ATTORNEY GENERAL OPENS WAR ON ILLICIT LIQUOR SELLERS

Bootlegging Must Stop and Government Ready to Step In If Needed

VICTORIA, May 3.—In keeping with authorized reports appearing in Vancouver papers yesterday, Attorney General A. M. Manson declared last evening that bootlegging in every part of the province must be eliminated and a careful campaign against illicit vendors was to be carried on.

Following his return from Victoria, the minister was informed that "booze rings" and small operators were carrying on their trade in some of the central and northern districts. He immediately caused enquiries to be made and was convinced through them that a considerable amount of the "hard stuff" reaching consumers was not being purchased from the government liquor stores.

Careful Watch

A careful watch will be kept in future by members of the provincial police, and yesterday Mr. Manson sent letters to the heads of all police commissions to the effect that in future if it were found that in any municipality the law was not being enforced he would have to authorize the Liquor Control Board to step in with the result that bootlegging would become a most dangerous business and the municipality guilty of negligence would find itself assessed with the costs of the board's actions.

The attorney general's attention has been drawn particularly to illegal liquor-selling in unorganized districts where police officers were often few and far between. He said that careful scouting on the part of government officials would disclose most of the culprits and special attention would be directed towards stamping out the traffic in such sections of British Columbia.

VETERAN KNIGHT OF PYTHIAS DEAD

J. Moulson, Oldest Member in Canada, Died in St. John.

ST. JOHN, N. B., May 3.—James Moulson, the oldest member of the Knights of Pythias outside of the United States, where the order was founded after the civil war, died here last week. His death was characteristic of his lifelong devotion to Pythianism, as he fell dead while visiting a fellow member who was ill.

The late Mr. Moulson, who was 75 years of age, had been the only surviving charter member of New Brunswick Lodge No. 1, the first lodge organized outside the States, which was founded fifty-two years ago. Only ten days before his death the veteran fifty-year jewel of the order was publicly presented to him.

In addition to many honors conferred on him in his native city of St. John and in the Maritime Provinces grand lodge, he had held important offices in the international grand lodge.

DUBLIN, May 3.—A Lloyd's underwriter, intending to survey Dublin for risks, arrived here at 6 o'clock in the evening and two hours later he was struck in the calf of the leg by a stray bullet and sent to the hospital. Then the rate leaped from $4.40 to $22 on a riot insurance for three months. One Lloyd agent has sold riot insurance policies amounting to $440,000 in the last ten days.

The case of L. Garland, charged with vagrancy, which was adjourned before Magistrate McClymont yesterday, came up in the city police court again this morning. It was proved by L. W. Palmore, counsel for the defence, that the accused worked as a prospector in the winter, owned property at Alice, Arm and therefore had visible means of support. The case was dismissed.

A building permit was granted yesterday to J. Wobocic to erect a one story frame residence on Ninth Avenue East, at a cost of $1800. The contract has been let to J. Krikevsky.

RECORD OUTPUT AT ANYOX IN MONTH APRIL

General Manager H. S. Munro in City Today Returning North

H. S. Munro, general manager of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Co. was an arrival on the Prince George this morning returning to Anyox from a business trip to the south.

Mr. Munro stated that during the month of April the smelter had created a record for output, the figures for that month being 91,123 tons. He said that he did not look for any immediate advance in the price of copper and that the only thing to do was to endeavor to keep the plant running at full capacity as long as possible on the present market figure so long as it proved worth while.

Some 150 men are employed on the $350,000 dam which is the preliminary to the huge $500,000 hydro-electric plant which the company plans installing. Mr. Munro stated that he anticipated the preliminary dam would be completed in September.

In the April Canadian National Railway's Magazine appears a picture of G. F. Johnson, late G. N. R. city ticket agent here, who left last month for Australasia to take over the duties of general passenger agent. The picture is a splendid likeness and is accompanied by an appreciative article.

J. Fred Smith of Massett, formerly of the Prince Rupert Hotel staff here, plans to leave for Vancouver tomorrow night to make a brief visit before returning to Graham Island. Mr. Smith arrived in the city on the last steamer from the Islands.

Fully Equipped Passenger Trains Will Operate From Prince Rupert Every Day

The announcement is made today by George A. McNicholl, Canadian National Railway Assistant General Freight and Passenger Agent, that daily passenger train service to and from Prince Rupert over the Grand Trunk Pacific end of the Canadian National Railways will commence with the putting into effect of the summer service on June 4.

Under the new service the eastbound passenger train will leave here daily except Sundays at 6.45 (Standard Time) in the evening connecting as usual on boat days with the steamers arriving from Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle and other southern points which will continue to come into this port at 10.30 in the mornings. Tourists from the south will thus be given the greater part of the day in the city. The eastbound train will, as at present, operate through to Edmonton where close connection for eastern points will be made. If passengers prefer, they can enjoy a day's stay in Jasper Park and connect with the "Continental Limited" from Vancouver at Jasper at 7.25 p.m. daily.

As far as the westbound service is concerned, train No. 3 will continue to arrive at Prince Rupert at 7.15 in the evening, but it will operate into this city daily with the exception of Tuesday. Connections will be made, as heretofore, with the steamers to the south on Thursday and Sunday evenings. A feature of the new service is that passengers arriving from the east on Wednesday evenings may spend an entire day in this city going south on Thursday night or, if they prefer, make the trip to Anyox on Wednesday night, returning south and on to Vancouver Thursday night. The same privilege may be possible on Saturday nights to Stewart and return Sunday evening.

The increased service is made necessary due to the increased tourist traffic anticipated during the coming season, also on account of the heavy movement of express fish eastbound which necessitates fast service. The daily service at present applies only for the summer, but may be continued the year around if business warrants.

The summer service of the Canadian National steamships commences next Sunday with the sailing of the Prince Rupert for the south. This steamer will return here on Saturday and continue to operate in the Stewart-Prince Rupert-Vancouver service here at the week-ends for the rest of the season.

Canadian National trains and steamers will operate this year on Standard Time, all hours announced in this new service being on that basis.

PROMINENT SOLDIER ARRIVES IN CITY

Lieut.-Colonel G. L. McDonnell, D.S.O., D.C.M., arrived from the south on the Prince George this morning, and will remain in the city for a few days on private business. Colonel McDonnell joined the original "Princess Pats" as a ranker. While with this regiment he was awarded the D.C.M. and was promoted to commission rank. He afterwards transferred to the Canadian Siberian Expeditionary force and saw considerable service in Russia, being awarded the D.S.O. and promoted to the rank of Lieut.-Colonel.

PRINCE RUPERT FISH RATE CHEAPER THAN EDMONTON; INQUIRY

OTTAWA, May 2.—The railway commission is going into the question of discrimination in the rates on fish exported from northern Alberta. It is established that though Edmonton is 1000 miles east of Prince Rupert, the rate from that Pacific port is two cents less than Edmonton. The commission will call upon the express companies to explain and justify this anomalous condition.

COMMONS MAY DEBATE MERITS OF SENATE

OTTAWA, May 3.—"The Senate, as at present appointed and constituted, is not of the greatest advantage to Canada." This is the declaration which J. T. Shaw (Calgary West) asks the House of Commons to make, in supporting a resolution which he will move. Mr. Shaw has given notice of his resolution, which is placed on the order paper for debate when it is reached.

INFLUX OF MINERS AT PAS EXPECTED

THE PAS, Man., May 3.—A great influx of prospectors into Northern Manitoba is looked for during the coming summer and a big advance in the number of mineral claims registered for the present fiscal year is expected. A total of 1,710 claims were recorded at the mines office here during the three-year period ending March 31, 1922. Of this number 813 were entered during the last fiscal year and 210 during the month of March. The mines office revenue is estimated at about $50,000 for the three-year period.

The funeral of R. M. Easson, father of A. A. Easson of this city, took place in Vancouver on Saturday afternoon. There were floral tributes from the local Elks' Lodge and from "The Boys of the Mess," Prince Rupert.

UNEMPLOYED ON RAMPAGE

VANCOUVER, May 3.—One hundred unemployed paraded through Woodward's department store here today in the course of a campaign to obtain relief doles. They were hustled out by the police who barred the way for others to enter. The crowd threatened to put on a daily demonstration until the citizens afford them relief.

FEDERAL GEOLOGY SURVEY PARTIES IN SASKATCHEWAN

SASKATOON, Sask., May 3.—During the coming summer federal geological parties will conduct surveys in the northern part of Saskatchewan. The schists in the Lac la Ronge district and the iron deposits in the region of Lake Athabasca, which is also the objective of an Alberta survey, will be investigated. T. M. Mollay, commissioner of labor and industries for Saskatchewan, has requested the federal government to send geologists to make a general survey of the watershed of the Reindeer river north of the Churchill river to cover the district between Churchill and Reindeer lake. "We don't know what minerals are in this section," said Mr. Mollay, "and we think it is possible that a survey might bring some interesting results."

ALDERMAN OF PRINCE GEORGE MARRIES TEACHER

The marriage of Miss Christina Maxwell Bell, late of the Prince George public school staff to Ald. Frederick Drummond Taylor of Prince George, was solemnized at the home of her brother, Mr. R. G. Bell, 3890 Quebec Street, Vancouver on last Wednesday, in the presence of immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for Victoria and on their return will reside in Prince George.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IN EFFECT TODAY

Railways and Telegraph Companies Still on Standard Time—Change in City General

Many people in this city this morning felt they had been cheated of an hour's good sleep when they arose in the clammy dampness of the gray dawn at 6.30 or later to welcome the inauguration of the daylight saving measure in Prince Rupert. In fact the old song, "It's nice to get up in the morning, but it's nicer to stay in bed," would have been a popular one if anyone was feeling in singing mood.

At first there is bound to be some confusion but people should soon get used to the existence of two times and govern themselves accordingly.

All city work, stores and business regulated by local conditions are running on the new time today, as is also the Daily News, but the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific steamers and trains and shops as well as the telegraph offices will continue to operate on Standard Time. Churches and schools and all other activities beyond those mentioned, will conform to daylight saving. The Post Office will also adopt it with the exception of the extent to which it cannot conform owing to the arrival of the mails according to standard time.

The Canadian government steamer Restless has arrived at Ocean Falls and will be in that vicinity for three months surveying the waters there.

Revisions in Income Tax Measures.

With the announcement that the Canadian House of Commons is to consider the imposing of increased income taxes on aliens comes co-incidentally the despatch from London telling that a reduction in the income tax is proposed in the Imperial budget.

Peace in Ireland Doubtful.

The possibility of peace in Ireland seems to be treated more or less as a joke. There have been so many announcements in the past that peace was impending that the general public has become very dubious of any of a similar nature that may be made at this time.

Radio Enthusiasm Valuable to Boys.

The radio enthusiasm is sweeping over all the country, and in Prince Rupert it is apparent also. Several lads here have instruments set up and while it is not reported that any of them have been able to hear the concerts that are broadcasted from Vancouver and other cities through the radiophone, many of them can hear the messages transmitted between ships at sea and land stations.

Genoa Conference and League of Nations.

Neither in capacity nor in character does the personnel of the League of Nations take precedence over the assemblage of delegates who have been in conference at Genoa. The statesmen who have been guiding matters at the conference are also the men who dominate the councils of the League.

Daily Train Service A Welcome Announcement.

The official announcement made today that Prince Rupert early next month is to have its first daily passenger train service, thought not unexpected, is very welcome here as it will be at all points along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

It is not known yet if all the daily trains will carry mail. This should be arranged and doubtless will be. However, it might be well to take the matter up with the postal department immediately to ensure its being provided for. It should not be overlooked.

Now that Prince Rupert is at last to have its daily train service it is to be hoped that it will not be merely a summer arrangement, but that sufficient business will develop to ensure its being provided all the year around.

DICKENS' NIGHT ANYOX FRIDAY

Dramatic Society of Parent Teachers' Association Distinguished Itself

ANYOX, May 3.—The Dramatic Society of the Parent-Teachers' Association distinguished itself in the Recreation Hall last Friday evening at its second "Evening With Dickens." Over 8150 was realized as a result of the very successful concert.

The scenes were taken from the "Pickwick Papers," "Barnaby Rudge," "Martin Chuzzlewit," "Our Mutual Friend," and "The Old Curiosity Shop." Every piece was most faithfully portrayed.

It would be impossible to particularize where every character was so well displayed, but without belittling in the least the productions of the other players, the admirable acting of Mrs. H. Selfe, as Mrs. Varden, Mrs. S. Herrin, Sairy Gamp, Mrs. W. Hoffman, Betsy Prigg, Miss B. Champion, Mizzy, Miss M. McGill, "The Little Doll's Dressmaker," W. J. Pamplin, Tony Weller, and Ed. Yard, Jenny Wren's father, might be mentioned. The doll-like rigidity of Jack Spratt and wife, portrayed by Habbot and Miss B. Gordon, was also worthy of mention.

Some very beautiful dancing was done by a party of little boys and girls under the able direction of Miss McGill. The musical items were also much enjoyed by the audience.

The costuming was in charge of Mrs. George P. McGill, the scenes, Pat Barr, and music, G. Hayden.

SORES SPREAD All Over FACES AND BODIES.

Mrs. Howard Houlette, Wastanau, Sask., writes:—"I wish to tell you of the benefit I have received by using your valuable medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters. My children started to break out on their faces with small white pimples which kept getting larger each day. Pus would form under the scabs and they would come off, and each time the sores would be larger; some were as large as a twenty-five cent piece, and would spread all over their bodies. I was nearly in despair and sent to the village for a bottle of good blood medicine. The druggist sent me a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, which I commenced giving them at once.

In about ten days I saw an improvement and they grew steadily better each day, and in one month the sores had all disappeared.

A short account of a Trip to California in a Ford Flivver By H. F. Pullen

AN EDUCATED PARSEE.

Crossing from Victoria to Seattle I met Wandia, the Parsee lecturer, who has been lecturing throughout Canada on various subjects connected with India. He is an interesting man, well educated and keen on all matters having to do with India or the Orient generally.

"The whole case for India is the objection of the people of that country to being governed by white people and to discrimination against them because of their color," declared Wandia. He said that the people of India were just as well able to manage their own affairs as were the people of any other country. What they wanted was Dominion Home Rule, similar to Canada and Australia. This they claimed as a right. This too they expected to get.

Oral Education.

While admitting it was true that many of the Indians were not able to read and write Wandia maintained that did not mean that they were not educated. They were educated by the hand, going down from father to son and in many other ways orally the learning of the country. They were educated in self-government and took a keen interest in public affairs. While there were many religions in the country there was unity in the matter of the demand for self-government. They did not think it right that a position should be denied to any person because of his color. Because one was brown and the other white was no reason why the one was not as good as the other.

Mr. Wandia went on to discuss the possibility of a Pan Islamic league which might take from India some of her provinces. There was a grave danger that such a league might be attempted, especially since the movement in Egypt had been successful. The Mohammedans were restless but if self-government were given to India this would be headed off.

Dancer From Japan.

The lecturer expressed the opinion that discrimination against Asiatics in Canada and Australia caused a good deal of ill-feeling, especially in India which was a part of the same Empire. He acknowledged that Japan was a danger to the peace of the world and was indeed the Germany of the Orient. Her people were aggressive and they were taught the glories of militarism just as was Germany. He feared there would be another great struggle in which Japan would be implicated.

Reverting again to the case of India, Mr. Wandia said the British had failed in the matter of providing schools for the mass of the people but they had provided higher educational facilities for the few. The graduates of the colleges had proved to be leaders of the movement to secure a full measure of self government for all the people.

Mr. Wandia has been lecturing on Theosophy, the Government of India, the Labor Movement in India and similar subjects. He is a good speaker and his English is excellent.

A. L. Carruthers, provincial government works engineer, returned last night from Francois Lake where he has been for a few days superintending the work of setting up the new ferry at that point which was recently delivered from the local dry dock where it was built.

HOOMES K. LOOKS BACK.

Editor Daily News:
Looking back on the past seven years can you see any improvement in government? Is it not true that all the traditions of the Anglo-Saxon have been thrown aside. The old ideals of individual liberty have once more commenced to rear their heads in the circles of restrictive legislation. Looking back on the prohibition law does it seem absurd that we would ask the police to be honest in their enforcement when the bootlegger is in a position to outbid our price? One-half of our population said with their votes and their mouths that they wanted prohibition and nine-tenths of this half said with their money that they wanted liquor. We now have a system of special privileges or licenses. The architects are licensed. The result is the Booth School scandal to commemorate the glorious death of one of our heroes who fought for liberty. The Sophia disaster, with the greatest number of certified officers ever in a wreck, is before us as a monument to those who served in our navy to prevent verboten being written on our crest. Everywhere, while the "boys" over yonder wrote their names in the history of liberty, we who stayed behind in smug hypocrisy threw liberty in the discard and issued special privileges to those who were too proud to fight and too base to earn. The time has now come when we can and shall demand our old liberties, when once more we can claim and I hope secure equal rights for all; when we shall insist that no more special privileges be granted.

Every Canadian has an equal right to engage in any business, without seeking permission or paying graft. Eat, drink and be merry. Those who wish to deny this right are not good citizens.

THE MONETARY QUESTION.

Editor Daily News: That the collapse of the world's financial structure is the cause of present conditions should be apparent because of the money problems with which its people are confronted. It is the function of a state to issue paper currency as a medium of exchange, or make provision for such, and it is a problem to maintain it on sound principles. A note payable in gold is something substantial, possessing intrinsic value derived from actual work, and be defined and legalized as a monetary unit, and while confidence is necessary it is not the only essential. A note payable in gold is valuable or otherwise only as the promise is and when issued in unlimited amounts may become worthless (unless adequately supported by gold) or retain only a speculative value based on prospects. When a country suspends specie payments its notes in circulation, no longer interchangeable with and for gold, depreciate in value and cannot regain par unless a gold redemption basis is re-established—the value of such changing as the percentage of gold reserves to notes in circulation varies.

Government Statute.

A statute might define a governmental stamped paper as a standard dollar, and invest it with legal tender quality as natural currency but it would require little work to produce millions it would have no value, and the exchange of say a bushel of wheat for that dollar, would be exchanging something having value for something that has not.

Many economists, and financial writers claim that the value and purchasing power of gold has decreased, because prices of commodities are abnormal, and that its value can be determined only by what it can buy—economic fallacies. The method of arriving at the par of exchange by the "purchasing power parity of currencies" is faulty because of the assumption that those who sell commodities have the power to regulate the value of currency. It is true that in many of the European States, the high prices of commodities are due to the character of the paper notes in circulation therein, but where this is the cause prices must rise or fall in unison.

Flimsy Basis.

The value and purchasing power of gold is not measured in terms of commodities, except in a superficial sense—nor is it subject to change by reason of the arbitrary prices placed upon them—neither has any price level been set up as a standard, by which the value and purchasing power of gold can be determined and if it were, gold as a monetary standard would rest on a very flimsy basis.

To illustrate, the silver dollar, also a monetary standard in places, can be used, as it can be measured by gold and the rise and fall of its value can be better observed, than is the case of either gold or paper currency. The value of this dollar not long ago rose to 100 cents (gold) now it is quoted at about fifty. In appearance, weight and fineness it is unchanged, yet it has lost 50 per cent of its value, due to the decreased value of the metal of which it is composed. Lessened use is responsible for this condition. Prices of commodities are effects and not causes, and do not in any way influence its value and purchasing power. It can be taken for granted that unless the value of a measure or standard either increases or decreases its purchasing power does not. This indicates clearly that the stabilized value of a monetary unit is the main requisite, rather than the amount of metal it contains.

Better Standard.

The gold monetary unit is subject to the same law, but is a better standard because its value is less changeable. Its value is affected because of greater efforts required to produce it in quantities sufficient to meet requirements, its increased use in manufacture and the arts, its further need for stabilizing the world's currencies and credits and regulating exchanges. We are often told that gold is simply an instrument of exchange and that its value is fixed. The German mark and Russian ruble are also exchange instruments.

Gold is an asset possessing intrinsic value, equal to or not superior to any form of material wealth. The standard price of an ounce of gold does not fix its value, and if it were doubled, its value would not be affected though the unit would be. Embargoes have been placed on its removal. Currency, except in a few places, cannot be exchanged for it. High costs of production have been applied to gold, as well as to the commodities, its need for supporting currencies is greater than ever, and if it has decreased in value and purchasing power, it has done so in contravention of all known economic laws.

Inflated Currency.

If prices of commodities measured by an inflated currency, are greatly increased (as is the case in many European States) in a corresponding degree are prices of products (not upheld by artificial means) measured by gold, depressed, by reason of its appreciated value. Again, increased production depends upon increased use, and use depends on the buying power of the consumer, which in turn depends on sufficient circulation of sound money, which is possible only when adequately supported by gold. When these conditions are wanting demoralized markets is the result.

"When" says the Wall Street Journal, "the world has more gold than it needs to back its currency and regulate exchanges industrial development booms; when the reverse is the case industrial development (other than gold production) is restricted" and present conditions follow as a consequence. Hence when the world's gold production is greatly increased as was the case for many years previous to 1908 great industrial expansion resulted, followed by industrial and financial depression, and the so-called cycles of good and bad times can be attributed to the fluctuating value of gold and its effects, due to increase or lessened production, more than to any other cause.

The remedy in short, is the restoration of the monetary unit to a normal and an approximately fixed value, so as to permit gold to flow through its natural channels instead of being held under guard as it is today. The standards of weights, measurements, etc., are stationary, otherwise endless trouble would ensue, and it is equally imperative that the standard of value be approximately stabilized. This can be done by establishing its standard price at or near $25 per ounce for the purpose of maintaining the present proportionate values of the different monetary units. It would require international sanction, however. This would slightly reduce the metal content of the unit, thereby largely restoring its value to normal which could be approximately fixed by control of production and use, the British Empire and the United States having this power.

Soundness of Plan.

The soundness of this plan can be fully demonstrated, and defended on the ground that there is no assurance that production can meet the present emergency, owing to the world's overwhelming indebtedness, as the surplus gold of the U. S. could be lost in European treasuries. Gold is not the only factor in the present situation, but if it is not adequately dealt with the world will continue to suffer and sooner or later this country must realize it is part of that world and the real root of the evil as well as the key to permanent betterment, can be summed up and expressed in one word, and that word is "gold." D. J. SULLIVAN. Anyox.

MRS. DOUGHTY TO BE BURIED AT MASSETT, Q. C. I.

In connection with the drowning of Mr. and Mrs. George Doughty of North Island, a wire was received this morning by Chief Minty, provincial police chief, from Constable Ponder at Massett to the effect that he had arrived there after a rough passage at 4.30 p.m. yesterday. He stated that he had been unable to locate the son of the victims of the tragedy and that arrangements would have to be made locally for the burial of Mrs. Doughty whose body was recovered on the beach at Graham Island.

"Oh! My Back"

HOUSE cleaning is bad enough at any time. There is so much dust and dirt and turmoil.

But it is usually the exposure to cold drafts and the stretching and straining that bring calamitous results.

The kidneys are extremely sensitive to currents of cold air, and you are very likely to find this out suddenly when stretching or straining the muscles of the back.

Suddenly the pain seizes you, and there is of necessity a lull in the house-cleaning activities for a time.

There is nothing like Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney troubles of any kind.

Not only on account of their direct action on the kidneys, but also because they arouse the activity of the liver and bowels as well, and thereby relieve the kidneys of much of their work.

Another thing about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, you do not have to wait long for results. In a day or two you will obtain great relief, and a few weeks' treatment will usually overcome complicated derangements of the kidneys which have defied ordinary kidney medicines.

Mrs. Wm. H. Comeau, Plympton, N.S., writes: "I had been suffering from lame back, and had taken medicine for some time, but nothing helped me until I started to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. These pills completely relieved me in a few weeks, and I have never been bothered with lame back since."

PROTESTS TREATMENT BY TURK SOLDIERS OF THE CHRISTIANS

ADANA, TURKEY, May 2.—Hamid Bey, who has been governor of Cilicia, the Southern Turkish province, since its evacuation by the French troops, has just resigned his post as a protest against the manner in which the soldiers of Kemal Pasha have treated the Christian population.

It has been charged that officers of the Turkish Nationalist army and Turks who have no respect for law have been roaming the cities and towns of Cilicia molesting women and children and committing various crimes.

They are alleged to have extorted loans from the frightened Christians without intention of ever repaying them.

When Governor Hamid protested, Kemal Pasha is reported to have replied only: "This is war."

Before leaving Adana, Hamid Bey declared in an interview that he was disgusted with the attitude and behavior of the military authorities who, he said, considered the promises given to France to protect the Armenians as a scrap of paper. After recalling the heavy sacrifices of the Turkish territory as a consequence of the war, he added:

To Win Goodwill

"We Turks must first learn to respect the rights of minorities if we are to win the goodwill of nations. France and England would never be willing to restore to us Asia Minor unless we prove to them our capacity for good and just government."

Leading Armenians here assert that, despite signed pledges and proclamations, Kemal Pasha ordered that all Greek Christians and Armenians be dismissed from all administrative posts. This threw hundreds of Christians out of employment and left their families without means of support, so that they must look to charity for subsistence.

Armenians charged also that, in the last few months, thousands of Turks have invaded Cilicia and helped themselves to any vacant or unprotected property belonging to Christians without compensation.

WERE MARRIED IN CLOUDS OVER CITY OF NEW YORK

NEW YORK, May 3.—A nuptial kiss planted 5,000 feet in the clouds above Times square, was broadcasted from the cockpit of a speeding airplane to the ears of thousands of radio fans, when Miss Sarah Gokelair and Albert P. Schaske became bride and groom. Lieut. Belvin W. Maynard, the "flying parson," performed the ceremony. Lieut. Bert Avosta piloted the party in a Fokker half-moon biplane, and at the appropriate moment affixed his signature to the marriage document, then turned his back on the bridal kiss. Each detail of the ceremony, except the blush, was transmitted to radio fans by apparatus on the plane.

SURPRISE PARTY IN HONOR BIRTHDAY OF MRS. SAM HOGAN

A very enjoyable evening was spent last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hogan, Ninth Avenue East, when a number of friends joined in a surprise visit, the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Hogan. Games and dancing were enjoyed and shortly before midnight refreshments were served. In the course of the evening, Mr. Morley, on behalf of the guests, presented Mrs. Hogan with a beautiful reading lamp. It was in the early hours of the morning before the happy gathering dispersed.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. Scadden, Mr. and Mrs. C. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wick, Mrs. R. McCarthy, Mrs. Margaret Macdonald, Mrs. E. Lawler, Mr. C. Hills, Mrs. F. Grimble, Miss E. Walker, Miss D. Richards, Miss Marie Michaloff, Miss Aleta Johnson, Miss Elsie Johnson, Tom Dybhavn, Mr. Morley, George Hills and Dan Larsen.

RARE INSTANCE OF DISPLACEMENT OF WOMAN'S HEART

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., May 3.—A rare instance of anatomical displacement was disclosed by an X-ray photograph here recently which showed the heart of Mrs. D. R. Latreille, of this city, on the opposite side to that where normal people keep the seat of their affections. While this is a rare thing, local physicians state that occasionally the heart is displaced by some affection of the lungs and cases have been known in which the heart was situated on the right side and the appendix on the left in persons who seemed otherwise quite normal.

Mrs. Latreille states she has never felt the slightest inconvenience from her abnormal condition, and though she has a family of children she does not think that any of them have inherited the peculiarity. Mrs. Latreille brought a strong protest from one of her school-age children not long ago when she placed her hand upon her right side when complaining of a heart-pain. "Why, mother," exclaimed the child, "you ought to be old enough to know where your heart is." Later, however, the X-ray in a local hospital revealed that mother was quite correct.

When he feels the urge to go fishing, the boy knows it is spring. So long as that thought arises in the mind of man so long does he retain the vitality of youth. The man who no longer feels a yearning to start for the stream should consult the family physician and put his business affairs in order.

Fishing is more than a sport; it is a season of philosophic reflection. The successful angler has to be philosophical. Of course a fisherman wants to catch fish but one endowed with the real spirit will find pleasure in having gone fishing even though he comes home with the creel empty. However, he will not be so happy as he would be were it full.

There is an indescribable thrill in the feel of the strike when the fish takes hold as if he means business. The period which elapses between the first consciousness that something is doing and the time the fish is landed safely is one of intense joyous life. It is a mixture of hope and fear, hope for the successful outcome and fear of failure. It is true that a game fish at the end of the line can make more fuss than its size after it is out of the water would seem to warrant. That is the reason "the biggest ones get away."

Several thousand light harness horses located at several hundred half mile race tracks from Sydney in Cape Breton to Vancouver in British Columbia are now being trained and fitted for the racing campaign of 1922 throughout Canada.

The last of the sales of the past winter and spring have been held, the stables are complete and entries have already closed for many of the stakes and early closing events. All that remains is for the trainers to "separate the chaff from the wheat" in their strings and get those which look as if they will prove profitable racing material ready for the campaign.

RUBY CHARTERED BY HUDSON'S BAY

Three Ships to Be Sent Fur Trading to Far North This Season. VICTORIA, May 1.—Chartered to make another trading voyage to Siberia, in the service of the Hudson's Bay Company, the Seal, the power schooner Ruby is being conditioned at Seattle and will be ready to proceed to Vancouver in a few days.

The Hudson's Bay Company is resuming extensive operations in the Siberian and Arctic territories, and the Ruby, together with the steamship Baychimo, now at Esquimalt, recently brought to the Pacific from Archangel, North Russia, will be equipped for trading voyages to the former country. The auxiliary schooner Lady Kindersley is being outfitted at Vancouver for a similar trading voyage to Far Northern Alaskan and Canadian points.

At Vancouver the Hudson's Bay Company has assembled over $250,000 worth of supplies for the Siberian expeditions, and the Ruby and the Baychimo are to start loading some time next week. The Ruby is owned by the Kuskokwim River Transportation & Trading Company, of Seattle, and is a craft of 350 tons.

METHODIST DEBT PAID

Interesting Announcement Made at Annual Board Meeting Last Night.

HACKER ACCEPTS INVITATION TO REMAIN

That the local Methodist church is entirely free of debt is the interesting announcement that was made at the annual meeting of the official board which took place last night in church parlors. The liability of $2,000 of the local congregation has been covered by revenue received last year and the remaining debt of $7,000 has been taken over by the Mission and thus bringing the church from under the meeting. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one and nearly every member was present.

The treasurer's report was gratifying, over $5,300 having been raised during the past year. The Ways and Means committee had handed in over $10,000, thus making possible the clearing of the church debt. A vote of thanks was tendered to the committee and also one to W. F. Kergin for his liberal contribution.

The Ladies' Aid Society raised nearly $900, which has been used for the church and parsonage work. The board expressed appreciation of the work of the Ladies' Aid. Six hundred dollars had been raised for missions, charities and similar funds, half of this not having come from the women's Missionary Society. The balance of the revenue obtained from the regular services, choir concerts and banquets and was expended on the regular church work and the enlarging of the parsonage.

Sunday School Work.

The Sunday School, under the supervision of Frank Derry, reported an increase in attendance over last year of nearly 50 per cent. Twenty-one weddings during the year testified to the fact that the old bow and arrow method is still leading an active life. In motion of E. V. Ling, seconded by Dr. W. T. Kergin, the pastor, Rev. G. G. Derry, was heartily endorsed, including an appreciation of and Mrs. Hacker's work among the young people. The resolution was carried unanimously. Mr. Hacker was invited to return for another year and, accepting the invitation, simply thanked the board members for their support saying that unity and enthusiasm had really helped him. A short vacation has been arranged for the following his trip south.

A Busy Week.

The present week will be a busy one in the church. The annual Sunday School meeting will be held tonight while on Friday night the Sunday School holds an indoor picnic when added to a children's concert, the May Queen will be crowned and the Trail Rangers, who have won medals, will be presented with their jewelry.

On Sunday night a special Thanksgiving service will be held to celebrate the event of the church being free of debt.

The New Board.

The following board was elected for the ensuing year: Frank Derry, Dr. W. T. Kergin, E. V. Ling, H. Higgins, A. J. Lancaster, W. Sherman, A. J. Mallett, W. J. Whalen, William Cornish, J. Edwards, M. T. Lee, F. Dibb, J. Wostenholme, T. Wilding, Mrs. W. H. Kergin, Mrs. W. T. Kergin, Mrs. F. Mallett, Mrs. W. J. Whalen, Mrs. G. G. Hacker, Mrs. E. V. Ling, Miss Frances Hudson and Miss E. M. Earle.

Happiness reigns supreme in the purser's office of the Prince George, the genial purser in the person of J. A. Crawford being in very jubilant humor. Rumor has it that the reason for the joy is the fact that the total maximum guesses on the last football coupon were all correct and great hopes are anticipated for something doing in the big cash prize line.

ANOTHER PAIR SIAMESE TWINS

Violet and Daisy Hilton, of San Antonio, Texas, are joined in Same Manner as Blazeks Were

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 3.—Living here are the successors of Rosa and Josefa Blazek, world-famed Siamese twins, who died recently at Chicago. They are Violet and Daisy Hilton, 16, and attractive. Violet and Daisy are "Siamese Twins"—their bodies are joined together at the base of the spine—just like Rosa and Josefa, just like Eng and Chang, original Siamese Twins whom Barnum made famous in the last century. Save for the abnormal joining of their bodies, Violet and Daisy are just like two ordinary 16-year-old girls.

And save for the fact that one must go wherever the other goes, they enjoy the same pastimes and diversions any girls of 16 would enjoy.

Fond of Games

They're fond of cards, checkers and dominos. But both don't always play the same game at the same time.

The other night Daisy was engaged in beating her uncle at dominos while Violet, brows puckered, was trying to disentangle herself from the intricacies of a high bid in bridge.

Both girls like to read. But while one reads Oliver Twist, the other may be thrilled by a movie serial.

Both are fond of the movies—and of the same kind of movies, for both must always attend the same shows. They prefer serial pictures of wild adventure to the humdrum society romance.

What is of more practical importance to this army of spinsters is the fact that since the war, and despite the shortage of men, war widows have had no trouble in marrying again. Another cause of grievance to girls unwed is the number of widowers who marry widows. Some writers here declare widowers who are willing to marry again are preferred as husbands to harum-scarum bachelors who have devoted their lives to administering to their own vanities.

The children romp and play about the grounds of their winter home here just as any children. They move about with marvellous rapidity and ease. Daisy and Violet have been educated by private tutors. Their parents refused to send them to public school because of the comment their joined condition might call forth. Today are the oldest known such twins in existence. Many such twins are born but few live beyond babyhood. Rosa and Josefa Blazek were well over 40 when they died. Eng and Chang were 63.

ALICE ARM

C. P. Riel left for Prince Rupert last week. Mrs. E. E. McGoy, of the Alice Arm Hotel, left last Wednesday on a business trip to Vancouver.

Mrs. E. Elge, of the Esperanza mine, left on Wednesday last for Seattle to visit her sister who is sick.

John Lulich returned home recently from Smith Island. He has been in ill health for some time and will take a rest.

Leish McQuarrie was a south bound passenger on Thursday last.

George Young has returned from Stewart where he has been visiting in connection with the Bear River bridge and government road and trail work.

J. Wheatley, who has been sick for the past week, was taken to the Anyox hospital on the Awake last Friday. It is believed he is suffering from pneumonia.

Pete Anderson arrived on Sunday from the Columbia group and is well pleased with the work done on the property during the winter.

Constable D. S. Cameron has received notice of his appointment as local Fire Marshal under the provisions of the new Fire Marshal's Act.

High grade ore is still being mined and sacked at the Esperanza mine. About three tons of ore is now on the railway cars, but no more will be brought down until the trail is repaired. Work on the upper workings has been suspended on account of the quantity of water coming in, but will be resumed as soon as all the snow melts on the surface. The Esperanza shipped 90 tons of ore to the smelter about five weeks ago. It is the intention of the management to ship as much ore as possible during the summer.

The annual general meeting of the Alice Arm Tennis Club was held on Saturday last. A. D. York was re-elected president; Mrs. A. Falconer, vice-president and Mrs. G. Young, secretary-treasurer.

PHANTOM LOVERS WOOD BY MAIDS

English Damsels Will Not Admit Sentence to Spinsterhood Despite Scarcity of Men.

LONDON, May 3.—Although there are 2,000,000 more women than men in Great Britain, no damsel with any pretension to comeliness is willing to admit that she is sentenced to a life of spinsterhood. Nevertheless there are hosts of those who think they have marital chances who are doomed to disappointment because of the scarcity of men.

One of the strange psychological effects of this lack of swains is the mental creation of the "phantom lover." According to Dr. Helen Boyle, a psychologist, there are many maidens who relieve the monotony of their lives by idealizing for themselves an imaginary lover, the sort of hero they would like to meet and marry. These lassies not only write letters to their phantomlike Romeo but key their minds up to a pitch where they write soul-stirring epistles to themselves from their shadowy sweethearts. No Trouble for Widows. What is of more practical importance to this army of spinsters is the fact that since the war, and despite the shortage of men, war widows have had no trouble in marrying again. Another cause of grievance to girls unwed is the number of widowers who marry widows. Some writers here declare widowers who are willing to marry again are preferred as husbands to harum-scarum bachelors who have devoted their lives to administering to their own vanities.

SPRING SUNSHINE DREADED IN RUSSIA

MOSCOW, May 2.—The spring sunshine that brings warmth and wild flowers and promises of harvest to Central and South Russia after months of winter snows is dreaded this year as the harbinger of pestilence.

The winter cold, though encouraging typhus and increasing the suffering of the half-clad famine victims of the Volga districts, nevertheless has acted also as a germicide. The bodies of the thousands of famine dead froze stiff where they lay and then were taken to shallow graves and handled with little danger of contagion except from typhus, which is spread by a particular type of louse. The workers had no fear of cholera, for the cold rendered any microbes of that disease almost harmless.

The spring sun, however, will change all this. Both the Bolshevik government and the American relief administration physicians and sanitarians who are active in the famine regions realize the danger that warm weather will bring. They are taking all the steps that their limited facilities accord to guard the people against an epidemic of cholera in the spring.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE.

A deaf man was being married and the clergyman asked the usual question: "Do you take this woman for your lawful wife?" "Oh?" said the deaf man. "Do you take this woman for your lawful wife?" This time a bit louder. The groom seemed to get angry. "Oh, I don't know," he said. "She ain't so awful. I've seen wuss than her that didn't have as much money."

FRESH ROASTED COFFEE FRESH ROASTED

The value of coffee as a beverage lies primarily in its strength and flavor. Green coffee will keep indefinitely, but such is not the case after it has been roasted. Roasting brings out the flavor and aroma. Coffee becomes stale because of loss of these aromatic principles. We are roasting and packing for current requirements only, realizing that, essentially, coffee must be fresh roasted to prove perfectly satisfactory.
