Last of Delegates Return From Ottawa and will Report to Council and Board of Trade

Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney-general, arrived this morning from Victoria and F. G. Dawson got back Thursday night from Ottawa, both delegates from the city to Ottawa, but Mr. Manson is the accredited delegate of the city council as well as the board of trade, will report to the mayor and council officially. Mr. Dawson says Prince Rupert and Northern British Columbia generally are on the eve of great development.

CLAIM MADE IS MILLION POUNDS

Owners of Distillery as Reimbursement For Loss in Raid—Troubles in Belfast.

BELFAST, April 15.—The Dunville Distillery has made a claim on the town clerk of Dublin for a million pounds sterling as its loss in the recent raid by republican army men on the customs warehouse, when half a million gallons of whiskey and wine were destroyed.

Constable Bennett of the Irish constabulary was wounded when two men shot up a saloon here. Thursday 250 men of the insurgent section of the republican army seized at midnight the Four Courts buildings in Dublin, which until the passing of the Irish Act were the seat of the national courts of justice.

A stormy Eastertide here is predicted by those who have watched the sequence of disorders. A police patrol was attacked on Joy Street and four officers wounded. Further shooting occurred.

A Protestant banker named Carmie Heal was assassinated. A carpet cleaner, a Catholic, was reported dying and a third named Sloan, a Protestant, died at the hospital after being shot.

ELECTRICAL WORKERS' AGREEMENT ADOPTED UTILITIES COMMITTEE

At a meeting of the utilities committee of the city council on Thursday night it was decided to adopt the wage agreement with the electrical workers for another year with certain eliminations. In the past there have been a number of men on the utilities list such as rockmen and powdermen who will in future come under the city engineer's department. The list of employees of utilities department to whom the wage agreement now applies will be only those actually functioning in the city. The matter will come up at Tuesday night's council meeting in the form of a report for ratification.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the wage scale in force for electrical workers here was similar to that in Vancouver with the exception of telephone operators who were receiving higher pay although this does not in any case exceed ten per cent over Vancouver.

At the meeting there was also a lengthy discussion of the proposed new light and power rate bylaw. This will be presented to the council at a later date.

FEARFUL FOR THE MORROW

Irish Developments Lead to Expectation of Trouble at Easter.

LONDON, April 15.—Developments over Sunday are awaited anxiously here in view of the republican seizure of the Four Courts in Dublin and the determination of Arthur Griffiths to hold his pro-treaty meeting in Sligo tomorrow over the decree of the local Irish republican commander. The situation is described by morning newspapers as very serious. The fact that the peace conference between the Free Staters and the republicans adjourned without any sign of an agreement is commented on as a bad omen.

BELFAST, April 15.—Two British warships have arrived in Lough Swilly, County Donegal, northwest of Londonderry, it was learned this afternoon.

LONDON, April 15.—The movement of the British warships into the waters of County Donegal, Ireland, is interpreted here as a precautionary measure in view of the tense situation in Ireland.

Progress is Being Made Negotiations With Russia At Economic Conference

GENOA, April 15.—Lloyd George summed up this afternoon what appears the general view of the progress of the Russian negotiations at the economic conference in the following words:

"We are building a bridge across a stream. We have driven some piles and we are now in the deepest part of the current and are driving them into mud at the bottom. Although the bridge is not yet above water, the piles are firmly fixed and we are still hammering at them."

GENOA, April 15.—Financial and economic experts of Great Britain, France and Italy gathered this morning to continue the discussions begun yesterday on the condition under which reconstruction in Russia might be undertaken. They will be joined by the principal delegates of the four inviting powers and Soviet Russia in the afternoon.

Discussions were started yesterday at an informal meeting of delegates in the villa occupied by Lloyd George, the basis of negotiations being the report prepared by the allied experts in London, copies of which were handed to the Russians earlier in the week. Russia's reply, timed for today, has been postponed indefinitely, and will be based on an understanding reached at a series of conferences.

PROMOTIONS IN ENGLISH CHURCH

Canon Rix Becomes Archdeacon and Rural Dean Rushbrook Honorary Canon.

In recognition of many years of faithful service in the Diocese of Caledonia, Archbishop Du Vernet has appointed Rev. G. A. Rix to be Archdeacon of Prince Rupert and Rev. W. E. Rushbrook to be honorary canon of St. Andrew's Pro-cathedral. This will mean that Canon Rix will rank next to the bishop of the diocese and Canon Rushbrook next to Archdeacon Rix. The appointments will cause no change in the conduct of the church work here and Archdeacon Rix and Canon Rushbrook will continue in the same capacities as in the past.

Archdeacon Rix has been here for nine years and in that period has done valuable service as canon of St. Andrew's Church. Before coming to Prince Rupert, Archdeacon Rix was clergyman at Orangeville, Ontario, and prior to that dean of Wyckville College and assistant clergyman in the Church of the Redeemer, Toronto, concurrently.

Canon Rushbrook is a pioneer clergyman of the diocese and over ten years ago took up his first post in the district as deacon at Port Essington. Some years ago he took up the duties as rural dean in charge of the Prince Rupert missions on the launch "Northern Cross," on which he visits periodically outlying places in the district conducting services. His energetic and far-reaching work in the district is well known and appreciated.

ROTARIANS AT FIRST ANNUAL

Officers For Second Year Installed at Banquet Thursday Night.

The first anniversary of the establishment of the local Rotary Club was celebrated on Thursday evening by a dinner at which the wives and lady friends of the members were guests. The new officers for the year were installed and Dr. Grant gave a report of the recent convention at Vancouver which he attended as a delegate from the club. There was also a good deal of singing and merriment.

The new officers are as follows:

President, T. H. Johnson. Vice-president, Duncan G. McRae. Secretary, George Rorie. Treasurer, Richard Moore. Directors: M. P. McGaffery and James Lee.

The musical numbers included selections by the Prince Rupert Rotary Club Orchestra comprising James Lee, Dr. Bayne, C. Dickenson and Miss Curtin; and the Hawaiian Quintette made up of Mrs. Bryant, Miss Curtin, Alex. Rix, Sydney Bazel-Jones, and Douglas Stork. Songs were sung by Miss Kathleen Grant; vocalistic talks were given by Thos. McClymont and W. E. Williams.

The only toasts were to the King and to the ladies, the latter proposed by Harry Pullen and responded to by Mrs. McClymont.

Duby's Address.

In installing the officers President Duby, who now becomes the first past president, spoke of the work done during the year. While there had been nothing spectacular the members had learned to know each other better and they looked forward to a successful year under the new officers.

Mr. Duby outlined the gradual growth of the Rotary sentiment long before the Rotary Club came into being. The "eye for an eye" policy in life was gradually being eliminated. In the Rotary clubs the good fellowship factor was being extended to include business relations. The motto of "service before self" was being gradually put into practice. He thanked the members for their loyalty during the past year and bespoke for the new officers that same loyal support.

New President.

President-elect Johnson responded briefly and said the good ship Rotary had been safely piloted during the first year. Capt. Duby had proved an efficient officer and the machinery and all the parts of the ship worked well. He felt it an honor to be made captain of the ship. President Duby was a difficult man to follow. If he were asked what he would like to accomplish during the coming year he would say he would like to make the good fellowship which obtained in that club spread throughout the city. With such good fellowship, service would follow as a natural sequence. Goodwill begets confidence but that confidence must not be violated. In Rotary Ltd., the investor got dividends on his actual investment. There was no watered stock. The members worked on piecemeal. He hoped the local club would pay good dividends in the coming year.

Dr. Grant Speaks.

Dr. Grant, the delegate of the club to the convention at Victoria, told of the proceedings there somewhat in detail. He told of the splendid spirit that enthused them all and especially of the spirit of international unity displayed there. "We must give it to America. They have the pep," declared the delegate.

The Doctor told of the wonderful banquet at which he was one of two speakers. He had said among other things that in the Prince Rupert Club they had one archbishop, one bishop and a minister. One of the mem-

SWANSON BAY PULP MILL IS AGAIN CLOSED

Shingle Mill, It Is Believed, Will Be Only Part of Whalen Plant Running This Year.

ADVERSE CONDITION OF MARKET REASON GIVEN

SWANSON BAY, April 15.—The pulp mill of the Whalen Pulp and Paper Co. here has closed down and most of the employees have been released. The shutdown is for an indefinite period and it is generally believed that the plant will not operate again this summer.

The shingle mill is still running, however, and it is expected it will continue throughout the season.

Adverse market conditions is given as the reason for the close down of the pulp mill, but it is also believed that there are difficulties in connection with the management in the east.

Where before there were 250 employees at Swanson Bay, there will now be about forty only. The men remaining will be those who have families here and altogether there will be about 100 persons in the place.

The Swanson Bay pulp mill only recently reopened after having been closed down for some weeks on account of shortage of water supply.

REPORT ON COUNTRY TRAVERSED BY P.G.E. AND ITS POSSIBILITIES

VICTORIA, April 15.—Premier Oliver announced here that the appointment of Colonel J. S. Dennis, chief commissioner of colonization and development for the C.P.R. to make a general survey of the country through which the P.G.E. railway runs is for the purpose of securing a report on the possibilities of that part of the province. It will be his duty to ascertain whether there is any chance of the P.G.E. being made to pay as a result of the traffic that could be produced in that area.

Colonel Dennis leaves Montreal about the middle of May to start work on the preparation of material for the report.

berg had retorted that up at Prince Rupert the people needed one in ten to keep them straight.

After the address past president, Duby said he had received a letter from one of the officials at Vancouver commending the delegate that had been sent from Prince Rupert. The thanks of the club were also passed to Edward Lipsett for the courtesies extended to Dr. Grant while there.

After singing Auld Lang Syne the gathering dispersed.

FIRST REPORT
BOOTH SCHOOL

Made to Board by A. A. Cox,
Vancouver Consulting Engineer.

Based on his examination already made of the upper brick walls above the cornices, A. A. Cox, Vancouver consulting architect, made a preliminary report on the condition of the Booth Memorial School at the regular monthly meeting of the school board which was held on Thursday evening. Mr. Cox is continuing his work of investigation and hopes to have a further report to submit to the board in the course of a few days. In the meantime, the board has deferred decision on the question of whether or not the Booth School will be occupied before permanent repairs are made. Mr. Cox stated it was his opinion that, with certain safeguards, the school could be occupied at once, but he would prefer the board to wait further report from him before definitely acting on this. At the meeting there were present Dr. W. T. Kergin, chairman of the school board; L. W. Patmore, J. C. McLennan, Mrs. E. V. Ling, Thomas McMeekin, Mayor Rochester, Mr. Cox, City Engineer F. J. Whitaker, J. W. Potter, Principal J. C. Brady, Superintendent H. L. Campbell and W. D. Vance, secretary.

Unsatisfactory Condition.

In submitting his preliminary report Mr. Cox said he was doing so as the board was desirous of knowing if there could be an immediate reopening of the classes at the Booth School. There had not been sufficient time to make a full examination, which would be necessary before a final report could be submitted. He had found the school in an unsatisfactory condition but there was no immediate danger. It would be possible to use it very soon and before permanent repairs were made if some temporary precautions were taken. The cornices were in bad shape and since the parapets had been reduced they were out of balance. Some measures would have to be taken to reestablish the equilibrium of the cornices before the building was occupied again, and he would advise that this be done to protect against possible accidents, especially in case of windstorms. The stability of the cornices depended on the anchorage, part of which had been removed. The cornices could be rendered stable with temporary precautions. The permanent repairs to the school would take some time but could be done by the time the summer vacation was over. Until the permanent work was done there would be repetition of the leaking when rain came.

Camouflage Mortar.

Mr. Cox said he had removed a brick facing on Thursday and had been surprised to find that there was water on the bricks inside and that the mortar was strengthless. On the outside there was camouflage mortar. There were serious defects in construction and if the condition were allowed to continue until winter there would be further expansion of the brick and serious troubles would result. It would take considerable time to plan the permanent work.

Whether or not the school should be occupied again at once would be a matter to be decided at the discretion of the board itself. If it was decided to do so he would strongly urge that no marching, drilling, dancing or gymnastics be allowed, especially in the assembly hall. His final report would be submitted in the near future.

Questioned by Mr. Patmore, Mr. Cox said that he had found the same condition existing in regard to the bricks wherever he had examined so far. He had not gone into the structure closely yet, however, and had not examined below the main roof. The school was in a serious condition in some parts. He would prefer that it not be used until he had made further examination, for there might easily be accidents, especially in the wind. At the present time the cornices were badly balanced on account of the weight from the top of them having been removed.

Structurally All Right.

Mr. Cox said that the only difficulties he could see now were the unstable cornices and the fact that if rain came it would leak again. Structurally the building was otherwise all right, he thought. On Thursday there was water dripping through the cornices. This was a peculiar condition, but it was a fact. He would advise strongly that the cornices be balanced up before the school was again occupied. The proposition was peculiar and difficult and his position was a responsible one, so he would not care to make offhand reports. Many more points would be brought out in his next report.

Mr. McMeekin said he would not favor the occupying of the building until the whole thing was put in good shape and permanent repairs had been made. In the meantime the school board could find temporary rooms and have the classes established as soon as possible.

Mr. McLennan said they should wait a few days before taking any action, and Mr. Patmore concurred in this. Mrs. Ling suggested that in the meantime the committee could obtain information regarding temporary rooms. It was decided to let the matter stand until Mr. Cox gives his next report which will be in the course of the next day or so.

In the Letter Box

SUMMER TIME.

Editor Daily News:

Summertime, the pet term applied to daylight saving, while seemingly of no significance, is the most inexcusable piece of petty tyranny, as well, the most unwarranted infringement on the liberties of the individual that obtains today.

It is understood and admitted that individual sacrifices must be made in the interests of the public welfare, but this inquiry finds no place in that category. Nor can it be defended on any grounds, other than that of special privilege and the usurped right of a class to impose on others conditions they themselves can escape. As an illustration, enter a community where summer time is enforced. Note the joy-riders indulging in pleasure until midnight or later, retire when it suits them because they can arise when they please. These, with their imitators with few exceptions are daylight-savers.

Note those who work the work, (not confined to wage-earners alone) those who appeal against the hardships summer-time imposes, who must owing to circumstances arise early—compelled by reason of this imposition to arise an hour earlier than is necessary, thereby denying them the right to conduct their personal affairs as they choose, in matters pertaining exclusively to themselves. Again, note the child legislated out of bed and compelled to report at the school room at 8 a.m. Surely none are so blind as to fail to see the class character of the operation of this law.

Method of Changing.

We are told that in most cities a plebiscite is taken before the time is changed, this meaning a majority enforcing its will on a minority, a democratic principle and a matter for any community to decide. An answer might suggest that this method of legislating, although clothed in the garb of democracy, and for some time hailed with acclaim, is in actual fact a legalized extension of mob law, and unless its use was clearly and definitely circumscribed would have the effect of breaking down all safeguards thrown around the liberties of both individuals and minorities. If by a law in the hands of a majority, conditions can be set up whereby the home can be invaded and the time for arising dictated (in order that a section of the population may amuse itself) it can for the same reasons hang the members up by the thumbs, or indulge in any other excesses and justify its actions on identically the same grounds. Then and in that case, the personal liberties of the individual no longer exist.

Blindly Follow.

Members of mobs do not act or think independently but blindly follow the dictates of a coterie of leaders, who control by appeals to passion and emotions. Direct legislation, except that it may be a legitimate institution, is put into effect on similar lines, and is often more tyrannical than a despotism because of lack of responsible organization behind its laws. A case in point being certain enforcement clauses in the B. C. Prohibition Act.

In Vancouver where this measure was defeated in 1921 and strenuous efforts made to impose it in 1922, resulted in a vote of less than 6000 in its favor, in a population of about 120,000. Yet we are informed this means a majority enforcing its will on a minority and a democratic principle. It has the appearance of such and when such conditions are permitted to continue proof is furnished of the failure of democracy, and the hypocrisy of those who preach it.

Influence of Minorities.

The number of supporters of summer-time in proportion to the population, is no doubt, as great there as elsewhere, and it shows clearly the influence exercised by minorities on public bodies in controlling the affairs of a community.

It is understood that Great Britain and France have employed this innovation, but opposition has developed as experience has been gained, and in France particularly where it was regarded a short time ago as a boon, is today violently opposed, as many Frenchmen have learned that the yoke of oppression has been placed upon their necks and are fighting to throw it off.

When the Dominion Government adopted daylight-saving as a "war measure" it was enforced throughout the country, when it was defeated it had no legal status anywhere. If the provinces have authority to proclaim it a law, it is no doubt derived from the B. N. A. Act. Still it would seem necessary that organized bodies be given power to adopt it by a provincial statute.

Abate Mania.

In order to abate this mania a certain hour should be established when all adults would be compelled to arise and the curfew might be used for the purpose. The saver compels many who prepare the morning meal to get out of bed at 4:30, who arise now at 5:30, consequently he cannot object if the hour is set up at 4:30.

If this rule could be enforced it would mean "equality before the law" and not a piece of rank class legislation and the ardor of organized influence in insisting on saving light would at once become dampened. They soon would also learn that if he arose at this time he could not joy-ride until midnight, and his light saving ideas would undergo a radical change.

PLAYS OLD TUNE.

Editor Daily News:

I wish to thank A. Gaffer for his kindly and frank statement of the high ideals of the prohibitionists. I could not have done it as well however I tried.

To interfere, to graft, to blackmail, to persecute the individual who tries to develop the country, to prohibit the worker, to punish the man who honorably tries to do something. However, I am gambling on the ultimate honesty and decency of our people and therefore our government.

The average citizen is negatively honest. He is clean in his thoughts and actions. He does not injure or wish to injure anyone. He would rather help. But the average citizen is really inactive. It is only the unclean, the dishonest, the person with filthy mind who uses it for the purpose of persecuting those who honorably sell service.

Always Aggressive.

The criminal is always aggressive. He will work harder to get something for nothing and get less than if he would do something useful. I contend that the majority of our people are clean-minded and intelligent. That they do not need the regulations of the criminal mind to show them the straight and narrow path. I also claim that most prohibitive laws are the result of the desire of the criminal to make use of that queer phase of human nature which makes anything forbidden desirable. That prohibitive laws prostitute our laws and our people. The old Mosaic law of "an eye for an eye," or punish the man who injures his neighbor, is the only one we need. Therefore punish the prohibitionist.

The best governed country is the least governed.

Was Troubled
With Her Stomach
For Five Years

Mrs. Samuel Ward, Millersdale, Sask., writes:—"I feel that I must write to you before another day passes I am so happy and so grateful to your splendid medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters, for after an illness of five years I am better."

I had stomach trouble so bad, I could not bear the smell or taste of food of any kind, and got so thin and weak I could not work. I had four doctors attend me, but they did me no good. I was in no pain, but felt so ill, at times, I thought I would die. In fact, all my friends were sure I could not live many months. This time last year I saw where a man was relieved of stomach trouble by Burdock Blood Bitters, so my husband got me two bottles, but I had no faith in it until all the different medicines I had taken, however he insisted, and after the first two days I must say I began to feel better, and after the first bottle I felt so much better I went out a little every day, but could not go alone I was so weak, but I soon got so I could walk and eat, and have got quite stout.

I am nearly seventy years of age and feel better than I have for years, and can do all my housework. You may make use of this letter if you wish, as it may be the means of making others as well and as happy as I am."

On Buying Curtains

Remember LUX is at your service—its pure, bubbly suds make colours bright and clear, and the daintiest fabrics clean and fresh as when new.

The thin, satin-like flakes of Lux, manufactured by our own exclusive process, dissolve instantly into a rich lather as harmless to fine fabrics as pure water itself.

LUX

For Silk and coloured curtains—

Whisk a tablespoonful of LUX to a lather in half a bowlful of very hot water; then add cold water till lukewarm. Swirl the curtains about—work quickly—press the rich suds through and through the curtains but never rub. Rinse in three lukewarm waters. If you can, roll in a towel to dry. Or, dry in the shade.

For white curtains—not silk—soak for an hour in cold water. Then wash in the same way, using hot suds. Rinse in three hot waters and dry in the sun.

Lux stands supreme. It is sold only in sealed packets—dust-proof!

Waterfront Whiffs

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet Which Is the Chief Source of Prince Rupert's Prosperity

During the past week fish arrivals have been up to the average and some 398,000 pounds of fish has been marketed, and seventeen carloads have been shipped.

While the price for schooner fish has been somewhat low, selling as low as 6½c and 4c per pound, the west coast fish brought a higher price selling as high as 10 cents per pound and more.

Small cargoes of spring salmon arrived early in the week, brought in by boats of the local trolling fleet, and sold up to 20 cents per pound.

The colchican run, which is short and rapid is practically all over, although there are a quantity of the fish in local cold storage which are finding a ready market.

Several of the smaller craft have put into port during the week from trapping expeditions, and some good marten, mink and other skins have been landed, although in small quantities. There are still a number of trappers to report.

Jack Toner is up to his knees in water these days working overtime on the renovation of the lately raised Olympia. This craft is to be completely overhauled, and will be very expensively equipped.

When finished it will be skippered by Flossie Flirt, who will use the craft as a pleasure yacht and Jack as the engineer. The dimensions are roughly 30 ft. x 6 ft. beam, with a spacious cabin and dancing deck, and will be fitted with an umpteen horse power Doherty engine. The cabin is to be richly upholstered in crocodile leather providing sufficient crocodiles can be located around the bay, failing which it will be beautifully finished in colored cheescloth. Berthing accommodation is being arranged for the skipper on the bridge, so that it will be unnecessary for Flossie to get up in the morning to handle the engine room telegraphs.

The sides of the hull are being armor plated to keep the water out of the boat and also to prevent any inquisitive deep sea monsters from climbing through the hull and trespassing upon the privacy of passengers. The Olympia is a brother ship to the Olympian. A flag, depicting the skull and cross bones, will fly from the mast if the wind blows. If no wind it won't fly at all. When the craft is completed visitors will be allowed on board for viewing purposes at the rate of one dime per head, the proceeds going to purchase a broody hen to mother the incubator at the Mug Up.

The Sweet Genevieve, Captain Alf. Lund, is on the N. M. McLean under a complete overhaul, preparatory to leaving port on a prospecting trip.

The Brandt is in port from Banks Island for supplies and overhaul, upon the completion of which she will leave for the salmon trolling banks.

The Murineau, owned by Captain Jud Thurber, and skippered at present by Captain "Noname," while fishing in Outer Passage, picked up six spring salmon on a skate of gear. This happening would go to show that the spring salmon is taking a fancy to the hook.

The snag-scow, Cygnus, Capt. Mulligan, seems to have hit a snag, at any rate she did not pull out for the Naas River as was originally reported, and is still moored at the Government dock.

New marine ways are being built by the Ward Electric Co. at Cow Bay for the accommodation of the smaller craft. The bed timber is on the ground and the cross timbers are already laid.

The Torberg, Captain Nels Robinson, has practically completed her overhaul preparatory to leaving port on a salmon trolling stunt.

The Birdie B, Captain John Prescott, has just returned to port from a secret treasure hunting expedition to the Queen Charlotte Islands.

It is understood that Cap has an interest in a new invention for extracting the gold, which abounds in the sand on the shores of the Islands, and if experiments prove successful more will be heard about it. During the trip mountainous seas were encountered, which compelled the crew to batten down the hatchways and rig up storm lines. No sooner had the crew got below, than the friction on the new gold washing machine became accentuated by the roll of the boat, thereby causing a dense smoke. This happening caused some inconvenience, the weather being too bad outside to permit of the crew going out and smoke was too bad inside to permit the crew remaining below. With this state of affairs existing a board meeting was called and after a hurried consultation it was unanimously decided to throw the skipper's dinner overboard, which prompt action doubtless prevented a catastrophe. It was unfortunate for the skipper that a storm should have come up just at meal time.

Captain Khori launched his new craft the fourth "Just It" on Thursday, in Cameron Cove alias Bone Yard Creek, amid much excitement. Mrs. Dono Drinkwater performed the launching ceremony, while the Cow Bay orchestra struck up "A Life on the Ocean Wave." The dimensions of the new Khori boat are 32 ft. long x 9 ft. beam. She will be fitted with a 6 h.p. Clay engine. Cap is contemplating extensions to his ways, in view of which he is undergoing a course in book-keeping and rye-keeping, and says that it is much easier to keep books than it is to keep rye.

The Dixie Rupert is being repainted at Cow Bay at the hands of her skipper.

Captain Claude Ketchum has practically completed the raft at Seal Cove for the conveying of the two donkey engines to Surf Inlet for the J. R. Morgan Logging Company. Cap expects to leave port over the week end for Surf Inlet.

O. P. Smith left port on Thursday morning with the Billy Boy, with J. Mallis and A. McKenzie aboard, bound for the Inverness Cannery. The party are going out to get the camp scows in readiness for the opening of the cannery on April 25.

The racing yacht Kelpie, owned by Captain Bill Shelim, which was sunk outside Cow Bay during the storm of Dec. 12-13 last, is undergoing repairs in Bone Yard Creek, and will soon be in thorough seagoing shape again. It is Cap's intention, when the repair work is completed, to take a little run down to the Hawaiian Islands providing the weather keeps fine all the way.

School Girls' Nerves

"I give my children Nerve Food during examinations, and am sure it helps them," writes a Vancouver lady.

AFTER the long school term the children's nerves are keyed up to the highest pitch. The fear and worry of examinations are often the last straw which brings the nervous breakdown.

It is usually the naturally nervous child who has the greatest ambition, and by denying his or herself the requisite amount of outdoor exercise comes up to the examinations with too little energy and vitality left.

Fortunately the child's system quickly responds to such restorative treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. The blood is enriched, the nerve cells are replenished and health and vigor is soon restored.

Mr. S. F. Flarity, Warton, Ont., writes:

"My daughter, eleven years of age, was in a run-down condition and suffered from a nervousness which showed a tendency toward St. Vitus' dance. I got a few boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for her, and by the time she had taken three boxes there was a big change in her. She is much stronger, and her system is general is built up. She has recovered from her nervous weakness, and you could not detect a trace of it now."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is in a class by itself as the most popular of nerve restoratives. 50c a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

The Republic, Captain Hegge, met a tremendous high sea while fishing off Cape Clear recently. The waves were so high that one man was washed clear overboard and by a pure miracle was washed back on deck by the returning sea. During the storm eleven skates of gear were washed overboard, and the boat was so low in the water that it was impossible for her skipper to see through the pilot house windows. Cap says it was the roughest sea he has experienced in years, and but for the splendid seaworthy qualities of his craft, disaster might have overtaken them.

The Cape Spencer, Captain Dan Larsen arrived in port early in the week with a full cargo of halibut and reports a very successful trip. Nothing of an on-toward nature occurred aboard.

The launch Rosina B., Oliver Desner, is undergoing a spring overhaul at the Swanson dock. Her hull is being recaulked and the entire craft is to be repainted.

Albert & McCaffery are expecting a scow load of lumber to arrive any day from Vancouver. Upon arrival this lumber will be stacked for local consumption.

DO YOU SMOKE TOO MUCH

There are many men on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results. It causes palpitation, pain in the heart, irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, causes shortness of breath and loss of sleep.

To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy so equal.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco. Mr. Frank Lutes, 74 Terrace Hill St., Brandon, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled with palpitation of the heart for a number of years, and by spells it would bother me a lot. The doctor told me it would stop on me some time if I did not cut out tobacco. When I would get a spell my heart would pound, and I would break out in a perspiration, and get so weak I would have to sit right down and quit my work; also in the night I would wake up and my heart would be going. I should say, about 120 beats a minute. About three years ago I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, took them, and found that they did the job. I am feeling fine and have gained over 20 pounds in weight."

Price, 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
