BRITISH PREMIER HAS PLENTY OF FIGHT

I THROW MYSELF ON THE PEOPLE SAYS LLOYD GEORGE IN GREAT SPEECH

Wonderful Speech of Lloyd George in Defence of British Government and Policy in Regard to Turkey

MANCHESTER, Oct. 13.—Lloyd George's speech to the Liberals of the Manchester Reform Club this afternoon, which was expected to be a historic utterance was a disappointment because the Premier gave no intimation regarding his plans or his program. In that respect the speech was similar to that of Mr. Chamberlain at Birmingham.

In an address of one hour and twenty minutes he devoted nearly an hour to defence of his Near East policy and to ridicule of his critics. In a belligerent peroration recalling his services to the nation he said:

"I cast myself on the people because I have never betrayed them." He declared the people of the country must not believe that the Government had endeavored to rush Great Britain into war. "We have not been war mongering but peace makers," he said. The Government, he declared, had been assailed with misrepresentation such as no other government even had been subjected to. Regarding the Near East, Lloyd George said the Government's object was threefold: The freedom of the straits, the prevention of the war spreading into Europe, and the prevention of a repetition in Constantinople and France of the unutterable horrors of Asia Minor.

Horrible Slaughter
The war in 1914 was practically begun in the Balkans, said the Premier. "We had to act promptly, resolutely and fairly. Since 1914 the Turks, according to official testimony, have slaughtered in cold blood 1,500,000 Armenians and 500,000 Greeks without any provocation at all. The policy adopted by the Government regarding Turkey was in accordance with the highest interests and traditions of this land and we have reason to be proud it succeeded."

At one point the Premier declared dramatically: "As long as I have a sword in my hand and God gives me strength to use it I will do so." We received a message from the French government that if either the Turks or Greeks invaded the neutral zone they would have to be resisted by force by the allies. We accepted that. We thought they meant it.

Not That Kind
At one point in the speech the Premier declared: "There has been speech after speech of intolerable abuse and I am told to hear it like a Christian but there are too many people about the world who think it the business of Christians to be massacred by the Turk or the pro-Turk. I am not one of that sort of Christian."

Lloyd George declared the situation, too grave for any man to indulge in party or personal manoeuvres. He meant to abide by his office. "I place national security and prosperity in front of the interests of anybody and I mean to abide by my position," he said in concluding. "If I am driven into the wilderness I shall recall with pride that I have been able with the assistance of loyal colleagues in the dark hours of the country's history to render it no mean service."

UNION OF B.C. MUNICIPALITIES DELEGATE HERE

W. D. Vance Tells of Work of Session at Kamloops Which He Attended

The convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities held at Kamloops on Oct. 4 and 5 was a decided success and many problems affecting the conduct of municipal government were solved. "There was an attendance of 95 delegates from various municipalities of British Columbia, and 45 municipalities were represented," said W. D. Vance, local treasurer, who returned on the Princess Mary yesterday afternoon. He was one of the delegates from Prince Rupert.

The Convention
The business of the convention was admirably conducted by J. Loufel, president of the Union of B. C. Municipalities who acted as chairman.

The particular points brought up by the City of Prince Rupert were dealt with by the convention as follows: "That this convention go on record as strongly opposing the dole system of unemployment relief in force last year, and that we believe it is the duty of the federal government, not the municipalities, to provide relief for unemployed soldiers."

"That in times of dominion wide unemployment, necessary public works should be proceeded with and co-operation in the cost, and handling of the problem should be arranged among the Federal, Provincial and Municipal authorities in order that no genuine case of unemployment should go without aid and in order to discourage agitators who are merely using unemployment to foment unrest."

"That we are in favor of the enactment of a Town Planning Act, and that we refer the draft bill to the executive for their consideration and empower them to assist to secure passage of a bill at the next session of the legislature."

"Further that we do not endorse the section dealing with unearned increment as this has proved unworkable elsewhere and results in endless litigation. That if property is increased in value by an improvement, an increase in the assessment should achieve the desired result."

These resolutions were carried. Moved by F. W. Anderson, M.L.A. for Kamloops, and seconded by H. B. Rochester, mayor of Prince Rupert.

Important Questions
Important questions affecting the city were brought up during the convention.

It was recommended that the act be made more definite in the matter of defining the exemption of church property. It was suggested that the provincial government be asked to define this exemption more clearly.

A suggestion was made that the Poll Tax should only be collected (Continued on Page Three).

PROPOSAL FOR NEW STEAMER AT THIS PORT

Board of Trade Endorse Suggestion for Establishment of Service to Nearby Ports

The council of the board of trade yesterday afternoon decided to endorse the putting on of a steamer to ply from this port to Stewart and other near-by places carrying passengers and freight. This was done after A. Eckley had laid before them a proposal to establish a regular service out of this port.

Mr. Eckley said he had in mind the purchase of a submarine chaser from the United States government for the purpose. This boat was 110 feet long with a beam of 15 feet and a draft of slightly over six feet. The engines would have to be converted into semi-diesel in order to reduce the cost of operating and with two of these engines she would make at least twelve knots. She would be fitted to carry passengers and about 30 tons of freight.

Mr. Eckley said they had several other boats under observation. What was wanted was to get a vessel that would be useful for the purpose. He asked for endorsement of the scheme and said he was going to Stewart to ask for a similar endorsement.

Weekly Trips
Mr. Eckley had a good deal of information in regard to operating the boat and the possibilities of business. He proposed making weekly trips to Stewart, Anyox, Alice Arm, Queen Charlottes Islands, Surf Inlet and Port Essington.

Members of the board of trade committee discussed the proposal at some length, and while there were differences of opinion as to the detail and as to the business offering, the general principle of the establishment of such a service was endorsed.

GIBBONS LOSES TO MISKE ON FOUL

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Tommy Gibbons of St. Paul lost to Billy Miske of St. Paul when Miske claimed a foul. Gibbons had the best of the fight when a blow found Miske's groin as the pair lurching together. The foul was allowed but the crowd howled Miske down.

When Gibbons reached his dressing room he was informed that his father had died that afternoon, the news of whose death had been withheld until after the fight.

Rally Cry for Labor is Sent Out in Britain in View Coming Election

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Labor leaders met Austen Chamberlain's speech against labor politicians by slating last night that Bolshevism in Russia began because of the same system of oppression and stricture which Chamberlain proposes.

The labor newspapers call for a great rally of British labor in preparation for an election. They ask that laborites contribute pennies and shillings to a fund to offset the coffers of political opponents which are said to be filled with money got from commercial kings in return for titles sold to them.

Prince Rupert Mill and Pulp Limits Are Sold to Holders of Debenture Bonds of Old Co.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 13.—When the assets of the Prince Rupert Pulp & Paper Company were put up by auction yesterday pursuant to the order of Mr. Justice Morrison, the only bidder was the newly formed Prince Rupert Holding Company Ltd., which took over the first mortgage debenture bonds of the company. This company bid $309,000 and tendered in payment a certified check for $30,000 and the balance in the company's bonds. This was accepted by Registrar Mather subject to confirmation of the Supreme Court.

The Prince Rupert Holding Co. Ltd. is a million dollar concern formed to take over the debenture stock of the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Co. Ltd. It has wide powers and can go into the pulp and paper business, the power business, transportation, and any other line of business in connection with the development of their timber holdings which are extensive. The lumber and planing mill at Prince Rupert is part of the property involved in the deal.

BUCKLEY MILL START NOV. 15

First of Schooners Expected in About 30 Days for Lumber

F. L. Buckley, of the Massett Timber Co., accompanied by J. P. Walsh, of the Walsh Construction company, Arno Mersen, production manager of the San Pedro plant, and C. E. Frost, secretary of the company, arrived in the city this morning from Vancouver, en route to Massett, Queen Charlotte Island, for which point they will leave on the Prince John tonight.

Mr. Buckley stated that the work on the islands would start on Nov. 15, when some 150 men will be employed all winter on cutting operations at the mill. When they get to the logging operations, which will probably be early in the coming spring, between 700 and 800 men will be employed.

Schooners Soon

Three schooners are now being reconditioned in the south, and are being converted into oil burners. Mr. Buckley stated that the coal strike in the United States had prevented the movement of the boats, which had delayed their being fixed up. Bulkheads are being put in each boat which will give them carrying capacity of 10,000 barrels of bulk oil besides case goods. It is expected that the schooners will be completed shortly and that they will arrive at the Islands in about thirty days time. It is the intention to bring oil north on each trip.

DIRECTOR LEAVES TO TAKE UP DUTIES

F. G. Dawson Will Meet Other Directors at Winnipeg and Tour Whole System

F. G. Dawson, the newly appointed director for the Canadian National Railways, left last night for Winnipeg, accompanied by W. N. Walton, superintendent of the western division, for the purpose of meeting the other directors at Winnipeg next week. Several local citizens were down to see him off.

The directors are making an inspection of the line but whether they will go first to Vancouver or come here Mr. Dawson did not know. He will notify the local people when to expect a visit from the new directors and it is probable that they will be suitably entertained on their arrival here.

Pulp Company Affairs Being Straightened Out.

The affairs of the Prince Rupert mill seem likely to be straightened out as a result of the purchase of the assets of the concern by the Prince Rupert Holding Co. Ltd., which was recently organized. This company, it is understood, is controlled by the same interests that formerly held the mill. In addition to the local concern there are some valuable timber limits that will provide a good supply of pulp to keep a mill going for many years. While there is no information available as to the future operations of the company it is hardly likely that the valuable mill property and timber holdings will be allowed to remain idle, especially at a time when there is a demand for paper.

Organizing For Winter Sports.

Organization for winter sports is under way. While there have been many changes in the players, there are still in the city a great many who are interested in athletic games and some excellent sport should be seen. We suggest to the people of the city generally that anything they can do to help on the winter games will be appreciated by the young people and will tend to improve the living conditions in the city. If we are to have a strong virile lot of men we must encourage the games of skill and endurance which develop those qualities.

British And American Politics.

We are all interested in both British and American politics. British politics interest us because we are a part of the British Empire and anything they do in Britain has an influence on us. We are interested in American politics because we are close neighbors and are vitally affected by legislation passed at Washington. It is well for us to study the various political moves in each of these countries and to note particularly their bearing on us and on world problems.

RAIL-ROADED

There's a trick in the game they call "Bumping" That takes all the joy out of life, It keeps you continually jumping, It hurts like the stab of a knife, For just when you think you are all settled And plant a garden and crop Some older man turns up and bumps you And you hit the ceiling—ker flop!!

I've allus been sort of a bouncer And many's the job that I've jumped; But it knocks me flat as a flounder When I learn I'm gonna be bumped. I've landed a mighty good position And wandering notions I've dumped, But my soul's in the depth of perdition, Ye Gods! I'm gonna be bumped!!

I leave my goodwill to the bumper, For bumpin's according to Hoyle, But it sure puts a guy on the hummer And makes you sore as a boil. I'm living in sweet contemplation But they say you never can tell, But wonderin' if some guy will bump me From my seat on the front row in hell.

They've ruined my sweet disposition, They've killed all my joy in a lump; I'm left in an awful condition, My finances suffer a slump. I'm sittin' right flat on my fanny And countin' the money I owe— Guess I'll go back to the army, That's one place where bumpin' don't go!

The Man in the Moon SAYS--

IT is a great art to be able to say nothing and say it artistically.

POLITICIANS either Dominion, provincial or civic become adepts at the art.

ONCE a person of the talk a lot and say nothing type broke into verse and here is what he said:

It was midnight on the ocean, Not a street car was in sight, The sun was shining brightly, For it rained all day that night.

'Twas a summer's day in winter, The rain was snowing fast, As a barefoot girl with shoes on Stood sitting on the grass.

It was evening and the rising sun Was setting in the west, While the little fishes in the tree Were cuddled in their nest.

Then the organ peeled potatoes, Lard was rendered by the choir, While the sexton rang the dish-rag Someone set the church afire.

"Holy Smoke," the preacher shouted, As he madly tore his hair, Then his head resembled Heaven There was no parting there.

A SCOTCHMAN who was carrying home two bottles, one for himself and the other for his brother John, fell and broke one. "Poor John," was all he said.

They pass, those laughing girls Rouged, perfumed, trim, Eternally alert To seek some him.

IF we talk politics let us talk Scottish politics for a change. But the north countrymen never waste words even on politics.

IN future Methodist ministers must not smoke. That ends the Church Union controversy.

ANYOX ELKS FINE CONCERT

About 450 People Attended Event in Recreation Hall Monday Night

ANYOX, Oct. 14.—The Anyox Elks excelled themselves on Monday evening at the recreation hall when they put on a grand concert and vaudeville entertainment. The seats were all sold, about 450 people attending. The affair was under the able management of Harry Braithwaite. So many wanted to see the event that it had been decided to repeat it if arrangements can be made. At the close of the entertainment all those who took part or helped in any way were entertained at supper in the Elks' Dugout, about 30 partaking. The program follows:

Program Overture—Selections by Elks' Orchestra. Messrs. Hessler, piano; Armstrong, banjo; O'Conner, and Overend violin. Max Morrow and The Rainbow Chorus—It was a beautiful sight when Max and his seven pretty girls appeared, the dresses representing the different colors of the rainbow, the singing and dancing holding the audience spellbound until the act was completed, but they returned twice in response to thunderous encores of the audience. Dr. Benzol introduced the World Famous Professor Lumbago. This number consisted of a series of tricks with cards and billiard balls. Dr. Benzol explaining that it was due to telepathy. Jimmy Cameron as Prof. Lumbago, Harry Braithwaite as Dr. Benzol, and Al Pound as the Turk who should have been a Hindoo. Ed. Yard, the well known Anyox entertainer, gave some laughable local information in dinky form, besides a laughing song which was much enjoyed. Max Morrow and Rainbow Chorus—Another number by these delightful artists. The girls who composed the chorus were Mesdames Davis and Loscke, and Misses Rosie Moffat, Betty Baxter, Janet Moffat, Pretoria Caine and Margaret Wilson. Tynemouth and Whittaker, in "Atta Boy, Petey."—Petey was introduced by Tynemouth as the fellow from the farm who knew everything, could do everything, and could drink anything. Petey was surely a wise bird, for he told all about the cats, goats, etc., and a great many other things which caused a roar of laughter from start to finish. A Close Shave—Time about 6.30 p.m. Scene, Room in Fuller Apartment. Cast, Minnie Fuller, Mrs. Percy Davis; Billy (her brother), a dope fiend, Fred Legget; Officer O'Hara (a plain clothes man), Harry Chapman; Jake Fuller (a reformed crook), Cy. Greenwell. This was a story of the underworld showing how difficult it is to go straight after having once left the straight path. Mrs. Davis as Minnie Fuller took a difficult path and did it well. The play looked very real, and it surely was a close shave for the Fuller family, the contents of the plain clothes man revealing evidence which cleared the suspects. Harry Chapman, Fred Legget and Cy. Greenwell performed their parts to perfection. All actors played their various parts well, and Mrs. Davis as Minnie Fuller played her part to perfection.

Behind the Scenes.—A musical farce in one act. The scene represents the back stage in a small town on Monday afternoon. Cast: Solly (the property man), Harry Braithwaite; Manager, Pete Draudson; Madam La La (Grand Opera in a nutshell), Mrs. O. M. Watson; Nelly, Miss Marjorie McDonald, and Maggie, Miss Florrie Eld (the Ricksaw sisters, comedienne and dancers); Voice (the Italian Nightingale), Max Morrow; Hammerstein (conducts the orchestra), Cy. Greenwell. This feature was composed by Mr. Braithwaite and while the name has been used before, the material itself is new, and to say it was good is mild indeed, and as the people of Prince Rupert may have an opportunity to see it, a brief description will suffice. Mr. Braithwaite was a show in himself, but the beautiful singing by Madam Watson took the house by storm. Mr. P. Aivazoff, manager of the Westholme Theatre, journeyed to Anyox to see this show and if the Anyox amateurs can be persuaded to visit Prince once in any year from any one person. This would apply in the case of a person moving from one place to another.

It was decided to go after the federal government for the exemption of all municipalities from the 2c tax on all receipts, also for the exemption of tax on cheques. These questions were referred to the Western Canada Municipalities Union which has the power to deal with questions with the federal government and includes the municipalities from Manitoba west.

Indigents
The question of indigents was discussed and it was decided that they shall be a charge on the municipality in which they last resided for at least one year.

Gasoline Tax
The question of putting a tax of 3c a gallon on gasoline used by all motor cars, including all types of cars, came up for discussion but nothing definite was settled. The argument put forward was that the more a man used his car the more he wore out the roads, the proceeds of such a tax to go towards the upkeep of roads. The good roads convention also dealt with this matter and recommended to the government that a committee be appointed by the Good Roads and Municipalities to deal with the possibilities of such a tax.

The Report
The report dealt with by the convention consisted of 23 closely typewritten pages.

MONTHLY MEETING OF ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY

Heather Received from Edinburgh Gathered on Old Country Hills

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Andrew's Society was held last night in their club-rooms on Fulton Street. The meeting was well attended.

The business comprised the appointing of several committees who were charged with the duty of making preparations for coming events in Scottish circles.

A committee was appointed to take charge of the arrangements for the St. Andrew's Ball to be held on November 30.

A billiard committee was appointed to arrange a winter schedule of games.

An entertainment committee was appointed to arrange a series of entertainments for the winter months.

It was left to the football committee to arrange a social evening when the trophies won by the St. Andrew's club would be officially presented. The date of this function has not yet been fixed.

A communication was read from the editor of the Edinburgh Scotsman, who enclosed a package of heather, gathered from the hills of Scotland by readers of the Scotsman, and sent to Scotsmen abroad. The secretary was instructed to acknowledge the gift and convey the thanks of the Society for this kindly thought.

COUNT SCHEDA BRINGS CONCERT PARTY HERE

Count Scheda who, it will be remembered, played here some year or two ago so extremely well, has arrived back in the city with his Viennese Concert Company and plans to give concerts in the Empress Theatre on Thursday and Friday of next week. Count Scheda is a noted symphony soloist, and was formerly with the Austrian Imperial Court in the pre-war days. Accompanying him on this visit are Andre Jajovich, the famous Serbian baritone, and Daniele Popovich, the youthful European pianist.

As a violinist, Count Scheda is in the first rank of the European soloists, as those who heard him on his last visit will know. Next week's concerts, should therefore appeal to Prince Rupert people, who always want the best.

TERRACE, Oct. 11.—On Thursday afternoon a farewell tea was given by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the G.W.A. in one of the club rooms of the new hall, to Mrs. D. McGregor who is leaving for England very shortly.

During the afternoon a presentation was very prettily made by their president, Mrs. Amshury, on behalf of the auxiliary, of a box containing various toilet table accessories sure to come in useful in travelling. Mrs. Amshury made a very appropriate speech of appreciation of Mrs. McGregor's work in the auxiliary and wished her bon voyage. Mrs. McGregor though taken very much by surprise, made a suitable speech in accepting it.

Among those present were: Mesames Amshury, McIntyre, Powers, Manceor, Attwood, Turner, Barker, H. Smith, Marsh, Swain, and Bleaker.

Preparations for Forthcoming Basketball Season at Annual Meeting: New Officers Elected

New officers were elected and reports received at the annual meeting of the Prince Rupert Basketball Association held last night in the council chamber, W. E. Willisroft presiding. Reports on the work of last season were received and new officers elected for the forthcoming season. It was also decided to try to arrange for a more suitably located building for the games, as the exhibition building is so far from the centre as to affect the attendance.

The officers for the coming year are as follows:

- Hon. President, Colonel S. P. Mordie.
- President, J. R. Mitchell.
- Vice-president, George Johnston.
- Second vice-president, Miss Mills.
- Secretary - treasurer, James Mitchell.

The financial report of the retiring secretary, G. S. Russell, who was not present, was read by acting secretary J. Mitchell. It showed that the association had a balance from the season of 1921 of $85.65. Owing to certain work being done on the exhibition building at the commencement of last season, including fixing of the electric light, etc., there had been a deficit on the season of $8.35. The retiring secretary in his report said the deficit was to be regretted. It had been due in a great measure to the lack of competition in the men's senior league and also to the inclement weather which had prevailed. In closing his report he thanked all members and brother officials for their splendid support, making special reference to the excellent help of Mr. La Porte.

Building Not Favored
The use of the exhibition building for the playing of baseball games during the forthcoming season was not favored. The building was not suitable in many ways, and the distance from town was against the attendance of a number of spectators, having in view the extremely inclement weather which prevailed during the winter season. Exception was taken by the retiring officials to the statements which had been made publicly accusing the association of leaving the building in an untidy condition at the end of the season. This was far from the facts and the greater part of a day had been spent in burning rubbish around the hall and putting the place in order.

Retiring President
W. E. Willisroft, retiring president, in his remarks reminded the boys who would be playing basketball this season to play the game for the sake of the sport only, and said that they should not try to get inducements to play for other teams. It was the manner in which they played the game on the floor and in their clubs that the juniors and intermediates would imitate. "If you live up to your rules you are doing 100 per cent of good for basketball in the city," he said.

Before handing over his chair to the incoming president he thanked the players and officials for the efficient help they had accorded him in his duties and laid stress upon the valuable assistance given to the association by Mr. La Porte who had always been a man who could be relied upon in an emergency and who had done perhaps more than any one else to help the sport of basketball in the city.

E. A. Mann, in proposing a vote of thanks to the retiring officers, said that the retiring secretary, G. S. Russell, had carried out his duties in an admirable manner and had devoted a great deal of time to the sport and the success of the association was undoubtedly due to the efforts of Mr. Russell and Mr. Willisroft. He therefore moved a vote of thanks to the retiring officers and to Mr. La Porte. This was seconded by Geo. Johnston and carried.

It was decided that the officers of the association should make inquiries with regard to obtaining a suitable building for the playing of basketball for the forthcoming season and get arrangements under way pending the calling of a meeting in two weeks' time to accept entries to league, the delegates of the competing teams to be present at that meeting. At that time the executive would probably have a line up of where the playing will be done and the schedule of games will be fixed.

Burns Lake Citizens' Association Passes Resolution Regarding Sale of Beef

The following resolution was passed unanimously by the Burns Lake Citizens' Association at a recent meeting:

"Whereas, owing to the exceptionally dry season, the feed for winter use is very scarce, hard to obtain and expensive. And, owing to this fact, the settlers are in a serious predicament and find it impossible to winter their stock; this causing intense hardship and in many cases threatening financial ruin; and

"Whereas Prince Rupert is being supplied with beef from the Prairie Provinces and we believe it false economy to ship to Edmonton and pay excessive freight rates, only to have beef shipped back to Prince Rupert; and

"Whereas the packers are refusing to buy beef from the Lakes, Nachako and Bulkley districts, although we raise the best beef in the world and there are between 600 and 700 head of cattle ready for disposal in the Lakes district alone, and the packers claim that the local work of butchering is not up to their standard. Now, therefore,

Vigorous Protest

"Be it hereby resolved that we, the Burns Lake citizens assembled at this meeting of the Burns Lake Citizens' Association do hereby vigorously protest against the shipment by the packers, sale and consumption of eastern beef by the residents of Prince Rupert and other towns in Northern British Columbia. That, if necessary, the packers send in an expert butcher and do their own slaughtering in these districts. That the people of Prince Rupert be asked to assist in every way the sale and consumption of Northern British Columbia beef—even to the extent of boycotting shipped in products. That the business men and residents of the Interior have been supporting Prince Rupert for many years and the interests of Prince Rupert citizens are necessarily concerned with the development of Northern British Columbia and we request their reciprocation and ask for co-operation as a means toward the solving the present beef situation."

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet which is the chief source of Prince Rupert's prosperity

Business started with a bang in local fishing circles on Monday when several large American can schooners arrived in port bringing the day's sales up to 20,000 pounds.

The Admiral of the Fleet reports that the catch of 325,000 pounds during the week is well up to the average, and thirteen carloads have been shipped east.

Prices have remained steady the highest price paid being 15.40c and 9c, and the lowest 11.80c and 8c.

During the past week things outside of the actual fishing have been quiet and nothing of an untoward nature has taken place.

The question of the recent 2c tariff placed on Canadian fish going into the United States is still being discussed and there is of course a variance of opinion on the subject.

While some of the boys think that it will have no detrimental effect on the fishing game on this coast, others seem to think that it will be the means of flushing the little fellows out of business.

One of the waterfront celebrities in discussing the subject aboard the flagship of the fleet thought that a double tariff should be put on American fish coming into Canada.

He considered that if this were done it would tend to put up the price of fish for the Canadian boats.

Jack Turner is busy at his Seal Cove fish plant getting his house in order.

The waterfront boys regret the departure of the aeroplane Hazelton, which left port at 2:15 on Thursday afternoon for her headquarters on the Skeena.

The plane and its crew were very popular along the waterfront and the boys had got used to see her glide gracefully over the water and up into the air.

It is probable that an additional aeroplane will make this port her headquarters in the near future under the jurisdiction of Len Bell.

And should this be the case the boys hope that Major Thompson will be a fixture also.

The buzz of the old propeller will certainly be missed.

Already preparations are being made by skipper Myhill Jones of the launch Oh Baby for the comfort of the skating parties which he anticipates piloting over to the Salt Lakes during the coming winter.

The launch Oh Baby is undergoing the once over. From the look of the weather clerk's behavior today it may be that skating parties will not be numerous but in that event his will probably rejuvenate the folk's idea.

Jimmy, Returns for Keeps. Jimmy Thomas, until recently skipper of the Alfa, returned to port early in the week aboard the power boat Hanaco from the Naas river.

Jimmy is giving the fishing business a miss this winter and will be found in future busy at the Dry Dock giving the powers to be the benefit of his engineering skill.

Wedding Bells. Wedding bells are ringing spiritually along the waterfront just now and the Dixie Rupert, according to the secret service, will be in the grand parade.

All sorts of double lots are being purchased in various parts of the city, in case the bride should not care about living any old place, and it is understood a brand new float will probably be built in the Seal Cove district.

The idea the bridegroom has in mind is to build a little grey home on a hill overlooking the boathouse so that he can lie in bed and see if all's well from the window.

Olaf's Wife. The Dick Whittington, with Cap. Art Oswald on the bridge, left on Tuesday morning with the compass set for Dundas Island.

Aboard the gas eater was a regular harem of feline females from which it is hoped that Olaf, the adopted son of Jack Moody who owns part of the island, will be able to select a wife.

Since Art's name was mentioned in connection with the matrimonial agency business he has been inundated with offers of females from several owners.

They are certainly a wonderful selection of beauty and if Olaf isn't satisfied with one of these then the case is hopeless.

The brides are all guaranteed to make good and dutiful wives and come from very respectable parents.

They have all won their spurs in the mice and rat catching game and will take any sort of milk with or without water.

Art is determined to collect the two bucks for the successful mating of Olaf and if he does not meet with success on this trip Olaf is liable not to need a wife at all.

Karkie is Back. Cap Karkie, of the troller Annie K, came into port on Thursday afternoon after his season's trolling around Dundas Island.

Skipper Gets Wet. Cap. Carl Thompson, skipper of the Uneeda, had a terrifying experience this week.

The ill ole craft needed a tight touching up preparatory to being put into commission for the deer hunting season and with this object in view her skipper had mixed all sort of paint cocktails to smear over the hull, etc, and clad in hip boots, mackinaw coat and other orthodox hunting regalia, he started in to flourish the brush while standing on a log.

Of course the log resented being trodden on and without writing to Cap about it quietly slipped away and the skipper did a fancy dive into the bay.

A wet rat would have looked as dry as a wooden doll on a fair ground to Carl as he yelled to his mate to throw him a lifebuoy

Who Ate the Cake. Here's a little story, its a plot without a fake, its also about two hungry men, who gobbled up the cake.

You see it happened this way. Bill had just received his pay, and up to town he gaily went, to celebrate the day.

Now Bill, he isn't greedy, and just to please the gang, he strolled into a baker shop, and two greenbacks went bang.

He thought, without a doubt, for as he graded down the street, a big parcel sure bulged out. In the parcel was a lot of food, it would make your hunger ache, for on the top of all the goodies was a lovely six pound cake.

Returning to the Boothery, he put the cake away, and thought to spring a great surprise on the boys around next day.

He said he'd like a cup of tea, next day as it was cold, and when the cups were all spread out, exclaimed aloud, just hold, we'll do the thing quite properly, now you just wait and see, you've all been very good today so have some snke on me.

The sequel to this wretched yarn, is not very far to seek, although the outlay so 'tis said broke poor Bill for a week. He hold his consternation on going to the shelf to find the cake had vanished, someone had help-ed himself. And so he stormed about the floor and turned pale at the jaw, vowing vengeance on the hungry thug if his face he ever saw.

Of course he has suspicions on the robbers of his cake and thinks it must be Pete and Will who suffer stomach ache.

Pinched for Losing Bottle. Scotty and Windy two waterfront celebrities met with a very serious misfortune early in the week.

Having enjoyed a very successful fishing trip the double turn took a run up town just to look the bright white lights over.

Reaching the stage of greater enjoyment they purchased, from government channels, a bottle of the best and were proceeding to their boat a little later when darkness had fallen.

The floor that night around Cow Bay had not been laid down properly and would insist upon bouncing up and pushing them over.

One of these bounces resulted in Scotty being pushed into the salt chuck the bottle in his pocket becoming unlighted from its moorings.

A gallant gentleman, in the person of Shrimpy Sam, rushed to the rescue without a thought of to-morrow and was successful in landing Scotty on terra firma.

The first thing Scotty did was to feel for the goods which were conspicuous by their absence.

That is where Shrimpy Sam touched out, he being roundly accused of swiping the doings. However, as the story goes, the argument waxed hot and strong with the result that the Admiral of the fleet came forth, armed with a couple of secret service strong men, and hearing of the loss straightway ordered Scotty's arrest.

As the Admiral said a man that could not be trusted to deliver a bottle of doings aboard a boat was not fit to have the jurisdiction over one.

Unless the accused has the necessary to replace the loss, the Admiral is liable to be very severe.

Some Public Sale. Having been requested to leave the country, I will sell at public auction the following goods and chattels, at my place two leagues distant from the N.E. corner of Cleopatra Island, on Friday, December 31.

Boats in Port. The following boats are at present in port, Just H. Alma B, Edna H. Joe Baker, Karen, Katherine, Pug, Cub, Swing, Rose McCoy, Ruth, Ringleader, Maud, Hanaco, Oh Baby, Narbethong, Dixie Rupert and Nancy Murineag Arrives. The Murineag, Capt. Sallows, arrived in port on Monday with 8,000 pounds of halibut. Cap is still very strong on the chickens, the greater portion of his cargo being made up in this direction.

Of course we're talking about chicken halibut.

Jim in Trouble Again. Cap. Jim Morrison of the Cayceon seems determined to run into bad luck. This time he has come into port with his boat badly knocked about consequent upon running into a high sea while out on the high spots.

Somehow or other the Cayceon has got a bad habit of nosing around rock piles, that is rock piles in the ocean. It was while in this inquisitive frame of mind that the boat got rather severely jammed.

This visit Cap is not buying oranges with his spare cash but nails and bolts. Of course its a perfectly splendid boat if the hull were changed. It is understood that with this mishap on his mind he was afraid to go home in the dark and break the sad news to his spouse.

He consequently spent the early morning on the doorstep conversing with the milkman.

The Cayceon is now on the Marine Ways at Seal Cove getting repairs made. Jim says he wouldn't mind so much if so many people had not wished him a happy New Year last season.

Boat Arrivals. The following boats have marketed fish during the week. Atlantic, Unimak, W.T., Alliance, W. & F., Rosehill, Fiddle S, Clara N, D.C.F., Scrub, Selma, Ruth, Mira, Rainier, Adeline, Ingrid H, Johanna, Wave, Cres-cent, Annie, Murineag, Venus, Tatoosh, Alliance H., Uranus, Sentinel, Restitution, Norengen, Dependent Kinmound, G. E. Foster, M. M. Christopher, Joe Baker, Gem, Maud, Kobe, Viking, Cayceon, Ethel June.

Capt. Giske is Back. The halibut schooner Crescent, Capt. Giske on the bridge, made port safe and sound on Monday with 7,500 pounds of prize halibut aboard.

Cap. is in very good humor and says he doesn't feel the ill after effects of seasickness that he used to.

Steve and His Eggs. There is a persistent rumor in the vicinity of the Booth fisheries that the egg contract made with Steve, the whole cheese in the Booth Booster ranch, is to be cancelled.

The idea of placing this gigantic egg business was so that eggs could be secured which would not annoy the eaters thereof or make rude remarks when opened.

The class of eggs delivered until recently had been fairly satisfactory and it was hoped that Steve would finish up the contract like a white man.

However, one morning this week, and it happened that everybody around the joint was famished that particular day, three of the eggs in possession of Bill, the boss, became very unruly and refused to stay in the fry pan.

They put up such a serap that they got away on him and the last seen of them they were racing up town. Several bystanders laid odds on which would be first to reach Third Avenue.

The amusing part was that the old hen turned up to claim her chicks. Now you know the reason for the rumor that the contract is to be cancelled.

The Clara N. with Capt. Geo. Ness on the bridge hove into sight on Monday morning, and upon arrival it was discovered that 1,000 pounds of real halibut was aboard the boat.

After discharging her cargo and a little fixing up the old reliable left again for the high spots.

Admiralty Scandal. The fat is in the fire. The Admiralty is contemplating suing for a divorce from the Admiraleess.

The complaint is that the lady smokes in bed which the Admiralty says he will not stand for. Of course, between you and me, it has been well known for a long time that the Admiralty was kind of sweet on Flossie Flirt, now in the Wheat City.

It is considered in well informed nautical circles that this is the thin edge of the wedge to pave the way for the return of Flossie to the city.

The Admiraleess does not seem much upset about the suit being filed and it is thought that Clam Chowder Pete is quite a favorite with the lady, who does not object to smoking in bed.

The old man has got money, we know. Only the other day he purchased a packet of matches instead of a single box which is certain proof of this fact.

Altogether it looks as though we are going to have a very interesting divorce suit on our hands in the near future.

Flossie has been in constant communication with the Admiralty, and only this week wrote him that she was nearly fired from Lady Doolittle's service for bathing her son Podge with his best suit on.

Here the plot thickens for only a girl in love would do a silly thing like that.

TAME SEAL TAKEN IN ENGLISH WATERS. Billiken Was Famous Naval Tracer Who Gave Information About Subs.

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Seeing what he believed to be a dog swimming in the water two miles off Broad-stairs, the skipper of a Ramsgate smack, on getting out a small boat, found that the object was a small seal.

Perfectly tame, the animal responded to a whistle, and on being taken to the smack fed from the hands of the crew.

It was landed at Ramsgate recently and, placed on show in a tub of water, it produced quite a respectable sum in coppers for a local charity.

It was finally sold for £4 to a Margate fishmonger, who is to exhibit it for the benefit of the Cottage Hospital.

The appearance of this tame seal recalls the interest aroused about three years ago in Brighton and neighboring coast towns by the pranks of one of Captain Woodward's famous sea lions, which escaped from its tank in Southwick Harbor, and is believed to be still at large.

"Billiken" was valued at £500, and a reward of £100 was offered for his capture.

The animal had just been "demobilized" from the navy, after remarkable services in hunting U boats.

Owing to the limitations of under sea listening instruments, the Admiralty appealed to Captain Woodward, and "Billiken" and three other of the sea lions were trained to track submarines, as dogs are taught to point. They were able to overtake craft, and indicate the position of depth "charges."

When waves wash high "neath darkened sky, 'tis likely that a storm's nearby.

URGE FARMERS TO ORGANIZE

C. E. Whitney-Griffiths Addresses Gathering at Terrace on Work of Institute

REVIEWED SITUATION

Suggests the Forming of Advisory Board for Central British Columbia

TERRACE, Oct. 13.—Dealing with many of the most pressing problems relating to farming and horticulture, C. E. Whitney-Griffiths, secretary to the advisory board of Farmers' Institutes for British Columbia, addressed a public meeting Thursday night under the auspices of the Farmers' Institute, Rev. J. H. Young, secretary to the institute presiding.

Mr. Whitney-Griffiths said he had been through this part of the province in 1909 and he was here now to explain the organization and work of the advisory board and to promote the organization of a district association, the meeting of delegates in connection therewith to be held at Smithers on October 20, when it was hoped an organization might be formed. An advisory board should also be organized which would keep close in touch with the agriculturist appointed by the government for this district. Mr. Sutton would hold this position for the next six months.

Mr. Whitney-Griffiths explained that the Advisory board and small district conventions are taking the place of the Annual convention for the Province formerly held when about one hundred men came together and much useful discussion took place. The great drawback was that the plans were not followed up. Though every other industry is organized there was no one watching the legislation in the Farmers' interests. The Advisory board consisting of nine men was appointed for this purpose. The official duty of these men is to watch the development of the country, study the needs of the farmer in regard to bridges, roads, drainage, etc., suggest useful legislation and see that it is followed up, making the government aware that they are backed by a strong organization.

Basic Industry

Though agriculture is the basic industry of any country, and is especially important in B.C., three quarters of the members of the legislature are from cities or towns.

The speakers emphasized the importance and advantage of keeping all organizations such as the Women's Institute, Fruit-growers' organization, as part of the Farmers' Institute. It is a great source of strength.

This year there were 150 Institutes with an approximate membership of 4,500 in the province. Some branches have not kept properly in touch by sending in reports, etc., and much benefit is missed in this way.

Close touch between the branch Institutes and the members for their district is also very important.

Two great benefits obtained by the Farmers' Institute for the farmers is the sending out of lecturers and obtaining powder at lower rates, the latter having been obtained by the Advisory board.

Question of Marketing

The greatest problem before the farmer at present is the marketing of his produce, said the speaker. The home market is good at present as B.C. still imports thirty per cent of what she uses. The province is still very young and this stage will pass. We are impatient. We want lightning results for our efforts. This is impossible in agriculture. Experience teaches us we must go slowly and community organization is the best means to the desired end. Realization of this led to the organization of the Farmers' Institute. The Farmers' Institute has fathered the Co-operative creamery, the Fruit Growers' Association and the Live Stock Association. It has sought to point out to different districts for what they are best adapted.

"In this connection," he said, "Terrace should be pre-eminently successful in raising seed potatoes for which it is well adapted. They are greatly needed in B.C. He emphasized the importance of dealing directly with wholesalers, which is only possible where the farmers are strongly organized. He cited a case where retailers had bought shorts at $20 a ton from the wholesalers and sold to the consumer at from $30 to $40 a ton. He also mentioned the apple and egg situation in the Okanagan and reviewed the potato situation a few years ago when the market was glutted with imported potatoes.

Raise Standard

The Farmers' Institute seeks to raise the standard of citizenship and help the members keep abreast of world movements and know what is being done in other industries.

He pointed out that whereas the government had the benefit of the brains of the party in power the Farmers' Institute being non-partisan had the benefit of the brains of the best men on both sides. He urged the appointment to office of the best and most forceful men in the community. He emphasized again the importance of getting together, getting united action, and what it would accomplish.

The Advisory board has been constantly urging that more money should be spent in Central B.C. but it had been difficult to accomplish much and results were slow.

Need of Representation

The need for farmers to be represented in Parliament was well shown in the law which made taxes payable in April, gave no rebate and charged 12 per cent interest on overdue taxes. The farmers are the main tax payers and so are the ones to suffer.

He ended with a strong appeal for the sympathy and support of the community in the work of the Board.

Dr. V. Ardagh, the pioneer missionary from Kitwanga, is in the city for a few days on business. Dr. Ardagh has many interesting stories to tell of the district before the settlement of the whites.

V. W. Smith, of Foley, Welch & Stewart, arrived in town from Hazelton on last night's train.

C. G. Harvey, of Hazelton, was among the arrivals on Sunday evening's train.

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Stewart left this morning by the Prince Rupert for Vancouver.

RADIO CONCERTS ON C.G.S. MALASPINA

Vessel Returns from Trip of Inspection to Island Canneries

The C.G.S. Malaspina arrived back in port yesterday after a very pleasant and successful trip of inspection to the canneries on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Fisheries Inspector Mackie and Mr. Shepard, second officer of the Malaspina, had a little experience while inspecting a small saltery, where the ship's gasoline tender had to be used. On their return to the ship, the gas engine failed to perform its duties and the rest of the journey had to be made with the armstrong and the ash.

The wireless operator Mr. Stephen, a real up-to-date entertainer supplied the ship's company with radio concerts from as far as Salt Lake City, Great Falls, Montana, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton, San Francisco, Seattle and many others.

Mr. Stephen has a wonderful installation and the tuner and hook-up are made by himself. Just by turning two dials, his shipmates say, he can fill his operating room with the best of music.
