British Outlook Appears very Hopeful

WAR IN IRELAND STILL ON--CHINESE LEADER ASSASSINATED

Will Johnson, of Hull, England, Says that old Country is Recovering

"In Great Britain there is a feeling of optimism and in the autumn I expect business will go forward and develop and the country will come into its own again" declared Rotarian Will Johnson, of Hull, England, in an address to the local Rotary Club today.

"Britain has some nasty bills to pay," he declared, "but her budget has been drawn so that income exceeds expenditure and there is every reason to look forward and hope for success."

RUSSIANS AT BIG CONFERENCE

Conciliatory Attitude on Part of French—Litvinoff Talked Two Hours.

THE HAGUE, June 29.—The Russian and French delegations are believed to be approaching the discussion of the Russian financial problem in a conciliatory attitude. Litvinoff talked with the representatives of eleven powers for two hours and it was agreed that there should be a mutual exchange of facts and figures.

LOWER FREIGHT RATES COMING

May Take Effect on Saturday Unless Commission Otherwise Orders.

OTTAWA, June 29.—The coming into effect on July 7 of the Crow's Nest rates on wheat and flour will be preceded, it is expected, by a general order on freight rates other than wheat and flour by the Railway Commission. The crux of the matter lies in the fact that the heavy decrease in freight rates generally is due to come into effect Saturday unless the railway commission issues an order.

HIGHER FINE FOR SETTING FIRE TO FORESTS OF PROVINCE

TRAIL, B. C., June 29.—Convicted of contravention of the Forests Act of British Columbia in setting a fire without a permit, John Altman was yesterday fined $25 and costs in the police court. This is a higher fine than has been hitherto imposed for this offense and is an indication of the Forestry department to punish all offenders who cause destruction to the forests.

MONARCHIST PLOT EVIDENCE SHOWS

Three of Those Charged with Murder of Rathenau Members of Organization.

BERLIN, June 29.—Further evidence pointing to the fact that the murder of Dr. Rathenau was part of a monarchist plot has been brought to light by the evidence that three of the men arrested and charged with the murder were members of a monarchist organization.

FOREST FIRES

VICTORIA, June 29.—Many new forest fires are reported, especially on the mainland of British Columbia. The dry weather makes the task of the fire fighters almost hopeless. The 231 new fires reported last week brings the total for the season to 747.

Prince Rupert has had 108, Prince George 96 and Cariboo, 55.

FISH RUN BETTER THAN LAST YEAR

Sockeye Better Than Last Year at Naas River, Say Reports.

Reports made by salmon fishermen reaching the city during the past few days indicate that so far this season the sockeye salmon are running in better quantities per boat on the Naas River than on the Skeena. The Skeena run, however, has been mounting this week and boats there will soon be doing much better, it is expected.

Fishermen from the Naas are responsible for the statement that so far this year there has been more salmon, springs and sockeye, packed by the canneries there than there was up to the end of July last year. A good run is evident and 25 to 30 fish per boat are now being taken.

On the Skeena last week the average was only two or three sockeyes to a boat but this week the figure is up to 12 and 15 and a further increase to 40 or 50 during the next fortnight or so is looked for. If the fine weather continues it may go up to as high as 200 in a month's time. If this year is to see a big pack it will be necessary for there to be a big increase between now and July 15. Last year was a lean year and the highest average was 90 to a boat.

A. Mackie, acting inspector of fisheries for District No. 2 left last night for the Naas River on the Marfish and is expected back by the end of the week. Joe Hutchinson, who is on the Skeena, will return tonight.

FISHERIES COMMISSION

Will Likely Be Appointed Soon in Time for Tour During August.

OTTAWA, June 29.—The appointment of a commission to investigate the B. C. fisheries situation and the request of the canners for an embargo against export of raw fish will probably be made during the next week or so in time for a tour of the fisheries in August. The commission will likely consist of three Eastern members of parliament and three or four Western members under the chairmanship of Wm. Duff, member for Lunenburg, who is the chairman of the standing committee.

GRAND LODGE WORK KNIGHTS PYTHIAS

Special Meeting of Skeena Lodge Last Night—Grand Lodge Rank is Conferred on Two Officers.

There was a special meeting last night of Skeena Lodge No. 55, Knights of Pythias, to meet R. J. Gardner of Grand Forks, grand chancellor of the order for British Columbia. There was a good attendance and special instruction in the work was given by Mr. Gardner as well as the conferring of Grand Lodge rank on M. G. Keays, formerly chancellor commander of an Alberta lodge and now a member of Skeena Lodge, and H. M. Blake, who was chancellor commander of the local lodge last term. Skeena Lodge is the first lodge Grand Chancellor Gardner has visited in the province since his elevation to the post.

TRAITOR IS VICTIM OF ASSASSIN

HINDU LEADER IS ARRESTED BY POLICE

AMRITZAR, India, June 29.—Gurdit Singh, a Hindu merchant, who in 1914 was prevented from landing from the steamer Komagata Maru at Vancouver surrendered to the police today after eluding them for seven years. He will be tried on a charge of sedition, principally for the part he played in disorders in Calcutta in October, 1914.

LOCAL FISH PEOPLE WANT REDUCTIONS IN THE FREIGHT RATES

The local branch of the Canadian Fisheries Association has been very active during the past week in connection with freight rates reduction representations on basic commodities. The activities were concerned in having fish included in the list of reductions. Wires have been sent to the local member at Ottawa but no replies have yet been received.

VETERANS AND THE ORIENTAL QUESTION

EDMONTON, June 29.—A motion passed by the Sons of England regarding the exclusion of undesirable Asiatics and passed on to the G.W.V.A. for endorsement was tabled by the G.W.V.A. at their meeting here. In this reference was made to the impossibility of assimilating the various peoples from Asia, stating that the white races could not compete with the yellow in the labor market, due to their standard of living, and that it was in the best interests of Canada to close her doors to this class of immigrants.

Comrade Cohen objected to the motion, pointing out that the Chinese had been our allies during the war, and that Japanese soldiers who had fought in Canadian battalions were also members of the G.W.V.A.

Comrade Wilson moved an amendment pointing out that this matter had already been dealt with by the G.W.V.A. Port Arthur convention. The motion carried, however, Mr. Wilson's amendment being declared lost.

ESCAPED FROM BANDITS MEXICO CITY, June 29.—Bruce Bielaski, an American who was captured by Mexican bandits, escaped from them without paying the ransom demanded.

FIGHTING IN OLD IRELAND

Republicans and Free Staters Still Battle Around Dublin

DUBLIN, June 29.—The battle between Republicans and the forces of the Irish Free State continued all night and fighting was proceeding vigorously at eight this morning. The insurgents were then still in possession of the Four Courts Building.

The list of casualties as a result of the fighting is not yet available but it is estimated to show at least 50 killed or wounded.

LONDON, June 29.—Fresh terms were offered the insurgents in the Dublin Four Courts today says a despatch to the Evening News but they refused to surrender and after two hours delay firing resumed. The early evacuation of the stronghold is expected, however, for water and light has been cut off.

The total death list up to this afternoon is 19. Business houses and banks in Dublin are closing.

NIGHT FLYING FROM ENGLAND

Planes Leave at Ten O'Clock and Reach Paris at Midnight.

LONDON, June 29.—Night flying between England and France, has been inaugurated here and it is expected to add immensely to the commercial value of aerial communication. It saves time, and makes possible remarkable train and steamship connections which were before impossible.

The first plane to travel between London and Paris at night left the London air station at 10 o'clock and landed at the Paris aerodrome soon after midnight. It contained Brigadier-General W. S. Brancker, Director of Civil Aviation; Colonel L. F. Blandy, Controller of Air Communications, a navigator, pilot two wireless operators and a mechanic.

The air station at Croydon, outside London, was a blaze of searchlights, colored electric globes, and powerful incandescent arc lamps. The illuminated cabin of the machine and the red, white and green navigating lights made it an object of rare beauty as it rose in the darkness and headed for the coast.

On arriving in Paris General Brancker said: "I dined comfortably at a London hotel, motored down to Croydon, got into the machine, and am here at one in the morning after a very leisurely flight. I am ready to go to bed in Paris or am prepared to go on to Marseilles to make a ship connection there."

This company in the near future intends to bring in a 50 ton mill and run it by water power from Maroon Creek.

MUSIC EXAMINATIONS

Pupils of Mrs. W. E. Williams and Miss Way Pass Toronto Conservatory Tests.

Mrs. W. E. Williams has been notified that her daughter Enid passed the primary examination of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. Last year she took the introductory course and skipped the elementary.

Claire passed the elementary examination this year.

These little girls have been instructed by their mother.

Miss Way has received word that two of her pupils have passed the examination. Clifford Cameron passed the primary test and Audrey Parkin took the elementary.

Little Audrey Parkin, who is but six years of age, is the youngest pupil taking the examination in British Columbia. The fact that she passed the examination is an indication that pupils may take up musical studies at a very early age.

Mr. Manson promised sympathetic consideration.

Senate Proved Obstructionist Body.

Since the article dealing with the Senate was written yesterday word arrived by wire that the second chamber had finally refused to pass the amendment asked by British Columbia in regard to the liquor administration. Here again the Senate has shown it is simply an obstructionist body and it has never been anything else. It does not initiate legislation. Its members are not alive. They simply have given up the fight and are slowly dying. Why do we continue to tolerate a position under which the dying are preventing legislation for the living?

Methodists And Women In Pulpits.

The despatches yesterday brought word that the Methodists had voted against a proposal to admit women to the ministry of the Church. While that is correct it does not mean that the Methodists as a body are opposed to women undertaking the work. It simply means that the present time is not propitious for the inauguration of such a radical change. Owing to post-war conditions it is thought inadvisable to make the change just now, but it is explained by Methodists, that the Church is fully in sympathy with the movement and there is no doubt the change will be brought about within a few years.

Longer Time For Tourists Here.

The Canadian National Railways have made arrangements for the passengers northbound to spend a reasonable time in this city. Now there are complaints being made that passengers on the C.P.R. Skagway boats do not give passengers an opportunity to spend a few hours here. According to the complaints made to the Board of Trade the passengers are sometimes told that the boat will sail just as soon as the purser returns, and that being an unknown factor, the passengers do not take risks of losing their boat.

While it is not expected that the boats will stay here half a day, three or four hours would seem to be a reasonable time for so important a point as Prince Rupert. Many of the passengers like a walk or drive after being aboard the vessel for two days and this they can obtain in the city. They also like to make small purchases. If the C.P.R. officials can manage to increase the time given passengers here, they will please their passengers and will also do Prince Rupert a service. As we all give a good deal of business to the big railway corporation it is to be expected they will be willing to reciprocate to this small extent.

Americans Are Very Self Centred.

Chief Justice Taft, now that he is out of politics, is able to say things which he could not have said otherwise. He told the people of Europe that the Americans had no world vision but were circumscribed in their sympathies by the price of wheat and other commodities. Doubtless the chief justice intended the address as a rebuke to his own countrymen. He knew that it would be cabled to this continent and widely published.

Are Canadians Also Circumscribed?

But what about Canadians? Are we as a people also restricted in our vision and unable to see beyond the price of commodities and petty affairs of our immediate neighborhood? If we are, it is time we shook ourselves together and took steps to obtain the larger outlook on life. We are simply ants in the big hill. We are members of a small world in a restricted universe. Beyond all things we have been able to see with powerful telescopes there are yet wonderful things we have not been able to see on account of distance. The world vision is not much after all.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

June 29, 1912.
The cups and prizes for the Dominion Day sports on view in the windows of the business houses are attracting the attention of crowds and Vancouver visitors congratulate Prince Rupert on the spirit shown in sport.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gamble and Mr. and Mrs. George Little (Terrace) arrived today from the south on the Prince Rupert after having been wedded below. The steamer was a real honeymoon ship and when she moored the couples were showered with rice and there was a regular revel of rejoicing at the waterfront.

British opinion is that the trend of traffic to the Pacific Ocean is everywhere converging to Prince Rupert as the greatest natural coal and iron trade centre of Western Canada.

OCEAN FALLS DAM
Contract For Construction Let to Robertson and Rendle at Cost of $250,000

OCEAN FALLS, June 26.—Robertson and Rendle, of Vancouver, were the successful tenderers for the contract to raise the great retaining dam of the Pacific Mills plant at Link Lake here. The price is approximately $250,000 and work will be commenced at once. With equipment which will be installed after completion of the present contract, the dam will cost the paper company $450,000.

The Robertson & Rendle contract is to increase the height of the present dam by fifteen feet, thus raising the lake a corresponding height. It will necessitate the use of about 20,000 yards of concrete, some of it reinforced steel. At present the dam is 650 feet long, with an average height of fifty feet. It will be raised to sixty-five feet, with thirty five feet thickness at the base and ten feet at the top. A tremendous pressure of water will be withstood, as the lake is fifteen miles long.

SOCKEYES RUNNING

Rivers Inlet Reports 16 Fish to Boat; Run Later Than on Skeena

R. G. Johnston, manager of Inverness Cannery, returned yesterday from a visit to Beaver Cannery on Rivers Inlet, where he reports the sockeye fishing has opened well. All the canneries on the Inlet are packing this season and so far the catches have been fair for this time as the run is later at Rivers Inlet than on the Skeena. The boats are bringing in an average of sixteen fish per boat which is considered to auger well for a most successful season on the Inlet.

CAPT. BASSI TALKS FERRY

States Objections to Proposed Ketchikan Scheme For Handling Fish

Captain J. Bassi, of the halibut boat Helgeland, arrived in Ketchikan from Prince Rupert last week where he disposed of his catch of 70,000 pounds of halibut, says the Ketchikan Daily News of recent date. Captain Bassi is the commander of the halibut boat Alten, but took Louis Holmes place on the Helgeland, on account of Holmes meeting with an accident. Bassi is leaving for Seattle next Saturday and intends having a Diesel engine installed in the Helgeland. The captain says this is necessary, as at the present low price of halibut, it is hardly possible to operate considering the high price of oil and provisions.

Sold in Rupert
The captain said there were five large halibut boats in Ketchikan on Tuesday, as well as a number of small ones. They had all sold their catch at Prince Rupert on Monday, and left the same night for Ketchikan. They all cashed their checks here and made their settlements and bought their provisions and supplies for another trip to the sea fisheries.

Now, said the captain, if the proposed ferry was running between here and Prince Rupert, it would mean the fishermen would have had to sell their catch at this market. Why should they unload here and transfer the fish to cars on the ferry, which would delay the fishermen one or two days, and make the fish that much older—they are old enough at the present time, from five to ten days in the boat, and additional time added to this to get the fish on the Eastern markets, would mean the fish would be about 15 days old, which is considered all that fish can stand and still be eatable.

Six Trains a Week
The captain said that the fishermen figure on leaving the fish grounds to reach Prince Rupert in time to place the fish on the market at 9:30 in the morning, which gives the buyers time to purchase and pack their cars ready for the train leaving Prince Rupert for the east at 7:15 p.m. same day. The fishermen leaving the grounds cannot be exact on the time they reach Prince Rupert, but as there are six trains a week leaving that city for the east, if they miss one market day, they can catch the trains the day after.

But, said Captain Bassi, if the fishermen should happen to miss the proposed ferry from Ketchikan to Prince Rupert, which would be supposed to leave this city twice a week, it would mean a delay of two or three days before the fish could be landed at Prince Rupert. The captain says he wonders if it has been figured out what the cost of operating the ferry would be, and also what assurance have the fishermen that the buyers will purchase the fish upon arrival at Ketchikan, if a storm should be blowing across Dixon's entrance, making it impossible for the ferry to cross.

More Expense
The fishermen can always make the run to Prince Rupert with their well built halibut boats in any kind of weather, maybe being delayed only a few hours.

Captain Bassi says that it looks as though the people who are behind this proposed ferry want to put more expense on the fishermen, who are already staggering under a heavy burden. What could the city, as a whole, gain, said Captain Bassi. At present the fishermen, after disposing of their catch at Prince Rupert, as stated before, come to Ketchikan and buy all their provisions. What the fishermen want to know is "What more do the buyers want than this?"

Become British
Captain Bassi said further that if the embargo bill becomes law all the American fishermen will have to do is to go to Canada and declare his intentions of becoming a British subject, and he will be able to register his boat as a British bottom, free of charge.

exclusive club in the world, has just elected eight members, a majority of whom are peers.

To achieve membership in the Royal Yacht Squadron is equivalent to obtaining a certificate of social position far more widely recognized than a patent of nobility. Wealth alone, as some very rich men have discovered will not suffice to secure admission to what some detractors have termed the last stronghold of "snobocracy" in England.

Tradesmen, however philanthropic or patriotic are barred. Sir Thomas Lipton has issued several challenges for the America cup, and no man in the country has done anything like as much to encourage yacht building and designing as he has. But because he is a tradesman, it is said, he has never been elected a member of the Royal Yacht Squadron. King Edward, though a yachtman himself and the most popular of monarchs, discovered that even his influence was not strong enough to procure the election of a friend in the Royal Yacht Squadron.

Nervous breakdown Couldn't Sleep Nights.

To those on the verge of a nervous breakdown the following symptoms present themselves: nervous headaches, a feeling of depression, fitful, disturbed, restless and unrefreshing sleep, often troubled with frightful dreams, avoidance of crowded places, dread of being alone, horror of society, etc.

When the nerves become affected in this way the heart generally becomes affected, too, and on the first signs of any weakness of the heart or nerves, flagging energy or physical breakdown do not wait until your case becomes hopeless, but get a remedy that will at once quieten the nerves, strengthen the heart and build up the entire system.

This you will find in MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS. Mrs. M. Damgard, Young's Cove Road, N. B., writes: "I was bothered very much with my heart and nerves; had nervous headaches and dizziness, could not sleep at nights, and my appetite was all gone. I was on a nervous breakdown when a neighbor told me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. This I did and before I had the second box used I was better and would advise anyone who has nerve trouble to take them."

ENJOYMENT OF LIFE IS GREATEST THING SAYS TORONTO DOCTOR

WINNIPEG, June 29. — "Life consists from the eyes up," declared Dr. T. C. Routley, of Toronto, assistant general secretary of the Canadian Medical Association, when addressing the Rotary Club at its luncheon at the Fort Garry Hotel, on the subject of "Health, the Greatest National Asset."

In developing this particular line of thought the doctor said the main outlook on life was enjoyment of life; in fact, the whole of life consisted of the state of mind. If a man enjoyed good health for the natural span of years he could enjoy all the commodities with which Providence had provided him for his pleasure and comfort.

Potential Assets
Canadians, he said, had boasted of their potential assets: in the shape of agriculture, timber, fisheries and minerals. "Wheat was an asset because man could consume it; timber was an asset because man could use it in building homes; fish was food, and minerals meant railroads for man's transportation. All these presented themselves as great national assets helping to make up the lives of all, but upon them all must be paramountly superimposed the virtue, healthy individual. The only way to prove this was by taking the antithesis. If a person had poor health, what enjoyment could he get out of food, out of transportation, out of beautiful buildings

TRANSPORTATION CHARLOTTE IDS.

J. L. Barge Writes Letter on Conditions to Local Business House.

The following letter dealing with transportation conditions on the Queen Charlotte Islands was received this week by a local business house from J. L. Barge, of Queen Charlotte City, with the request that it be published in the Daily News:

"In reference to my last shipment of fowls, I would like to say these birds were prepared and crated early on the morning of June 6 and the boat is liable to be in at 4 or 5 a.m. From my residence there is no wagon road and we use a very rocky beach—so that I either have to use a boat or wheel the crates on a barrow more than a mile. The birds were taken down about 10 a.m. and at 6 p.m. the boat arrives. After discharging freight I am told it is staying in the inlet until Thursday noon so I must take the fowls home again—that it was impossible to do that night so I removed them early next morning and I am watering and feeding them in the meantime. Then instead of noon on Thursday the steamer insistently whistles for my fowls at 5 a.m. and then I have to hustle to recreate on the fattening coops (no chance being given to feed and water that morning) and stagger over an eighth of a mile of mud flat with them. I am informed the boat makes several extra calls before going to Prince Rupert—Wales canyons on the Skeena, etc., further delaying delivery of the live stock. It is scarcely surprising that there should be so extraordinary a shrinkage as 20 per cent (not much of course only just the difference between profit and loss), as you informed me by wire. Mail was received too late to fill order for feed by return trip. This also might be a very serious matter with my large stock for we cannot always keep two weeks stock of feed on hand.

BATTLE WITH BEAR NEAR GEORGIA RIVER

Stampede John Ruined Bruin's Hide But Came Out Victorious.

With one side of him resembling a hamburger steak and his nose looking like anything except a nose, but still undaunted in his determination to continue pursuing the elusive grass-root prospect, J. O. Stenbraten, known in every mining camp on the North American continent as "Stampede John," returned Saturday morning from a prospecting trip to the headwaters of Georgia river, says the Hyder Miner of recent date.

Which is a preliminary to the statement that John has emerged victorious from his first and only battle with a bear, winning from Madame Bruin by deft strokes of his prospecting axe and out-fighting the lightning swipes of her formidable front feet.

John was working around the brim of a deep box canyon, with a 50-pound pack on his back and an axe in his hand. As he clambered out of a small gully, an immense black bear struck down at him from her ambush behind a clump of brush. The blow glanced down the right side of his face, closing the eye, tearing his nose open and lacerating his face from eyebrow to chin. Simultaneously with her attack John struck blindly with his axe and cut a deep gash in the upper part of her neck severing some tendons. When he was able of conscious thought, John was all riled up. So he waded into that bear with his axe and ruined a perfectly prime hide.

POLAR FLIGHT IS IMPOSSIBLE

Aviator Prest Says Amundsen Cannot Fly Over North Pole

WILL GO TO POINT BARROW TO FAREWELL

"Amundsen hasn't the machine to fly across the North Pole. He couldn't have—because it hasn't been built yet. He and the boys going with him will never be seen again after they leave Point Barrow on their foolhardy attempt."

This gloomy prediction is made by C. O. Prest, the aviator who visited here last fall and who arrived in Seattle Friday night after making an airplane flight across the continent from Buffalo, N.Y.

"Amundsen started to fly across the continent in the same monoplane that he is going to use up North, and got as far as Pennsylvania," Prest commented. "If he doesn't get any farther this time it's sure death for the whole party—because the Arctic basin isn't Pennsylvania."

Will See Him Off

Prest said he would fly to Point Barrow to bid Amundsen good-bye—if he can make arrangements to get gas there for his return trip.

Prest is on his way to Siberia and hopes to be the first aviator to fly to Asia from this continent. On his way he plans to touch at Skagway, Whitehorse, Dawson, Fairbanks, Valdez, Ruby, St. Michaels and Nome. He is accompanied on his trip and acts as pilot, navigator, photographer, mechanic and cook, combined.

It is understood that Prest is shipping his plane, the Polar Bear II, north from Seattle and will resume the flight in Alaska.

GIANT ROAMED NORTH VALLEY

Giant Three Toed Mastodon Remains Found by Vancouver Engineer.

EDMONTON, June 29.—Remains of the mastodons that once roamed Northern Canada have been discovered in a valley in the far northern section of British Columbia, close to the Yukon border, by Frank Perry, mining engineer, of Vancouver, who at present is a visitor in Edmonton. For the past 14 years with only two pack dogs as company, and living on the country, the engineer has roamed the unknown north and during the course of his quest of minerals Mr. Perry came on the bones of the former lords of the north, partially exposed on a hill side. The location where the discovery was made was in that blank space on the map bounded by the waters of the Stikine, Liard and Findlay rivers, a country which it is believed was never before visited by a white man, and one through which the Indians will not travel, due to their superstitious fears that the valleys are still haunted by the giant animals whose bones they have seen.

Bones Intact.

The actual position of the bones is north and west of the headwaters of the Findlay River; the remains are not fossilized, those showing being hip bones and sections of the spine. These are of great size, says Mr. Perry, they are in good preservation, and he is of the opinion that if some of the scientific bodies or the universities were to send in an expedition properly equipped to investigate the find, that by excavation they would unearth specimens of much historic value. In addition to the bones there are footprints in the sandstone and shales of some other pre-historic monster; these are clearly defined marks showing that the maker of the tracks was a three-toed animal, but beyond the fact that they are, in being, and approximately 18 inches long, Mr. Perry would not hazard an opinion.

Mammoths Drowned.

All the pre-historic remains are confined to one valley, so far as the engineer could discern, and he is of the opinion, judging from the position of the bones that the animals were closed in the valley by some upheaval of nature, and thus trapped, were drowned. The creek at the valley bottom has gradually been cutting away the sides of the slopes, exposing the bones and as the valley has never been eroded by glacial action, this would explain the reason for the present discovery.

Neither canoes or pack horse can be used in reaching this country, says the visitor; so far the only possible manner of travelling has been to live on the game, using dogs to pack the camp equipment on their backs, which is the method the engineer has used for the past fourteen years. This of necessity means slow traveling, and as the visitor is interested in mineral discoveries which he has made in the north and is anxious to get back again in a hurry, he is endeavoring to hire an aeroplane in order to reach his destination.

In By Plane.

Mr. Perry leaves on Thursday for Hazelton, where he will endeavor to make arrangements with the owners of the all-metal plane which was in Edmonton recently. If this can be done he will be taken to his destination in a few days; otherwise the trip in will occupy more than a year, the return voyage consuming the same period.

VICTORIA, June 29.—The C.P.R. is not to have a monopoly of the passenger and silk business between Canada and the Orient. The Japanese are laying plans to capture a share of the business.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha proposes to lay down at least three new ships which in speed and luxury will compare with the large vessels of other transportation companies which have been introduced to take care of trade developments on the Pacific ocean.

Looks to Pacific

Press of travel and freight offerings on the Nippon Yusen Kaisha to withdraw its large liners of the type of the Fushimi Maru from this service, and forced the temporary substitution of smaller vessels, but the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, as the premier shipping company of Japan, looks to the Pacific for development and does not intend to abandon its connections on this ocean, which have been built up by many years of studied effort. The new ships will be built in Japanese yards and will be marvels of construction and speed.

VANCOUVER BOARD OF TRADE COMING TO ARRIVE JULY 26

VANCOUVER, June 29.—Definite arrangements have been made for the annual summer excursion of the Vancouver Board of Trade.

On Monday, July 24, the party, which will include a number of representatives of the Associated Boards of Trade of B.C., will leave Vancouver on the S.S. Prince George for Prince Rupert, which will be reached at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday. The same evening they will leave for Prince George and intervening points on two special cars of the Canadian National.

Smithers will be reached on Thursday morning and a day will be spent at this point. The following morning the excursionists will start for Vanderhoof, where they will stay till the afternoon of July 29. Prince George will be reached Saturday, July 29, about 4 p.m. and the party will spend the week-end there.

Arrangements for conveying the visitors south to Quesnel on boats are being made. A night will be spent at the latter point, where hotel accommodation is available. The trip from Quesnel to Lillooet will be made by autos, and from there the trippers will take the P.G.E. home.

Final details of the itinerary southward from Prince George have not been completed, but according to present arrangements it is expected the party will get back to Vancouver in about eleven days. The cost of the outing inclusive will be approximately $125. Upwards of seventy Board of Trade and business men are expected to make the trip.

Sport Chat

The Sons of Canada's bill of sport for the Dominion Day celebration is well in hand and all classes of the sporting public are assured on that day of first class displays of the various popular games. Perhaps, the outstanding feature will be the lacrosse game to be played between teams representing the Elks and the Sons of Canada, the first exhibition of this strenuous game ever to be put on in Prince Rupert. While too much cannot be expected, a good keen contest may be looked for with several veteran players of the game in action. On account of the novelty, if for no other reason, it should be quite a drawing card. As for the Senior baseball game between the Elks and Sons of Canada for the Dominion Day prizes and the soccer play-off between the Callies and Sons of Canada for the cup nothing more need be said. All the fans of the two branches of sport are promising themselves to be on hand. It is understood that quite a bit of money has been placed on the outcome of both the baseball and football games.

The Anxox Parent-Teachers' Association has plans under way for building of a children's board playground at the smelter town. It is the intention of the Association, with the co-operation of the school board, to proceed with the work of this improvement as soon as possible so that the facilities will be available for the children during the greater part of the summer holidays. The new playground, it is hoped, will serve for play and games such as basketball during the summer and fall and as a skating rink during the winter season.

Babe Ruth, Kenneth Williams, Frank Baker, George Sisler, Tris Speaker, Bob Meusel, Harry Heilmann, Rogers Hornsby and Ty Cobb are the leading contenders for the crown of the King of Swat in the major leagues this

We Turn This into This

So often people say, "but I can't afford laundry service." Can you really afford to be without laundry service? Think it over for a moment—when you do washing at home there's the tax on your time, on your strength, on your health, on your purse; there's the laundress to supervise and pay—a dozen irritating little things to worry and tire you. Can you honestly afford it?

With this service of ours you simply bundle up the washing and call us—fifteen minutes at the most—all the old annoyances removed, you gain more leisure; time for pleasanter home duties—and above all, a thorough, economical laundering service that will please you.

We can wash and iron everything; or wash everything, iron the flat work, and leave the lighter pieces for ironing at home—whichever you prefer.

You will find, too, that this way you can really save money.

Why not phone us today and have us call for your next washing? We know you'll be glad you made the trial.

PIMPLES ON FACE

DIDN'T LIKE TO GO OUT

Those nasty little pimples that break out on the face and other parts of the body are simply indications that the blood is out of order and requires purifying.

There is only one way to get rid of this obnoxious skin trouble, and that is by giving the blood a thorough cleansing which can best be done by that old reliable blood medicine.

and when the blood is purified the pimples will vanish and you will have a clear, healthy complexion.

Miss Mary E. Flanagan, R. R. No. 3, Stella, Ont., writes:—"I suffered for about two years with pimples and blotches breaking out on my face. The doctor said it was caused by bad blood. My face was so bad that I didn't like to go out among a crowd of people. One day I was talking to a friend, and she advised me to get a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters and try it. I just took three bottles, and there was not a blotch or pimple of any kind left. Some of my friends asked me what I had used and I said, 'Burdock Blood Bitters chased them!'"

B. B. B. has been on the market for the past 45 years, so you are not experimenting with some new and untried remedy.

Prince George next Thursday night is already booked up on account of the special excursion of school teachers and a large number of prairie tourists who are going south that night.

The excursion of school teachers from the prairie provinces and the central states numbers over 200. They will arrive here on a special train at 10 o'clock next Wednesday night. Some will go to Anxox on the Prince George but 150 will remain here on their train from the time they arrive until midnight on Thursday when they will go south, 26 hours.

The Prince George Board of Trade and city council has made arrangements for the reception of the visitors when they are there on Tuesday. They will be taken about the district on automobiles and special football and baseball games are also being put on for them.

No arrangements have yet been made to entertain them during their long stay in this city.

LESSONS OF WAR ARE PEOPLE OF CANADA

WINNIPEG, June 29.—Governor General Baron Byng in his address to the Canadian Club here said:

"I feel I have come to Canada in difficult times, when the exhilaration of war efforts has left us; when the times of post war depression seem unduly protracted, and that better world we had hoped for seems no nearer accomplishment. But I believe this to be partly our own fault in that we have not wholly applied the lessons we learnt in the war. It is true, we have done much to prevent the possibility of another war; we have effected real economies in peace armaments, but I think we have allowed to slip from us that spirit of sacrifice and real good fellow-ship which made the success of the Canadian troops in the war. It is, perhaps, difficult in a country of this tremendous extent always to work in sympathy from sea to sea; centralization is impersonal; decentralization is frequently disintegrating, but if we keep together in the spirit which won the war we shall overcome this difficulty and with the impetus of a united Dominion be of assistance in bringing about the world peace which is essential to our own prosperity."

MAY BE STRIKE OVER RAILROAD MACHINISTS

WINNIPEG, June 29.—One of the biggest industrial fights Canada has ever known is predicted by Harry Kempster, business agent of the railroad machinists, if the reduction in wages of which the Railway Association of Canada has notified Division No. 4, Railway Employees department American Federation of Labor, goes into effect. Withdrawal or modification of the terms outlined will have to be made to meet with acceptance by the machinists, one of the affected organizations, he declared.

This will create a situation in Canada, similar to that existent in the United States, union officials assert. The Railway Association of Canada has formally given the shopmen of the Dominion thirty days notice of its desire for a reduction in wages. The cut proposed is on the same basis as that given out by the United States railway labor board on which the 1,250,000 shopmen of the United States are taking a strike vote at the present time. The reductions range from five to nine cents an hour, freight carmen being slated for the major cut of nine cents. Machinists, apprentices and helpers are to be reduced seven cents an hour and car-cleaners five cents an hour, if the proposed change in schedule becomes operative.

MOTORSHIP APEX WAS HERE WITH HERRING

Motorship Apex arrived last night from Port Waller, Alaska, with seven carloads of mild cured herring for transshipment over the Canadian National Railway to New York. She discharged during the night and left port this morning. This is the Apex's second trip here this season with a similar cargo.
