BRITISH GENERAL IS TO CONFER PERSONALLY WITH MUSTAPHA KEMAL

General Harrington Leaves to Confer with Kemal: Neutral Zone is Occupied by Turkish Forces

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—Brig.-Gen. Harrington, commander of the British forces at the Dardanelles, plans to leave today for a conference with Mustapha Kemal at Mudania. The British are confident that if the next 24 hours passes without the firing of shots at Chanak or elsewhere along the Dardanelles, the immediate danger of hostilities will be avoided. This is the time estimated for General Harrington's journey and interview.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29 (p.m.)—Turk Nationalists occupied the whole of the neutral zone on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles with the exception of the Chanak area where the British are entrenched.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 29.—Mustapha Kemal, replying to General Harrington's message declares his troops would not advance further. He says he desires no incidents should occur and he will see General Harrington as soon as possible.

GETTING READY TO OPEN MILL

Arrivals on Prince John Today Say That Two Logging Camps Will Open at Buckley Bay Very Soon.

Active preparations for the early reopening of the Massett Timber Co.'s mill at Buckley Bay to cut cants and rough lumber for the Los Angeles finishing plant continue steadily and two logging camps, run by Bert Jamieson and H. R. Frost, will open up early in October according to arrivals from Graham Island on the steamer Prince John. The mill has not yet opened but all signs point to operations starting very soon.

Among the arrivals at Buckley Bay from Vancouver on the Prince John this trip were Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell will run the Massett Lumber Co.'s store and warehouse there.

The volunteering is not confined to Canada though every city and town in the Dominion is represented in the offerings. Canadians and Americans in the United States are also urging their willingness to enlist.

EVERYBODY HAPPY AT ANYOX; RAISE IN WAGES COMING

Granby Employees All to Get 50c a Day More After Oct. 1; Dam Finished on Dec. 15

Everybody is happy at Anyox, the busiest little town on the northern coast, says John Conway, coroner and government agent, who reached the city on last night's steamer from the north. There is to be a general increase all around in wages of 50c a day effective on October 1.

Mr. Conway reports that there are about 2500 people at Anyox just now. All are busy and the increase in wages is a matter of much elation. Good progress is being made on the big dam and it should be finished about December 15.

P. J. McDermodt, accountant of the local branch of the Union Bank, returned last night from Smithers where he has been relieving for several weeks.

Premier Oliver Urges Hold on to P.G.E. and Develop Resources of the District

NELSON, Sept. 29.—With wired best wishes from Premier Mackenzie King at Ottawa and a similar message from Hon. J. H. King, federal minister of works as its inspiration, the Provincial Liberal Convention formally opened with an attendance of over three hundred. There were 21 ministers and provincial or federal members present.

The features of the afternoon session resulted in the passage of resolutions congratulating Mackenzie King on his attainment of the premiership of Canada and affirming support to his Government, also the passage of a resolution of confidence in the Oliver Government and an address by Premier Oliver which aroused enthusiasm with the declaration regarding the policy he advised respecting the P.G.E. Railway.

The Premier stated that J. G. Sullivan, the railway expert, reported that the P.G.E. should not have been bought and that it could not pay. "He looks on it from the economic standpoint," declared the premier, "but we cannot look at it like that."

Inconsistent Report
In one section of his report the expert had said there was four billion feet of standing timber, in another five billions and in yet another six billion and also five million cords of pulp wood. While agriculturally a large part of the territory was disappointing portions of the Cariboo in last year's dry season had a splendid wheat crop.

"We have obligation amounting to about two million dollars a year whether we abandon the road or not," said the premier. "Before we abandon it, let us examine the country in detail and study every resource. Let us put settlers on the land where such land offers good average chances of making good. If by affording facilities for the establishment of pulp mills by opening up the timber, we can bridge the gap without increasing our debt, I say it is political sagacity to develop the line instead of abandoning it."

SULTAN OF TURKEY RETIRES IN FAVOR OF HIS APPARENT

Capt. Wallace is in command of the Prospector which is of standard build and of 8,800 tonnage like the Scottish, Britisher, and Skirmisher, all of which have been in this port.

RECEPTION FOR YOUNG COUPLE

Wonderful Gathering of Friends Extend Felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Moore.

There was a great gathering last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wakefield, the American Consul, Fourth Avenue, the occasion being the marriage reception for their daughter Marie Louise and Lawrence Moore. The rooms at the consulate are capacious but they were taxed to the utmost to accommodate the large number who were present.

The occasion was an auspicious one and the hearty reception given the guests by Consul and Mrs. Wakefield awakened a responsive chord in the hearts of all. The recent bride looked beautiful crowned in flame lace while her mother wore net over midnight blue. Youth and beauty mingled with the more stately matrons and the whole made a scene of beauty and animation not soon to be forgotten.

The one toast, that of the bride, was proposed by Bishop Inuzo who spoke of the popularity of the young couple, of the beauty of the bride, of the sanctity of the marriage tie and of the fact that the future of the nation lay in the formation of new homes.

Dancing and Cards.
Following the reception the large room was cleared for dancing and the older people who felt so inclined played bridge in the downstairs rooms. Charles Balagno was pianist for the evening and dancing was kept up till after one o'clock.

One feature of the evening that was most enjoyable was the singing of S. K. Campbell who contributed several solos. The wedding presents, which (Continued on Page Six)

MRS. STILLMAN WINS HER CASE

Her Child Declared Legitimate but Husband Was Offender.

MANY FALSE WITNESSES. Immense Sums Spent in Securing Evidence for Divorce.

GARMEL, N. Y., Sept. 29.—James Stillman, former president of the New York City Bank, was denied a decree in his suit for absolute divorce against his wife, Anna V. Stillman and Baby Guy Stillman was declared legitimate in the findings of Daniel Gleason, referee in the case, filed today.

The decision was a complete victory for Mrs. Stillman. Not only was her defence upheld but the referee confirms the charges that Stillman miscondemned himself with Florence Leeds, a show girl, and Mrs. Leeds had borne two children.

History of Case.
The divorce case, in which the principals accused one another of being the parents of illegitimate children, has been in many ways without parallel in the history of domestic ruptures in American high society.

James A. Stillman who instituted the court proceedings, was president of the National City Bank of New York, the son of a former head of that institution and a noted multi-millionaire. He charged his wife, the former Fifi Potter, a famous beauty, of infidelity, saying she was guilty of misconduct from 1916 through 1919 with Fred Beauvais, an Indian guide at their summer camp near Three Rivers, Quebec. Mr. Stillman declared Beauvais was the father of Guy Stillman, born to Mrs. Stillman in November, 1919.

ROBBERS TAKE CITY PAYROLL OF VANCOUVER

Most Sensational Robbery in History of City This Morning

VANCOUVER, Sept. 29.—The most spectacular robbery in the history of the City of Vancouver took place this morning at 10 o'clock when three men held up F. P. Schooley and Robert Armstrong, of the city hall staff, and robbed them of $75,000 cash. Armstrong and Schooley had been at the Bank of Montreal to get the civic payroll. They returned in a street car and were about to enter the city hall when three men stepped from an automobile, snatched the satchel with the cash in it from the hands of the surprised officials, leaped into car again and speeded away through the business district.

"When we got within thirty feet of the entrance," said Armstrong, "a Hudson car came tearing down Main street and skidded to a sudden stop. Three armed masked men jumped out, made a desperate attempt to reach the city hall door. Within three feet of the door, one robber felled me. When I revived the bandits had disappeared."

The police have been straining every effort to apprehend the robbers but up till an early hour this afternoon had been unsuccessful.

Premier Mine Pays Another Dividend to Shareholders Making Total of $2,400,000

VANCOUVER, Sept. 29.—The Premier Gold Mine Company has declared a dividend of fifteen per cent, amounting to $750,000 for distribution at the end of this month. The capitalization of the mine is five million dollars.

This dividend makes the fourth distribution since the tramway commenced operating on December 20 last, the total distribution reaching the amazing total of $2,400,000, or a return to the shareholders of almost half their investment in nine months. This is believed to be a record for any mine or company in existence.

The Premier Mine is controlled by the American Smelting and Refining Co. operating the smelter at Tacoma. The dividends are paid from the proceeds of the profit on the mine and the smelting company makes further profits from the smelting. The mine has been turning out ore valued at $400,000 monthly.

TOTAL EXCLUSION OF ORIENTALS FAVORED BY BIG CONVENTION

NELSON, Sept. 29.—The Liberal convention this afternoon passed a resolution favoring total exclusion of Orientals.

The resolution reads: "That this Liberal convention ask the Federal Government to pass legislation for the complete exclusion of all Orientals."

CONSTANTINE IS PRISONER

Will be Sent Out of Country; Ministers Charged With Defeat of Army

PARIS, Sept. 29.—Ex-King Constantine will be held prisoner in Athens pending arrangements to send him out of the country, according to a despatch.

Five ministers of Protophapha's government have been imprisoned, charged with responsibility for the defeat of the Greeks in Asia Minor and succeeding events in Greece. They will be tried by a military commission.

PARIS, Sept. 29.—Despatches from Athens indicate the belief of Greek officials that King George's reign will not be very long and that a republic will be established in Greece.

The revolutionary committee has telegraphed Premier Venizelos asking him to represent Greece in the allied capitals and at the coming peace conference.

A ship will be placed at the disposal of ex-King Constantine and he and his family will be asked to leave.

GOLD STRIKE MADE AT USK

Report Reaching Town Last Night Says that Quite an Excitement Caused There and at Terrace.

There is quite a good deal of excitement at Terrace and Usk over a gold strike that has just been made according to arrivals from the interior on last night's train. There has been a lot of staking in the immediate vicinity of the strike and one report is that 38 prospectors had arrived on the last two trains.

The reported strike was made by two French prospectors in an old digging on Gold (Kleanza) Creek about two or three miles from Usk. Finding big nuggets which are said to have been as large as a man's thumb, they immediately came into Usk and went down to Terrace. Among those who went to the scene and staked were John Willman, manager of the Kleanza Gold Mining Co. It has been generally understood that there is a good deal of native gold on Kleanza Creek in the glacial gravel drift and panning has already had good results there.

KELLY LOGGING CAMPS CUMSHEWA INLET ARE STILL GOING STEADILY

T. A. Kelly, the well known Queen Charlotte Island logging man, and J. McMillan, superintendent of his camps, arrived from Cumshewa Inlet on the Prince John this morning and will sail this afternoon on the Princess Alice for Vancouver. Mr. Kelly reports that activities are proceeding steadily at his two camps where 75 men are engaged. The logs are shipped in rafts across Hecate Straits to Alert Bay where they are assembled and taken on to United States. The camps will continue throughout the winter.

FISH IS GOING AHEAD WITHOUT ANY DELAY NOW

Difficulties Caused to American Fish by 2c Duty on Canadian Are Now Cleared up

After an exchange of several telegrams between United States customs officials and American Consul Wakefield and A. D. Gillies, local Canadian Express Co. manager, matters in regard to the confusion caused by the recently imposed 2c tariff on Canadian halibut entering the States have been cleared up. The necessary papers with instructions have been received and American fish is now going forward without delay. Accompanying each carload of American fish, there must be a declaration, attested by the master of the boat and two members of the crew and sworn to by the buyer before the American Consul, that it is American halibut so that its free entry into the States will be allowed. Bonds are now no longer necessary.

Mayor H. B. Rochester sails this evening on the Princess Alice for the south en route to Kamloops where he will attend the conventions of the Union of B. C. Municipalities and the Good Roads League.

Splendid Work Of The Northern Cross.

The missionary launch known up and down this coast as the Northern Cross has just completed ten years of efficient service having been in commission almost continuously during this time. Rev. W. F. Rushbrook, who prior to this had been seven years at Port Essington, has been the first and only skipper of this launch, many of his suggestions having been embodied in the plans drawn by the naval architects for the launch was built to the order of the Anglican Synod.

It is scarcely possible to adequately describe the good work done by Canon Rushbrook on this coast. He is a master-mariner, a fine scholar, having taken a science course in the University of Toronto he finds his knowledge of geology and botany most useful, a practical gardener and poultryman, and so able to give expert advice to the settlers; a most genial nature, carrying sunshine wherever he goes.

As I have been with him on some of his trips I can testify to the way the lonely settlers greet him, their faces beaming with pleasure to see him again, children especially being attracted to him as to a magnet. He visits lighthouse keepers as well as scattered settlers and holds religious services once a month at a stated time in about twenty different places. He distributes literature and does obliging acts. Through ten years of faithful service in these northern waters the Northern Cross has embodied the spirit of sacrifice for the good of others which is the meaning of the Cross of Christ.

F. H. Du Vernet, Archbishop of Caledonia.

Quick Changes Taking Place.

In the old days people used to sing about this being a world of change, but they knew nothing of what was meant by modern quick changes. These are the days of change or rapid transition and of the rolling away of ancient landmarks.

Perhaps the world was getting into a rut and was needing an awakening. At any rate the awakening came with the great war and as soon as the people showed a tendency to relapse into the old ways other awakenings come to keep them alive to the necessity of remaining awake to modern thought and trend. The future is not all clear but it is surely making for betterment, even though in the process many may suffer. Nature always seems ruthless in her methods. She has no pity. Beneath it all, however, is the evolutionary movement always going on. As the poet Lowell said:

Even the clod feels a stir of might
 Something within it which reaches and towers
 And groping blindly above it for light
 Climbs to a soul in grass and flowers.

Materialism Becoming A Spent Force.

In his address to the Methodist General Conference this week, Dr. Ghown, the president, said: "Materialism, which gave some of our fathers grave concern, and bombarded our educational institutions with such ceaseless fire, appears to be rapidly becoming a spent force. The hypothesis of evolution, regarded as a divine method, will likely stand, but conceived of as alone due to natural laws supposed to have native force in themselves and to be self-acting, appears to a layman to have been successfully attacked as incompetent to account for origins, for instincts, and for the whole realm of spiritual intuitions, which now not only challenges, but is receiving the major attention of the thinking world."

"In practice materialism is condemned as failing to supply the compelling altruistic ideals which indubitably, from within the British Empire at least, swayed the hearts of multitudes of men, and settled world destiny during the Great War."

"The only religion where materialism continues to manifest striking power is in its appeal to the acquisitive instinct, producing desire for immense accumulations of this world's goods. But even there its control is being seriously disputed by the growing humanity of man, and is doomed to early defeat. Its reign as a respectable motive or even influence in human affairs draws to a close. In the secret heart of men apparently most addicted to accumulation, the strongest motive is the satisfaction of playing a winning hand in the game of life. The pity of it is that their sport should spell misery and injustice to so many millions of their less fortunate fellows."

child or friend, who is suffering from eczema, or other skin disease, or an obstinate sore that has defied medical treatment? If so, that is a case for Zam-Buk.

Mrs. B. Ellis, of Castleton, Ont., writes: "My husband suffered intensely with a running sore on his foot. The sore penetrated to the bone, and the inflammation was so bad that he could not sleep at nights. After spending a lot of money and trying every remedy we heard of, with no result, I read of a cure which Zam-Buk had effected in a similar case, and got a box. "Within two hours after the first application the pain was eased; and with perseverance the inflammation was drawn out, the swelling reduced, and before long the sore was entirely healed."

Zam-Buk also cures ulcers, abscesses, eczema, poisoned wounds, pimples, cold sores, chapped hands and chilblains.

FROM Q.C. ISLANDS

Boon-men Strike at Sedgewick Bay—Freight For Jap Salt-eries — Canneries Done For Year

The G. T. P. passenger steamer Prince John, Capt. Harry Nodden, arrived in port at 7 o'clock this morning from Vancouver via the Queen Charlotte Islands. The steamer had a full passenger list from Vancouver for the Islands and look on another full list at various points there for Prince Rupert. Included in the latter were several boon men from Sedgewick Bay who have gone on strike for $5.75 a day instead of $5.25 now being paid. It is reported that their departure will have little effect on operations, however, and that their places will soon be filled.

The John also had a good cargo of freight from the south for the Islands including supplies for the four Japanese dog salmon salt-eries at Jedway, Lazoon Bay, Lockport and Cumshewa. These fish are being put up at these points for export to Japan.

All canneries on the Islands are now closed, officers of the boat report, but logging operations continue steadily which means quite a shipping business. The three canneries operating on the Islands this year were at Watun River, Alford Bay and Lazoon Bay.

EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM, B.C.

Principal Campbell Explains How Young Idea Is Taught to Sprout

"There is a decided lack of information in regard to the educational system of British Columbia and as to the difference between the systems in vogue today and those used when the older people went to school," declared Harold Campbell, supervising principal of the Prince Rupert public schools, at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday afternoon. The information regarding modern education is based on what people remember of their own school days added to what the children tell them and what they hear from their neighbors.

The Organization

To begin with the British North America Act provides that education shall be a matter with which the provinces will deal as apart from federal control, said the speaker. A minister of education has charge of it and associated with him is a council of public instruction made up of a group of educationists and statesmen. The present minister of education, Dr. McLean, is also provincial secretary.

At the head of the education office is a superintendent of education and an assistant superintendent, the present holders of those positions being S. J. Willis and John Gillis respectively. The council of public instruction formulates the course of study with rules and regulations and the education office promulgates them and sees that they are enforced. In order to do this they appoint inspectors for each district who have a general oversight over the work of the schools. The courses are uniform throughout the province.

Financing Schools

Part of the expense of carrying on the education work is undertaken by the provincial government through the education department. In what are known as assisted schools the department bears practically all the expense. In rural schools, the trustees appoint the teacher and bear part of the expense, the money being raised by a school rate levied through the government. In municipalities still a larger part of the expense rests on the local community, municipal share of the money for upkeep being raised from local rates.

The school board looks after the administration wherever this is now in conflict with the provincial control. The board however, has no control of the subjects to be taught or of the arrangement of the curriculum, that being carried out under instructions from the local inspector.

Occupies Seven Years

The public school course occupies about seven years, the period being divided into fourteen terms. The grades are divided into junior, intermediate and senior, and each of these grades is again subdivided. The subjects taught are phonics, reading, writing, spelling, nature, geography, language, manual work, drawing, dictation, composition, health, Canadian history, British history, grammar, and literature.

Mr. Campbell then outlined the method used in teaching arithmetic. He said that in every organized school the subjects were divided to correspond with the teaching periods and a record is kept every day of all subjects taught and the time devoted to each.

There was a popular idea that teaching was a hit or miss profession, but as a matter of fact everything was carefully planned and worked out with precision with special care to see that the backward pupils received attention.

Mr. Campbell was thanked for his address which he illustrated by charts, and at the conclusion received many personal congratulations from members of the club who were surprised and pleased at the evident mastery of the subject displayed by the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Wallace, J. G. Dorman and James Brown, of Glaxton, reached the city on last night's train and will sail this afternoon on the Princess Alice for Victoria. Mr. Wallace is manager of the Wallace Fisheries cannery at Glaxton, Mr. Dorman is bookkeeper and Mr. Brown is foreman.

ANYOX MINE CLUB SMOKER

Interesting Time Spent With 200 People Present.

ANYOX, Sept. 29.—The newly formed Anyox Mine Club gave a splendid smoker as their initial entertainment, which was held in the mine dining room, when 200 people enjoyed the varied program of singing, story telling boxing and wrestling.

Program.

Chairman—Jay Tuttle, mine superintendent.

Overture—Liddle and Bowland. Song—"Fu the noo."

Jas. McKay. Wrestling bout, Joe Mix, Anyox Dam vs. Rex Cameron, Anyox Mine, 130 pounds. First fall secured by Mix in two minutes. In the second half Mix secured the second fall after one and a half minutes wrestling.

Mine Orchestra—Song "Arabella," by Owens, Evans Blundell and Butcher. Reading by Fred Archer, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew."

Wrestling bout—Al Lafortune of Anyox Beach vs. Dick Stubbs of Anyox Mine, amateur light-weight champion of B. C. Two rounds of seven minutes. This was a fine exhibition, but no falls were secured, both men being evenly matched. The referee for wrestling bouts was Pete Moarksen from the Anyox Dam and it was he who challenged Gustavo who recently wrestled in Prince Rupert against Walker of Ketchikan.

Song—"Flight of Ages," by Jack Wilson. Violin solo—Mr. Liddle, piano accompaniment by Mr. Bowland. After refreshments several short speeches were made. Mr. Munro, general manager, said a few words on the new wage scale.

Mr. Kirkwood, president of the Mine Club, gave the aims and objects of the new club, stating that the mine had felt the want of some such organization, which would cater to Mine residents. He said Whist and Gribbage tournaments were now started and assured everyone who joined the club that they would be well repaid and when the new hall was built, they would have a place to function in.

Mr. Armour said it was good to see such a large turnout, and had no doubt about the success of the new club, for it could not be denied that the Beach and Mine are practically separated during winter on account of the heavy snow and said he saw no reason why the revenue now going to the Community League from the Mine Pool and Billiard Room, tobacco and soft drink stand, should not go to back the new club and let the Mine residents handle their own affairs as they saw fit. Mr. Munro was asked what he thought of this and he said the mine residents should be strongly in favor and back the new club. In order to do this, Mr. Tuttle said it was up to the mine residents to back the new club if they wanted the revenue in question.

L. R. Clapp when called upon said as a resident of the mine he was glad to see the new club in operation and said he intended being a member, but not as the Granby Co. representative, for he believed in the people running their social affairs in their own way.

Song—J. Wilson. Boxing Banquets—Dooley Deane, Anyox Mine vs. Fred Anderson, Rambley Quartz. Three two minute rounds. This bout was fairly evenly contested, Deane having slightly the best of it.

Reading by Fred Archer, "The Queen of Song."

Story—J. Esplin, "Pullin' A story about Sinclair, first baseman for Mine ball team.

Song—"The Rose of No Man's Land," Ed. Blundell.

Song—"We Parted on the Shore," Jas. McKay.

The officers of the new mine club are: T. J. Kirkwood, president; Dick Stubbs, organizing secretary; Jim Herbert, Earl Anderson, Al. Polyart, committee.

The Refreshment Committee were T. Murphy, Ed. Blundell and Billy Legg.

He made a claim on the insurance company for insurance and it is alleged he included in the list of articles of effects destroyed by fire several articles of furniture that had been removed before the fire occurred.

PERSISTENCE BRINGS ADVERTISING RESULTS

A short time ago the library board decided that they must have a typewriter but they could not afford to purchase a new one. It was decided to advertise for one. A small classified was inserted in this paper and it ran for a few days before a reply was received. Then several replies came in on the same day and a suitable machine was secured at a small price. This shows the value of persistence.

paigned saved the financial situation, and we are today thankful to say that we have already received in cash the sum of over $1,000,000, which exceeds the original objective of the fund.

"The reception of 78,398 new members into the Church during the quadrennium, the remarkable growth of our Sunday Schools and Young People's organizations, the enrollment of over 100,000 Christian Stewards and Intercessors, and particularly the enlistment for some definite form of life service of nearly 1000 young Methodists, bear testimony to the revival of spiritual interest in the Church, and have supplied consecrated workers for every branch of its work. We have also obtained a vision which will carry us to greater victories in the future, if we are true to the high purpose of our calling.

Need of Peace.

Dealing with the question of international peace Dr. Chown said:

Canada, with an unfortified frontier of 4,000 miles, maintaining peaceful relations for more than a century with our neighbor to the south, by reason of her gallantry and extreme suffering during the war, has a right to call upon all nations to cease their moral insanity and on terms of Christian equity settle all future difficulties.

"What can this General Conference do?"

"1. I would advise that it should give its hearty support to the League of Nations Society of Canada, and co-operate with it to the utmost extent in promoting international peace. A resolution endorsing this most praiseworthy organization would be of great value at this time.

"2. This General Conference should send a hearty assurance to all Churches that, irrespective of differences of creed, we pledge hearty co-operation to promote the teachings in the schools of Canada of the ethical principles upon which all worthy personal and enduring national character must rest.

"3. That we should press upon the Government of Canada the necessity for an immigration policy providing for the careful selection of persons susceptible to high national idealism.

"4. As far back as June, 1920 speaking at the Convocation Exercises of the American University, Washington, D. C., I referred to the mission of Canada as one of the interpretation of Great Britain to the United States of America, and of the United States to Great Britain, being assured that we in Canada understand each of these nations better than they know each other. That I believe is still the mission of this country. Every endeavor should be made by us to strengthen the links that bind these two great world powers together, with the assurance that in their concord in world problems lies the promise of ultimate peace for mankind.

Other Cults.

"Our creed is big enough to hold all the good contained in modern cults, and much more," said Dr. Chown.

"Long before Conan Doyle was moved to lecture upon the proof of a future life, the pulpits of our church rang with the certainty of immortality and countless saints, nurtured by the ministry of Methodism, died triumphantly in sure and certain hope of a glorious resurrection. We believe our boys and girls too who have 'gone West' to the land of the setting sun, wait to greet us in the land where the sun rises evermore and never sets.

"Long before Mary Baker Eddy published a new brand of optimism based upon philosophical and mystical ingenieties, the gospel preached by our Ministers comforted the hearts of suffering millions, and braced them for every trial of life.

"Without setting aside the palpable teachings of common sense and human experience, upon which all true philosophy is founded, our people have risen superior to the ills that flesh is heir to, trusting in the Lord with all their hearts, and leaning not their own understanding.

"Methodism believes in freedom in the study, the atmosphere of freedom in the pulpit, but more strenuously than anything else, she believes in tremendous concentration upon the things that really matter most. This combination of outlook and endeavor is essential to a true conception of what our

TRAINS WILL OPERATE FULL LENGTH OF P.G.E. TO PRINCE GEORGE

NELSON, Sept. 29.—The cut of from Clinton to Ashcroft on the P.G.E. will not be made at present, according to information given last here. The line will continue to operate from Squamish to Quesnel and on to Prince George as soon as that section of the line is completed.

Light equipment will be used on the railway and the service curtailed so that the loss may be less than at present. Gasoline, motor coaches will carry passengers, and light freight and occasional freight trains will handle the heavier goods. Before the convention closes it is expected a formal announcement of policy will be made.

The question of providing for and opening up the Peace River country is expected to be further discussed.

PRINCE GEORGE

A well attended and representative meeting of Prince George retailers gathered at the Oddfellows' Hall on Monday night to meet George S. Hougham, secretary for B. C. of the Canadian Retail Merchants' Association. As a result a plan is now on foot to bring local traders into line and form a branch in this city.

Word was received in the city on Monday that the Hershaw mill at Dewey was destroyed by fire Sunday night. It is understood to be a total loss. P. E. Wilson has been called to Dewey to confer with the lumber company.

W. P. Ogilvie has completed the erection of the two silos on his ranch at Newlands. The equipment will be of great use to the ranchers in the vicinity. Mr. Ogilvie expects to have forty acres in crop next year. He is now milking seven cows and sends the milk to Giscome and the cream to the creamery at Vanderhoof.

The Grand Trunk has completed the station building at Endako and contractors have now commenced work upon a similar building at Telkwa.

Mrs. C. Pyne and her daughter left on Wednesday for the East where they will reside in future.

James Brown's house in Central Port George was razed to the ground by fire on Tuesday afternoon. It was occupied by J. Gauthier who lost all his household effects.

Jack Wilson left on Wednesday for Vancouver where he will be called to the bar.

Miss Mae Murray, of the hospital staff, has returned to the city after spending a month's holiday at Vancouver.

Dr. Chown Mentions Evil Trend of Literature and Danger of Cults

TORONTO, Sept. 29.—(By Canadian Press)—That the whole question of Church Union, with important ramifications regarding existing ministerial superannuation funds, the Presbyterian General Assembly proposals for the guarding of the rights of the minorities opposed to the union, and other features will still require an immense amount of intensive and responsible thought to bring the movement to a successful and happy conclusion, was the pronouncement at the Methodist General Conference here yesterday, by Rev. S. D. Chown, General Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada.

The elected leader of the Canadian Methodist Church predicted the coming of a "glorious revival which would give birth to a new age in history." Leadership in this evangelism would be the work not of a "few mystical enthusiasts" but of the biggest men in the community.

Dr. Chown vigorously condemned "an abundance of literature of today which is sapping the very foundations of society." He declared that most romantic writers escaped from truth and reality by throwing into the discard the fundamental moral convictions which gave direction to conduct and character during the nineteenth century. Under the heading of "New Thought" the General Superintendent warned that people should not use it as a substitute for the religion of Jesus Christ. He was persuaded that one great need of the church, and one that would mightily add to its attractiveness, was a richer fellowship in truth and love.

Forward Movement.

"It was an instance of the supreme generalship on the part of the Church of Christ in Canada to launch the 'Forward Movement' just after the War. It was the psychological moment for aggression. It not only cleared the way for most remarkable advances against the Kingdom of Darkness, but it prevented a terrible slump with consequences we cannot now realize, and from which it might have taken a century to recover.

Your Home

Have you placed the "guardian angel" of life insurance over your home?

A home protected by life insurance—covering the mortgage and the necessities of life—is one of the happiest places possible. There is no dread of the future; no fear of losing the home through forced sale should death occur to the bread-winner; nor is there any likelihood of the mother having to supplement a meagre income by working, nor of the children having to forego the advantages of an education.

The guardian angel of life insurance simply takes your place and "carries on." With a mighty three billions of dollars she is standing watch over thousands of Canadian homes, where the parents and children all live in the happiness that comes through the knowledge of adequate protection.

Life Insurance representatives are the great ambassadors to your home. They will be pleased to show you how simply and easily you can throw the "mantle of protection" around it.

NOTHING CAN EVER TAKE THE PLACE OF YOUR HOME. IT IS A WORLD IN ITSELF ABOUT WHICH EVERYTHING REVOLVES.

LIFE INSURANCE SERVICE.

"The Love That Never Dies."

message should be at this time. "The literature read by a people largely determines its character. The German nation is said to have been transformed in a generation by its mental food. There is an abundance of literature today commended to our people by great intellectual genius which is sapping the very foundations of society. Most attractive novel writers have since the war become so romantic as not only to take advantage of the customary license of inventing the facts and features of the life they depict but also to escape from truth and reality by deliberately throwing into the discard the fundamental moral convictions which gave direction to conduct and character during the nineteenth century. They distinctly lower the sense of moral responsibility by making the vagrant proclivities of human passion the measure of duty, irrespective of the law of the Superior Being. They trace the formation of character back to a long evolutionary process, on account of which the departed spirits of prowling beasts are now found haunting the chambers of the soul, or what passes for a soul, and setting up a very menagerie of primordial vices, all contending for control. So robust is this exaltation of depravity, that religion, which has always been considered as the cure of sin-sick souls, is now represented as one of the symptoms of the soul's sickness.

New Thought.

Having regard to limitation of time, in an address of such wide scope and practical purpose as this, it is impossible to discuss at length the various forms of new thought which have recently sprung up so vigorously in this and other countries. Michael Angelo said: "I criticize by creation, not by finding fault." "In a general way, then, I can only warn our people that though they may regard this new thought teaching favorably as far as it promises optimism, and may even feel it their privilege by the use of natural law with the mind to reinforce the will for the discharge of the duties of life, they should be careful not to allow it to become a substitute for religion.

"Take for example Coue's formula for speeding the elixir of life through one's physical and moral being. He advises concentration morning and evening on the formula—'Day by day in all respects, I am getting better and better.' Giving this formula the maximum of credit, it falls short of the minimum of religion. It may be regarded as trust in the mental law of suggestion which on its spiritual side, if it has a spiritual side, is on a par with trust in the physical law of gravitation. But trust in natural law of any kind does not touch the fringe of the Christian religion. It does not in itself link a man to God in adoration or petition; it is not personal trust in the personal love and character of the Divine Being, without which there can be no Christian religion. It is more akin to the Shintoism of the Emperor of Japan. Mental suggestion emphasizes 'Care for yourself.' And religion emphasizes 'God cares for you.' They are not mutually exclusive of each other, and with discrimination may be made mutually helpful.

accused her husband of misconduct with three women. One of those named was Florence H. Leeds, a former Broadway show girl. The other two were identified as "Helen" and "Clara."

Father of Two Children.
Mrs. Stillman asserted her husband was the father of two children born to Mrs. Leeds, the daughter of a New York plumber. One infant died at birth. The other, Jay Ward Leeds, born in September, 1919, is living and Mrs. Stillman said her husband had furnished the mother with luxurious homes in New York and on Long Island, and that he lived with her and her child in these places, posing under the name of "Franklyn Harold Leeds."

When Mr. Stillman was quizzed by his wife's attorneys during a hearing in their case last summer, he refused to answer any questions based on his alleged misconduct with Mrs. Leeds. His invariable reply was "I refuse to answer on the ground that it might tend to incriminate me."

Drinking Parties.
In their interrogations his wife's lawyers asked whether the banker and Mrs. Leeds had held gay drinking parties in cafes of Manhattan and that they had sipped champagne from golden cups aboard his yacht, the "Modesty." Other questions concerned allegations that Mr. Stillman and the former Broadway show girl often remained aboard the yacht all night, and that they had been on outings together at Atlantic City and Miami, Fla.

Witnesses for Mr. Stillman told of seeing his wife and Fred Beauvais in rooms at the Canadian camp and in a hotel a few miles away. Servants testified that they were often together at the Stillman country estate in the Peconic Hills, near the home of John D. Rockefeller. One of them asserted that Beauvais gave moon-casinos to the baby, Guy, inscribing in one of them, "I hope

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA IN PROBATE.
In the Matter of the Administration Act, and in the Matter of the Estate of George Crook Doughty, Deceased, Intestate.
In Chambers: Before His Honor F. McB. Young, Thursday, the 24th day of August, 1922.
UPON the petition of J. H. McMullin, (Official Administrator), upon reading the affidavits of the said J. H. McMullin, of Albert Edwards, of Alexander Johnson and of Andrew Brown; and upon hearing Mr. W. G. Fulton of Counsel for the Petitioner: IT IS ORDERED that the death of the above-named George Crook Doughty shall be presumed to have occurred on the 26th day of April, A.D. 1922, at Seven Mile Point, Graham Island, British Columbia.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the said J. H. McMullin may apply for administration of the said estate and declare to the death as having occurred upon the said date upon publishing a copy of this order in a newspaper published and circulating in Prince Rupert, B.C., for a period of one month at weekly intervals.

Guy will always love his mother" and in the other "I hope Guy will some day know his father."

Little Black Bear.
A nurse who was present at the birth of Guy Stillman testified that Mrs. Stillman directed her to send a telegram to Beauvais in Canada, saying "Little Black Bear has arrived." Later, witnesses for Mrs. Stillman explained that she had agreed before the birth of Guy to send notices to several friends and to her children which would say "little white bear" if the newborn babe was a girl and "little black bear" should the child be a boy.

Mr. Stillman presented as evidence letters offered as having been written to Mrs. Stillman by Beauvais. Purported copies of these contained many amorous phrases and references to Guy. French Canadian witnesses brought down from the province of Quebec were reported to have told of peeping through keyholes and windows at Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais in the months preceding Guy's birth.

Starting testimony given by Dr. Hugh L. Russell, an osteopath of Buffalo, was later ruled out of the case as privileged between a physician and patient. A letter presented as being a "confession" by Mrs. Stillman to her husband, and written in a "moment of hysteria" before Guy's birth, also was rejected by the court as privileged.

Mr. Stillman's attorneys tried to show that their client did not live with his wife during the year preceding the birth of Guy Stillman, and one of the witnesses called to aid in this evidence was Mrs. Peary A. Rockefeller, the banker's sister, and niece of the founder of the Rockefeller fortune.

Pending outcome of the case Mrs. Stillman was awarded alimony of $90,000 a year, one of the largest alimony grants ever made in this state. She was allowed $35,000 counsel fees and $12,500 for expenses.

Altogether Mr. Stillman was believed to have spent far in excess of $500,000 in his divorce litigation. The amount turned over to Mrs. Stillman's counsel for alimony, fees and expenses approached $200,000.

The trial before the referee came to a sensational close when counsel for Mr. Stillman put into evidence four letters purporting to have been written to Beauvais by Mrs. Stillman. They announced that Beauvais had sold the letters only a few days before to Mr. Stillman's agents for $15,000. Testimony to support this was heard.

Mrs. Stillman immediately denied authorship of the letters, and Beauvais later denied that he had sold them. But they remained as evidence in the case.
