BUSINESS IMPROVING.

That business in Vancouver has improved considerably in the past few weeks is the refreshing news brought from Vancouver by the representative of a wholesale firm there. He says that collections are better, that orders are coming in and that there is a general movement towards a more prosperous condition.

Such a movement was needed. There has been a hard time both for business men and for working men. All have had to weather the storm of adversity, but it is evident that the worst is over and that conditions are improving.

In Northern British Columbia there is a slight betterment. The mills are opening and loggers are going to the woods. While in the immediate neighborhood of Prince Rupert there is not that activity we would like to see, it is evident that our turn will come soon and we shall all be busy.

After all, the winter has not been anything like as bad as the pessimists prophesied it would be. There has not been that terrible time that many looked forward to. Times have not been much worse than during other financial slumps. Compare the past winter with four years ago when the influenza epidemic struck us. Compare business conditions with what they were just before the war or during the first two years of the war. As a matter of fact we have passed through the winter without any very serious troubles, and from now on we may look for improvement.

Five years ago Mr. Perkins was appointed fishery inspector. The funeral took place this morning at 9:45 from Center & Hanna's parlors to the Holy Rosary pro-cathedral.

Friction Caused by Russian Delegates at Big Conference

GENOA, April 11.—A clash which might have shipwrecked the financial conference on its first day was averted today by the firmness and tact of Lloyd George and Premier Facta of Italy, who is chairman.

George Tchitcherin, head of the Russian delegation, said Russia accepted the terms set forth at Cannes governing participation in the conference, but Russia would go further and welcome any steps possible leading to disarmament.

M. Barthou, head of the French delegation, heatedly denied that Tchitcherin had a right to bring up disarmament, which was not on the agenda of the conference, and would be opposed as a topic for this conference by France to the bitter end.

Lloyd George asked the Russian to keep to the agenda and complete the work the conference had met to do before embarking on other tasks. He urged that if any problems were added to the discussion the conference might be shipwrecked and the peace of Europe shattered.

Premier Facta ruled that Russia must stick to the agenda, and to this the Russians agreed and France let the matter drop.

Lloyd George spoke next to the chairman and urged that peace must be established in Europe through the earnest effort of all nations to do things most likely to conduce to the good of all nations, forgetting their selfish aims and "the snarling with which Europe is deafened and bewildered."

The admission of Russian and German representatives to the principal governing committee of the conference was strongly opposed today by both French and Belgian delegates.

Lloyd George together with Premier Facta intervened, with the result that the Russians and Germans were both admitted.

MEMBER FOR ATLIN IS VISITING CITY

H. F. Kergin, M.L.A., Accompanied by Road Superintendent Young, Came in Today.

H. F. Kergin, M.L.A. for Atlin, and George A. Young, road superintendent, arrived this morning on the Chelohsin from Alice Arm.

Mr. Kergin and Mr. Young are here to take up matters concerning public works in the northern district with A. L. Carruthers, superintendent engineer for the three northern constituencies—Omineca, Prince Rupert and Atlin. Mr. Kergin also has business with George A. Clothier, resident mining engineer.

Mr. Kergin returns to Alice Arm on the Prince Rupert tomorrow night, while Mr. Young will be taking the Prince Albert at the end of the week for Stewart.

Mr. Kergin reports that times are very quiet in Alice Arm and there is no definite news as to what activities there will be this season on the Dolly Varden mine. It is generally believed, however, that some development work will be done, principally on the Wolf mine. There has been a good deal of sickness at the Arm lately.

Those supporting the motion included a minority of the Liberals, Hon. T. A. Green and a majority of the Progressives and all the Labor and independent members.

The motion was introduced by William Irvine, Labor member for Calgary.

INVESTIGATE THE FISHERIES

Standing Committee of the House of Commons to Go Into Matter.

OTTAWA, April 11.—A standing committee of the House of Commons on Fisheries is to investigate the Fisheries of British Columbia. A motion to that effect was moved by W. G. McQuarrie of New Westminster and adopted by the House.

In his speech the member for New Westminster denounced the Japanese in the fisheries and said they would monopolize the fisheries of British Columbia in the near future.

Wm. Duff of Lunenburg supported Mr. McQuarrie and said he was opposed to licenses being given to Japanese.

The minister of fisheries said the whole question was an international one and should be dealt with jointly by the United States and Canada.

ENDAKO STORE IS BURNED OUT

McGettigan Suffers Heavy Loss in Saturday Morning Blaze.

THREE PERSONS HAD NARROW ESCAPES

Endako, April 11.—McGettigan's general store here was burned to the ground about 4 o'clock on Saturday morning. The entire stock and personal effects of the proprietor are a total loss. The estimated damage is $16,500 partially covered by $9,000 insurance.

The fire was discovered by Paddy McGettigan as he was returning from a dance. While rescuing his brother, Phil, and P. Mulligan, who were asleep immediately above the fire, Mr. McGettigan was severely burned about the face and hands. Mrs. McKeen, who was in charge of the restaurant in the opposite end of the building, also had a narrow escape on account of the rapidity with which the flames spread. The cause of the fire is unknown.

The building destroyed was a log and frame structure and was an old landmark of construction days.

Under New Utility Bylaw Household Rates Will be 8c and 5c in This City

The bylaw which is to be presented by the utilities committee to the city council at an early date providing for general reduction in city light and power rates will show a reduction of the household charges from the present tariff of 10 1/2c for light and 6c for power to 8c for light and 5c for power. Corresponding reductions will also be made in the industrial rates, which are now 5.2c to 1.3c for light and 4c to 1c for power.

Speaking on the proposed bylaw this morning, Ald. G. G. Perry, chairman of the utilities committee, explained that it had been the intention of the committee to bring in this bylaw ever since the first of the year. The delay had been caused on account of waiting for the auditor's report for 1921, when final figures would be presented. The passing of the reduction bylaw, Ald. Perry stated, would depend largely on the accepting of the auditor's report. This will be completed in the course of a very short time now, but it is not definitely known just now whether or not the bylaw will be ready for submission for next Tuesday night's meeting.

Previous to 1920 the utilities department had obligations to the general fund and it was at that time impossible to reduce rates. Since 1920, however, the obligation of the utilities to general fund was raised by the selling of bonds last year and the utility is now on its feet. In 1920 there was a surplus of $30,000, and it is expected that this year's report will show a similar surplus.

A. M. MANSON ON SUNDAY CLOSING

Delegation Meets; Attorney General at Victoria Regarding Matter.

Arguments for and against the enforcement of the provisions of the Lord's Day Act were presented to Attorney-General Manson yesterday afternoon, members of the board of police commissioners, representatives of the Ministerial Association, and a large delegation composed of various business organizations and individuals opposed to any change in the existing situation appearing and advancing their views on the matter, says the Victoria Colonist.

The discussion disclosed that as yet no specific request for enforcement of the Act in any particular case has been made to the Attorney-General by the board of police commissioners; that he is anxious to be assured whether the request for enforcement is backed by the majority sentiment of the people who elected the commission, and that he does not consider that it is desirable to enforce the act in every particular, though as regards particular classes of Sunday business he will not discriminate between individuals falling within any one class.

Suggests Conference.

The attorney-general stated he judged from his interview with the police commissioners that they are not actuated by any desire for a wholesale enforcement of the act and he suggested to the delegation of "antis" who appeared before him that they should meet with the commissioners and discuss the matter. He announced that he had requested the police board to set forth its policy in writing and he promised that before any action was taken by him upon any requests for prosecutions that the antis would be informed so that they, too, might make their written recommendations and suggestions.

Two Hour Discussion.

For two hours the subject was before the attorney-general who made it clear that his desire was to be fair to all parties and to seek to meet the wishes of the majority of the people.

The interview between the attorney-general and Mayor Marchant and Police Commissioner Stanland was a brief one, in which it was made clear by the latter that the move for enforcement of the Lord's Day Act was based upon the principle that the workers were entitled to one day's rest in seven. The mayor outlined the policy of the police board, at least that sanctioned by himself and Commissioner Stanland, stating that the other commissioner, Mr. North, was not in accord with them.

No Request as Yet.

Attorney-General Manson pointed out that as yet he had received no request from the board for authority to prosecute in any particular case, and he suggested that the board should set out in writing just what its policy is and what it desires in the way of enforcement of the act, a suggestion the commissioners agreed to.

Immediately following this interview representatives of the Ministerial Association appeared before the Attorney-General, Rev. W. Leslie Clay Rev. William Stevenson and Rev. William C. Frank composing the delegation. Congratulate Minister. Extending congratulations to

STATEMENT TO BE MADE TODAY ON GOVT. RAILWAYS

OTTAWA, April 11.—Hon. W. C. Kennedy, Minister of Railways will make his annual statement this afternoon in the House of Commons in regard to the government railways. Following this, the house will resume the discussion of the estimates.

Hon. Mr. Manson on his elevation to the portfolio of Attorney-General and wishing him a career of success in his high office, Rev. Mr. Stevenson suggested that the question of enforcement of the Lord's Day Act was, so far as Victoria at least was concerned, a species of hardy annual.

Rev. Dr. Clay stated the question was the large one of the enforcement of law without distinction. In his opinion the country was suffering from a lack of respect for the law.

"I think I can relieve your mind, You needn't worry so far I am concerned as to law enforcement. I am here to administer the law," stated Attorney-General Manson, who, however, pointed to the fact that the Lord's Day Act was drawn upon a basis from other laws passed by the federal authorities.

Best Seller Is Well Worth Reading.

The best seller in the book world this spring was "If Winter Comes," and it is still selling by the thousand. It has caught the public fancy. Possibly it is more than a passing fancy. It is literature and should become a classic. It is a story that is in the first place interesting as a story. It deals with the eternal triangles, a man and two women and two women and a man. There is the proper element of suspense, working up to a climax which makes it appeal to the ordinary story reader of the movie fan type. But there is more than that. There is a philosophy running through it that is interesting and thought-provoking.

"If Winter Comes" Is Improvement on "Main Street."

While there is a similarity between the general style of "If Winter Comes" and "Main Street," they are as wide apart as the poles in many respects. In the delineation of character and the minute analysis of actions they are alike. The newer book, however, is a story, while the other is only a sketch. Many people did not like "Main Street" because it was not a story. It has not the elements which would tend to keep the reader's attention for hours at a stretch. It was a book rather to pick up and read a chapter and then lay aside and do something else. "If Winter Comes" is a book that holds the attention to the end and the reader is willing to sit up all night to finish it.

Philosophy Of the Book.

There are a lot of interesting bits of philosophy in the book. Here is a little of it: "You see, there's this, Nona. Life's got us. We're in the thing. All the time you've got to go on. You can't go back one single second. What you've done, you've done. It may take only a minute in the doing or in the saying but it's done or said for all your life, perhaps for the whole of someone else's life as well. That's terrible, Nona."

"Nona, that's how life gets us; there's just one way we can get life and that's by thinking forward before we do a thing. By remembering that it's going to be here for always. What's in your heart for another, Nona, is no hurt to tomorrow or to next year or to twenty years hence, either to our own lives or to anyone else's—no hurt while it is only there and not expressed or acted on."

"Yes, there's right and wrong. Nothing else in between. No compromise. No way of getting round or over them. You must be either one thing or the other. Once we take a step towards wrong, there it is for ever, and all its horrible things with it—deceit, concealment, falsehood, subterfuge, pretence; vile and heastly things like that."

Concealment Necessary In Best Society.

Another interesting point of view is brought out as a result of the experiences of the hero of the tale. He says: "This is what I've found. You can do shocking things and it can be known that you do the shocking things. But you mustn't be seen doing them. You can beat your wife and it can be known among your friends that you beat your wife. But you mustn't be seen beating her. You mustn't beat her in the street or in your neighbor's garden. You can drink, and it can be known that you drink; but you mustn't be seen drink."

"The conventions are all right, moral, sound, excellent, admirable, but to save their own face there's a blind side to them, a shut-eye side. Keep that side of them and they're all right. They'll let you alone. They'll pretend they don't see you. But come out and stand in front of them and they'll devour you. They'll smash and grind and devour you. They're devouring me."

Boys Advertise.
 Listen! Hear that voice? That is a newswoman down in the next street, telling the world what he has to sell. He is advertising, and he is doing so persistently. He will continue to do so until his stock is sold out and he goes home for supper. He didn't get his salesmanship ideas from books. He got them from the street. He found out the value of continuous publicity, an aggressive sales policy, and the value of the location. That he knows of the last is shown by the way he fights off the other boys who seek to use his name. His methods are primitive, but they are sound in the light of the findings of modern business.

MORE DAYLIGHT PRINCE RUPERT

Daylight Saving from May 1 to September 30 Is Decided Upon by City Council.

Daylight saving is to be put into effect in Prince Rupert from May 1 to September 30 this year. The motion of Ald. Kerr and Ald. McLeod to this effect was adopted by the council last night after the aldermen with the exception of Ald. Montgomery supporting it. There were present at the meeting the delegation of the Board of Trade and representatives of most of the athletic organizations of the city to press the matter. Most of them spoke and there was complete discussion on the question. The benefits to be derived by athletics and outdoor recreations constituted the chief argument in favor of the change of time while the opposition advanced by Ald. Montgomery was that it would cause confusion of time if not adopted by the steamship and railway companies and would also prove detrimental to children who would lose an hour of sleep in the evening which would not be made up in the mornings.

Delegations Present.
 Among those present in support of the adoption of daylight saving were J. W. Scott, E. F. Doby and E. C. Gibbons, representing the Board of Trade; W. E. Thomson and Jack Keefe, Elks; W. G. Dennis, St. Andrew's Society; Alex. McEag, Prince Rupert Rowing and Yacht Club; Harry Breen, Sons of Canada and Prince Rupert Baseball Association; T. Ross McKay, Trades and Labor Council; A. T. Broderick, George Arnold, R. E. Benson, and H. F. Pullen.
 There was also letters from the Prince Rupert Football Association and the Sons of England in support of the measure.

OBJECTS TO ASSESSMENT

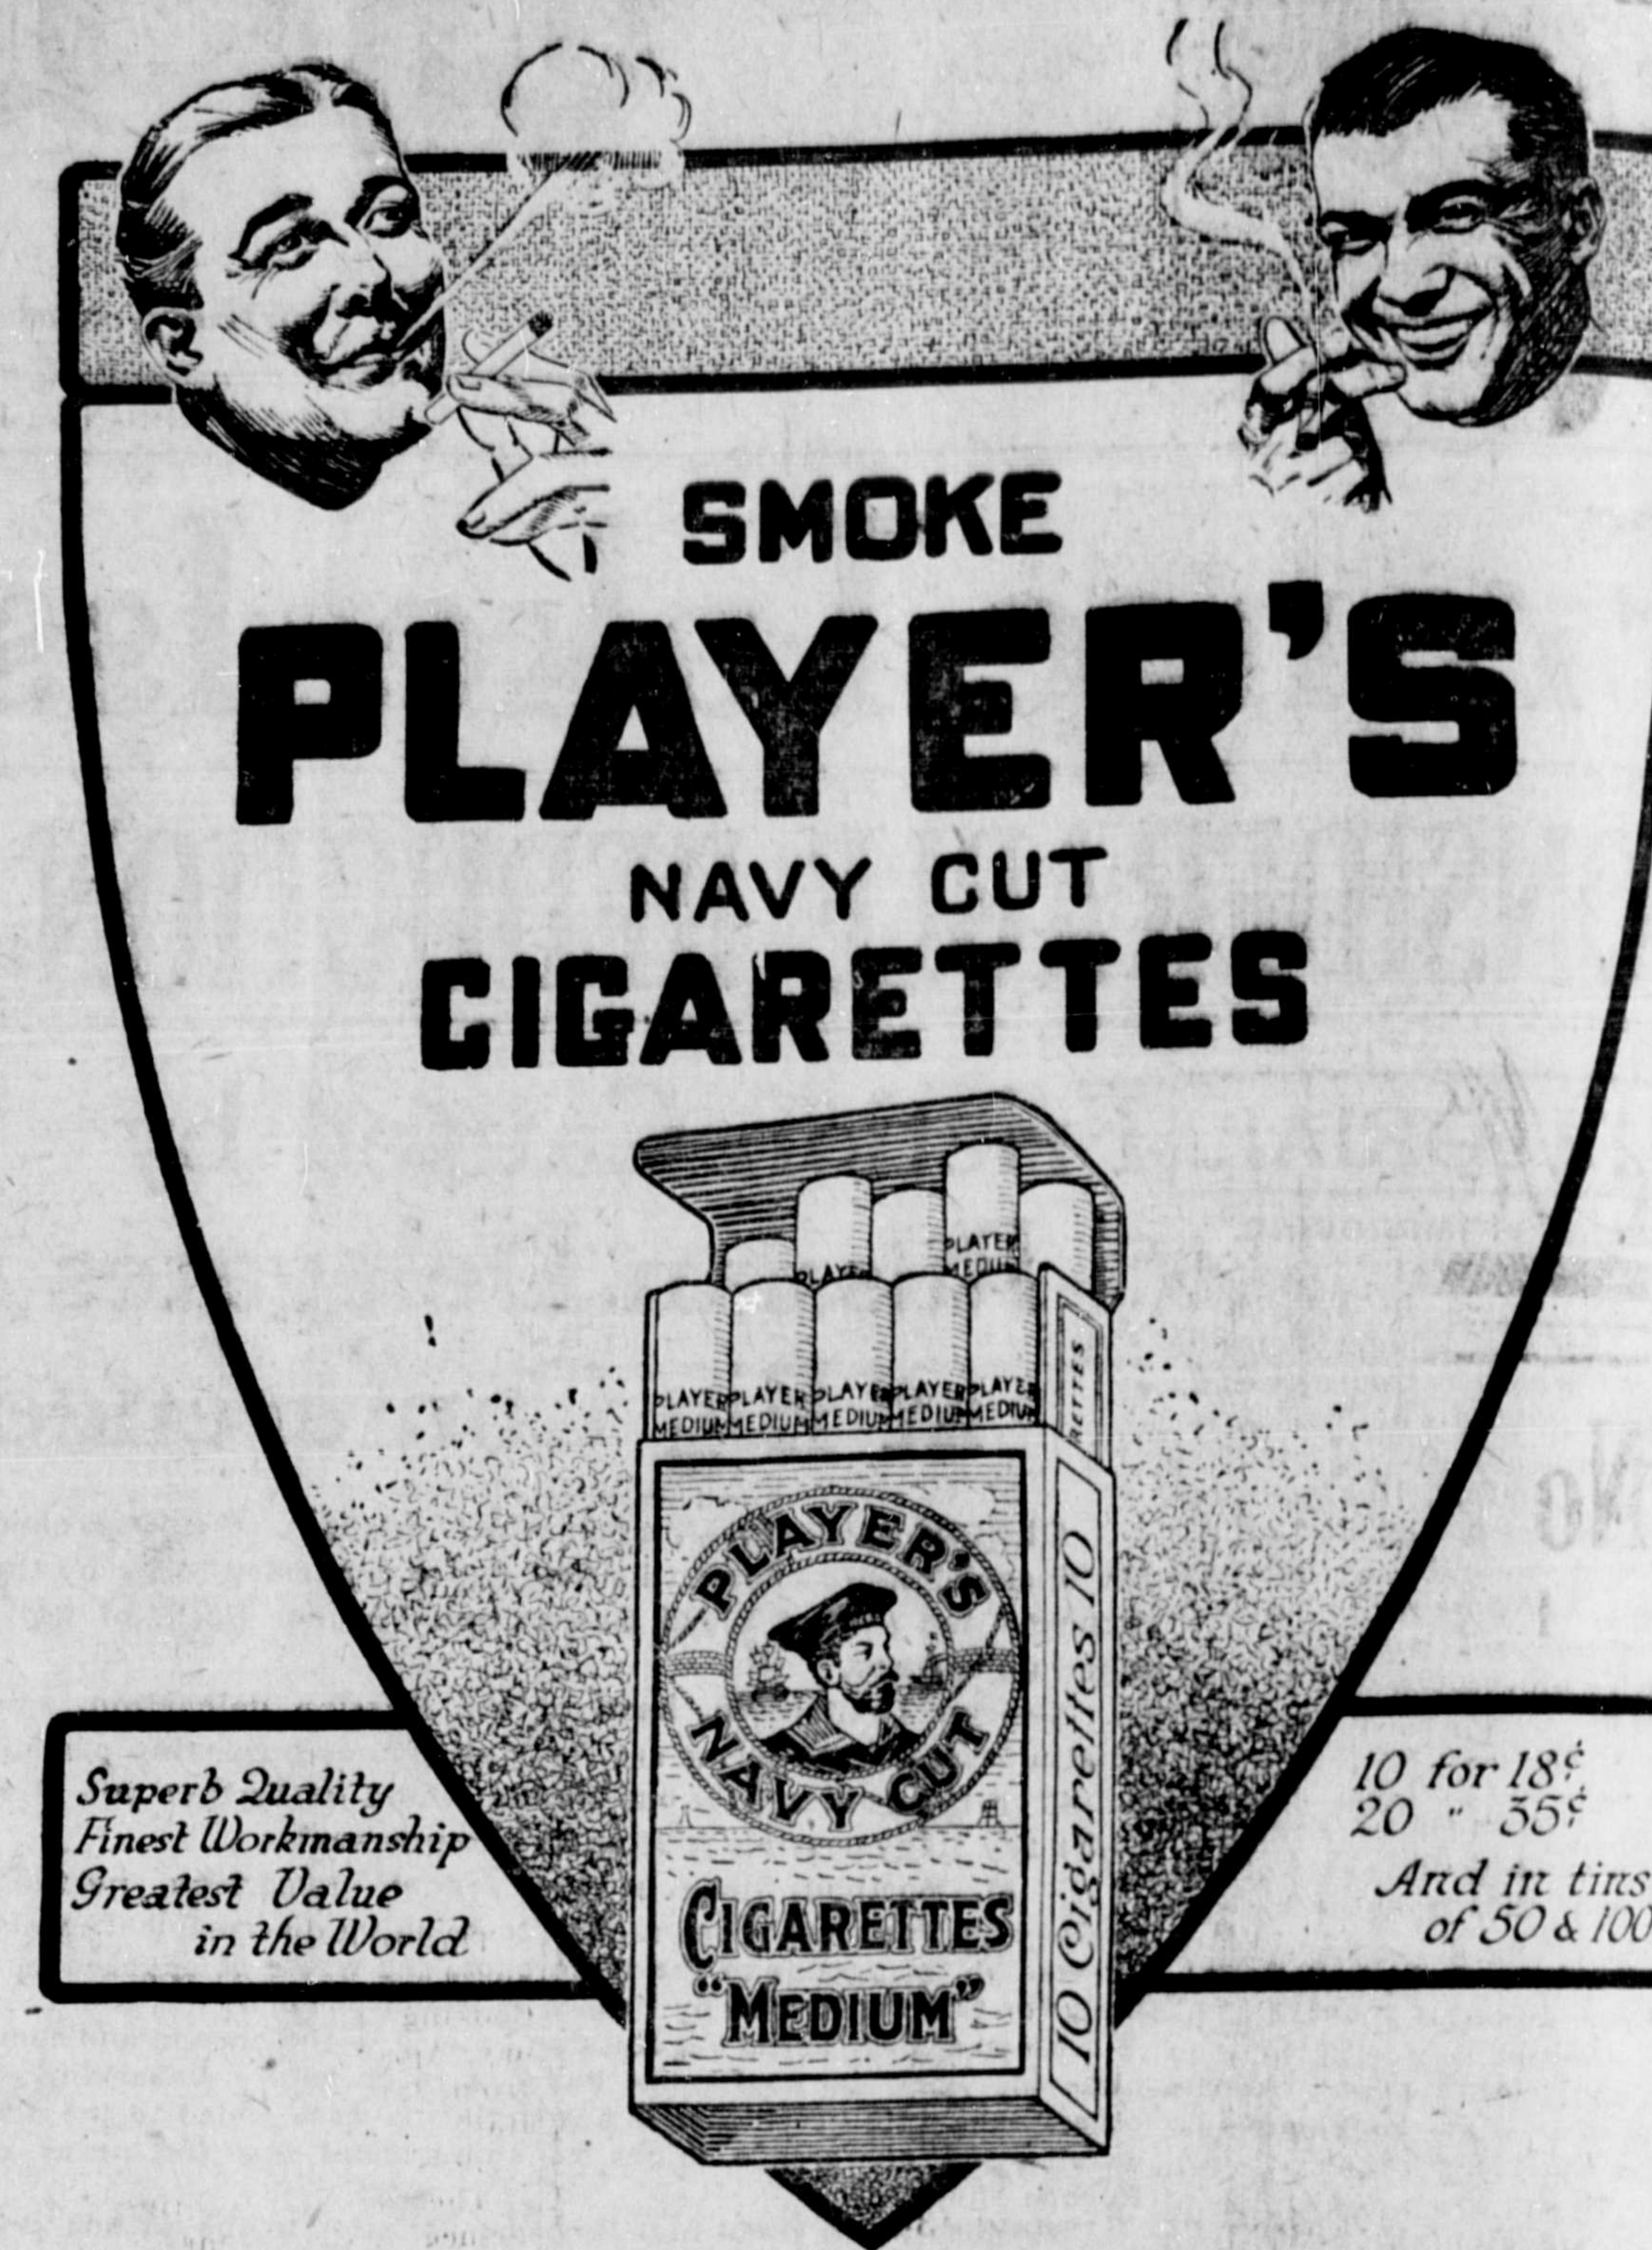

M. M. Stephens Says That He is Going to Start Action in the Courts.

Announcing that it was his intention to appeal in the courts against the decision of the Court of Revision in connection with certain assessment appeals on the grounds of over valuation and inequality, M. M. Stephens had a letter before the city council last night asking that he or his representative be given permission to examine the 1922 assessment roll and previous ones for the purpose of making comparisons and gaining information to be used in the case. It was moved by Ald. Montgomery and seconded by Ald. Kelly that the request be granted and, after considerable discussion, the resolution was put and was lost, the mover and seconder being the only members of the council supporting it.

Counter suggestions were advanced by the aldermen in the course of the discussion, the two principle ones being that Mr. Stephens could get such information as he required by applying at the treasurer's office and the other that the entire assessment roll be published. In the latter connection, Ald. Montgomery said that publication had been made before and he was sure the papers would be glad to do it again. The most of the aldermen agreed with the idea of publication, the chief opposition to the personal examination of the roll being that it would interfere with the orderly work of the City Hall and if the privilege were granted to one others might ask the same and could not be refused.

T. B. Hooper, city solicitor, said that there was no provision in the Municipal Act for such an examination by a ratepayer. Mr. Stephens was out of court before he started, anyway, for the time in which an appeal might be entered had passed.

Unfairness and Inequality.
 In the course of the discussion Ald. Montgomery said it was his intention before the year was out to go into the entire assessment, comparing it with past years and submit his findings to the city council. There had been unfairness and inequality, undoubtedly, and some properties had been reduced enormously while others had been allowed to stand still.

GIVES SKETCH OF FRED STORK

Ottawa Conservative Paper Says Local Member Very Active and Popular.

Under a display heading "The People in Parliament" the Ottawa Journal, Conservative, has an interesting sketch of the life and activities of Fred Stork, member for Skeena. It says: "What's in a name?" Fred Stork, Liberal member for Skeena, might well quote after Shakespeare. For one thing, the uncommonness of his name and that of his riding is one to be remembered. Around the corridors of Parliament and in political circles, the names have sort of become inseparably associated and he is usually spoken of as "Stork of Skeena." And back in 1904, when Mr. Stork made his entry into public life as the first Mayor of Fernie, B. C., following the incorporation of that town, his opponent for the mayoralty was a man by the name of Quail. Now Mr. Stork comes to Parliament after taking the measure of another man with a rather unusual name, Col. G. G. Peck, M.P., of Victoria Cross fame.

Four Square. Mr. Stork cannot lay claim to being a native son of British Columbia, but it would be difficult to find a man who stands as "four square" as he does when the interests of his native province are at stake. A man of Mr. Stork's stamp was bound to commend himself to the attention and confidence of his fellow-citizens and find his way to Parliament. His splendid civic record as Mayor of Fernie and later of Prince Rupert left its impress on the public mind and was not forgotten when the Liberals of Skeena brought him in the field last December.

Going to British Columbia in 1898, Mr. Stork settled in Fernie, opened a general hardware store, took a leading part in the affairs of the then village, and became Fernie's first mayor on its incorporation as a town in 1904. He was also a member of the Fernie Town Council in 1907. The following year, Mr. Stork disposed of his interests in Fernie and removed to Prince Rupert, where he started into business again as a hardware merchant. When Prince Rupert was raised to the status of a city in 1910, Mr. Stork again had the honor of being the first mayor. His record in this respect is undoubtedly unique in Canadian municipal history.

Introduced Single Tax. It was during Mr. Stork's regime as Mayor of Prince Rupert that big things were done in a civic sense. The single tax, a method of taxation much discussed and criticized in recent years, was introduced and has worked out satisfactorily. The city also inaugurated its own telephone, water and electric lighting systems, and close on to a half million dollars were spent in grading the streets. Prince Rupert is 436 miles nearer the Orient than any Pacific port, has a population of about 8,000 people and a property assessment of $47,000,000. The city is notable for many things. It is the greatest fishing port on the Pacific coast, has the largest cold storage plant on the coast, a magnificent harbor ranking third among the world's harbors, and is also the terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

Against Asiatic Immigrants. Mr. Stork has been one of Prince Rupert's "live wires" since he settled there in 1908. In addition to his interest in

WEEK HEART NERVES BADLY SHATTERED

Many a woman who should be strong and healthy, full of life and energy, is found by the shackles of ill-health.

Some disease or constitutional disturbance has left its mark in the form of a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted condition of the whole system. MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS they will find a remedy that will supply food for the exhausted nerves, one that will strengthen and regulate the weak heart and invigorate the whole system. Mrs. W. W. Pearce, 14 Seaton St., Toronto, Ont., writes: "I was left with a weak heart and in a run down condition from the flu. My nerves were badly shattered, and I had such pains around my heart I could not sleep much at night. I took several doctors' medicines without getting any better. My husband got me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after I took one box I got relief, and after taking six boxes I have been well and not bothered since."

civic affairs, he has taken an active part in politics, both provincial and federal, and is a past president of the Prince Rupert Liberal Association. He was also the first chairman of the Prince Rupert Board of Trade, and a member and the sergeant-at-arms of the Prince Rupert Club. Mr. Stork is unopposed to Oriental immigration into Canada, and he gave an earnest of his stand in this regard during his tenure of office as mayor of Prince Rupert. He had a bylaw passed making the granting of applications for liquor licenses for hotels conditional on the non-employment of Oriental labor in the hotels.

The riding which Mr. Stork represents in Parliament was established under the Redistribution Act of 1914. Mr. Stork was the Liberal candidate of Skeena at the general elections of 1917, and it looked for a time as if he had defeated Col. G. G. Peck, V.C., the Unionist Government nominee. The civil vote gave a majority of 695 votes, but this majority was transformed into a majority of 524 for Col. Peck after the military votes had been added to the civil votes.

Election Notable Win. In the last elections, Mr. Stork was more successful than his former victorious opponent in unravelling the electoral skein in Skeena. Mr. Stork's majority was not crushing by any means, being only 34 votes, but it was quite sufficient to ensure his election to the House of Commons beyond all doubt. A total of 3,261 votes was cast for Mr. Stork and 3,223 for Col. G. G. Peck. Mr. Stork's election was one of the outstanding Liberal victories in the last elections, his opponent being exceptionally popular as a result of the prestige of his brilliant military record.

Mr. Stork was born in the village of Bolton, Peel county, in 1871. His father was James Stork, and his mother Hannah Plesow, who both came to Canada from Hull, Eng. Mr. Stork, senior, was 47 years of age when he emigrated. He carried on business as a druggist in Bolton for several years and was 83 years of age at the time of his death in 1917. As a youth, the member for Skeena earned his first pay in the employ of Alfred Dowig, a hardware merchant of Bolton. The lust of adventure and travel gripped Mr. Stork at an early age and he was only 48 when he left home in 1889 with Western Canada as his destination. He was employed in different Western Canadian and American towns and lived for a

On Puget Sound Ball Team

A baseball player in his younger days Mr. Stork was at one time a star pitcher on one of the amateur teams in Puget Sound. His rugged physique would suggest that he was quite able to stand the ordeal of an extra-inning game. Mr. Stork was married in 1898 to Miss Emily Parkinson, whose father, John Parkinson, a native of Lancashire, had settled in Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. Stork have three children, one son and two daughters. Douglas Stork, a young man of 21, the eldest child is the secretary-treasurer of the Stork Hardware Company, of Prince Rupert.

Mr. Stork was one of the first members to reach Ottawa for the session. Since his arrival, he has been giving particularly close attention to matters pertaining to British Columbia. Mr. Stork is very popular among his fellow-parliamentarians, and his said that his proficiency as an AI story-teller has something to do with the popularity he enjoys.

BOY SCOUTS WANT GRANT

City Council Is Asked for $400—Matter Referred to Finance Committee.

The Boy Scouts of Prince Rupert have asked the city council for a grant of $400 in support of the movement. A letter making this request was received at last night's meeting and a delegation comprising George Rorie, president of the Boy Scouts, Canon G. A. Rix and R. V. G. Lepine was on hand to press the claim. The scouts have also asked the mayor and aldermen to be patrons of a concert which they are to stage on April 27. The matter of the grant has been referred to the Finance Committee for report.

Purpose of Organization. Speaking to the request, Mr. Rorie said that the Boy Scouts had been organized in the city for the purpose of looking after the welfare of the boys at an age when their characters were being moulded. There were already about 100 boys enrolled between the ages of 7 and 16. He considered that it was part of the city work and a grant of $400 was not too much to ask. There was no doubt that the money would be well laid out in the training given to the boys in character for their future manhood.

Canon Rix spoke at length emphasizing that the movement was neither religious or militaristic. Anti-militarism was one of the basic principles of the organization. It was undenominational although a high code of morals was demanded. There were two centres in the city already at the Presbyterian and Anglican Churches at which boys of all denominations were assembling. R. V. G. Lepine concurred in the remark of Mr. Rorie and Canon Rix.

Mayor's Support.

Mayor Rochester said he was satisfied that the object was worthy and the movement was badly needed. The benefits derived from the training would go down in the future life of the boys. He was sure the Finance Committee would give the request every consideration and would even strain a point.

On motion of Ald. Kerr, seconded by Ald. Montgomery, the matter was referred to the Finance Committee.

Thin Blood Like Skim Milk

JUST as milk is a perfect food, so is blood a perfect nourisher of the cells and tissues of the body. But thin, watery blood is like thin, watery milk with the cream skimmed off, and you do not look for much nourishment in skim milk.

Impaired heart's action is one of the first results of a weakened condition of the blood. There is shortness of breath, the circulation of the blood is imperfect, you are easily tired and suffer from indigestion.

The heart is a tireless and prodigious worker so long as it is supplied with an abundance of pure, rich blood with which to replace its own waste.

To overcome this starved condition of the system it is necessary to supply to the blood in condensed and easily assimilated form the elements of nature which go directly to supply the nutritive factor in the blood.

These ingredients are found in happy combination in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Gentle though wonderfully potent in action, this restorative treatment feeds the blood, and through the medium of the blood sends new vigor and energy to every cell and tissue of the human body. The heart's action is strengthened and the feelings of fatigue and lassitude disappear.

NEW LIGHT BYLAW SOON

Perry Says Utilities Committee Is About Ready to Submit It.

Mr. Perry announced at last night's council meeting, in reply to a question by Ald. Montgomery, that the Utilities Committee had likely have ready for next council meeting its bylaws providing for the reduction of light power charges in the city, as soon as possible, George W. C. C. as the city auditor, T. C. C. as the superintendent of Utilities and the Utilities Committee to have a conference on the matter.

Mr. Perry intimated that the electric company had made application for a contract for 450 kw. a. but, in view of the fact that he had met the last recommendation in regard to railway contracting, the company has been at a loss to know what to submit to the council. It would possibly be brought in for discussion in committee of the whole. Ald. Perry expressed himself as being in favor of the selling its surplus power to the city. Ald. Montgomery stated that the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Company had practically withdrawn its application and had definitely stated that it did not want power at the present time. This supply was now available.

HUESTIS TELLS TRAIL RANGERS OF BERMUDA ISLAND

Rev. Dr. G. H. Huestis, who is visiting the city, last evening addressed the Trail Rangers in the Methodist Church. He spoke about the island of Bermuda where 25 years ago he was a missionary and his description of the peculiar animals and insects of that country was particularly interesting. There were about 30 boys present and the pastor was given three hearty cheers before the gathering broke up.

GRAFTER REPLIES.

Editor Daily News:

I see that exponent of liberty, Thomas K. Freeman, has at last decided to sell out. Perhaps also he will shut up. It will be a good thing for the community if he does both. How is a poor grafter to make a living if such men are allowed among us? It is a most absurd idea that he propounds any way you look at it. Imagine a country where fair play existed, where there was one law for all, rich and poor alike, where absolute justice existed, where every man was allowed to choose his own vocation and live his own life. Why, some of us who now make a living by regulating and interfering with people would have to go to work.

I contend just the opposite from Captain Freeman. Our people do need dry nurses. They have no right to any liberty. They are incapable of judging good from evil. They can not exist without regulating them. There are certain of us who have proved ourselves incapable of holding a job or performing a necessary service who have proved by our ability to get something for nothing our right to govern. These are the people who are to be respected, not the man who sells service, as he calls it.

About the small boats. I claim they have no business to exist. The large transportation companies have a monopoly now which should be continued. True, to interfere with our small boat fleet would be worse than to destroy the banks, but if the small boatmen absolutely refuse to pay blackmail they should be prohibited.

The best governed country is the most governed.

A GRAFTER.

The Junior Billiard League caught up all its outstanding delayed tournaments last week and the ranking of the team in the standing has had only one alteration as a result, the Beavers having raised themselves from the cellar position which is now occupied by the Elks. Tonight the Excelsiors and the St. Andrew's are scheduled to meet.

All persons interested in baseball should attend the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Baseball Association tonight and lend their voices to the formulation of the season's plans. The city has the prospect of mustering another good team this year and things should be started with good enthusiasm at the initial meeting tonight.

With the playing of the postponed Intermediate League billiard fixture between the Sons of Canada and Grotto last week the standing to date is:

Pl.	Pls.	Av.
Sons of Canada	4	3490 873
Grotto	4	3228 807
Elks	3	2400 800
Barbers	3	2195 732

The annual meeting of the Hazelton Tennis Club was held last week and the following officers were elected: President, A. A. Connon; vice-president, Mrs. W. W. Anderson; secretary-treasurer, Miss C. Goddard; executive, Miss M. Horbury, Mrs. H. H. Little, J. D. Galloway and James Turnbull.

The Country Club at Prince George is still putting on weekly boxing exhibitions which are attended alike by ladies and gentlemen. Five three-round bouts put on last Thursday evening as follows: Tom Corliss vs. A. Geal, won by former; Ticky Wilson and Dick Corliss, draw; Leo Powers and Bert Hughes, draw; Robert Porter vs. Emil Gaus, won by former; Mort Aekert vs. Charlie Hontzhtaling, won by latter on knockout.

Some one stopped a News man the other day and asked him what had happened to the Prince Rupert Boxing Association which had been formed some time ago through the organization of Fritz Schultz. The News man was unable to state what were the latest developments. Election of officers took place several weeks ago and training quarters were selected but since then nothing has been heard. What's doing, Fritz?

Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia are sending representatives, and there promises to be a large representation from the boxing fraternity in Alberta.

Four of the Canadian amateur titles are now held by United States boxers.

LACROSSE IS COMING BACK

Day of Professional Games Seems to Be Gone—Amateur Prospects.

MANN CUP DIFFICULTIES

Great Stimulus is Noticeable in Ranks of Juniors.

TORONTO, April 11.—Written for the Canadian Press by Leonard Smith.—Canada's great summer and national game—lacrosse—is fast returning to popular favor and has during the past two years made strides far beyond the expectation of the most optimistic lacrosse lover. Some two or three years prior to the outbreak of war the game got into a rut and interest was on the wane, due, no doubt, to the rowdy element which was creeping into the sport brought about by the "win at any cost" policy. The supporters of the game were not slow to realize this, and soon withdrew their attendance. In 1913, however, the Province of Ontario saw a change for the better and the game was rapidly recovering from its former set-back, just as the season of 1914 was getting under way with fresh vigor the European struggle again upset calculations and took practically every lacrosse player over-seas to engage in the more strenuous game of war. Those left behind decided to carry on in the junior juvenile and midget series and in 1918 when the war concluded the boys from "over there" returned to find that their favorite pastime had not been neglected in their absence and the season of 1919 saw greater progress being made than for many previous years. In 1920 forty-five teams played in the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association series, while in 1921 ninety-three teams were entered, of which eight-five actively participated.

There were hopes that the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse Association would be revived this coming season. Correspondence has been carried on between the Ontario and Manitoba interests, but no definite plan has been formulated. Amateur lacrosse at the Pacific Coast is somewhat unsettled due to the trouble of three years ago between Vancouver Island and Victoria when the Mann Cup games were decided. It is claimed that Victoria refused to give up the Cup, in fact, they will only accept a challenge for the same upon their own terms.

Professionalism Done. Professional lacrosse appears to have had its day. Ottawa, Cornwall and Montreal teams operated last season in what might be termed a semi-professional league but the attendance at the games was rather limited. On the Pacific Coast matters are in even a worse condition in the professional ranks, though Con. Jones who spared no expense in the past to get together a winning team tried again last season to get the fans to follow professional lacrosse, but notwithstanding the fact that he threw open the gates and charged no admission to see the contests, the citizens would not give him their patronage. Several men were taken from the East and played under the colors of Seattle, but the venture was a heavily losing proposition for Mr. Jones.

The Lord Dunsborough Cup, donated two years ago by the Toronto Board of Trade in the interests of lacrosse should also greatly help to stimulate interest in the game. Any team that comes second in its group games has the right to challenge and which should result in many teams continuing their season in an effort to win this coveted trophy who would otherwise hang up their sticks in the early part of August and leave the lacrosse fans clamoring for further matches. Amateur teams in any part of the Dominion may compete for this trophy.

Mann Cup.

The Mann Cup, one of the most handsome trophies ever put up for competition, and which is emblematic of the amateur championship of Canada has not been competed for during the past few seasons owing to the inability of the Cup trustees to secure possession of same from the Victoria Club, notwithstanding ing that legal proceedings have been threatened.

One feature which has not been previously touched upon is the large number of teams entered in the lower series, viz., midget, juvenile and junior. Formerly the younger lads were let paddle their own canoe while the clubs catered to either the intermediate or senior players, but they are at last beginning to realize that they must build from the ground up and are outfitting the boys and entering them in what might be termed the baby classes. In addition to this, school leagues are sprouting in all parts of Ontario, thus ensuring a continuance of the game for many years to come. In this latter connection the action of P. J. Lally of Cornwall in supplying cheap sticks for the boys is also helping wonderfully in the establishment of the game in new territory.

Winnipeg last season operated a city league which was very successful and those behind the game in Manitoba were hopeful of arranging a series of games with the East at the close of the year, but final arrangements were not made as the O.A.L.A. season extended into October.

Change in Ontario.

One naturally asks, what brought about the great change, in conditions in Ontario during 1921. First and foremost was the publicity given to the game in the press. In addition to the general gossip of the teams carried on during the week, every city and town where the game was played was favored with interesting reports of the matches by the local press, which stimulated interest which could not otherwise have been aroused. In addition to this, the gentlemanly conduct of all players also had a marked effect upon those in attendance as the boys kept their heads and in all the games played during 1921 not one untoward incident was reported. Not so many years ago a lacrosse game was not complete without either a scrap with the players on the field or amongst the over-zealous fans in the grandstand, but things have changed for the better in this connection. This, too has resulted in ladies and children attending the games.

The following teams were entered in the O. A. L. A. last season: Aurora, 2; Allison, 2; Brampton, 3; Bradford, 3; Braches (Toronto), 4; Border Cities; Windsor, 1; Bracebridge, 2; Bradford, 1; Campbellford, 2; Chatham, 1; Dufferin (Toronto), 2; Durham, 3; Fergus, 2; Galt, 1; Hanover, 3; Respeler, 2; Havelock, 1; Hastings, 1; Hamilton, 1; London, 1; Mimico, 3; Maitlands (Toronto), 4; Markdale, 1; Madoc, 1; Newmarket, 2; Oshawa, 3; Owen Sound, 1; Orangeville, 3; Orillia, 1; Peterborough, 2; Paisley, 1; Riversides (Toronto), 1; St. Simons (Toronto), 3; Sarnia, 2; St. Thomas, 1; St. Catharines, 3; Shamrocks (Toronto), 1; St. Marys, 3; Stratford, 1; Shelbourne, 1; Southampton, 1; Todmorden, 1; Weston, 5; Woodbridge, 3; Walkersburg, 1; Wingham, 1; Walkerton, 1; Young Toronto, 1.

All of the above and many new teams will participate in 1922 in addition to several town and school leagues now in process of formation, so the summer now before us should go down as the greatest ever in the history of lacrosse.

ECZEMA ON FACE AND HANDS for Five Years

Eczema or salt rheum, as it is so often called, manifests itself in little round pimples which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subside, especially at night or when the part is exposed to a strong heat, is almost unbearable and relief is gladly welcomed. There is only one way to get relief and no remedy like

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS Take it internally and it gets at the seat of the disease in the blood and drives it out of the system.

Apply it externally and it takes out the itching, stinging and burning, and promotes healthy healing.

Mr. J. Sage, 215 Princess Ave., Vancouver, B. C., writes:—"Having suffered with eczema on the face and head for the last five years, I consulted several doctors, and tried various kinds of salves and lotions, but I derived no benefit from any of them. I did not know what to do until a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after I had used two bottles I began to get better and now after taking eight bottles I have not even a blemish on my face. I feel that I cannot praise B. B. B. too highly. I hope you will make full use of this recommendation for the benefit of those who are suffering from this terrible complaint, eczema."
