Storekeeper at North Island and His Wife Are Victims of Double Drowning Fatality Reported Here

A wire was received by Chief McInty, provincial police chief, on Saturday afternoon from Massett to the effect that Mr. and Mrs. George Doughty, of North Island, had been drowned, and that the body of Mrs. Doughty had been found on the beach at Graham Island.

Mrs. Doughty had returned to Massett from a vacation and her husband had gone to meet her there. It was on the homeward trip that the catastrophe occurred.

Mr. Doughty had been employed as manager of the store of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company's branch on Langara Island for some twelve months.

Jack Doughty, a son, is at present working on the snagboat Cygnus up the Skeena River and has been communicated with by the provincial police. It is expected he will arrive in the city during the day.

Constable Ponder of Massett, who arrived here on Saturday with a demented Indian, was despatched on Saturday night for the scene. Further details as to the accident are so far lacking.

NO RUN, NO HIT, NO WALK GAME TODAY

Recruit of Chicago White Sox Did Envyable Baseball
Feat at New York.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Achieving the acme of the pitching art—a no-hit, no-run game, with no players reaching first base—Charlie Robertson, the recruit star of the Chicago White Sox, today accomplished the feat that has been duplicated only five times in the major leagues here. In fact, there are only two or three perfect games in the memory of the present generation diamond followers. Cy Young, the famous "Iron Man," pitched one against Philadelphia on May 5, 1904, when he was with Boston, while Addie Joss, hurling for Cleveland, turned the trick against Chicago on October 2, 1908.

More Harmonious Spirit in Evidence at Genoa; Russian Statement Not Yet Finished

PEKIN IS PUT UNDER MARTIAL LAW; FOUGHT IN CITY ON SUNDAY

PEKIN, May 1.—Martial law was declared in Pekin on Sunday. The northern and southern armies fought in the city continuously throughout the day. The United States legation has requested Washington to send another warship to Tientsin to protect American interests.

The battle for the possession of Pekin is still continuing today, with the advantage apparently going to the forces of General Wu Pei Fu, who is driving towards the capital from the south. Advances from the centre of hostilities twelve miles southwest of the city were that General Wu was forcing the soldiers of General Chang Tso Lin from Sin Tien and that the tide of battle was rolling eastward toward the southern walls of Pekin.

TURKEY WILL NOT RECOGNIZE MIXED JUDICIAL COURT

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 29.—The Turkish Nationalist authorities at Ankara have sent to the Allied representatives here notice that they refuse to recognize the mixed judicial commission for dealing with disputes between Allied and Ottoman subjects.

The tribunal, commonly called the "mixed court," is composed of judicial representatives from Great Britain, France and Italy and sits at the ministry of justice in Constantinople.

GENOA, May 1.—The work of completing the Allied proposals to Russia resumed today with the promise of more rapid headway being made than heretofore.

The last few days has brought into evidence a more harmonious spirit between the British and French delegations and confidence is now felt that the divergence in the British and French views can be adjusted.

While nothing has been officially communicated to the Russians as to the progress of the work, they are being kept familiar with what has already been decided by the Allies through the publication of details in Genoa. The impression obtains that quiet unofficial conferences are taking place between the Allied delegates and the Soviet leaders.

Denies Secrecy.

Foreign Minister Tchitcherine of Russia has written to Vice-Premier Barthou of France assuring him that there are no secret military or political clauses in the Russo-German treaty signed at Rapallo on Easter Sunday. He says that Russia is not hostile towards France notwithstanding France's unfriendly attitude toward Russia.

ATTEMPT WAS MADE TO ASSASSINATE GENERAL

PEKIN, May 1.—An attempt to assassinate General Wu Pei Fu of the Central Chinese forces was made on Saturday, it is unofficially reported here. The general was slightly wounded but the assailant was captured and immediately executed, according to the report.

In the city police court this morning before Magistrate McClymont, Lee Roy, Chinaman, was charged by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police under the Opium and Narcotic Drug Act, with being in possession of opium prepared for smoking. Evidence for the prosecution and defence was heard and the case was adjourned until 2:30 this afternoon. Milton Gonzales, of Williams and Manson appeared for the defence.

R. Hemming arrived in the city this afternoon from the south. He is to take a position on the typographical staff of the Daily News.

Question of Queen Charlotte Islands.

Now that the English immigrants have arrived on the Queen Charlotte Islands and taken up their residence there, the question of the suitability of the Islands for agricultural pursuits has again become a greatly discussed matter. Opinions, not only in Prince Rupert but generally, are very different. Some condemn them for such a purpose, while others say there are great possibilities. It is not the intention here to adjudicate on the point. There is one thing that is certain, however, and that is that at certain points on Graham Island agriculture in many branches, especially the raising of fruit and vegetables and stock, can be carried on with great success. Some settlers already there produce almost all they need in the way of food and require to bring in only a few staple lines that would be necessary anywhere. It is also possible to produce for the market in good quantity. The one drawback from which the Islands are suffering now is transportation and no one will deny that this is limited and is not adequate. Once the settlers are established there and have the produce it will doubtless be looked after.

Water Connection at Cow Bay Needed.

Robert Hanna writes a letter today urging the necessity for the putting in of water connection to Cow Bay. All will agree with Mr. Hanna that it is needed badly there and many boats are at the present time being subjected to an unwarranted inconvenience. However, in its scheme of permanent improvements at this section of the waterfront, the provincial government is providing for a water main. Owing to the temporary work that has been there so far it was not deemed advisable to put in a main that would have to be taken out again, and that is why it is not in already. With the permanent work now proceeding, it is not likely that the fishermen will have to wait very much longer for this very necessary facility.

Cold Storage Is Valuable Domestically and Commercially.

Cold storage should need no defence. Domestically it is valuable, and commercially it is invaluable. Anybody who uses a refrigerator in the summer months will recognize this. What it does for a householder on a limited scale it does for the trader on a wholesale scale. It preserves whatever food is entrusted to it for future use. While this is an undisputed fact, there is, as the Dominion dairy and cold storage commissioner says, more or less prejudice against the system in the public mind. If the quality of certain food appears to have deteriorated, there is frequently a declaration that it has suffered from cold storage. Of course there may be some reason in the supposition, but experiments have abundantly proven that if a substance is placed in cold storage in a fit and wholesome condition, provided the temperature is kept right, it will remain in that condition for a great length of time. Cold storage in a commercial way leads to and maintains a well-balanced state of supply. It enables unseasonable goods to be placed on the table in seasonable condition. It permits goods to be shipped for long distances. It enables districts that can not produce certain lines of food to enjoy the lines produced in other and possibly far off districts and climes. In short, cold storage has become indispensable to modern life, and while it may at times lend itself to certain abuses, these are not such as can not be regulated.

CRIPPLED WITH RHEUMATISM

Then She Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES" And Has Been Well Ever Since

MADAM SLOAT

PRINCE JUNCTION, N.B., Jan. 22nd, 1920

"For many years, I was a great sufferer from Indigestion, Constipation and Rheumatism. My Stomach was weak and gave me constant distress, while Rheumatism in my joints made me almost a cripple. I was treated by two different doctors but their medicine did me no good.

Then I tried "Fruit-a-tives" and at once that fruit medicine helped me. Soon the Constipation and Indigestion were relieved and the Rheumatism began to go away, and in a few months entirely disappeared. For twelve years now, my health has been first class, and I attribute it to the use of "Fruit-a-tives" which I take regularly."

CONSTANCE TALMADGE TO INTRODUCE STYLES

Advance Fashions to Be Seen in "Lessons in Love" Tonight.

In addition to appearing in the chic costume of a French maid, Constance Talmadge will be seen in some very smart and up-to-the-minute styles in her latest Associated First National release, "Lessons in Love," at the Westholme Theatre tonight. Constance and her sister Norma recently signed a contract with Lucien Lelong, one of the best known couturiers of Paris, whereby they agree to have Lelong furnish them with twelve models per year. These day and evening gowns will be the very last word in ultra-chic advance styles, and will be introduced into America exclusively by the Talmadges. By the terms of the contract, water color sketches and samples of material are submitted to the Talmadges of every unique style or novel design as soon as it is brought out by Lelong, and in this way the Talmadge sisters will be able to show on the screen the very newest changes in style long before they become generally adopted by the American public.

STONE AGE IN THIS PROVINCE

Provincial Museum at Victoria Has Been Improved Under Premier Oliver.

VICTORIA, May 1. (By Canadian Press.)—The stone age which, after making the cave man famous, came to an end in Western Europe about 1700 B.C., was carried on for more than three thousand years later and in its most characteristic form existed in British Columbia up until as late as a century ago in some districts, according to findings of archaeologists who have been exploring some of the old community sites, mounds and aboriginal graves along the coast and in the interior of the province.

The stone age in British Columbia has for years been the study of scientists of note, who have been working the field in an effort to build up the story of the evolution of the prehistoric civilization as exemplified in the tribes of human beings who worked out their existence between the Rockies and the Coast. Valuable collections have been obtained. It is only recently that British Columbia has, in an effective way, turned its attention to the past. Under Premier Oliver the provincial museum has been partially rebuilt and the collections put on exhibition.

Ancient Exhibits.

The aboriginal occupants of this country belonged to the neolithic, or new stone age, according to the specimens. The specimens came from old village sites and burying places. Stone and bone tools were in common use when the first white explorers reached the North Pacific, though iron and copper in small quantities were also found nearly everywhere. In some instances the native races had developed a degree of art. One of the feature objects in the exhibit is a copy of a human figure seated holding a bowl. It was chipped out of a solid block of stone and then polished off smoothly. There are two of these specimens, very much alike. One was discovered near Departure Bay, Nanaimo, and the other in North Saanich on Vancouver Island.

Perhaps most characteristic of the stone age are the stone axes and hammers discovered in many places. They are almost identical with the tools of the neolithic man found in Europe. The stone weapons include daggers and war clubs. There are many examples of stone dishes, hewn out of small holders. Of what appear to be rolling pins of a somewhat angular design the prehistoric woman of this coast seems to have been well supplied. These instruments made of solid iron have been found in many places.

Aborigines Smoked.

Primitive man in British Columbia apparently did a little smoking once in a while. Old shell mounds on the Thompson and Fraser rivers have yielded what appear to be stone pipes. The early explorers found that the native races were using a true tobacco, nicotina attenuata, which grows wild in the Thompson river country and was smoked along with grease and kinnikinnick.

AT LAST! Modern Laundry Service At a Price for Every Purse

We have long realized that the present system of charging for FAMILY WASHING is hopelessly inconsistent. With this in mind, we have gradually assembled equipment until now we are in a position to offer an entirely different service.

Laundry Work by the Pound

Under this new system we offer three distinct services

DAMP WASH SOFT FINISH ROUGH DRY

DAMP WASH—This service returns everything washed ready for starching and ironing at a cost much below doing it in the home. Offered to those whose financial circumstances demand the care of every penny, 5c per lb. Minimum charge $1.25. Bags furnished at a cost of 35c each which will be refunded on return to laundry.

SOFT FINISH—This service is planned for the majority of people who now send some washing to the laundry. Under this plan, everything is washed and dried. Flat pieces are ironed and folded and wearing apparel is dried in a dryroom tumbler, rendering most pieces beautifully soft and fluffy, ready for wear without ironing. We particularly recommend this service, 7c per lb plus 1c per piece. Minimum charge $1.50.

ROUGH DRY—This service returns everything dry—flat pieces ironed and folded and wearing apparel starched. This should appeal to those who wish to do as little laundry work as possible in the home and yet do not want to pay the high cost of finishing the entire bundle in the laundry. 9c per lb plus 1c per piece. Minimum charge $1.25.

NOTE—The 1c per piece is to equalize the cost of handling numerous small pieces such as handkerchiefs, etc.

THESE THREE "HOME SERVICES" ARE BUT PART OF OUR OPERATIONS. We are primarily a laundry, executing in the best fashion all the so-called standard laundry services. In addition, we conduct a separate and distinct DRY CLEANING Department—the finest plant and the best workmanship in all the North. Somehow and someway THE CANADIAN SHOULD BE YOUR LAUNDRY. We have a wagon in YOUR neighborhood regularly and hope soon to make your acquaintance.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

Two Men in a Car

A short account of a Trip to California in a Ford Flivver
By H. F. Pullen

BUYING A CAR.

In making a trip in a flivver, one of the most important things is buying the car. It is better to borrow one if you can, as Dick and I did last year, but that is not always possible, so the next best thing is to buy one at such a price that it can be sold again after having carried the party safely throughout the trip.

Some people have flivvers, or possibly fine autos. They will take no interest in this account. They lose much of the joy of the excursion. I arrived in Vancouver from Prince Rupert on Saturday night and was to leave Victoria on Wednesday fully equipped. It was necessary to act promptly. Accordingly I looked around me in Vancouver and was soon inveigled into making a purchase.

The particular flivver which I bought was not much different from half a dozen others I saw except that the engine seemed to be in good shape, it was hitting on all four and it started without taking the skin off my hands or raising a blister. Also it was guaranteed by a reliable firm. I bought it. The license was given without extra charge and the tool kit was sent on later by express.

Talking It Over.

In talking the matter over shortly before with a friend who once took an interest in horses, the friend remarked that the important thing he had been informed was to see that the car was free from spavins or other blemishes, to watch that there was no sign of leaves and to be sure she was a good feeder. I took the hint. The particular Lizzie that we are about to embark in tomorrow is sound in wind and limb and she is guaranteed to be a good consumer of idle dollars. I already know that. Sound is something in which she excels.

My son Dick, who is to accompany me on the trip, does not seem to appreciate my art in driving the buggy. He says I take more liberties with the law and police regulations than any other person in Victoria and if we do not get away tomorrow he feels sure I shall be arrested. He says I drive on the wrong side of the road, park the flivver in the wrong places, turn the corners too abruptly (abruptly is a good word), fail to honk my horn at the proper time and do a dozen other wrong things. As a matter of fact I have had no horn to honk. There was a little buzzer but it might as well not have existed for all the good it was. Now I have a Klaxon that shrieks horribly and frightens all the children and dogs and old people who are in the habit of blocking the path.

Plenty of Noises.

Nearly all Dick's friends had given him advice as to how to purchase the car, where to purchase it and what sort of car to get and also what sort not to get. Happily I did not know any of this until the purchase was made, so we have most of the faults and failings against which he was warned. There is an advantage in a multiplicity of noises in a car when she is travelling because then a new one more or less does not worry us. We are happy because if the wheel is to come off soon we are unaware of the fact. If the carburetor does not properly carburete, we do not know it. We are oblivious to everything except the fact that we leave for the south tomorrow to forget our cares, to enjoy the well known American hospitality in a delightful climate with nothing to do but admire the spring flowers, revel in the scenery and as we get farther south eat of the fruit of the land. We are already enjoying the trip in anticipation. We are accumulating all sorts of useless things such as a tent, a gasoline cook stove, an arrangement for sleeping under cover of the car and over the seats, various boxes and cases in which to keep things and also new tires, tools, repair kits and the hundred and one articles that people about to leave for the great unknown accumulate and take joy in. If we never get any farther than Seattle we shall feel that we have been for a trip. We shall have had a lot of the pleasure. We shall have experienced the thrill of being wished joy by our friends and the backbiting of our enemies who prophesy all sorts of evil happenings for us.

Land of the Free.

It may be days before I shall have an opportunity to tell about the first experiences in the Land of the Free. It may even be weeks, if we are arrested on our arrival or are the victims of a confidence trick. No matter what the experiences are you will hear of them faithfully and truly in due time. Just now I am in Victoria getting ready to leave tomorrow.

CANADIAN FARMER BALL OCEAN FALLS

Affair on Saturday Evening Was Big Success and 300 Attended.

OCEAN FALLS, May 1.—The success of the ball given by the officers and engineers of the C. G. M. S. S. Canadian Farmer at the local hall Thursday evening exceeded all expectations. Over three hundred invitations were sent out by the Farmer's staff and every one responded.

At midnight refreshments were served and free smokes handed around. Dancing was then resumed until 3:30 a.m.

The Boys of the Farmer expended labor as well as money to make the event big and tastefully decorated the hall with flags.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. M. A. Haslett, Mrs. D. C. McPherson and Mrs. F. W. Clirch.

The Canadian Farmer left here late Friday afternoon for California and way ports.

On Quality Only

While we are firm adherents to the principle of using made in British Columbia goods at all times, we don't solicit patronage for Pacific Milk on that basis, but because of superiority over milk put up anywhere in Canada.

Pacific is rich in pure cream, due, of course, to the natural richness of the fresh milk, and our improved process of evaporation and canning retains the sweet fresh cream flavor. It is better for cooking and baking than fresh milk or cream.

DANCE EXHIBITION AT WESTHOLME ON SATURDAY SUCCESS

The exhibition of dancing, under the direction of Mrs. H. O. Crewe assisted by her pupils, given at the Westholme theatre on Saturday afternoon was a decided success, a large crowd being present. The dance program given in the St. Andrew's Hall on the previous Saturday was repeated.

The effect of the juvenile dances was greatly enhanced by the stage settings and the spotlight. The kiddies were very obliging with their encores and entered into the whole affair with great spirit and confidence. The exhibition dance by Mr. and Mrs. Crewe was specially enjoyable. At the conclusion of it Miss Mai Hall presented Mrs. Crewe with a beautiful bouquet of carnations on behalf of the senior dancing class.

STEWART

W. R. Macfarlane leaves shortly on a trip south.

The Marmion arrived from Anxox last week with a shipment of powder for the Premier mine; also for the government; nearly 1000 cases in all.

James Nesbitt has returned from the hot springs at Bella Isle.

The Premier tramline was shut down for two or three days last week owing to trouble in the power house at the upper end.

The absence of crust on the snow this year has inconvenienced a large number of people who wished to take supplies into the hills, both for prospecting and for trapping.

Charles Lake, who has spent the winter with his parents on their farm in Manitoba, returned to Stewart on the Puchena on Friday last.

S. P. Fitzgerald came down from the Independence group, Bear River, last Wednesday and reports that work on the property, owned by himself and his brother, is progressing very well indeed. Some nice looking samples have been taken from new work done on zone No. 1.

Becoming frightened at a passing motor car, one of Crawford's transfer teams jumped over the six-foot embankment between the dock approaches, just south of the town. An extraordinary feature of the incident was the fact that the wagon was left on the road and neither of the horses were hurt.

During the month of April 2, 397,000 pounds of halibut was marketed at this port as compared with 1,819,900 pounds for the same month last year. The highest price during the month was 11.7c and 4.2c on April 25 and the lowest, 5c and 3c on April 15.

COW BAY PIPE LINE.

Editor Daily News:

I have been asked by a number of small boat owners at Cow Bay to write you pointing out the necessity for a water pipe being laid down to the bay or near the floats. It would be a great convenience for the fishermen for they at present have to carry their water from the foot of Second Avenue. Many of the boats which should be thus accommodated come from the islands and outlying districts. Some of the owners have their wives on board and it is necessary to carry water 300 yards.

I think it is nearly time the city took a thought of the small boats bringing in revenue to Prince Rupert. I might point out that in Ketchikan the water is laid right down to the floats.

In 1914 we had about ten trolling boats in Prince Rupert. Now we have 250 and the number is still increasing.

We have all kinds of commissioners, including police commissioners. Why not harbor commissioners to look after the needs of the fishing industry?

R. HANNA,

Pioneer of Prince Rupert.

MORE HOOMES K.

Editor Daily News:

I have found in a magazine on "Wm. Walker Fillmore" this clipping which expresses so much better what I in my blundering way have been trying to bring before you, in my recent letters. I feel called upon to present it:

"And still that repressed idea of his was mastering him. It was the idea of liberty, human liberty, voluntarism, the right of one human being and one set of human beings to live their lives unmolested by others."

"Back from the dawn of history two ideas have sought for lowering among humankind. One is that a man will become more of a man if left alone to live his life in his own way. The other is that men in power can mold men better than they can mold themselves. From four thousand years ago these two ideas have clashed, and almost all wars and all revolutions have been caused thereby."

Licenses, and special privileges are not within the scope of a democracy's laws. Instead of granting such special privileges, it is the duty of the rulers to present, through education, all her citizens with the one special privilege of engaging in any activity, or business. This is the unwritten law of all democracies best expressed in the U. S. Constitution, the guaranty of life and liberty and the pursuit of health, wealth and happiness. The fact that the people of the United States have forgotten these laws and now are in a state of civil war almost as bad as that in Russia or Ireland should cause us to take heed. In the good old days when people got so good that this "wicked world" palled upon them, they went to a nunnery or a monastery there to meditate upon their own saintliness and the folly of their neighbors and the world wagged on. Verily twice better so.

Sport Chat

With the approach of spring comes the preparations for the summer's racing throughout the Dominion of Canada. The season, as in former years, will be inaugurated in the Province of Quebec, the first meeting being scheduled to open in Montreal on Saturday, May 6, over a week earlier than racing has ever previously started on a Canadian track. With more settled conditions the outlook for the thoroughbred in Canada this year is brighter than at the commencement of any season for years. There has been less agitation against racing during the winter months than previously and with the government well in control of the sport racing should thrive as it has not done for a long time. The sport a year ago was brought under almost perfect control. The representatives of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police rendered great assistance. They took charge in the Mutual plants as well as around the various courses at which racing was conducted.

Racing throughout Canada is now held under the rules of the Canadian Racing Association, they being adopted by the Western Racing Association which includes Vancouver and Victoria, British Columbia and the Quebec Breeders and Racing Association which controls the majority of the tracks in the province of Quebec. With a working agreement between the governing bodies and those of the United States undesirable racing is eliminated with the result that the sport has been placed on a firmer and better foundation. Under these conditions there is no opportunity for trainers, owners or riders committing infractions of racing laws at one place and continuing in the sport by moving to another. A year ago the racing association ruled in strict manner and the power of the officials is likely to be increased this season, which is an assurance of even better and keener sport.

The two Colonets who own the New York Yankees are trying an experiment in applied psychology. They are making the care, free, reckless, Babe Ruth captain of the team. They are placing responsibilities on the broad shoulders of the Home Run King to observe just how much responsibility will steady the Babe, writes W. O. McGeehan in the New York Herald.

They say that the experiment is working already. As soon as the Babe heard that he was to be captain he brought up the name of a boon companion of the reckless days. "They tell me that sucker is acting up and neglecting training," said the Babe. "Wait till I get hold of him, I'll make him behave if I have to massage him with a bat."

It is not so often that the star performer makes the ideal leader, but the Babe has qualifications for the field captain's job if he takes the honor seriously. Apparently he does, and the Yanks will not only have the benefit of his hitting but they will have him trying to instill some of his own pep and

OPPOSITION TO COMMUNISM IN RUSSIA GROWS

MOSCOW, April 29.—Opposition to policies laid down by the majority of the Communist party has become more open and daring in Russia recently than at any time since high-handed methods were inaugurated in 1918.

Groups, extremely small numerically and perhaps devoid of any power to change the trend of things, which formerly aired their grievances, if at all, in secret meetings and were promptly voted down, have recently, in several instances, surprised Moscow by coming right out in the open.

Principal among these was the group of 24 persons headed by A. Shliapnikoff, of the metal workers group, who, disappointed with the return of capitalism and the apparent abandonment of communism, dared to take their grievance to the Third Internationale. They were promptly sat upon and threatened with expulsion from the Communist party unless they obeyed discipline.

Speak Right Out.

The two Mensheviks and two Social Revolutionists in the Moscow Soviet, generally timid folk, weighted down by the thousand or more Communists or "non-partisan" fellow members of the Soviet, plucked up courage the other day to speak right out in a big public meeting.

They merely wanted to change the wording of a resolution about the Third Internationale, but the fact that they stood up and voted against the scheduled plan, despite the hooting and jeering of the majority and in the presence of Leon Trotsky, war minister, and dozens of foreign journalists and diplomats attending the meeting, seemed something new in Moscow.

TRIBUTE IS PAID HON. FRANK OLIVER

EDMONTON, Alta., May 1.—A tribute to the position held by him in journalism in the west was accorded to the Hon. Frank Oliver at the annual meeting of the Edmonton Press Club when he was elected lifelong honorary president of the club.

The resolution embodying these proposals was moved by J. M. Imrie, who said that in the Hon. Frank Oliver they had one who held a unique position in the city and one deserving of all the honor they could give him. He had taken part in the early development days of the city, had watched over and worked for its welfare. The resolution was seconded by C. R. Morrison and called by acclamation by the remainder of the members.

SMALL FORCE AT ACROPOLIS GROUNDS DID MUCH WORK

Small Cinders and Put Sports Field in Much Better Shape.

Although the weather yesterday was not very inspiring some of our faithful sport enthusiasts turned out to "spring clean" the Acropolis recreation grounds. The force was a small one but full of pep and managed to break all the cinders, and get the ground in sufficiently good shape to permit of the football practice tomorrow evening. The majority of the sports who turned out were purely sport fans, the actual players being conspicuous by their absence.

FOUR NEW INDIAN SCHOOLS OPENED

News of Province Now Shows Marked Interest in Education of Children.

The opening of four new schools and a marked interest in parents in the education of their children are the principal features in the development of Indian education in B. C., according to the report for the year ending March 31 made to the federal government by R. H. Cairns, inspector, who will be in Prince Rupert on Wednesday.

There are now 2500 Indian children attending schools in the province," states the report. This is one-tenth of the Indian population and is a marked increase in the school attendance a few years ago. There are 25,000 Indians in British Columbia, as compared with 100,000 in the whole of Canada. About one-half the students are attending residential schools, the remainder receiving tuition in the day schools and living with their parents.

Fraser Lake School.

A boarding school at Fraser Lake housing 130 pupils, was opened last year, but the new school at Sechart, to accommodate 100 pupils, will not be opened until June. Kitseukla school, on the Skeena River, has also been opened, as has the new school at Bulkley, costing $6500. The latter accommodates 30 pupils and several kindergartens have also been opened at various Indian settlements during the past 12 months, there being now 60 schools in operation and all accommodation for pupils used.

Mr. Cairns leaves Vancouver tonight for Prince Rupert to inspect schools on the Skeena River and in the vicinity of Fraser Lake.

Better be honest than clever.

FRESH ROASTED COFFEE FRESH ROASTED

"Supreme" Brand is Fresh Roasted

Tastes as Good as it Smells

The value of coffee as a beverage lies primarily in its strength and flavor. Green coffee will keep indefinitely, but such is not the case after it has been roasted. Roasting brings out the flavor and aroma. Coffee becomes stale because of loss of these aromatic principles. We are roasting and packing for current requirements only, realizing that, essentially, coffee must be fresh roasted to prove perfectly satisfactory.

LIVER TROUBLE ad Bilious Attacks

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers. Your bowels become constipated, the tongue coated, the breath bad, the stomach foul and sick, and bilious spells occur on account of the liver holding back the bile which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood, instead of passing out through the usual channel.

The only way to keep the liver active and working properly, and thus get rid of the nasty bilious attacks, is to keep the bowels regular by using

MILBURN'S
LAXA-LIVER PILLS
They are purely vegetable, small and easy to take, work smoothly and gently, and there is nothing of the griping, weakening and sickening effects of the old-fashioned purgatives.

Mr. John S. Caron, Donavon, Sask.,
writes:—I was troubled with my liver,
and had severe bilious attacks. A friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver pills, so I took two vials and I have had no more attacks.

ESKIMO CENSUS HAS BEEN TAKEN

R. C. M. P. Figures Show There
Are 1364 Souls.

EDMONTON, May 1.—The first batch of mail received from the far north at Royal Canadian Police headquarters here brings a report of the Eskimo census completed last August by members of the R. C. M. P. The report shows that the Eskimo inhabitants of the Arctic, from Coronation gulf to the Alaska boundary, number 1,364 souls.

To the east of Coronation gulf
and including Kent peninsula
there are probably as many more as the total given here. Major G.
L. Jennings, commanding the R.
C. M. P. here, states, Major Jennings says these natives have not yet been enumerated, and there is no connection between the tribes and the Eskimos from the Hudson's Bay territory.

In addition there are a number of Eskimos living in the mountains south of Herschel island and who trade at Rampart House and the post of the Old Crow river in respect to whom no information has been received so far.
