Arbitration Railway Wage Dispute

UNITED STATES ASKS RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT WITH BRITAIN

Railway Shopmen Strike Averted by Government Appointing Arbitrator

OTTAWA, July 28.—With the appointment of the Board of Arbitration to consider the question of wage reductions, the strike of the railway shopmen in Canada was averted last night. The strike would have been called by Sunday night if it was expected. Isaac Pitblado, K.C., of Winnipeg, has been appointed arbitrator representing the railway association of Canada. The chairman has not yet been named.

LIBRARY IS GIVEN USE OF BUILDING

Public Works Department Notified to Draw Up Lease.

The local public works department has received word from Hon. W. H. Sutherland, minister of provincial works in the provincial government, stating that the executive have decided to give the Prince Rupert Library board a twenty year lease of the building at the corner of Third Avenue and Fourth Street at $1.00 a year, the understanding being that in the event of the property being required for other purposes the building is to be removed at thirty days notice.

The Government has no legal authority to give the building to the Library without calling for tenders and the granting of the lease is for the purpose of getting over the technical difficulty.

GOVERNOR BYNG PASSES NORTH

With Official Suite Was Passenger on Princess Louise For Skagway

Without even observing the usual ceremony of blowing her whistle, the Canadian Pacific steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Arthur Slater, bearing His Excellency Lord Byng of Vimy, Governor General of Canada, Her Excellency Lady Byng, Lady Margaret Boscawen and other members of the vice-regal suite, steamed into port through the heavy fog at 8:45 this morning, sailing for the north again at 11 o'clock. Apart from the fact that the ship was gaily bedecked with flags strung from the mast heads to the decks, there was little to indicate that such distinguished passengers were aboard. Indeed they are travelling as ordinary passengers and are accommodated in the parlor suites of the steamer.

Took Short Walk
There were no ceremonies in connection with the visit for the Governor-General had expressed the wish that he be allowed to rest. However, shortly before the steamer pulled out Lord Byng, Lady Byng, Lady Boscawen and members of the staff were met by Fred Stork, M.P., Mayor Rochester, Col. J. H. McMullin, Mrs. Stork, Mrs. McMullin, Miss Constance McMullin and Miss Lorna Tite and given an informal reception. The visitors were taken for a short walk along the government wharf, where they saw the fishing fleet, and then up as far as Third Avenue to view the new provincial government buildings and the city in the distance.

The vessel made only one call en route north, the usual stop at Alert Bay.

The personnel of the Governor General's party is as follows: His Excellency Lord Byng, Her Excellency Lady Byng, Lady Margaret Boscawen, Capt. Oswald Balfour, secretary, Major Hodgson, Capt. Hon. F. W. Erskine, aide-de-camp, Capt. Hon. W. G. Jolliffe, aide-de-camp, two maids and a valet.

The party is going to Dawson and other points in the Yukon and will be back here officially on the Princess Alice, August 19.

Mr. Hughes will ask that arrangements be made unconditional on both sides.

MAJOR SID JOHNSTON WEDS MISS KINGHAM AT ST. MARY'S, OAK BAY

Smart Military Wedding Last Evening With Prince Rupert Man as Principal.

VICTORIA, July 28.—A smart military wedding was celebrated at St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay at 8 o'clock last evening, the principals being Miss Dorothy Kingham, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kingham of Belmont avenue and Major Sidney D. Johnston of Prince Rupert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, of Vancouver, the officiating clergyman was Colonel, the Rev. G. H. Andrews.

The Military character of the service was emphasized by the presence of two pipers and a military guard of honor comprised of thirty men of the 16th battalion in highland uniform. The bridegroom, a Veteran of the 6th battalion wore uniform as did his best man, Colonel Urquhart. The bridesmaids were Miss Agnes Kingham, sister of the bride and Miss Connie Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston left for Vancouver later in the evening en route for Prince Rupert where they will reside.

PINDER-MOSS IS DIRECTOR OF INSTITUTE

Received Appointment by Schoolboard and Commences Work of Organizing Immediately

At a meeting of the schoolboard Thursday evening, J. Pinder-Moss was appointed director of the new technical institute to be formed in northern British Columbia, his duties to commence at once. Mr. Pinder-Moss has already commenced preliminary work and it seems likely that before long Prince Rupert will have a series of technical and continuation classes under government and city auspices.

The scheme under which Mr. Pinder-Moss is engaged contemplates Anyox paying one third of the cost and Prince Rupert two-thirds. It is also possible that Burns Lake and Smithers may join in the benefits of the institute and that would lighten the cost of administration slightly.

Arrangements are being made for an office for the new organization and inquiries are already coming in regarding possible classes. The understanding is that classes will be formed in any subjects for which there is a demand from a sufficient number of pupils to pay the cost of an instructor provided such an instructor can be secured.

LEONARD BEST OF FIGHT GAME

Some Say That Go With Tendler Was a Draw But No Official Decision.

JERSEY CITY, July 27.—Benny Leonard and Lew Tendler fought a twelve round no decision bout tonight in which honors were slightly in favor of the champion in the final rounds. Sixty thousand people attended the gate receipts were $150,000.

JERSEY CITY, July 28.—The majority of the newspapermen gave Leonard slightly the better of the bout which was twelve rounds to no official decision. Some critics insisted that the bout was a draw.

Tendler opened with a fine exhibition and had the best of the first five rounds.

Leonard, bleeding and groggy, revived suddenly in the seventh and had the bout in hand most of the way thereafter.

Tendler is a left hander and Leonard admits he found him the toughest proposition yet.

CRANBROOK LINED UP READY FOR ELECTION

Two Candidate are in Field But Date Not Yet Set by Speaker

CRANBROOK, July 28.—The stage is now set for the contests in this constituency to fill the place of Hon. D. J. H. King, minister of public works in the Dominion cabinet. The nomination of John Taylor of Moyie by the Liberals and of N. A. Wallinger by the Conservatives, sets the ball rolling and it now remains for the speaker to set a date for the election and for the people to decide which candidate is to be chosen.

There is nothing here to indicate when the election will be held although it seems likely that a writ may be issued at any time.

GLACIER PARK, Mont., July 28.—Dr. Frank W. Wynn of Indianapolis, president of the American Alpine Club was killed in a 300 feet fall from a cliff in the national park. He was apparently seized with an apoplectic stroke, probably owing to the altitude of 10,000 feet and over exertion from climbing. He was 50 years old.

Word has been received in the city that 36 of the local pupils who tried the recent government entrance examinations were successful in passing. Ralph Spencer, of Port Simpson, was winner of the Governor General's medal for the district. Articulation results have not yet been received.

Tendency Of Governments To Cut Down Expenses.

The tendency of all governments today is to cut down expenses. There may be a few exceptions to the general rule, but keeping down expenses is the order of the day. This applies in federal, provincial and city governments. The period of excessive spending seems to be about over and it is time. If we go on at the rate we have been moving for the past few years we can end only in the bankruptcy court. There are already a number of bankrupt cities and municipalities. These places can no longer borrow a dollar no matter how badly the money is needed. They can only pay as they go.

The tendency in Prince Rupert is to spend money rather freely. This is the tendency of all elective bodies. A section of the people ask for improvements and they get them, no matter at what cost. Then there is always a reluctance, especially in a small place, to apply the pruning hook to departments in order to keep down expenses. It is the case here as elsewhere.

Must Keep Down To A Business Basis.

Municipal business must be run on the same basis as a private concern else the city is losing money. This is especially true when public utilities are being operated by the municipality. The same basis as a private concern is necessary. If this cannot be done, then the last argument in favor of public owning the utilities is gone.

South Vancouver got itself into financial difficulties from which it is slowly recovering only by means of having the affairs of the municipality conducted by a commissioner appointed by the Provincial Government. It has been bankrupt for a number of years. Possibly soon it may be in a position to again take charge of its own affairs but it will be unable to borrow for years to come.

Lumber Mill Cleanup Was Welcome News.

That there is to be a cleanup of the lumber mill affairs is welcome news to people who would like to see the local institution on its feet and once more producing. The notice of the sale published yesterday, proved most welcome news, for until the affairs of the concern are put on a good financial basis nothing can be done. Probably the purchasers of the properties will use them and it is even possible that the pulp mill may yet be erected here.

Much Building In B.C. Coast Cities.

Two coast cities, Vancouver and Victoria, are experiencing dull times and yet building is going on at each place with renewed energy. Evidently the people have faith in their towns or they would not build. Yet each of those places are comparatively suffering more from business conditions than is Prince Rupert.

While the present here is not very glowing, the future is bright and there is no reason to be the least worried over it. Last autumn we worried a lot about the coming winter and really there was nothing to worry about. The awful things did not happen. So it will be in the coming winter. The probability is that next winter will be much better than last.

A local merchant yesterday spoke of the dull times but also mentioned that after seeing what the businessmen in the south are doing he remarked that he would not trade his business for any of those in Vancouver outside of the big departmental stores.

MODERN CLINIC IN MEDICINE

Dr. W. T. Kergin Tells How They Do Things at Mayo Brothers Institution

BENEFIT OF EXPERTS

Four to Five Hundred Doctors Connected With Big Institution at Rochester

The development of the clinic in medicine with particular reference to the great institution established by Mayo Brothers at Rochester was the subject of an interesting and instructive address given yesterday at the Rotary luncheon by Dr. W. T. Kergin. After telling of the growth of the practice of medicine from the very early ages, the practice of surgery among the Egyptians, the systematizing of medicine under Hypocrates and the gathering of groups around successful practitioners and teachers and the gradual development of the hospital clinic, the doctor went on to tell of the Rochester institution.

Dr. Kergin said he had visited Rochester on a number of occasions, the first time being 15 years ago. At that time he found a small town of four or five thousand people where Doctors Will and Charles Mayo were conducting a clinic. There was in the place one country hotel and a good hospital conducted by the sisters of charity. A few doctors then visited the clinic.

The last visit was paid recently when he found numerous hotels, hospitals, paved and well lighted streets, and the town trebled or quadrupled in population. The increased population was almost entirely supported by the Mayo clinic which had become famous all over the world.

Outstanding Greatness

The Mayos had grown up in their home town. Their father was a doctor; died a few years ago at the age of 94 or 95. He was a man of outstanding greatness. He gave the world a great deal by helping to their present position two such sons. This was not unusual for Philip of Macedonia, he always considered, was a greater man than his son Alexander the Great in that he organized the expeditions and taught his son. So to Will Mayo senior was due much of the success of the Mayo clinic.

The secret of success was hard work done intelligently. Many doctors were content to secure their diplomas and then rest on their laurels. To the Mayos the diploma was just the right to commence work. They were still students and workers. The institution was built up gradually step by step. The men worked hard at their anatomy doing dissecting and mastering the intricacies of the human body. Once the concern was going it almost carried itself with its own momentum.

When asked what was the secret of his success, Will Mayo laughs and said it was because he went away often and when he came back people thought they had learned something. They did go away and they learn, Dr. Kergin said. Every year they went to some of the best surgeons in the world and learned something new.

Method of Diagnosis

The new clinic building used wholly for diagnosis and not for operating, cost half a million dollars. The patients were treated in the various hospitals.

In the clinic from 300 to 500 people would be seen waiting front eight o'clock in the morning until 5.30 in the afternoon. The patients were assigned to a doctor and then usually had to wait a day or more for their turn. The doctor went thoroughly into the case and gave him six to eight cards which admitted him to specialists in different departments of medicine. After possibly a day of waiting in each department the examinations would be complete and then the patient would return to the first man and the diagnosis would follow with all the information on hand and possibly in consultation with other doctors. About one third of all patients were turned away so far as surgery was concerned.

The value of the method was that each patient was given the advice of a specialist on each vital part of his body. This specialist had the time and opportu-

Many Doctors There

The Rochester work had given an impetus to the clinic work. There were from 400 to 500 doctors connected with the Mayo clinic. Each of these was able to make himself proficient in his particular line as a specialist. He worked regular hours with a day off each week in addition to Sundays, something which the country practitioner did not have. There were now many clinics, those near here being at Edmonton, Vancouver and Seattle. The method allowed a better and more complete analysis of a case and along this line he felt sure there would be great developments in the future. No man could hope to become proficient in every line, especially as the knowledge of the human body increased. While the completeness of the analysis was in favor of the clinic there was the disadvantage of not knowing the family history and experience of the patient. The surrounding facts often helped in making a diagnosis.

UNABLE TO WALK FOR A YEAR

Paralysis Entirely Relieved by "Fruit-a-lives"

The Wonderful Fruit Medicine

Paralysis is a break-down of the Nervous System and affects the victim in various ways. Sometimes, nervousness makes itself known by hysteria, insomnia, constant headaches, or it may be so bad that one is partially or completely helpless in some part of the body, just as Mrs. Heacock was.

SACIL SYE MARIE, ONT.

"When I was twenty-eight years of age, my doctor advised me to have an operation, which I did and it proved very serious, leaving me weak and unable to walk for a year. Seeing your "Fruit-a-lives" advertised in the papers, I decided to try them. I continued to use them regularly and today I am able to go about my home duties and care for my family".

MRS. J. W. HEACOCK.

Any form of Nervousness is often caused by, and is always aggravated by, Constipation, which poisons the blood, irritates the kidneys and inflames the nerves. "Fruit-a-lives" stimulates the action of liver and bowels, kidneys and skin—tones and sweetens the stomach—keeps the blood pure, and builds up the entire nervous system.

In a word, "Fruit-a-lives" has proved that it is the most scientific and effective remedy in the world for Nervousness or a disordered condition of the nervous system.

50c a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

The following persons took passage from here for the north on the Princess Louise this morning: D. O'Rourke, for White Horse, and E. M. Angell and Miss L. Edmundson, for Skagway.

Hon. W. R. Motherwell, federal minister of agriculture, will arrive in the city tomorrow on the steamer Prince Rupert. The minister is accompanied by Mrs. Motherwell, Miss Motherwell and Miss Gunning, secretary. There will be a Board of Trade luncheon at 1 o'clock in honor of Mr. Motherwell.

Capt. C. D. Neurowtsos, of Victoria, marine superintendent of the C. P. R. Coast Steamship Service, was a passenger through the city bound north on the Princess Louise today. Capt. Neurowtsos, on leaving here, was undecided whether he should continue the trip north on the Louise or transfer to the Princess Alice at Ketchikan tonight.

A TALE OF SUFFERING FROM RUSSIAN DOCTOR LIVING MOSCOW CITY

Life of Beasts Declares Eminent Physician—Change of Ideals.

LONDON, July 27.—Pathetic letters are received here every day from prominent Russians in Moscow and other large Soviet centers depicting the plight of the population under the present regime. Writing to one of the London newspapers Professor Christevitch, an eminent physician, says that everyone is anxious to come to Europe or America to see how human beings live.

"We are living a life of beasts," says the latter, "and we think only of wood and food. We are cut off from all civilized life and sympathizing people. You cannot, perhaps, understand how heavy life is without intellectual impressions, without books and newspapers and friendly conversations.

Hardened by Suffering.

"Our hearts are so hardened by sufferings and losses that deaths of friends and relations make no more impression upon us than trivial events. Nevertheless we continue to hope to be human beings again. In the old Czarist days my wife and I longed for political freedom. Today my wife's ideal is to have a pair of stockings at 2,000,000 rubles a pair.

"We are all alive. That is the principal thing these days. We sold all our things in the hope to buy new ones when we moved from Kazan to Petrograd, but we ate all our money. We are very rich now in Russia, but only in numerals. You see that the stamp upon this letter cost 100,000 rubles. A loaf of bread costs three times that.

"We live, and we are satisfied that we live, and that the winter has passed. I fear to give you all the news for it is such a long list of dead from maladies and ruin."

ANYOX BASEBALL TEAM IS COMING

Elks From Smelter Town Will Play Local Lodge Men on August 9.

It was decided at a committee meeting of the Elks' Lodge last night to bring the Anyox Elks' baseball team here on August 9 for a game with a local Elks' team on that evening. The visitors, it is expected, will arrive on the Cheloshin on Tuesday and return north on the Prince George Wednesday night. They are also to be asked to bring down one or two men for boxing contests, which will be held at a smoker on the night preceding Flag Day. It is pointed out by the committee that the ball game and smoker will be separate altogether from Flag Day and Flag Day funds will not be used in financing the visit. A committee, consisting of Harry Lipsett, R. V. G. Lepine and Ben Self, was delegated to look after the ball game and smoker.

There will also be a night shift parade on Tuesday night in which most of the Flag Day committee men will appear in dishabille. C. Welch is chairman of the Flag Day finance committee and a parade to be held that day will be in charge of Chief A. C. Minty, Chief W. H. Vickers and Chief D. H. McDonald.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS ARE SUSPENDED FOR VIOLATING RULES

The Board of Control of the Football Association met last night and considered referees' reports on the recent games between the Sons of England, in the league and the Callies vs. the Sons of Canada, in the Dominion Day Cup final, of which Sid Thompson and Dave Gray were the respective referees. On account of infringements of the playing regulations reported, action was taken in suspending Jimmie Farquhar and George Shaw for one game and Harry Menzies and Ed. Ross for four games.

HISTORIC CASTLE IS OFFERED FOR SALE

LONDON, July 28.—Tantallon Castle in North Berwick, for centuries the stronghold of the Douglases, is to be sold this summer.

In Sir Walter Scott's "Marion" the battlements of the Tantallon are the meeting place of Clare and her lover. Around its walls many fierce battles have been fought. At one time the castle was besieged by King James V., who failed to make a breach in its 12 feet walls and started out the garrison. Later it was the scene of the onslaught by Cromwell and the Conquerors.

LORD ABERDEEN LOSES STORY TELLING CONTEST

Laurel Wreath Won By Sir James Taggart at Rotary Meeting.

LONDON, July 27.—A unique story-telling contest was held at Aberdeen recently between the Marquis of Aberdeen and Temair, a former Governor-General of Canada, and Sir James Taggart, a former Lord Provost of Aberdeen. The Marquis of Aberdeen and Temair had challenged the Rotary Club of the Scottish city to set up the Club's two best men against him in the competition, but he found one was more than his match, as Sir James Taggart won by 69 votes to Lord Aberdeen's 13. The story-telling match was held at a luncheon of the Aberdeen Rotary Club.

Sir James Taggart led off with a story about his opponent. Once he said, when Lord Aberdeen was attending the assemblies in Edinburgh, he was walking along High Street. A drunken man knocked up against him and was harshly rebuked by a policeman, who said: "Do you know that you have run into the Marquis of Aberdeen and Temair?"

"Good Lord," the man exclaimed, "am I as bad as that? Is there two of them?"

Lord Aberdeen's first story was of a parish minister who was rebuking a shepherd for leaving his kirk and going to worship elsewhere.

"You are a shepherd, Donald, and so am I," he said. "And you would not like to see any of your sheep going to pastures they did not belong to."

"Weel, sir," replied Donald, "I dinna ken that I would object to the grass (grass) wis better."

The Case of Whiskey.

One of Sir James Taggart's stories was about a case of whiskey that arrived at a country station for the minister. The porter telephoned: "There's a case for you."

The minister, who expected a consignment of books, replied: "Let it lie till tomorrow."

The porter did not wish the minister to know that he was aware of the nature of the case. After some cogitation he had an inspiration. He said to the minister, "You had better get it at once, the case may be leaking tomorrow."

The distinguished story-tellers told yarns alternately, amid peals of laughter from the Rotarians present. The amusing affair as pre-arranged, was concluded by Sir George Adam Smith, principal of Aberdeen University, crowning the victor with a laurel wreath.

T. Hale arrived from Vancouver on the Princess Louise this morning and will spend a short time in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Orchard.

HALIFAX BOY SAVES THREE FROM DROWNING

Recently Dived off Wharf and Pulled Out Five Year Old Youngster.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 28.—Harry McDonald, a twelve year old lad living at Fairview, on the outskirts of Halifax has saved three people from drowning within the past three years.

His latest feat was the saving recently of five year old Teddy Moller when the small boy fell through a hole in a Fairview wharf. Young McDonald had to dive over the wharf and swim a distance of twenty feet among piles. The young Moller was going down for the third time and was unconscious when reached, but McDonald clutched him and then holding to one of the piles directed the remainder of the saving operations. These were carried out with the aid of a cod line passed down from the wharf.

Questioned about his first life saving exploit Harry said: "Aw it wasn't nuthin' at all. The O'Brien kid what lives on Stanley Street, fell off a raft down by the wharves and I went in and pulled him out."

The description of the second exploit when he secured Arthur Metham was: "He was my chum. So I had to get him back."

It was not until after his first two rescues that the young life saver learned to swim. In the first instance he plunged after the "O'Brien kid" into the water over his head, and managed somehow to get back to the raft. In the second he went to his chum's rescue partially supported by a stick.

Harry is depicted as a "regular boy," even to having the proverbial "yaller dog." One of Harry's ambitions is to become a sea scout.

BARN WAS LOST BUT FOUND DISTANCE AWAY

Says the special correspondent of the Toronto Globe at Elmira: Perhaps the most fantastic story comes from the farm known as the old Craig homestead, where the barn is reported to have been picked up and carried away bodily to such a distance that for some time it appeared to be lost, and was only discovered after a considerable search had been conducted.

The peculiarity of this storm, as well as of the cyclone of last week, was its intensive local character. While heavy damages were being inflicted a few miles away, the citizens of Elmira did not notice any particular disturbance in the town at all. Those who were present at these windstorms and are acquainted with the prairie cyclones report that their manifestations are of a very similar character.

PAINT NAPOLEON'S HOME ISLAND OF SAINT HELENA

PARIS, July 28.—The French government having been persuaded to allot $125,000 for the purpose, Napoleon's last home, on the Island of St. Helena, is to have a new coat of paint. It needs it, for the last coat was spread on eight years ago.

The old house, at Longwood, is under the care of the French Minister of Domain. He it was who induced the government to make the financial allotment. The new coloring will be exactly as in Napoleon's time, light grey for the house itself, with the shutters, cornices and doors in olive green and dark brown.

POOR BASEBALL LAST EVENING

Sons of Canada Beat Knights of Columbus by Score of 23 to 7.

Sons of Canada 23, Knights of Columbus, 7.

It sounds like the result of a Junior League game but it isn't. Instead, it is the sum of the runs made in last night's Senior League match.

Two hundred and fifty fans climbed Acropolis Hill and saw for their two-hits each the sloppiest game of baseball of the season, as far as the Catholics were concerned at any rate. Harry Astoria pitched poor ball but the support he received was a whole lot poorer. The Sons batters lammed them out towards left field and found so many holes that it became monotonous for players and fans alike.

Mad Racing Begins.

In the first frame Farquhar and Menzies, for the Sons struck out, Curtis got first hit and on bases when W. Anderson batted straight to short and went down. For the Knights Wakefield, L. Moore and Hill were struck out in short order. In the second, the mad racing around the sacks by the Sons commenced. Scott and Roy got on bases and were scored when Charlton sacrificed. R. McDaniels was struck out and Astoria should have found no difficulty. However, through a series of errors, Eady, Farquhar, Menzies, Curtis and Anderson all scored before Charlton was put out at first and the

TWIN SUNS ARE DISCOVERED BY VICTORIA MAN

Dr. Plaskett of Dominion Observatory, Saanich Mountain, Explores Heavens.

VICTORIA, July 27.—Twin suns, fifty-two quadrillions of miles from the earth, have been discovered by Dr. J. S. Plaskett, astronomer at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory here, through the observatory's big 72-inch reflector telescope.

Scientific Herald the discovery of the outstanding astronomical achievement of recent times, the suns have been named Plaskett after their discoverer.

The light, which, traveling at the rate of 186,000 miles a second, started from these suns 900 years before there was any credible human history on this earth, is reaching here only today.

An aeroplane traveling from the earth at the rate of 200 miles an hour would require 30,000 million years to reach these suns.

Immense Size.
They burn at a temperature of 10,000 degrees Fahrenheit, as they whirl around one another, the more massive, is seventy-five times the bulk of our sun; the larger is sixty-three times heavier.

One is 15,000 times as bright as the sun, the other 12,000 times as bright—comparisons that entirely numb the imagination. Plaskett is more than five times as large as any other known heavenly body.

"We cannot always convey intelligently to the lay mind the grasp we sometimes get on things infinite," said Professor Harold Jacoby of Columbia University, noted astronomical authority, when he learned of the Plaskett discovery.

Immense Distance.
"Ten thousand light years is some distance away and the light from this great double star has taken some time to reach this planet. It started long before man was able to conceive the thought so ably expressed by the psalmist over 3,000 years ago when he sang 'A Thousand Years in Thy Sight is But as yesterday,' but its spectrum recorded on photographic plates tells us more about its existence than we ever could have revealed to us in any day.

"The measurements recorded by Dr. Plaskett must be accepted as most accurate. His consistent and painstaking photographing of its spectra has given us the speed of the brighter stars, as well as the exact time taken by both to revolve around each other."

Reliable Investigator.
"Most remarkable investigation and discovery, it is outstanding among recent astronomical investigations and all the more remarkable for emanating from such a reliable investigator and sky explorer as Dr. Plaskett, of Victoria."

Public announcement of the discovery is made to the world through The New York Herald.

"The discovery if such it may be called, is not of the star itself, for this has been catalogued and its position known for at least seventy years, but of its exceptional properties," Dr. Plaskett said.

Ancient Negro Replies in Kind to Banter of Tourist

A tourist seated outside a hotel in Florida was watching a porter as he swept the floor.

Deftly but slowly the man made little piles of the scattered cigarette ends, half-burnt matches and litter which had accumulated the night before. The morning was rather warm, and clouds were gathering in the sky.

"Sambo," said the tourist, "don't you think there is an excessive amount of humidity in the atmosphere today?"

"Wha's dat?" exclaimed the negro, wiping the perspiration from his face.

"I was merely extending an interrogation to learn if you thought it was going to rain," answered the tourist.

"Well, I never," said the porter, sadly. "Does you reckon I would be wastin' my time pushin' dis broom if I had sense enuff to prognosticate de precipitation?"

BASEBALL BUNTS (By One of The Fans)

The betting among fans last evening was as to how many degrees of temper Harry Astoria could carry without bursting.

If he wasn't mad, he isn't human.

The Knights missed the steady influence of Donohue and his gentle admonishments.

What a lot of people were wondering why it was necessary for the "Oh Baby" to be heard so constantly.

Someone remarked that the game was a chapter of accidents, but other observers thought it was a whole library full of them.

The Knights of Columbus fans were out in force last night, but you would have hardly known it if you had not seen them there.

The Knights were out of form and they knew it. That was the difficulty.

If blunders you make
'Tis easy to err;
We all make mistakes
More or less I aver;
Get Downy to kick you,
Else your conscience will prick you,
And then play again—say next year.

side went down. The knight in their first half could again do nothing. At the end of the second it was 7 to 9.

The third brought two more runs for the Sons; the fourth, six, the fifth one, the sixth, one, the seventh, four, the eighth, one and the ninth one. The play was poor all the way and it soon became a joke. Eady made the round trip in the fourth when the ball was lost in right field.

The Knights were unable to even get to first until the fourth inning when they scored twice. One more run would in the extra before a smart double play from Eady to Charlton to Curtis terminated their innings. Mainly through Curtis' continual dropping of the ball behind the bat they gathered in four in the seventh.

Few Bright Spots.
There were very few bright spots on the Knights' lineup and Hamilton, behind the bat, was the only player who gave his team anything like service. Astoria showed signs of improvement toward the end but he received little encouragement in the field. Haudenschild proved a dismal failure at third and was replaced by Greenwell.

The Sons had little opportunity to show much. Anderson was playing a fine game at short and Hughie Scott, in centre field, picked up two or three nice flies. Eady pitched good ball for the Sons and the Knights offered him very few problems. The Canadian fielding was of good tight quality and very little got through. There was nothing to it, the Sons just overwhelmed the Knights who played their worst game of the season.

The teams were as follows:
Sons of Canada—Farquhar, 3b; H. Menzies, 2b; H. Curtis, c; W. Anderson, ss; H. B. Scott, cf; A. Roy, rf; H. B. Charlton, 1b; B. McDaniels, rf; G. Eady, p.

Knights of Columbus—L. Wakefield, 1b; L. Moore, ss; G. Hill, 2b; Dr. Douglas, cf; F. Henning, rf; R. Moore, lf; Hamilton, c; S. Haudenschild, 3b; H. Astoria, p; R. Greenwell, 3b; after seventh.

P. Laporte was umpire and Jack Hatchford, base umpire.

Ben Self has received a letter from Fred Cameron, manager of the Ocean Falls baseball team inviting a local team to go down there for an inter-town game or series. The guarantee of $300 to assist defraying expenses of the trip is offered. The letter has not yet come officially before the baseball governing bodies but Ben intends to turn it over. If the series is arranged it could possibly be made a preliminary play-off for the Self Northern B. C. championship shield now held by Prince George. However, there has been nothing yet proposed as regards Prince George or Anyox. Anyox has a cracker-jack good ball club this year, it is said, which would be a favorite in copping off the shield if the games can be arranged. An outing for the local boys is about due and the Ocean Falls bid should prove attractive. The paper town has a very sports' field of which it is just proud.

Perhaps Ty Cobb is convinced in his own mind, after seventeen years as star in the American League, that he is slowing up but George Sisler, the marvel-player of the St. Louis Browns, whose batting honors Cobb is threatening today, is positive that the "Georgia peach" will be his most dangerous rival for the 1922 batting championship. The race is now narrowed down to eleven points between the two with Sisler setting a 315 pace. Though Sisler has been falling back in batting slightly during the past week or so he has been showing his worth in base stealing and scoring having registered at the plate 72 times and having stolen 34 bases, the best base stealing performance in the Major Leagues.

The date of the Canadian National Track and Field championship meet at Calgary is fast approaching, the big events being scheduled to open on August 12 at Victoria Park. The program of events and prize lists have reached the city. The entries must be in by August 7. Almost every kind of individual sport is on the list and the prizes are handsome ones. Besides the races and jumping, tug of war, etc, there are to be bagpipe and dancing competitions. The winners will be recognized champions of Canada.

MAHATMA GANDHI GETS EXCELLENT TREATMENT AT BOMBAY PRISON

Allowed to Receive Visitors And to Write Any Number of Letters

BOMBAY, July 28.—That Mahatma Gandhi has been receiving every possible consideration from the authorities of the Sabarmati jail, where he is confined, is evident from the reports of the many friends who have visited him there. Gandhi spends at least half an hour each day in spinning, and is devoting his remaining energy to literary work. He is allowed to have his own food brought to him. Goat's milk, toast, oranges and raisins constitute his usual diet.

One who visited Gandhi in jail recently describes his life there as follows: "Ever since his arrest, the authorities have been very kind and considerate. They place no restrictions on interviews, but grant as many as it is possible to arrange for. At these interviews, either the superintendent or the jailer is present.

Sits On Veranda
"Gandhi sits on the veranda in front of his cell with a quilt on the floor and with two pillows at his back, in the same style as in his own home. Visitors are taken inside the jail, and Gandhi receives them on his veranda. They discuss all sorts of questions, no restrictions being made as to the subjects for conversation.

"The Mahatma is allowed to receive all his letters, and even to reply to them, with the condition that the letters are countersigned and passed by the superintendent.

"The prisoner's usual food consists of goat's milk, toast, oranges and raisins. These are brought to him three times a day. Several months ago Gandhi made a vow not to take his second meal without spinning for at least an hour. He has been able to observe this, even while in jail.

"I was really surprised to see the progress he has made in spinning. Last year, when he was in the Punjab, he was a mere novice, hardly turning out yarn of five counts. But now he has improved so much that he not only spins faster but the yarn is of 25 to 30 counts. I do not think there will be any difficulty for the government in providing him the staple food he wants, as it will not cost the authorities any more than they are prepared to spend on an ordinary prisoner.

Breaks No Regulations
"One noticeable fact was that at no time did he break any of the jail regulations. If he is treated differently, it is not due to any request on his part, but due rather to the initiative of the authorities themselves, who are very courteous and anxious to oblige.

"He was always cheerful, and looked upon his arrest as a matter for great rejoicing to the country. To all questions as to what would happen in the future, he gave the answer that non-cooperation, if carried on properly, was bound to succeed.

"Gandhi intends to devote much of his time to writing about his past experiences. He may even write an autobiography. His immediate task in this line is the writing of a pamphlet on the movement in South Africa."

GREEKS CULTIVATE TURKISH FRIENDSHIP

Occupation of Adrianople Brings Prosperity to Inhabitants of That City

ADRIANOPLE, July 28.—Adrianople, which has been one of the barriers to peace between the Greeks and Turks, has become a thriving city under Greek military occupation. The Turkish shopkeepers and traders never were so prosperous. The Greeks have decorated every store with a Greek sign, whether the owner be Greek, Turk or Armenian.

The Hellenic army commanders have ordered their men to cultivate the friendship of the Turkish population, but while the Turks have profited commercially from the presence of the army their strong sense of patriotism and nationalism would rather see the Greeks driven out. For by centuries of history and association Adrianople, once their capital, is as dear to them as Constantinople.

Much Poverty
Except from a strategic point of view, Adrianople really is of little importance. It is a typical Turkish city, with its narrow streets, open bazaars, ill smells, dirt and indolence. Its houses are of wood, plaster and mud, and give the impression that if they are not soon burned up they will fall down. There is much poverty and misery which American Relief workers are trying to ameliorate. American automobiles and motor trucks, bearing Greek army officers or supplies, rush through the muddy streets. In the midst of the bustle are the tall, loose-limbed, shiftless Turks, lounging about the streets, coffee drinking and day dreaming.

The Allies gave Greece a mandate to administer Thrace, of which Adrianople is the capital, for a period of years, but many of the inhabitants, especially the Bulgarians, are hopeful the United States may yet be induced to take an administrative and paternal interest in Thrace.

If you are leaving for a holiday it is well to keep in touch with Prince Rupert by having a copy of the Daily News mailed to you every day.

SEEING PIGS

Magistrate Says Witnesses Must be Sure of What They See

WINNIPEG, July 28.—When bad eyesight and pigs combine to cause trouble, even although the combination does not mean a "blind pig," they may cause the courts of justice a great deal of trouble and magistrates may have to go back to the law as laid down by Solomon in an attempt to unravel the mass of contradictory evidence placed before them.

"Pigs is pigs," or they may not be pigs at all, was the decision reached by Magistrate Albert Dubuc, in St. Boniface police court when he dismissed a charge of assault brought by Mrs. Clara Levi, of Lorette, against a neighbor woman, Mrs. T. Drevant.

Remonstrated
Mrs. Levi, who is an elderly woman and very near-sighted, in fact nearly blind, claimed Mrs. Drevant's pigs had wandered into her garden and had dug up her potatoes. She said that when she remonstrated and notified the accused to keep her pigs "at home," Mrs. Drevant struck her with a stick. The charge was most emphatically denied by Mrs. Drevant who swore her pigs were well behaved and did not wander into the neighbor's gardens. In fact her porkers were right under her very eyes and were wallowing in the dust on the roadside when Mrs. Levi claimed they were in her potato patch.

"I want you to go home and live in a friendly manner like good neighbors," said the magistrate, "there may have been pigs in Mrs. Levi's garden, but on the other hand the plaintiff is very near-sighted and she may have seen pigs where there actually were not pigs."

No Uncertain Language
Mrs. Drevant admitted Mrs. Levi was a "good woman" and the compliment was reciprocated and both parties shook hands before leaving court, but as they were going out the two women told each other in no uncertain language what they would do to each other, including scratching each other's eyes out, if ever the pigs again invaded the garden or the accused called the plaintiff any bad names.
