ANOTHER HATFIELD.

"Did ye hear that our weather forecaster is tryin' to get transferred?"
"No, I didn't, si. What's the trouble?"
"He says the climate doesn't agree with him."—Western Christian Advocate.
