WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—A cable has been received from Mahatma Ghandi announcing the declaration of the Indian republic and the formation of an army for defence purposes. The message adds that America's pledge of support to the Indian republic had decided the All-India Congress to declare the republic.

Local agents of the India revolutionists say that Senators Norris and Walsh and a group of American publicists and jurists sent a message to the All-India Congress pledging the support of the United States for India's struggle for liberty.

SUDDEN RISE GERMAN PRICES

Cost of Living Has Risen Steiffly in Last Few Weeks.

BERLIN, Jan. 3.—According to figures published by a statistician, Dr. Kuczynski, the minimum living wage in Berlin for a family of four was 509 marks a week during the month of November—that is, 222 for food, 10 for housing, 31 for heating and lighting, 128 for clothes, and 118 for sundries. In October the weekly minimum was 386, September 349, August 339, and in July 324, showing how steeply the cost of living has risen during the last few weeks. The July minimum in 1913 was 28.8.

Dr. Kuczynski estimates that the internal purchasing power of the paper mark, calculated on the minimum wage basis, is now equal to .06 gold marks. Index figures published by the "Frankfurter Zeitung" tell a similar tale. If the figures of 100 is taken as representing the market price of food (including luxuries) at the beginning of last year, the figures for this first week of December is 378. Compared with pre-war rates, present prices have increased more than thirty-fold.

Textile prices have risen out of all proportion. The index figures show that last month the market price of textiles was 46 times the peace rate, but this month it is 65 times the peace rate. The last week in November also saw a record inflation for the banknotes in circulation increased from 3,479.9 million marks to 100,943.6 million marks.

Chorus Approval In Favor Anglo-Irish Treaty; Still South Parliament Divided

DUBLIN, Jan. 3.—The members of the Dail Eireann, the Southern Irish parliament, reassembled this morning after an adjournment of twelve days. The discussion of the Anglo-Irish treaty has been resumed, and it is believed that a vote will be called by Thursday.

Since the announcement that the treaty had been signed, 101 public bodies have passed resolutions favoring it and yesterday five more county councils added their voices to the chorus of approval for ratification. The unanimity of the farmers in their demand for the acceptance of the treaty is a notable feature.

The groups in Dail Eireann today, however, seem to be as wide apart as they were when adjournment was declared for the Christmas holidays. It is declared here that the situation is largely dominated by partisan spirit.

Fred Stork will Urge Replacement of Yukon System with Wireless

In an interview today with The Daily News, Fred Stork, member-elect for Skeena, in regard to improved telegraphic service, stated that he was at work on a comprehensive scheme of improvement whereby he hoped to solve the problem of communication with the northern points and the Yukon. Mr. Stork stated that the existing Yukon telegraph line is in such a condition that its complete rebuilding is necessary, and traversing such an immense distance through a wilderness, would entail the expenditure of a very large sum of money. The upkeep of the present line is also out of all proportions with the revenue derived from it.

As the Government of Canada now owns the telegraph lines of the Canadian National Railway, Mr. Stork will press the Government for the increasing of the Digby Island wireless station and the establishing of wireless stations at Stewart, Whitehorse, Dawson, Atlin, Alice Arm and necessary points now served by the overland wire. This would not cost anything like the amount involved to put the old line in order and would ensure a service that would be in operation at all times and would not be affected by storms and stress of weather. The present line was built twenty-five years ago and is still inadequate for the requirements. A permanent improvement is being sought for in the new arrangement.

Annual Reports Very Satisfactory.

In Saturday's Daily News were published several compilations of figures summarizing various activities and happenings in the city for the year 1921. Today more are being published. All give satisfactory and gratifying statistics as to the present progress and condition of Prince Rupert. The report of a bumper year in the landing of halibut, which is such an important industry to the city, surprised many readers who did not realize the great size of this business. The figures conclusively place Prince Rupert as the leading halibut fishing port in the world. Figures on building here showed a healthy increase in this line and included several important structures, such as the court house, the station and the ocean dock. Vital statistics of births and deaths were highly pleasing, with the number of the former exactly double that of the latter. The report of the fire department should be impressive on those who are interested in the fire insurance business. The paucity of serious fires and the efficiency of the fire department were facts that were simultaneously shown in this one report.

Killing the Goose That Lays Golden Eggs.

In connection with the annual figures for the halibut fishing industry a note of warning might here be sounded. These figures looked very good from a business point of view, but there is a factor that may be lost sight of. Towards the last of the year there was an exceptionally large quantity of halibut marketed at this port. Some of that fish which came, especially in the month of November, should not have been caught. Possibly none of it should have been taken. Any one who has the best interests of the halibut fishing business at heart must feel this way about it. In November the halibut are filled with spawn, and that month in 1921 was the biggest halibut fishing month of the year and in the history of this port. Millions of future fish were sacrificed in the catch that made one single record month here. The making of close season on halibut fishing would prevent the taking of these fish at this time. It is to be hoped that the time is not far off when this very necessary action will be taken. While it might reduce the taking of fish now it would ensure the perpetuation of the industry. The catching of halibut thus without a close season seems something like "killing the goose that lays the golden eggs."

Deposit in the Bank of Youth.

The holidays are over and students are today resuming their studies after a fortnight during which all healthy and ambitious young people had an opportunity of unbending which they accepted with zest. Such is youth. Unhappy the man who can not enter into the spirit of youth. There is where a sense of humor shows up as a valuable social asset. Youth is not something to be discouraged or suppressed but is a phase of man's larger life which should be conserved and directed into larger spheres of usefulness. A saying from Russian sources compares youth to a savings bank. That is a good suggestion. The more in the bank, the more on which to draw in later years. The idea of mere selfish hoarding should not be considered for a single moment. That would make life a hog and not a bank. Youth is the time to store up health, vigor and skill—all that is implied in a good liberal education. It is the time to form steady habits of discipline. A great psychologist said that few men get original ideas after the age of 29. Brain cells become fairly set at 25. Hence the period of youth is the period in which to form correct habits and lay the basis for original thinking. The youth who is wasting time, who is "fooling away" his best chances for self-improvement and increased efficiency, will be more or less of a failure when he enters the real arena of life's activities.

INSPECTION OF THE HOME

Now Is the Time to Think of Making Repairs and Cleaning Up.

Now that the festive season is over and the bad weather is on it is a good opportunity for the housewife to make a tour of inspection of the home from top to bottom. Household belongings are liable to deteriorate and necessary repairs are apt to be overlooked. Inclement days can well be utilized with advantage for the general overhaul of the home. It is a good idea to take a pencil and paper and make an inspection of the house room by room, examining the contents of each room in turn, and making a note of the things which it is thought will require attention.

In every home there is usually one particular room or spot which is usually termed the "rubbish pit," and where all sorts of odds and ends such as old clothes, hats and books accumulate. The idea that such hoardings may be useful some day but usually that day never arrives. This habit should be firmly discouraged. The old clothes, books and magazines could profitably be disposed of by passing them to the needy.

Stitches in Time.

Every room in the house should be carefully examined, noting torn spots on the wall, holes in the floor covering that may need repair, cracked crockery that needs replacing, faulty blind rollers, etc. Anything that needs repair should be attended to as soon as possible, remembering the old adage "a stitch in time saves nine."

After the inspection of the rooms, a thorough examination should be made of the bed and table linen. Thin sheets should be noted and really worn-out ones put aside for dust sheets. Tablecloths that are thin in some places but good in others can be cut down for smaller cloths, and worn bath towels can be given a new lease of life by sewing two together. Also blankets and bed coverings should be looked over, to note the worn spots with a view to making repairs.

Taps and plugs need attention, in fact the whole plumbing work might be looked over at one time, and the plumber might be sent for to put things in shape. The carpenter's list will include faulty window frames, doors, floors, and disabled furniture, also suggested additions of shelves, cupboards, etc., which will increase efficiency.

Kitchen Department.

Such things as handless cups, chipped plates and leaking utensils need either clearing out altogether or being put in some specific and useful purpose for unless they have some real secondary utility they are only taking up valuable room.

The coal range, and heater should be looked over to see if there is any minor defect which could be easily fixed.

The outside of the house also requires a careful overhaul occasionally. Perhaps the roof needs a little attention. Of course this part of the inspection duty would fall to the man of the house. Also locks and door hinges often require a little looking after, and a drop of oil does wonders sometimes to improve the efficiency of these much used parts.

Also the door bells might be fixed to see that they ring properly if the push button is pushed. Above all it should not be forgotten that it is a duty to have the home insured against fire.

Coughs

Coughs are Nature's danger signal—Nature's way of telling you that in throat or breathing tubes there is something wrong—something needing attention. Perhaps the delicate membranes have been chilled and are inflamed and sore. Disease germs may have lodged there and may be setting up irritation, which if not checked will bring on acute bronchitis, asthma, or even worse evils! So never ignore a cough.

Peps kill coughs because they remove the causes. As soon as a Pep is dissolved in the mouth, powerful, but pleasant, medicinal vapors are liberated. These healing fumes bathe the lining membranes of the throat and breathing tubes, kill disease germs, alay irritation and soothe the inflamed parts.

Peps enable you to end coughs and colds in Nature's way, by breathing in the medicine the same way as the disease germs causing the trouble were breathed in! Isn't this wiser treatment than the swallowing of mixtures into your stomach—which is not ailing?

For coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, sore throat, night cough and all troubles of throat and chest, try Peps. Best for children because pleasant to take and free from opiates, etc. All dealers, 50c. a box.

HOW LLOYD'S ORIGINATED

History of Famous British Insurance Corporation.

LONDON, Jan. 3.—(By Canadian Press)—Lloyd's is a name known throughout the civilized world, yet probably few people know anything of the origin of the parent business organization carried on under it. Lloyd's Register and Shipping had its birth in a London coffee house in 1720, but the man who gave the name of his name to it, Edward Lloyd, had been dead eight years when the first insurance company was launched. It seemed the natural thing that the scheme of insurance should have been born in Edward Lloyd's place of entertainment, though he himself had not lived to see it. His coffee house was patronized chiefly by shipping men, and when Lloyd's List was founded the name of the departed coffee house man was regarded as worth using in this connection.

Lloyd's News, the forerunner of Lloyd's List, was launched in Edward Lloyd's lifetime, and was published largely in the interests of shipping men but more particularly in the interests of the coffee house. It lasted only six months, but it was the seedling from which Lloyd's insurance sprang. Lloyd's List was not published until some years after Mr. Lloyd's death.

A Priceless Gift. Sidney Boulton, chairman of Lloyd's, addressing the Insurance Institute of London recently, said if insurance men were indebted to Edward Lloyd for nothing but his name, that was a priceless gift. It was no exaggeration to say that the name of this humble "coffee man" was more often on the lips of men than any other name in the commercial world. It must have some strange fascination about it, Mr. Boulton said, for it had been appropriated by shipping and insurance companies all over the world without any ostensible reason than that of its natural charm.

Lloyd's List, founded in 1726, is the oldest existing newspaper in the world, except the London Gazette, and has continued without a break down to the present time. Lloyd's today consists of 1,096 underwriting members, 94 non-underwriting members, 393 subscribers, 82 associates, and 1,600 substitutes. There are 1,

Maintaining
One
Standard

400 agents and sub-agents all over the world, those at the most important places being empowered to settle and pay claims. The premium income for last year was upward of £30,000,000, of which £18,000,000 was for marine and £12,000,000 for non-marine. Lloyd's is the largest insurance institution in the world.

Born in Coffee House.

One might wonder how the company system of insurance had its birth in a coffee house, but in Edward Lloyd's day insurance was effected through bankers, merchants and money-lenders, who carried on insurance in addition to their ordinary vocations, and the coffee house furnished a convenient place in which to deliver the policies. Previous to the institution of this popular place of refreshment insurance policies were taken around by the merchants' or the shipowners' clerks or by brokers appointed for the purpose, to the offices of the bankers, merchants and money-lenders, scattered throughout the city. This tedious method lasted about 100 years.

Then coffee houses came into vogue. Some of them were chosen resorts of poets, politicians and actors, while others were frequented by commercial men, and these latter gradually came to be subdivided, certain of them being identified with special classes of business. Lloyd was one of the pioneers in the coffee house—the precursor of company insurance—and doubtless he lent the strength of his personality to the evolution of the latter, then slowly taking shape. That he died before the first insurance company was formed yet left behind a name to conjure with the new business, is a striking testimony to his ability and strength of character.

Edward Lloyd not only left his impress on the London of his time, but he left a name to be handed down through the centuries, gathering strength with the years.

McMordie, who is offering himself for election as chief magistrate in opposition to Mayor Rochester. Col. McMordie will give reasons why he thinks a change is necessary. Mayor Rochester will likely come out soon after with reasons for his re-election and defence of his work as mayor during the year.

FARMER EDWARD CRANE, of Kinburn, Ont., writes: "I was driving three horses on a disc-harrow when the harness broke, and while fixing one of the horses kicked me against the sharp edges of the harrow. I sustained a nasty cut on my elbow and wrist, and as I could not leave work to get the wounds dressed, dirt got into them and my arm became very painful. It looked for some time as if I were going to have some very bad sores, but I was advised to try Zam-Buk. I did, and in a few days my arm was much better—less painful, and the stiffness less troublesome. I continued using Zam-Buk freely and in a short time the wounds were entirely healed. I believe Zam-Buk to be the best ointment obtainable. It should always be at hand ready for emergencies."

Mother's and fathers should bear this in mind. In the home, on the playground, at school, or in the workshop accidents will happen, and Zam-Buk is the best "first aid." It is strongly antiseptic—kills the germs which cause inflammation, festering and blood-poison. The rich herbal essences of which Zam-Buk is composed, soothe pain and quickly heal any injury. Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for eczema, ulcers, abscesses, piles, blood-poisoning and all skin diseases. 50c. box, all drugists and stores or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. The first half of the schedule in the Trail Club shield billiard series will come to an end this week with the completion of the tournaments between the Great War Veterans and the St. Andrew's scheduled for last night, and the Trail and Wanderers, set down for tomorrow. The latter tournament should prove one of the most interesting of the series for in it the two leading teams of the season come together and they are keen on winning. Odds are pretty safe on the Trail, however, to end up in first position on the conclusion of the first half for the Wanderers have a tremendous lead to overcome and one that can hardly be broken down in a single tournament. However, there should be some good games just the same and every little bit in either direction helps the team which gains it.

Crib and billiard tournaments are now in progress at the Elks' Home and the draws for the first round have already been made. The cribbage draws were as follows: F. Gilbuly v. J. Cobb; Geo. Frizzell v. Day Bell; C. Welch v. W. W. Knight; P. Solem v. G. Waddell; E. A. Donohoe v. G. Anderson; U. U. LaCasse v. Jacobsen; R. Arthur, Sr. v. E. Green; L. Astoria v. F. Henning; J. Wick v. W. E. Williscroft; J. N. Sinclair v. S. K. Shane; W. E. Thompson v. W. J. Cash; R. Lepine v. B. Morgan; G. McElroy v. W. F. Roherge; B. McEvoy v. Havens; G. H. Elkins v. W. Blythe; H. Fraser v. D. Milne.

Billiards—First round — R. Greenfield v. W. E. Williscroft; L. Astoria v. D. J. Cook; Jack Keefe v. C. H. Elkins; M. M. MacLachlan v. G. Balagno; E. Green v. H. Atkins; J. Bulger v. Geo. Frizzell; B. Morgan v. J. J. Judge; Ben Self v. R. Arthur; W. G. Blythe v. J. Day Bell; W. E. Thompson v. J. F. Maguire; H. Fraser v. W. F. Browne; H. H. Long v. K. A. Rood; W. Balagno v. W. F. Roherge; B. McEvoy v. J. Cobb.

The annual New Year's dance of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, under the auspices of Queen Mary Chapter, was held last night in the St. Andrew's Hall and proved to be one of the most successful dances yet held by this order.

Some 250 persons were present quite a number of the old time members of the Queen Mary Chapter turning out. The floor presented a very gay and animated appearance.

Refreshments were served at midnight, four sittings being necessary to accommodate the whole assembly.

The Westholme orchestra furnished the music.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. J. H. McMullin, Mrs. R. Blance, Mrs. G. A. Woodland, Mrs. S. P. McDermie, Mrs. Pattinson, Mrs. Robert Parsons and Mrs. H. T. Willett.

Messrs. Woodland, Blance and Pattinson were on the door.

Colonel S. P. McDermie acted as master of ceremonies.

Dancing was indulged in until 2:30 a.m., when the singing of the National anthem brought a very enjoyable and successful evening to a close.

Last Night in St. Andrew's Hall.

The annual New Year's dance of the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, under the auspices of Queen Mary Chapter, was held last night in the St. Andrew's Hall and proved to be one of the most successful dances yet held by this order.

Some 250 persons were present quite a number of the old time members of the Queen Mary Chapter turning out. The floor presented a very gay and animated appearance.

Refreshments were served at midnight, four sittings being necessary to accommodate the whole assembly.

The Westholme orchestra furnished the music.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. J. H. McMullin, Mrs. R. Blance, Mrs. G. A. Woodland, Mrs. S. P. McDermie, Mrs. Pattinson, Mrs. Robert Parsons and Mrs. H. T. Willett.

Messrs. Woodland, Blance and Pattinson were on the door.

Colonel S. P. McDermie acted as master of ceremonies.

Dancing was indulged in until 2:30 a.m., when the singing of the National anthem brought a very enjoyable and successful evening to a close.

PEOPLE NOW LIVE LONGER

Modern Living Conditions Add to Vitality and Height.

That the human span has been lengthened in America by "probably five years" during the brief period since 1909 does not at first sight seem credible, but the statement has the high authority of a committee of the American Engineering council, appointed by Secretary Hoover, and is in line with other recent developments, says the New York Times. The deceases in infant mortality is the leading factor, for many or most of the children who are saved have lives of the normal length. Another factor of importance is the reduction of preventable sickness by means of sanitation and medical care. Twelve years ago Professor Irving Fisher found that at any given time the number of the seriously ill averaged 3,000,000, 32 per cent. of the cases being preventable. Secretary Hoover's committee finds that the number has already been reduced to 2,000,000.

Vitality Increasing.

The committee also concludes that "the national vitality is increasing." Here again it is supported by much contemporary evidence. Universities that have kept physical records over a considerable period, as Vassar, Harvard and Yale, have arrived at the same conclusion. It is not merely that athletic performances are constantly bettered; that might be accounted for by the rapid enlargement in the field of competition. Anthropometric charts show that the average height, weight and strength of the incoming freshmen are steadily increasing. This gain is doubtless due to a rising standard of living, to a widely disseminated knowledge of cooking, diet and sanitation, to the modern addiction to fresh air and exercise. There is indeed some warrant for the child who, after carefully surveying its parents, remarked that God was improving His handiwork!

No Physical Advance.

Rather surprising, therefore, is the committee's statement that "there is no reason to believe

Headaches Gone

Perhaps you can imagine what this means to one who had suffered terribly with headaches for ten years.

Read about it in this latter.

Mrs. Tena A. Smith, Country Harbor Cross Roads, N. S. writes:

I feel that if anyone can recommend Dr. Chase's medicines I certainly can. I suffered for ten years from severe headaches, and although I took all kinds of headache powders they just relieved me at the time. I became very nervous and run-down, and everything seemed to trouble me. I have taken eighteen boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and it has made an entirely new person of me. I felt that I could not have lived without it. I do not have one headache now for every hundred I used to have, and my nerves are good and strong. I just weighed 109 pounds when I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and now I weigh 121. Knowing what this treatment has done for me, I cannot too highly recommend it to others."

that the race is physically advancing. Here we come up against a dogma of the biologists. In "The Direction of Human Evolution," Professor Edwin Conklin, of Princeton, says: "For at least 100 centuries there has been no notable progress in the evolution of the human body." Skeletons found in the caves of Cro-Magon indicate that in the old stone age, some 25,000 years ago, at least one race had a stature and brain capacity equal to that of the leading races of today, and the art products found with the skeletons are of such excellence that anthropologists call the Cro-Magnards "paleolithic Greeks." Evolution, it is now believed, takes place not by a slow and steady process, but by sudden "mutations," and such changes are limited to a brief period in the life of a race. The human type is apparently fixed; even if the eugenics could have their way there is little likelihood that they would produce a new and higher type of man.

It is still possible, however, to raise the masses of men toward the highest types of the present and to safeguard one and all from many of the natural shocks that flesh is heir to. The true direction of evolutionary forces according to Professor Conklin, is not so much in the human organism as in its environment—the institutions and the ethics of civilized life..

A letter to the editor dealing with the municipal election has been received at the Daily News office. The letter is duly signed but the name is a strange one and appears in no directories or voters lists that are available in the office. It might again be pointed out that no letters are received in the News office for publication unless the signature and identity of the writer are clear. It is not necessary, however, for the name to appear in print. All that is necessary is that the correct name of the writer be in the hands of the editor and that the matter conforms to the rules of the paper.

STARTS TODAY

AND CONTINUES TILL SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1922

To our customers and citizens of Rupert this extraordnary sale is announced. This sale is undoubtedly an "anti-mail order house" sale and will stimulate the idea of buying at home.

Because this is the first and last sale that will take place this coming year. No such bargains have been offered before and there never will. We are offering this opportunity now because our stock is a little more than we should care to have and are willing to sacrifice it rather than to carry it through.

Therefore everything must go at greatly reduced prices.
