One Life is Lost in a Fire at Hyder

PEOPLE OF DUBLIN HOPEFUL OF SETTLEMENT AND PEACE

Fire Destroys the Beach Hotel at Hyder and Only the Charred Remains of Fred Card Is Left

STEWART, July 23.—One man was burned to death last night shortly after midnight when the Beach Hotel, Hyder, was destroyed by fire. Only prompt action in dynamiting small surrounding buildings prevented the spread of the fire and the total destruction of the little town.

The outbreak of fire was discovered in the upper storey of the hotel shortly after midnight. Flames spread rapidly and a named Fred Card was apparently unable to escape, for his charred remains were discovered this morning among the debris. The building was completely gutted and total disaster to the fishing part of the town on the piles was avoided by the free dynamite in destroying the small buildings adjoining.

The fire alarm was sounded in Stewart and several automobiles and other rigs took parties of men to the neighboring town to render assistance. Fortunately no wind was blowing, as otherwise, with its totally inadequate fire department, Hyder would have been wiped out.

The Beach Hotel is owned by Mr. Lindsay.

Fiscal Autonomy Is Chief Plank in Peace Proposals Irish Expect Settlement

LONDON, July 23.—The outstanding feature of the Government's proposals in regard to an Irish peace is the concession of fiscal autonomy, it is stated on high authority here today. The position of Ulster is amply secured.

General Smuts, the South African Premier, is expected to leave London for Ireland, probably on Monday, to place his services at the disposition of de Valera and Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, during the critical consideration of the Irish peace proposals.

DUBLIN, July 23.—The impression is growing here that an Irish peace will be made by Premier Lloyd George and de Valera and that it will work out in a general settlement of difficulties. The terms of the offer are still held in strictest confidence.

SCRANTON, Penna., July 23.—The engineer was killed and 27 people were wounded in the wreck of a Lackawanna train near here.

Ketchikan Renews Effort to Secure Fishing Business

Apparently another attempt is to be made by Ketchikan to take the fish business from this port where it naturally belongs and centre it in that town. In its welcome to Governor Bone, the Ketchikan Alaska Chronicle has the following:

"Very gratifying indeed to every Alaskan have been the reports and administration statements coming from Washington that President Harding and his lieutenants and the Congress of the United States are determined to cut down the barriers which have been holding Alaska back and to pave the way for the greatness to which the territory is entitled."

"In this direction there is much that will take months or even years to work out, but also there are a few simple remedies which if applied will add wealth and population and citizenship to the Territory and the nation, almost immediately."

"Foremost among these would be an amendment to the administration tariff bill, reading in effect:

"All tribute or salmon, or the products thereof, arriving at an American port—direct or through any foreign country, which have been packed or prepared for shipment in other than American territory, shall be subject to a duty of three cents per pound; and all other deep sea fish, or the products thereof, arriving at an American port or through any foreign country, which have been packed or prepared for shipment in other than American territory, shall be subject to a duty of one cent per pound."

"This legislation would mean that Alaska would be the fish market of the world, producing and sending forth its own product, that it would have a population of thousands, the consumers of American made and grown products, the builders of an empire."

Rupert the Market.
"Today, under existing laws, the fish market of the North Pacific, of all the west coast of North America, is Prince Rupert, British Columbia, Canada. And strange, but true, it is this great market, not because of a Canadian wealth and resource, but because of Alaska riches, and because Uncle Sam permits it to divert and gobble up the fresh fish business of American waters."

"Prior to 1914, the fresh fish business of the North Pacific was handled principally through Alaskan and Puget Sound cities. Then the Grand Trunk Railway, with government aid, was completed to Prince Rupert, cutting off hundreds of miles in the haul from the fishing grounds to the markets of eastern United States. Every effort was made, every government facility was given and even discriminations were made by Orders in Council to force the business from the American distributing points to the Canadian ports, and cold storage plants at Prince Rupert were even subsidized."

Most Wealthy in World.
"The waters of the North Pacific are reputed to be the most wealthy in the world. Each year the yield runs into tens of millions of pounds. Alaskan waters produce them and the American market of the eastern and middle western states consume them. Canada lies between the points of production and consumption. And because it does, with the ignoring of the resources by the United States government, and (Continued on Page 7.)

Will There Be Oil Found In British Columbia?

Great efforts are being made just now to find oil in British Columbia. There is boring going on in the Peace River country, in the Fraser Valley and other points, and preparations are being made to try find the liquid fuel at Burns Lake and in the Kitsumkalem Valley. Then there is the oil shale proposition at Queen Charlotte Islands, which looks about as good as any of the other oil schemes, possibly better.

If oil can be extracted from the Queen Charlotte Island shales it will mean an immense thing for Prince Rupert. To have fuel right at our doors with vessels coming for it and with the mill for extracting it running all the time, would mean a general increase of interest in this part of the province, and especially would it give a boost to the islands. It is to be devoutly hoped that nothing will stop the utilization of the natural resource which until recently few people expected would be a real asset to the country.

In the Fraser Valley there have been recent good indications of oil. The Boundary Bay well struck gas, something like the well on the Pouce Coupe River, and as a result there has been a flurry in Boundary Bay stocks.

The Kitsumkalem Company is selling stock to raise money with which to bore, and at Burns Lake they already have the money, although the last news received was that they had not yet been granted their licenses.

There are apparently two producing wells in the Mackenzie River basin so far, and dozens of outfits are either boring or preparing to bore. Once it is proved that there is sufficient oil to pay for piping, a main will be laid to the coast, and it is possible Prince Rupert or Stewart may be the outlet. In any case the district will see great development as a result.

Looks Like Cash For Drydock Creditors.

It looks as if the drydock creditors were really to get some of their money now. The official letter published yesterday made a number of them get busy forwarding their accounts in proper form prior to the sending out of the checks.

If some of the creditors are to be left out of the distribution it will work a hardship on the ones so discriminated against. Goods supplied for the boarding house were just as much used in the building of the ships as was the steel. To say that the government will pay for material going into the ships but not for goods supplied to feed the men who were putting in the material seems like begging the question. It is to be hoped that the creditors will all be paid without discrimination.

Fewer Unemployed In Great Britain.

Much of our success or failure depends upon the success or failure of the little island of Britain. We are in close financial touch with that country and what affects them also affects us. The coal strike tended to make things quiet here. Other factors were at work tending to make conditions dull. Now there is a turn. Great Britain is employing more men and we shall find the improvement spread. The coming winter need not necessarily be a hard one.

Congratulate Terrace On Its Development.

The Terrace district is to be congratulated on its development. There are steady shipments of strawberries being made from there just now, and next year the export of berries and other products will be very greatly increased. Milk will be produced there very soon in large quantities, especially in the rich Kitsumkalem Valley. Good clover is grown there and its growth will improve the land. There is already great development going on at Terrace, but nothing like what should be in the near future. The valley is one of the largest in British Columbia and miles on miles of farms, orchards and gardens will undoubtedly be seen there within a very few years.

HAD RHEUMATISM FOR FIVE YEARS

No Return of the Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. JOHN E. GUILDERSON

P. O. Box 123, Parrsboro, N. S.

"I suffered with Rheumatism for five years, having it so badly at times I was unable to get up without assistance. I tried different medicines I saw advertised and was treated by doctors in Amherst, also in my home town, but the Rheumatism came back.

In 1916, I saw in an advertisement that 'Fruit-a-tives' would stop Rheumatism, and took one box and got relief; then I took them right along for about six months and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since.

Anyone who would care to write me as regards 'Fruit-a-tives' I would be glad to tell them what 'Fruit-a-tives' did for me."

WAS PRESENT MURDER TRIAL

Hudson Bay Manager Tells of Impressive Scene in Court.

EDMONTON, July 22.—J. A. Balsillie, H.B.C. manager at Fort Providence and J. McDermott, factor for the Great Company at Fort Smith, arrived from the north on Sunday via McMurray and the Waterways railway, this being Mr. Balsillie's first trip out to civilization for 26 years.

Both these men were present at the trial of the Slay Indian, Lebeau, at Fort Providence, when the latter was sentenced to be hanged for the murder of his wife and baby. The execution will take place at Fort Fitzgerald on November 1st. This is the first court which was held in the far north, and with the idea of impressing the natives with a sense of British justice, the chief of the tribe and 20 of his most responsible men were ordered to attend the trial.

Judge Dubuc and the various counsel were clothed in their black robes, flanked by an escort of scarlet jacketed Mounted Police, and the trial will not be lightly forgotten by the denizens of the north, says Mr. Balsillie.

In addition to killing his wife, the murderer threw his baby out into the Arctic night, and the little one was frozen to death. After an hour's deliberation the jury brought in the verdict of guilty, following which Judge Dubuc sentenced the accused to be hanged.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

Personal friends in this city announce the intention of George Morrow to run as an Independent Liberal candidate in the forthcoming federal election.

Rev. M. G. Melvin, of New Westminster, arrived today to relieve Rev. F. W. Kerr, Presbyterian minister, who is leaving to spend a six week's vacation in the East.

Private Clifford, of the Royal Grenadiers, Toronto, won the King's Prize at Bisley yesterday afternoon.

HOME TALENT APPRECIATED

Singing of Misses Grant and Young and Piano Playing of Strawberry Social.

The efforts of three young musicians were the feature of the Strawberry Social in the Presbyterian Church hall last night. The young people were Miss Kathleen Grant, Miss Margaret Young and Miss Lorna Tite. Miss Grant and Miss Young sang to the great enjoyment of everyone. They have powerful voices of excellent quality and they sing well. With training they should in a few years make a mark in the musical world. Those who were present last night as well as others who have heard these young artists predict a musical future for them if they choose to develop the talent they have.

Miss Lorna Tite is but a young girl yet she plays the piano wonderfully well. She has every prospect of becoming a great musician. Commencing young she has everything before her.

Other features of the program were the singing of Mrs. Millar, who was in her usual good form and the piano playing of Miss Way, which was enjoyed by everyone.

Tea, strawberries and cream and ice cream were served during the evening and there was a good attendance. Fred Stork presided and Mrs. Grieve arranged the program. Those who helped serve were Mesdames McGlymont, Hunter, Grieve, Teng, Kilpatrick, Robinson, Steen and Starr. Mrs. Tupper looked after the cash. The affair was altogether most successful and enjoyable.

VERSE COMPETITION ONLY JUST STARTED

Short Verse Just as Likely to Win Prize as Long One.

A five line verse has just as much chance of winning the prize in the competition as has a ten. Length has nothing to do with the chances of carrying off the prize. Remember that there are three prizes, $5, $3, and $2. Following are verses submitted so far:

The Sea and The Sky.

Said the Sea to the Sky, "You are up so high,

Perhaps that's the reason you always keep dry."

Said the Sky to the Sea, "Don't envy me,

For down where it's wet, I'd much rather be."

The Sea was disturbed for the Sky was so blue.

"I'll hire a cloud and come up to you."

But the Sea and the Sky could never agree,

And that's why it rains so often you see.

RICH OIL SHALES IN NEW BRUNSWICK

FREDERICKTON, July 23.—The Anglo-Persian Oil Co. has expended half a million dollars in prospecting the oil shales of Albert county—New Brunswick—and from $150,000 to $200,000 in operation. The company has appropriated $6,500,000 for the development of the New Brunswick shales. Borings have disclosed that the shales crest at depths varying from 150 to 300 feet. Some of it was so rich in oil that it could be lighted with a match. A Scotch shale expert estimates that there is sufficient shale in the country to warrant the establishment of five plants with a capacity of 5,000 tons a day, and that it would take 100 years to exhaust the supply.

Think of all the prominent firms whose products you see in the stores and then chances to one every firm will be a daily newspaper advertiser. They know it pays.

LOCAL OIL CO.'S BIG HOLDINGS

Representative of E. C. Company, With Extensive Leases in Proven Fields, Here.

G. W. Chalweir, representing the Van-Tex Oil and Refining Co., Limited, has arrived in the city in the interests of his firm and will be here for several weeks. He has with him quite a collection of maps, photographs, fossils, etc., of the wonderfully rich oil fields in Kentucky, which are on view at 623 Third Avenue. His president is Dr. W. S. Watson, Birks Building, Vancouver; Secretary-Treasurer, Dr. R. L. Pallen, Birks Building, Vancouver; vice-president, J. A. Price, chief price clerk of Wood, Vallance & Leggett, Vancouver; solicitor, J. D. McPhee, Vancouver. The company has large holdings in B. C. and the United States and its field office is in Vancouver.

Proven Field.
This company offers investment in a proven oil field, where fortunes are being made overnight. A lease has been secured adjoining a well that has just come in at 500 feet, six inches in the sand, and gushed 3900 barrels in 48 hours, with tools still in the hole. This is in Warren County, Kentucky, in the Bowling Green oil fields. They have another lease in Allen County and a fine big gas lease in Ohio, surrounded by producers of 4,000,000 to 10,000,000 feet of gas a day, and a pipe line close by. Two other propositions of vital interest to shareholders are under consideration by the management now concerning several other leases in the local field.

Drill Starts at Once.
The field man of the company, Mr. Oliver, has had twenty years' experience in the oil game and is arranging to have a drill start at once. Mr. Chalweir says that the possibilities of this company are unlimited, and he invites anyone interested in an undertaking where every cent of the money subscribed is being used for development to call at his office for further information. Stock in this company is now selling at $50 per thousand shares.

STONE AGE YET IN SOLOMON ISLANDS

LONDON, July 23.—People who are still living in the manner of the Stone Age are found on Rennell Island in the Solomon Group, Melanesia, according to Dr. Northcote Deek, a missionary.

Dr. Deek says there are only about 500 inhabitants, and because of their isolation, through lack of ships, anchorage, even their dialect has never been studied.

The natives only had implements and weapons of stone and wood when Dr. Deek first visited the island. They showed great eagerness to barter home-made articles for anything made of iron.

"The men are great fighters and wrestlers. Their throwing spears have points made of human leg and arm bones, and tipped with a bone splinter designed to break off in the wound," says Dr. Deek.

"They seemed to feel keenly the monotony of their isolation and showed a settled melancholy, both in their faces and the cadence of their voices. Their only sort of music, to which they dance, consists of the tuneless beating of a log."

The teeth of flying foxes which swarm in the caves on the island seem to be the only form of currency known there.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

THE editor says I can't enter the contest for verses and I am much annoyed, terribly cut up. When I first saw the announcement, I said to myself, "Man in the Moon, the prize is yours. How shall we spend that five?" Then I met with a thud for the editor said I was not in it. I had to write for my column just as usual. Also he said my verses could not win a prize anyway. I am too badly cut up today to write one so have snatched a verse from an unworthy contemporary.

A man who was strong on decorum
Bought a cheap pair of pants and then wore 'em.
He stopped and he laughed,
Felt a terrible draught.
Then he knew right away where he'd lost 'em.

IN telling about Prince Rupert one of her enemies remarked that the wind was so fierce one day it blew down the harbor.

SOME people seem pleased to think they can borrow from the Bank of England at five and a half per cent. The difficulty in the Moon is that you cannot borrow at all.

It was a clever Vancouver deal that who walked away with that little hundred cases of whiskey in his pocket.

SOME of the Vancouver people are clever, especially the politicians.

G. W. Teetzel says that Prince Rupert looks good. It's all in looks, Mr. Teetzel. A lot of people can testify that this ain't no subtle elly.

DAMAGE BY HAIL NEAR DAWSON RECENTLY

Windows Broken and Gardens Ruined by Unusual Precipitation at Bear Creek.

A remarkable Fourth of July demonstration occurred yesterday afternoon, when a furious hailstorm took place at Bear Creek, eight miles from Dawson, says the Dawson News.

It started some time after 3 o'clock in the afternoon and lasted about thirty minutes. Hailstones ranging from the size of peas to that of an ordinary marble, with some said to have been as large as hens' eggs, fell, and did considerable damage to gardens and other property.

Four windows in the Fournier roadhouse were smashed, as were five in the C.K.M. machine shops, and seventeen in Mrs. Besner's hothouse. The tomatoes and other vegetables and plants in the hothouse were ruined. Radishes in the gardens were cut wide open by the hail.

The hail fell to a depth of four to six inches and some places even deeper. It also struck No. 2 dredge, but did not reach to No. 2 dredge. The storm also seemed to extend over the hill to the south toward Quartz creek. Much of the hail was still on the ground this afternoon. No indication of hail was visible near Dawson yesterday.

The denizens of Bear Creek are puzzled to know what they had done that they should be pelted in such fashion, and don't know yet whether it was the wets or the dries who put on the barrage.

ALL WILL SOON KEEP TO RIGHT

Lower Part of B.C. to Change
After New Year.

VANCOUVER, July 23.—At the beginning of 1922 when the law putting into effect throughout the entire province the change in the rule of the road, British Columbia, in common with all other provinces in Canada, with the single exception of Nova Scotia, will "keep to the right." No definite date has been set for the change, it being merely stipulated that the new rule becomes effective soon after the first of January, 1922. The time for making the shift was extended by the government so that possible consequent street railway traffic confusion would not inconvenience shoppers during the Christmas holidays.

Ever since British Columbia has been a province, the English rule of the road of turning to the left has been followed by the vehicular traffic. Now, as the result of the measure passed by the legislators a year and a half ago, the rule in force in the other provinces of Canada and in the United States will be adopted.

Welcome to Autoists.

The change will be welcomed by automobilists, as in travelling into neighboring provinces and adjoining states considerable confusion and danger has resulted because of the different laws relating to traffic. The law was brought about mainly through the efforts of the various automobile clubs which assumed the initiative in the matter.

When the law was passed it was applicable to up-country districts July 1, 1920, and to the cities and lower mainland and Vancouver Island districts on January 1, 1921. It did become effective in the Okanagan Valley, Kootenay districts and the north a year ago, but owing to the necessity of changing street cars and equipment, the government decided to delay bringing the act into effect in the cities until the first of next year, in compliance with the request of the British Columbia Electric Railway company which operates street car systems in Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster. It was agreed that the law would become operative before the New Year, but the government now announces a further delay until after the first of the New Year.

E. C. Electric.

The British Columbia Electric Railway company is faced with the greatest problem in connection with the "turn to the right plan." The company finds it will have to spend one million dollars to alter its equipment to meet new conditions. Of this amount, however, the provincial government has agreed to contribute $350,000.

Complicated changes in every one of the three hundred and nineteen cars owned by the company must be made. In addition, cross-over switches must be replaced, new electric switch points installed and all trolley wires shifted. Alterations to the cars are now under way. The company has 366 miles of track-age.

Dr. R. E. McKelvie, the well-known Vancouver surgeon, is in the city today on his way to Stewart, where he will spend a fortnight inspecting operations on the Patricia Group, Marmot River, in which he is interested. Recently a good strike was made on the property, warranting the absence of Dr. McKelvie from Vancouver, where his practice demands almost his entire time.

There were about 85 couples in attendance at the dance held in the skating rink last night and it was possibly the most successful of the season. Music was provided by an orchestra consisting of Miss Phoebe Senkler, William Balagno, Harry Reid and W. F. Browne. L. J. Marren was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Stillwell and George Gorkle were on the door and Mrs. Carroll was in charge of refreshments.

WEDS WHILE A PRISONER

Companion Tells of Curious Marriage of Russian Prisoner.

WARSAW, July 23.—News of the marriage of Count Szechenyi, a lieutenant in the Hungarian cavalry, who is still held a prisoner by the Bolsheviks, to Princess Goleyn, a member of one of the oldest Russian families, has just been received here. Count Szechenyi, son of Count Lado Szechenyi, who married Miss Gladys Vanderbilt of New York.

At the beginning of the war, he was a lieutenant in the Hungarian cavalry and was taken prisoner by the Russians on the Eastern front in 1915. He is now 27 years old.

Details of the wedding were brought to Warsaw by Doctor Jancura, formerly a prisoner in Berlin, Mich., who was in the Russian army, was captured by the Bolsheviks and released from the Moscow prison in June.

Count Szechenyi was a prisoner of the German army in 1918. He was released from the German prison in 1919. He was then captured by the Bolsheviks and released from the Moscow prison in June.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT

Shakeup in New York Owing to Laxity in Carrying Out Dry Law.

Harold L. Hart, State Prohibition director, announced that due to the scandals which have arisen in the course of Federal prohibition enforcement in this city and to the charges made against many of the force, he will undertake a thorough house cleaning of the New York organization. He proposes to name a practically new force of inspectors and to reorganize the office force itself.

This action was foreshadowed on July 1, when Mr. Hart asked for the resignation of six employees in his office. These employees were discharged direct after George A. Glynn, chairman of the Republican State Committee, made the statement that in spite of the State Prohibition Director's best efforts, corruption still impedes the proper enforcement of the Volstead act in New York city.

"While many of the charges against employees are untrue, it is undoubtedly true owing to the scandals which have occurred and the charges made against many of the force, the administration proposes to name a practically new force of inspectors and to entirely reorganize the office force itself," said Mr. Hart. "Any definite information submitted to the director which points to the acceptance of gifts or graft of any kind by any member of the present force will result in immediate removal."

Under the declared policy of the administration the holders of import permits and wholesale liquor dealers' permits, as soon as their present stock is disposed of, will be required to surrender their permits and to discontinue business.

This will leave only three main classes of legitimate permits—the wholesale druggists, retail druggists and manufacturers. The men associated in this work are not committed to any radical or revolutionary ideas. They are simply pledged to fulfill the duties of their respective offices and to the best of their ability to honestly and thoroughly enforce the law pertaining to prohibition as it now stands upon the statute books of the state and nation.

MAKE VISITORS PAY TAXES IN TYROL

INNBRUCK, Austria, July 23.—The campaign of the hotel keepers and the cancellation of engaged quarters by summer visitors have proved too much for the Tyrol government and it has revoked its "stranger's money" scheme.

This compelled all non residents to buy the new money and pay in it for all things at rate of exchange that would make them pay nearly ten times more than the native. A high head tax on visitors is substituted.

Summer visitors had cancelled rooms by the hundred causing the hotel and inn keepers to hold mass meetings of protest against the scheme.

GOLD QUARTZ TAKEN FROM GREAT SLAVE

Rich Ore Reaches Edmonton From Caribou Island—Said to Be Very Rich.

EDMONTON, July 23.—W. S. Barquist, of the Aurous Gold Mining Company, arrived in the city this week from the Great Slave Lake, bringing with him 40 pounds of gold-bearing rock, which experts declare is extremely rich in the precious metal. If the territory surrounding Caribou Island, from where the samples came, is as rich, they say that a new El Dorado has been discovered in the northland. The samples of rock are of rose quartz, through which the veins of native gold can be clearly traced, some of the fragments of the precious metal being as large as a pinhead. Mr. Barquist has nothing to say relative to the value of the find, but some old-time miners who have seen the samples declare that it will run from $300 to $600 to the ton, and one government official on viewing the ore gave it as his opinion that it would run $1000 to the ton.

Large Vein.

The vein of metal from which the samples were taken, as found by Mr. Barquist this spring after the snow went, and when he was preparing to come out, and had been able to remain longer on the island he is of the opinion that perhaps he might have had something even better to show, as this vein lies right on the surface of the rock. It is five feet wide and runs for 75 feet from the edge of the lake, until it disappears in a strata of overburden. One reason why it was not discovered before is that the lake this spring was unusually low, and the receding of the water exposed the vein.

Like Father, Like Son.

"Why this bottle isn't nearly full!" "Oh, but the cream ain't rose yet, mum."

AGENT GENERAL AND ORIENTALS

F. C. Wade Places Condition Clearly Before People of Ennland.

In a recent number of the London Times appears a letter from F. C. Wade, agent general for British Columbia, in which he mentions that the wishes of United States and China seem to have been considered but little reference was made to western Canada when discussing the renewal of the Japanese treaty. After setting out figures bearing on the question Mr. Wade says:

Japanese Phase.
The Hon. Mr. Oliver states that already the Japanese own 500 farms in the province. His figures may be conservative. A year ago Japanese agents were busily engaged in purchasing real estate in the best residential districts surrounding Vancouver, and only recently it was feared that the Goldstream branch, the premier apple orchard in the Okanagan Valley, was about to be alienated to the Japanese. They have driven white labor out of the fisheries to a very serious extent. They are active competitors in market gardening, lumbering, mining, hotel and domestic service. The Chinese also have taken the white man's place in market gardening, agriculture, logging, lumbering, land clearing, and domestic service, to a very great extent. The Hindu has become active in most of these employments and in dairying as well. They are uniformly prosperous and successful. They are clashing to a degree that the white man seems incapable of, and conduct an immigration propaganda of a most active character. It will take but a small fraction of the populations of India, China and Japan to fill British Columbia to overflowing and crowd out the white man here before of numbers.

Serious Position.

In discussing Oriental immigration as it affects Canada, single out British Columbia for serious reasons. It is nearer to the dense and mammoth population of the East. Not only will it feel the first onset of the overflow, but, for climatic reasons, it will retain it almost entirely. In 1911, while British Columbia contained 65.91 per cent. of the Asiatic population, the other provinces had only 6.95 per cent. and the Maritime Provinces 1.9 per cent. If the other provinces share the Oriental immigration equally with British Columbia they would realize the seriousness of her position, and the representatives of the Dominion at the Imperial Conference would speak out in no uncertain tone that they will do so I do not doubt. For if Canada does not retain the right to protect herself against the Asiatic, who now threaten to swarm the shores and crowd the valleys of British Columbia, the future will be full of danger as far as that province and the rest of the Dominion are concerned.

Respect and Admire.

Peaceful penetration has none of the horrible accompaniments of war, but in its results is often quite as dangerous and effective. Canada must remain a white man's country. British Columbia must not be sacrificed to consideration of the rights of out of compliance to any other country. We will always take off our hats to the Japanese, whom we respect and admire exceedingly, but it is a question of self preservation. If Canada is to retain her character and integrity, she alone must have the right to say how she is to grow and develop, unfettered by treaties or alliances based upon considerations quite foreign to her needs.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS ACT, 1921

Protect in Britain Against Government Methods of Taxation.

LONDON, July 23.—Here is a growing spirit of revolt among the more independent members of Parliament against the increasing frequency with which it is alleged, the government imposes taxation without giving consideration to the rights of the members of the House Commons to be consulted in such matters. The distinguished soldier and doughty political fighter, Captain William Wedgwood Benn, had just introduced in the House a bill declaring that no tax should be levied for the use of the crown save by the House of Commons. Captain Wedgwood calls his bill the "Declaration of Rights Act, 1921."

The bill is backed by Sir Donald Maclean, Lord Robert Cecil and Sir Frederick Banbury. Nobody imagines that it has any chance of passing but if it should ever come before the House it will give some of the revolvers an opportunity to say what they think about the government's methods of raising money from the taxpayers.

REINSTATE PETROGRAD

Efforts Being Made to Induce Return of Prosperity in Former Capital.

REVAL, Esthonia, July 23.—The Russian Soviet Council of Labor and Defense has taken urgent steps to revive Petrograd, which even the Bolsheviks themselves have recently termed a "dying city."

Thousands of workmen, confronted by starvation, and realizing that Moscow was favored over Petrograd in the matter of food distribution, have recently left the city, with the result that scarcely enough man-power was left to operate what few factories could be provided with fuel.

Fuel and Transport.

At a session of the All-Russian Executive committee held in Moscow a few days ago it was decided to give Petrograd preferential privileges in regard to fuel and transport, to place Petrograd in the same situation as Moscow with reference to food supplies, to establish a special district from which food supplies should be drawn solely for the use of Petrograd and to enroll all of Russia to come to the aid of Petrograd in the matter of food and fuel supply. A special commission, headed by Premier Lenin and including Zinovieff, governor of Petrograd, was named to carry out the work.

Third Population.

It was declared that only one-sixth of the pre-war number of industrial enterprises were in operation in Petrograd. The population is said to number less than 700,000, a little more than a third of the pre-war figures.

The committee also decided to include Petrograd to a greater extent than had been contemplated in the general electrification scheme.

BLACK ISRAELITES ARE SLAUGHTERED IN SOUTH AFRICA

CAPE TOWN, July 19.—A native religious sect which calls itself the "Israelites," under a "prophet" named Enoch, who refused to evacuate Government land at Bulhoek near Queenstown Cape Colony, has been forcibly ejected, losing 174 killed and 126 wounded in a fight with mounted Cape police.

For some years the Government had permitted the "Israelites" to celebrate "Passover" on a common, but each year a growing number of pilgrims remained behind on what they called "holy ground," until a village of some 350 huts had sprung up. The sect forbade anybody to enter the village, or to recognize any authority except orders from "Jehovah, the God of Israel," as interpreted by Enoch the prophet.

The Government some time ago endeavored to register the settlement, but the police were obliged to withdraw to avoid bloodshed.

Peaceful efforts by the Secretary for Naval Affairs and others to induce the "Israelites" to withdraw failed. They steadfastly refused to go.

Charged Police.

Finally a force of 800 mounted police moved from Queenstown to demand the surrender of the village. With shouts of "Jehovah says we must fight," 4,000 natives charged the police with swords and assegais, the women urging the men with wild religious chants. The police let them come on until within 30 yards and then fired, with the result stated. Thereupon the prophet Enoch surrendered and the village is to be demolished.

The affair has caused some stir in the Cape House of Assembly, Premier Smuts declared that in view of the natives' obstinacy there was no other way to make them understand that they must obey the law.

A Warm Place.

"Ain't got no furnace?"
"No, don't need none. Wife keeps me in hot water all the time."

"How did Noah illuminate his weird craft?"
"Threw a couple of dinosaurs overboard and made the ar-light."
