FINANCE TO OCCUPY ATTENTION OF PARLIAMENT THIS SESSION

Opening Wednesday of Parliament Being Carefully Anticipated

(By Alan N. Longstaff, Canadian Press Parliamentary Bureau.)
OTTAWA, March 6.—The legislative program of the government for the first session of the Fourteenth Parliament, which opens on Wednesday, March 8, for the election of a Speaker, with the formal opening and delivery of the Speech from the Throne on the following day, has been under consideration by cabinet council for some weeks, and is believed to be well in hand at present. In view of the short time that the government has been in office before the opening of the session, it is not expected that this program will be very heavy, though there are bound to be many things crop up after the opening which will require legislative measures to deal with them. Of the new legislation, probably that of most interest to the general public will be the taxation proposals.

Enlarge Ice Production by Thirty Tons a Day at Local Cold Storage Plant

The Canadian Fish and Cold Storage management has had confirmation of the plans formulated locally to enlarge the production of the ice-making plant by thirty tons a day in order to supply the ever-increasing demand at this port.

The present capacity of the plant is 70 tons a day and by the middle of June, when the new plant is complete, this will have reached fully 100 tons, or over 30,000 tons of ice a year.

The cost of the addition to the plant will be approximately $25,000, and this is in addition to the power. Already the power plant is sufficient to handle the increased ice freezing proposed.

The fish storage capacity of the local cold storage plant is 10,000,000 pounds above the first floor. This is in addition to the packinghouse, sharp freezers and corridors and also in addition to the storage house for ice which accommodates 2,000 tons of ice in addition to the ice freezers.

LOYD GEORGE STILL UNDECIDED

World Will Know Very Soon if He Intends to Resign Present Position.
LONDON, March 6.—Within 24 hours or at the most 48 hours, the world will definitely know whether Lloyd George has decided to resign as head of the coalition Government. This is the only substantial conviction emerging from the tangle of contradictory rumors in the crisis which is engrossing observers over Saturday and Sunday.

Friends of the Premier assert that he is exceedingly tired and will gladly quit the responsibility of his office. If he holds on it will be because of recognition of the fact that chaos is likely to follow his retirement in the present peculiar circumstances.

Oratory Contest Was Great Success.
 The oratory contest of Friday last is still being talked about by those who were present. The success of the event was such as to cause it to be mentioned in church pulpits, to be discussed at clubs, and to be a common subject of conversation on the streets. To think that boys and girls so young should be able to speak so well before a considerable gathering of people was a surprise to many. "I would rather hear that than go to any kind of show you could put on," declared one man. The boys and girls did wonderfully well and while only one of them got the gold medal, all were worthy of recognition.

Being able to speak in public is a great art. It is an art that may be acquired to a greater or less degree. Many a good cause is lost because the person who would support it is unable to sponsor it in public. The result has been that the opportunity to forward its interests has passed and it has never returned.

What About Making Your Will?
 Have you made your will? Hundreds have not, and if they should die tomorrow there would be endless confusion because of this neglect. Women are particularly careless in this regard. They put off because they do not intend to die just yet and they do not think there is any danger. It is just as well to make that will now. Any good lawyer or trust company can give advice in regard to it, or if there is any reluctance about going to any of these, get a will form and fill it in and then have it properly witnessed. It is neglect of these little things in life that cause so much inconvenience for the people who follow.

People Today Are Wanting to Know.
 People today are hungry for education. They want to know about things. They are looking for information, not only about the ordinary affairs of life but also about the deeper things, the partially known and the things about which we know almost nothing. Education is becoming a craving with many. The books they read and the magazines that interest them are an indication of better things.

The desire for better education is especially evident in what is known as working class circles. The average working man today is better informed than the average clerk. He devotes a lot of time to the study of natural science, sociology, psychology and a good many other lines of study of which the butterfly boy and the club-habitue know nothing.

In order to find out the interest taken in education it is necessary only to drop in at one of the lectures given by Archbishop Du Vernet on psychology. There is one on Wednesday of this week and the Anglican Church building will not be large enough to accommodate the crowd who will be there. The people are hungry for knowledge and when they have an opportunity to get to an awakening lecture you can not keep them away.

Prince Rupert as Sport Centre.
 The Canadian National Railways issued a pamphlet last year entitled "Out of Doors" in which it pretends to tell people where to get off along the line of their system if they would secure outdoor sport, especially hunting and fishing. Unfortunately those in control of the Canadian National do not seem to know of the existence of Prince Rupert as a fishing and hunting and outing resort, for the place is not mentioned anywhere from cover to cover. The publication is useful and creditable were it not for this noteworthy omission.

There are in the book a good many places mentioned where there is good fishing, but few where it is better than in the neighborhood of Prince Rupert. The person who prepared that booklet needs a little education. Let him talk to George Bryant or one of the local sportsmen about fishing at Kiltada, Falls River, Mad River, Wark Canal, and a hundred other points. Let him talk to any one of a hundred local sportsmen about the deer shooting in this neighborhood. What of the duck and geese that may be killed in the neighborhood?

Prince Rupert is par excellence the one point from which more good sport may be obtained than from any other we know. Gardner Canal, Porcher Island, a hundred points are easily accessible, and plenty of launches and boats may be hired here.

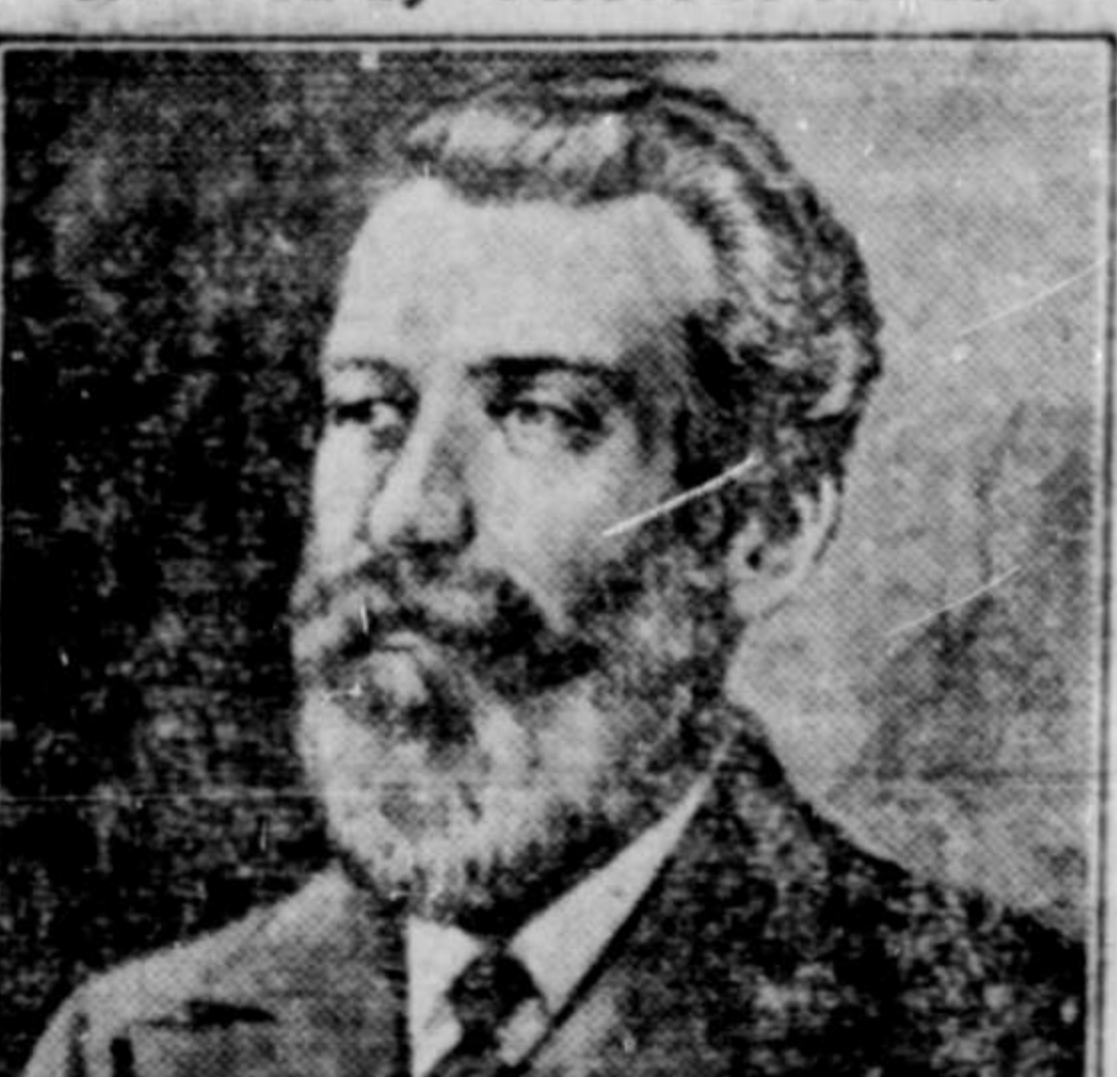

While we have been aware that every effort has been made to belittle Prince Rupert and to keep her out in the cold, this is perhaps the most deliberate of all the slams the city has had. If ever the high officials of the Canadian National again come this way the Board of Trade and citizens generally would do well to wait on them and impress them with the idea that we are really it from a sport point of view, and that every tourist should stop here at least a few days coming and going.

Three years ago, I consulted one of the best specialists in Montreal. He said I must go to the hospital, have an Ulcer cut out of my stomach and gall stones removed. I was then 74 years old. I said "NO."

Then, I began to take "Fruit-a-tives." I found they helped me a lot, and I still take them occasionally, and I am so much better that my old friends often ask me what I have done to myself to look so well. I am gaining in weight and enjoying life very much."

PIPE DREAMS
 By Newton F. Pullen

Lord Byng, Governor-General, has shown an admirable faculty for being extremely concrete and matter-of-fact in his addresses, not confining himself to well worn channels of innuendo. Speaking to the Montreal Women's Canadian Club recently, he dealt with the prevalence of slums and lame horses in Montreal and the lack of children's playgrounds. It is an excellent thing to see a man of Lord Byng's influence particularizing instead of prating upon service ideals through prety generalities.

In these days when there is some plaint over women encroaching upon spheres of employment where men should hold the monopoly, figures made public concerning men and women gainfully occupied in New York City are interesting. They were secured from the census of 1920.

The occupational classes in each of which at least are 30,000 persons of both sexes, in the order of their numerical importance are: Clerks, except in stores, 137,283 males and 68,949 females; servants and waiters, 53,970 males and 94,658 females; retail dealers, 114,671 males and 7,056 females; bookkeepers, cashiers and accountants, 42,449 males and 40,231 females; stenographers and typewriters, 7,146 males and 72,565 females; semi-skilled operatives in suit, coat, cloak and overall factories, 45,949 males and 13,389 females; tailors and tailresses, 46,932 males and 3,261 females; chauffeurs, 49,185 males and 280 females; machinists, millwrights and toolmakers, 42,664 males and 1 female; carpenters, 42,478 males and 3 females.

The numbers engaged in certain important professions were as follows:
 Lawyers, judges and justices, 11,246 men and 253 women; physicians and surgeons, 9,419 men and 527 women; clergymen, 4,067 men and 17 women; trained nurses, 409 men and 12,127 women; actors, 5,053 men and 5,034 women.

STAGE DOOR INN NOVELTY
 Members of New York Theatrical Profession Start Own Restaurant.

By BEN DEACON
 Canadian Press Correspondent.

NEW YORK, March 3.—People can get along very well without theatrical entertainment, but they must eat. This well known fact has prompted a number of members of the theatrical profession to turn their attention to the restaurant business. And so New York has the "Stage Door Inn." It is run by a number of the stage folk on a co-operative basis with the object of aiding those who have been unable to obtain employment. The Thespians take turns in the roles of waitresses, bus-boys, and kitchen help, but the stellar role of chef is a permanent one. On opening night one of the waitresses was Miss Madge Surtees, who is just back from a Canadian tour in which she appeared in "French Leave" with Mr. and Mrs. Coburn.

The Stage Door Inn has several novel features. One is that no tipping is allowed. Warning to this effect is printed on the menus in three separate places. A no-tipping rule is a real novelty in New York. Another is that each day of the week is set apart for dishes of a particular nationality. These are the novelties which have special appeal to the public. Another which in turn is gratifying to the promoters is that there are no passes. There is every indication that the culinary show is due for a long run. The producers are considering a "Standing Room Only" sign. The display of this legend by any sort of theatrical enterprise in New York would be the greatest novelty of all.

The opening of the new inn is indication of the resourcefulness of the people of the theatre. Resourcefulness whether it be in hunting up some new line of employment or in patching up last season's wardrobe, is the most valuable asset of thousands of actors in New York today, and in many cases is the only asset that has not been put in lock. For the theatrical situation, if it has changed at all within recent weeks, has changed for the worse. An estimate by several local managers published the other day declared fully half of the 15,000 players on this continent are out of work. Reports from all over the continent—Canada included—indicate that the stage stagnation is general. Aside from the general let-up in luxury buying, many reasons are ascribed for the extremely hard times in the theatre. The managers complain of very heavy overhead expenses—increased railroad fares and union regulations which they claim, require the employment of a lot of unnecessary men at high wages. Union leaders declare high wages are no responsible. They blame the railroad rates and competition of the movies. Both agree that while a company on tour formerly was a paying proposition if the box office took in seven or eight thousand dollars a week, it requires almost double that income nowadays to keep the show going.

W. M. Davis.

ULCERS & OLD WOUNDS. "Ulcers broke out on my right ankle, and the whole leg was full of inflammation and pain," says Mr. Edward Bingham, of 118, Brant Avenue, Brantford. "I could neither wear boot nor shoe, nor could I move about at all."
 "Lotions, salves and ordinary ointments seemed unable to touch the ulcers, but the very first application of Zam-Buk was soothing and cooling. As I kept on with Zam-Buk, the swelling, inflammation and discharge was thoroughly subdued, and the sores were gradually and permanently healed with firm new tissue."

EGZEMA, RINGWORM, Etc. "A nasty patch of eruption," writes Mrs. W. Adams, of 489, La Salle Road, Montreal, "started on my little son's neck and spread rapidly until his body was entirely covered. The boy was treated at three different hospitals and at last the doctor pronounced the disease incurable. Five years elapsed from the sores first appearing when a friend got me to try Zam-Buk. This great herbal balm brought a marvellous improvement. My boy got better and better until after four months Zam-Buk treatment his skin was absolutely cleared of every sore and eruption. There has never been the slightest sign of disease since."

EVERYDAY INJURIES. "I gashed my fingers very badly with a piece of tin," says Mrs. S. Cliff, of Melette, S.D. "The wound somehow became infected, and blood-poisoning set in. I received doctor's treatment but the throbbing and swelling spread right up into my shoulder. So long as I live I shall never forget the relief experienced the first time I applied Zam-Buk. The swelling was reduced rapidly and before long Zam-Buk had drawn every bit of inflammation and poisonous matter out of the wound and effected perfect healing."

THERE'S NOTHING TO TAKE THE PLACE OF Zam-Buk

THERE'S NOTHING ELSE soothes and heals so speedily as Zam-Buk when skin is cut, burnt, scalded, chapped or bruised. Zam-Buk is also a most invaluable remedy for weeping or dry eczema, ring-worm, chronic sores, bad legs, boils, pimples, poisoned wounds and piles. LABOR AND CAPITAL HAVE EQUAL RIGHTS

That is View of Secretary of Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council.

WINNIPEG, March 6.—"The principle is coming to be recognized that the investment of labor in industry must have equal rights with the investment of capital in industry," declared Ernest Robinson, secretary of the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council, when addressing the Rotary club at its luncheon at the Fort Garry.

Mr. Robinson's subject was "Unemployment Insurance," and in the course of his address he said industry must take care of the investment of labor as well as the investment of capital. While unemployment insurance might not be a remedy for unemployment it was the first step towards removing from the lives of workers the extreme anxiety regarding unemployment, which militated against men giving their best to industry. Once they had recognition of the principle that labor should be the first charge on industry they would have made the first great step towards relieving workers of that particular anxiety of unemployment.

ARRANGE TEMPORARY REGULATIONS GOVERN AMATEUR RADIO STNS

OTTAWA, Mar. 6.—As a temporary measure pending the issue of new regulations governing amateur radio stations, the department of naval service has authorized the use of the wave length of 200 metres for continuous wave and radio telephone transmission by all licensed amateur stations throughout Canada, except where they immediately adjoin commercial stations. Spark transmission will continue to be limited to the wave lengths prescribed in the license. This order is effective today.

This new order is the first official recognition of the superior tuning qualities of the continuous wave type of transmission insofar as amateurs are concerned. Heretofore amateurs have been limited to 50 and 150 metres according to their distance from the nearest commercial station, and the additional privilege now allowed to the holders of continuous wave transmitters will no doubt result in the abandonment of the spark sets by progressive amateurs, says the statement issued last night.

1000 BOOKS COLLECTED

Library Now Has 1650 Volumes Approximately With a Few More to Come In.

There was a great book collection held on Saturday with the result that over a thousand more volumes were added to the list already received making in all something over 1650 books. There are probably a few more to come in so the nucleus for a local library has been assured and it is a good one.

The collection was made with the co-operation of the principals and teachers of the schools and basos for collection were made at Seal Cove, Fuller's Grocery, Booth Memorial School, Borden Street School, and several private houses. From there the books were moved in cars loaned by George Richmond and Dr. W. T. Kargin to Orme's store where they will be sorted and cared for by Mr. Wilkinson until further arrangements are made for a home for them.

The book collection has proved most successful, more successful than the most optimistic could have hoped. It is pointed out that if the general co-operation in future is equal to that at the commencement the library must be a great success.

Any who were missed in the collection are asked to either bring the books in themselves or telephone the principal of the Public Schools or the High School and they will be fetched.

"WOMAN IN HOUSE" TO BE SEEN TONIGHT

Only One Night Show and Wednesday Matinee for Good Picture.

In "The Woman in His House," showing at the Westholme tonight, Philip Emerson, a materialistic physician, while enjoying an outing with his friend, Peter Marvin, an idealistic philosopher, discovers Hilda, a beautiful young girl, mourning over the recent death of her mother, with a misshapen hunchback, Sigurd, in dog-like devotion, at her side.

Despite Sigurd's opposition, Hilda marries Philip, and they return to New York, where the husband soon establishes himself as a famous physician and surgeon. His material mind filled with outside interests, Philip neglects his wife. For days at a time he works in his laboratory with no one save a beautiful young woman, who acts as his assistant. This close association with another woman arouses groundless suspicion in the heart of Hilda, who can not understand the make-up of a man of her husband's type.

In time comes Philip junior, but even a mother's love does not make up for her husband's neglect, and when there comes the tempter, one Bob Livingston, he finds a ready listener to his wiles. Finally, when Philip is awakened to his duty to his wife, an epidemic sweeps over the city and once more the physician's mind is plunged into other channels. His own child is stricken, and upon his return home, he is greeted with the shocking news that the child is dying. The blow prostrates Hilda, but the child recovers. The verdict of the doctors is that he will live but will be hopelessly deformed.

Philip takes the child away to devote himself to its cure, and when Hilda recovers she is informed that her baby has been buried. A complete estrangement of husband and wife results, and Hilda, her mind poisoned against Philip by the perfidious whisperings of Livingston, abandons her home and leaves with the false friend.

Peter, the philosopher friend, seeks her out, determined to bring her to the child. When Hilda enters the room where the crippled boy is lying a miracle is wrought by mother love. The baby raises its paralyzed arms, stretching them out to her, and slides from the chair unaided. Just at that moment Philip enters the room.

BYLAWS TO COME BEFORE COUNCIL MEETING TONIGHT

Three bylaws are to be considered at the city council meeting tonight. They are: the G. T. P. assessment agreement bylaw, the municipal free library bylaw and the indemnity bylaw. The first two are being prepared to go before the people on March 22. It is understood that the indemnity bylaw provides for no reductions in the salaries of the mayor and aldermen this year.

Children's Coughs Quickly Relieved.

It is hard for to keep the children from taking cold; they will run out of doors not properly wrapped, or have too much clothing on and get overheated and cool off too suddenly, they get their feet wet, kick off the clothes at night; the mother cannot watch them all the time, so what is she going to do?

Mothers should never neglect the children's coughs or colds, but on the first sign should procure a bottle of DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

It is pleasant and nice to take, and relieves the cough or cold in a very short time and thus prevents bronchitis, pneumonia, or perhaps consumption getting a foothold on their systems.

Mrs. E. Smith, 288 Victoria Avenue, North, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I have three children who have had very bad colds, due to change of climate. I have tried different remedies, but I seem to get the best results from Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I have no difficulty in giving it to them as they like it. I always have at least one bottle in the house."

Price, 35c and 60c a bottle at all dealers. Put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

EASTERN MEN FAIL TO RECOGNIZE WEST

In his valedictory address to the Victoria Canadian Club at Victoria B. C. Nicholas, retiring president and vice-president of the Central organization for this province expressed regret that the public men of Canada failed to recognize the strategic importance of the Pacific Coast and by spending so much of their time in the East afforded such organizations as the Canadian Club small opportunity of hearing their views on issues of the day.

"There is a distinctive Canadian character and sentiment to be developed," said Mr. Nicholas. "By building up these elements we will establish fresh centres of strength for the Empire and erect an absolute safeguard against the dry rot which might otherwise set in. Canada has an inspiring political record. The fathers of Confederation set a new example for the whole world and opened the way for a form of commonwealth development that has been the foundation of the Empire's permanence. The spirit which animated these men and those who followed them converted a centralized Empire—Imperial, according to the old definition of the word—into a constellation of free, self-governing British Dominions, and laid the groundwork truly and well for a confederation of common ideals."

"We may take pride in Canada's political record, but also in her industrial record, as shown in railway and engineering development, as well as in her high moral and spiritual standards. It is unfortunate that so few of the men who address this club are from outside Canada. It is unfortunate that the leaders of Canada do not yet recognize the strategic position of this ocean and the necessity of keeping in intimate contact with Coast conditions."

LOCAL EMPLOYMENT AGENT RETURNS TO CITY FROM VICTORIA

James Campbell Attended Conference of Western Officials of Employment Service.

James Campbell, local provincial government employment agent, returned last night on the Venture from Victoria where he attended on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of last week at the parliament buildings the annual conference of western officials of the Employment Service of Canada. There were about 20 persons present and matters of general interest in connection with conduct and improvements of the work of the service were taken up. Among those who attended were R. A. Rigg, of Winnipeg, Dominion superintendent of western officers, Bryce Stewart, director of the Employment Service of Canada; J. A. Mitchell, general superintendent for the province of Alberta; J. Bowman, general superintendent for Manitoba; Mr. Molloy, general superintendent for Saskatchewan; J. D. McNiven, deputy minister of labor for the province of British Columbia, and the superintendents from Nelson, Vernon, Fernie, Cranbrook, New Westminster, Nanaimo, Kamloops, Victoria and Prince Rupert. On account of illness, J. H. McVey, Vancouver superintendent, was unable to be present.

Several interesting papers were read and among them was one by Mr. Bowman, of Winnipeg, dealing with juvenile employment. It was urged that steps be taken to get all young people, on leaving school, into good and suitable employment with a view to the future. A resolution along these lines was passed and will be sent to the different provincial governments, school boards and the department of education.

R. A. Rigg, of Winnipeg, presided and H. Grisswood, of the Vancouver office, was secretary. The next conference will be held in Winnipeg.

OSCAR FREEBERG WAS ACCIDENTALLY BURNED ON BOARD GAS BOAT

JUNEAU, March 4.—The jury at the coroner's inquest over the death of Oscar Freeberg, "The Terrible Swede," held recently before U. S. Commissioner V. A. Paine, returned the following verdict:

"That Oscar Freeberg came to his death on Admiralty Island near Gull Island on the 20th day of February, 1922, in the following manner, accidental burning aboard gas boat between 7 p. m. February 20 and 9 a. m. February 21, 1922; cause of death not known."

Members of the jury were: Harry J. Fisher, P. L. Goleman, Robert Simpson, D. J. Halferty, L. S. Robe, H. F. Dolt.

Freeberg's boat was a 19-foot craft and cabin with a canvas cover. Witnesses at the inquest stated that he always slept with the cover of his boat securely fastened down and a lamp burning. The supposition is that on the night of February 20, Freeberg went to sleep with the lamp burning and that when the tide went out a sea leg did not catch, causing the boat to list, the lamp being tipped over.

AS A MATTER OF FACT

The idea that chemicals are injurious, merely because they are chemicals, is erroneous.

We live on chemicals. The air we breathe is a mixture of oxygen, nitrogen and certain inert gases, as is also the water we drink a chemical compound of hydrogen and oxygen.

Like most everything in the world, however, there are good and bad chemicals, as well as good and bad laundries.

The good chemicals are those we eat and drink and breathe—the kind WE use in the laundry to keep us clean. The harmful chemicals are the poisonous gases and compounds we are all familiar with.

We would not think of using the harmful chemicals in our homes; why not give our clothing the same intelligent consideration, and send them to the laundry where this chemical principle is recognized, and where only the good chemicals are used?

This service is at your disposal.

REVIVAL OF INDUSTRIES PALESTINE

Increase of Imports and Exports Consequent on Industrial Activity.

JERUSALEM, Mar. 6.—Palestine is beginning to rouse from its long industrial slumber. Manufacturing industries are springing up rapidly in this country which could not boast of a single industry for hundreds of years under the Turkish regime. Now the new industries are beginning to compete strongly with foreign manufactures.

This change is attributed here to Zionist capital and enterprise. Carpet weaving perhaps ranks first in importance among the new industries. The Zion-Jerusalem society has a number of looms which turn out some remarkably beautiful work. Jewish colonists from Persia have also set up a number of factories which make carpet patterns for foreign consumption. The United States is their chief buyer for the present.

The manufacture of house and office furniture is making rapid strides. Two large Zionist factories are now busy producing all the wooden requisites of office and home for Palestine as well as for Egypt.

Cigarette making, pearl button manufacturing, wire producing, candy, brush and basket-making are among the many other enterprises which are being developed. Their promoters say they are more than satisfied with results, despite the general depression in trade prevailing the world over.

Two Handicaps.

Two existing handicaps, however, seem to arrest the rapid growth. The first is lack of electricity to run the machinery in factories and the second the lack of suitable harbors, piers and sheds to facilitate the handling of the sudden increase in imports and exports.

The Rutenberg scheme for generating electricity from the River Jordan which has already been approved by the government in London and on which work is to start soon is expected to eliminate these handicaps.

The administration is bending its utmost efforts to promote more enterprises. An exhibition of home industries, the first of its kind in Palestine, is being arranged for the first week of April.

CONSTIPATION BAD HEADACHES FAINT, DIZZY SPELLS

Constipation is one of the commonest ills of mankind, and one too often allowed to go unlooked after, until some serious complication sets in.

A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule of everyone, then there will be no constipation, sick or bilious spells, dizziness, heartburn, coated tongue, foul breath, sour stomach, floating specks before the eyes, jaundice, water brash, etc. Keep the bowels properly regulated by the use of

and you will enjoy the best of health. Mrs. Frank Wilsey, R. R. 3, Belmont, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled with constipation for nearly two years. I had had headaches, faint and dizzy spells, and would bloat terribly. I was nearly discouraged for I had tried so many things that gave me no relief. My mother got me a vial of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and told me to give them a fair trial. After I had taken one vial I felt much better and continued their use. Now I have no faint and dizzy spells and am gaining weight. I would not be without Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for the world."

BIRD SANCTUARY IS CITY OF LONDON

Town Life Is Deliberately Chosen Owing to Better Protection.

The writer of the London weekly Times tells of the bird life in the world's metropolis. He says steps are being taken to preserve the wild life in the London Parks. Lord Crawford, the minister responsible, has appointed a committee, of which Sir Lionel Earle is chairman and among those who have undertaken to give evidence is Lord Grey of Fallodon. Certain areas of some of the public parks were enclosed for army purposes during the war; and small wild life discovered sanctuary there, with the result that the question of preserving it in future has seriously arisen; and out of its consideration will surely arise the further question how to provide similar sanctuaries in all public parks. We only need to meet the birds half-way in their advances towards our friendship. Forty-one years ago the first few gulls came tentatively to London; now they come by hundreds every year. Wild wood-pigeons can be watched much more easily in London than anywhere in Britain. Magpies, carrion crows, moorhens, coots, great crested grebes and little grebes are all deliberately choosing a town life where they get the chance; and, though small animals cannot fly with the birds over the ring of bricks and mortar, they find gaps to slip through. Perhaps no prettier sight in nature has been seen than a little red squirrel turning over the papers in a wire basket in St. James' Park, searching for crumbs.

Prowling Cats.

The difficulties in the way of preserving small wild life in the public parks may almost be summed up in one short word—cats. The parks are the nightly rendezvous of almost all the cats from the surrounding streets; and the few birds mentioned above as taking to town life are able to do so only because they roost and nest out of the way of the cats. But there would be no need to exterminate the cats. All that is necessary would be the provision of a narrow strip of wilderness here and there, surrounded by a light cat-proof— and incidentally, boy-proof—fence. Here small birds would quickly learn to come for safe nesting sites. At one time the nightingale used to sing in Kensington Gardens; it would sing there again in a few years if we gave it a chance. There is really no limit which we need put to the possible natural history of London; and the little sheltering wilderness for the nesting birds might easily, under proper care, be made themselves the most attractive part of the whole scheme.
