Irish Rebels Ousted From Buildings MANSON MAKES IT CLEAR TO POLICE CHIEFS WHERE DUTY LIES

EDITORIAL THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

A number of American citizens live in Prince Rupert and a further number visit this port regularly in their fishing boats. Today they are celebrating in spirit the national birthday of the United States the greatest republic on earth, and we, their cousins, rejoice in their success and look to them for co-operation and inspiration.

The United States was born under circumstances which were not any too creditable to the British nation. It was a bit of the old stock that acquired a new independence in a new land and threw off the ties to the old land.

Because a child leaves the paternal roof is no reason for ceasing to be a son. So with the United States. It is impossible to get away from the fact that it was reared in the mother lap and when it found itself as a nation able to walk alone and able to develop more freely without parental restraints, it felt a little soreness at the attempt to hold it. Also the parents were a little sore at the assertion of independence on the part of the child.

That is all past and forgotten. The family is reunited on a basis of friendship and mutual interest, and today the mother rejoices on the birthday of the son just as the son celebrates its own natal day.

NAVAL SERVICE CHANGES GO ON VERY RAPIDLY

Cruiser Aurora is Already Laid Up and Some Departments are Switched.

OTTAWA, July 4.—Reorganization of the Naval Service Department in carrying out the policy adopted by parliament in the National Defence Act is proceeding rapidly. Five branches of the existing Naval Service Department have already been transferred to the Department of Marine. The transfer of the naval service to the Department of National Defence in its reorganized form will not take place until the Act authorizing the establishment of that department has been proclaimed.

In carrying out the plans for the reduction of the naval force, the cruiser Aurora has already been laid up and the British members of the crew will sail for home tomorrow. The Canadian members are being transferred to the four vessels which are being retained in the naval service.

ECONOMICS IN CIVIL SERVICE

Effort Being Made to Cut Down Expenses; Conferences Held

OTTAWA, July 3.—Conferences between cabinet ministers and their deputies and the civil service commission in regard to economies in their various departments is expected during the week. It is thought likely that the royal commission on the McNair-Maxwell pensions charges will be named and also the fisheries commission to investigate the B.C. salmon fisheries.

Searching Address On Liquor Traffic by Hon. A. M. Manson to Police

Urges seizure of whole stocks of bootlegging warehouses and scores low down drinking dives under guise of clubs

VICTORIA, July 4.—Hon. A. M. Manson gave one of the plainest talks ever heard to the police chiefs who were assembled here last week. He declared there was no excuse for bootlegging and if the police did not stop it he would get after the police commissioners. He declared war on the illegal traffic, scored the clubs which he declared were privately owned, and characterized them as low down dives that should be closed. He also said it was the intention to put a few more kinks in the export warehouses.

The Attorney General also said that the permit system under the Liquor Control Act was not perfect as far as the 85 visitors permit for two weeks was concerned. Under this it is rather expensive for a visitor to B. C. if he should come here for a couple of days at a time half a dozen times a year and has to pay $5 each time. The result is that instead of buying his permit he buys his liquor through a friend or makes a false affidavit that he is a resident here or buys through a bootlegger.

Mr. Manson said this permit was putting an unfair handicap upon the tourist and was a source of much bootlegging. "There is a necessity for changing our law with respect to these permits," he said. "It needs changing at the earliest day. It would mean fewer bootleggers and more business through the Government stores."

The police chiefs met Mr. Manson at the Parliament Buildings and he talked to them on law enforcement generally. Most of his remarks were on the liquor situation.

Not Hard to Get Liquor.

Mr. Manson asserted that there is no excuse for bootlegging in B. C.

"The Liquor Act can be enforced," he said. "It can be enforced to the letter."

"What are your difficulties? Your difficulties are from the illicit traffic in liquor. And why do they spring? Need any man say I want liquor and can't get it under system. We provide every reasonable facility for obtaining liquor by the man who wants it. So what excuse is there for bootlegging or for trafficking in liquor illicitly?"

In a prohibition Province there might be some excuse for a man who has been accustomed to liquor seeking to get it. But in B. C. there is absolutely no excuse and if there is no such excuse what sympathy can you or I have with that individual.

Bootlegger Charges More.

"Your biggest source of trouble comes from the private individual who imports liquor and then re-sells it. The bootlegger doesn't sell at an average price lower than ours. His price may be so during the day time, but at night after the Government stores are closed it goes up to $6, $7 and $8 a bottle."

"I wish we didn't have to license these export warehouses. But as it is a matter of trade and commerce and comes under the Dominion Government we have no option in the matter of granting licenses to export warehouses. But we put on a high license fee and did our utmost

LONDON, July 4.—Litvinoff, the Soviet representative, says he will leave The Hague conference and return home unless the allied powers disclose within the week what concessions they are prepared to make to Russia.

MOUNTED POLICE ARE LIKELY TO BE MOVED

VICTORIA, July 4.—It is likely the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will be withdrawn from British Columbia, according to Hon. A. M. Manson who mentioned the matter to the police chiefs assembled here at the week-end. He said they were brought to this province under exceptional circumstances and those conditions having terminated they would probably be removed.

EDITOR ATTACKED

BERLIN, July 4.—Maximilian Harden, editor and political writer, was attacked by two men near his home and left unconscious after being beaten. Both assailants were arrested.

RAILWAY MEN TO ARBITRATE

Threatened Strike of Maintenance of Way Men Temporarily Averted.

SHOPMEN STILL OUT.

DETROIT, July 4.—The United States Labor Board last night averted temporarily the threatened strike of 100,000 maintenance of way men in protest against wage reductions. Just when the union leaders were preparing to send out the strike call, the labor board succeeded in persuading all five members of the union boards to accept an invitation to meet the labor board at Chicago today to arbitrate.

The strike of shopmen, which began Saturday, has not yet seriously impeded railway traffic.

Recommend Improvement of Public Utilities With Cost Pruned Considerably

A report from the public utilities committee recommending the adoption of the superintendent of utilities recommendations for construction and reconstruction of the light and telephone lines, building of a sub-station and making a connection with the dry dock for reciprocal use was presented to the city council last night and, after considerable discussion in committee, was laid over for a week.

The original report of the superintendent of utilities, involving the expenditure of $46,954.77, was classified as follows:

Light system	$11,946.87
Telephone system	27,106.70
Dry dock connection	3,701.20
Sub-station	4,200.00

Report Modified.

This report has been modified and the amounts reduced considerably and it has been estimated that the actual cost of work recommended by the utilities committee at this time will be in the neighborhood of $13,000 which will include modified light, telephone and reconstruction, building of the sub-station at Ninth Avenue and McBride Street and dry dock connection. The lines in Section 4 will thus be brought under the regulations as required by the government and as reported on recently by inspectors. By the providing of the sub-station it is proposed to do away with the present steam plant for which the superintendent estimates he could get $26,000, machinery and building.

Connect with Dry Dock.

The dry dock connection was dealt with separately. A tentative agreement between the city and the Canadian National Railways was read. The plan is to give the dry dock the city's industrial rate for 150 k.v.a. and build a line to the plant costing $3,701.20. Transformers are already available for such a line at the sawmill where they are not in use. The advantage of the dry dock connection, it was

Progress Reported in Suppressing Revolt by The Free State Forces

DUBLIN, July 4 (p.m.)—Hamman's Hotel, Sackville Street, one of the main positions of the insurgents, was this afternoon captured by the National army forces. With its garrison of 30 men it surrendered to Free State troops after the building had taken fire. Three more buildings occupied by Free State troops this afternoon. It was unofficially reported that Countess Markiewicz and a few women snipers had been captured, their ammunition having run out.

An official bulletin issued today indicates substantial progress in suppressing revolt in the country districts.

Freight Differential And This Port.

While the despatches in regard to freight rates seem rather vague, it seems as if there has been an elimination of half the differential which formerly favored the east over the west. While we believe the whole of it should be eliminated, the half is a good deal better than nothing. There seems to have been no reduction in the general grain export rate but only the change in the differential. This is as we understand the position.

With half of the embargo against the Pacific route removed, it should be possible to ship grain by this route profitably. Last year the elevator at Vancouver was taxed to the limit and the freight yards were choked with wheat cars. The next step should be to erect an elevator in Prince Rupert where grain from Northern Alberta and Saskatchewan could be shipped to the Orient and also to Europe by way of the Panama Canal. The matter will be taken up with the minister of railways, the minister of public works and others who visit here this coming summer.

Eliminate Delay And Commence At Once.

The necessity of commencing work at once should be impressed on the Government members who visit this port so that the port may at once benefit from the increased trade and the railway get in the way of paying its way and thus relieving the Canadian taxpayer. If we can so impress the minister of rail- ways that there is a need for an elevator here and that the Govern- ment railway will benefit to such an extent that it may then pay dividends, we may succeed in having the elevator built. The Government is sympathetic but sympathy will not help us unless we get action.

Refuse To Allow Aviator In Country.

The Air Board refused Aviator Prest to land in Canada on his way to Alaska. Last year he was here and he gave a fine exhibition of his prowess. This year he would have renewed his acquaintanceship with Prince Rupert friends but the Air Board would not allow it. As Prince Rupert is interested in such visits it seems as if we should have an explanation from the board as to why Prest could not come. If flying is to develop in this country, we cannot afford to exclude visitors who would come here in their planes.

Liberal Victory in Happy Land.

The victory of F. R. Shortreed, Liberal candidate in Happy Land, Saskatchewan, over A. R. Duffy, Progressive, by a majority of 555 and with a lead even in rural districts is an indication that the Progressive movement on the prairies is not as strong as some people would have us believe. It was the first brush between Liberals and Progressives in the province and is an indication that possibly in Manitoba also the result may be very uncertain.

In the past new parties have disappeared, even though at times they exerted considerable influence. The Progressive party is not yet a settled institution. Premier Drury of Ontario has recently expressed himself opposed to group government believing that the governing group must have a majority of support in Parliament. With such opinions among the third party men it is difficult to see how they can justify the appeals made to the farmers to elect class representatives. There is a possibility that the Progressives may merge with some other party, that they may dwindle and disappear or that they may become dominant in the country. Much will depend on the result of the Manitoba elections.

LADIES ASK FOR PLAYGROUND IN MCCLYMONT PARK

Petition Presented to City Council Is Signed by Large Number

A petition from several ladies drawing attention to the needs of the 900 children of the city for suitable playgrounds and setting forth McClymont Park as the ideal, natural and most convenient place for the placing of facilities was received by the city council last night and referred to the board of works for report. The petition contained a program for the development of the park which allotted the providing of a concrete wading pool to the Rotary Club, sand bins to the Knights of Columbus, teeter-totters to the EFKs, and swings, drinking fountain and lavatories to the city.

Those signing the petition were—Erna Hamblin, Henrietta Eby, Mrs. J. C. Brady, Mrs. J. Sheddou, Florence A. Cado, Anna M. Ker- gin, Mabel Grant, Glenora Duby, Hannah Nelson, Edith A. The most of the aldermen expressed their favor to the project, especially if other organizations in the city were behind it.

LIGHT SUPERINTENDENT GOING TO CONVENTION

T. C. Duncan, superintendent of city utilities, is to attend the Western-Canada Electrical En- gineers' convention in Vancouver commencing on August 8. A let- ter from the superintendent asking that all or part of his ex- penses be borne by the city came before the council last night ac- companied by a report from the utilities committee recommending that the request be acceded to provided the expenses were not over $100. An amendment was put forward that Mr. Duncan be given time to attend the conven- tion but that he pay his own ex- penses. This was supported only by Ald. Montgomery, mover, Ald. Collart, seconder, and Ald. Irwin- hahn, and was lost. The motion adopting the report was then car- ried.

It was pointed out that it was the Bar- on's wish that no expense be entailed in any reception that might be given. The matter was left to the mayor to make ar- rangements.

CITY COUNCIL BURNS THE MIDNIGHT OIL

After a lengthy discussion of utilities affairs, the city fathers last night found the midnight hour close at hand with the agenda paper not nearly finished. Accordingly further considera- tion of the Section 5 grading project, the report of the board of works recommending the ap- pointment of a building com- mission, the letter from the Any- ox Community League regarding a correlated continuation school for the district and the proposed "Club By-law" was left over for a week.

In the course of the convention it is proposed to put on a fish banquet featuring the local product.

THE PRACTICAL WAITER.
 A certain Barber county man was in Topeka several years ago, and when dinner was served at one of the hotels roasting ears were on the menu. He is extremely fond of corn in this style and he ordered some. The corn was fine. He gave the colored waiter an order for some more. This was very quickly disposed of and the waiter "repeated." This happened five times before the hungry man was satisfied. As he completed his dinner with a glass of water he was at peace with all the world, and, turning to the waiter, he remarked: "What do you think of that kind of a dinner?"
 The waiter grinned and remarked: "Well, suh, boss, this year is the highest priced hotel in Kansas—don't you think you could save money by burdin' at a livery bahn?"

Frank Dockrill arrived on last night's train from Telkwa and is registered at the Hotel Prince Rupert.

Making of Paper at Efficient Pacific Mills Plant at Ocean Falls is Briefly Described

(Written by Chief Engineer G. H. Leicester)
 The logs used in the manufacture of paper at Ocean Falls are chiefly spruce, hemlock and cedar, each species being treated differently. They are sorted in the mill pond and all are cut up into blocks about two feet in length, 8 inches in thickness and of varying widths. Those having bark are sorted from the conveyors and pass to the barking machines where the bark is removed. All blocks discharge into a flume where they are carried down by water to the bunkers at the paper mill.

The spruce goes to the grinding room where it is ground up into pulp on large grind stones. This forms the main base of newspaper. The pulp is similar in appearance to breakfast food and is not in itself of sufficient strength to make paper but has to be strengthened by the addition of long fiber. This is obtained from the hemlock which goes first to the chippers where it is cut up into chips about one inch in length. These chips are conveyed into a large bunker from there being discharged into huge digesters where they are cooked in the acid familiarly spoken of as sulphite. Steam at 100 pound pressure flows into these digesters and, in about ten hours time, the chips are reduced to a white pulp with long fibres which are mixed in the heating room with the ground pulp.

Making Newspaper
 When this mixture is ready it is diluted with water and taken to the paper machines. The first process now is to take the mixture on to a moving wire screen of fine mesh through which water flows leaving the pulp on the screen. The water is further eliminated by passing the mixture over suction boxes and then through press rolls in the wet end of the machine.

The paper is now ready for the dryers on to which it passes. These dryers are large hollow rollers, about four feet in diameter, heated with steam. There are some 10 in number to each machine. By the time the paper has passed over these dryers all moisture has been removed. It then passes through a series of small highly polished rolls in what is called the calendar and is put in large rolls. These rolls go to the re-winder where they are trimmed and cut up into the desired widths. In the shipping room they are weighed, packed for shipment and labelled.

The entire process of making newspaper from the logs on the carriages takes only a few hours.
Wrapping Paper
 The cedar timber, which is used for the making of the brown paper known as kraft, goes through a different process. From chippers it goes to small sulphate digesters where it is cooked into brown pulp and later made into the wrapping paper.

The hydro-electric plant, boiler rooms and engine rooms of the Pacific Mills are marvels of beauty and strength. Some 200 tons of coal are consumed daily, evaporating water at the rate of 65 tons an hour. The boiler room is equipped with every modern device and seems a maze of recording and measuring instruments.

SPECULATION AS TO EIGHT MILLIONS TO BE SPENT ON COAST

There is a great deal of speculation in Vancouver as to what will be done with the eight million dollar appropriation set aside for use on the Pacific Coast. Vancouver newspapers are intimating that it should be used for the erection of another grain elevator, the narrow bridge and the new drydock at that port.
 Prince Rupert people are also discussing the possibility that the money may be spent at this port to make it a grain shipping terminal in order that the railway may pay.
 It is not expected that any announcement will be made until after the ministers of railways and other federal cabinet members have visited the coast and looked into the possibilities at first hand.
 The Vancouver Sun carries a despatch saying that Lyalls are expecting a big contract on this coast.

to discourage them. "But we are not through with them and perhaps before we are through we will put a few more links in these warehouses."

Seize Whole Stock.

"Every time you get one of these export warehouses breaking the law, seize their whole stock and we will help you to hang on to it. I have got no sympathy with them. They are the worst bootleggers we have got."

"There is your cue from me direct. If you can't enforce the law I will get after your commissioners."

Sir George Foster Changed.

"How morals do change with age," Mr. Manson said when referring to Sir George Foster, who used to prove as a temperance advocate, but now stood out against British Columbia in its efforts to get the bill through at Ottawa giving the Province complete power to control imports so that bootlegging might be checked.

Some Vendors May Lose Jobs

"War is declared," Mr. Manson went on. "War was declared when I came into office and will never cease on these men trafficking in liquors."

Mr. Manson said that trouble is also caused by liquor vendors in the employ of the Liquor Board who do not use common sense. These men are being watched and if they do not change their ways there will be some new vendors at work.

Low-Down Drinking Dives.

"Why should you have trouble with clubs?" Mr. Manson continued. "These clubs are privately owned affairs operated for profit by a few individuals. You had as I know one individual in Vancouver who has an interest in four different clubs, which are being operated for this money he put in his pocket. The great bulk of the people in the Province are against that sort of thing."

"When a club attempts to sell beer to its members it should be prosecuted and closed. These legitimate clubs are really nothing but low down dives. Some of them are selling more than beer. They are selling whiskey. Why should any of us have any qualms of conscience in dealing with them?"

Brewers Also Must Beware.

"I am just as good a member of my party as any man, but my Liberalism does not interfere when it comes to enforcing the law for decency and order in B. C."

"I can't see why a brewer should not be a law abiding citizen. If he can't be I will endeavor to make him just as far as possible."

Mr. Manson urged the police chiefs to see that the tax is paid to the Province on all liquor privately imported.

First Duty to Enforce Laws

"Here is my ambition," he continued. "Let's try and co-operate to put this Province on a plane by itself. Let's demonstrate that for once in history a Government can carry on its business absolutely above reproach."

Mr. Manson pointed out to the chiefs that their real duty was in the first place to the Province and not to the municipal authorities, as the municipalities are only delegates of the Province. The Province, he explained, has in hand the maintenance of law and order. He declared that the liquor law here is more easy of administration than it is in a prohibition province.

Must Se Like Rhinoceros.

"I am convinced that, with a proper spirit of co-operation, under all our police authorities, the law can be administered in this Province," he went on. "I can't think of any one thing that will rebound more to our credit than a law abiding population and a clean Province."

"Our liquor situation is the most difficult situation we have to handle in B. C. No bigger trust is ever put on the shoulders of the Government than the trust put upon it by the passing of that moderation plebiscite. The people stated they desired the Government to take control of the liquor supply. I cannot imagine any government seeking such a trust."

Our act is not a perfect one; it is one on which extreme views exist. But no matter what you did you would be subject to violent criticism.

"You and I in our work have to have pretty much the hide of a rhinoceros. There is only one thing which you can do, and that is to know the law, set your course and aim at the enforcement. If you pursue your duty and pursue it to the letter, then that criticism will just fall off you like water off a duck's back."

Legislature Responsible.

"The responsibility for the law is not mine. This Province elects 47 members of the Legislature. It is up to them to give expression to what they consider the real views of the people. Answer those who are harsh in their criticism. This is the law the Legislature has said so, and I am sworn to enforce it."

"There is only one test you can give this law and that is the test in the light of a law that is enforced."

HOSPITAL FINANCES DISCUSSED BY CITY COUNCIL; GRANT MADE

The city is to again pay to the general hospital this year a grant of 70¢ per capita, payment to be made out of liquor profits or general fund if necessary. A report to this effect was presented to the city council last night by the finance committee and adopted.

Hospital affairs were discussed generally by the council. Ald. Montgomery opposing the principle of large grants. The alderman charged the hospital with insisting on collections from some and letting others go. It seemed that no matter how large grants the institution received it was always in the hole. He proposed to let it get down to business.

This view was not supported by the rest of the aldermen although Ald. Perry thought the city had treated the hospital generously and that more assistance might be forthcoming from the provincial government.

PEOPLE DEMANDING USE OF PUBLIC PARKS SUNDAYS IN ENGLAND

Play Tennis and Other Games on Private Grounds But Denied Playgrounds

LONDON, July 4.—Many people are demanding that the London County Council allow the playing of cricket, tennis and other games in the parks on Sundays. The movement has the support of most of the newspapers, and not a few of the clergy. They say that if people go to church in the morning they ought to be allowed to play games in the afternoon.

"London spent yesterday out of doors," says the Daily Chronicle. "It was a perfect Sunday for games. Every private cricket ground, bowling green and tennis ground was occupied. The only grounds where tennis was forbidden were those controlled by the London County Council. While members of the County Council themselves play tennis on Sunday they prohibit others from doing so in the public parks. Thousands of young men and women who would have played but for the County Council kill-joy ban dawdled about doing nothing."

Smoke Cigarettes

"It is the same with cricket. The thousands of pitches controlled by the County Council are not allowed to be used on Sunday, and boys were standing about smoking cigarettes who would have been playing games but for the Sabbatarian fetish: 'No games on Sundays.' There is a growing storm of public anger at this prohibition of Sunday games."

"I shall certainly see the triumph of this movement for Sunday games," said a reformer who is behind the movement. "In England every Briton has the right to get drunk if he wants to between certain hours on Sunday. It is absurd to permit a man to get drunk on Sunday but prohibit him from playing games in the public parks on Sunday. A man cannot get drunk while playing games. Therefore I am for games on Sunday if only in the interest of temperance."

Sport Chat

The game of lacrosse is off to a good start in Prince Rupert. The match on Saturday evening was an exceptionally good exhibition when it is taken into consideration that it was the first game ever played in the city. It was shown that there is plenty of talent in the city and there seems no reason why the sport should not get a following here that would equal, if not eclipse, that given to baseball and football especially since lacrosse is the real Canadian national game rather than either of the other two. There is no doubt that it will now really be taken up here and, in fostering it, it should not be forgotten that lacrosse, perhaps more than any other sport, is a game that should be developed among the youngsters where the big possibilities lie. The youth is always the best working material.

Many football fans figure that they were cheated in the way the Dominion Day cup final on Saturday between the Galties and the Sons of Canada ended up.

SPECIAL OFFERING! Made to Measure Tweed 'ART' Suits Some $30.00 STEVE KING Third Avenue

SOME OF PRINCETON'S BASEBALL STARS. Images of players: HARVEY, PITCHER; GOTSCH, 3RD BASE; MCPHEE, 2ND BASE; BOTTING, RIGHT FIELD; BERG, SHORT STOP; MCNAMARA, CAPTAIN, C.F.

This year, just as in years previous, the coaches of Princeton University have tried their utmost and have spent much time in getting together a good baseball nine. Last year Princeton had a team that was ranked among the best in the country. This season they promise to have still a better team. While not many veterans appear in this year's line-up, it is doubtful whether it will hamper the team to any great extent. Pitcher Harvey is considered one of the best twirlers in college ranks. McPhee, playing second base; Berg, playing short, and Gotsch, covering the hot corner, help make up the best infield in collegiate circles. Capt. McNamara will catch flies in center field. Botting will play right when play is called.

VIENNA AMUSED OVER AN AFFAIR OF HONOR

Dr. Stein Wishes to Fight His Landlord But Refuses to Quit Lodgings

LONDON, Eng., July 3.—(Canadian Press).—An unexpected stop paid is rather an exceptional ground for an "affair of honor," but Dr. Stein, lecturer on Byzantine Art at the University of Vienna, apparently thinks it is sufficient ground for a duel. The Vienna Times tells the story of Dr. Stein's challenging his landlord, Dr. Werth, a bank manager in Vienna, to mortal combat as the result of a trivial grievance the university professor thought he had against Dr. Werth.

Stein was a lodger in Werth's house. He complained of laziness and carelessness on the part of the housekeeper. Her services were bad, he said—and she never emptied the slops. "No gentleman can question that you are responsible for the omissions of your servant," Stein wrote to Werth. "I therefore expect you to take the necessary steps at once. If not, I shall regard it as a deliberate provocation."

The landlord replied briefly to the effect that he had not time then to attend to the matter, but would do so later. Thirty hours later he was waited upon by two men who told him that their principal considered himself insulted and demanded satisfaction on the field of honor.

As Dr. Werth refused to regard the behavior of his servant sufficient ground for a duel, the two seconds drew up a statement in which they declared that, as Dr. Werth refused satisfaction, the affair was settled on one side only. This meant, according to the duelling code in Austria, that Dr. Werth might be thrashed by his opponent, or was at least incapable of giving satisfaction.

Dr. Stein gave expression to his feelings by glaring at the landlord and his wife whenever he met them in the passage. As the household was somewhat upset by the whole matter, Dr. Werth took the fairly natural course of giving his lodger "notice." In Vienna, however, the rights of the tenant are safeguarded by the law, and a landlord cannot eject his tenant without right and proper grounds.

The case has been brought into court, and is being tried in proper form, to the general amusement of everybody.

PAYS TO ADVERTISE SAYS CLERGYMAN

Would Further Spread Gospel Through Columns of Newspapers.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Newspaper advertising to further the spread of the gospel is strongly advocated by the publicity department of the Episcopal Church, which has brought out its recommendations, after a thorough study of the question of advertising, in a pamphlet entitled "A Handbook of Church Publicity," issued under the authorization of the National Council of the church.

"No one can look at the newspapers and magazines and doubt that it pays to advertise," says the Rev. Robert F. Gibson, Executive Secretary of the Publicity Department, and author of the text book. "Why should not this method of such proven efficiency be used for the propagation of the Gospel? Advertising is not necessarily sensational. It merely seems to be so because we are not accustomed to it for church purposes."

One of the striking features of the book is Mr. Gibson's strong advocacy of the fullest use by the churches of the advertising columns of the daily press not only for mere church notices, but for spreading the Gospel among the masses.

Persons or Organizations. "We have thought of publicity in the newspapers as merely a method of giving public notice of a service or a meeting, or of making public the account of something that has taken place," says Mr. Gibson. "We have thought too much of building up the attendance at a service or of exploiting persons or organizations. We are only beginning to think of church publicity in the public press as evangelistic in purpose. The newspapers themselves are really far ahead of the churches in their recognition of this evangelistic opportunity. Many editors are convinced that the problems of the world will never be solved rightly until Christian principles are applied and that therefore it is one of the functions of the public press to present and apply Christian principles.

"Advertising with an evangelistic purpose," says Mr. Gibson. "Where the aim is to reach the unchurched, must be in the newspapers."

Brief Sermons. Mr. Gibson, suggests a form of advertising to churches which will take the shape of a miniature sermon, "briefly interpreting some passage of scripture or briefly applying some Christian principle." Sermonettes, of a hundred words in length, with the name of the preacher and his church annexed are also recommended.

Mr. Gibson's conclusions and recommendations are the outcome of a resolution adopted by the National Council at its Washington meeting last July.

Church promotion by radio, moving pictures, posters, etc., is also considered in the handbook.
