MOSCOW, Aug. 26.—Russia has reduced her fighting forces to 800,000 men and is ready to enter any disarmament conference which gives guarantees of success. It is doubtful, Trotsky said, if Russia would remain passive should France invade the Ruhr region and enlist Poland in a renewal of the conflict with Germany. Trotsky also told the newspapers that 1500 intellectuals, charged with counter revolutionary activity or who have been unable to reconcile themselves to the Soviet regime, have been ordered expelled. These include lawyers and college professors.

Labor Congress Refused to Endorse Proposal of Loan to Soviet Russia Yesterday

MONTREAL, Aug. 26.—At the concluding session of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada held here a number of resolutions were considered and some of them passed.

The Congress refused to back an appeal to the Dominion Government asking for a loan of $15,000,000 to Russia. Tom Moore, after he was re-elected president, said he had fought the loan idea. When unemployment and destitution was all relieved in Canada and when the Soviet government took the soldiers away from the workers' throats would be time enough to send money to Russia, he said.

Congress pledged itself to aid the striking railway shopmen in the United States. A resolution favoring Soviet government for Canada met with blank indifference and was not even put to the vote.

Under the supervision of Miss Hearst and Miss Henry a number of old and new games were enjoyed. "Miss your supper," "Dodge Ball," and "Do this and do that" proved popular. Another play hour is planned for this afternoon at which time a children's Chautauqua ticket will be hidden and given to the boy or girl who is lucky enough to find it.

Seeing Humanity In The Raw.

Newspapermen have a great opportunity of seeing humanity in the raw we are constantly reminded, and it sets us thinking, something of which most of us are not often guilty. We have not time.

What is meant by humanity in the raw? We presume it means uncultured, without being covered with any of the veneer of civilization. And it is more than that. Someone says it's a few degrees worse than "half boiled." The newspaperman sees a good many of the sores, the ugly things of life. Sometimes he becomes a sceptic and declares that there is no good in the world and then he comes across some example of wonderful heroism or of splendid self sacrifice that does his heart good, sweeps away the cobwebs of unbelief in the destiny of the race and again he becomes an optimist.

Not All Bad In Those Without The Pale.

Many of those whom we consider without the pale are in some respects better people than those who take refuge within the churches or who parade in silk hats. The study of the men who live on the edge of civilization is a most engrossing theme. Many of them are wonderful characters. A lady once said of a man: "He is a splendid sinner." Most of us in this country, judged by the standard of the East, are sinners but of the few only can it said, "he is a splendid sinner."

There are many in this country whose business it is to prey on those who are less skilled or less wise to the world than he. They are parasites on society and yet many of them are so likeable and have such fine phases to their characters that we are bound to admire them.

Will The Best Bear Analysis.

When you come to analyze the methods and motives of the various people around you it is curious how they stack up. Try to pick out the best man in the community and who do you get? Try to pick the man that is leading the best all round life and where do you find yourself looking for him? Sometimes it is well to get the analytical humor for a few minutes and try to size people up. Where do you find the best of them? Where are the most useful? Who are the men who are doing most for the community?

Do Not Be Led Away By Advertising Methods.

There are many people who play to the galleries all the time. They understand the art of self advertising and as a result the community knows their good points. Happily also the community is often able to size them up and see their hidden failings. The most persistent self advertiser is often the least esteemed person in the community.

On the other hand there are many who go about their work quietly. They shun the bright glare of publicity and yet they do unobtrusive work for the community that is seldom seen. Such men are of great value. They are found everywhere but those who look on the surface of things hardly know they exist.

Men and women live communal lives. It is the natural thing to do and yet each life is an entity that is different from all others. To first make sure that the entity we represent is all right and then to aid in forming a communal spirit and in moulding the communal movements so that they may serve the purpose of the whole community best is the work for every man and woman.

This little Saturday sermon is for the people who do not go to church. We need it.

Husband and Wife Nearly Dead with CHOLERA

The chief symptoms of cholera are vomiting and purgings occur either simultaneously or alternately, and are usually sudden and very violent, and the matter ejected from the stomach has a bilious appearance and a nasty bitter taste.

On the first symptoms appearing, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be taken, and the trouble checked before it becomes serious. Mrs. Isaac Smith, Campbellton, N.B., writes: "We have been using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for cholera. My husband and I were pretty nearly dead with it until we started to use your medicine, and thanks to it, we have found great relief, and are recommending it to all our friends."

77 years' reputation stands behind "Dr. Fowler's" therefore you are not experimenting with some new and untried remedy when you get it. Price, 50c, bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

BABIES IN CANNERIES DISCUSSED BY A JAP

Vancouver World Funny Man Writes Nipponese Letter Regarding Matter.

P. W. Luce, under the heading of "Fizz Uncorked" mentions the incident in which Chairman Duff of the Fisheries Commission objects to Japanese babies in canneries. He says:

William Duff, M. P., chairman of the Fisheries Commission, thinks there is something decidedly fishy in the way the northern canneries are run.

The fact that Japanese women work with babies strapped on their backs is causing Mr. Duff to lose a lot of twilight sleep.

Naturally enough, the one person in British Columbia who can thoroughly analyze the situation is Hashimura Togo, as the following letter shows:

"Hon. Idioter, "Fizz Column, "Kindest of Friends, (in re Wm. (M.P.) Duff, vs. Japanese Babies.)

"Kipling has most truthfully said that 'East is East and West is West, and never the twain shall be unravelled.'"

"Having successively demonstrated the above, with care, I inquire for to know whether this Mistr Duff is the original sinful paternal parent of Little Danny Duff, who lives in Comic Stripp, page 12, The World Limited, every day? And if not, how comes?"

"Apparently Mr. Duff came Coastwise with a wrong idea and is still hatching it. It is no use. You cannot discount chickens out of added eggs!"

"I am recalling a meeting of Imported Native Sons of British Columbia, with a clear view to trespassing a staunch resolution calling the attention of Mr. Duff to the vitality statistics of this province, which proclaim:

"Every Japanese female woman has an average of nine (IX) children, 1/2 of them boys and the rest of the remainder little girls."

"The average Japanese home is so cluttered with children that there is less than no room at all at home for the baby, or twins, according to luck. Obviously, beneath the circumstances, the child must go to the cannery on its mamma's pick-a-back."

"The babies are most unmov-ably tied on with true lovers' knots, and they cannot squirm, slip or skid!

"I will stake my reputation, such as it is, that there never has been a child lost in a B. C. northern cannery. And even if so, what is one in an average of nine (IX) to the small 'family'?

There is no suitable answer, thank you!

"Perhaps Mr. Duff trembles that perhaps a very small Nipponese might perhaps be mistaken for a very large sneakeye salmon and canned accordingly. But, as Hon. Mr. U. Klidd said 2 thousand years ago, 'which is absurd!' I think so too."

"A mistake is utterly impossible, except by mistake, of course. A sneakeye salmon is read and sealy; a Japanese baby is brown and squally. Even a color-blind Sawash could tell the difference."

"Strictly between ourselves and everybody else, I think Mr. Duff has lost his head in deep waters."

"Hoping you are the same, "HASHIMURA TOGO."

ENGLISHMEN GO TO THE FINALS GILHULY SERIES

Eliminated Grotto in Last Night's Game by a Score of 3 to Nil

Under glorious sunshine and before a good crowd of soccer fans the Grotto were vanquished by the Sons of England by a score of 3 goals to nil at the Aeropolis Hill grounds last night in the semi-final of the Gilhuly Cup.

The teams lined up as follows: Grotto — Mercer, goal; Willis, Croft and Barrie, backs; J. Currie, A. Roy and Pat McGowan, half-backs; Sid Butters, Kirby, Geo. Waugh, Jack Campbell and Geo. Hill, forwards.

Sons of England — Stockdale, goal; Hemmonds and Lamb, backs; Mansell, H. Shaw and E. Craggs, half-backs; J. Farquhar, Dick Hodgson, Percy Tinker, Davie Wiggins and Hamilton forwards.

A. Holmberg handled the game efficiently as referee.

First Half

The Sons took the field on the up grade in the first half with a brilliant sun in their eyes. From the kick-off the Sons pressed but the defence of the Wasps kept them at bay. The Grotto forwards got away but a goal kick resulted. Midfield play ensued with honors pretty even. A good opening occurred for the Grotto right in front of Stockdale but the forwards did not take advantage of it. Farquhar, for the Sons, from a pass by Hodgson, put in a shot at Mercer but it went wide. The Sons continued to press and Mercer was called upon to handle. The Sons were having the best of the play. A sun by Geo. Hill for the Wasps was pulled up by Lamb, the latter being very sure in his tackling. The sphere was put on the run and Jack Campbell for the Grotto tried Stockdale who proved safe. As the result of good combination play by the Son's forwards Davie Wiggins put a swift ground shot past Mercer. From the centre the Wasps got the ball down the field and Stockdale had an anxious time, the defence of the Sons eventually clearing to safe quarters. Two corners conceded to the Grotto were not made use of. A foul against Roy near the Grotto goal gave Wiggins the ball in an advantageous position and he made good use of it. With a good shot he put the ball right under the cross bar which catching the cross piece bounced behind Mercer. From the centre the Wasps had quite a little of the play and Stockdale was called upon to save from Kirby. Shaw, for the Sons, was playing a real good game and constantly upset the tactics of the Grotto forward line. A dash by the Englishmen resulted in a free. A foul against Willis for the Grotto in front of the penalty line, taken by Mansell for the Sons, was kicked wide. Geo. Hill for the Wasps made a fine dash but his well intentioned endeavor against Stockdale resulted in a goal kick. The Grotto boys did not seem to be on their usual form and were constantly kicking the ball to their opponents. The Sons pressed and Shaw made an excellent try at Mercer who cleared. A corner in favor of the Sons taken by Farquhar resulted in a goal kick. A useful dash by Tinker of the Sons was pulled up short by Barrie. On receiving the ball immediately afterwards Tinker made a hard shot at Mercer who pulled off a brilliant save. Butters for the Wasps made several determined touchline dashes but was unable to score.

Second Half

From the kick-off the play opened up fast and furious. The Grotto boys got away and Currie tried a shot at Stockdale which was easily disposed of. With excellent combination the Son's forwards got going and Davie Wiggins again shot at Mercer the ball catching the cross-piece and bouncing inside the goal. This constituted the hat trick for Wiggins of the Sons who was playing an excellent game.

Although the Grotto tried hard to get within shooting distance of Stockdale the defence of the Sons was very sound and they could not get going. A rush by the Sons was pulled up by a foul against Hodgson. Farquhar missed an excellent opportunity in front of Mercer as the result of good combination work by the Englishmen. An offside against Tinker, for the Sons, pulled up another good effort. From a pass by Tinker, for the Sons, Farquhar made a brilliant try at Mercer which just skimmed the top of the crossbar. The play was of an animated nature and the Grotto boys tried hard but could not seem to get there, while the Englishmen were sharp on the ball and seemed to control it with marked effect.

Hodgson, for the Sons, missed a good opportunity in front of Mercer, although he played an important part in the good combination work. The Grotto forwards got going and Stockdale in goal for the Sons made a fine save from McGowan, just tipping the ball round the post.

Eddie Craggs made an independent and clever try for the Sons at Mercer but the latter was on the job and cleared nicely. It was the Son's game without doubt and they continued to press the play practically to the end, although at times the Grotto tried hard to score.

Comments on Play

In the second half it was plainly seen that the Sons were the better team and deserved the victory although in fairness to the Grotto team it must be said that they tried hard. For the Grotto, Mercer in goal played well and the shots that got past him were extremely awkward ones to handle. Willis for the Grotto did some useful work while Butters, Kirby and Hill in the forward line played a hard game.

For the Sons, Stockdale in goal played a good game, and Lamb at full-back was very clever in tackling. Mansell, Shaw and Craggs in the half-back line gave excellent support to the forwards, while Wiggins in the forward line was perhaps the outstanding figure on his side, although Farquhar, Hodgson and Tinker gave good accounts of themselves.

The Sons of England and the Callies will play the final game for the Gilhuly Cup on Labor Day.

A. Clapperton and W. Martin acted as linesmen.

OLSEN SAYS HE WILL WIN MATCH

Pacific Coast Light Heavyweight Confident of Success Over Gustavo in Next Week's Event.

While he recognizes that Ad. Gustavo, the Argentine middleweight champion, has a good record behind him, and is likely to put up a stiff battle, Jack Olson, the Pacific Coast light heavyweight champion, expresses his confidence that he will win handsily over his opponent in next Wednesday night's match. Olson is now in full training which includes about 10 miles of running daily as well as his workouts at the Empress Theatre.

Olson has been in the wrestling game for the past seventeen years and has taken part in about 500 matches. One of his notable successes was a victory of Demetrios, the Greek light heavyweight champion.

In his earlier days in the Middle West, Olson worked and trained with such men as George Hackenschmidt, Frank Gotch and Yusef Mahmoud, the Turk. Of recent years he has been official trainer of Ad. Santel, the undisputed light heavyweight champion of the world. Last year Olsen made a trip to Japan with Santel and between them they took part in thirty jiu jitsu matches winning every one of them from leading Japanese wrestlers. Santel and Olsen were to have gone to Japan again this year but the trip was prevented on account of Santel's blindness. The latter has fallen victim to a malady common among wrestlers and is now in San Francisco, doctors having told him that he never again will be able to wrestle. This blindness was coming on Santel before he and Olsen left Japan last summer.

Sport Chat

There would be no need for worry over the future of the English thoroughbred if each season of flat racing developed as many high class two-year-old colts and fillies as have been produced this year. Such an unusually large number of really good juveniles have made their appearance that, although the season is now well over the half-way mark, there is by no means any unanimity as to which one of a half dozen colts and fillies should rank as the best of their year.

Training conditions this year have been much better than those prevailing twelve months ago when the prolonged spell of dry weather made the ground so hard that many owners and trainers of promising youngsters refused to take the risk of injuring their charges. This year rains have been quite frequent and in consequence the ground generally has been soft. Trainers therefore have had ample opportunity to give the colts and fillies good work-outs, and as a result two-year-old form has been much more consistent than a year ago.

Turf history has repeated itself once more. These colts and fillies made their appearance early in the season have had to make way for the more valuable animals that made their debut in the Newmarket First and Second Spring, Epsom, Ascot and Goodwood. The winner of the first important two-year-old race of the season—the Brockesby Stakes at Lincoln during opening week—has met with little success since then, but the First Spring Two-Year Old Stakes at Newmarket at the end of April was won by a colt that has since proved himself to be one of the best of the year, and at the conclusion of Goodwood last month had never been beaten. This colt, Sir James Robinson's Duncan Gray, by Pomernon out of Sibyl Gray, a month later, won the Woodcote plate at Epsom, beating on this occasion W. H. Dixon's Wild Hag—Honey Bee colt The Wasp, the winner of the Newmarket Two-Year-Old Stakes.

Compared with last year, flat racing in England this year has been conducted under most favorable weather conditions and the various meetings have been uniformly successful. Waterfront Whiffs

Doings of the Mosquito Fleet Which is the Chief Source of Prince Rupert's Prosperity

The waterfront is humming, and the Admiral's in high glee, for the sales have taken quite a jump, and the price too don't you see. The boys are therefore happy and everything's O.K. so if you need a little pep, just stroll along that way. The weather clerk is cheery, and the halibut take the hook; what more could mortal man desire to fill his lively book. No need to be downhearted and always wear a frown, and talk about the rotten biz that seems the lot uptown. If you should want to make the grade and save a little dough, just learn to fish and buy a boat and to the high spots go. If you've the brawn and muscle and an eye to do things right, and ain't afraid to face the gaff of a blustry windy night, you'll reap the harvest of seas amid the worth while men, then for duns and bill collectors you'll never give D— You can have your city life, old sport, with all its care and woe but give me a sturdy fishing craft and I'll hike where salt winds blow. So take another mug-up Bill then give the wheel a turn, for the sweet sea breeze and sucking tide my old heart seems to yearn.

The secretary to the Admiral has much pleasure in reporting the output of the fleet this week over twice the amount of that last week. Some 490,000 lbs. of the best halibut in the world has been marketed this week, the highest price being 10.70c and 6 1/2c and the lowest, 8.5c and 6c. This catch has constituted 18 carloads for the Canadian National to handle to eastern points. Taking the prices generally during the week they have been steady and on Friday last the price soared to the 14c mark for the first class and 8c for second class.

Jim Lee, manager of the Allin Fisheries, who has been on a holiday in Kelchikan, returned to port on Saturday last. The advent of rain, it is understood, hastened Jim's return as he was seared in case the potatoes in his colossal garden should take upon themselves to climb through the windows.

Much satisfaction is expressed in nautical circles, especially among American fishermen at the action of the American Senate and House of Representatives in throwing out the Pointeclair amendment to put two cents duty on halibut packed at a Canadian port and shipped through Prince Rupert. The Admiral of the fleet has accordingly withdrawn the embargo on American sailors going aboard the flagship and once again harmony is restored.

Signs of the coming fall are evident around the waterfront already. A number of local trappers are preparing for winter fields of exploration in the fur line. It is anticipated in local fur circles that there will be more trapping this coming season than ever before, and some of the trappers are already out preparing their trap lines. A bunch of mink seekers are already in at the head of Gardner Canal, having gone there some weeks ago. Cabins are being built and provisions are being packed inland for some 30 miles. In this district the trap lines extend as far as 100 miles. It is reported that there are signs of all kinds of mink around McNicholl Creek. Pitt Island is reputed to be one of the best spots for marten while it is claimed Dundas Island is the place for mink. On some of the islands the mink get inbred and there appear to be different species in different localities.

The tug Azurite arrived from Anyox on Thursday morning with a seaw load of benzol for the Prince Rupert Boat House, oil interests and returned yesterday with the manager of the company and Mrs. Munro on board.

A large lobster was recently captured living eight miles inland from Dover, England. It is supposed that the shellfish, as a reprisal against the many attempts of Channel swimmers, was trying to walk across England.

The Dixie Rupert, Capt. Newcombe, was up the Skeena on Wednesday with a party of business men.

The canneries are practically at the end of their season's operation and already several of them have closed down. This has consequently brought quite an influx of Indians to the port who have given the streets an animated appearance to say nothing of the picturesque part of the proceedings. The Balmoral and Inverness canneries are still running, and are busy canning humpbacks. A number of seine boats are still bringing in this class of fish.

More things have been seen in the vicinity of the waterfront during the week and this time it isn't humming birds but bears. You'll have to ring up G. Thane and see where he gets it this time. He is absolutely certain that he saw three black bears up at Silver Creek, and the same day his optics discovered one at the back of Bacoq Island, which is situated opposite the Cold Storage plant. There was no need to shift the island to see the bear, it is understood, as it was a real hefty lump of meat on four sturdy legs. However, George refrained from taking a head on any one of the wood wanderers as he is very loth to shoot any living animal, in fact he hadn't got a rifle along this time.

The power boat Wase arrived

ed from the Georgetown mill on Wednesday with a seaw load of lumber for the Big Bay Lumber Company.

The tug Cumshewa left the Albert & McCaffery wharf on Thursday morning with a seaw load of coal for the Rupert Marine Products Ltd. at Tucks Inlet.

It takes a real engineer to fix a pump on a boat, and that is why Cap. F. Morris got busy on Thursday morning and did the fixing. Someone who needed a pump pretty badly stepped on board and tore a perfectly good workable pump from its moorings in Cap's absence, consequently a new one had to be fixed. It is regretted the name of the craft in question cannot be mentioned but unless the name is painted on the bottom of the hull there was nothing doing in this line on the bow. The boat is under the observation of the secret service and unless a name appears in good bold type pretty soon there will be something doing when probably another pump will be needed. The Admiral suggests "Keepoff" would do nicely.

The power boat P.R.T. was up the Skeena with an empty seaw on Tuesday morning for fish offal for the Rupert Marine Products. The P. R. T. is the flagship of the Ketchum fleet.

The Narbethong, Capt. Hoopes K. Freeman, was over to Porecher Island on Wednesday for a load of freight. Just what the freight was, the secret service does not know. Cap is busy just at the moment fixing up a few gadgets on the locomotive power. His chief engineer says the sprocket of the internal ferriander will not rotate with the external triangle of the womarilizzi ignition outfit and that the only thing to do is to turn up Eaton's catalogue, page 99, and order a new one. Now you know what is the matter with the engine.

One of the Indian pleasure yachts from Port Simpson got on to the rocks at low tide in Cow Bay during the week. The result was that the rising tide took a fancy to the interior of the boat. A considerable quantity of provisions and wearing apparel became submerged but not seriously damaged. The craft was towed up on the beach and the water pumped out.

The St. Eloi is undergoing repairs in Cow Bay.

The Rosespit, Cap. Hensen, made port during the week with 14,000 pounds of real halibut, and reports a good trip.

A derelict launch was seen in the harbor on Thursday morning which provided a splendid rendezvous for youthful and adventurous spirits. Several rowboats put out during the course of the morning to make a first hand inspection but evidently the craft was in such shape that it was not worth salvaging. The Azurite, of Anyox, gave it the once over, but soon returned. No one seemed to know to whom the wreck originally belonged but it is thought that it is an old Indian craft. The hull is in unrepairable shape and is of course minus engine and windows. It is understood it will be used as a target for the sub chasers of the secret service.

The Fisher, Cap. Dusty Miller, came in with 17,000 pounds of prize halibut during the week. Cap is giving his craft the once over with the paint brush while she reclines gracefully on the Akersberg-Thompson slips.

Did you hear about the theft from the Caygeon? Of course, you know that the Caygeon is skippered by Cap. Jim Morrison. It appears that on the last trip in, Cap. hit the high spots as far as getting a good price was concerned. In fact he felt so flush that he went up town and after careful selection, purchased a whole bag of oranges. These dainties were securely tucked away below

NUTS GALORE COME IN WITH THE TIDE

Victoria People Flock to Beaches and Gather Harvest But Are Disappointed.

VICTORIA, Aug. 25.—Seldom if ever in the history of this port has the sea, that conveyor of strange burdens, carried a more fantastic cargo than came rolling in from the Straits supported by a stiff southwesterly wind. Bobbing and dancing on the crest of the waves approaching the shore from Dallas Road to Oak Bay at daybreak yesterday came millions of walnuts as a gift from the sea.

Youngsters were the first to discover the strange invasion and reported the find to their parents. Parents telephoned relatives and so the word was carried, until ten o'clock in the morning saw several hundred people on the shores. They came walking and trundling wheelbarrows piled high with sacks.

Animated Juveniles.
As a sack was filled two youngsters were detailed to remove it, and long streams of animated juveniles dragging sackfuls of walnuts to their homes proceeded all day. In the evening the nut gatherers were joined by their elders in greater numbers and these scenes were re-enacted with redoubled intensity.

Passing in tally-ho's, sightseers stopped in amazement at the strange sight of countless dozens of people picking walnuts from the tangled masses of kelp on the sea shore. Tally-ho drivers, never slow to seize an opportunity, enlarged upon the occasion, it is said, to point out what the wonderful climate of Victoria would do for even the seaweed growing at its shores.

Budding financiers, ranging from ten years of age to lots of four, sat pencil in hand figuring out how rich they would be after they had detailed the host of walnuts, they had collected. Grave and respected parents doffed their boots and rolled up their nether garments to paddle in the water the better to get

SO MANY PEOPLE ARE NERVOUS

"Fruit-a-tives" the Greatest of all Nerve Remedies

This Fruit Medicine Restores Health
The increase in the number of persons suffering from Nervousness is world-wide; due, in a measure, to the reaction following the war. Sleeplessness, Headaches, Mental Depression, Rheumatism, Nervous Dyspepsia, Bad Heart Action, are the results of a disturbed condition of the Nervous System.

The nerves and the blood are so intimately, so vitally, connected that the condition of one is bound to affect the condition of the other. If the blood is laden with impurities, it is impossible to have strong, steady nerves.

The first essential in treating nervous troubles is to purify and enrich the blood. This "FRUIT-A-TIVES" will do. "FRUIT-A-TIVES" stimulates the bowels, kidneys and skin and purifies the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" improves appetite and digestion and insures food being properly digested, thus enabling the blood to carry wholesome nourishment to build up the body, particularly the nerves.

Men and women who take "Fruit-a-tives" for some form of nervousness—because they cannot eat or sleep or work or enjoy life—say that this fruit medicine is simply marvellous in its action.

at the bobbing harvest. Opportunists, not wishing to lose a moment, lit fires on the beach then and there and roasted dozens of the walnuts for immediate consumption. In short it looked like being a gala day for all concerned until a hideous doubt presented itself to the harvesters: Were the walnuts safe to eat?

Cloud on Horizon.
The first cloud on the horizon of the nut-gatherers came with the arrival of The Times which stated that a shipment of 1,000 sacks of diseased walnuts had been refused entry at the port on Thursday. Previous to this many of the walnuts had been opened, and while some were found to be beyond hope as food, others were to be seen in a fair state of preservation.

It is estimated by spectators that over 100 sacks of the defective and worm-infested cargo were salvaged before their condition was found out. With two and three sacks of walnuts in their cellars many of the nut-gatherers now face the alternative of disposing of their prize as garbage or burning it for fuel.

The only serious consideration of the incident lay in the fact that many children ate large quantities of the nuts in all good faith, and illness may yet result.

Waterfront Whiffs

To look cheap in this affair and I'm going to put a suggestion before the meeting which I demand shall be voted on and voted on right, do you get that?"

Here the Admiral banged the table, but fortunately only upset the water. He said: "First thing we know some fool will upset the doings so let's get busy and drink a health to the bride." Here the meeting was suspended while the gathering drank a health.

The Admiral was getting warmed up to the subject and continuing said "I don't know as we've got down anything very costly but I put this to the vote. That we assembled here determine that we'll buy Flossie a steel tipped rollin' pin which can be used on the bean of that mean swashbuckling idiot who went and made love to my stenog., and if I had him here I'd break his—— jaw." Here the Admiral got on his feet and wanted to demonstrate what he'd do to Sandy but on a motion being put to the meeting by the vice-admiral the assembly was disbanded for a fourth hearing, while the gunner's mate only had five minutes to make Fraser Street.

The following boats are at present in port: Lella R., Beaver Cove, Fisher, Imperieuse, Dolphin, Hecla, Banaco, Dixie, Ruperi, Nariethong, Viola, Agnes, Gifugvona, St. Eloi, Eleanor Mae, Kinmount and Ruth.

The Bartolome, Captain Selby, with 14,000 pounds made port during the week and reports a very successful trip.

Colonel C. W. Peck entertained S. W. Jacobs, K.C., M.P., the only Jewish member of the Federal Parliament, a few days ago during a visit of that gentleman to Victoria.
