IRISH PEOPLE CONTINUE TO OCCUPY LIMELIGHT IN DISPUTES

North and South Ireland Join to Try to Prevent Commencement of Strike

BELFAST, Feb. 3.—While the boundary negotiations between the North and South of Ireland have so far failed, the respective ministers of labor of the North and South governments are united in trying to prevent a big railway strike in the country.

The Irish railway management and employees have failed to reach an agreement and the Ulster minister of labor has been urgently summoned to Dublin to renew settlement efforts with the Free State minister of labor. If negotiations definitely collapse, a general strike throughout Ireland will go into effect on February 15.

Yesterday sixty-one passengers of the steamer Cedric who landed at Queenstown were unable to depart as no trains were running out of the town of Cork.

HIGH TARIFF FOREIGN EGGS

Will Probably Be Asked For by Poultrymen in Convention at Vancouver.

Vancouver, Feb. 3.—The Poultrymen's Co-operative Exchange, which is holding its annual meeting here, will likely ask the Dominion Government to increase the tariff on eggs imported from the United States to Canada. It is claimed that large importations of eggs from the United States are responsible for the break in price which is a menace to the poultry industry of British Columbia in that it cuts off the B. C. market in the East for eggs.

PRINCESS MARY IS BARED FROM THRONE BECAUSE OF MARRIAGE

TORONTO, Feb. 3.—A cable message to the Mail and Empire from London says that Princess Mary by her marriage to Viscount Lascelles renounces the royal rank and all claim for ever to her right of succession to the British throne. This will be embodied in the marriage contract.

While the possibility of Princess Mary ever succeeding to the throne is remote, her children might do so but the clause now makes such an event impossible.

BALLOTING FOR NEW POPE TODAY

Two Votes Taken up to 1 o'clock This Afternoon Without Election.

ROME, Feb. 3.—Voting for the election of a Pope to succeed Benedict XV has begun in the conclave of the sacred college today. Two ballots had been taken up to one o'clock this afternoon on neither of which any cardinal received sufficient votes to elect.

The College of Cardinals numbers when complete 70 members but rarely is attended by more than a part of the college.

There are now living about 60 cardinals including six cardinal-bishops, six cardinal-deacons and the others cardinal-priests.

Cardinal Vincent Vannutelli, is dean of the Sacred College. Italians compose about one-half of the membership of the College with Spain next in order with seven members. England and the United States have two each with one in Canada and one in (Continued on Page Three)

Irish Boundary Dispute is Indicating Free State asks Almost half of North Country

LONDON, Feb. 3.—In a statement regarding his meeting with Michael Collins in Dublin yesterday regarding the boundary question between Ulster and the South of Ireland, Sir James Craig, Ulster premier, said that Collins had made a promise of bringing into the Free State almost half of Northern Ireland, including Fermanagh, Tyrone and parts of Armagh and Down, Londonderry City, Enniskillen and Newry.

Premier Craig said he had suggested an adjournment for the consideration of the situation regarding boundaries, but Collins replied that the differences separating them were so great that postponement would be useless.

Premier Norris supported it but his chief henchman, Attorney General Johnson, condemned it.

A vote was taken which stood 27 against the referendum and 25 in favor of it. Three members of the cabinet supported it and four opposed.

Further particulars on Monday.

Attorney General Reviews Political Situation Today

Full of optimism, of faith in the Liberal party and its future both in the Dominion and the province, the new attorney-general, A. M. Manson, gave a magnetic address to the Prince Rupert Liberal Association at its annual meeting last night. He spoke of his faith in the members of the present Legislature at Victoria, and outstanding was his mention of the honesty of purpose of the members of the opposition as well as those on the government side. There were no knocks for anyone, nothing but earnestness of purpose, keenness to serve and a desire to forward the interests of the north country with frequent reference to the constituency of Omineca which he represents so well.

Mr. Manson spoke of the different position in which he was placed on that occasion compared with former meetings. At the other gatherings he had been able to express himself freely on any and every topic, but now he was somewhat tied owing to the position he held. It was, however, a real pleasure to see the men there on business bent. The day of party hatred was past. Today they were asking for and seeking clean records in public life. They believed with him that the north had the greatest opportunity yet before them. They had met to support the two Governments at Ottawa and Victoria.

Difficulties.

Mr. Manson then outlined very briefly some of the difficulties which had met the Oliver Government, largely as a result of the war. There was the partly finished railroad, the returning soldiers and the financial stress. The whole condition was topsy-turvy and all the difficulties were not yet solved. There was the P.G.E. which had been launched largely by Vancouver real estate men. It would have been better if the railway had been built from the G.T.P. into the Peace River, for the Peace River country was extremely wealthy. As a government and a people the province had blundered and they now had to make the best they could of it.

Telling of the efforts that had been made, the minister said that after five years in the Legislature he could say it would be impossible to get another set of men such as those who had been elected in 1916. With one or two possible exceptions none could be contaminated by the evil influence brought against them. Another body of men had been elected since that, men that he was proud to sit with. They were practically all clean and upright men as they could ask to have, on both sides. The thirteen Conservatives were imbued with integrity of purpose.

The Liberal Caucus.

Speaking of the Liberal caucus, Mr. Manson said the calling of the men together was one of the wisest steps ever taken. They had endeavored to have such a gathering during the session of the Legislature but, owing to the press of other business, this had been found impossible. It was then arranged that they should meet later. "I do not know of any body of men who ever met with such earnestness and sincerity of purpose as did the Liberal members during those four days they were together at Victoria," said the speaker. "Every one was determined to do his best in the interests of the province. The only one not present was not able to be there. Messrs. Perry and Whiteside were both there." While he was not at liberty to tell everything that occurred, he could mention that each minister had a good going over in regard to the conduct of his department and the difficulties were threshed out by men determined to improve the conditions.

Expenses.

In regard to new policies and courses of action for the future it was for the premier to speak. The suggestion had been made that the province was too extensively administered. There was much truth in that. No government had ever before initiated such a program of progressive legislation as this one and this legislation was expensive. Take as an example from many, the mother's pensions, which cost half a million last year. Would any member of the government or opposition side say that this was an extravagance which should be set aside? Not one. But this and other legislation was expensive and had to be paid for. He told of a visit of Vancouver businessmen to the capital who suggested gross extravagance and yet when asked to put their fingers on any one case of extravagance were unable to do so. While they did not deny that there might be some expenses eliminated, this was what they were now doing. The meeting at Victoria was emphatic in regard to keeping down expenses.

P. G. E. Railway.

The P.G.E. was a serious problem, declared the minister. When they took hold of it twenty million (Continued on Page Two) tion dollars had been spent and the bonds had an accelerated clause which made them come due immediately should the work close down. There was no money in the treasury and the province had no credit. He was doubtful too if the people would have supported a closing down policy at that time. The cost of completing the road had been much higher than they expected, due largely to the extreme post-war prices.

The consolation was that in all their difficulties never once was there a suggestion that John Oliver was dishonest in his administration of the affairs of the railway. To meet the situation they had called for the advice of the presidents of the C.P.R. and the C.N.R. and this had been received. A joint letter from the two presidents suggested the employment of one of three eminent engineers.

With this engineer Mr. Rogers of the Natural Resources department of the C. P. R. would report. He thought this was a business course to adopt. He was not without hope for the P.G.E. The grades and the country to the south were certainly bad but further north there was a fine country. The steel for the completion of the line to Prince George was bought and paid for and they began to see some daylight. If the line was extended to the Peace River country a lot of tonnage would be developed and he hoped a lot of it would come here.

May Relinquish Portfolios.

Mr. Manson compared the administration of British Columbia with that of Alberta and Saskatchewan. Here the resources were very diverse and difficult of access. The premier had been criticized for remaining at Victoria instead of getting out into the outlying parts of the province and he, the speaker, would not be surprised to hear that in the near future the Premier had relinquished his two portfolios to other members of the cabinet so as to be free to get around and attend to the general business of the province.

There was little more to say of the Victoria gathering except that it has been inspiring and the men who attended were in downright earnest.

In regard to the former attorney general, whom he had succeeded, Mr. Manson said Mr. Farris was personally beyond reproach. Unfortunately from a big centre of population he had been beset with self seeking individuals and his lot had been extremely hard. His own ease was different for he was fortunate in coming from the green fields of Omineca where he had got the confidence of the farmers. A representative was very much what the people made him. He realized that good men had gone before and had fallen by the wayside.

Liquor Administration.

The liquor administration had been mentioned as a difficult problem. The people had voted for a moderation law and he intended to administer the law fairly and fearlessly. The Liberal party was not down in the dumps as had been suggested by their opponents. The people were not ready to take Mr. Bowser in place of the present administration. Mr. Bowser had announced that he, the speaker, would be opposed in Omineca. If there was an opponent he could promise him he would be beaten by the largest majority on record. Dr. Sutherland was a good man and had the confidence of the people of Revelstoke. Nelson also would go Liberal and in Cranbrook Dr. King had left a good trail behind him. He was not sure but they would also carry Vancouver. The independent members had promised to vote for the Government in time of need.

Rare Opportunity.

Mr. Manson said the present was a rare opportunity for the north. The fates had been against them up to the present but now it looked as if progress would be made. He believed the Mackenzie King Government would be true to the vision of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and with a friendly Government in power at Victoria they were in a happy position indeed. By co-operating with Fred Stork and others they should be able to see the development of the country.

Mr. Manson concluded with a reference to the people and friends of the north country and his desire to serve the whole district.

LOTS OF FUN AT CARNIVAL

I. O. D. E. Guarantee Is That
 All Will Get Their Money's Worth.

That all who attend the Midwinter Carnival of the Adair Carss Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters, to be held tonight in the St. Andrew's Hall, will get their money's worth in fun and entertainment is the guarantee which is given by the committee in charge. Long and painstaking efforts on the part of this committee will result, it is expected, in one of the biggest entertainments ever staged in Prince Rupert. The money raised will go towards charitable objects and relief of war veterans, their dependents, and others who get the first call. The result will be of general benefit to the city and those who attend the carnival will have the satisfaction of knowing that they will be instrumental in providing happiness for others while they receive a good measure of it themselves in doing so. The event will be worthy of all the patronage which it is possible to give.

The program will present many special attractions and many of them along altogether different lines from those which Prince Rupert people have heretofore enjoyed. There will be something of interest for everyone and the list of fun includes whist drives, refreshments, side-shows, raffles and many other things. There will also be specialties for both men and women. On entering each person will pay a dollar and will be supplied with checks which may be used at any or all of the entertainments or side-shows. If the dollar does not suffice and runs out there will be more available at the door in twenty-five cent lots.

BUILDING WILL SOON IMPROVE

That is Opinion of Fred Stork,
 Who Says Builders' Supplies Are Coming Down.

That the price of building hardware is coming down and is approaching pre-war level is the opinion of Fred Stork, who at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday in the course of a short talk on the hardware business told of the condition. Building should go ahead pretty soon, Mr. Stork thought. While hardware was down, however, there had been little reduction in the price of plumbing supplies because there was practically only one manufacturer in Canada and he was protected by a high tariff.

Mr. Stork commenced by saying that we were all more or less creatures of circumstance. He was a hardware merchant because in his youth he had left school early and the only position opening was in a hardware store. His father and brother had been druggists.

Many prominent people had been hardware men, Mr. Stork said. He pointed to James Ashdown of Winnipeg and the Ross brothers of Edmonton as examples. John Bunyan had been a hardware man. Hardware goods did not depreciate like other goods. Nails were always worth one hundred cents on the dollar.

Absence of Wholesale.

Mr. Stork then explained why there was no wholesale hardware merchant in the city. Very large stocks had to be carried and expensive catalogues had to be printed. One of the catalogues just got out by a Vancouver firm cost $10,000, and one of the wholesale houses there carried a stock valued at three-quarters of a million dollars.

Because of this absence of a wholesale establishment Prince Rupert hardware shops were much

Beware Infectious COUGHS

 Do you realise the risk you run riding in a crowded train or street-car without a Peps tablet in your mouth? Every sneeze, every cough, fills the air you breathe with countless disease-germs that immediately make for any weak spot in your throat and chest. Be wise, always carry Peps, and occasionally let one of these germ-killing tablets dissolve in your mouth to ward off the infection. Then you will not be "full of cold" on the morrow, with the possibility of influenza, pleurisy or pneumonia supervening. Just as you breathe in the germs that cause infectious throat and lung ailments, etc., so you must breathe in the soothing germicidal Peps medicine to rout out the germs before they can cause serious trouble. Free from harmful drugs, Peps are the safest and best remedy for sudden colds and chills, grippe, sore throat, laryngitis, night-cough, hoarseness, wheeziness, bronchitis and chest weakness in old and young.

BALLOTING FOR NEW POPE TODAY.

South America. The American Bishops are William Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston and Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, Archbishop of Philadelphia.

The College is required to meet on the 10th day after the death of a Pope. A two-thirds vote is necessary for an election. While there is no law against the election of a layman, it has become tradition to elect the new Pope from the membership of the College of Cardinals, and it is traditional also that the Pope should be chosen from the Italian Cardinals. It is stated that this tradition has not been departed from in nearly 400 years.

Sacred Conclave.

The Cardinals are meeting for the opening of the conclave in the Sistine Chapel where mass for the Holy Ghost was said by the Cardinal Dean. They then proceed with their officers and assistants to that part of the Vatican set apart for the election. This forms a secluded precinct where they are guarded by the marshal of the conclave. Their seclusion is strict. Communication with the outside world during the sessions of the college is possible only through a small window equipped with something like a revolving door used in office buildings in the United States. The use of this is restricted to the sending out of laundry and receiving of food and medicine.

Each Cardinal-Bishop has three rooms and each Cardinal-priest and Cardinal-deacon two rooms. Telephones have been installed in the apartment of each of the Cardinals so they are able to communicate with each other but this telephone exchange is not connected with the city exchange and there can be no telephone communication with the outside world.

Vote Each Day.

The Cardinals are waited in within the large hall of the Vatican which is divided so as to provide these small compartments. At prescribed hours twice a day the Cardinals come together to vote, the actual balloting taking place in the Sistine Chapel. This must continue until a candidate receives more than two-thirds of the vote. The ballots are burned after each decisive vote is taken. Large crowds gather daily in the Square at St. Peter to watch the smoke of the burning ballots issue from the chimney. Failure to see the smoke at the usual time serves as a signal to the crowd that a new Pontiff has been chosen and the throng rushes inside the Basilica to await the appearance of the new head of the Church to appear on a balcony and bestow his first apostolic blessing. When the new Pope is chosen he is requested to select the name by which he is to be known thereafter.

OPTIMISM OF ALL LIBERALS

Fred Stork and Others Addressed the Annual Meeting Last Night.

CONFIDENCE EXPRESSED

Fred Stork and several other Liberals delivered short addresses last night at the Liberal annual meeting in the Patisserie Block. All were optimistic for the future and determined to do their part to bring about improved conditions. Resolutions of confidence in the political leaders, Mackenzie King and John Oliver, were passed as well as thanks to the retiring officers of the association.

Fred Stork, M.P., thanked the association for the wholehearted support it had given in the recent campaign. It had been a great year for the Liberal party. The north country was coming into its own. With Hon. T. D. Pattullo the shining light in the Oliver administration and Hon. Alex. Manson the new attorney-general they were well represented. Vancouver had committed political suicide.

Tremendous Handicap.

Mr. Stork said his was not a personal victory. The triumph was one of Liberal principles. They could congratulate themselves on winning under such tremendous handicaps. They had for an opponent a man with a military record, who was staged as an independent yet officially recognized as the representative of the Meighen government. There never had been such a dishonest campaign as the one they had just gone through. However they were good winners as well as good losers. He had taken his defeat on a former occasion without squeaking, but this could not be said of their Tory friends at the present time.

The member said it was gratifying to know they had been able to come through with a clean sheet.

Referring to the future prospects, Mr. Stork said the city still justified its existence. It was here in spite of the efforts of Mackenzie & Mann and their cohorts, who had tried to put it out of business. He believed they would get good treatment from Mackenzie King. Now that the trade routes had been established it would be no small job getting another established here. Coal bunkers would receive his first attention and the restoration of the main line privileges, changing this from a spur line. He felt sure he would have the assistance of the Ottawa government in re-establishing the G. T. P.

Fisheries District.

Mr. Stork also promised his efforts toward making this a separate fisheries district. He would do what he could for the cause. It was a great gratification to him that he had been supported by men who had never wavered in the faith, and they had been rewarded by the carrying of the position. They had a great mission to fulfill. He hoped the Liberal party would give a good account of its stewardship and would be worthy of the confidence of the people.

Dr. W. T. Kergin spoke of the good light which had ended so successfully. It was fortunate that there were Liberal governments both at Ottawa and Victoria and also that Mr. Manson had been taken into the cabinet. He would like to see Canada go ahead, all of it. He would not do a bad turn to any part of the country, but they had to fight for their rights and the pull of a place like Vancouver was tremendous and was always against us. He urged that they foster the co-operation of the neighboring towns of the north such as Terrace and Smithers and right through to Prince George. There should be no spirit of rivalry between us and these. Prince Rupert should be the best friend of all neighboring towns.

The doctor said that after an election we were prone to expect too much. The growth would be a natural one but it would be aided by Ottawa. Yet there was much we must do for ourselves which nobody could do but ourselves.

Other Speakers.

John Dybhavn spoke of the fact that everyone was looking forward to better conditions. He congratulated the new attorney-general on having won the cabinet position from merit. The outlook

ANY SKIN TROUBLE IN YOUR HOME?

In every home Zam-Buk proves a priceless possession. It is a valuable herbal balm and superior to old-style fatty ointments. Swiftly and surely Zam-Buk banishes pain, expels poison and disease, and grows new healthy skin. Wherever there is a cut, burn or scald, a patch of eczema, ringworm or salt rheum, or a case of poisoned sores or piles, Zam-Buk's rich herbal essences speedily soothe and heal. You cannot afford to be without Zam-Buk.

- 1. Mother's Ulcerated Ankle. Mrs. J. Elsworth, 901, Selkirk Avenue, Winnipeg, Minn.—"Ulcers started on my left ankle and in spite of doctor treatment, spread towards the knee. A sample of Zam-Buk secured pain wonderfully. Further dressings of this famous balm stopped the discharge, took out all poisonous matter and healed my leg perfectly."
- 2. Child's Scald Disease. Mr. W. D. Love, 25, Rand St., Central Falls, U.S.A., writes: "My little girl's scald disease on the face and scalp defied doctor's treatment. The first application of Zam-Buk checked the itching irritation, and gave every evidence of its unique healing powers. Continued treatment with Zam-Buk soon rid the child of every trace of disease."
- 3. Frost-Bite and Cold-Sores. Miss M. Smith, 1736, Maure St., Montreal, writes: "A few years ago my nose was badly frost-bitten. Although I had doctors' treatment I could not get the sore to heal permanently. Every winter it broke out again as badly as ever. When I got Zam-Buk it acted like magic in drawing out soreness and inflammation. Zam-Buk's healing proved quite permanent."
- 4. The Parol of Blood-Poison. Mrs. Frank St. Denis, 315, Thompson St., Winnipeg, Minn.—"After a day's washing, one of my finger ends became hard and swollen and went a blue colour. The pain was intense. When I applied Zam-Buk I got relief, my daughter-in-law got me some Zam-Buk. This quickly subdued the throbbing pain. Mrs. Zam-Buk drew out lots of poison and inflammation and healed the sore perfectly."

DEVELOPMENT NEAR TERRACE

Mining Properties Being Developed and Oil Drills to Operate.

TERRACE, Feb. 3.—Much optimism still prevails locally in the prospects for the spring drilling operations for oil in the Kamskilling Valley. As soon as the weather will permit there will be three or four standard drills on the ground and drilling operations will commence in earnest. Another Ross Mill. J. M. Hoar of Seattle, who owned the Bear and Wolf gold and silver groups on Maroon Mountain, Kitsungallum Lake, is taking in two additional Ross mills for operations on his claims early in the spring. He already has one Ross mill operating on this property but its capacity is not sufficient to take care of the large body of ore now exposed.

Up Copper River. The Gabriel property on the headwaters of the Kaitumaikawa River in the Copper River district, has been developed by D. A. Buchanan to some extent during the winter months. Last summer some six miles of roadway was built to the claim and cabins were erected for winter operations capable of housing half a dozen men. Three men have been employed on the work of development. The Gabriel vein of silver and gold now exposed measures 10 feet wide and is being cross cut at the present time. The ore is of a similar nature to that of the Dolly Varden mine, and experts have given the opinion that it is of excellent quality.

New Sub-division. It is the intention of A. McCormick of Terrace, who owns considerable property on the shores of Kitsungallum Lake, to put on a sub-division of acre home sites during the coming season. This location will make an ideal summer resort if the roadway can be got in good shape, in the opinion of Mr. McCormick. At the present time it is not possible to haul a thousand pounds of freight with a team up to the lake. If the roadway can be fixed to permit of motor cars being driven right up to the lake it is expected it will be the means of developing this part of the country.

R. Seymour Wright, formerly of this city but now of Usk, arrived from upriver on last evening's train.

POPULAR COUPLE WERE WEDDED LAST EVENING

Miss Helen Carter Becomes Bride of Walter Hume in Anglican Church.

In St. Andrew's Church last evening at 8:30 o'clock the marriage took place of Miss Helen Mariel Carter, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin B. Carter, of St. John, New Brunswick, and Walter Hume, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hume, of Kelowna, B. C. Rev. Canon G. A. Rix officiated at the ceremony which was a very pretty one, the church being decorated with flowers and evergreens. The place was well filled with intimate friends of the bride and groom. The bride was given away by Lieut. Col. S. P. McMorris, D. S. O., and was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Carter. The groom was supported by W. W. McGill, J. Austin, the organist, played the Wedding March and during the signing of the register Miss Emelie Davies sang "O Perfect Love."

After the wedding ceremony, the bridal party partook of a sumptuous wedding supper at the home of Col. and Mrs. McMorris. There were a few of the intimate friends of the contracting parties in attendance. The toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Rev. Canon Rix and Col. McMorris, the groom responding suitably. Mr. and Mrs. Hume left on the midnight boat to spend their honeymoon in the south. On their return they will take up their residence in Westview.

Both bride and groom are well known and highly popular in the city. Mrs. Hume was formerly on the local staff of the Royal Bank of Canada and Mr. Hume is a member of the Canadian National Railway freight department.

NO FURTHER SIGN OF MISSING MAN LAPLEY AT TERRACE

TERRACE, Feb. 3.—The search by Constable Manoeuvre and Fred Nash on Sunday last for Joe Lapley, an old timer around Terrace who has been missing for the past week, has only resulted in the finding of his pack on the trail about four miles from Terrace. Joe lived in a cabin about eight miles from Terrace on the south side of the river and opposite Remo. He was a man of nearly seventy years of age and suffered with heart trouble. It is thought that he became faint while walking over the heavy snow and succumbed in a snow drift. His footprints were plainly discernible up to the spot where the pack was found but all trace of his steps were lost through the snow drifting to some depth. The pack contained a roast of meat and some tea and sugar, and this was placed in Joe's cabin, by Constable Manoeuvre and locked up. With the melting of the snow in the spring doubtless the remains will be discovered.

Night Coughs

Terrific wearing on the system is the cough that comes at night and prevents sleep. The constant coughing keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition that they get no chance to heal.

You will find in DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP a remedy without an equal, for soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening the breathing organs and fortifying them against pulmonary disease. Mrs. John McKeeney, Lower Montague, P. E. I., writes:—"About three years ago I caught a very bad cold accompanied by a sore throat and hoarseness, and was so hoarse you could hardly hear me speak. I could get no rest at night with the terrible annoying, hacking cough. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. Finally I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised; got a bottle, and at once it gave me relief, and after using four my cough had all gone. Now I always keep 'Dr. Wood's' in the house, and shall recommend your remedy to others." Price, 35c and 60c a bottle at all dealers. Put up only by The T. McBurn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

was never better and he expected to see things move.

L. W. Patmore said the problem was how to get rid of the present condition of stagnation. He spoke of some of the difficulties in the way in the future and the remedy. After singing the national anthem and giving three cheers and a tiger for Alex. Manson and Fred Stork, the meeting adjourned.

OLD PIONEER PASSES AWAY

Patrick Carey, Aged 82, Died at General Hospital Last Night From Heart Trouble.

In the death of Patrick Carey, at the General Hospital at 9:15 last night, there passed away one of Prince Rupert's most picturesque pioneer citizens. The late Mr. Carey was known to practically all in the city and certainly to all of the early residents for he came here some 15 or 16 years ago and had resided here continuously since that time. The news of his demise comes as a shock to the many friends of the deceased and his widow for whom much sympathy will be felt.

Mr. Carey was a native of Ireland and was 82 years of age. He came to the Northwest Territories some sixty years ago and was there at the time of the Riel Rebellion. He was very familiar with the latter incident and his stories of the early days in the vicinity of Winnipeg have been listened to with interest by many. Later Mr. Carey came to the Pacific Coast and resided at Port Moody and Vancouver before the Canadian Pacific Railway was built through. At one time he was the owner of property which now forms part of the centre of the city of Vancouver.

Prince Rupert Pioneer.

Again he pioneered in Prince Rupert and for several years conducted, with Mrs. Carey, a boarding house at Manson Way. In the fall of 1912 he became night watchman at the provincial government wharf and filled that position until just before his last illness. He was a Catholic. Besides the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Caldwell, of Wintrop, Spokane, who arrived in the city on Monday, Mrs. Charles Prosser, of St. Louis, who left but three weeks ago after having visited her parents for two months, survive. There were also three sons in the family but they predeceased their father.

Mr. Carey was taken to the General Hospital about a fortnight ago suffering from heart disease and his death was not unexpected. Funeral arrangements are in the hands of the B. C. Undertakers.

A. E. Kincaid, the Revelstoke insurance man and an official of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, arrived in the city last evening and is registered at the Hotel Prince Rupert.

Discolored linen is a source of much annoyance to many people who send their washing out to be laundered. This discoloration is the result of faulty materials or methods. Happily, our patrons do not complain of this serious defect in laundry service.

The following reply to our inquiry regarding this condition may indicate the reason our patrons have no complaints on this score.

"Dear Sir:— We are referring your letter of January 12th direct to Dr. Shupp, Mellon Institute, Pittsburg, and you will hear from him. Your letter shows that you thoroughly appreciate the importance of a knowledge of the supplies used in laundering.

You are to be congratulated on this fact, because there is no single item connected with the laundering process that has any greater importance than this. In fact, there are many who think that it is the most important subject for the laundryowner to understand. Yours sincerely, LAUNDRYOWNERS' NATIONAL ASSOCIATION. CHILD WELFARE IN MANITOBA

Bill to Come Before Legislature Again During Coming Session.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 1.—With no changes in principle, the Child Welfare Bill, rejected at the last session of the legislature, is before the house again this year for consideration. At several conferences held during the recess, a committee, presided over by Mrs. R. A. Rogers, Winnipeg M.L.A., held several meetings at the parliament buildings to reconstruct the bill for presentation to the legislature. Slight alterations have been made in several sections of the measure. The bill does not profess to deal with the routine work of private child welfare organizations, except for inspection, and will not touch on financing of various organizations.

The appointment of the child welfare commission was recommended by the public welfare commission, appointed in 1917, to investigate conditions affecting child welfare in the province. Provisions for consolidation of several acts dealing with public welfare are contained in the measure.

To Minimize Neglect.

The purpose of the bill as set out in the preamble is "to provide a branch dealing with child welfare through which the responsibility of the province toward its child citizens may be recognized more adequately and discharged, to the end that neglect of children may be minimized and a higher standard of child care inculcated and established."

Part one of the bill provides for creation of a department of public welfare, with a minister of public welfare to preside over it and a director of child welfare to administer the act. The duties of the director are outlined and provision made for the appointment of a board of supervision. The duties of the juvenile court are outlined and the steps for taking care of neglected children.

A large part of the bill deals

Indoor Life

Spending more time indoors makes women far more subject to constipation than men.

The liver becomes sluggish and torpid, the bowels constipated and the system poisoned by impurities.

If you would get away from the myriads of ill which result from constipation, it is only necessary to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

The benefits from their use are as lasting as they are prompt and certain.

Mrs. John Barry, 18 St. Amable Street, Quebec, Que., writes:

"This is to certify that I was troubled for years with constipation and tried all kinds of medicines without relief. At last my husband suggested that I try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they have given me more relief than all the medicine I have taken during the last fifteen years. I may also add that I have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for piles with excellent results."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

with care of children whose parents have not been legally married, and provides for the care of the child by the father or persons named as father. The care of feeble-minded and mentally deficient children is outlined. Handicapped and immigrant children, operation of child welfare organizations and adoption and guardianship of children are subject to direction of the bill. Penalties are provided for ill-treatment or causing children to be neglected.

HOME BUILDING EXHIBITION AT EDMONTON SOON

EDMONTON, Jan. 31.—"With the present abnormal situation," H. H. Lincoln of the home building exposition, "nothing tangible has developed to indicate that there is the remotest possibility of building costs returning to pre-war basis. It seems that the longer home building and other construction is deferred the more acute will be the housing situation, and it is high time that everyone should think strongly about building a home as soon as weather will permit this spring."

"Lumber, one of the large individual materials entering into building construction, is down, in fact it is within $3.50 per thousand of the 1911 price at the mill. It is patent to anyone that with the advanced wages and overhead lumber has gone as low as it possibly can, and many other commodities, it is anticipated by the time building starts, will be down on an equal basis, so no person need hesitate in carrying out building plans on account of anticipated further reductions."

At First Hand. "So many persons are desirous of getting first hand information about building materials and ideas, suggestions and plans for homes, that the home building exposition will be held for the purpose of visualizing all of the things that enter into the planning, financing, construction and furnishing of the home."

To provide for the answering of all question in connection with home building, the exposition will conduct a series of illustrated lectures, talks and moving pictures on construction matters every afternoon and evening in the lecture room of the Board of Trade building during the exposition. These lectures will be advertised so that all may have an opportunity of obtaining the information desired."

SOCIALIST VIEW OF NEW RUSSIA

Premier of Sweden Says Breaking up of Old System Was Not Good.

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 3.—Hjalmar Branting, the Socialist premier of Sweden, recently gave at his own cost a dinner to 300 unemployed men and women of Stockholm. The premier and Mrs. Branting acted as host and hostess, while the guests were waited upon by society women of the capital, among them Mrs. George Branting, the wife of the premier's son.

Later in the evening the guests were given hot baths and provided with lodgings in the municipal lodging houses of Stockholm.

Economic Conditions. This is believed to be the first time that the premier of a European state has personally entertained his destitute constituents. When his guests had eaten their fill, Premier Branting addressed them on the economic conditions in Sweden.

The premier began by informing them that neither this dinner nor any other private or public aid extended to men and women without work was in any sense charity, but simply what was rightfully due them from those who were fortunate enough to be able to help. He said it was not their fault that they were without means of livelihood, but the fault of warped conditions throughout Europe.

Mr. Branting warned his guests that the efforts of the state to better social and economic conditions could not be expected to lead to immediate results.

Chaos in Russia.

Alluding to the chaos in Russia, he declared that the slow-moving efforts of the old established government system to improve social conditions was infinitely preferable to the breaking up of the old system. The world had seen where such a course led. But social solidarity, he continued, demanded from every person that he help as far as he possibly could in relieving the distress of the more unfortunate.

"I hope," the premier continued, "that others will follow this example and that you will see thereby an utterance of social solidarity which breaks through all barriers."

The premier's speech, which was delivered with great earnestness, was received with spontaneous and enthusiastic applause.

LIVER TROUBLE

Bad Bilious Attacks

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach full and sick, and bilious spells occur on account of the liver holding back the bile which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS.

They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the griping, weakening and sickening effects of the old-fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, Bonavon, Sask., writes:—"I was troubled with my liver, and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, so I took two vials and I have had no more attacks."

MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
