One convict was slightly injured when a piece of stone fell on his hand and another suffered a broken rib in a scuffle with a guard. Considerable damage was done in the prison shops.

GREAT BRITAIN DROPS TREATY WITH RUSSIA

It is believed the uprising had its genesis in demands for cigarette papers, tobacco and recreational privileges. It is also stated from authoritative sources that Tim Huck, who is serving a five-year sentence for being a member of an unlawful assembly, was among the agitators of the disturbance.

Acting Warden Gilbert Smith, fearing an outbreak, had kept the full quota of nine hundred inmates within the prison walls.

The convicts started howling and disorder in the tailor shop. The acting warden rushed to the scene and ordered the heavy metal doors of the workshop closed. The rioters seized him and a deputy and used an acetylene torch to cut through the metal. The locks were forced and all the rioters reached the inner courtyard.

Officials tried to reason with the inmates but the warnings went unheeded and a call was sent for a detachment of troops which was responded to by a body of one hundred of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery. The soldiers, however, took no action.

Meanwhile, the prisoners, massed in the mail bag department, barricaded themselves inside the buildings.

The warden and deputy were released, bringing back word that the convicts threatened to set fire to the buildings if troops were summoned.

Following the arrival of the military, trucks loaded with stone were backed against the barred doors and the barricade protecting the convicts collapsed.

The rioters refused to disperse until warning shots were twice fired when they gradually surrendered. Quiet was restored and the leaders in the riot sent to solitary confinement.

STRIFE IN POLITICS

State Treasurer of California Announces His Intention to Run For Governor

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 18.—Internal strife in the government of California became evident to the public yesterday with the announcement of State Treasurer Carl G. Johnson that he intended to be a candidate for the governorship now held by James Rolph jr.

Johnson stated that he had no personal political ambitions, his only reason for deciding to run for governor being that "the situation calls for a stronger man than the one at present holding the position."

It is expected that Johnson will be relieved of his portfolio.

PLANS OF LABORITES

Co-operative Commonwealth in Canada to Be Called For By Woodsworth

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—J. S. Woodsworth, M.P. for Winnipeg North Centre, has intimated that Labor members of the House of Commons will call during the present session for the setting up in Canada of a co-operative commonwealth.

This would mean that all production, industry and exchange of commodities in Canada would be nationalized in the hands of the government.

RECEPTION IS STUDIED

MADRID, Spain, Oct. 18.—The world radio conference, after having been in session here for five weeks to study interference, has come to the conclusion that Russia is the main stumbling-block as far as European reception is concerned. Plans of the Soviet Republic to establish a chain of 100,000 watt broadcasting stations will necessitate the changing of equipment by all other European nations.

RAILWAY MEASURE PLANNED

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—The government will endeavor to introduce in the House of Commons a measure which will give effect to every recommendation in the report of the royal commission on transportation, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett told Parliament yesterday.

Imperial Conference Pacts Wrong, House is Told by Grit Leader

Are Described as "Menace to World Peace and Goodwill, Danger to Canada's Trade and Further Application of Vicious Policy of High Protection"—What King Would Do

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King in the House of Commons yesterday condemned the Imperial conference agreements as wrong in principle and detail, as a menace to world peace and goodwill, a danger to Canada's trade with foreign countries and further application of the vicious policy of high protection. It is evident that the issue of the trade agreements is now clearly drawn with the Conservatives supporting them and the Liberals, Laborites and farmers opposed.

Mr. Mackenzie King confidently declared that the Liberal party would, before long, take up the task of promoting international goodwill and the first action of a Liberal government, on return to power, would be a low tariff to the level of the Dunning budget of 1930.

The Liberal leader read an amendment, leaving it to the Speaker's later decision whether it was in order or not, condemning those features in the Canada-United Kingdom agreement "which show increases in an already unreasonably high tariff." The amendment reaffirms the principle of British preference "which has been the Liberal policy since 1897."

Mr. Mackenzie King said that, "so there will be no mistake where the Liberals stand in regard to British trade, we will undertake to give British people who export goods through Canadian ports a British preference rate averaging fifty per cent of the general tariff."

Indian Nationalist Leader Has No Paralytic Stroke and is in No Serious Condition

BOMBAY, India, Oct. 18.—It has been officially denied that Mahatma Gandhi, leader of the Indian Nationalists, had suffered a paralytic stroke and was in a critical condition as a result.

HAUSNER TO TRY AGAIN

Polish-American Flyer Will Make Another New York-Warsaw Flight Attempt

TOLEDO, Ohio, Oct. 18.—Stanislaus Hausner, Polish-American flyer, who is on a visit to this city, stated yesterday that he was making plans for another flight from New York to Warsaw. It was Hausner who failed early this year on a projected flight to Warsaw, being picked up in mid-Atlantic after drifting for over a week on his disabled plane.

Germany's Arms Equality Demands Will Be Threshed Out In League City

LONDON, Oct. 18.—After two days of conference here, Premier Edouard Herriot of France and Premier J. Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain agreed definitely on the holding of a four-power conference of Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany to consider Germany's demand for arms equality in Geneva rather than in London as at first advocated by Premier MacDonald. Italy is also in accord with the moving of the scene of the proposed conference from London to Geneva.

Germany approves of the conference but objects to changing the venue from London to Geneva on the grounds that it will really mean the re-entering of Germany into the disarmament conference which it has refused to rejoin until after its arms equality demand has been settled. However, it is felt in official quarters that Germany's refusal is merely temporary.

SCANDINAVIAN NATIONS INVITED TO NEGOTIATE TARIFFS WITH BRITAIN

Murphy, secretary of the local branch of the National Unemployed Workers' Association, against whom a deportation order was made at a court of inquiry conducted by the Dominion immigration department, obtained his freedom on $3000 bail pending appeal of his case to the Minister of Immigration, Mrs. T. J. Sheaton and Mah Bon Quen went bondsmen for Murphy in sureties of $1500 each.

L. W. Patmore has been retained as counsel for Murphy in his appeal.

NON-AGGRESSION PACT NEGOTIATIONS FAIL

MOSCOW, Oct. 18.—It was announced yesterday that negotiations for a non-aggression pact which have been in progress for some time between Soviet Russia and Roumania have broken down. Similar pacts being negotiated by Russia with Poland and France may be seriously delayed as a result of the break-down of the Russo-Roumanian negotiations.

United Irish Republican Government With British Connection Is Advocated

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Rt. Hon. James H. Thomas, Secretary for the Dominions, told the House of Commons today that, during the recent Anglo-Irish Free State discussions, President Eamonn de Valera had maintained that the only real and permanent solution of Irish difficulties would be a United Irish Republican government. He said that Mr. de Valera had conceded that such a government should have some sort of connection with the British Empire.

BRITISH PREFERENCE

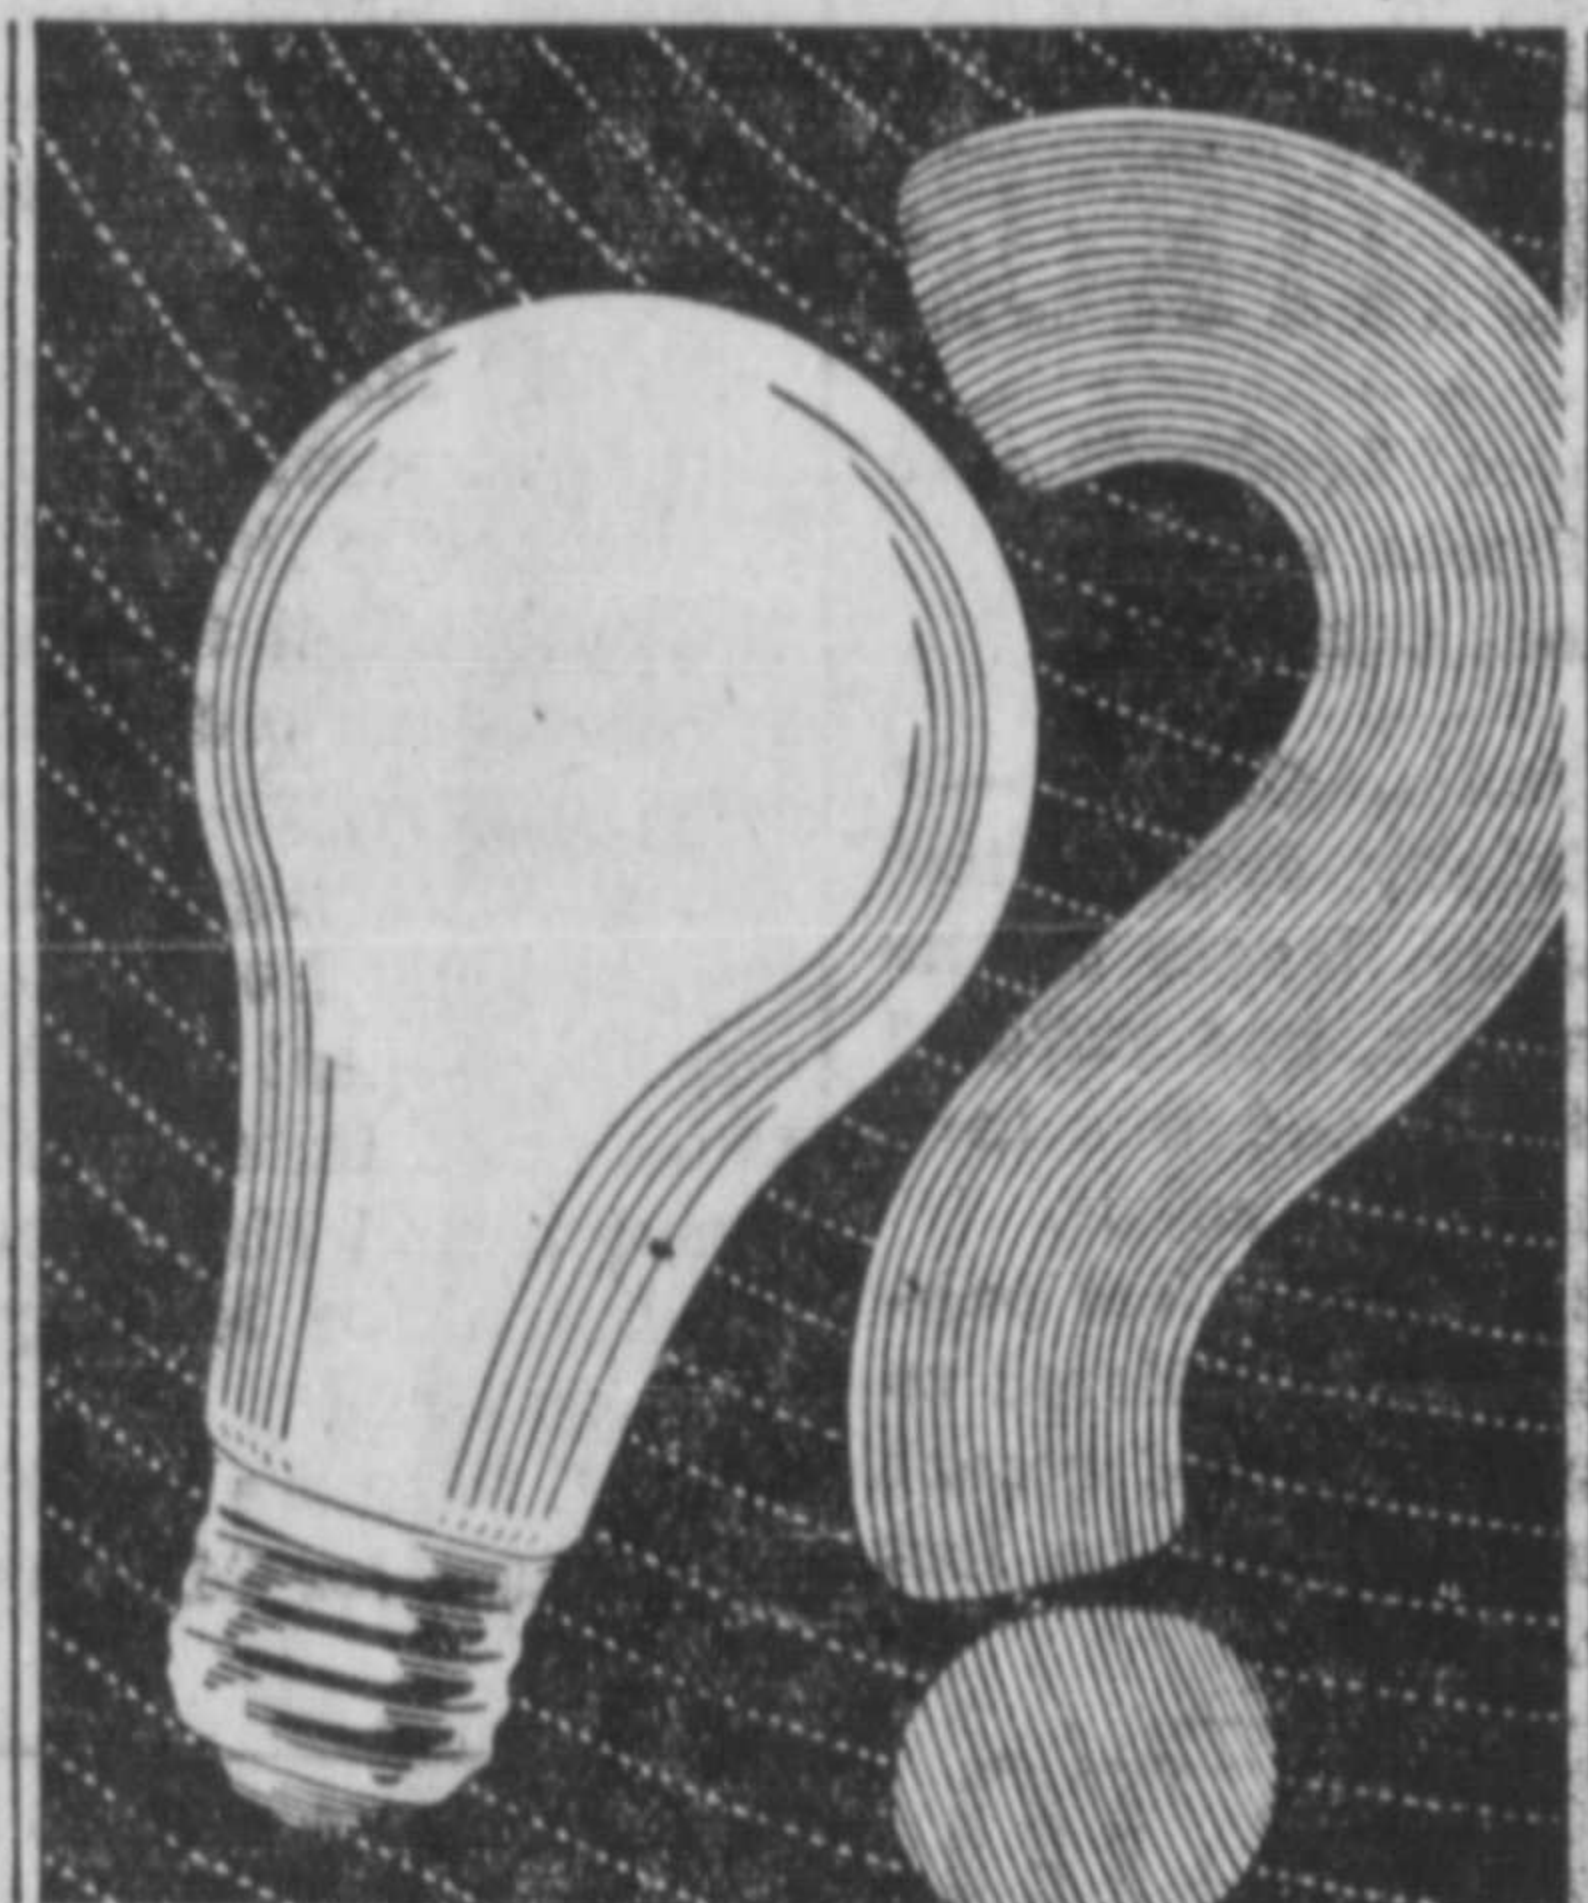

Premier Bennett has arranged for Empire preferences on a good many articles imported by Canada and has secured in return a preference in the British market for a good many articles which Canada might export. That seems to us like a pretty good deal. How it will work out in actual practice remains to be seen. At any rate it is an attempt in the right direction.

Mackenzie King wishes to reduce the tariff without any corresponding advantage.

Of the two we rather like the plan of the Premier. A reciprocal agreement seems the proper arrangement. It is what Liberals stood for in 1911 when they made a reciprocal agreement with the United States and the country turned it down.

At any rate Premier Bennett has a large majority in the Canadian House of Commons and it is presumed he will carry his agreements into effect. Before the country is asked to pass upon them they will have been proved to be beneficial or otherwise. If they prove beneficial there is no good reason why they should be opposed. Why not forget party politics long enough to put the new policy into effect? This is an occasion when we may well judge by results and not speculate as to the future.

DEPRECIATION

Editor, Daily News:— Money from home! Whatever else the N. U. W. A. of this city is blamed for, it should receive credit for one thing—it reduced the tax valuation. During the efforts to provide ball for our Comrade Murphy, property bonds were refused on account of city property having depreciated in value by one-fifth since last year. This information was given out by the city solicitor. Taxation having been increased one-third in this period, there will be fond thoughts of Mr. Depreciation Jones round many a taxpayer's hearth this Christmaside when the cheque for refund is received by those who can produce a receipt. This is going to be a hard winter and we are glad to publish this welcome news.

Man in the Moon

The underpinning of some of the city streets is mingling with the muskeg in such a way as to give a curious rolling effect to a drive around town. Jake has been taking a drive and it has driven him into writing verses about it.

I have ridden in an airplane
When it bucked a mighty gale;
I have stayed on pitching broncos
When they heaved from head to tail.
I have been on spacious liners
When they plowed through stormy seas;
I have ridden desert camels
That were wobbly at the knees.
I have been in rocking rowboats;
I have been in plunging barques;
I have been on roller coasters
In a dozen pleasure parks.
I have been on lofty mountains
When an earthquake jarred me loose;
I've been picked up by a cyclone
That was whirling like the deuce.
All these motions are upsetting;
Some of them may make you sick;
But if I should choose the wildest,
There's another one I'd pick.
It is sure to give seasickness;
I'd just try if I were you
Ride in an ancient flivver
Straight up Atlin Avenue.

Jake says he's going to run for mayor and make these other guys whose names were recently mentioned look about as sick as a man who runs for the provincial legislature on a Kidd report policy.

When good times return we shall wonder however we came to be so serious over the depression.

My friend Simp says he wouldn't take it seriously if he had enough money to pay his grocer and the grocer says times would be good if Simp and a few others would pay him.

NEW STOCK AT TELKWA

Farmers of That District Interested in Bettering Herd

TELKWA, Oct. 18.—The farmers in the Telkwa district here are interested in the improvement of their breeding stock and building up their herds. J. McNeil imported five excellent Hereford heifers and Guy Farrow purchased twenty good quality Shorthorn heifers at Edmonton and shipped this stock in under the Dominion Government free freight policy.

The price on breeding stock is particularly attractive from the standpoint of the buyer at present. Many farmers are availing themselves of the opportunity of low prices and free freight—to enlarge their herds or get started with real good foundation stock.

The above shipment is the first importation to the Telkwa district for some years. The good pure bred bulls loaned the farmers in this area under the Dominion Government policy has stimulated a great interest in improved breeding and feeding of livestock in the Central Interior of British Columbia.

SPORT NOTES

Tonight will be an important occasion for local sports fans marking as it does the raising of the curtain on the 1932-33 basketball playing season with four leagues getting the season's activities underway at the Auditorium which is expected to be a much more convenient, comfortable and popular venue than was the Exhibition Hall. The latest playing rules in the hoop game will be followed here and, with special efforts having been made to match the teams as evenly as possible, a very successful season is being anticipated. No pains have been spared in making preparations for the season by the executive of the Prince Rupert Basketball Association and it is now hoped that the sporting public will lend its support by according the games good patronage.

Opening night will bring together Panthers and Canadian National Recreation Association in the Senior League, those stirring battles of last year, Amazons and Cardinals, in the Ladies' League, Tuxis and Merchants in the Intermediate League and Rovers and Japanese Association in the Junior loop. While all these teams took part in last season's play, the line-ups have been considerably revised and balanced-up for this winter in the interests of close competition. Teams not appearing on tonight's program will make their debut of the season on Friday evening. As was the case last year, basketball this season will be played regularly twice a week on Tuesday and Friday evenings. Let's go!

Softball At High School

Obata Braves Score First Victory of Season Beating Smith Giants 9-3

The Smith Giants continued their downward slide yesterday in the High School Softball League while the Obata Braves came out of their early season slump by winning 9 to 3. As a result of this game these teams are now tied for the cellar position and are out of the race for season honors. A mathematical tie is possible for the leading four teams, each winning three games and losing two. Wednesday's game between the Tobey Tigers and Moxley Cubs will see one of them sharing the leading position with the Morgan Pirates. If these two top teams lose their last games and the next two win theirs, the tie is possible, in which case a series of extra games will be played to decide the winner.

The Braves seemed to find themselves for the first time in yesterday's game. The Giants' infield seemed to totter when a barrage of the Braves' hits came in third and last innings. The Braves played steady ball and Hirano's work in the position between first and second bases was spectacular. Obata pitched a strong game. Smith's pitching was weak but he gave wonderful support in the field when Gillis replaced him on the mound. Nakamoto played a good game at shortstop for the Braves and R. Fulton was steady at third while the Giants were best served by Kishimoto, Murray and Turgeon.

Score by innings:

"For Light, Flaky Biscuits use Magic Baking Powder,"

Miss M. McFarlane, dietitian of St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto

"I RECOMMEND Magic because I know it is pure, and free from harmful ingredients." Miss McFarlane's opinion is based on a thorough knowledge of food chemistry, and on close study of food effects upon the body. On practical cooking experience, too. Most dietitians in public institutions, like Miss McFarlane, use Magic exclusively. Because it is always uniform, dependable, and gives consistently better baking results. And Magic is the favorite of Canadian housewives. It outsells all other baking powders combined.

Try Miss McFarlane's Favorite Recipe for BISCUITS

1/2 teaspoon salt 4 teaspoons Magic
2 cups pastry flour Baking Powder (or 1 1/2 cups bread flour) 2 tablespoons shortening
3/4 cup milk, or half milk and half water.

Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in the chilled shortening. Now add the chilled liquid to make soft dough. Toss dough onto a floured board and do not handle more than is necessary. Roll or pat out with hands to about 1/2 inch thickness. Cut out with a floured biscuit cutter. Place on slightly greased pan or baking sheet and bake in hot oven at 450° F. 12 to 15 minutes.

You'll find Magic makes all your baked foods unusually light and tender... and gives you the same perfect results every time.

Support Farmers of Central B. C.

The farmers and gardeners of Central British Columbia are making an effort to supply the Prince Rupert market with vegetables, fruit, potatoes, poultry, and eggs and other products of the district.

Prince Rupert people are asked to encourage this movement by asking for Central British Columbia products whenever practicable. Co-operation in this matter encourages merchants who buy from farmers and if the farmers are prosperous it will be an encouragement for others to take up land and thus add to the buying power of the whole northern and central part of the province.

Householders can help by keeping this in mind and asking merchants for Central B. C. products whenever possible.

Get Rid of That SORE THROAT!

Any little soreness in the throat grows rapidly worse if neglected. Crush some tablets of Aspirin in some water, and gargle at once. This gives you instant relief, and reduces danger from infection. One good gargle and you can feel safe. If all soreness is not gone promptly, repeat. There's usually a cold with the sore throat, so take two tablets to throw off your cold, headache, stiffness or other cold symptoms. Aspirin relieves neuralgia, neuritis, too. Use it freely; it does not hurt the heart.

INSURANCE HEAD DIES

Darwin P. Kingsley, President of New York Life, Passes—Coolidge Succeed Him

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—It is rumored in financial circles here that Former President Calvin Coolidge is slated to succeed Darwin Pearl Kingsley, who died recently in this city, as chairman of the board of directors of the New York Life Assurance Co. Kingsley had been president and chairman of New York Life since 1907.

Kingsley was a leader, not only in the vast field of insurance but in international business and finance as well. This career had its preparatory locale in the rustic environment of old Vermont and in the wilder atmosphere of the old western frontier, but its field of fruition extended over all the continents.

Besides presiding at the head of the New York Life—the business of which runs into the billions and has ramifications throughout the entire world—Darwin Kingsley devoted much time to semi-public service. In 1920-21 he was president of the New York State Chamber of Commerce.

As president of the Chamber of Commerce he embellished the reputation as a public speaker which he acquired while in college. As president of the chamber and in other addresses he attacked the political system of the country, called for a federation of English-speaking nations as a first step for a world democracy, and defended modernism in religion.

Alburt, Vermont, was not even a hamlet when Darwin Pearl Kingsley was born on one of its farms May 5, 1857, and the western frontier was still a region of pioneers when he peddled books through Northern Colorado and maintained a crusading weekly newspaper against early graft in Grand Junction of the same state. Where he had to work his way through the University of Vermont he also was forced to exercise the greatest frugality.

In 1884 he married Mary Marilla Mitchell, who died in 1890. They had one son, Walton. His second wife was Miss Josephine E. McCall, daughter of the late John A. McCall, a former president of the New York Life. They were married in 1895. Three children were born to them.

Vermont University, where Kingsley obtained his bachelor of arts degree in 1881 and his master's degree in 1884, later made him a doctor of laws and a doctor of humane letters. Middlebury College made him a doctor of laws in 1916.

SECRETARY IS CAUSTIC

Mills Says Republicans Have Given Good Service—Compares Hoover and Roosevelt

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—During the past four years the Republican party has given the United States better service than at any time since the Civil War, Secretary of the Treasury Ogden Mills declared in an address here. No president had been more competent or more resourceful than had Herbert Hoover and no president had been beset with greater difficulties.

Mills declared that the Democrats offered no solution to the depression. Indeed they seemed almost to realize that one existed, most to fail to realize that one existed.

The secretary of the treasury referred to President Hoover as an "economic genius" and to Governor Roosevelt as a "mere vote catcher."
