UNION JACK REPLACED IN SOUTH IRELAND WITH FREE STATE TRICOLOR

Last of British Army Occupying Area About Dublin is Withdrawn

DUBLIN, Dec. 18.—The Union Jack and the authority it symbolized in Ireland for so many years has gone back to Great Britain today with the last of the British soldiers occupying the Dublin area being withdrawn. In its place over the military posts of the city float the tricolor of the Irish Free State.

The departure of the King's garrison and the installation of the Free State troops was accomplished with a remarkable display of fraternity and goodwill. Cheering crowds watched the British military march to the docks with flags flying.

Richard Mulcahy, the Free State minister of defence, saluted the British colors as they came down for the last time.

OTTAWA, Dec. 18.—Action on the report of the Duff commission which investigated the British Columbia fisheries last summer is not expected until after the report has been published in full and all parties interested have had a chance to submit recommendations to parliament. The report will be completed shortly and, in the meantime, Robert G. Gosse, of Vancouver, representing British Columbia fishermen, has been presenting their viewpoint in Ottawa.

They will study the B.C. lumber market and will have a conference at Vancouver on the subject of terms, credits and prices. Besides Prince Rupert and Vancouver, the party will also visit Regina, Calgary and Nelson.

NELSON, Dec. 18.—Unprecedented zero weather has frozen the West Arm of the Kootenay River, on which this city is located, has interrupted the navigation on the Arrow Lakes and has started the curling season several weeks earlier than usual.

CRIMINAL LAWYERS SOCIETY SCAVENGERS

TORONTO, Dec. 18.—Dr. Margaret Patterson, magistrate of the women's police court, Toronto, apologized in the women's court to the legal profession for a recent reference made by her to some criminal lawyers as "scavengers of society." She said her remarks, as isolated and emphasized in the press had a "far different meaning" than when read in the context of her address. Dr. Patterson's reference to some lawyers as "scavengers of society" was contained in an address which she made at the recent convention in this city of the World League Against Alcoholism.

DIAMOND RING GOES INTO CAPONS CROP

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 18.—(By Canadian Press).—One of 150 capons, belonging to R. L. Bowman of this city has lodged in his crop a $600 diamond ring while he was feeding his birds. Mr. Bowman is puzzled. He dislikes killing all the capons and making a thorough search, and he hardly feels safe in relying upon the honesty of the culinary department of some unselected kitchen.

VANCOUVER PROVINCE SPORTS EDITOR DIED SUDDENLY ON SUNDAY

VANCOUVER, Dec. 18.—Arthur P. Garvey, sports editor of the Vancouver Province and one of the best known writers on the Pacific Coast, died suddenly on Sunday. Mr. Garvey had long conducted the sport page of the Province and his comments under the head "Through the Sport Lens" were always widely read and appreciated by sports followers.

HON. A. M. MANSON, K.C.

This is the latest picture of British Columbia's bright young Attorney General. The member for Omineca has had a comparatively brief career but it has been a brilliant one and his advance since first being elected to the legislature in 1916 has been rapid, the offices of Speaker of the House and Attorney General coming to him in quick succession. Much of the valuable legislation enacted at the recent session of the legislature emanated from him and he acquitted himself with flying colors throughout one of the most trying sessions that an Attorney General has ever had to contend with. His many friends not only in the central interior district but in the whole province look to his future for even greater things than the past.

Alexander Malcolm Manson is of Scottish descent and was born in St. Louis, Mo., but he is a Canadian and Britisher to the bone and one of the greatest champions and believers in Central British Columbia and its future.

Members Decisively Voted Down Final Effort of Mackenzie for Fines Instead of Imprisonment

VICTORIA, Dec. 19.—Before the administrator appeared on Saturday to close the legislative session, Capt. Ian Mackenzie made a final effort to get fines for first beer selling offences instead of imprisonment but failed. Attorney General Manson stood firm and the bill passed 22 to 15. Those favoring fines were Mrs. M. E. Smith, Vancouver; David Whiteside, New Westminster; Capt. Ian Mackenzie, Vancouver; H. F. Kergin, Atlin; H. G. Perry, Prince George; E. W. Anderson, Kamloops; J. W. deB. Farris, Vancouver; Col. Lister, Kaslo; R. H. Pooley, Esquimalt; J. H. Schofield, Trail; N. A. Wallinger, Cranbrook; Thomas Uphill, Fernie; K. C. Macdonald, North Okanagan; Kenneth Campbell, Nelson; and Canon Highcliffe, Victoria.

Of the hundred bills passed during the session, the majority were fathered by the Attorney General.

To the Vancouver World, Premier Oliver said:

"I have been through several sessions since the Liberal party came into power in this province but I have never seen more harmony displayed in caucus or more actual hard work done by members than has characterized this session."

The United States lighthouse tender Fern, which has been in the dry dock for a few days receiving repairs to her rudder and other minor changes, left the dock this morning and sailed for Ketchikan.

EDMONTON IS FUR CENTRE

Col. Cornwall Says Market in Healthy Condition—Release of Skins in Russia May Affect Prices

EDMONTON, Dec. 18.—"Edmonton is unquestionably the largest centre for raw furs direct from the trapper, on the North American continent," says Col. J. K. Cornwall, veteran trader and fur buyer of this city. Col. Cornwall, has just returned home from a visit to Montreal and Winnipeg where he attended the fur auctions, also from other large centres in the eastern states.

"As Canada practically produces all the fine fur taken on the continent," he says, "the logical place to sell that fur is in the Dominion. The fur sales held at Montreal and Winnipeg can be made more successful if Canadians patronized them more extensively. Further, I can see no reason why similar sales should not be conducted in Edmonton, for it is the largest centre near the actual fur producing country. Were these sales held in this city, they would benefit the trapper, the trader, the city merchant, and everyone else and it is about time a concerted move was made in this direction."

Market Healthy

Col. Cornwall found that the fur market was now in a healthy condition, "scammers" being eliminated and manufacturers buying at the market to meet their requirements instead of trying to corner the output.

Favour what he learned in the east, Col. Cornwall says, that much fur is being held in Europe. Due to financial conditions on the other side of the water, it is unlikely that Europeans will spend much money on furs this winter and there is a possibility that the stocks held there might be dumped on the American market as there are no tariff walls against raw furs. Another factor which might affect the price would be the releasing of raw furs now held in Russia.

RARE DISEASE IS TREATED BY DOCTORS

Prominent Horse Breeder Contracts Glanders: Medical Faculty Excited

WINNIPEG, Dec. 18.—Unique in the annals of the province's medical profession, local doctors have been treating a prominent Manitoba horse breeder and farmer, Frank Cullen of Teesbank, for glanders. He contracted the disease while attending horses suffering from glanders. Doctors who attended Mr. Cullen who has been ill in a private hospital here for some time, were unable to diagnose the case in its early stages, but they now express the belief that he will recover. So unique is the case that a clinic was held last week at which the entire faculty and student body of the Manitoba Medical college was invited to examine the patient.

Mild Weather Puts Car and Light Service out of Business in South

VANCOUVER, Dec. 18.—The four hundred foot approach to the B.C. Electric railway bridge over the north arm of the Fraser River, Lulu Island, was carried away by ice this morning as the result of a sudden thaw and rain and Steveston is without car service to Vancouver. The high tension light wires were also carried away and Lulu Island is without electric light.

The streets of Vancouver are running with water and before noon thirty street cars were put out of commission by the water getting into the motors thus causing short circuits. The B.C. Electric company is greatly handicapped in carrying home the rush hour crowds. The light service in the city was cut off for a time this morning owing to the flooding of a sub-station and the parting of the high tension cable on Commercial Drive.

WILL INSPECT P.C.E. LINE

Premier Oliver and Minister of Railways to Make Tour
Very Soon

VICTORIA, Dec. 18.—Premier Oliver and the minister of railways, Hon. Dr. J. D. McLean, will make a thorough personal investigation into the Pacific Great Eastern Railway and the surrounding country, interviewing settlers and looking over the country between Quesnel and Prince George, as soon as possible now the session is over. This inspection will be preparatory to announcing the policy of the government regarding the line. After the visit the government will decide on its action. The impression here is that the road will be completed to Prince George before very long.

PREMIER OLIVER IS VERY TIRED

Work of Legislative Session
Just Closed is Reviewed

VICTORIA, Dec. 18.—"I am almost too tired to think," said Premier John Oliver this morning when asked his opinion of the work of the session just completed.

The session has been remarkable for the close attention to business throughout. Except on one or two days, practically every hour was utilized.

Perhaps, the most notable piece of legislation was that providing for a new home for incurables.

Little new legislation was undertaken but an effort was made to bring present legislation up-to-date and make it possible to carry on the affairs of the country smoothly.

There were an unusually large number of divisions and the government on every important occasion was well sustained. Close divisions were on unimportant matters, the majorities generally having been remarkably large.

FINDING A NICKEL WOMAN LOSES $600

JERSEY CITY, N.J., Dec. 18.—(By Canadian Press).—Mrs. Mary Cyck, No. 283 Grant Street, dropped a nickel on the floor of her home. The coin rolled under a bed. Mrs. Cyck lit a match and crawled under the bed after it.

When the Fire Department arrived Mrs. Cyck was in a frenzy. It was found she had been in no way injured by the fire, which destroyed only the mattress of the bed under which the nickel had rolled. There was some mystery as to the reason for the woman's actions until it was learned the fire had destroyed $600 she had hidden in the bed.

She recovered the nickel.

Four Candidates For Mayorality.

The past week has seen a spurge of activity in the municipal election field particularly as far as the mayorality is concerned. Four citizens have signified their intention of offering for the chief magistracy and there is reason to believe that still more may enter. Although some of those already announced may yet withdraw, it is pretty safe to assume that there will be at least four candidates. The electors will have plenty to choose from, such as it is, and with such an array in the field it will be a difficult matter to forecast who is going to emerge victor from the battle of ballots.

Mayor Rochester, after two years of what is generally conceded to have been good service in the mayor's chair, announces that he will not seek re-election. Ald. Dybhavn, who has served on the city council for many years—the last two as chairman of the finance committee—and who is known to have been closely in the counsel of Mayor Rochester during his mayorship, is offering contingent on the nomination of suitable council material. In matter of municipal experience, Ald. Dybhavn is a well qualified candidate and for that reason he will doubtless receive a good measure of support if he finally allows his name to go before the electors. Each of the other three candidates have also had more or less experience in the council. It will be up to the electors to decide if their work of the past has been of sufficient value to warrant their being elected to pilot the affairs of the city for the year 1923. It is an important matter and one that should be judged impersonally.

Re-establishment Must Accompany Reparations.

Re-establishment must come before reparations and the nations who suffered the least in the Great War must come to the temporary assistance of those that were crippled if normal economic conditions are to be restored to the world in general and Europe in particular. That is why United States today is looked to for a practical dollars-and-cents solution of the reparations difficulty in Europe.

United States suffered the least of all the Allies in the war and, although towards the end of the struggle she participated, any extraordinary expenditures that the war might have cost her were far more than balanced off by the great profits that her industries made before she entered and after.

Two countries that were really crippled by the war were France and Germany. One was victor and the other was loser. The loser owes the victor reparations and is unable to pay. The victor, on account of internal conditions and her own obligations, must have that money and, failing its delivery, threatens untoward action that may result in war again.

It is apparent now that future events in reparations negotiations will depend much on the United States. If she makes a loan to Germany that will enable that country to meet France's demands, the present crisis may be avoided. If she does not, the situation will become more dangerous and may have serious results.

Great Britain announces her inability to satisfy France in the matter of extending war credit. The United States is undoubtedly in a position to do so. Thus a solution of the present problem may readily be brought about by the United States.

United States Must Come To Rescue.

It is gratifying to note that United States is at least taking preliminary steps to bring about the much desired solution of European reparations difficulties. She is called upon to sink a great deal of money in relief to Germany and it is but proper that Germany's condition should be investigated before she does so. She is justified in insuring her advances. There is little to be gained by United States in such an investment outside of the service to the world in general. At the same time, the United States has a certain moral obligation to the other Allies and that obligation can be met by advancing funds to Germany enabling her to pay reparations. Germany will, doubtless, be unable to pay until she is rehabilitated. France needs Germany's pay in her own rehabilitation which includes the meeting of war debts to Britain. It all revolves in a circle and the well being of one nation depends on another. Prosperity in one European nation means prosperity to another and United States cannot remain outside looking on if she is to live up to those principles that actuated her in entering the war in the first place.

DEBATE ON BEER IN LEGISLATURE

House Takes on Aspect of Beer Garden With Disorderly Discussion

VICTORIA, Dec. 18. — When people want beer they seem to want it very badly judging by the intensity of the debate in the Legislature when the matter was under discussion. For a short time the House was almost a beer garden, a number of members speaking at once and several defying Chairman M. B. Jackson, member for the Islands, who, as deputy speaker, presides over the committee of the whole House.

Those favoring beer had been trying to get a resolution before the House and declared that the Premier had promised them an opportunity to discuss it. In order to dispose of the matter and allow the members the opportunity asked, it was arranged that J. R. Clearihue, member for Victoria, should move a resolution declaring the time inappropriate for a referendum on the subject just now. He urged that it was but eighteen months since a referendum had been taken and that the present measure had not been given a fair trial. He explained that the estimated cost of a referendum was $100,000 and when there was so much unemployment in the province to spend money in that way would not be wise.

Mr. Clearihue reminded the House that the very before the present act was passed was to get rid of the bar. That was the aim of the people in voting for the present measure. During prohibition the bars operated with near beer and latterly with more stronger stuff. The present move, he said, was really one for the return of the bar and he claimed sentiment was still against this.

Sellers Not Buyers

The member for Victoria said that judging by the letters he had received, the demand for the right to sell beer came from those who wished to sell and not from consumers. The Liquor Control Act was difficult to enforce but would be more difficult if more places were licensed. The letters he had received were chiefly from hotel keepers but none came from consumers.

The argument was often advanced that the sale of beer in smaller quantities would lessen the amount of spirits consumed. He did not agree with that. He said statistics had shown conclusively that where the sale of beer was large, the sale of spirits was correspondingly large. Beer drinkers apparently also drank quantities of spirits.

R. J. Burde, member for Alberni, spoke with much emphasis declaring that the present act forced a man to buy a quantity of beer if he wanted any. It forced a man to be a hog, to get his four feet into the swill pail. He spoke of the quality of the beer they got in France. It was a most disgraceful drink. He could not tell it in parliamentary language what it tasted like. It was no wonder the people there drank whiskey. He claimed there was more drunkenness in England during the war when beer was scarce. No one ever heard of a beer drinker committing murder. It was the man who drank whiskey who committed murder. He claimed there were six malignant prohibitionists in the Liberal caucus.

Challenges Clearihue

Thomas Uphill, member for Ferni, challenged the statements of Mr. Clearihue. The G.W.A. had gone on record in favor of beer. Mr. Clearihue: "They want to sell it."

Mr. Uphill claimed statistics did not prove anything. He then went on to take exception to rulings of the chair and said the chairman was under control of the Liberal organization.

Mr. Jackson demanded withdrawal and then Major Burde bluffed in and was ordered to sit down, which he refused to do, claiming Government members were given more latitude than the Independents. Mr. Uphill withdrew but qualified his withdrawal and before the incident closed the deputy speaker had threatened to call the sergeant-at-arms and the speaker had been called in to decide the dispute.

Trust the People

Hon. William Sloan continuing the debate said that he thought from the beginning there should have been more liberal regulations in regard to the sale of beer. The present act was not in the interests of true temperance. He believed in trusting the people.

Fred Anderson, member for Kamloops, said small places were discriminated against. More drinks were not in the same class as spirituous liquors. The resolution was not well considered. It was moved by a person who had not a very wide experience.

Ian McKenzie drew attention to statements made at the time of the election that if the present law was not a success it would be changed. Personally he was not in favor of the referendum method of Government but thought the party in power should bring down the bill as a Government measure.

Guthrie Sat Down

Sam Guthrie claimed that labor favored a referendum but the other side of the House did not. They were bound by the caucus at every point. A dispute then arose owing to the member wishing to speak on previous rulings of the speaker regarding order. He was ruled out of order and being persistent was prevented from speaking further.

The division showed that all the northern members voted for a beer referendum, as well as three labor members, two Conservatives, one Independent and the rest Liberals. Both Premier Oliver and Hon. W. J. Bowser voted against beer.

Sir Thomas Lipton, the famous yachtsman and tea king, says he is going to have another try for America's cup in the international yachting race. Sir Thomas, in sailing from New York for England the other day, said he would be back again in 1924 but that he has not decided yet on the type of challenger which he will race.

Four hundred and thirty-six teams operated under the Toronto Amateur Hockey Association last year comprising six thousand players, it was announced recently at the annual meeting of the association.

Battle Smoker is the latest game they are playing in Winnipeg just now. Three men constitute a team and each player takes a different colored ball which he plays after getting a red and after getting it can play with his partner's color. Points for wins are recorded by means of the letters of the names of the ball.

The life of the Dominion Football Association has been a very stormy one for some time past. First there was the dispute regarding the money to pay to the Scottish International players who toured Canada some time ago. Now David Roy, secretary-treasurer of the association for the past two years has been arrested on the charge of theft of $4,000 from the Association's funds. John Easton, president of the D.F.A., swore the information at Winnipeg.

Joe Anderson recently won the Australian Lawn Tennis championship by defeating Gerald Patterson in a five-set match in the finals by 6-0, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2. Patterson and J. B. Hawkes won the doubles and Hawkes and Miss Boyd, the mixed doubles.

Tommy Gibbons is now in line for a scrap with Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight title. This right he gained last week when he scored an easy win over Bill Miske in their ten-round fracas. The eight thousand fans who witnessed the pummeling went away firmly convinced that Gibbons could give Dempsey a hard run for his money.

It is however very doubtful if Tommy would last very long with Dempsey owing to their sizes for the present champion is much bigger than Gibbons and would have many other advantages over him.

Ed "Strangler" Lewis retained his title in the bout with Stanislaus Zbyszko in the wrestling world and is still the king-pin or "rassler." Every once in a while these two men change their title but "Biscuits" does not seem to be able to hold the belt very long.

As a result of Lewis' win last week he has a right to permanent possession of the Richard belt, having won it three times. Lewis has defeated all comers from the Terrible Turk down to Zbyszko. There is one man that he has left severely alone and that is Marin Plestina who appeared on the coast some time ago and has never been beaten. Many charges have been laid by Plestina's manager that Lewis is in the ring and is afraid to meet his protegee but nothing has ever come of it.

WEEK AT WESTHOLME

Monday and Tuesday.
All Star cast in "One Clear Call."
Comedy, Buster Keaton in "The Frozen North."
Wednesday and Thursday
Dorothy Dalton in "The Crimson Challenge."
Comedy.
Friday and Saturday.
Thomas Meighan and Agnes Ayres in "Cappy Ricks."
Comedy.
Christmas Day and Tuesday following:
Anita Stewart in "Rose of the Sea."
Mack Sennett Comedy "Calling a Cop."

"One Clear Call," said to be John M. Stahl's greatest picture production, comes to the Westholme Theatre Monday and Tuesday night. It is a story of the south and abounds with thrills and laughs. The film has an all star cast including Henry B. Walthall, Claire Windsor and Milton Sills.

Dorothy Dalton stars in the picture "The Crimson Call" at the Westholme Theatre Wednesday and Thursday. It was a sweeping romantic melodrama carrying those seeing it to a spot in the West where men and women live and love as they did in the golden days.

Any one who has not read Peter B. Kyne's famous Cappy Ricks stories is behind the times as far as good healthy interesting modern literature is concerned. The career of the unique old San Francisco skipper will be pictured at the Westholme Theatre at the weekend and should prove a very popular drawing card indeed. Thomas Meighan takes the role of Matt Peasley; Charles Abbe, Cappy Ricks, and Agnes Ayres, Florie Ricks.

The Westholme management has arranged a special bill for the holiday. On Christmas afternoon and evening "Rose of the Sea" with Anita Stewart in the stellar role will be exhibited. There will also be a Mack Sennett comedy.

Buster Keaton always makes is audience roar. He will do again at the Westholme tonight and tomorrow in "The Frozen North."

The government of Manitoba has decided to take the tax off children's theatre tickets up to 50c.

"The Man from Glengarry," Ralph Connor's famous book, which was recently made into a movie at Ottawa, had its first private exhibition at the ballroom of the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, recently. It is now now opening at all leading theatres in Canada.

STRONG STORY IS "ONE CLEAR CALL"

Eternal Triangle Receives Treatment That is Both Novel and Interesting.

A simple but strong dramatic story furnishes the theme for the new John M. Stahl production, "One Clear Call," which will be presented by Louis B. Mayer through First National at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow. Months of negotiation were required before Louis B. Mayer obtained the picture rights to this Frances Nimmo Greene book as arrangements had already been made for its production on the speaking stage. A record of those two cinema celebrities, price secured the dramatic rights to the book for the screen.

The plot of the photoplay is laid in a small town in Alabama where two men of strangely contrasting nature are in love with the same woman, who in turn is in love with one of the men but married to the other. The eternal triangle receives treatment that is both novel and new in the development of the story, winding up with a tremendous climax that will make people talk about it after the show is over. A great all star cast interprets the roles. Heading the list are Henry B. Walthall, Claire Windsor, Milton Sills, Irene Rich, Joseph Dowling, Shannon Day, Fred Kelsey, Annette DeFoe, and Nick Gogley.

DOROTHY DALTON'S ADVICE TO LADIES

Star of "The Crimson Challenge" Compiles List of "Don'ts on Hair"

Dorothy Dalton, star in the Paramount picture "The Crimson Challenge" which will be screened at the Westholme Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday has compiled the following don'ts for women who would have correct coiffures:

Don't use real flowers in the hair. They are in bad taste. Silver and gold leaves may be used for ornaments but should not be used in front.

Don't have the hair too full on the sides.

Don't have too much curl. A large loose, soft wave is better.

Don't have thick bangs.

Don't have too long a part. A two inch part is long enough.

Don't shampoo the hair too often. It takes all the life out of the hair. Once every six weeks is sufficient.

Don't bleach the hair.

By a coincidence, Miss Dalton was forced by the requirements of her role of a two-gun woman, in "The Crimson Challenge," to wear her hair short, and it was not without a pang that she made the sacrifice. In the story, Miss Dalton is a western girl who avenges the murder of her father in a series of tremendous dramatic scenes. Jack Mower is leading man and in the supporting cast are Frank Campeau, Clarence Burton and Irene Hunt.

MEIGHAN IS SAILOR IN "CAPPY RICKS"

Refreshing Picture of Sea, Based on Fact Around Frisco, Week-end Feature at Westholme Theatre

Thomas Meighan, athletic movie star, is a brawny sailor's mate in his latest starring vehicle, "Cappy Ricks," which will be the feature at the Westholme Theatre for two days beginning Friday next. As Matt Peasley in this refreshing picture of the sea, Mr. Meighan is said to have one of the best roles of his stellar career.

Mr. Meighan loves the sea and boats, and "Cappy Ricks" gives the star rare opportunities in sea scenes. The sea scenes were made in and near Boston and off the rocky Maine coast, where three sailing vessels and a tug, chartered by Paramount, were employed.

One scene of "Cappy Ricks" reveals a boat propelled toward the treacherous rocks by heavy seas and a high wind. A great risk was taken by the actors of this scene, as it was necessary to brave rough water and the possible danger of being stranded on the rocks.

Mr. Meighan and his crew learned something of navigation in "Cappy Ricks," for in the storm scenes the star had to pilot the tug which went to the rescue of the distressed vessel. Agnes Ayres is leading woman and heads a strong supporting cast.

MARY PICKFORD'S MOTHER BUYS HOME

Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, mother of those two cinema celebrities, Mary and Jack Pickford, has just purchased for herself a new homestead next door to the Pickford-Fairbanks home in Beverly Hills, Calif., and just across the road from the knoll on the crest of which the new Charlie Chaplin mansion is rapidly rising.

Mrs. Pickford has commissioned an architect to prepare plans at once for a residence which it

FORKE DOES NOT PROPOSE CHANGE

Progressive Leader Sees no Reason to Disturb Official Opposition—is Not Contemplated

WINNIPEG, Dec. 15.—"I don't see any reason why the official opposition in the federal house should be changed," declared Robert Forke, M.P., Progressive leader, in a long-distance telephone conversation from Pipestone with a local paper regarding the Toronto report that Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighan was "in danger of losing the official leadership of federal opposition with the annual stipend of $40,000 attached thereto."

"We can and always could have claimed this title. Our majority over the Conservatives at the last division of the House was 15," Mr. Forke said.

Asked whether a meeting of the Progressives would be called to consider the proposed change, Mr. Forke said no meeting was contemplated prior to the session.

C. W. Dawson left last week for Vancouver on a business trip.

Ralph Meyer of Vancouver is a guest of his sister who is on the hospital nursing staff.

A good deal of fur has been coming in recently and the prices are good.

Mrs. and Miss Peel left last week for Regina where they will make their home.

Miss Hanna of the public school left for the south on Thursday to spend Christmas in Vancouver.

Mrs. C. W. Dawson received word of the death of her father in Kansas city and left on Thursday to attend the funeral.

Leonard Winch returned from Edmonton on Sunday for Christmas. His brother Arthur is also returning from Vancouver.

Pete Neilson returned last week from Prince Rupert and Terrace where he spent some time visiting.

SMITHERS

Chas. Wilson, a rancher at Lake Kathlyn, is suing the Canadian National railways for the sum of $1000 as compensation for timber lost in one of the bush fires last summer, which is alleged to have been caused by the Railway Company. The case will come up before Judge Young in the County Court on December 21.

Dr. L. J. Benson, son of the late O. J. Benson who died recently in Vancouver, where he was representing the Smithers Mining Association at the Mining Convention, arrived on Thursday to look into matters relating to his father's affairs in this neighborhood.

Jack Adams, of Barrett Lake, sustained severe injuries to his head during a run-away accident and is here for medical attention.

"Pink Eye" is epidemic here just now, many children and not a few adults, being affected.
One can scarcely imagine an ailment with such a name being serious and fortunately it runs its course in about a week.

William Clark left this week for Toronto, where he will spend the winter.

It has been decided not to hold a community Christmas tree this year.

Enquiries are being made for George Mills who was living here during the past summer. It is said there is a question of a plurality of wives.

The work of the local school is somewhat disorganized owing to the illness of Miss Fetterly and Miss Chapman. Two divisions are now closed temporarily.

H. Piche, of Decker Lake, was a visitor here on Sunday.

Mrs. D. Lidstone and Mrs.
Harry Kilbreath, of Hanall, are registered at the Bulkeley Hotel.

TERRACE NOTES.

Mrs. A. C. Fowler has returned from Wenatchee, Wash., where she has been visiting her mother.

Miss Richmond, of New Hazelton, is visiting her father, James Richmond, this week.

Mrs. J. K. Gordon and Mrs. W.
J. Jones returned from Seattle
Wednesday night.

Terrace has experienced a very cold snap during the past week.
The thermometer registered 10 above, zero and high winds prevail making the cold very bitter.

Mrs. Andy Long has returned from Wenatchee where she has been visiting for the past couple of months.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church met on Wednesday at the home of their president, Mrs. T. J. Marsh, for a business discussion. Money was voted to pay off the debt on the new addition to the church and it was decided not to hold another meeting until after the New Year.

Gifts that will last!

Some Gifts last but a day;
others a month or two, or a short season at most; but a gift of Birks Diamonds gives pleasure for years and years to come.
It is a gift whose usefulness and intrinsic value are unchanging.
Note the values shown in our
Year Book.
