of Dardanelles From Turks

LONDON, Sept. 13.—France has notified Great Britain that she is in accord with the British stand for the freedom from Turkish control of the Dardanelles and Bosphorus. France will discuss any settlement which provides for the legitimate aspirations of Turkey.

The action of Britain was taken following the victory of the Turks over the Greek troops which were driven out of Asia Minor.

Uneasy Feeling

Disquieting rumors are afloat on all sides causing uneasiness which the calmness displayed in official circles is unable to calm. It is reported that the Turks in Thrace, encouraged by the success of Mustafa Kemal Pasha's army in Anatolia, are engineering an anti-Christian movement. Encounters have taken place between Bulgarian irregulars and Greek detachments along the border near Nevrokop.

VICTORIA, Sept. 13.—Shipments of concentrates will shortly commence from Sidway Inlet Mine, which was closed down last June. Development work was done this summer when sufficient for five years' shipments was blocked out.

The Sidney Inlet mine on the west coast of Vancouver Island was first developed by the late Governor Dewdney who sank considerable money in attempting to make it a producer. It is only of recent years and with the use of a modern concentrator that the ores have been profitably worked.

KITCHENER, Ont., Sept. 13.—Prime Minister King would not discuss today the rumored appointment of Carl R. VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN IRISH GOVERNMENT

DUBLIN, Sept. 13.—The Irish Parliament yesterday adopted a vote of confidence in the government by 54 to 15. The minority vote was cast by the laborites.

INDIAN EXHIBIT IS EXCELLENT

Fine Samples of Needlework and Basketry; also Garden Produce.

The Indian exhibit at the fair this year shows a decided improvement in a great many lines. There is more general interest taken in the work than formerly. Instead of the collection being shown by one or two persons the individuals are entering their own exhibits and getting credit for the work.

Noticeable this year is an exhibit from Bella Coola sent through the instrumentality of Iver Fouzner, Indian Agent. There is some excellent fruit in the collection, the apples being especially good. There are also fruits and vegetables from individual exhibitors that are very good. This is the class of work that should be encouraged. Every year a little more attention is given to horticulture by the natives and this should be evident in the future exhibits.

The Indian needlework is also very fine. Some of it compares with anything done by any exhibitors in the fair. Some very fine specimens were sent in by the students of the Elizabeth Long Memorial Institute at Kitimat. The crocheted work in this exhibit is particularly good.

Basketry Exhibit

The Indian basketry exhibit, while not as extensive as last year is more diversified and as a general exhibit is better. The only criticism is that a few of the basket makers are using purchased colors and are imitating the cheap laundry factory made baskets. What people like to see are specimens of the real old Indian work with Indian patterns. These are of real art value and the natives should be encouraged to take pride in the fine industry of their forefathers. There are Indian traits that have been abandoned which are better left behind, but the art of basketry with the distinctive Indian patterns are something not seen anywhere else in the world. No one can well imitate it. If it becomes a lost art the world will be the loser.

A model of an old Indian chest made by a native of Metlakatla is a very interesting exhibit. The four sides are made from one board with a joint at only one corner.

Slate Work

While there is not much slate work shown this year, there is an inkstand, inkwell and pen holder made from the native slate obtained near Massett. This was carved by Capt. Andrew Brown and shows a halibut and a finback whale surmounted by an eagle. It is set in abalone shell.

On the whole the native exhibit is good.

VICTORIA, Sept. 13.—Appeals have been entered from a decision of Magistrate George Jay of this city in all recent liquor cases and accused will now have to face re-trial before a judge of the county court. The decision was reached following a conference of liquor officers yesterday.

Approval of the appeals was expressed by Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney general. "This department is not satisfied with Magistrate Jay's decisions and it certainly disapproves of witnesses being submitted to the abuse in the witness box that they were submitted to in the magistrate's court," Mr. Manson said.

SCHOOLS MAKE FINE DISPLAY AT FALL FAIR

Work of Local Pupils Is Excellent and Appreciated by Visitors.

Visitors to the Fair are loud in praise of the Prince Rupert schools exhibit which has caused an unexpected amount of interest. It is conceded by many that this exhibit is the best of its kind ever seen in the city and is not to be excelled by the cities of the south. Included in this exhibit are eighty panels from every class in the public schools, and nearly two thousand drawings and samples of writing, the quality of which is remarkably good. The method of display is new this year and does better justice to the exhibit than formerly was the case. All the work is mounted by classes, some on prize panels while others are merely mounted for display. Each prize panel is divided into sections devoted to the various phases of the art taught in the schools and these sections were judged by J. Pinder-Moss, organizer of the Northern Polytechnic Institute.

The first prize for each drawing is 50 cents and the second prize 25 cents. The opportunities to gain various prizes are unlimited. For instance for the work of the entrance class there are twelve different sections and the children can compete in each section so that there is a possibility of one child being able to gain twelve prizes in that class. Other panels are merely put up for display purposes and to exhibit the work of children who do not compete for prizes. (Continued on Page Three)

U.S. TARIFF OF LITTLE EFFECT

Emergency Tariff Had Already Killed Much Business.

OTTAWA, Sept. 13.—The effect of the United States tariff published yesterday said Dr. J. H. Grisdale, deputy minister of agriculture, will not become apparent for some time. It will not have a much greater effect than the Emergency Tariff Bill of last year. The Emergency bill made exportation of many Canadian products to the United States practically prohibitive. The new measure can hardly do more for the reason that Canadian producers and exporters are more or less accustomed to these conditions.

FAIR JOTTINGS

Brenson Hunt won the boy's pie eating contest at the Exhibition Hall last night and was awarded the prize, a big juicy watermelon. There were about 25 entries and some lads had to be turned down because there were not enough pies.

The rock drilling contest was supposed to have been pulled off yesterday but the teams did not present themselves at the appointed time so it was postponed.

E. F. Michaud, owner of the Crystal Brook fruit ranch, and J. A. and A. Michaud, owners of the Croseant Hill fruit ranch of Terrace arrived in the city on Monday night to give the exhibits at the fair the once over from a horticultural viewpoint. E. F. states that in spite of the extremely dry weather experienced throughout the Terrace district this summer the crops of garden truck have been, on the whole, very good, and that if he had not been away from the ranch so long on a prospecting trip he would have put some exhibits in the show which would have made the people of the north sit up and take notice. However, perhaps next year E. F. will stay at home a little longer and produce some garden wonders.

The ladies of Prince Rupert bake the best bread in British Columbia, and Mrs. Kipp, of Revelstoke who judged the bread at the Fair, says so; in fact it is the best bread this lady judge has ever judged in all her experience of judging.

A deal of interest has been created at the exhibition by the display at the McRae Bros. Ltd., stall of a large panoramic photograph of Prince Rupert and District. This picture measures 5 feet long by 13 inches high and is an enlargement from smaller photographs taken in sections with an ordinary Kodak camera from Mount Morse, situated across the harbor, at an elevation of some 5000 feet. The city, dry dock, salmon shed and cold storage plant are plainly shown, and arrows in white ink indicate the various points in Rupert district such as Porcher Island, Kinnihan Islands, Shawatlans Lake, Metlakatla, Salt Lakes, the wireless station on Digby Island, Woodworth Lake and other places. This panorama is a very clever piece of photography and viewed at a little distance the perspective gives it the appearance of an aeroplane photograph.

Stephen Akzon of the Greenville Band, which is performing all the week at the Fair, says that his lil' ole town is still having quite an uphill struggle from the effects of the fire which devastated that region recently. However the worst stage has been passed through and Mr. Akzon is very optimistic as to the future of his home town. He says that practically the whole of Greenville has turned out for the Exhibition this season and everyone is bent on having a real good time.

INDIAN RIGHTS ARE DISCUSSED

Rev. Peter Kelly Visits His Native Home on Queen Charlottes.

MASSETT, Sept. 13. — Rev. Peter Kelly, chairman of the Allied Tribes of British Columbia, paid a visit to Skidegate and Massett, to interview the Haida Indians with regard to the question of apportioning Indian reserves on the Queen Charlotte Islands. Meetings which were held on the two main reserves were well attended. The question of "Indian Rights" was thoroughly discussed with the councils and the bands and the members of the tribe, who were all interested in the incident in which the representative of the Indians placed before them the main issue between the government and the natives.

Addressed Meetings. The young missionary was born at Skidegate, and is one of the Haidas of the Queen Charlotte-Azeney. He graduated from Coqualeetza Industrial Institute and Columbia College, and was admitted to the Ministerial staff of the Methodist Church, and was located at Nanaimo, where he occupies the position of teacher, and is in charge of the two Methodist churches in that locality. During his stay on the islands, Rev. Peter Kelly officiated at religious services, held in both Massett and Skidegate, and addressed large meetings of the Indians on many vital questions, affecting their welfare. On account of the illness of Mr. Tait, who was selected to represent the titles of the Indians, to certain lands within the Province of B. C., Rev. Peter Kelly was appointed to continue the work, with a committee of the Allied Tribes, in order to formulate a program to settle the question of aboriginal rights.

Vancouver Conference. At a conference, held in Vancouver, recently, with Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, Deputy Superintendent General Duncan C. Scott, and W. E. Ditchburn, deputy superintendent General, and Chief Inspector of Indian Agencies in the Province, respectively, the Allied Tribes, through their President, Mr. Kelly, brought forward the claims of the Indians. The Minister of the Interior informed the Indians of the desire of the Dominion government to take up and settle all questions between the Indians and the Department, in a fair and amicable spirit, with the object of introducing legislation, at the next session of Parliament. It was also affirmed, by the Minister, of the intention of the Provincial government to introduce legislation of a similar character. At the conclusion of the conference, Rev. Peter Kelly stated "The Indians now believe the Federal Government is quite willing to be fair with the Indians and we are highly satisfied with the manner in which the Minister has dealt with us. We are satisfied with the manner in which Hon. Charles Stewart took up the question and his frank and honest attitude." The question will again be taken up in November next, at another conference between the deputy minister and chief inspector, with the executive of the Allied Tribes.

Royally Entertained. During Rev. Mr. Kelly's stay on the Queen Charlotte Islands, he was royally entertained, by a number of the leading families of the Haidas. Addresses were presented; concerts and various other means of showing appreciation and brotherhood were showered on the honored guest. Large congregations assembled in the churches and town halls, where orations were delivered worthy of the race noted for their power of speech, as well as progressive proclivities. The Indians went thoroughly into matters of importance, and placed their entire confidence in their representative.

Rev. Mr. Kelly returned to Prince Rupert, on the steamer Prince Albert, and will leave for the South in a few days.

BRYANT WASHBURN ELOPES WITH LADY

Racy Story in "The Road to London" at Westholme Tonight.

"The Road to London," Bryant Washburn's latest motion picture feature screened in and about London, entirely free from studio artifices, and with the celebrated English beauty, Joan Morgan, for the heroine.

She is the Lady Emily and he is Rex Rowland. The fat duchess has determined to marry her to the dissipated viscount, and she "loathes" him. Hence the smile she lavished on the handsome young American. Really, the Lady Emily is almost if not quite desperate.

Rex does some intelligent rubber-shoeing. One day he spies the fat duchess and the dissipated viscount alight from the crested motor car and enter a Regent Street shop, leaving the Lady Emily alone in the open vehicle. The hero and the heroine exchange bashful smiles. Now, remember, the Lady Emily is desperate. She flashes him a distress signal. "S.O.S." it reads as plainly as a typewritten wireless.

Feels Self Hero.
 Rex feels himself a hero. Richard Coeur de Lion pales into insignificance. While the crested chauffeur isn't looking, he signals the Lady Emily to jump out and join him. She does it. A handsome road car is deserted at the curb. Rex, without turning a hair, "swipes" it, bundles the Lady Emily into it and they're off with Rex at the wheel—just as the fat duchess, the dissipated viscount and the crested chauffeur observe the incredible deed and start in frenzied pursuit. But a block in the traffic delays them, and so the hero makes the most of his chance, precipitating such a series of adventures as never befell heretofore anybody in, or eligible to, the British Peerage.

This is just a small part of the plot in an interesting play.

PRESENTATION TO O. H. NELSON

Number of Prominent Citizens Gather to Bid Him Au Revoir

COMPLIMENTARY SPEECHES

George Tite presided last night over a gathering of prominent citizens in the dining room of the Prince Rupert Club to bid au revoir to O. H. Nelson, who with Mrs. Nelson and family are leaving for Victoria tomorrow night. As a token of regard Mr. Nelson was presented with a handsome travelling bag and a number of complimentary speeches were made in which the wish was generally expressed that Mr. Nelson would return to the city at a not too distant date. The presentation was made by M. P. McCaffery, and others present or represented included George Nickerson, George Casey, W. H. Montgomery, F. G. Dawson, C. H. Orme, D. Thomson, D. G. Stewart, Mayor Rochester, Col. S. P. McMorde, J. H. Pillsbury, J. Kirkpatrick, H. F. Pullen, American Consul Wakefield, George Frizzell, J. Scott Jr., Colonel J. H. McMullin, R. L. Brown, Major Gibson, Charles Mills, E. C. Gibbons, J. C. McLennan, J. F. Ritchie, A. T. Broderick, W. S. Fisher, J. F. Maguire, J. D. McLeod, D. P. Stork, Alderman Collart, Joe Howe, Jas. McNulty, W. J. McCutcheon, Dr. Tremayne, Capt. Groves, Robert Davie, and J. A. Smith.

Much Merriment

There was much merriment at the gathering, songs were sung by R. L. Brown, Dave Thomson, Major Gibson, and several others. The toast to the guest of the evening was drunk with enthusiasm and followed by the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and the gathering dispersed about midnight.

Mr. Tite explained the object of the gathering. They were met to do honor to a distinguished citizen who was leaving them. They were to bid God speed to O. H. Nelson, who was to take a good editorial position in Victoria on the Daily Colonist.

Mayor Rochester said they all felt deeply the departure of Mr. Nelson. They were glad, however, that he was going to better his condition. He was returning to the old city where he well known and he was sure he would make good. He hoped to be here at a later day to welcome the departing one back.

Served City Well

George Casey said he was there to pay his humble respects to Mr. Nelson on his departure. He believed Mr. Nelson had tried to serve Prince Rupert honestly in his public life and he would be glad to welcome him back should he decide to return at any time. They had differed widely but they knew each other well enough to be able to disagree. He had found the guest of the evening a good congenial friend and citizen. He wished him and family every success.

H. F. Pullen told how in Victoria years ago he had worked under Mr. Nelson on the Victoria Times and his son would be working under Mr. Nelson in a smaller capacity on the Victoria

Wake Up Victoria

Colonel McMorde admired the "all for Rupert" spirit of the departing guest. Perhaps he would wake Victoria up a little. At any rate he would leave behind him many friends.

Fred Dawson told of having come north with Mr. Nelson first in 1906. They had always been opponents but he had found Mr. Nelson a good square shooter. However, he believed the guest was doing the right thing in accepting the position in the work he liked.

D. G. Stewart spoke of his associations on the school board and hospital board and said he had the highest respect for Mr. Nelson and always admired the stand he took on public questions. He sincerely hoped he would make a success in Victoria.

Consul Wakefield and Major Gibson spoke appreciatively of the ability of the guest of honor and was followed by a number of other speakers, many of whom gave reminiscences of the early days.

George Nickerson joined his voice with those of the others in doing honor to one who had worked well for the city.

Colonist. They had had most congenial relationships in the past and he hoped Mr. Nelson would some day return to Prince Rupert.

The Presentation

In making the presentation, M. P. McCaffery spoke of the manner in which Mr. Nelson had for years conducted his newspaper. He had always followed his own convictions. Mr. Nelson was in the council when he, Mr. McCaffery, was mayor and since he had been in the city had been active in all kinds of public work. He had given two years of his time as alderman and he wished him every success in his new life. He presented the bag as a memento from the friends here.

Mr. Nelson in reply said he would be less than human if he were not deeply affected by the expressions of good will he had heard. He was about to take up work that was congenial to him but he regretted leaving behind the good fellows of Prince Rupert. Should the time come when he was called on to return it would not be with heavy feet. He saw before him the faces of those he had worked with and fought against. The pioneer life appealed to him. Whatever they may think of him they would agree he had the courage of his convictions and there was never any doubt where he stood.

J. H. Pillsbury spoke of his personal regard for Mr. Nelson and of services the guest of the evening had rendered him and his family. They all would miss him.

Tonight Ad Gustavo and Tiny Walker, wrestlers, meet in a finish match in the Empress Theatre—an event that fans have been looking forward to eagerly ever since the bout was first announced last week. With many visitors in town besides the local supporters of the mat game a record attendance is expected. Two good preliminaries are also posted—the first between the two kids, Chenoski and Gurvich; the second, Ralph Smith, Prince Rupert, vs. Bob Matheison, Metlakatla. The youngsters made a good showing a fortnight ago as also did Ralph Smith who will be given a good battle for four rounds by the native lad, it is said.

Both Gustavo and Walker, the principals in the main event, are in first class shape, the promoters report. Tiny, who rounded off his training with eight miles of roadwork, is confident of winning and thinks it will be easy this time. He says Gus is just made for him and he will keep him so busy with his rushing tactics that he will forget all about science. Walker figures that Gustavo does not like to be scared enough so he is going to tear into him right from the start and figures that he will get two falls within 45 minutes. Walker admits that his opponent is clever but he has wrestled about 100 matches and has come through without a scratch except when Ira Dern and Yokel broke some of his ribs and when Ted Thyre dislocated his shoulder with his famous double wrist lock.

Gustavo has been working out with the firemen playing handball, one of the best known conditioners. It was noticed in the recent match with Olsen that Gus was never out of breath at any stage except for two or three seconds when the Portland man had a struggle on him. Gustavo says that he expects Walker will give him good opposition but he must remember that he is not in Ketchikan and here he will have to wrestle according to rules.

QUEEN CHARLOTTE

J. H. Gray, B.G.L.S., paid a visit to Meyer Lake returning to Prince Rupert on the steamer Prince Albert.

Rev. J. Gillett has been appointed to have charge of the District Exhibit, from the North end of Queen Charlotte Islands, at the Prince Rupert Fair.

Mr. Ley, formerly of the West Coast of Vancouver Island, has been appointed teacher of Massett school.

Contractor Arthur Robertson completed the work of clearing the log jams, on the Yakoun River, which will allow the salmon to ascend to the large lake, in the interior of the island.

Work was resumed at the crab cannery, at Naden Harbor, under the supervision of Mr. Simpson, manager. It is expected that thirty employees will be engaged during the winter months.

It is estimated Massett inlet produced over two million of salmon, during the run of pinks. The Coho run is now in progress, with trawlers catching up to two hundred fish each day. In a short time the Chum salmon fishing will commence. The three island canneries will have full packs.

A Columbia River boat, being towed to Buckley Bay, by the launch Edenshaw, broke away in Heate Straits, last week, and is still adrift. The Edenshaw carried 16,000 pinks to Wales Island cannery, a short time ago, the result of one night's fishing, in upper Massett Inlet.

It is understood a weekly freight boat will be engaged, to run between Buckley Bay and Prince Rupert in the near future. A petition is in circulation to have the entrance to Massett Inlet and DeKalba Bay deepened, in order to admit larger vessels to the waterways of Graham Island.

A seine boat, manned by eight white men, is credited with catching over four hundred thousand pink salmon during the run extending over twenty days, on Massett Inlet. The native seine boats caught over two hundred thousand fish, in the boat, during the season.

Harriet Wesley, a young native woman, of Skidegate, passed away, on the 7th instant, at her home. The deceased was ill for many years, and was a great favorite in the native village where her sister and relatives reside.

A large number of gasoline launches, owned by the Massett Indians, left Massett on the 8th inst., for Prince Rupert. With the passengers on the steamer Prince Albert the islands will be well represented at the Rupert Fair.

After spending the summer vacation on the Prairies, Miss Rita Martin returned to Massett on the last trip of the steamer Prince John.

Dr. Dunn contemplates extensive alterations and repairs, to the Queen's Hotel, at Massett. An additional story will be added, for the purpose of accommodating the large number of tourists, and others, sojourning on Massett Inlet.

Dr. E. A. Lawson, manager of the Queen Charlotte Island Resources, Ltd., is building a residence and office, at Massett.

Few forest fires occurred in the Queen Charlotte Islands during the dry season, although the records show the prevalence of exceptionally dry weather. Forest Warden Williams attended to all calls for assistance, and stopped several fires before they assumed dangerous dimensions.

The children of the Anglican Sunday Schools, of Port Clements and Buckley Bay, were treated to a series of picnics during the summer vacation. The "Western Hope" was used to convey the picnickers to the grounds, where they were entertained by Mrs. J. Gillett and the Anglican clergyman, Rev. J. Gillett. The children enjoyed the outing immensely.

Mate Matthews, who was under treatment, at Massett for a wound alleged to have been inflicted on one of the whaling steamers, returned to duty, last week, having recovered sufficiently to again take his position on the steamer.

During his stay on Graham Island, Rev. Peter Kelly conducted services at Skidegate and Massett. He also favored the Indians with several songs, at concerts held on the reserves.

At an entertainment, held in the Town Hall, at Massett, on the 9th instant, the following ladies and gentlemen took part: Alfred Adams, Henry Edenshaw, Mrs. David Parnell, Amanda Bell, Ernest Brown, David Jones, David Bell, William Matthews, Mrs. Florence Davidson. The hall was decorated with flowers and flags, while tables were arranged for the guests. Rev. Peter Kelly added to the pleasure of the evening, by singing several solos.

In a short time, the indication of petroleum, in the neighborhood, is attracting a great deal of attention from those conversant with oil properties. It is stated a drill well, in operation, near Otard River in a short time, will be in operation.

VANDERHOOF

Hon. W. H. Sutherland, minister of public works, on his visit here last week, stated that the principal features of the Stuart Lake settlement scheme had been decided upon but a few details were yet to be arranged. The minister stated that the much desired road north of Fort St. James was on the department's program for next year.

Great importance is being attached by the Vanderhoof Board of Trade to the visit here on September 24 of the Montreal Board of Trade excursion. The party will spend three hours in the district and will be shown points of interest by the local board which has arranged for a number of motor cars for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnston have returned from a visit to coast cities. While away Mr. Johnston underwent an operation.

Miss Josephine MacDonald, of New Westminster, is now teaching at the echako school.

The Mapes district will have no fair this year, it having been decided to cancel it on account of the continued dry spell which has mitigated considerably against the possibility of having good exhibits.

And it's of that we relieve you—at a cost truly moderate.

We take your family bundle, wash it sweetly clean in soothingly soft waters and billowy, glistening suds; and rinse it many times in more water sparklingly pure.

Next we daintily iron the flat pieces; the things like bath towels we dry softly and fluffily—they need no ironing; and other pieces that require it we starch and make ready for you to iron in your own home.

In a word, we do all the toilsome, mussy work of washday, and leave for you only the milder, pleasanter task of ironing the lighter pieces.

It's a truly economical service within the means of every woman—we're sure you'll like it immensely.

Telephone, we'll welcome an opportunity to tell you more about it.

DANCE GIVEN BY GREENVILLE BAND

The Greenville Orchestra, under the management of Johnson Russ, gave a dance last night in the De Luxe Hall. The floor was comfortably filled with close to a hundred couples who enjoyed a most pleasant time until 2 a.m. The Greenville folks entertained many visitors from the Islands and other points and proved themselves good hosts. The orchestra was in good form and snappy jazzy music was thoroughly enjoyed. Other dances will follow on Friday and Saturday.

KITIMAAT EASILY WON AT FOOTBALL

Defeated Kitkatla in First Game of Native Series This Morning by a Score of 6 to 0

In the first of the native football games for the Exhibition challenge trophy significant of the championship of Northern B.C., Kitimaat won over Kitkatla this morning by a score of 6 to 0. The game was very one-sided and the victors had it all over the losers in tactics and combination play. The score at half time was 5 to 0 in Kitimaat's favor. The goal scorers were W. Starr, 1; Bolton, 3; C. Starr, 1; Robinson, 1.

The teams lined up as follows: Kitimaat—Wood, McShaw and Wilson; Morrison, Smith and Ames; C. Shaw, Bolton, Starr, Robinson and Gray. Kitkatla—Innes; Wilson and Chilton; Hoover, Gordon and Jackson; Brown, E. Chilton, Colison, Lewis and White.

Unusual Value

TOGETHER WITH ABSOLUTE GUARANTEE.

The people of Prince Rupert are now being offered an extraordinary opportunity to share in the enjoyment and development of a beauty spot that will equal if not surpass anything in North America.

Two years of close observation and study of the situation on the ground as well as through my Eastern associations and connections have convinced me as well as many of the foresighted business men of Prince Rupert of its great possibilities.

Reservations of the choicest lots, 50 x 150 feet have now been sold and are now being offered at the extremely low and conservative price of $250.00, $150.00, and $100.00, and on such terms as will preclude any possibility of risk or loss to the Prince Rupert participants. The height of my ambition is to make this project absolutely safe to the people of Prince Rupert and district so that they may in no way be hampered in the enjoyment of their investment.

Appreciation.
I appreciate very much the many expressions of support and goodwill of the people of Prince Rupert in the making of Rainbow Lake a summer resort and playground.

Actual Support.
To further strengthen this project, several of the foremost and far sighted business men of the city have already made reservations of lots and will erect suitable summer cottages thereon next spring. This, coupled with the reservations made by members of the Minneapolis Athletic Club, of Minneapolis, augurs well for its future success.

Additional Support.
It is for others of the citizens of Prince Rupert to decide whether they wish to take a hand in and help a project which is to bring their city and district to the direct personal notice of a large group of business men of Minneapolis, St. Paul and intermediate points; a project that will eventually draw hundreds of additional tourists yearly to this district, who would otherwise go elsewhere.

Returns Guaranteed.
I will personally guarantee in writing to every Prince Rupert purchaser of lots, until further notice, to repurchase the lot and pay for actual cost of improvements thereon, should he be dissatisfied with his investment at the end of three years. I will also supply entirely gratis the logs required for a summer cabin to the first six purchasers of lots, if erected within a year from the date of purchase.

There is sufficient security alone in the value of my holdings at Rainbow Lake to insure your protection, but herewith are additional references:

Announcement.

The christening of mountain peaks from Mt. Butler with proper dedicating services will be announced later. This event is for the purpose of perpetuating the memory of the first three Prince Rupert business men who have bought lots and several Minneapolis Athletic Club members. A dial of arrows with names of the various parties pointed towards the mountain bearing his name will be permanently located at the apex of Mt. Butler.

The scenery from Mt. Butler, in my estimation, eclipses the scenery of the widely advertised Glacier Park from the divide which the writer has seen; hence the importance of this event as well as a most valuable asset to the Resort Project.

Strength and Security.

Associated with me in this enterprise are some of the leading business and club men of Minneapolis, Minn., all of whom have made reservations for lots of Rainbow Lake.
