British Afflicted with Political Fever FRENCH GOVERNMENT REFUSES PROTECT CITIZENS OF COUNTRY

Election Prospects in Britain are Discussed Situation is Outlined

LONDON, Oct. 18.—British political fever has now reached its extreme height and there is every indication that the maximum temperature will be maintained for some days. Everybody is guessing as to when the crisis will pass and what turn it will take but the answer is as yet unrevealed. The future remains obscure pending tomorrow's Unionist meeting at the Carlton Club which it is expected will provide the key to the problem. The situation is one of great interest to the British nation and indirectly to the Empire. Lloyd George, who has been the centre of many fierce attacks for long time past, is now assailed by the Conservatives of the old school who resent his radical tendencies and who fear that since the period of reconstruction is past he will revert to his former radical program. He is bitterly assailed by labor which claims that they have been betrayed through broken pledges and held back by unfulfilled hopes. Then there are the old line Asquith Liberals who always resented the establishment of the coalition and have in a weak way consistently opposed it. Lloyd George has ignored all these enemies, but the constant hammering of the opposing press, especially the Northcliffe papers, has been having an effect and no one today knows how the parties will line up or what are their respective strengths. The general feeling is that an election is imminent and that nothing else will clear the air.

Wilson, known as The Master Criminal, murdered his pal in an effort to break jail after being taken for mail robbery. He was formerly a preacher at London, Ontario and at Brownsville, Texas.

ARRIVES FROM MAYO MINES

Jim Zarelli Tells About Operations of Yukon Silver Camps

Business conditions in the Mayo mining camp are not very good according to Jim Zarelli, who returned to the city recently from that point. On his return trip, he visited Whitehorse, Juneau, and stayed at the Telet Hot Springs for a month going from there to Ilyder.

There is little work offering in the Mayo camp and quite a number of men are unable to get work, only a few being employed at the mine. The wages are low in the camp and do not compare very favorably with the wages offering to miners in outside points.

Small One Shipments

The Mayo mine is not shipping much ore just now. The conditions existing in the summer months do not lend themselves to the expeditious handling of large shipments of ore, the mine being some 45 miles from the wharf where it is landed onto the boats. Most of the ore is shipped during the winter months over the snow and is brought from the mine to the boat by caterpillar tractors which haul two trucks at a time with a capacity of some 5 tons each.

Going South

Mr. Zarelli, who is interested in the North Star mineral group at Alice Arm, will be leaving shortly for Seattle and Victoria and will spend a couple of months in the latter city visiting his brother. He does not contemplate doing any work on the North Star claims at Alice Arm this winter but expects to commence development operations in the coming spring, and for that reason will return before Christmas.

Granby Smelting Company Bonds Another Property on Bear River; Sunshine Group Will be Developed

A deal which had been pending for some days, was closed, when the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting & Power Company, bonded the Sunshine group of three claims, owned by Godfrey Anderson and Fred Young, both of Stewart, says the Portland Canal News. These claims are situated on the north fork of Glacier Creek, about five miles by a good trail from the railway siding at the old Portland Canal Mine, and about nine miles from Stewart. It will be remembered that this group was optioned to A. G. Hill of Denver, Colorado, in July last. The option having expired on October 1, the property was taken over by the Granby people, and active development will be prosecuted throughout the winter. Godfrey Anderson has taken a contract to drive a 150 foot tunnel on a large vein, at an elevation of 3,200 feet. Prior to starting this work he has to build a cabin, 42x16. Though there is already a good cabin on the ground it is not conveniently situated for the work that he has undertaken.

GOVERNMENT IS OUT FOR TRADE

Minister of Trade and Commerce Expects to Get Business in South

VANCOUVER, Oct. 18.—Greatly increased volume of trade is predicted by Hon. J. M. Robb, minister of Trade and Commerce, from a preferential agreement between Canada and Australia which he is on his way to Australia to negotiate. He arrived here yesterday from Ottawa and will sail on Friday. Mr. Robb is very optimistic regarding the outcome of his visit. On the way south he will interview the planters of Fiji at Suva in connection with a proposal to ship Canada's supply of bananas by way of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine ships to Vancouver. If an agreement is made, which is expected, four or five vessels will be equipped with cold storage facilities.

POOR CATCH OF WHALERS

Captain Anderson of Steamer White Says Season Was Poor

The whaling boat White, Captain J. Anderson, and mate J. R. Matthews, arrived in port at 2 o'clock this morning from Nade 1 Harbor, Queen Charlotte Islands, which is the base of operations for the Consolidated Whaling Co. of Victoria. The whaler White has been engaged in whaling off the coast of the Queen Charlotte Islands for the past summer season, having commenced operations on May 27. 38 Whales Caught. Captain Anderson says that the whaling season has been a poor one, the catch only numbering 38 whales, which is not at all a good killing. While many whales have been sighted in the vicinity of the coast of the Queen Charlottes they have been particularly wild, which has made it impossible for the whaling boat to get within range and consequently they were very hard to get. Captain Anderson expects to be leaving for Victoria in a few days, and will return early in the spring to Naden Harbor to continue whaling operations.

Good Smelter Returns

Godfrey Anderson has done considerable work on the property this season, and has much improved the appearance of the property. In addition to this he shipped to the Tacoma smelter two tons of high grade ore that ran, according to smelter returns, $224.69 per ton. Considerable interest is being manifested in this deal, owing to the fact that it is the second property taken over by the Granby company on the Bear River this year. This is in addition to the Outsider group, situated 36 miles down the canal, which they acquired. The fact that they are carrying on development on the Sunshine and the Outsider during the coming winter, and will open up the George property in the spring, speaks volumes for their faith in the district; for being situated as they are at Anyox, they have been in a splendid position to make a thorough study of the ore occurrences in it.

Give A Reason For Our Faith.

Why do you think Prince Rupert is likely to go ahead in the near future? was a question asked recently. It is a question that is often asked and it requires an answer. Those who live here are, speaking generally, optimistic. A few are not, but they will be soon unless they have got into the rut or are wading in the slough of despond. There is already a tendency toward better times here. Many local businessmen are doing well and the others will soon feel the impetus. Here are a few of the reasons why we may feel optimistic:

Look Ahead And See The Future.

In the first place the fishing business is in a healthy condition generally. The United States duty has put a crimp into some of the local boats, but they are still fishing and are getting a good price for their fish. The future of the fishing industry is bright.

The complications in connection with the local lumber mill and pulp limits have been cleaned up and there is every prospect that reorganization will take place very soon and that the business may develop into a real pulp and paper factory with power and other subsidiaries.

The Buckley Mill on Massett Inlet is almost ready to commence work and in the spring will be running full blast with seven or eight hundred men employed in the mill and logging camps. A weekly boat service will be operated to this port and Prince Rupert will benefit very materially from the operations.

Several new logging camps in addition to the Buckley camps are to open on the Islands very soon. These will get out lumber for the pulp mills and other concerns to the south.

With the development of the lumber business other mills than those already mentioned will be again in operation in this neighborhood.

Stearns is steadily developing and increased business at any of the mining camps will be of advantage to this place.

Restrictions are likely to be placed on Orientals in regard to salmon fishing and gas boats are likely to be allowed. These changes it is claimed will help Prince Rupert.

The tourist business is steadily improving and the interior country developing, all of which benefits the port.

Business at the local shipyard and drydock is improving and there is a steady pay roll which is bringing business here which formerly went to other ports.

There is a plan on hand for the steady operation of the reduction plant at Tucks Inlet.

The new dock which cost the Railway Company $600,000 is almost completed and will be ready for operation soon.

Most Important Of All Prospects.

All the above are natural developments and have nothing to do with the recent new appointments to the Board of Directors of the Canadian National Railways. That is the greatest cause for optimism of all and for that reason has been placed last on the list.

Sir Henry Thornton is a businessman who understands making railroads pay. He will see here a splendid railway, with a splendid harbor, both railway and harbor being equal in many respects to any in the world. He will find here a few dock not yet used and a shipyard and drydock that could be utilized to advantage in connection with the local roundhouses, machine shops, car shops as well as for marine work. Being a business man he will not allow all these facilities to be idle. As a recent visitor to the city remarked: "There is more cause for optimism in the appointment of Sir Henry Thornton than in anything else that has occurred here since the city was commenced."

Then there is the added fact that we have a local representative on the Board of Directors of the railway. So much has been said about it already that it is useless to repeat, but with businessmen at the head of the railway and a Government sympathetic to this railway and district and with a local representative at Ottawa, we see more hope for this railway and port than we have ever seen before. The future is very bright unless we are sadly mistaken. We have already struck rock bottom and from this time on there should be a steady improvement. That is what makes some of us optimistic. If grain elevators and shipping do not follow, we have mistaken our guess.

SINGING CLASS HERE FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS

One to be Opened to Enable Staff to Qualify as Instructors

The question of all teachers becoming qualified to teach singing, which resulted from a resolution passed by the School Board some time ago, was brought up at the meeting of the School Board held in the City Hall last night by H. L. Campbell, principal of public schools. He said that with very few exceptions the teachers in the city were not at present qualified to teach singing. Many of the teachers did not wish to devote the whole summer course to singing instruction preferring to take up a more important subject.

He had taken the matter up with the superintendent of education, asking him if the teachers could take singing courses during the winter months, and asked the board if they would concur in this.

Mr. Campbell suggested that a singing class be created at night school and thought there would be no difficulty in obtaining a singing teacher locally to conduct such a class.

L. W. Patmore made the motion that the proposal be accepted as satisfactory to the board, Mr. Campbell to take the matter up as suggested with the teachers and J. Pinder-Moss.

The motion was seconded by J. C. McLennan and carried.

MORE PUPILS WILL GO TO BOOTH SCHOOL

Borden Street is Crowded And Not Sufficient Accommodation There

At the meeting of the School Board held in the City Hall last night, public school principal, H. L. Campbell, spoke on the question of transfer of pupils from the Borden Street School to the Booth School, owing to the congestion at the former.

Mr. Campbell suggested that all pupils who lived on the opposite side of Fulton Street to the Borden Street School should attend the Booth School. He said that eight class rooms were already in use at the Borden Street School and that it was only a matter of time until something would have to be done. The only extension which could be made at present would be to use the basement. He thought that sooner or later some of the children would have to attend the Booth School. Mr. Campbell suggested that he write letters thoroughly explaining the matter to parents of the children concerned.

J. C. McLennan concurred with Mr. Campbell in his suggestion, and made the motion that this course should be taken.

The motion was seconded by L. W. Patmore and carried.

CONSTANCE BINNEY AS EARL'S DAUGHTER

Fascinating Story at Westholme in Feature Picture tonight and Tomorrow.

The old Earl of Kildoran and his only child, the Lady Noreen, live in a run down castle in the midst of their once grand estate, now gone to seed and saddled with a heavy mortgage which is held by one Ephraim Roach, a petty country lawyer who nevertheless has a comfortable fortune. That is the opening scene in the picture featuring Constance Binney at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow.

The mortgage is about to be foreclosed, and Roach calls upon the Earl to offer what he considers a wonderful solution—namely, that the Lady Noreen shall marry young Desmond, his son, a smart, scheming youth. The Earl is outraged by the suggestion that Lady Noreen should marry outside the nobility.

Next day the Earl is killed in the hunting field and Lady Noreen inherits nothing but his pride and the mortgaged estate. In despair over the financial crisis, but determined to save the ancestral castle at all costs, she advertises it for rent, and secures as a tenant a young American engineer named O'Brien.

She has the word go around that Lady Noreen has gone away for the summer, and then she takes the place of a maid at the castle, as old Mary and Collins, the only servants left, are too old to do all the work; they are like the leaks in the roof—having been there for more than twenty years.

O'Brien sees through the girl's pretense, but humors it and admires the little lady's pluck. Presently O'Brien is host to his fiancée and her brother, Nora plays the maid to this overbearing young snob very demurely, but manages to put the visitor in such a ridiculous position that she leaves in a huff, after breaking her engagement.

Desmond Roach comes to foreclose the mortgage and is thrown out by O'Brien, who announces that he has bought the mortgage. Of course he does not evict Lady Noreen.

MANUAL TRAINING BENCHES WARPED

At a meeting of the School Board, held in the City Hall last night, R. H. Shockley, manual training instructor, informed the board that the work benches in the manual training room at the Booth School were all cracked and badly warped as a result of the heat put on in the school. The tops would need to be dressed, off and certain repairs would have to be made to the benches. He said that iron bars were necessary to brace the benches.

Dr. W. T. Kergin enquired as to what the cost would be for the necessary repair. Mr. Shockley thought that not more than $50 or $60 would be enough. L. W. Patmore made the motion that the work be done, which was seconded by J. C. McLennan and carried.

MRS. LING RESIGNS FROM SCHOOL BOARD

At a meeting of the School Board held last night in the City Hall a letter of resignation was read from Mrs. C. V. Ling, who is leaving for the south shortly to take up permanent residence.

L. W. Patmore moved that the board accept Mrs. Ling's resignation. He said that it was with regret he made this motion, as Mrs. Ling had always been a hard working member of the board and they could ill afford to lose her.

The motion was seconded by J. C. McLennan who said he regretted the ladies' resignation as she had always been a particularly conscientious worker as a member of the board, and he was very sorry indeed to see her go.

The motion was carried.

RED MOUNTAIN

The main vein on this property, 80 miles southeast of Vancouver, has been opened to a depth exceeding 500 ft. and for a length of 950 ft. On the lowest level the vein is wider and the values higher than on the levels above. In no direction have the possibilities of this vein been fully disclosed. Every hundred feet of work adds materially to the established ore reserves.

Our confidence in Boundary Red Mountain is based on potential developments in the work now in progress on this vein, as well as on its status as a well-managed, completely equipped gold mine.

MORE MONEY FOR SCHOOL

Trustees Decide to Ask City Council for an Additional Grant—$20,000 Needed.

Architect Jeffers Explains Why Costs Have Been Higher Than Expected

That the city council be asked for a further grant of $20,000, in addition to the $15,000 already authorized, for the completion of the repair work on the Booth School now being carried out under the superintendence of architect Jeffers, was the decision of the School Board last night at a meeting held in the City Hall.

Present at the meeting were Dr. W. T. Kergin, chairman of the School Board; J. C. McLennan, and L. W. Patmore, members; W. D. Vance, secretary; H. L. Campbell, principal of public schools; J. C. Brady, high schools principal; R. H. Shoekley, manual training instructor; and architect Jeffers.

Dr. Kergin asked Mr. Jeffers what it would cost to finish all this work. Mr. Jeffers said that including the payroll to come in at the end of the week and additional material required on the job he would say about $9,000.

Dr. Kergin: "The whole thing will cost $9,000 more than we have paid to date."

L. W. Patmore: "The cost to date has been $26,272."

Mr. Jeffers: "Of course that includes a lot of new work, and the fire escapes come in the $9,000."

Mr. Patmore: "What was the reason for the repairs at the Booth school costing at least double the estimates at the start? The original estimate stated the cost would be from $12,000 to $15,000."

Mr. Jeffers: "When estimating the work at $15,000 I did not have in mind that it would probably run to $25,000. Of course I had nothing to do with the inclusion of my salary or Mr. Cox's. I was figuring on the actual work. The thing that has been added to that has been more work than I originally expected. Additional work shows up when doing the work. There have been several pieces of work which have been taken down like the ventilators. Repairs to the heating plant, in certain instances, have been made which make the plant more efficient. Such things as the painting of the stone coping have also been done. Wages are higher here than where I come from also."

Mr. Patmore: "Have you found a great deal of difference in wages?"

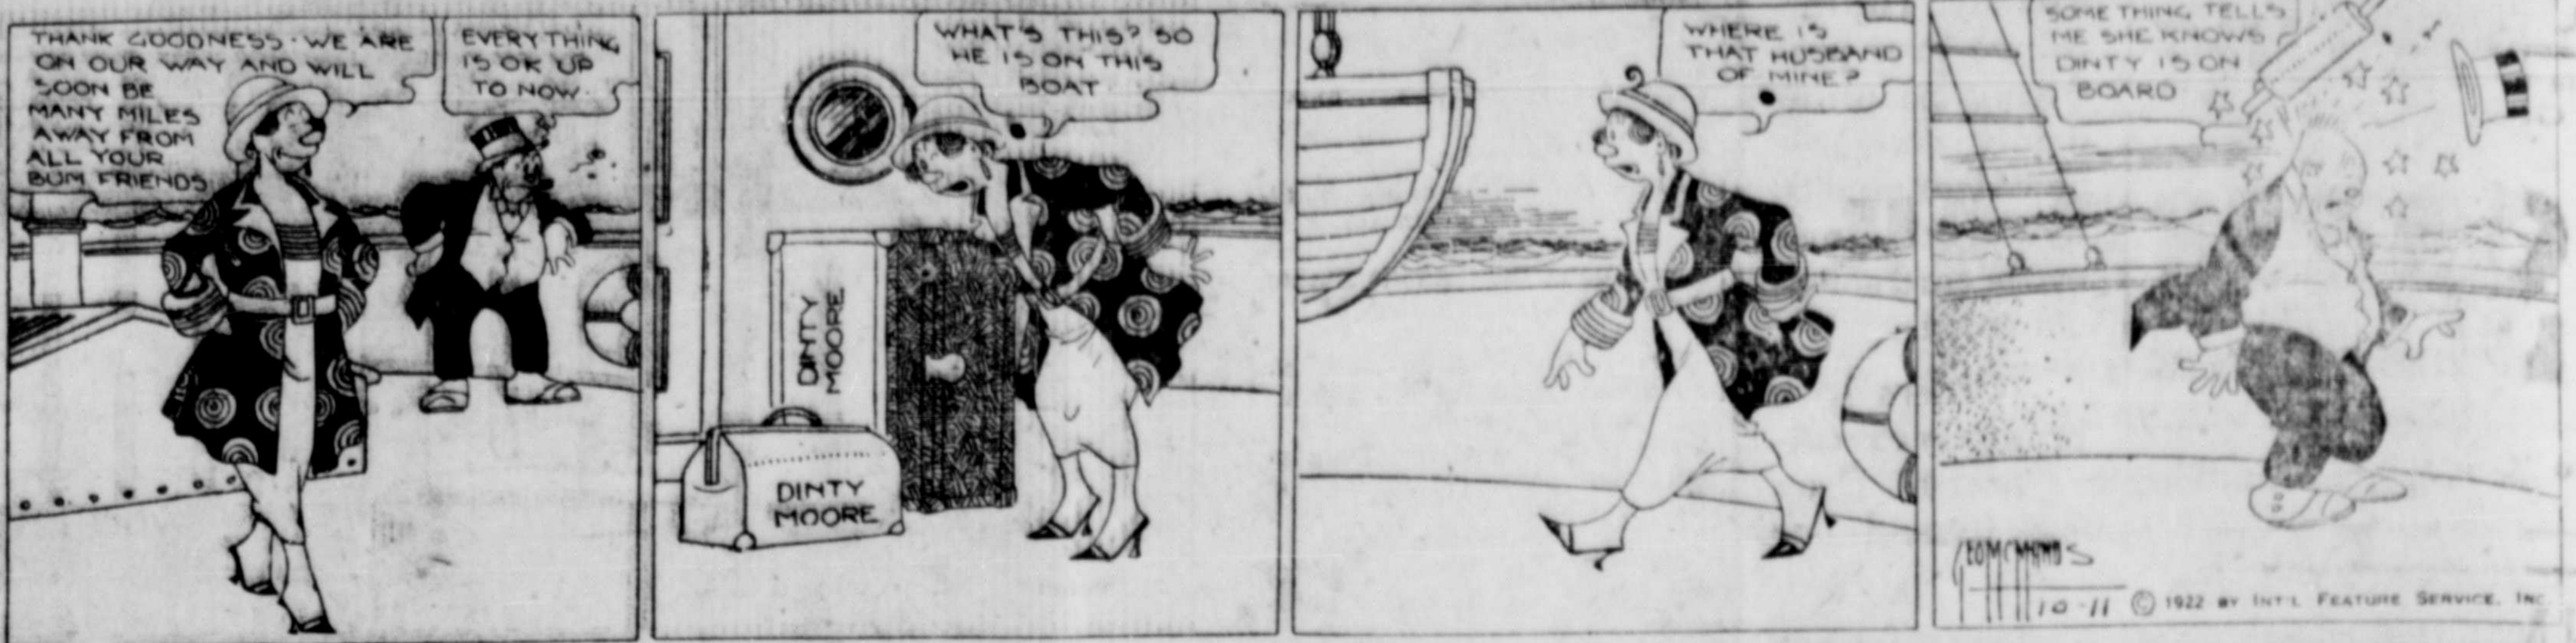

Mr. Jeffers: "Yes, wages are higher here, and you have not got a number of skilled workmen. You are paying $1.25 an hour to anybody who says he is a bricklayer, and $1.25 an hour to anybody who says he is a plasterer. That runs the cost of the work up."

Mr. Patmore: "It seems to me that we could do nothing but what we have done. We had the school built and couldn't scrap it."

Mr. Jeffers said that in strengthening the floors and cutting into the concrete wall to put in the beams had cost $20 a hole.

Dr. Kergin said that he was entirely satisfied that what Mr.

BRINGING UP FATHER

By George McManus

Jeffers had done had been done well, but unfortunately a big enough estimate had not been put in at the start.

Mr. Jeffers said that it was unfortunate he did not know about the rate of wages being paid locally.

Apply to Council Mr. Patmore: "I think we have got to make an application to the city council for further monies. All we could do was to ask the council for what the architect required. We must apply to the council for the money as we find it necessary. There has been a lot of condemnation of the School Board, mostly by people who did not favor having the school built in the first instance. The one big mistake the School Board made was to rely upon an architect who did not understand his business. We are not experts and we relied upon the best man in town with the result as everybody knows. It was a salvage proposition and if we had not made the proper repairs we would have lost our school building entirely. Mr. Cox's suggestion would, I have no doubt, have cost us over $200,000 which meant a new school building.

The school board is not responsible for the increase in the present instance and we are doing the work as economically as we can. We will have to ask the city council for another $20,000."

Mr. Patmore moved that the School Board ask the city council for $20,000, in addition to the $15,000 already authorized. This amount to cover fire escapes and certain new work which should be charged up to the reconstruction or repairs of the Booth school.

The motion was seconded by J. C. McLennan and carried.

Got to Save Building Mr. Jeffers said that the cost of putting in the fire escapes would probably run a little over $2,600, and that holes had to be put into the walls. In referring to the school repair work generally he said "You have got the building there and you have got to save it."

Dr. Kergin asked Mr. Jeffers if it would be possible to get into the school at the end of the month. Mr. Jeffers said that ten rooms were available now if they were washed out.

The question of the termination of Mr. Jeffers' contract which expired on Oct. 21, was discussed.

Mr. McLennan considered that Mr. Jeffers should be employed to finish the work as there was no one here competent to take care of it.

Mr. Patmore said that he was willing to see the job through. It was possible that he could take up a little local work here until the end of the year. If the board wished to reduce his fees an allow him to take care of a little extra work it would be satisfactory to him.

Mr. Patmore felt that Mr. Jeffers should remain until the job was completed.

It was decided that Mr. Patmore and Mr. McLennan meet Mr. Jeffers after the 21st and discuss the question of retaining him on the work further.

COX DEMANDS HIS FULL FEE Sum of $2,250 Requested by Vancouver Architect for Plans Not Ordered.

At last night's School Board meeting a letter was read from A. A. Cox, an architect of Vancouver who had inspected the Booth School and made a report thereon early in the year. In his letter Mr. Cox objected to the offer of the School Board of a cheque for $500 in settlement of his account.

He said that he had expended much time and personal effort for putting the building in a state for putting the building in a state for repair. The necessary plans and specifications were duly prepared, and that he considered the board had received advantages therefrom.

He was therefore unable to reduce the terms conveyed in the statement of his original account previously rendered and asked that a draft covering the full amount be sent him at the earliest convenience.

The original amount asked for by Mr. Cox was $2,250.00.

L. W. Patmore moved that the secretary of the board be instructed to write a letter to Mr. Cox refusing his request and stating that the board had nothing further to add to what had already been written.

The motion was seconded by J. C. McLennan and carried.

Development work on the Prince John property is now well under way. The tunnel, which will be driven during the winter, is in 70 feet. It is expected that the first vein will be cut at a point 250 feet from the portal. This vein shows in the upper tunnel to be 45 feet wide, strikes north 45 degrees east, and leads into a vein of low grade ore 45 feet wide. On the North half of the John group, on the surface and in the deeper diggings, a large quantity of good milling ore has been proved, running from $34 to $45 in gold and approximately $21 in silver. Good winter camps have been established, and a crew of 12 men are now employed on the property.

H. McGlymont is busily engaged in the construction of a 16 x 18 foot cabin on the Mimico Group, Glacier creek, preparatory to working the property throughout the coming winter. As soon as the cabin is completed the work of extending the present tunnel will be undertaken.

G. A. Banks, who was in town during the week end, reports that good progress is being made with the development work on the R.C. Silver property.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mahood have closed their home in Stewart for the winter and have left for the south. Mr. Mahood, managing director of the American Mining and Milling company, will be in and out of Stewart all winter but Mrs. Mahood does not expect to return until the spring.

Tim Williams, Bert Olson, E. Hough, Dan McPhee, and J. McIntosh have arrived in town, having completed the trail up Surprise Creek for a distance of sixteen miles. They report that the trail is now over the summit and on to the headwaters of Gottonwood creek, and opens up a very promising country for prospecting.

G. D. B. Turner, who returned recently from a business trip in the east, expressed himself as being well satisfied with the progress and developments on the Indian during his absence. A good winter camp has been established and twelve men are now being employed on the property. The trail is in good condition, enabling the property to be worked throughout the winter at a less cost than during the summer months, as the snow will make it much easier and cheaper to take in supplies.

Covers were laid for 140 and the varied program, snappy speeches, songs, recitations, and a sumptuous supper left not a dull moment from start to finish.

In the course of the evening the baseball cup was presented, A. Ployart making the presentation and P. Robins receiving it. The football cup was presented by W. Jones and received on behalf of the winning team by A. Stazicker. The orchestra played a number of selections at intervals.

Songs were given by Max Morrow, E. Blundell, H. Rallion and J. Esplin, recitations by Fred Archer and G. Kinraid, and musical selections by Messrs. Heasler and Liddel. At the conclusion a vote of thanks was passed to chairman Dr. Leroyd with the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Those present were: Dr. Leroyd, C. Ferguson, G. J. Lowry, F. M. Kelley, J. H. F. Anderson Says He Will be After Prizes at the Show Next Year

H. F. Anderson, who cultivated Capt. Axelson's ranch at Oona River this last summer, says that if he had known it he could have carried off a lot of the prizes at the local fair with produce raised on the ranch. He is going back there next summer and he intends to compete for a number of prizes for vegetables and he thinks he will get away with them.

IMMENSE PROFITS OF STANDARD OIL CO.

Will Increase Capital in Order to Facilitate Distribution

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Standard Oil company of New York notified its stockholders its readiness to declare a stock dividend of 200 per cent. on Dec. 1st and to increase its capitalization from $75,000,000 to $225,000,000, in order to facilitate the cutting of the big "melon." Little doubt is entertained in Wall street that the decision of the Board of Directors to this effect will be upheld by the shareholders who will receive the bounty.

FOR VALOR

This will be the second stock distribution in the history of the organization. The first occurred on June 30, 1913, in the form of a 100 per cent. dividend following an increase in capitalization from $15,000,000 to $75,000,000.

The directors propose also to decrease the par value of the company's stock from $100 to $25 a share, so that it may have a wider distribution, thus paying the way for future bonuses.

Just Dividends

The life of a Standard Oil stockholder seems to be just one dividend after another. Announcement of the ripeness of the 200 per cent. melon does not, however, come as a complete surprise. Early in the week the Standard Oil Company of California announced the declaration of a 100 per cent. dividend, and the sensational rise of the stock of the Standard Oil Company of New York has led to the expectation of something out of the ordinary—even for a Standard Oil shareholder.

UNITED LABOR MOVEMENT HAS BEEN LAUNCHED

Meeting of All Factions Last Night Decides to Enter Civic Contest.

PLANS PREPARED

Policy of Getting All Labor Men on Voters' List is to be Followed

There was a large attendance at the massed meeting of labor organizations held under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council in the Carpenter's Hall last night.

S. D. Macdonald, president of the Trades and Labor Council, was in the chair.

The meeting opened with speeches by S. D. Macdonald and Geo. B. Casey outlining the object of the meeting.

Getting Together

Mr. Casey, in his speech, emphasized the need of united action, and the desire on the part of every worker to have representation on the city council, school board, and all other governing bodies. He also emphasized the need of labor coming together on a common platform and uniting on a definite policy. This, he said, was the first step toward bringing the matter to a successful issue.

Walter Shaw favored the principle of the structure of the platform proposed and was in entire sympathy with the getting together movement and the massing of forces. He pointed out the danger of removing the hobbles that had always retarded the progress of the workers in any attempt at united action.

Committee Appointed

The following committee was appointed by the Trades and Labor Council, Geo. B. Casey, Geo. Rudderham, T. Ross MacKay, W. E. Dickins, Frank Berry, Jas. Thomas, Geo. Waddell, Chas. Burton, T. Rossie and H. Meagher. Among the duties of this committee will be to try and get as large a number of workmen registered on both the civic and provincial voters' list as possible. A policy will be formulated by this council also. Such a policy will be submitted with a view to entry into provincial politics.

The following report was brought in by the above committee.

We, a committee appointed by the Trades and Labor Council with instructions to submit a program intended to unite the various labor factions in the forthcoming civic election beg leave to submit the following:

1. That we adopt the name of the United Labor Party.
2. That a working organization be brought into working condition through the present active organized body on the following basis:
Trades and Labor Council, O. B.L., G.W.V.A., Longshoremen, Deep Sea Fishermen, five delegates each. Five delegates to be selected from unorganized labor.
