Drastic Steps Taken When Prisoners Show Rather Sullen Mood

ttempt at Insubordination is Put Down—Investigation Continuing Today With Troops Keeping Guard at Penitentiary

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 24:—Authorities at Portsmouth Penitentiary today admitted that tear gas bombs had been used Saturday to quell insubordination among prisoners who had engaged in the two riots at the institution ast week. Definite confirmation of the use of tear gas came in the face of a statement in Ottawa by Hon. Hugh outhrie, minister of justice, that hexad "no such report." Explanation of the failure of Mr. Beat Their Way authrie to receive the report on he new step to quiet the sullen half nine hundred prisoners was ound in a statement that Brigaer-General D. M. Ormond, supertendent of penitentiaries, was ot in the prison at the time the ear gas was used on Saturday.

While General Ormond's man-toan investigation was resumed toanadian Horse Artillery stood uard working in 12-hour shifts.

So affirmed G. D. Finlayon, Dominion Superintendent of nsurance when, addressing memers of the Life Underwriters' Assoclation of Montreal at a luncheon meeting held in the Queen's Hotel, he lauded the structure of life insurance companies in the Dominon as "safeguarding and encour-

"The companies have proved," he declared, "that they could stand up ell against war, pestilence and now economic depression. The only thing that remains to be demonstrated is as to whether or not they can stand up against prosperity. This does not seem a hard thing to do. But we must remember that it was in a period of prosperity that the seeds of depression were sown. When prosperity returns, we must see if we can devise means by which another economic crisis of this kind can be averted."

Husband Is Cook

A young man who has quite a reputation as a cock has married recently. His wife spent all her time since school days in an office and according to her letter knows little of cooking. She says that given a can of Pacific Milk and a bag of flour her husband seems able to turn out almost anything. "I am learning from him," she says. It is unusual, THRIFTINESS is a state of mind that is nearly as valuable an asset as a bank account. . . . For thriftiness can always get a bank account of its own.

And it's easy to tell thrifty people from the way in which they read the newspapers - just as you can usually spot the other kind.

The great majority of men and women never put a newspaper down until they have read the important news which is directed to them through advertisements.

The modern woman, especially, finds the advertisements indispensible. She spends more than five-sixths of the family income. And the prosperity, happiness and health of her household frequently depend on her reading of the advertisements and on the wisdom with which she chooses everything she buys.

The advertisements bring you complete information about accepted products and new ones. Through them you can compare values . . . discover ways and means for greater household efficiency and enjoyment . . . and make sure that every dollar spent will bring its full return.

RADIO FILM PRESENTED

Broadcasting Station Makes Vivid Locale For "Are You Listening?"

"Are You Listening?" a dramatic romance based on a magazine story of radio broadcasting, will be the feature attraction for the first of this week at the Capitol Theatre here. The story, laid behind the scenes of a national broadcasting station, gives William Haines, well known as a comedian, his first dramatic role in which he delineates a radio exploiteer whose happiness crashes about his ears as a result of his unfortunate marriage.

The plot revolves about a threefold romance and depicts the various careers of three small-town sisters who come to New York to win fame and fortune. All of them end up in radio work and it is the inside slant on their broadcasting activities together with the depiction of what goes on in their private lives which gives the picture its dramatic structure. Humorous interludes lend comedy relief to the serious narrative which underlies .15 the drama.

Besides Haines, the large cast of 10 featured players includes Madge .30 Evans, Anita Page, Karen Morley, 21/2 Neil Hamilton, Jean Hersholt and .14 Joan Marsh.
