CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FIGHTING FOR IMPROVED HALIBUT TRAIN SERVICE

Claim Made That This Port is Losing Business to Seattle Under Present Conditions—Going Right to Headquarters

A strong protest was made by the chamber of commerce last night at the manner in which the Canadian National Railways is handling the fresh halibut transportation to the detriment of the port of Prince Rupert and to the advantage of Seattle and it was decided to take the matter up at once with A. E. Warren, vice-president in charge of western lines, and Mr. Bellerose, general manager of the Canadian National Express at Montreal.

The matter was introduced by the reading of a report from a special committee in which the decline in landings at Prince Rupert and the gains at Seattle were set forth. This change coincided with the change in the train service. This year to the end of August there had been only 10,200,000 pounds landed at Prince Rupert whereas the amount landed at Seattle was 15,957,000 pounds. The business here was handicapped by the retarding of the service both by the number of days train operated and by the running time.

G. W. Nickerson, chairman of the committee, said there was an evident desire on the part of the Canadian National officials to cater to a non-existent passenger traffic out of Vancouver and not to clutter up the passenger train with fish cars. He thought they would have to pull a lot of passengers to come near the value of the fish business which was done out of this port. It would warrant faster trains. At present the service east from Prince Rupert was 44 hours slower than that from Seattle. If an effort were made to cater to the business here the net results would be much better.

W. H. Tobey said he did not know the reason for the present service except that No. 2 train out of Vancouver had been speeded up five hours and he supposed that it could not make the time if it were loaded to capacity. John Dybhavn, one of the members of the committee, said the facts were as set out in the report. The train service played into the hands of Seattle but the layoff was partly responsible for the drop in landings here. It was not all due to the train service. However, the present service was just about as rotten as it could be.

H. F. Pullen said he was a member of the committee which brought in the report and he wanted it clearly understood that anything he said or did was in no spirit of hostility to the Canadian National. It was Prince Rupert's railway and they wanted to help all they could but he quoted a previous experience when it became necessary to make a very vigorous protest to effect a change. Just now it seemed necessary to take vigorous measures to bring this to the attention of the railway authorities. The fishing business was vital to the port and should be given every consideration in view of the large income derived from it by the railway.

SEATTLE, Oct. 8.—With the catch of fish in Area No. 2 of the North Pacific halibut banks along the coast nearing the limit of 22,500,000 pounds for the season, the International Fisheries Commission announces here that fishing in the district will be closed on October 22.

Announcement to this effect was made in Prince Rupert two or three weeks ago.

FEDERAL PLANS FOR RELIEF DISCLOSED

OTTAWA, Oct. 8.—A new scheme for caring for transient unemployed will shortly be initiated, it is believed, and the federal government will adopt a policy of caring for single unemployed men in camps. It is stated in authoritative quarters. As for married men, the plan of direct relief is believed to be preferred by the government in preference to subsidizing relief work by the municipalities. Hon. Wesley A. Gordon, minister of labor, has been studying the situation to formulate a scheme whereby the homeless unemployed may be cared for more efficiently.

Taking of evidence was completed in the case yesterday afternoon and the hearing was adjourned until this morning for argument after hearing which His Honor delivered his judgment. J. T. Harvey acted as counsel for plaintiff while W. O. Fulton appeared for defendants.

SOFTBALL AT HIGH SCHOOL

Hanson Senators Won Lucky Game From Obata Braves Yesterday

Yesterday's game between the Hanson Senators and the Obata Braves for High School Softball League cellar position was featured by loose fielding, Hanson's players winning 5 to 4. It was not up to the standard of the games which the leading teams put up. The Obata Braves had the game on ice in last inning when the score stood 4-2 and the bottom of batting list of the Senators coming up. But a series of errors on the part of the Braves' infield gave the Senators three runs to win.

Allen was in the box for the Senators. He was traded for the hard-hitting Arney who went to strengthen the batting order of the Tigers.

Obata pitched a good game for the Braves but he lacked support to carry him through a winner.

Dell made good catches in the field for the Senators while for the Braves Murray played a good game.

Former Lightweight Champion's Comeback Campaign Came to End With Pitiful Climax Last Night

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A helpless victim of the hard-hitting Vancouver boy who, from the first minute of the fight, demonstrated his unquestionable superiority, Benny Leonard, former world's lightweight champion, failed pitifully in his comeback campaign last night when he lost by a technical knock-out in the sixth round to Jimmy McLarnin, the young Irish welter.

Before The Battle

"Schmeling" salts for Mickey. At the weighing in, prior to the big fight, Mickey Walker gave Maxie Schmeling the well known glare. But you know what happened when they met in the ring!

ed the fight and guided the reeling former champion to his corner. Over 18,000 fans witnessed the fight which took place at Madison Square Garden's Long Island Bowl.

At the end of the first round a left hook to the chin rocked Leonard and only the ropes saved him. His seconds administered smelling salts during the interval.

Again in the middle of the second round a left upper-cut to the jaw nearly finished Leonard. He went down for the count of nine but came up again.

The former lightweight champion seemed to rally somewhat in the third, fourth and fifth rounds but there was never any question of the outcome. He was little more than a punching bag for McLarnin after the first round.

The fight was to have gone ten rounds but the referee stopped it to save the courageous Leonard from further punishment.

SPORT NOTES

Mayor Cyril H. Orme issued an appeal this morning for support of the football game between Canadian Legion and an All Star team from the rest of the Senior League which is being played on Thanksgiving afternoon for the community relief fund. Tickets have been on sale ever since August for this game playing of which at an earlier date was prevented by unfavorable weather. Good weather appears now to be in prospect and a large turn-out of fans is expected at the match which it is anticipated will be an exciting and keenly contested affair.

Public work-outs for Benny Windland and Nina Gurvich, who will gladiate in the main event of an attractive boxing card which is being presented on Thursday evening of next week, have been arranged to take place over the coming holiday week-end. Nina will demonstrate his prowess between the hours of 7:30 and 8:30 Sunday night while Benny will show his wares between 7 and 8 Monday evening. Both boys are reported to be rapidly working themselves into the pink of condition and a great fight is being anticipated with, undoubtedly, a large crowd of fans on hand to witness it.

A SATURDAY SERMON

Thanksgiving

(By Very Rev. J. B. Gibson, Dean of St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral)

The supreme function of Thanksgiving Day is to remind us of an obligation that is easily lost sight of. Every day should be a day of thankfulness but it is well to lift one day above the level of the others and label it by official proclamation "Thanksgiving Day" as a reminder of the blessings we enjoy as citizens of a great Dominion and to publicly acknowledge our gratitude before the Throne of Grace "for men everywhere from the evils of our creation, preservation and all the blessings of this life."

It is interesting to note the etymology of the word "thanks." It comes from the same root as "think" and they stand in the same relation to each other as "sing" and "sang." An act of kindness is done to me and I think of it. Later "I thank" of it and say so and, in saying so, I find no better word expressive of my thoughtfulness of the kindness rendered. The root meaning is a movement of mind or feeling. Thankfulness is the only right way to think and feel. If you think rightly you will become more and more aware of all there is in life for you to be thankful for. The great question is what we choose to think about for thinking is very much a matter of selection.

Can Always Thank

We can always be thankful for a great deal that we are not, for many things that have not happened to us. There never can be any situation that might not have been so much worse than it is. The most faulty of us might have been more faulty still and, sinners though we be, we can thank God we have been kept from many sins.

Then there are positive things that we are apt to overlook. It is not life so much that is wrong as it is the way we take it. A great writer has told us that we all bear within our bosom materials of happiness, contentment and peace. There are many pleasant things to think about but often we simply refuse to do it. So we acquire bad habits of emphasis and attention, we neglect multitudes of little wayside blessings that are well worth our gratitude. Much doubtless has gone from life but much is left in it still. We grumble and deplore the evils of our times, as people have done in every generation since time began. Yet a little reading of history will show us how much better our times are than many ages that have been in the past. We are passing through a phase of our economic existence that is depressing but those who have travelled tell us that Canada is much better off than the majority of nations and that Prince Rupert has a much more hopeful outlook than many other cities.

Then there are the eternal things of Christ's Gospel and these are surely a cause for thankfulness we have not exhausted. Let us look carefully at the things we profess to believe and ask ourselves whether we believe these things or not. Is it true that Jesus Christ lived and died? Is it true that He lives forever to be your Friend and Redeemer? Is it true that He is rescuing

"My friends all ask me what I used"

"I had a lovely delicately-colored silk scarf from Paris which was my pride," writes an enthusiastic woman from Quebec. "It became so soiled I had to wash it—which ruined its beauty. I was heart-broken. One day I saw in the drug store a new kind of tint—Diamond Tints. The druggist said they were for light shades and needed no boiling. When I found they were made by the makers of Diamond Dyes, I knew that there was something I would dare to use on my precious scarf. (You see, I had dyed all my mourning clothes with Diamond Dyes and knew they were wonderful.) I got a package of Diamond Tints, dipped my scarf and it came out as gorgeously colorful as a sunset! My druggist says repeated washings will not fade it. My friends were as delighted as I and wanted to know what I used. Indeed, I'm enthusiastic about Diamond Tints!"

Mayor's Party Had Narrow Escape in Falling of Big Tree

BURNS LAKE, Oct. 8.—While motoring recently in this district, Harry Bowman, agricultural representative of the Canadian National Railways at Prince George, Mayor C. H. Orme of Prince Rupert and W. H. Tobey, divisional superintendent of the railway, had a narrow escape from injury from a falling tree near Colleymount. They were travelling in an auto along the Francois-Burns Lake road while a strong wind was blowing. They noticed three children who were driving cattle ahead of them to run as though in fright. Glancing to the side of the road, the driver saw a large tree beginning to fall. He applied the brakes and brought the skidding car to a stop as the branches of the falling tree struck the radiator.

Insomnia

"Insomnia does not kill its man unless he kills himself—sleeplessness is the most common cause of suicide. It kills his joy of living, it saps his strength, it sucks the blood from his brain and from his heart like a vampire," so writes a world famous nerve specialist, himself a victim of insomnia.

"Insomnia makes him remember in the night what he was meant to forget in restful sleep. It makes him forget during the day what he was meant to remember. Memory is first to go overboard, soon friendship, love, sense of duty, even pity itself are one after another washed away. Despondency alone sticks to the doomed ship to steer it on the rocks to total destruction. Voltaire was right when he placed sleep on a level with hope."

What a vivid picture of the results of exhausted nerves. How well it describes a condition which is wonderfully common during these times of worry and discouragement.

There is always the temptation to seek temporary relief by the use of narcotics which only whip up the tired nerves to leave them later more exhausted.

Real relief can only come with restoration of the depleted nerves by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It takes a little time to overcome a condition which has perhaps been years in developing, but the benefits are lasting. Gradually and certainly the richness is restored to the blood and the nerves are nourished back to health.

Rest and recreation will help but nervous disorders do not right themselves. Nerve force must be restored and there are thousands of people to say that this can best be accomplished by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Why not strike a blow at sleeplessness by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. You will not be disappointed. A few days use of this treatment will find you sleeping better and taking a more cheerful view of life. You will then be encouraged to continue its use until your health is fully restored.

Five days treatment in vest pocket aluminum box, sent free if you mention this paper. The Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Can.

TO ALL MERCHANTS MANUFACTURERS AND BANKERS

This is the way to BETTER BUSINESS

"Before there is any great upturn in volume of sales for manufacturers of trade-marked merchandise, there must inevitably be a great upturn in advertising volume.

"Because, merchandising embraces every marketing process involved in getting a commodity from the factory to the consumer. Not merely from the factory to the salesman. Not from the salesman to the wholesaler. Nor from the wholesaler to the retailer. But all the way from the factory to the consumer. Including all the in-between stopping-places.

"Merchandising is complete trade. Goods fully sold. Commodities taken to their cash-yielding terminal. When this last step rounds out the procedure... when the ultimate user's cash flows back through the channels of trade... and the way is opened for repeat sales... then we have Business."★

HERE WE HAVE THE ECONOMIC BASIS OF ADVERTISING

For if we agree that merchandising requires this completion of selling, so that goods go into use and are used up, then we establish the place of advertising as a business essential. Advertising holds its position because it simplifies dealing with the public—as to effort, time and cost. It is an intrinsic part of selling at that last step which actually moves the goods into consumers' hands.

Advertising in the Daily Newspapers—if it is geared by intelligent and trained men to do its necessary share in the job of selling—is an unchanging dominant power—the most rapid, direct, simple and economic contact with Canadian consumers.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

MANY LINES OFF MARKET

Preserving and Pickling Season About Over—Turkeys Here at Reasonable Price

A number of lines of seasonal fresh fruits and vegetables have made their disappearance from the local retail market and the season for preserving and pickling is now about over. Concord grapes, pears and crab apples are, however, still in and housewives are being advised to purchase their supplies of Concord grapes without further delay while the quality is still good and the supply plentiful. The season for this fruit is not a long one. The first cranberries of the season are now in.

First turkeys of the season are now here in readiness for Thanksgiving next Monday. The price is 35c per pound which is lower than usual for the opening.

The Classified Ads.

Many people have something in the house they would like to sell which could be turned into money if they knew of a customer. Try a classified advertisement. Most people read the classifieds. For about fifty cents you can let them know about it and it may prove a profitable transaction.

Renting the House

There are a number of houses in the city not rented yet and many people make little effort to secure a tenant. Others who are wise to their opportunities try a classified advertisement in the "For Rent" column and often get results. As one satisfied customer said recently: "Those little ads certainly do bring results."

Some Like Reader Ads.

Some people after trying other kinds of advertising decide to try a reader among the locals and personals. Then they have got results. The cost is a little higher but they have been well satisfied. When conditions are like they are today the newspapers can often help. The price is not very high. Do not lie down and bemoan your hard fate. Try a different kind of advertisement and if that is not successful try again.

A largely attended and highly successful grand dance brought the annual bazaar and carnival of the Moose Lodge to a fitting close last night after the straight bazaar features, conducted by the ladies, had piled a good trade during the afternoon.

An interesting feature in connection with the dance was the conducting of drawings for the raffles. This was in charge of Gillis Royer and the winners were as follows:

Grand Drawing

First prize, $20, No. 536, won by Miss Peggy McKenzie.

Second prize, $10, No. 693, won by Karina Peterson.

Music for dancing was provided by Mrs. J. S. Black's Orchestra and a large crowd was on the floor at all times. Gillis Royer was master of ceremonies and Ole Stegavig presided at the door.

During the evening there was tap dancing by little Miss Margaret Bruyn who, like Misses Betty Brown and Clara Dahl, who danced on Thursday night's program, is a pupil of Miss Eleanor Tite.

Refreshments were dispensed from stalls in the form of hot dogs, sandwiches and coffee.

Committees in charge in connection with the bazaar were as follows:

Dance—Charles Lemon, Andrew McDonald, Harry Loakes, N. S. K. Brewer and Sam Haudenschild.

Bazaar—Percy Cameron, Gillis Royer, W. B. McCallum, Charles Lemon, Richard Long and Ted Rorvik.

Ladies—Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mrs. F. M. Crosby, Mrs. Ole Stegavig, Mrs. W. V. Tattersal, Mrs. Jack Preece, Mrs. Sam Haudenschild and Mrs. H. Grimson.

"The Doomed Battalion," coming to the Capitol Theatre here as the feature offering for the first of next week, is a very absorbing picture of the Great War dealt with, however, from a very different angle than any other of the many war pictures which have been shown.

The story deals with a beautiful friendship between a mountain guide of the Austrian Tyrol and an Italian gentleman which is cemented by many Alpine climbs. Suddenly the World War breaks out not only to part them but to place them in opposing mountain companies contesting for a vantage peak. A tense situation develops when military orders force the Italian to attempt to annihilation of his friend's detachment by blowing up the top of the mountain. Suspense runs high right up to a thrilling climax.

Tala Birell, young European actress of exceptional promise, has the feminine lead as a heroic Austrian wife and mother, a role which permits full play of her emotional talents. Victor Varconi plays the part of the Italian officer and Louis Trenker is cast as the mountain guide, a role he formerly played in real life. There is also comedy relief.
