PRINCE RUPERT
AND KETCHIKAN
AS FISH PORTS

There are two ports in the North Pacific where fresh halibut is being sold, Prince Rupert and Ketchikan. Small quantities are taken to other ports, but only occasional shipments. Prince Rupert is a Canadian port and Ketchikan is in the United States.

The majority of the fishing boats are American and the larger part of the consumption of the fish is in American cities. Most of the fish is shipped by the American buyers here in bond to the Eastern States.

There are two important factors in the fish business, speed and proper facilities. By shipping from Prince Rupert the fish reaches market several days earlier than if it was shipped from any other port. No matter what facilities are put in at Ketchikan or any other port, none can compete with this port in the matter of speed. The speed is likely to be increased as soon as the railway company gives a daily train service, for then there will be daily auction sales here and daily shipments of fish to the past will be made by the passenger trains. There could not be daily trips of a car barge across the rough waters of Gatham Sound.

Good Facilities.

Prince Rupert already has the facilities for handling the fish business. There is here the largest fish cold storage plant in the world and the largest cold storage plant of any kind on the coast. The fish buyers are located here in permanent, well-filled quarters provided by the government of British Columbia. There is good dockage and every facility for handling the product. The only thing lacking is a suitable place for the boats to tie up after they have discharged their cargo.

All the fishermen wish to sell their catches here and the American fish buyers wish to do business here. There are, however, some property owners and business men in Ketchikan who would like to have the business diverted to that port. Already a good deal of the fishermen's supplies is purchased at Ketchikan, but they want it all, no matter at what inconvenience to the fishermen or at what cost to the consumers of fish in the east. The question of providing good food for the people of the United States does not seem to affect the people of Ketchikan.

Business Relations.

It is becoming more and more apparent that the relations between Prince Rupert and Ketchikan must steadily improve. The towns will have to do business with each other in spite of the fact that one is in Alaska and the other in British Columbia. There is a mutual advantage to the Alaskans in doing business here, for this is the natural port of supply. It should not be long before there is a regular steamship service between the two ports, but it would be foolish for the Ketchikan people to try to divert trade which is justly ours just for the sake of improving the value of real estate in their town.

A special Memorial Service will be held in St. Andrew's Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, when Bishop Du Vernet will preach on the life of Archdeacon Collison.

FUNERAL OF ARCHDEACON

Solemn, Stately and Impressive Ceremonies Attended Laying to Rest of Pioneer Missionary.

The funeral of the late Venerable Archdeacon W. H. Collison, which was held at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning at Kincolith, was a solemn, stately and impressive ceremony. The beautiful native church was filled to overflowing and many who could not gain entry were compelled to stand outside. Delegations from outside villages numbered 125 persons and Metlakatla and Port Simpson, on the coast, and Lakatzap, half way up the Nass River, were represented. Other places, on account of winter travelling conditions, were unable to be represented. A telegram expressing regret was received from Ayiash. The Haidas, of the Queen Charlottes, were also prevented from being in attendance.

The service was conducted by Archbishop Du Vernet of Prince Rupert, who was assisted by Rev. W. E. Collison, also of this city, and Archdeacon Henry Collison of Vancouver Island, son of the deceased. The address was delivered by the archbishop.

Long Procession.

From the church the long procession marched to the head of the village, passing under five evergreen arches with appropriate scriptural texts. From there the body and the mourners were carried by launch to the cemetery. Four bands, Kincolith, Metlakatla, Lakatzap and Port Simpson, played, and while each respective band was playing pall-bearers from the same villages bore the casket, there being four changes. The committal prayers were taken by Archbishop Du Vernet, the Port Simpson band having played before "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and the Metlakatla band "Shall We Gather at the River Which Flows by the Throne of God?"

At the church and at the grave the casket was massed up with many floral tributes which had been sent from various places of the North, three having gone up from Prince Rupert.

Returned Home.

Archbishop Du Vernet, Rev. W. E. Collison, Rev. Archdeacon Henry Collison and J. M. Collison returned last night from Kincolith, Archdeacon Collison continuing on to Vancouver Island, accompanied by the two sons of Dr. Macdonald of Kincolith, who are to go to school at Shuswap Lake.

Next Sunday Archbishop Du Vernet will conduct a memorial service for the late Archdeacon Collison in St. Andrew's Church.

NEGRO DESPERADO, KILLER OF TWO, CAPTURED.

Boddy's escape from New York was a miracle. He commanded a taxi at the point of a revolver and was driven to Philadelphia, where he went into the lodging house where he was later captured. The young desperado is probably the worst that the police had to deal with in years.

Census ReturnsAlways Disappoint.

Census returns are almost always disappointing. We get enthusiastic over our home town and make it look as flourishing as possible in the eyes of strangers. As a result the tendency is to gradually let the census estimate creep up until at last we come to believe it ourselves. Most people had the opinion that there were at least seven thousand people here, but the census has brought us back to earth and we find there are barely 6400 according to actual count. Even so we are considerably larger than Nelson and are making a substantial growth. An increase of approximately 35 per cent, is not bad in ten years. The city is on a much more permanent basis today than it ever was. Not only does it look better but it is better. Gradually the worst of the wooden buildings will be destroyed and fireproof structures will take their place.

What of the Future of City and District?

What of the future of Prince Rupert and district? The future is full of hope. Residents of the city have faith in themselves and in their city. Speaking generally, there is more optimism here to the square yard than there has been since the first boom broke. What we have now is built on solid development and except for the holding of vacant lots there is little indication that local people are looking to the future for everything. They are living for today as well as for tomorrow.

The district around this city is in for a period of real development, but there are always local setbacks. What looks like a flourishing industry often fails to make good and we have to look elsewhere for our evidences of progress. Mines, which give good promise, fail; mills, which start out with good prospects, shut down; other developments do not bring results. That is the history of new districts. We are not only new here but we are a long way off from the rest of the world. That in itself should spur us to strive the harder to make good and to show the world that we are what we say we are.

Sending Delegation to Interest Ottawa.

The Board of Trade is proposing to send a delegation to Ottawa to draw to the attention of the government there the outstanding needs of this district. While we are sending a member to look after our interests, he is one of several hundred more members and it is difficult to impress the government through him as we can by sending a special delegation of several members.

When a delegation goes to the capital it must be received and its requests are given a good hearing. True, there are many other delegations go there and hearing them must become tedious to ministers, yet we as a district owe it to ourselves to impress upon the new government the importance and needs of this district. We as a city are backed up by the other sections of the constituency as we have never been backed up before. The delegation will go with full assurance that the electors of Skeena district are behind them in the demands for recognition.

Participation in Relief Work.

The new Dominion Government has come to the relief of the municipalities and is offering to pay a share of the cost of relief works. Until now the only thing the government would do was to pay a share of doles. The result was that some places were handing out money to the unemployed and leaving them unemployed instead of using the money to secure the construction of much-needed public works.

Prince Rupert should be able to take advantage of the new regulation. It will lighten the local burden and will be generally received throughout the country as a promise of better things.

SO MANY PEOPLE ARE NERVOUS"Fruit-a-tives" the Greatest of all Nerve Remedies*This Fruit Medicine Restores Health

The increase in the number of persons suffering from Nervousness is world-wide; due, in a measure, to the reaction following the war. Sleeplessness, Headaches, Mental Depression, Rheumatism, Nervous Dyspepsia, Bad Heart Action, are the results of a disturbed condition of the Nervous System.

The nerves and the blood are so intimately, so vitally, connected that the condition of one is bound to affect the condition of the other. If the blood is laden with impurities, it is impossible to have strong, steady nerves.

The first essential in treating nervous troubles is to purify and enrich the blood. This "FRUIT-A-TIVES" will do.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" stimulates the bowels, kidneys and skin and purifies the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" improves appetite and digestion and insures food being properly digested, thus enabling the blood to carry wholesome nourishment to build up the body, particularly the nerves.

Men and women who take "Fruit-a-tives" for some form of nervousness—because they cannot eat or sleep or work or enjoy life—say that this fruit medicine is simply marvellous in its action.

FISH DAY LUNCH ON WEDNESDAY

Arrangements Made by Local Association—Idea Explained.

At the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday afternoon J. W. Nichols of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. asked for the co-operation of the club in the celebration of National Fish Day on Wednesday next. He explained how the institution of the day had been the result of a depression in the fishing industry in the later years of the war and had proved so successful that it had been kept alive and was now an established institution. Consumption of fish had increased.

Last year there had been a very successful luncheon and they wished to have a similar event this year. Prince Rupert depended on its fish business for its progress and all should be interested in this occasion.

Ten Years Ago in Prince Rupert

January 27, 1912.

Diver Ole Evindsen this morning was successful in placing slings around the hull and bow of the sunken lug Glen Rosa and the vessel may be raised this afternoon. Further search revealed no trace of the bodies of Captain Tallander and his son.

The annual meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association was held last night in the police court. Directors were elected as follows: D. G. Stewart, C. V. Bennett, J. H. Thompson, O. H. Nelson and J. A. Kirkpatrick. Revenue for the year was $3522.12 over expenditure.

A school class was asked to use the word "skin" in a sentence. These are a few of the examples sent in:

"I played a game of poker and they tried to skin me."

"The man is so good tempered it is impossible to get under his skin."

"Skin is something that is usually hidden by clothes or powder."

Would Sacrifice American Halibut Fleet for Sake of Town Boomers of Ketchikan

Puget Sound halibut fishermen have entered a protest against the Ketchikan plan for eliminating Canadian towns from competition in the Alaska fresh fish industry. The protest was voiced by Fishing Vessel Owners' Association in a telegram to Senator Wesley L. Jones.

The feature drawing fire from the Seattle organization was an amendment offered to the tariff bill now pending in Congress which provides for bonding in an American port before shipment through a foreign country all fish taken from the North Pacific.

We do not oppose the tariff feature of the amendment. The bonding provisions if it is declared, would force the fishermen to land their catches in Ketchikan instead of landing them direct in Prince Rupert. It is now done. This was asserted, "would make the marketing more than half of the present catch impossible and work irreparable injury to the industry."

Continuing the protest sets forth the position of the Fishing Vessel Association as follows:

The two ports available for fish taken in these waters (North Pacific Ocean) are Ketchikan and Prince Rupert. If this were possible, we would much prefer to discharge at Ketchikan for the reason that we are American citizens and would therefore prefer an American port and Ketchikan is 100 miles nearer the fishing banks and is our principal point of supply. But no adequate cold storage nor terminal facilities exist at Ketchikan or are likely to for many years. The maximum cold storage facilities at Ketchikan do not exceed 100,000 pounds a day, while arrivals often exceed 500,000 pounds a day.

There can be no adequate inducement for the expenditure of the millions of dollars necessary to construct cold storage and terminal facilities at Ketchikan for the reason that fish discharged at Ketchikan must be shipped east through Prince Rupert anyway and the extra expense of handling and the hazard of ferry or steamship services from Ketchikan to Prince Rupert over rough and exceedingly dangerous waters make it impracticable.

The result of Mr. Brownlee's explanation was that the convention tabled with the little discussion the moratorium resolution and several others which aimed at protection for the farmers from chattel mortgages foreclosures and other claims which could not be met at this time.

Here's a bit of real boy, Archie aged five, had found a cat and given it the name of "Mary."

"How did you find out that it's a girl cat?" asked his grandmother.

"Well," replied the youngster, "I saw her washing her face and she washed her ears, and she washed behind her ears, and nobody but a girl cat would wash behind her ears."

This very day, right in your own home, without costing a single cent, you can obtain proof, clear, unmistakable proof, that Buckley's regular size will immediately and effectively smash and totally destroy every trace of your cold or cough. Get your free bottle of this magic remedy from any druggist listed below and test it now. No money, no risk, no obligation. Be wise, don't delay. Fill in the coupon now before you forget.

One of the necessities of this industry is to get the product to the eastern market in the quickest time possible and discharging at Ketchikan and shipping in bond to Prince Rupert would require an additional three to six days, as the transfer vessels would have to wait for sufficient cargo.

No substantial benefit would accrue to American business from the proposed amendment, for the American buyer—the New English Fish Company, the Booth Fisheries Company and the San Juan Fishing and Packing Company, taking more than 60 percent of the catch. The proceeds of the sales are evidently expended in American ports for supplies and in support of families in America.

Canadian Railroads Benefit. The only substantial Canadian benefit from the industry accrues to Canadian railroads, and this is inevitable, whether the fish are delivered in Prince Rupert direct from the fishing fleet or shipped in bond from Ketchikan.

Ninety per cent of the American halibut fleet hold membership in the association, and we knew nothing of this proposed amendment until about Dec. 30. The amendment would sacrifice the American halibut fleet for the supposed benefit of town boomers in Ketchikan.

We can see no salvation for the "halibut fleet" under the amendment except possibly operation under Canadian registry. The amendment will facilitate rather than defeat Canadian control of fisheries, and as we are good Americans we should not be driven to a foreign regis-

DELEGATION TO OTTAWA

PRINCE RUPERT WINS OVER WANDERERS BY BIG MARGIN AT SOLO

Recommendations From Outside Points of District Incorporated in the Memorial.

At the meeting of the council of the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon it was decided to ask for a daily mail service from eastern points as well as the daily train.

Letters of endorsement of the requests of the local board which are to be carried to Ottawa by the local member and also by a delegation of the board, were received from Terrace, Utk, Port Clements, Stewart and Smithers, and several recommendations made by them were incorporated in the memorial to the government.

The finance committee will meet the committee of the city council in connection with the delegation or Saturday morning and will also meet the council on Monday evening.

The opinion was freely expressed that the delegation should leave almost immediately in order to get to the capital before the estimates for the year were made up.

THE COUGH with that Ticklish Sensation

ONE of the meanest men in the community is he who looks up the report of the Burns banquet proceedings of last year to note the variations in the speeches.

SOMEONE takes exception to the suggestion in regard to the broadening effect of the movies. He says that for a man eighteen inches wide to be squeezed into a set twelve inches wide has the very opposite effect.

A WINNIPEG paper says a stiltdeer always feels at home in a motor boat. What we would like to know is how in the h-h-hel-ter-skelter life of the prairie capital they ever got time to come to the coast to ride in a motor boat.

THE COST of living went 35% upward last month, according to one authority. The same authority mentions that his salary was increased from $200 to $250 at the same time.

THERE are a lot of sane people in town and then there are those who would like to move away.

WHEN a girl appears in public scantily garbed it is well to remember that she may have something on her mind.

A GOLD affects the weakest part. That is why so many people have cold in the head.

LUMBERMAN DIES.

Frederick Stevens died in Portland, January 1 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ward H. Goble. Mr. Stevens' home was in Prince Rupert, B. C., where for the past ten years he had been manager of the Buckley Mill interests. He was 74 years old.—Pacific Timberman.

The fire department had a call this morning at 9 o'clock to the residence of Mrs. Taylor, 230 Fourth Avenue East. There was a chimney fire but no damage resulted.

A little tickling in the throat; now and then a dry, hacking cough; you think it is not bad enough to bother about, but every hack makes a break in the system, strains the lungs and prepares the way for more serious trouble.

How many people have not a good night's rest by that nasty, tickling, irritating sensation in the throat? The dry, harsh cough keeps you awake, and when you get up in the morning you feel as if you had had no rest at all.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

is just the remedy you require to stop that irritating, tickling cough on account of its soothing, healing and expectorant properties.

Mrs. P. Johnson, Port Alberni, B. C. writes:—"I have suffered for years, off and on, with a tickling cough. I could not sleep nights and had to sit up in bed to get relief. In fact, I coughed so I used to vomit. I tried different doctors' prescriptions until I heard of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I tried it and found great relief after I had taken the first dose and have not been troubled since. I shall always keep it in the house."

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Price, 25c and 60c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

OFFER DEMPSEY $300,000 FOR A RETURN BOUT

London Sportsmen Want Dempsey-Carpentier Bout in London Next Summer.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Jack Kearns says a syndicate of London sportsmen have offered Dempsey a purse equal to that of Jersey City for the return match with Carpenter. The sum suggested is $300,000, the fight to take place in London in July next.

No decision as to the offer has yet been reached.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—Anything Kearns says goes," said Dempsey regarding the press reports of a proposed meeting with Carpenter in London. He said he would be only too glad to meet the Frenchman for a second match.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

In this case, it means that we are unusually qualified to take care of the linen entrusted to us for laundering.

Being a member of the Land Dryowner's National Association and having at our disposal the expert advice of the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research, Pittsburgh, Pa., we make claim with the full knowledge that we are up to date in every particular of our business. The institute has one of the largest and best equipped laboratories in the world for the purposes of scientific research, and the National Association has seen fit to establish therein their department of Chemical Engineering.

From this source bulletins are issued to us regularly, giving results of numerous scientific experiments with supplies and methods, and advising us to the very best known methods of laundering without injury to the fabric.

Experiments and tests are continually carried on, also with the conservation of material uppermost in the minds of the scientists, and no form of cleansing agent is tolerated for use unless it conforms strictly to their standard.

Don't you think a name may mean something after all?

Also, don't you think we are better qualified to take care of your laundry than those who do not have the benefit of this expert advice? We ask you to consider this when you are about to send out your next bundle of laundry.

A phone call will place in service at your disposal.

Strength

Strength of muscle does not indicate strength of nerves. On this account many people who look healthy enough suffer from nervous troubles and cannot understand what is ailing them. Sleeplessness and irritability are among the early symptoms. Indigestion and tired feelings soon follow.

Read this letter from an Ontario man:

Mr. W. L. Gregory, Charles St. E., Ingersoll, Ont., writes: "I had been troubled for quite a while with indigestion. At times there was a twitching of the nerves of my stomach; and I also found it difficult to get a good night's sleep. I am a moulder, and owing to the nature of my work my system became run-down. I took a treatment of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and found great benefit from this medicine. They did me a great deal of good. I have not been bothered at all with indigestion since, and can sleep much better. I have recommended Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to many of my friends, as I think it splendid for anyone run-down and needing a tonic."

CONSUL TELLS OF EXPERIENCES

Vancouver Rotarian Extends Invitation to Local Club to Attend Conference.

American Consul Wakefield was the chief speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday afternoon. He told the club some of his experiences in the consular service and in his inimitable manner interlarded the narrative with many humorous anecdotes.

The consul said he had seen service in practically all parts of the globe and his experiences had been many and varied. He had found that it was necessary for a consul to be everything from a cook to a supreme court judge. His preconceived ideas and ideals of the service had been rudely shattered. What a consul missed more than anything was the permanent home which most people enjoyed. They were sent from post to post, often with the briefest possible notice.

Mr. Wakefield told of the ingratitude of those who had been aided at different times by money from his own pocket. Among the places where he had officiated was Rangoon. It was one of the prettiest cities in the world so hot that one year was sufficient for a man born in a temperate climate. He had some interesting experiences there. Another point was Port Elizabeth in South Africa where the sun shone 325 days out of the 365 so that everybody tired of it and would give anything for even the bit of rain we had in Prince Rupert. When there was rain it was the result of thunderstorms or cloud bursts. In South Africa the intermingling of Dutch and Afrikanders was a great problem.

Rotary Conference.

A. W. Givin, manager for British Columbia of the Taylor Forbes Co., extended a special invitation to the members of the club to attend the big Rotary Conference in Vancouver. There were between 2500 and 3000 expected to be there. The Capital Theatre had been taken for both afternoon and evening of one day and the skating arena had been secured for the serving of the big banquet when all sat down together. He promised a wonderful time to all those who attended.

Hospital Finances Are In Healthy Shape; Many Improvements Necessary

Financial statements and various reports presented at the twelfth annual meeting of the Prince Rupert General Hospital Association which was held last night in the city council chamber show that the institution is in healthy financial condition and that the organization and conduct of affairs has been in capable hands. Liquid assets more than cover liabilities, even with bad debts written off and with fifty cents on the dollar allowed for outstanding accounts. However, during the year 1921 the institution had been hampered by lack of ready funds and all the improvements which had been proposed had not been carried out although a great deal had been done along this line. The outstanding need at the present time as expressed at the meeting is for a Nurses' Home. With a membership drive and greater financial support from the public generally as well as increased revenue from the profits of the Liquor Control Board it was felt that definite steps might be taken in 1922 towards this end as well as towards the providing of several other long-felt needs in the hospital.

Improvements.

The report of President D. G. Stewart for 1921 stated that the finances of the hospital were in satisfactory shape and several improvements had been carried out. Most important of these were the shingling and painting of the building, the installation of the laboratory by the Ladies' Auxiliary and the securing of an ambulance, the purchase of the latter being now provided for. By means of funds given by the Red Cross Society the present gasoline sterilizers in the operating room were to be replaced with steam.

Revenue for the year 1922 gave promise of being greater, especially with the allotment of liquor profits on the basis of the 1921 census. Mr. Stewart recommended that the board proceed with the erection of the Nurses' home at a cost of $15,000. It might be possible to finance it by means of bonds guaranteed by the city. An effort should also be made to secure new members and a drive might be instituted.

During the year the work of the board had been lightened by the removal of the matron reported that the

Miss Charlotte Black, the matron, reported that there had been 16,474 hospital days in 1921. There had been 150 births 31 deaths and 242 operations. Eight pupils nurses had been accepted, six of whom were continuing. There were six more applications on hand from as far distant as Manitoba and Alberta and in British Columbia. The health of the staff had been good except for a few minor complaints. There was great need for a nurses home and for better accommodation for the training school. The laboratory installed during the year had been of great value. A reference library was necessary. The senior nurses in training had during the year taken up chemistry and household science under Miss B. Macdonald and Miss Marcellas. There were 47 members on the staff, seven graduates and ten pupil nurses. Miss Black thanked the board and the Ladies' Auxiliary for their co-operation.

Financial Statement.

The financial statement presented by Major George E. Giszon, secretary, Miss Black, the lady superintendent, and the Ladies' Auxiliary, to all of whom great thanks was due.

Directors' Report.

The report of the directors showed that 756 patients had been admitted during the year and 49 had been in the hospital on December 31, making a total of 805 for the year. The average stay of patients had been 20 days and the cost was $3,50 per patient per day. The death rate had been 2.35% which was considered very low. The financial condition was good. There had been large expenditures for linen and surgical supplies and the payroll had been larger because trained nurses had been used largely on account of the lack of girls in training. There had been a decrease of $2,000 in the grocery bill. The Board was indebted to the Women's Auxiliary which had made many improvements about the building. A great deal more work was necessary, for during the year funds had just been sufficient to cover running expenses and essential work of upkeep. The training school was in the capable hands of Miss Black. Because there was no proper home for the nurses in training their number had been restricted.

Judge Young.

Judge Young, who was present at the meeting, explained on behalf of the Red Cross Society that $2000 had been given to the hospital for the object of installing steam sterilizers in the operating room instead of the present crude gasoline appliances. Two heating plates were also to be put in. All that was now necessary was the providing of plans and specifications by the board which the Red Cross Society naturally wished to see.

The reports for the year seemed very satisfactory and it was very refreshing to find that the local hospital had an excess of revenue over expenditure. Usually it was the other way around

SCHOOL BOARD HAD MEETING ON ESTIMATES

Decide on Senior Matriculation Class and Gas Engine Instruction, Also on Fire Escapes.

SALARY SCHEDULE WILL LIKELY HAVE REVISION

The school board, with all members present, was in session last night from 8 o'clock to 11:30, the business being the consideration of estimates for the year 1922. Several decisions of more or less importance were made and it is hoped to have this part of the business all cleaned up at the next meeting to be held February 8.

It was decided by the board to open a senior matriculation class in connection with the High School next fall and provision will be made in the estimates. The first session will be held after the next summer holidays, when it is expected there will be at least twelve pupils ready. The decision was unanimous, but the matter of tuition fees was not taken up. The teacher will be appointed later.

Provision will also be made for the including in the estimates of money to purchase a gas engine for the manual training school. Instruction along this line is not provided for in the regular curriculum, but it felt by the board that it was of great importance in such a place as Prince Rupert and might well be taken up.

The board is to call for tenders for the building of fire escapes at the Booth Memorial School, the cost being estimated at about $10,000.

At the next meeting there will likely be a revision of the salary list, but no increases are likely to be made.

A contract has been let by the Simmons Construction Co., the contractors for the erection of the superstructure on the big dock, to A. S. Lewis of Prince Rupert for painting, glazing and kalsomining on the building both inside and outside. The work it is estimated will take ten weeks to complete.
