Woman Murderer Pays Final Penalty REDUCTION OF LAND ARMIES SAID TO BE PLAN LLOYD GEORGE

French Bluebeard Guillotined today Steeped in Crime

VERSAILLES, Feb. 25.—Henri Landru, the Bluebeard of France, who was recently convicted of the murder of thirteen women and a boy, walked unconcernedly to the guillotine at early dawn this morning and was executed for the crime.

Henri Desire Landru, "the Bluebeard of Gambais," was arrested on April 4, 1919, on eleven counts of murder growing out of the disappearance of a boy and ten women to whom he had promised marriage. The charmer of 283 women of all ages from 20 to 60, many of them foolish and wealthy widows, was born in Paris in 1868. He was a mechanical engineer and had been well educated.

Landru had previously engaged the attention of the police through his swindling operations for which he was sentenced to prison for a term of four years. He was married and had two grown children. He was a dark-visaged man with shining bald head and long, black whiskers and during the progress of his trial for murder which began November 7, 1921, before the Versailles Assizes and ended the following November 30, he participated dramatically in his own defense.

Lack of Proof.
The backbone of his defense was that there was an absolute lack of proof that the "missing" women were dead. The legal accusations against him was comprised in 50,000 pages of evidence which required three hours to read in court. About 125 witnesses appeared for the prosecution and defense. A large quantity of charred bones and ashes, alleged to be the remains of Landru's victims was brought to Versailles in five sealed cases as well as many of the personal belongings found in the little villa at Gambais where the modern Bluebeard lured his fiancées to death.

Landru's motive in committing the murders was the sordid one of robbing the women of their meager savings. The police proved that he rented the cottage at Gambais, a few miles from Paris, advertised in various matrimonial papers and enticed his victims to the villa where all trace of them was lost.

After his arrest, the house was ransacked and practically demolished by the police in an effort to find the remains of the

EXAMINING A CROSSING FOR POWER CABLE

Engineer and Manager for Pulp and Paper Co. Are Investigating.

H. P. Crowell, resident engineer for the Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Company accompanied by E. F. Duby, local manager, left on the train this morning for Skeena City where they will investigate the winter conditions in connection with the proposed high power cable across the river to bring power from which ever waterpower source is chosen in that neighborhood.

There are three possible power sources there, Brown's River and Falls River, both on the Estabill River and Khtada, which flows into the Skeena. In any case the cable crossing would be near Skeena City and the ice flow in the river would affect it.

The Prince Rupert Pulp and Paper Company has examined each of these waterpowers and they favor the one at Brown's River.

Bright Days Induce Consideration of Position.

These bright days give us a chance every evening to note the stars and bring to mind that each of these is a sun, possibly, the centre of another solar system like ours or millions of times larger. To begin to think about such things as this, to imagine what the golden ball is like that we call a sun and from which we get our warmth and life, makes us feel the smallness of ourselves and our surroundings.

Describing one of the extraordinary outbursts on the sun, Professor Young said he had been examining a prominence by means of the spectroscope. It had remained unchanged since noon of the previous day, a long, low, quiet-looking cloud, not very dense or brilliant or in any way remarkable except for its size. At 12:30 a.m. the professor left the spectroscope for a short time and on returning half an hour later to his observations he was astonished to find the gigantic sun flame shattered to pieces. The solar atmosphere was filled with flying debris and some of these portions reached a height of 100,000 miles above the solar surface. Moving with a velocity which even at the distance of 93,000,000 miles was almost perceptible to the eye, these fragments doubled their height in ten minutes.

A solar explosion or eruption so great that the debris was thrown 100,000 miles is something to consider comparatively. And yet our sun is not a big star as stars go. It is simply one among countless others. It is big to us because it is near, only 93,000,000 miles away. There are estimated to be between two and three thousand million stars, each separated from the other and from us by inconceivable distances. The nearest star is estimated to be 22,000,000,000 miles away, and only thirty are known to be within one hundred billion miles of us.

Waves of Feeling in Political Life

As in religious life so in political there are such things as waves of feeling. Parties have their ups and downs. Today a party is anathema and tomorrow it is just the opposite. A few months ago everyone was talking about the sins of the provincial government and the utility of John Oliver ever again coming before the electorate or even trying to carry on much longer. Today the John Oliver stock stands as high in this province as it ever did. There was never anything wrong, but simply the laxity and carelessness of one or two officials had brought the government into disrepute. These things have been cleaned up and they have been found to be nothing like as bad as was thought. John Oliver has gone to Ottawa and has put up the best fight that any British Columbia statesman ever put up for the rights of British Columbia. He has shown himself to be a big man even at Ottawa. He has been dined by the Ottawa Board of Trade and everywhere he has gone he has brought general attention to British Columbia and her needs. As a matter of fact, the Oliver government is today stronger than it has been for many a day. With Manson in the position of attorney-general and with our own minister, Pattullo, always on the job; with Dr. Sutherland in place of Dr. King, all strong men and clean, the provincial administration gets a new lease of life. There should be several years of usefulness before they are again appeal to the country. What comes then will be decided largely on the record of achievement of the next few years. Possibly the people will then want a change, but if the government does good work and shows a grasp of the problems of the day and is still virile and capable, there may be still another extension of political life.

Need Workers for Hospital.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the General Hospital is asking for volunteers to help in working for the comfort of the patients at that institution and in making improvements there. A definite program of work will be laid out, but more women are needed to do sewing and take a general interest in the institution.

Last year the Auxiliary did splendid work. Not only did it furnish a maternity ward and a new laboratory but it provided linen and garments for the patients. At that time there were but twenty members, and of those only about seven or eight were active. This year the ladies hope they will receive more help and at the meeting to be held on Tuesday all who can possibly attend are asked to do so. There can not be any more worthy object for which to work than the comfort of the patients in the hospital.

WHAT CAUSES SO MUCH SICKNESS

Constipation Responsible for 90% of Disease

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Corrects It

It is generally recognized among the medical profession that Constipation or Insufficient Action of The Bowels, produces more disease than any other one cause. Constipation is responsible for at least 90% of the disease in the world today—because Constipation is responsible for the Indigestion and Dyspepsia—the nervousness, Insomnia and Rheumatism—the Eczema and other skin troubles—the Headaches and Backaches.

Why is this? As you know, it is the duty of the bowels to carry off the waste matter in the system. If the bowel muscles are weak or the liver inactive, then this waste matter remains in the body and poisons the blood. As a result, every organ in the body is poisoned by this waste.

"Fruit-a-tives" has been wonderfully successful in relieving Stomach Troubles, Nervous Troubles, Liver Troubles, Kidney Troubles, Skin Troubles and Blood Troubles, because "Fruit-a-tives" positively and emphatically relieves Constipation.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always relieve Constipation, even though the trouble has been chronic for ten, fifteen and twenty years. Thousands of grateful users proclaim "Fruit-a-tives" the greatest remedy for Constipation that the world has ever known.

SHIEK PROVES TO BE SPECTACULAR PICTURE

Art Production Free From Propaganda or Moral Uplift Purpose.

Great interest was taken in the first presentation of "The Shiek" at the Westholme Theatre last night. It is a spectacular picture and full of interesting situations. It is purely an art production and has no moral or lesson such as seems so popular these days. The absence of these came as a pleasant surprise. Propaganda, even for the best purposes, gets a little stale sometimes and movie fans become nauseated with the efforts to uplift them.

The picture is to be shown again tonight.

ANYOX CIVIC COUNCIL MEETS

Chooses Committees to Handle Activities During the Year.

ANYOX, Feb. 23.—A meeting of the new council of the Anyox Community League was held in the Recreation Hall on Wednesday of this week.

The council elected George Williscroft to be president for the ensuing term, with E. J. Conway as vice-president. J. Lowry was elected as secretary-treasurer and the chairmen of the various committees are as follows:

Forum, George Warwick.
 Recreation, Alex. Roberts.
 Choral and dramatic, Fred Morrow.

Entertainments, Dean Buzzelle.
 Home and school, Mrs. McKay.
 House committee, E. Simpson.

The question of the new secretary for the league was introduced by Councillor Robert Armour, who stated that he had the numerous applications for this position in his possession and asked for a special meeting as soon as possible to consider the same. On motion of Councillor Simpson, seconded by Councillor Armour, the council will meet in camera in the ladies' rest room this evening to go over the seventy-five applications in order to cut down to a suitable number to receive further consideration. Councillor Simpson suggested a committee of three be appointed to do this, but Councillor Armour stated that the letters contained many good ideas and that the council should be permitted to hear the letters read.

Cataloguing Books.

Lou McAllister made several suggestions regarding the library, to which Councillor Armour, as retiring chairman of the library board, replied. Mr. McAllister suggested that all the books be catalogued and Councillor Armour replied that the books were all listed and it was a matter of whether council wished this to be done. The former gentleman had in mind a small book to be printed and given to every member of the league, but left this suggestion in the hands of the new chairman.

The chairman asked for discussion on the subjects of civics and public health, but it was decided that as the polytechnic was to a large extent filling the civics wants and that the new hospital board would take care of the health question, these two subjects be dispensed with for the present.

Mr. Parker, manager of the picture theatre, asked that his license be paid by the council, supporting his petition by an outline of the work that he is called upon to do. A recommendation had been passed by the retiring council to pay over this money to Mr. Parker, but the cheque had been held up pending the installation of the new council. The new chairman upheld the resolution and the cheque to cover Mr. Parker's moving picture license will be paid at once.

The council then adjourned.

NAVAL BRIGADE HAD FINE DANCE LAST NIGHT ST. ANDREW'S

Decorations Were Unique and All Arrangements Excellent.

The Naval Brigade dance held last night in St. Andrew's Hall was attended by well over 200 persons and was a great success. The decorations, of a naval character, were a feature and the hall was a pretty place indeed with illuminated ships and anchors and flags and pennants. Several of the boys in uniform lent still further to the colorful effect. Arthur's Orchestra provided the music and at the midnight hour the serving of excellent refreshments commenced.

C. V. Evitt, instructing officer of the brigade, was in general charge and was given valuable assistance by several ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. H. O. Grewe was in charge of the refreshments and was assisted by Miss Cheston, Mrs. H. Ward, Mrs. J. A. Hinton, Mrs. A. B. Paul and Mrs. George E. Gibson. Mrs. Evitt looked after the tickets and was assisted by S. L. Warrior who was on the door. Captain Forby was responsible for the splendid decorative effects.

W. N. Ozilvie, acting for the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway and the Grand Trunk Pacific Development Co., has filed notice that the companies will contest in the County Court the assessments of all property in this city. If the companies are successful in getting the valuations reduced the city council will be forced to levy upon all improvements in order to raise sufficient revenue.

School estimates for the year 1922 call for an expenditure of $25,235 an advance of $1,700 over last year. The city council is endeavoring to pare down some of the items. With this estimate one dollar out of every two raised by land taxes would be required for school expenditure, provided there were 65 per cent collections.

COFFEE MILL IN OPERATION

Stewart & Mobley, With New Machinery, Turning Out Fresh Product Daily.

The first coffee mill to be operated in Prince Rupert or Northern British Columbia is now going full blast at Stewart & Mobley's wholesale house turning out fresh roasted and ground coffee and peanuts daily for the trade in the city and district.

The plant which is installed in a two-storey addition to the wholesale house at a cost of $6000, consists of two machines, a modern and up-to-date roaster with a capacity of 1200 lbs. daily, and a grinder with a capacity of 5000 pounds.

The roaster is the latest model of Jabez Burns' automatic, air-cooled machinery. The green coffee is taken into the perforated cylinder roaster by means of an automatic suction fan. After it is roasted, which operation generally takes about half an hour, the coffee is dropped into the air cooler, where another suction fan cools it and draws out all the dross that might be in it. After staying in the cooler for fifteen minutes the coffee is completely roasted and is ready for the grinder.

Any Size Required.

The grinder, which is also of the latest design, granulates the coffee into any size required.

The motive power used for the running of the machines is electricity and the fire for roasting is made of coke. The latter, with highly perfected drafts, ensures an even heat for the product.

The roaster also handles peanuts to as good advantage as coffee, and when it is not being used on coffee it is employed with the peanuts.

The company is turning out with its new machinery four excellent brands of coffee. The first choice is the Supreme coffee, while the other brands are Delicious, Strand and Standard Special. Each brand is roasted fresh and delivered daily to the consumers in air-tight one-pound wax packages.

Fresh Every Day.

The advantage afforded by this new equipment is that the coffee is always fresh for the trade. This can be appreciated when it is understood that coffee, through absorption, deteriorates ten per cent. in two days. The same applies to peanuts in a lesser degree.

The four different brands of coffee are made by means of different blends. Four varieties of green coffee are kept in the bins on the second floor of the plant and these are combined as required. Besides turning out the coffee in sealed packages, the company also packs it in barrels for wholesale requirements of camps, hotels and the like.

J. Montgomery, of the Trade Roasting Co. of Vancouver, has been here for two months supervising the installation and initial operation of the plant. He will return south next Thursday night, after which George Johnstone will operate the mill until a permanent operator, an expert in the business, arrives from the south.

Headaches Gone

Perhaps you can imagine what this means to one who has suffered terribly with headaches for ten years.

Read about it in this latter. Mrs. Tena A. Smith, Country Harbor—Cross Roads, N. S., writes:

"I feel that if anyone can recommend Dr. Chase's medicine I certainly can. I suffered for ten years from severe headaches, and although I took all kinds of headache powders they just relieved me at the time. I became very nervous and run-down, and everything seemed to trouble me. I have taken eighteen boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and it has made an entirely new person of me. I felt that I could not have lived without it. I do not have one headache now for every hundred I used to have, and my nerves are good and strong. I just weigh 109 pounds when I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and now I weigh 121. Knowing what this treatment has done for me, I cannot too highly recommend it to others."

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet Which Is the Chief Source of Prince Rupert's Prosperity

The Admiral of the Mosquito fleet reports that fishing during the past week has been streaky, some catches being of large proportions while others have been poor. Some boats have laid up on the coast for ten days without wetting a hook, due to wintry weather.

Fish prices have kept up well around the 16 cent mark until yesterday when they suddenly dropped to 10 cents. For those who have been fortunate to make a haul of halibut the fishing has proved remunerative.

The herring are reported to be swimming near the surface in Captain's Cove and consequently the herring hunters are doing good business, and bait is plentiful.

The Admiralty office of the Fleet reports that a fire of considerable proportions took place during the week on Wolff Island, considerable damage being done to the old powder house, and to the personal effects of members of the Fleet who are stationed at that point. A wireless was received by the Admiral of the Fleet and the fire boat Mephistopheles was despatched to the scene but did not get within fire fighting distance of the fire owing to a warm argument taking place aboard as to whether the powder house was worth saving or not.

By the time the skipper had convinced the crew that as a fire fighting ship it was their duty to try and save the property, the damage had been completed. There was no loss of life. The natives of the island have taken to the bush and while they claim that it is a bit draughty sleeping in the trees just now they consider it will be a health giving sport around July and August, and any one desiring to book a tree for the summer months should forward their application at once to the President of the Island.

A mishap occurred aboard the Serub, Captain D. Prince, during the week, which might have been attended with serious consequences for the victim but for the presence of mind of the crew. Mr. Cook, secretary to the skipper, was reclining on the main-sail boom, during a mug-up interval, figuring out some short-hand notes, when a gust of wind swung the boom over the leeward side precipitating the scribe into the salt chuck. The cry of "man overboard" brought the captain on deck, who suggested lying the fallen one to a buoy and picking him up on their return to port. However, the first mate, after a lengthy discussion, prevailed upon Cap to take the submerged man aboard again and this course was adopted, much to the delight of Mr. Cook. Cap has now issued orders that trespassing on the mainsail boom is strictly forbidden.

The Secret Service of the Fleet reports that Dinty Moore has shipped out of port again, and the pack of cards which the Admiral had confiscated from Dinty, for his personal use, are also missing. It is feared that Dinty is plying his trade of poker playing on the high seas, and all boats have been instructed to follow any nickel trails with the hope of running him down again. To the skipper capturing Dinty Moore the Fleet will give a twenty-cent banquet at the Mug-Up.

Captain T. House, the champion crab fisherman of the Mosquito Fleet, left port on Thursday morning in company with his chief officer, B. Grantler, for the crab fields, several large specimens having been sighted by incoming craft. Cap says there is no crab swimming in the Pacific ocean which can put anything over on him. It is expected that the price of crabs will take a jump on Cap's return.

The Ethel June, Captain Ritchie, left on Thursday for the last shrimp fishing expedition of the season. On return to port it is the intention to refit and proceed for the halibut fishing grounds. Cap thinks it takes less time to fill his craft with halibut than it does to fill it with shrimps.

The Pelican arrived in port on Wednesday from Cape Addington, and the following entry in the ship's log book is interesting.

"The boys are rather chilly as the weather up North has turned water into ice. The Cap has just taken observations on the sun but for all this the sun is still shining and it doesn't seem to have hurt it any. Leaving to-night for the fishing grounds. Captain Jacobson says he will try and wrestle from Father Neptune another good trip like the last one. We are now headed south by east."

The St. Eloi, Captain Wilson, arrived in port on Thursday morning with two and a half tons of gilled herring for the Gold Storage, and will be leaving port for a repeat order.

A new industry has sprung up over night in the vicinity of Cow Bay, this time it is pig keeping. A fine specimen of a ground hog is installed in a suitable building near the Mug-Up. The pig has been named Tunky and has a very tame nature. During certain hours of the morning Tunky can be seen strolling around the main salon of the Mug-Up, and on the word "Die" will just keel over in a heap and crumple up, in fact it has to be seen to be believed.

Further to the S. S. "Mirror" story in last week's issue.

After the cabling aboard the Mirror the good ship returned to her home port of Plymouth, and after refitting for three days proceeded to Morocco with Jack Toner aboard. Upon nearing the shores of this port the natives looked with suspicion upon the craft and would not permit any of the sailors to land from the pinnace. Upon the pinnace returning to the Mirror the Captain sought the protection of the one and only Morocco warship, which was something after the style of our government revenue cutter. The warship skipper informed the natives that the crew of the Mirror were good sports, and upon his O.K. the natives permitted the crew to land. Jack says he had the time of his life among the Moroccans who dined him like a king. After repairing the shore cable line in Morocco the Mirror proceeded to Gibraltar and upon dropping her anchor Jack clambered from the engine room to the bridge, dirty and forlorn, to lay a complaint to his captain against the second engineer, for violence while on duty, telling the captain that he wished to be paraded before the Captain of the Rock of Gibraltar. The captain of the Mirror told Jack he could see the Captain of the Rock on the Wednesday morning.

With this assurance Jack saluted the skipper and walked off. On the morning in question the Captain of the Mirror, with Mr. Godfrey the second engineer, and the chief mate, took Jack ashore and into an office, the party taking seats behind a counter while Jack stood outside. A naval officer came in and started in to question Jack, but his accent made our hero suspicious, who asked him if he were the Captain of the Rock of Gibraltar, to which he replied "No." At this Jack got sore, and grabbing his cap wiped the gathering good-bye. On getting outside Jack espied an old salt reclining against a rock in the sun, and asked him if he knew where the Captain of the Rock hung out. The old sailor directed Jack to the Captain's quarters and upon arrival he was admitted to the presence of this high authority. The Captain of the Rock, being a stickler for a square deal, had the officers of the Rock parade Jack to the Court House and ordered the captain, second engineer and first mate of the Mirror to attend the trial. The verdict at the trial went in Jack's favor, and the second engineer was reprimanded.

However, the second engineer did not bear any malice toward Jack after the trial was over but quite the contrary, telling Jack that he admired his nerve, promoted him from fireman to deck giener. Jack and the officer sailed together for some fourteen months after this episode, being fast friends. The second engineer, to prove that he was on the square, told Jack there was a ten glass bottle of rum and a bottle of English old ale for his benefit any old time he felt like a little lubricant. The motto is—alls well that ends well.

The Fanny F., Captain Jim Betts, left port on Wednesday for the high spots. The first deep sea fishing trip of the season.

The Ringlander, Captain Lee, which has completed a light overhaul, cleared from port on Thursday afternoon for the deep sea fishing grounds.

The Iris, Captain Hansen, arrived in port early in the week with a fair sized cargo of halibut. Rough weather was experienced, and Cap hopes for better luck next time.

The Kouyasu arrived in port on Wednesday from the halibut grounds. A member of the crew received injuries to his hand which necessitated hospital treatment, and for this reason the catch was a light one.

The Narbethong, Captain Freeman will be undergoing a general overhaul in the near future. Caulking and painting will be done, while the engine will undergo a thorough repair.

Bob Hanna has taken up residence down at the Dry Dock on the good ship Lorne, while the casting of his new teeth is taking place. The old molars gave Bob a deal of trouble and while consulting Jack Ogilvie on the subject mentioned the high cost of dentistry work. Upon examining the faulty members of Bob's face Jack volunteered to extract the offending ones free, gratis and for nothing. Bob agreed to the suggestion, and after a deal of hunting around the necessary wire rope was located and a half hitch was neatly placed around three or four of Bob's "old friends." While Jack and Bob were considering whether to tie the rope to the door and slam it, or to place an anchor on the end and throw it over the wharf, someone strolled by and inadvertently caught a hefty boot in the rope with the natural consequence that Bob's teeth fell out. Bob says it was the neatest and most painless piece of work he has ever come across.

The Lillian M., Captain Scotty Reid, is being refitted at Cow Bay. Considerable new gear has been added to the outfit, and everything will soon be in first class shape for a deep sea luke.

The Department of Fisheries patrol boat Bonita, Captain Joe Hutchings, returned to port, from a patrol of the coast on Tuesday night.

J. D. Lockwood, customs officer with Bradbury & Yelf, arrived in the city on business on Tuesday night aboard the Bonita.

The Starston is tied up at the Government pier.

The Wigwam, Captain Glaude Ketchum, proceeded to the slough at the mouth of the

ECZEMA ON FACE AND HANDS for Five Years

Eczeema or salt rheum, as it is so often called, manifests itself in little round pimples which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust or scale is formed and the intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to a strong heat, is almost unbearable and relief is gladly welcomed. There is only one way to get relief and no remedy like

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Take it internally and it gets at the seat of the disease in the blood and drives it out of the system. Apply it externally and it takes out the itching, stinging and burning, and promotes healthy healing. Mr. J. Sage, 215 Princess Ave., Vancouver, B. C. writes: "Having suffered with eczeema on the face and head for the last five years, I consulted several doctors, and tried various kinds of salves and lotions, but I derived no benefit from any of them. I did not know what to do until a friend advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after I had used two bottles I began to get better and now after taking eight bottles I have not even a blotch on me. I feel that I cannot praise B. B. B. too highly. I hope you will make full use of this recommendation for the benefit of those who are suffering from this terrible complaint, eczeema." B. B. The Princess Ena arrived from Vancouver on Thursday morning and after discharging lumber for Albert & McCaffrey for local consumption proceeded north.

The Pachena, Captain A. Swanson, cleared for Stewart on Thursday morning with passengers and freight.

Captain Spencer, who was wrecked on Kinahan Island recently, has decided to have a new and better boat built to replace the Blue Jay. The contract has been let to Captain Kohrt, and the keel has already been laid at Cow Bay. The dimensions are 32 feet overall by 9 foot beam, and will be fitted with a 10-12 h. p. Palmer engine. It is expected the new boat will be completed by the middle of April.

Flossie Flirt has left for Seal Cove on a holiday, which will probably extend over the week end.

The following boats are at present in port: Samson, Glide, Pelican, Narbethong, Lillian M., Beula, Vixen, Lillian F., Laura L., Peggy, Lydia K., Iris, Ruth, Beaver Cove, Ruby Mae, Letta R., Starston, Napoleon, Prune, Tramp, Sadie, Bringgold, E. GOOD OLD DAYS. Editor Daily News:

Dear Sir,—I remember the time when we used to have to manure the pasture to get feed for the cow. We saved the fat to make soap and candles. We saved the ashes to make the lye to make the soap, both hard and soft. Every farm was a community in itself. We did not manufacture the cloth but every family made its own clothes, shoes, etc. We made our own candy and candles. When we could not get sugar we used long sweetain, (syrup). It was the time when waltzing was considered indecent.

The children of that time were certainly hard cases according to our parents. I know because I was one of them.

Same Kind of Kids. Our boys and girls are just the same kind of kids as those of my day, only they seem to me to have it easier. They are not one bit happier. They have just the same joys and sorrows we had and our young ladies look even better to me than those of my youth while those of the older generation look younger and not so worn. The men are better preserved, so I cannot agree with the pessimists that the country is going to the dogs. The only trouble is we can't take the same handy method of getting rid of the prohibitionists today.

You see in those days the prohibitionists confined their efforts to each other so the rest of us got along.

LAUNDRIES AND CHEMICALS

The telephone tinkled the other day, and a feminine voice said, "I have been reading your advertising lately, but don't the laundries use chemicals in their washing?"

Yes, we do use chemicals; so does your baker, and so does every housewife when she makes those delicious hot biscuits you enjoy so much.

We shall have more to say on chemicals later; meanwhile, don't you think this is an almost ideal treatment for your flannel and woollen garments?

First Bath—Use abundance of warm water 100 degs. Fahr.; add neutral soap solution to make a good suds; run 15.

INSIDE LIFE DALAI LAMA

Residence of Great Religious Chief is Wonderland of Flowers and Birds.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The Dalai Lama of Tibet, the religious and secular head of that secluded country has to work harder than the average British or American business man. He gets up at 4 o'clock in the morning and labors until midnight, notwithstanding the fact that he is unquestionably the "big boss."

Sir Charles Bell, a British political officer in India, who has just returned after a year's residence in the romantic "forbidden city" of Lhasa, the Tibetan capital, says the Dalai Lama is a "wonderful personality." Sir Charles is one of the few Europeans who have mastered the Tibetan language and this helped him to become friendly with the head of all Tibet.

Forbidden Enclosure.

"He paid me the honor of inviting me into the forbidden enclosure of his country palace," said Sir Charles.

"This was a little wonderland of flowers, birds and wild animals—a hidden retreat where he gives deep thought both to his religious and state affairs. Hundreds of canaries were singing here, and there were also stags, pheasants and a great tiger from Bengal."

The climate was intensely cold when Sir Charles arrived, and for days the temperature indoors never rose above freezing point. In the place of window glass, Tibetans used a sort of wax cloth. It lets the wind in, but they are a hardy race and do not appear to feel the discomfort of the cold.

"Mutton, yak beef and pork are the staple diet," Sir Charles went on. "Tibetans do not like either chicken or eggs. They do not sleep on beds but on the floor, on which are placed large downy cushions. You lie on top of these and fold them over you. They are very comfortable and warm."

Sticklers for Etiquette.

"There is an official date for winter to begin and end, and the fur hat and other warm garments ordained for officials are invariably worn without regard to weather conditions between those dates. However comfortable the official may be with the fur hat April 25 or without it here.

Captain Anderson is here in connection with commercial flying, to inspect any airdromes and facilities for taking off and landing, and to examine pilots and engineers, and to put them through necessary tests. His department, he said, was simply trying to assist commercial aviation as much as possible, and it was giving commercial companies all information they desired regarding the latest type of machines, mapping air routes for them and arranging landing stations. There was no doubt that commercial flying was coming in the not distant future. Hitherto this had been limited to passengers, but now that the novelty had worn off business in this direction was falling away. When commercial flying was once definitely adopted, he believed, it would be here to stay.

GALLANT MANNERS RAPIDLY RETURNING

MOSCOW, Feb. 24.—The gallant manners of old Russia are coming back rapidly. Men again kiss the hands of women acquaintances when they meet in the streets. Too, when men ride with women in sleighs about the city they put their right arm about the woman's waist, ostensibly to hold them in the sleigh.

BEECHAM'S PILLS Sweeten the Stomach

after that date, he would never dream of departing from the sartorial convention in public for five minutes. The etiquette of the people is very elaborate and strict.

"There are, practically speaking, no police, no firemen and no wheeled traffic in Lhasa. If a man suffers from toothache, he goes with a few friends on to the flat roof of his house. His friends bring a big stone, round which they fasten a string. The string is then tied to the bad tooth, and the stone dropped over the roof top. Two or three friends hold on to the patient to prevent him from going over, too."

LABOR TO CONDUCT BIG FIGHT IN LONDON FOR COUNTY COUNCIL

LONDON, Feb. 24.—Labor is squaring up for a big fight to secure control of this metropolis through the London County elections, which take place early next March.

Labor's opponents, the Municipal Reform party and the Progressive party, although divided in policy, are practically united to keep out the Labor Socialists. The latter have collected an election fighting fund of £20,000 by a levy on all their members.

Their program includes municipal trading on a large scale in meat, coal, bread, fish and milk, and the provision of various medical services free to all, which is characterized as a revolution in municipal government.

AVIATOR ROSS IS TO CROSS CANADA ON HIS ROUND WORLD FLIGHT

WINNIPEG, Feb. 24.—Sir Ross Smith, the British aviator who made the England to Australia flight, will come across Canada next year in an all around the world trip by air, and the National air board has mapped out an air route and landing stations for him in the Dominion, according to the statement of Capt. N. R. Anderson, of Ottawa, who is here.
