Oriental Immigration Question was Debated on Legislative Floor

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—In moving a resolution asking the Dominion to exclude Orientals from Canada, Hon. William Sloan, member for Nanaimo and minister of mines, declared that immigration must be controlled from within Canada and not dictated from without. As a self governing nation, Canada had the right to work out her own destiny according to the ideals of the people, that principle having been clearly accepted by Great Britain.

Mr. Sloan pointed out the failure of the head tax to prohibit Chinese immigration which was continuing almost unchecked. He pointed also to the capture of the fisheries by the Japanese and the manner in which Orientals had gone into other lines of business. He also spoke of the school situation and the logging industry.

Thomas Uphill, member for Fernie, said that when Chinese were competing with work, no one took notice but when the merchants and bankers were affected action followed.

Bowser's Amendment
W. J. Bowser, leader of the opposition, claimed that Mr. Sloan had not implemented his promise to the electors but the motive now actuating him was the action of the Liberal convention at Nelson. Mr. Bowser moved a lengthy amendment that the legislature oppose itself to any treaty with China or Japan unless subject to approval by British Columbia and also that provision be made against Oriental ownership of land and employment in industries.

Sam Gullerle, minor member for Newcastle, said that "the stuff the minister of mines was talking about was all bunk."

Adjournment of the debate was moved by Kenneth Duncan, member for Cowichan.

CRERAR WILL RESIGN HOUSE

Progressive Caucus Accepts Resignation with Regret and Appreciation

WINNIPEG, Nov. 11.—Hon. T. A. Crerar will resign from parliament because his business duties make it impossible for him to spend eight months of every year in Ottawa. The Progressive caucus will elect a new leader to-day but there is no indication as to who it will be. The caucus has accepted Crerar's resignation from the leadership with great regret and voted him an appreciation.

LOWER STEAMSHIP AND RAIL FARES

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—Officials of the Canadian Colonization Association have presented a petition to the traffic managers of the railways asking that railway and ocean steamship fares be reduced in an effort to encourage immigration. It is believed there is some hope of getting lower fares this season.

NICHOL BACK FROM EUROPE

Lieut. Governor Says Unemployment Still Serious Problem

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.—"The employment problem is looking larger than ever before. In fact it is the most important question with which Canada is concerned," Hon. Walter C. Nichol, Lieutenant-Governor of B.C., said on his arrival from England and France where he has been visiting.

He said two factors must be envisaged if this country is to secure the right type of immigrant from Great Britain. The first is to encourage the practical intelligent settler and not the young man who is sent over with a few hundred pounds in his pocket without the slightest idea of what he is going to do. Secondly the authorities must give the new citizens full co-operation when they arrive in the country to make them feel they are among friends.

DANGERS OF LABOR VIEWS

Set Forth by Ex-Premier Lloyd George in Stumping for His Son

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Lloyd George told his audience at Liverpool West, in a speech supporting the candidature of his son for parliament, that Great Britain faced the danger which swept Russia if labor were allowed to enforce its program. He hoped that labor would revise its revolutionary tendencies. The ex-premier said that the present labor views put into practice would destroy commerce and finance and leave Britain a poor crawling thing with world supremacy gone.

PRINCE RUPERT PULP CONTRACTS PRODUCED

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—At the request of Captain G. S. Hanes, member for North Vancouver, contracts entered into with the Prince Rupert Pulp & Paper Co. were ordered to be produced in the legislature. No objection was made by Hon. T. D. Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert, who has had the negotiations in hand.

IMPRISONMENT IS PROTESTED

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The British consulate has been picketed by women as a protest against Miss Mary MacSwiney's imprisonment in the Brixton penitentiary, London. Miss MacSwiney was recently arrested by the Free State military in Dublin, and has been on a hunger strike since she was taken in custody.

"If I am imprisoned I will hunger strike. I don't know whether they will let me die, but if they do, pray for me that I may be as brave as those who have gone before me."

Mary MacSwiney is a sister of the late Terence MacSwiney, former Lord Mayor of Cork, who died in Brixton prison, London, October 25, 1920, after a hunger strike lasting thirty-seven days.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—An eight hour battle between Free State troops and irregulars in County Mayo resulted in the death of twelve irregulars and two Free Staters. Many were wounded.

NEAR EAST SITUATION

Still is Critical all London Papers Agree

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The situation in Constantinople, where the Turkish Nationalists want the Allies to get out and the Allies are determined to sit tight, is still very critical all the morning papers here agree, but none of them are furnishing any news to justify their views. Even the government itself in some quarters is declared to be largely in the dark.

ARGUMENT IN GURVICH CASE

Magistrate McClymont Will Give Decision on Tuesday Morning

The arguments in the case of Mrs. Nick Gurchich charged with selling liquor were concluded in the police court this morning and Magistrate McClymont announced that he would give his decision on Tuesday morning.

The accused on the stand was closely questioned by Gity Solicitor Hooper. She admitted that she had been arrested before for selling liquor and fined.

Hubert Crew, of the Dominion Meteorological service, was put on the stand to prove that it was fine on the day in question with no rainfall. The witnesses for the defence all declared that it was raining. He stated, however, that it rained the day before.

Mr. Patmore in addressing the court said he was willing to pull the mantle of charity over the "white-faced stool pigeons" and say they were mistaken in the date. He said they had no reason to lie in their statements.

Difficult Proposition
The crown counsel at the outset of his address said the case was the hardest proposition he had ever had before in a criminal court. He drew attention to the fact that the accused had been convicted before and also her son and suggested that the witnesses had slurred together to save one of their friends. He made some very strong remarks about the way the defence had spoken of the detectives who were appointed by the government to preserve law and order but in court were treated with infamy and called "dog pigeons" because they were doing their duty. "When you are playing with fire you have to use fire," declared Mr. Hooper.

Magistrate McClymont will hear the case against Nick Gurchich charged with selling liquor on Monday and the case of Harry Gillis charged with the same offense on Tuesday.

A Serbian interpreter and another of that race to check up on the translation for the crown featured the proceedings on Friday afternoon. The crown was forced to allow Sam Bill, one of the chief witnesses for the defence, to act as interpreter but T. B. Hooper, for the prosecution, refused to let him act without using Tony Budenich, another Serbian, as his personal checker on the translation.

Proving an Alibi
Mrs. Veda Vousevich was the chief witness. Through the interpreter she declared that Mrs. Gurchich had been at Mrs. Bill's house all the morning of October 17 as an alibi against the charge that the accused had sold liquor to two constables.

The witness was just beginning her evidence when trouble started between the counsel. Mr. Hooper declared that Mr. Patmore for the defence was not getting the evidence in the proper manner and was wasting time.

"If Mr. Patmore does not know how to get about it, I will and do it properly," declared the crown counsel.

Mr. Patmore: "I've been letting you handle my cases all along."

"He thinks he is running this court and has been thinking that way for a long time. I can tell him that he does not," declared Mr. Hooper.

"Are you addressing me or the court?" from Mr. Patmore.

"You," retorted Mr. Hooper.

Police Necessary
"Well then you had better address the court. I wish my learned friend would sit down and keep still."

"Nobody can stop you except the police," and turning to Chief Vickers in the corner at the door, "Put Mr. Patmore out right away, will you."

Magistrate McClymont listened to all of this without a word and seemed to think they would stop when they ran short of expressions.

VOTE UPSET BY ERROR

California Now in Favor of Volstead Act and Eighteenth Amendment

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—The discovery of an error of 25,000 votes in Alameda County reverses California's verdict on liquor enforcement and gives a majority of nearly ten thousand in favor of making the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act part of the State law of California compelling the State police and the bench to act in the same way as Federal agents have been trying to do. The vote count is incomplete but the outgoing counties cannot materially change the result.

ROCHESTER AT VICTORIA

To Confer With Provincial Government on Municipal Reforms

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—Mayor H. B. Rochester, of Prince Rupert, yesterday joined the committee of the Union of Municipalities which is laying before the legislative committee of the Legislature various proposals chief of which is a plan to equalize assessments rather than assess at actual cash value in municipalities. This would prevent the slumping of assessments unduly and would also prevent those appealing getting preferential assessment from the court.

Mayor Marchant, of Victoria, proposed an assessment according to population. This would, however, create an impossible situation for Prince Rupert where the population is small compared with the size of the town-site and land values.

Mayor Rochester and H. E. Pullen attended the Rotary Club luncheon here yesterday when Colonel G. Peck, V.C., gave an Armistice Day address.

Fred Dawson Tells of Recent Tour Over Canadian National System Made by New Directors

After an absence from the city of four weeks in which time he made a tour of the Canadian National Railway systems from Lucerne in the west to Quebec city in the east, in company with other members of the new directorate of the system, F. G. Dawson, the B. C. director of the Canadian National Railways, returned to the city last night from Ottawa. He will be here for a few weeks he expects and may make a trip to Vancouver next week to take up matters in connection with the railway there.

"All that we have done so far has been for the purpose of getting better posted on the problems of the system, especially in regard to unification and efficiency, before the arrival of Sir Henry Thornton, the president," said Mr. Dawson this morning in speaking of the recent tour and his visit in the east. "No definite policies or plans have yet been outlined but they will rest in abeyance until the arrival of Sir Henry who will not sail from England until November 22, arriving at Ottawa, it is expected, about December 1.

Interesting But Difficult
"The trip we made and the work was most interesting to me. I can plainly see where there will be plenty of work to do in connection with the directing of the system. There are some very difficult problems to be dealt with and it will take considerable time to adjust all matters. In dealing with them, some people are bound to have their corns stepped on.

"The next big problem will be the matter of amalgamating the old Grand Trunk with the Canadian National Railways. It will be gone into soon after the president's arrival.

PENSION BOARD WAS DEFENDED

Attorney General Manson Replies in Legislature to Canon Hinchcliffe's Objections

VICTORIA, Nov. 11.—Canon Hinchcliffe, member of Victoria legislature yesterday objecting to widows of soldiers, becoming dependents within six months after their husbands had been discharged, having to get support from the Patriotic fund instead of the Mothers' Pensions Act. He claimed discrimination against soldiers.

Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney-general, showed that the Patriotic Fund paid $60 per month and the Mothers' Pension Act only $35. It was the duty of the Dominion to provide for soldiers so this arrangement had been made, Mr. Manson said. The Pensions Board, which was an independent commission appointed by the legislature, had been most sympathetic to women and had won praise for the manner in which it conducted its business. The attorney general said that Canon Hinchcliffe was not in possession of the entire facts and was attempting to make a political question of a departmental letter.

Armistice Day Being Observed.

Today is Armistice Day, the fourth anniversary of November 11, 1918, when the titanic struggle in Europe, in which democracy and liberty were pitted on one side against autocracy and slavery on the other, came to an end.

Situation Is Not Rosy Yet.

Though four years have elapsed since the armistice was declared the outlook today cannot be described as a rosy one. For the past few months the situation in the Near East has been giving grave concern and the breaking out of another struggle has seemed more than once imminent—almost unavoidable.

War Not Desire But Duty.

Canada no more than any other civilized nation wants war but Canada like all other civilized nations will again respond and give of her best if it is deemed necessary that arms should be again taken up to preserve the freedom of the world and the traditions of the British race.

Hope For The Best While Fearing Worst.

The present situation would lead to the belief that the Great War was only partially successful even though the contest of arms ended victoriously. If the war was not entirely successful then it may have to be continued to wipe out entirely the blight on Europe—still the centre of the world—that appears to be breaking out again.

Our Duties To Those Who Fought.

Our soldiers have now been home for several years and after their period of glory, have settled down once again to take up their places as civilians in the strife of workaday competition. Those of them who are back unmarred by their experiences may be left to themselves although their services must not be forgotten.

"YANKEE" IS GREAT COMEDY SPECTACLE

Mark Twain's Novel in Pictures Made Fine Impression at Westholme Theatre Last Night

The William Fox special production of Mark Twain's "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court," which opened last night at the Westholme Theatre, deserves to rank with the best pictureizations of famous literary classics which have been given to the public.

"A Connecticut Yankee" is a purely American classic. It has been translated faithfully to the screen, and all the rollicking humor of the book is heightened by the visual appeal.

Mark Twain was not a humorist alone; in each of his books, even the funniest, he pleaded a cause. In "A Connecticut Yankee" he argues for the modern way of doing things, and proves that we are lucky to be living today and not in the days of old when knights were bold.

Martin Cavendish, the Yankee young, shrewd, up-to-date, finds himself suddenly back in the Middle Ages, among King Arthur's Knights of the Round Table.

There is hardly a moment without a laugh. The settings are superb—notably the scene of the tournament, wherein Martin, dressed as a cowboy and armed with revolver and lariat, routs all of King Arthur's knights.

Her Heart Skipped Every Third Beat

Mrs. James Burleigh, 218 King St. E., Clifton, Ont., writes:—"I think it my duty to let you know what Miburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have done for me. I suffered for years with palpitation of the heart, my nerves were very bad, and I could not be left alone at any time. I doctored for over a year, and the doctor said my heart was very bad as it skipped every third beat. I gave up, just at this time, and then my mother advised me to try Miburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, saying my eldest brother had been relieved by using them when he was very bad with his heart and nerves. I got a box and started to take them, and when I had used it I felt a lot better; could sleep a little and felt stronger. I continued taking them for about three months, and felt better than I had for years. When I think of the misery and suffering I went through before I started Miburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I feel like letting everyone know what they did for me."

ARMISTICE DAY IS GENERALLY OBSERVED

Two Minutes of Silence Kept in Streets, Public Places and Homes

"Honor to whom honor is due," Many of Prince Rupert's bravest sons lie asleep in Flanders Fields today after paying the supreme sacrifice for their country. In the people of this city paid silent tribute to their memory at eleven o'clock this morning when in the streets, the courtroom of justice and in the homes they stood with heads bowed while the bell in the fire hall pealed out in ringing tones. The request of Actin Mayor Dybbavn that all citizens cease activity from their daily tasks for two minutes was generally observed.

To many of those who stood with bowed heads came back the memory pictures of the gallant boys who went away smiling never to return. In the police court City Solicitor Hooper was in the midst of an argument against a person alleged to have broken the laws of the country which the soldiers fought and died for in France. All over the streets the flags were dipped in the breeze. Flags of many different nations were seen on Third Avenue.

The ladies of the L.O.D.E. were kept busy all day selling poppies and by afternoon had sold nearly 3,000 emblems. The chapters taking part in the sale included Adair, Carss, Hill 60, Queen Mary and the Girl Guides.

All citizens with private cars are asked to have their autos in front of the G.W.V.A. headquarters on Sunday afternoon to go to the service at the cemetery.

FRED DAWSON TELLS OF RECENT TOUR OVER CANADIAN NATIONAL SYSTEM MADE BY NEW DIRECTORS

Mr. Dawson stated that they undoubtedly would do so soon but the date of such a visit could not be definitely declared yet. There was three or four weeks work awaiting the attention of the new president at Ottawa now.

Mr. Dawson said that his duties no decision had yet been made in regard to the headquarters of the system. Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa wanted the head offices and rumors that they were to go to any of these three places were rife.

Mr. Dawson said that as yet, was all "just talk." The party of directors which made the recent 5,500 mile inspection tour of the system consisted of, besides Mr. Dawson, Major Graham Bell, C.M.G., acting chairman of the board, and E. R. Degarrie, J. H. Sinclair, G. G. Ruel and R. P. Gough.

Mr. Dawson met the other members of the board at Winnipeg and the first thing they did was inspect the Transcona shops. The plant there is a magnificent one.

Next the terminals at Winnipeg were investigated. An immense business is now flowing through Winnipeg and 1000 cars of wheat and 600 cars of beef were being handled daily when the board was there.

After inspecting the equipment and terminals at Saskatoon, the board went over the Goose Lake (C. N. R.) line to Calgary. At Calgary there is also the problem of unifying two depots in separate locations. From Calgary they went to Drumheller where the Canadian National is handling 300 cars of coal daily making a busy town. Travelling over various lines of the C.N.R., the board proceeded to Edmonton. The big problem there is the building of a subway to eliminate the passing of trains over the tracks which cross one of the main streets. Jasper and Luceerne were next visited. These two points are 18 miles apart, the former being the old G. T. P. divisional point and the latter, the Canadian Northern. The idea is to connect the two and eliminate one.

Returning from Jasper to Edmonton, the board stayed overnight and had their first real night's sleep since starting on the trip. Over the Canadian Northern line, they journeyed via Lloydminster and North Battleford to Warman and Prince Albert and Winnipeg. From the latter city they proceeded over the transcontinental line, making a few stops enroute, to Quebec City and Point Levis where the magnificent shops were inspected. They spent a few days in Montreal and then returned to Ottawa. Mr. Dawson spent three days in Montreal and Ottawa and one at Winnipeg on his way home.

Mr. Dawson does not know definitely how long he will be on the coast until Sir Henry Thornton arrives from England. However, he explains that his movements are subject to call without notice and he may be called away at any time on business in connection with the directorship.

attended and took an active part in all discussions. Bert Morgan, president of the association, occupied the chair.

A number of progressive resolutions were passed, and several committees were appointed to undertake constructive and instructive work in the interests of the association during the winter months.

It was decided to put on a membership drive on behalf of the association forthwith and to throw all meetings open to the public for the time being.

The local association has been in communication with the secretaries of the various Liberal associations throughout the district offering their support in any worthy cause.

Alderman Theo Colart addressed the meeting. In the course of his remarks he said he was glad to see the political movement had started in the city among the younger set but warned them to go carefully and to be cautious in their methods of operation.

He was of the opinion that the association would materially benefit if the meetings were thrown open to the public.

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

The waterfront boys are all feeling up to the mark these days—that is, those of them who were fortunate enough to be in the city over the holiday week end. The reason is that Thanks-giving Day was duly observed as a holiday. This was the first time in the history of the local fish business that a holiday was declared and actually lived up to on a Monday. The largest fish sales of the week usually take place on Monday but in spite of this fact the great day was kept by all as a holiday, even the fishermen and their co-workers requiring a little rest sometimes.

In view of the week being a working day short the sales have been on the light side although well up to the average for this time of year. There is still a scarcity of fish on the high spots and the expected run in the Yakutat waters has not commenced yet, the Westward waters being just now the popular fishing grounds. According to reports of various skippers the weather has improved greatly this week and no untoward happenings have taken place.

Trappers Preparing

With the advent of the snappy days a number of the owners of small crafts are putting their boating homes in order in preparation for the fur trapping season. It is expected that during the coming week a big migration will take place around Cow Bay for the distant points. The head of Gardner Canal seems to be the favorite hunting ground while Dundas islands, according to expert opinion, rank second.

Freeman Busy

Captain Hoopes K. Freeman, skipper of the launch Narbethong, is putting in a busy time these days towing rock for the city streets from the Smith Island quarry. Only recently the Narbethong has been given a thorough overhaul, at the hands of her owner, and according to the manner in which the old reliable is behaving herself she is very much improved by the attention.

Indian Boats In

Ten native trollers arrived in port on Wednesday night from the Skeena river enroute to Port Simpson. Each boat is loaded down with cargoes of smoked salmon which will be utilized during the coming winter as the basic food. A number of the boats, while in port, made extensive provision purchases. This native flotilla will leave for its home over the week end.

Oh Baby, Spruced-Up

Skipper Myhill-Jones is busy making several comfy alterations to his launch Oh Baby. The awning is being lengthened and brought right out to the stern of the boat and a glass window has been arranged in the stern. With the inclement weather prevailing the boat can now be entirely closed in while the passengers will have the advantage of an observation view. No doubt the skaters this winter will find the benefit.

The power boat Wigwam has been tied up, and will remain tied up while her owner Capt. Claude Ketchum takes a little trip to Vancouver for which city he will leave tomorrow night.

Eleanor Mac Sinks

The Eleanor Mac, owned by

Jarvis McLeod, met a watery fate for a while during the week. According to report Eleanor was tied up near a seam in the vicinity of the Shockley wharf. The seam, it is supposed, took a violent dislike to Eleanor and with a bolt or some other sharp instrument protruding from it gave her a dig which let the water in. At any rate Eleanor Mac was submerged for a while. She has since been raised successfully and is now reclining on the dry dock for necessary repairs.

E. Anderson, government telephone lineman, returned from Alice Arm early in the week and left to look over the Skeena river line on Tuesday. Edwin is very popular in nautical circles and never omits to visit the boys when he is in town.

Cash Cashes In

Well Bill old boy, we're sorry to see you hike away, we've always found you on the job, at night as well as day. You've made a place in all our hearts, with your cheery breezy smile, and your example of good fellowship has always been worth while. We may have had many toughy times, and perhaps we all felt blue, but your optimistic spirit has always pulled us through. We know that duty calls you, and that south you have to go, but we hope to see you often returning from below. So here's to you and yours old sport, and in spite of all our tiffs, remember you're remembered by the readers of the Whiffs.

Steve Wins Again

It seems absolute reckless folly for a bunch of well meaning fish men to put up a real good turkey as a rib prize when they might know perfectly well that Steve would win it. Didn't he do the same thing last year? Just tipped the beam with a measly 31 in hand when his final opponent only needed 5 to get out. It's a crime on the white men in the city, that's what it is, and Steve should be ashamed to take the money so to speak. How does he do it? That is the burning question of the hour. Ask Doc Glanerton how he did it and you'll hear a brand of language that would twist a Zulu's tongue into a lover's knot. None of the boys mind a joke but to come along at the last lap, with his fingers greased, and pick up a hand with 31 in it, well Steve, honest to goodness, we thought you were a little different to that. Men have been shot in Ketchikan for a much less crime. Opponents say that every bite they took on Thanks-giving Day nearly choked them thinking of the fat turkey reclining on your festive board. Anyway we'll tell you this much Steve, for your own satisfaction, that the Crib Committee have decided to definitely bar your participation in any forthcoming crib games where the prize is valued a cent over a nickle. Next time it's our crib all the time, get that.

More Firewood

On Wednesday night the boys around Cow Bay were annoyed with a heavy swell which threatened to upset something on the tables. Upon investigation, it was discovered that the May-downer, with Capt. Jud Thurber on the bridge, was moving into port weighed down to the deck rails with another cargo of firewood with which Can proposes to keep the home fires burning brightly during the coming wintery nights. After a little delay a number of longshoremen were imported into the vicinity and the unloading of the mighty wood pile is now being undertaken in Bone Yard Creek. Jud says he never attempted a job with less politics in it before.

N. M. McLean is busy with a gang of men erecting permanent janitor's quarters on the Prince Rupert Yacht Club floats. From its present appearance it will be a snappy little home measuring about 20 feet by 30 feet and the water is laid on right to the door. It will be no place for a drummer to visit selling fire extinguishers.

The tug Azurite, of Anyox, arrived in port on Wednesday with a sew load of benzol for the Prince Rupert boat house.

Submarine Fishing

Capt. Sam McVey, the whirlwind inventor, is now working out a scheme for fishing by submarine. The theory is that in a submerged sub, with a good headlight on to attract the fish. Fishing would become child's play. He says he is sick of this throwing out a few hooks and trusting to Providence to stick a few fish on 'em. With his submarine idea he says he can lure the fish to the window, open it, and pull 'em inside. If they don't want to come in that way he says he'll club 'em to death. The whole scheme at present works like a watch charm the only difficulty being that when the window is opened the water comes in. When that part of the idea is fixed up satisfactorily the invention will be complete. If he can get his idea to work he will put the plans on sale at 10c. a copy.

The launch Belmont, of Surf Inlet, was in port on Tuesday with a party of officers from the Belmont and Surf Inlet Marine Company.

Repair work is now going on at the Albert & McCaffery wharf. The work is being undertaken by Messrs. Currie and Boliver. A bunch of new piles are to be driven and the wharf is to be put in first class shape in readiness for the rush of business which it is anticipated will come along in the near future.

Napoleon Pruno Sold

The old reliable troller Napoleon Pruno was sold by his owner of the same name on Thursday morning. The name of the buyer has not yet been disclosed but it is understood it will be put into commission in the prospecting game. After the purchase price had been arrived at by some uncanny means the flag ran up to the half mast position. The old boat evidently fell its position very keenly upon changing skippers. Cap N. Pruno will devote his valuable time to other remunerative pursuits.

George Mitchell, late of the Royal Bank staff, has taken a position with Albert & McCaffery. The waterfront boys welcome this popular young man who now comes into the limelight of publicity in their midst. Watch your step George.

Leinsh in Commission

The pleasure cruiser Leinsh, owned by Alderman Theo Collart, has been completely re-modelled and is now awaiting the bidding of her skipper on the N. M. McLean way. She sure looks a beauty, with a new cabin fitted with all the latest conveniences and a pilot house worthy of a distinguished pilot.

Fish Totals

During the week, up to and including yesterday noon, 265,500 pounds of halibut had been sold at the Fish Exchange. The highest price was 16.1c, and 9c, and the lowest 13.2c, and 6c.

The following boats have marketed fish during the week: Kodiak, Rosspit, Virginia, Wave, White Star, Reliance, Fram, Joe Baker, Numen, Elly S., Tramp, Kennebec, Muirnae, Hippo, Kalen, Daisy, Republic, Teddy J. Livingstone, Crescent, Arctie, Sampson, Tom and Al, Senator, Ingrid B. Kinnmount.

ARE AGAINST GASOLINE TAX

Council of Board of Trade Passed Resolution at Meeting Last Night

A resolution opposing the 2c. tax on gasoline and distillate in the port of Prince Rupert was passed at a meeting of the executive of the Board of Trade held last night in the City hall. The resolution was wired to the Attorney-General Manson and the Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, Victoria.

The Board of Trade considered that the Canadian fishermen were now laboring under a 2c. tax on fish as against the American fishermen and also a 2½ per cent sales tax which the American fishermen were also immune from. The present burden of taxes on them would have a tendency to force fishermen operating from this port to obtain their supplies, ice, ball and gasoline on the Alaska side.

Stomach Trouble "Indigestion"

Relieved by Burdock Blood Bitters

The sufferer from dyspepsia, indigestion or other stomach troubles who has to pick and choose his food is the most miserable of all mankind.

Even the little that is eaten causes much torture, and is digested so imperfectly it does but little good.

Before you can eat heartily and enjoy your food, you must put your stomach right so that it will manufacture its own digestive ferments.

Mr. Wm. Kruselet, Morden, Man., writes: "Some time ago I had quite a serious case of stomach trouble, indigestion. I could scarcely eat anything, outside of some light food, and even then I generally had pains after each meal. I tried many different medicines, but without any improvement, and had almost given up hope of ever being well. A neighbor recommended Burdock Blood Bitters, and after using it a short time I felt much better, so I continued to use it until I was completely relieved. I can honestly say that B. B. B. has done wonders for me after all other medicines failed!"

B. B. B. is put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
