Dr. Baker Made no Personal Profit from Administration of Game Act But was Unwise

VICTORIA, Feb. 20.—The charges made on the floor of the Legislature at the last session by R. H. Pooley against Dr. Baker, chairman of the Game Conservation Board, have been proven to be unfounded, according to report of the Royal Commission before whom the charges were investigated and made public today by Hon. J. D. McLean, acting premier.

The report exonerates Baker from all charges of wrong doing. The commissioner, however, criticized Dr. Baker's administration and especially that of the board's beaver policy, pointing out that it gave opportunities for suspicion to be aroused.

Investigation made by Magistrate W. A. Shaw of Vancouver says "all charges of wrong doing by personal profit to Dr. Baker are not supported by the evidence."

COMPARATIVE QUIET IN BELFAST CITY

Advertise in the Daily News.

Dr. W. L. Shannon, of the Martin & Shannon Timber Co., of Vancouver, J. R. Black, representing an Edmonton timber syndicate and J. McCash, of the Bishop Logging & Lumber Co., are thanking Providence for their miraculous escape from a defective Indian gasoline boat in a sudden and furious storm off the north end of Graham Island last Wednesday. The incident which nearly cost these men, as well as the well known captain, Henry Edenshaw and four natives, their lives occurred near Seven Mile Point, between Naden Harbor and Massett, last Wednesday night when the 17-foot gasoline boat belonging to Captain Henry Edenshaw was totally wrecked and the crew and passengers were cast up on the rocky shore of the rugged island.

Captain Edenshaw was returning to Massett from Naden Harbor with the three passengers who had been making an examination of some timber stands. On setting out in the evening all looked well but not sooner had they got outside the point off Naden Harbor than a terrific storm, accompanied with heavy seas and drenching rain, came on. The boat was swamped and the water began to ship through the defective hatches. The engine room became flooded, the motor stopped and the boat began to drift on Seven Mile Point. The waves came over and an anchor attached to the mast was thrown out.

Tore Out Mast.

The violence of the storm tore the mast out and when the anchor was fastened to the rock this too gave way. By this time the boat was in the breakers and was shipping water everywhere. The night was dangerous and all eight persons on board were balancing water for their lives. Seas were coming over the boat. Edenshaw was nearly swept overboard and when one of the lifeboats did go, Dr. Shannon went with it. Thanks to Mr. McCash, who grasped him from the boat, he was finally pulled on board again. The Indians were all praying. Finally the rocks were struck but mercifully the boat lodged in a cove about two boats lengths from shore. The one remaining life boat of the three with which the Venus was equipped, was used to take the men ashore and all were saved.

Drenching Torrents.

It was pitch black and the rain was coming down in drenching torrents. Shelter was found in a nearby cabin where the night was spent. With the morning the shipwrecked persons made their way, a distance of seven miles along the shore, to a point opposite Massett, where they were picked up by natives on the watch, who had anticipated trouble. All reached Massett on Thursday afternoon after one of the most stirring experiences and most narrow escapes possible.

The Venus is a total wreck and her engine was swept into deep water. There will likely be no salvage.

Henry White, Jack Smith, natives, and two boys, nephews of Henry Edenshaw, were the others on the boat.

Dr. Shannon, Mr. McCash and Mr. Black returned to the city today on the Prince John and will go south this afternoon on that vessel.

N. Arneson Badly Injured and Nearly Drowned Early Sunday Morning.

N. Arneson, cook of the fishing schooner Convention, was badly injured and nearly drowned at 4:30 o'clock on Sunday morning when he fell backwards from the top of a ladder which he was ascending at the Government dock. The splash, when Arneson struck the water, was heard by the crew of the Joe Baker who were successful in fishing him out after he had been in the water for about 5 minutes. He was taken to the Prince Rupert Boat House and medical assistance was summoned, and then he was rushed to the General Hospital where artificial respiration was resorted to and the wounds, sustained in striking the rails of a boat in falling, were dressed. Although Arneson's condition is critical he is reported to be holding his own at the hospital and he may recover.

MUCH UNEMPLOYMENT ALBERTA ACCORDING TO REPORT OF OFFICIAL

Government Comes to Help of People of South Who Had No Crops.

EDMONTON, Feb. 1.—J. W. Mitchell, chief of the provincial labor bureaus, was in the city Friday and states that there were on Feb. 7, 4,525 unemployed in the province. A big percentage of these general laborers and a few are being placed with farmers who offer $15 a week and their board. In the northern part of the province twenty-five a week are being given work in the lumber camps.

In the opinion of Mr. Mitchell, the immediate outlook is not encouraging and the hardest time is still to come. He urges employers of labor to use their ingenuity and energy in providing some means of giving employment to those out of work this spring for then will come the big strain. The condition is getting worse, states Mr. Mitchell.

The employment services has now assumed the duties of looking after parts of the province and the Southern part of the province is receiving every attention in the matter of distribution. This relief is being contributed in equal parts by the dominion government, the provincial government and the municipalities, and the initial distribution rests with the municipalities. In the unorganized districts, the governments are sharing fifty-fifty and the relief is being distributed by the labor services.

Assist South.

Offers of assistance for the feeding and clothing of Southern Alberta residents who have been hard hit by the lack of crop during the past few years are coming from Ontario, states Premier Greenfield, and he has authorized the acceptance of this assistance. The offer is directly from the Ontario Red Cross. Mr. Greenfield states that the Red Cross campaign for funds in Alberta has not met with sufficient response and the government has had to guarantee the organization with funds for carrying out their relief.

Asked if he did not think it bad advertising to allow this offer of assistance to come from Ontario, he said such was immaterial to him. His chief thought was that the people of Southern Alberta should have sufficient to eat and wear, quite apart from good or bad advertising.

COMMUNISM IS NOT A SUCCESS
PERSIA FINDS

Last of Russians Flies From Realm of Shah.

BAKU, Azerbaijan, Feb. 19.—

The last of the Russian Communists have arrived here from Persia, fleeing before the troops of the Shah, under the general direction of the Prime Minister Ghavam-Saltane, who demanded that the terms of the Anglo-Russian treaty for both nations to let Persia work out her own destiny be observed. Rofstein, the Soviet ambassador to Teheran, has been sent home, among others.

The invasion of Persia was undertaken in 1920, the Russian Communists co-operating with three revolutionary bandit chiefs of Persia—Ehsanella, Kutchik and Haider.

The failure of the movement is attributed here to quarrels between the three bandit chiefs.

Now that the effort of Soviet Russia to sovietize Persia has definitely failed, the Russians are taking a rather impartial if not cynical view of the events there during the past year. They maintain that the 60 or so little Shabs, or feudal landlords, each with his court and army, continue to weaken the central government by their quarrels and ambitions and that, so long as they have any power, no nationalist movement is possible and Persia will remain almost in the same condition as England of centuries ago under the barons.

Reasons for Failure.

Aside from the Anglo-Russian treaty, a multitude of reasons are given for the red failure in Persia. One is that the Soviet freedom to women, including abandoning of the chadrach, or veil, pleased the women but not their husbands and made many enemies for the Soviet.

Another reason was that the Russians mistook the feudalists for reformers. These persons were ready for any revolution that would overthrow the power of the Shah until they realized that Communism would wreck their own estates.

The merchant class at first welcomed the Communists, only later to grow cold, as they saw the fruits of a division of property, house requisitions and other odds and ends of Communism.

Yet another reason was that the peasants themselves, trained in the Islamic law to respect property, refused to accept a division of land belonging to their landlords.

V. Cowper-Young, formerly of the Charlotte Spruce Products Co., here, arrived in the city from the Queen Charlotte Islands on Saturday afternoon and is registered at the Hotel Prince Rupert.

The playing of a final game in which all twelve players take part has been discontinued.

Refreshments were served at 10:30 and James Cook sang several songs, which were much appreciated, and then dancing was resumed until midnight.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Duncan, James Cook, Misses Agnes, Bella and Chris Mackenzie, Mr. and Mrs. James Sturgeon, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley C. Ytreburg, Alice Cooper and S. Webb.

PRINCE RUPERT AND WANDERERS' CLUBS JOINING

Latter May Merge With Former Under Name Prince Rupert and Using Former Quarters.

There is a movement on foot towards the amalgamation of the Prince Rupert and Wanderers' Club, the two organizations being merged into one under the name of the Prince Rupert. The Wanderers' Club, which has been established in the city for over ten years, will be closed up and the Prince Rupert will house the enlarged organization if present plans materialize.

The executives of both clubs have already met on the matter which, it is understood, has been practically agreed upon. Final decision has yet to be given, however.

The Wanderers' Club membership comprises many of the leading young men of the city and its joining with the Prince Rupert, which has always been considered the city's premier club, should make a strong and energetic organization.

WANDERERS WON AT SNOOKER OVER PRINCE RUPERT CLUB AGAIN

The Wanderer's Club won the fourth inter-club snooker tournament from the Prince Rupert on Saturday night by a total score of 215 points to 211. In the four games of the series of six to be played, the Wanderers now have a lead of five points.

The individual scores Saturday night were:

W. J. Nelson (Wanderer's), 52; W. G. Anderson (Prince Rupert), 19; T. B. Hooper, 17; J. H. Pillsbury, 35; Fred Stephens, 38; H. B. Scott, 26; W. J. Hemming, 38; J. W. Scott, 34; W. O. Fulton, 35; L. Wakefield, 39; R. H. Shockley, 35; J. J. Raleigh, 58.

The playing of a final game in which all twelve players take part has been discontinued.

V. Cowper-Young, formerly of the Charlotte Spruce Products Co., here, arrived in the city from the Queen Charlotte Islands on Saturday afternoon and is registered at the Hotel Prince Rupert.

The last Senior League game between the Elks and the Sons of Canada has been cancelled by the Basketball Association and the season is now wound up as far as the regular league games are concerned. Plans are under way for some post-season fixtures but the nature of these and the teams and players who will take part in them has not been decided upon. On the whole the season has been a successful one although the public did not respond in the matter of attendance as well as might have been desired. The donation of light made by the council last week assisted the finances of the Association greatly. After all accounting for the season has been made, the proceeds will be shared equally between the Basketball Association and the Agricultural Association.

Constipation is one of the commonest ills of mankind, and one too often allowed to go unlooked after, until some serious complication sets in.

A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule of everyone, then there will be no constipation, sick or bilious spells, dizziness, heartburn, coated tongue, foul breath, sour stomach, floating specks before the eyes, jaundice, water brash, etc.

Keep the bowels properly regulated by the use of

and you will enjoy the best of health.

Mrs. Frank Willsey, R. R. 3, Belmont, Ont., writes:—"I have been troubled with constipation for nearly two years. I had bad headaches, faint and dizzy spells, and would bloat terribly. I was nearly discouraged for I had tried so many things that gave me no relief. My mother got me a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and told me to give them a fair trial. After I had taken one vial I felt much better and continued their use. Now I have no faint and dizzy spells and am gaining nicely. I would not be without Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for the world."

CONSTIPATION BAD HEADACHES FAINT, DIZZY SPELLS

Yesterdays afternoon a number of Prince Rupert couples crossed the harbor to the Salt Lake to try the skating. The ice was thick and strong but rather rough. In spite of this the visitors enjoyed several hours there and got some healthy exercise.

The Oh Baby made two trips each way and several private launches took over loads.

The Trail Club seem to have the Senior League billiard championship for this season pretty well sewed up in its own pockets. The Wanderers' runners up, are at the present time twenty-eight points behind in the average and with but one more game to go, and that one with the Trail, their chances of going into first place now may be considered rather slim. It is very doubtful if they will beat the Trail at all in the final to be played a week from tonight, much less make enough of a victory to put them in the premier position. In the meantime, the Trail have a meeting with the Sons England tonight and there is a possibility of the standing of the former club being even more increased as a result, especially in view of the poor showings that the Sons have been making in recent tournaments. Altogether, it looks very much as if the Trail Club shield will remain at least another year in its home club.

There are three fixtures to be played yet this season in the Trail Club shield series. On Monday night, the Trail and Sons of England will meet and the opinion seems to be that, as a result, the Trail will still further advance in first place and the Sons may even further go back in last. Being a match between the league leaders and tail-enders, the result of it will in all likelihood, be in proportion to the season play. The St. Andrew's and Great War Veterans' will meet on Wednesday night.

Here the third and fifth teams in the standing will meet and the Scots will likely confirm their hold on third place which has been rather slim over the Elks since last week's tournament.

THE DAILY NEWS

In the Letter Box

OPENING OF SEVENTH ST.

Editor Daily News:

I have read the City Engineer's letter in your issue of Saturday answering mine of a few days ago.

He furnishes figures of street grades most of which differ very little from those I gave, while the others are evidently not the grades of the places I specified, notably his figure of 2.75 for the east end of Third Avenue. This would appear to be the grade on Third Avenue West of McBride Street, the dividing line between east and west, while the grade just thereto is about six and one-half per cent. However, these details of grades are not the really important aspect of the case and I would not have referred to them at all but for the engineer's statement that there was something wrong if any man thought of heavy traffic being carried over a five per cent grade.

The simple fact is that heavy traffic is being carried over that and much higher grades in this and many other cities.

FAVO'S SEVENTH.

The engineer does not refute any of the facts I stated in support of the Seventh Street route, and in condemnation of Eleventh Street—which latter he is reported as favoring. These facts still stand, challenging successive refutation, both as regards the absolute unsuitability of the Eleventh Street and the overwhelming merits and claims of the Seventh Street route.

In addition to the numerous stores of the western section of the city all the hotels except one, several large apartment and rooming houses, the leading places of amusement, most of the restaurants, and the main taxi stands are in the immediate vicinity of Seventh Street, in fact they cluster around it, and for all these the Seventh Street route to trains and steamers would be incomparably the most convenient and economical for both passengers and freight, and it should not be forgotten that for passenger traffic the first essential is saving time. The Eleventh Street route would send the vast majority of passengers four blocks farther west than is necessary and of course they would have to return over the same distance to reach their destination.

A five or six per cent grade being quite feasible for the very short roadway from Seventh Street to the station, and that street having been made extra wide so as to be specially suitable for a main thoroughfare to the waterfront, it is hard to understand how or why any other route should be adopted.

MATTER OF FACTION.

The engineer closes his letter by saying that he is "not inter-

NOT RELIGION OR MORALS.

May I now add that the conception of the Act as having to do with religion or morals is a mistaken one. Its one and only function is to give to every one, so far as possible, a free day every week, free from the usual occupations of the other days and free to use as his conscience directs. It makes no reference to the religious observance of Sunday, except to permit churches to carry on their usual and ordinary work in connection with divine worship, just as it permits a doctor to minister to the sick for the same reason of necessity and mercy. It does not forbid amusement on Sunday, only requiring that you shall not pay some one else to amuse you, as that some one else has an equal right to the day off as yourself. The commercializing of Sunday is the bulls-eye it aims at.

The Lord's Day Act is as far as possible from being a "blue law," indeed Sunday would be blue enough for hundreds and thousands of people were it not for its provisions.

SAD LOT OF A RUSSIAN WOMAN

Knew Court Life and Took Part in Struggle With Mussulmans.

SUZKAN ON THE VOLGA, Feb. 20.—If Russia ever amounts to anything it will be through the organization of her women which has not yet taken place, declared a sprightly, merry little woman to the correspondent on the through train from Tashkent, in Turkestan, to Moscow. Before the revolution she had borne the title of princess. "I hate Russian men," she went on. "They have given us a land made of pitchforks (it doesn't matter where tomorrow); ja nieznamy, (I don't know) and avos (perhaps)."

She had been to Tashkent to speculate in gold. Everybody had to do something to live nowadays.

She was the wife of a Mussulman, once owning thousands of acres of land with an income of $100,000 a year.

Man Was Obstinate.

She had warned him to get out of Russia, three years ago, sell his lands, but he was obstinate and now he was wandering she knew not where, both he and she were separated from their children and she had nearly died in a Soviet prison.

Taking one thing with another, she didn't regret her sufferings and losses. It had taught her a lot. She had known court life, that of Paris and London. Now the revolution had dropped her into abject poverty.

She was tired of the struggle. The prison had broken her spirit. Like many Russians, she was morally bankrupt. She had had her fling in politics and at times had a lot of fun at it. She wanted to get abroad but she wondered if she could ever settle down in a calmer atmosphere; she had become so used to excitement.

Eye for An Eye.

Some of her family had been executed through the efforts of another woman politician and she had tried to have that woman and her husband executed in their turn. It had been a struggle between the Reds and the Mussulmans of the Caspian Sea country. The Reds had won and she was made a prisoner by the woman she had tried to have executed. It was Kismet.

Rather than satisfy her woman enemy, she had tried to commit suicide in the Cheka prison by taking an overdose of cocaine. It had failed.

She had been put on the prison train and shipped north with several hundreds of others, detained to an Archangel prison, after the Soviet manner of locking up people in places distant from their people and homes. She had to sell even down to her underclothes to get food.

Made Herself Ill.

Fortunately, she was able to make herself ill. She put snow on her chest, caught cold, and then the typhus, and had to be put off at a wayside hospital. There a sister of charity recognized and befriended her and she was brought back to a semblance of health, and through friends in Moscow was finally freed. How long her present free-

CRIPPLED WITH RHEUMATISM

Then She Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES"
And Has Been Well Ever Since

MADAM SLOAT

PERIN JUNCTION, N.B., Jan. 22nd, 1920

"For many years, I was a great sufferer from Indigestion, Constipation and Rheumatism. My Stomach was weak and gave me constant distress, while Rheumatism in my joints made me almost a cripple, was treated by two different doctors but their medicine did me no good. Then I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and at once that fruit medicine helped me. Soon the Constipation and Indigestion were relieved and the Rheumatism began to go away, and in a few months entirely disappeared. For twelve years now, my health has been first class, and I attribute it to the use of "Fruit-a-tives" which I take regularly."

dom would last she couldn't say. She knew she could not endure a second imprisonment, not even for a week, so she carried about her enough cocaine to defeat the prison.

Meanwhile she was working, trying to keep afloat. She had sold most of her jewels and things. Sometimes she did odd jobs as a seamstress, sometimes she went to the country and brought in baskets of eggs to sell. Just now she was prospering. She was sending money to her children. She had stored away some family jewels in a distant place to keep them as a reserve for the future.

ANARCHISTS NOT WANTED

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 20.—Sweden is facing a curious dilemma as the result of her well meant hospitality in granting temporary asylum to Emma Goldman, Alexander Berkman and Alexander Shapiro, formerly deported to Russia from the United States. Since this trio arrived, several other Russian anarchists have come into the country.

As matters stand at present Sweden may either have to deport the anarchists or cope with a movement, said to be on foot, of making Stockholm an international anarchist center.

Nobody Wants Them.

But to what country can these anarchists be deported? Nobody wants them. Since their arrival in Stockholm, Emma Goldman and other anarchists from Russia have so roundly denounced the Soviet government that if they are returned thither, the Bolshevik authorities, never noted for their leniency, may send them all to jail or deal with them in a more summary fashion.

Germany has already put up the bars against these agitators, as was shown recently when Miss Goldman tried to enter Germany for the purpose of attending the international anarchist congress in Berlin. Freund, Austria's representative to this conclave, was arrested on the border by the German police.

International Bureau.

Now the Stockholm press states that a resolution was adopted at the Berlin anarchist congress to establish an international anarchist bureau in the Swedish capital, presumably because Stockholm is now the temporary abiding place of so many leading anarchist lights. The press emphasizes that it would be most unfortunate if Sweden's hospitality should be abused by thus making Stockholm an anarchist center and some papers assert that energetic steps will be taken against any attempts of this character.

ASK MAYOR'S HELP IN GETTING A WIFE

WINNIPEG, Feb. 20.—The civic citadel has come to it. After filling the rôle of administrative chamber, lost relative bureau, free information parlor, and all whatnots of a good city hall, it has been recognized at last as the marriage mart of Manitoba. One prospective customer, looking for a bargain in brides, has summoned the "Mayor of Winter Peg" to his aid. The applicant is "AIRTIGHT"—capitalized from A to T—he says so himself—and makes a modest request for the prairie centre to supply him with a good, beautiful, loving wife of some means, specifications enclosed.

Addressing the mayor, he writes thus:

"I am told there are many good, beautiful women in your country anxious to get married and that will make good and loving wives. I would regard it as a great favor if you would assist me in making the acquaintance of..... (aforsaid specifications repeated), medium size, fair complexion, under 45, healthy, good looking, with some means." Flirting is taboo, but the lady must be loving and she is bound to get a wonderful husband. He admits to being 52 years old, and says he is 205 pounds in weight, dark hair, etc., very pleasant disposition, doesn't use tobacco, booze or coffee, and has residences in Mexico and Texas. Outside of that he is well worth making the acquaintance of, he says.
